TODAY'S OPPONENTS - KIRRIE THISTLE

GROUND: Westfield Park.

NICKNAME: The Jags

MANAGER: Alex Brash

COLOURS: Blue & White

SPONSORS: Kirrie JFC Social Club

COACHES: Eddie Loudon & Jimmy Anderson

Today we welcome Kirrie Thistle to the Canniepairt for our second league game against the Jags this season. At Westfield Park in August, Thistle gave us one of our hardest games of the season to date, before going down 2-1 to goals from Dave Reilly and Kevin Lynch.

At that time Kirrie looked to have a reasonable season ahead of them but things haven't quite worked out that way. They occupy second bottom spot in the league with only a solitary victory over bottom club East Craigie to their credit. Of their defeats, however, five have been by the odd goal and they have failed to score only once in their last seven league games.

If manager Alex Brash, the ex-Forfar Athletic and Raith Rovers stalwart, has his troops psyched up as he did in the opening game of the season, then Kirrie will be looking for some return from their visit.

Several faces in the Kirrie camp will be well known to the home crowd. As well as Bruce Burnett, last year's manager of Tayport's amateur team, Jimmy Anderson, is on the Kirrie backroom staff. Ex Forfar and East Fife midfielder Billy Gallacher was out with both Tayport Juniors and Amateurs prior to joining his ex teammate, Brasher at Kirrie. Also at Tayport previously was Mark Alexander who made his debut for the Amateurs in 1980 as a 15 year old before turning Senior with Forfar Athletic. Mark won't want to remember his last visit to the Canniepairt. He was sent off here last season while wearing the colours of Blairgowrie

Probably being used as a substitute today will be Stevie Graham. The veteran former Forfar and Brechin City striker was Tayport Amateurs top scorer last season. Both Graham and Gallacher successfully applied to S.F.A. for reinstatement to the amateur grade following knee surgery.

Kirrie lost their interest in this year's OVD Scottish Cup last Saturday at home to Maybole, a 0-4 scoreline flattering the Ayrshire side by all accounts, and will looking to bounce back today. This will be Thistle's first away game in two months.

PRESS COMMENT

" Tayport go forward to the 3rd round of the OVD Cup with a scoreline which flatters them after what was, by their standards, an off colour performance "

- Fife Herald 4/12/92 (Tayport 3 Benburb 0)

" Benburb deserved some reward for their hard work but a double strike put Tayport through "

- Sunday Post 29/11/92

" Despite the bonehard conditions, Tayport opened the game at 100 mph pace and soon had the Carnoustie goal under seige"

- Carnoustie Guide & Gazette 28/11/92 (Tayport 5 Carnoustie 3)

Juniors

Look who runs the line at Tayport

AMBITIOUS Tayport are rolling out the red carpet for a VIP fan - athletics golden girl Liz McColgan.

The track queen is a regular at the Tayside club's Canniwart ground with husband Peter.

And she's got daughter: Elisha into football early by taking her along too.

But then they do have a vested interest in Tayport's chase for honours... Liz's brother Kevin is a mainstay of the side.

Kevin, who once played for Arbroath, joined Tayport in the summer. And Liz said: "I've been going as often as possible. It's about 24 miles from my house - but I don't run it."

"At first when I went up I got a few strange looks as people obviously wondered if it was me."

"But they all expect me to be there now and it's nice just to go and watch a game of football without people making a fuss."

"The worst part is when Elisha sees her Uncle Kevin getting hurt. She gets a bit upset, but I know he can look after himself."

"He transforms when he pulls on a football shirt."

"I used to go and watch Dundee United when I was a wee girl and it's nice to go and see games when I can."

Secretary Albert Oswald said: "When commitments allow, Liz brings the family - plus her father and father-in-law."

"She's been great for the club. Two months ago, we organised our annual fun run and she kindly came along to present the prizes."

"That's just the kind of support Tayport need as they strive to get up among the big boys of the junior game."

After years as a successful amateur side, they are into their third season in the juniors.

They've already taken the game by storm - last season they reached the last eight of the Scottish Cup, won the First Division of the Tayside league and lifted two cups.

TAYPORT'S VIP FANS... Peter and Liz McColgan

DURING the summer, they toured Diadora League side Wincoboe Town 2-1. Their good form has carried on this season with just one defeat in 16 games.

The club's resurgence has been all the more remarkable when you consider their bad spell of injuries during that time.

But former Montrose centre-half Hamish McKay has shown his versatility by moving up front and scoring TWELVE times.

And they have some revolutionary ideas for the junior game, as Albert Oswald explains. "We believe a Super league based on the pyramid system, used in English non-league football is the way forward."

"Everyone needs stimulation and it depresses us that some clubs are only in the game to survive."

"If you took clubs from Tayside, Arbroath, Central, East of Scotland, Fife and the North and devised a joint set-up, it would attract supporters."

"We for one would find it just as easy to travel to Dunfermline as we do to Perth."

THE BAKER'S BIT

We are back on league duty this week with Kirrie Thistle providing the opposition. I'd like to extend a welcome to their players and officials and a good afternoon to our supporters.

I don't think that I have to remind our fans and the players of our last encounter. It was the first game of the season and we came home from Kirrie with two points, a result which rather flattered us on the day. I'm sure that if I had been their manager, I'd have been more than disappointed to have taken nothing from the game.

Since that close encounter the fate of both clubs seems to have gone in opposite directions. We've since gained a further 23 points to Kirrie's 4. As Greavsie would say "It's a funny old game, Saint!"

The last couple of weeks has seen us gain a 3-0 victory in the Scottish Cup v Benburb and then last week have no game. After a morning inspection the referee decided that the pitch was unplayable (at 9.30am) As fate would have it, the sun shone and, by all accounts, the surface was perfect by kick off time. We'll have to push for referees to be issued with crystal balls!

Getting back to the Benburb game, like the Kirrie game I've got to be honest and say that the scoreline flattered Tayport. Our game never got off the ground. We seemed to start nervously and never managed to get out of third gear.

I said to the players at half time an early goal would see Benburb throw in the towel but as the minutes ticked on, the more they began to believe in themselves until Dave Reilly's free kick relieved the tension. After that what I said at half time bore fruit and their heads dropped. We scored again and I stopped asking Robbo the time and we made it into the next round

After the game some of our supporters commented that the players looked as if they had lost instead of just notching up a 3-0 victory. I can explain that. The players have a pride in their performance, as I do, and we all felt that we'd let ourselves down and our standards drop. Personally, I see nothing wrong with that.

Last Saturday I spent a very frustrating morning trying to find opposition to come to the Canniepairt for a rearranged game but I'm afraid no one seemed keen. As a last resort we tried numerous teams from Fife and Tayside, Junior and Amateur to play a friendly, but to no avail.

However the day wasn't wasted as we arranged a good competitive training match, Blues v Reds or Men v Boys!. The good thing to come out of it was that we now know that the man in black, Mr Thoms (Dundee), will referee another game at Tayport over my dead body! Six of the Boys' eight goals were definitely offside and we had three blatant penalties turned down. On the serious side, it gave players like Sean Wilkie and Grant Cushnie much needed match practice.

I feel today's game can go one of two ways. I know that we have quality players but that in itself is not enough. We must match or better our opponents' determination. If we do this then I've no doubt of the outcome of today's game. The other way is to be unprofessional, then we'll struggle.

Support the 'Port,

Dave Baikie.

The draw for the 3RD ROUND of the OVD SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP will be held tomorrow afternoon in the Hill o' Beath Social Club.

WHY DIDN'T YOU PHONE US, WALTER?

We experienced a frustrating Saturday afternoon last week. With the match at Arbroath SC postponed, there we were, all dressed up and nobody to play. Yet, only six miles away, Rangers Reserves, desperate for a game, arrived at Tannadice to have their game put off at 2.00pm. Rangers would have filled the bill nicely and, as one wag was heard to say, 'that's the one thing that would have got Clarke Mitchell out of the Pondy' !

FACE TO FACE

In the Kirrie line up for today's game will be Tayportian BRUCE BURNETT who joined the Angus club earlier this season after playing 399 games and scoring 264 goals for Tayport Amateurs. Bruce played with the Juniors at the end of last season but wasn't resigned for this season. Port Prog took the opportunity of asking Bruce about his career.

Bruce Burnett
in his younger days
with Tayport Amateurs

PP- You must have had some good memories from your years with Tayport Amateurs.

BB- Yes, many but two that spring to mind are the Scottish Cup semi at Dens and scoring six goals at Croda Star en route to Dens.

PP- You must have played alongside some good players in that time.

BB- One of the best I've played with was Kenny Cameron.

PP- You turned down the chance to play with Tayport Juniors when they started up.

BB- Yes, that's right. I opted to play bowls instead of pre-season training. On reflection it's probably the biggest mistake I've made in football.

PP- Things didn't go too well for the Amateurs last season. What do you put that down to?

BB- We were in a rut. There was a lack of competition for places and no ambition.

PP- You were signed by Dave Baikie at the end of last season.

BB- Yes, I enjoyed my brief spell with the Juniors and was disappointed not to be retained.

PP- How did you end up at Kirrie?

BB- Well, wasn't at all impressed by the Amateurs' new manager and joined Riverside Athletic. However the team boss there, Peter Cuthill, claimed that I wasn't fit and stuck me in the reserves. Kirrie had previously expressed an interest in taking me up there so I got in touch with Jimmy Anderson and signed up.

PP- Are you enjoying your time at Kirrie?

BB- Yes. It's a fairly well run club and I've managed to get one or two goals.

PP- It's been a disappointing time generally for Kirrie as far as results are concerned. What do you put that down to?

BB- We train hard and we're playing well enough but not getting the breaks. In several games we've been looking good but then suffer a late collapse.

PP- Can you avoid the drop?

BB- Yes, the players genuinely believe that we're not going down. We've got a few four pointers to play but we can start by picking up the points today!

PP- Your father, Sid, and brother in law John are two of Tayport's most enthusiastic supporters. This must have given rise to some banter in the Burnett clan this week.

BB- You bet! That pair will be shouting for Tayport today but Mum, sister Brenda, wife, Jackie and son Christopher will be cheering on Kirrie.

PP- After the Juniors do you see yourself back at Tayport Amateurs?

BB- You never know!

PP- You're in your 32nd year now. Do you not regret turning Junior sooner?

BB- No, not really. I enjoyed myself in the amateurs and played in some great teams alongside some great players.

PP- Who was the best manager that you played under at Tayport Amateurs?

BB- Bobby Waddell

PP- Thanks, Bruce, but we hope that it's Sid and John who are smiling at half past three

PRESS COMMENT

" Cold place, no food, no toilets, no cover. Unbelievably we've got to pay to get in. Possibly the worst pitch in Western Europe..."

- Fulton One Nil, the Pollok fanzine's 'Voyages of Discovery' article on St Anthony's ground, Moore Park, Govan. 5/12/92

" Supremos Dave Young and Peter Marr made no secret of the fact that the ultimate aim is to win the Scottish Junior Cup..."
