ALL CHANGE IN THE PUB BUSINESS

January saw two of the four Tayport public houses change hands. Tayport FC's treasurer took over the license at the Tayport Arms and kenspeckle figure Andy Phin became mine host at Cobbies Inn. Port Prog took the opportunity of having a word with Andy about his new challenge.

- Q. What made you think of taking over a pub at an age when most are thinking about retirement? A. I'm young at heart. I may look a trifle older but I only feel 30!
- Q. Any plans to change the name of the pub. It's always been spelt wrongly anyway? A. I may consider something later but not at the moment
- Q. Plans for the pub in the short term? A. Try to do something with the lounge. Make it a bit more customer friendly.
- Q. What about the long term? A. I'm supposed to retire next year so I've not given that any thought!
- Q. What sort of clientele are you aiming for? A. Mature and sensible.
- Q. What's business been like so far? A. Very good. Delighted with the way things have gone so far, especially at this time of the year.
- Q. Brief resume of your career prior to getting into the pub business? A. Served my time as a cobbler before spending 14 years in the heating business.
- Q. What about your career in the pub business? A. I've worked in all the Tayport pubs. Two years as manager of the Auld Hoose, eight years as manager in the Tayport Arms and three years in the Bellrock from where I moved to Cobbies last month. Before these posts I worked part time in the Scotsraig Bowling Club and the now defunct Royal British Legion Club.
- Q. Who'll be working in the pub apart from yourself? A. Wife Janet, son Crawford and a couple of part-timers.
- Q. What's your policy as far as drink brands are concerned? A. I've got Tennents beer and lager but I've got the opportunity to bring in a cask-conditioned guest beer if I wish. As far as spirits are concerned, It'll be the brand leaders, OVD, Smirnoff, Grouse etc.
- Q. You've always been keen on football, can you map out your career for us?
A. As a 15 year old I played for a team called Tayside Rangers which played mainly friendlies. I then played for Tayport Amateurs before joining the Army. I played for the Army side, the highlight of which was a game against Borussia Munchen-Gladbach (we lost 3-2). On demob I had a couple of games for Tayport Violet before playing for Newport Amateurs and Wormit Amateurs for lengthy spells. I wound up with a few games back at Tayport Amateurs.
- Q. Have any of your contemporaries from those days called in at the pub since you took over? A. Yes. I've been quite surprised at the number of former teammates who have looked in.
- Q. What's your view on the club's decision to start a Junior side in 1990?
A. I thought that it was the only way to go and I was pleased that the club showed ambition. I always felt a bit envious of other communities around this size that could boast a Junior team.
- Q. You've seen the team in action quite a few times this season - any comments?
A. Well we definitely went through a sticky patch but the talent is there and, barring injuries and suspensions we can go on to win another league title and some cups.
- Q. Choices as favourite player, best goal etc.? A. I've always been impressed by Patty and there have been so many cracking goals in the last few seasons that it's difficult to recall a particular one. Mike Gray's the other week was one of the best however.

Thanks very much Andy. Best of luck in your venture.

'DOWN BY THE HARBOUR'

THE BAKER'S BIT

A warm welcome to the Port Support and our visitors this afternoon. It's been some time since our last Port Prog. That day we got ourselves back on the winning trail, beating Broughty Athletic 2-0 in the League. Since then we've continued with League wins over Violet (5-1), Forfar Albion (3-0) and Arbroath Vics (6-0) and an away draw with North End (1-1). These results have seen our league position improve by nine points from a possible ten. In between we managed a home victory in the Zamoyski Cup over Bankfoot. These two competitions must be our goal for this season and, to achieve that, we must overcome teams of Kinnoull's calibre. The Perth side are, without doubt, a much improved side from last year. Earlier this season we played out a 0-0 draw at Kinnoull followed by a victory at home in the P.A. Cup, albeit on penalties.

Once again it looks as if we must go into today's game with changes from last week's line-up and I'm afraid that's been the story for most of the season to date with the possible exception of the first six games away back in August. I feel that this has contributed to the drop in the accustomed standard. That coupled with the Scottish Cup exit. Let's not forget that we had five consecutive weeks of Scottish Cup duty. 3-3 away to Camelon, the game dubbed 'the best Junior match seen for ten years' followed by refereeing incompetence the next week. Remember our players had been built up once again for a titanic struggle. Week three saw the game called off once more on the Saturday morning. I feel that that was one of the reasons for the fourth week's game being something of an anticlimax.

It also meant that for a fifth week in succession we had to get the players mentally ready. Added to the fact that I was unable to see the opposition for myself (a crime in my book), I was forced to rely on second hand information. Going out of the Scottish and the Wilkie sending off (which I felt was harsh) was a personal disaster for me and I don't mind telling you, I was absolutely gutted, as, of course were the players.

Unfortunately the next week it wasn't Luncarty away. The League Secretary pitched us away to a side undefeated since August (incidentally by Tayport) and once again we played a major part of the game with ten men. So, for the third time in our history we lost two games in a row.

These, I feel, are some of the reasons for the drop in standards which we've set at Tayport. As you know we've gone undefeated since the Downfield game. O.K., some of the victories weren't of the quality we're used to but they were victories nevertheless. And I'd rather win playing badly than lose playing well. Don't take that as a kop-out - far from it. We are striving to get back to these standards I always go on about. As a player I seem to remember losing form myself. I stopped scoring. In fact I remember it as if it was yesterday. I was 34 years old and, unlike Tayport Football Club, it never came back!

The bottom line is we're top of Divisio One with identical points as at this stage last season but with a better goal difference this time round. Our players know the importance of today's game and the gap that a victory would open up for Tayport. We'll do the business for you. You do the business for us!

Support the Port, Dave Baikie.

TODAY'S VISITORS

KINNOULL saw their slender league title hopes become even more tenuous following a 0-1 home defeat by Forfar West End in their most recent league game. However, the Perth side are an outfit far removed from that which we faced last season and their two results against us earlier this season proved that point. A goalless league game at Tulloch Park was followed by further stalemate in the P.A. Cup here on the Canniepairt, although on that occasion we did go through on penalties.

Despite being plagued by injuries this season, Kinnoull boss Alan Smart has welded together a more than useful outfit. Leese will miss today as will Robertson who's away on a Fire Brigade course. Vannett has been called up by Brechin City, Hutton has been placed on the transfer list and both Robson and Maher are very doubtful for today through injury. So it will be something of a patched up squad for Kinnoull today. Bobby Glennie, the ex Dundee, Aberdeen and Forfar Athletic stalwart, recently released by Violet appeared as a trialist in the team's last match and may be on the 'Noull's team list again today.

Among those to watch in the visitors' side today will be ex-Brechin City player Ian Paterson who notched five goals in two games just after the turn of the year since moving into midfield, midfielder Craig Mailer, the team's top scorer and Michael Fulton who scored the Tayside Under 23's goal v the Scottish Junior XI the other week.

Tayport don't have their problems to seek either on the injury front with both Billy Coventry and Paul Reilly still a bit away from fitness. What, with suspensions and other niggles picked up from game to game, the pool has been depleted somewhat. Against Forfar Albion the other week we were down to the basic eleven, an unfit Andy Sommerville and coach George Malone having to pull on the subs' jerseys.

Dave Reilly (suspended) missed the win at Arbroath Vics and will be an absentee again today. A couple of training injuries sustained during the week could mean the inclusion of a trialist in this afternoon's squad.

HAMISH IN SCOTLAND POOL FOR FALKIRK MATCH

Tayport's Hamish Mackay has been included in Dick Brock's squad for the Scotland Junior XI's match against Falkirk this Monday evening. The International side have a busy time coming up in the Spring with games against Wales, Eire and Northern Ireland scheduled.

The full squad for Monday's game is: Devine (Arthurlie), Meldrum (Kilwinning), Gemmell (Auchinleck), Day (Cumnock), Love (Kilwinning), Smith (Shettleston), Rennie (Glenafton), Jones (Downfield), McLaughlan (Beith), Sinclair (Lesmahagow), McCartney (Shettleston), Anderson (Kilwinning), Mackay (Tayport), Hendry (Camelon), Harkness (Cumnock) and Smith (Camelon).

Among the five players on standby are Ogilvie (St Joseph's) and Henry (Lochee United).

Canniepairt Diary

A lot of water has flowed down the factory burn since the last edition of the Port Prog. Postponements and late rearranged fixtures meant that it wasn't possible to issue a match programme. You can catch up with all the happenings at the Canniepairt with this diary of events since our last issue for the Broughty Athletic game.

Monday 10th January: Damp conditions for the usual Monday tanning session under lights at Tayport. Gary Lamont has asked for a transfer, unhappy at not being able to command a regular place. Keeper Brian Anderson signs from amateur side DCFE.

Wednesday 12th: Won 5-2 v Elmwood in friendly at Gussie Park. St Joseph's, Kinnoull and Lochee United express an interest in Gary Lamont.

Thursday 13th: Carnoustie also request permission to speak to Lamont.

Friday 14th: Scheduled match tomorrow v Bankfoot called off. Violet to visit Tayport in a league match.

Saturday 15th: Beat Violet 5-1 in convincing fashion. Amateurs lose 0-4 in league.

Sunday 16th: Last club bingo session under old management in Tayport Arms. Pub being sold to Treasurer Ronnie Redpath & partners.

Monday 17th: Chairman and Secretary attend Tayport Community Council Sherry Party. Council make reference to club's successful year. Scorepool collector Martin Gourlay badly injured at work.

Tuesday 18th: Club representatives visit Scotsraig Golf Club to discuss this Friday's Racenight. Gary Lamont signs for St Joseph's for an undisclosed fee.

Friday 21st: Club's Racenight team run very successful racenight for Scotsraig.

Saturday 22nd: Points shared in 1-1 draw at North End. First point dropped since mid September. Amateurs go down 2-3 to St Joseph's in league match.

Sunday 23rd: Pavilion improvements continue under direction of A.D.Oswald.

Monday 24th: Training as usual at Canniepairt.

Wednesday 25th: Let of Gussie Park 'sold' to Lochee United. Training at Tayport. Paul Reilly's injury, sustained in tie at Camelon responding slowly to treatment.

Friday 28th: Bi-monthly committee meeting at Canniepairt.

Saturday 29th: Overnight snowfall brings postponement of scheduled league game at Arbroath Vics and also recast game on Canniepairt v Forfar Albion. Postponement proves somewhat hasty. Dave Baikie not a happy man!. Friendly fixed up v Lochee United on Canniepairt. Tayport win 2-0.

Sunday 30th: Billy Coventry holds smoker to celebrate recent birth of his son and heir, Ross.

Monday 31st: Messrs. Baikie, Irons and Oswald meet Atholl Henderson at Tannadice to discuss SFA's use of Tayport FC as a youth Development Centre.

Wednesday 2nd February: Beat Riverside Athletic 11-1 in friendly at Gussie Park.

Thursday 3rd: Club fined £11 at Midlands meeting for Amateurs' field offences.

Friday 4th: Committee meeting rubber stamps SFA Courses at Tayport and improvements to training pitch during close season.

Saturday 5th: Bankfoot give up ground rights and play 2nd round Zamoyski tie at Tayport. Bankies fight all the way before going down 1-2. Amateurs lose by same score.

Monday 7th: Drama at training session at Canniepairt when young spectator Chris McKenzie falls from tree and breaks arm. Pud Hill attends to injury.

Tuesday 8th: Match secretary and chairman attend Monthly Meeting of TJFA.

Wednesday 9th: We agree to switch Saturday's game v Forfar Albion to Tayport because of drainage problems at Guthrie Park.

Saturday 12th: Beat Forfar Albion 3-0 in league. Amateurs lose by same score to Invergowrie in cup. Two lucky punters share £600 in club's scorepool competition.

Monday 14th: Dave Baikie in charge of Tayside Under 23 squad at Simpson Park, Perth where his side draws 1-1 with Scotland Junior XI. Tayport's Wilkie, D.Reilly and Mackay in action for Scotland. Gray plays for Under23's. Training at Tayport abbreviated on a bitterly cold evening. Work continues on pavilion extension.

Wednesday 16th: Snow causes training to be abandoned. Squad visit leisure centre.

Thursday 17th: Four Amateurs players dealt with by Midlands Rough Play Committee.

Friday 18th: Committee meeting. Usual seven or so attend. Chairman reports that TJFA funds are at a low level. Committee discuss ideas that might boost funds.

Saturday 19th: Comfortable 6-0 win at Arbroath Vics in league with goals from Ewan

(3) Hamish(2) and Divvy.

Sniffing about with THE SNOUT

THE Scottish Juniors' Under 23 competition continues on Sunday when the Fife Under 23 Select meets the North at Recreation Park, St Andrews. The kick off is at 2.15pm and the game is played to a finish. Next Sunday (6th March) the Tayside Under 23's play host to Fife at North End Park, Dundee.

JOHN Reilly, the Cowdenbeath manager, was an interested spectator at last Saturday's Arbroath Vics v Tayport game at Ogilvie Park. Don't know who he was watching but he must have felt quite at home - the home side lost and the crowd was sparse!

BEV Beveridge hasn't been hanging about. Asked at last Friday's committee meeting to get the Player of the Year Dance organised, he had everything soled and heeled by Tuesday. The date is Friday 17th June and the venue is the Marquee.

LANCASTER CITY, the Northern Premier League side that we played in a pre season friendly and defeated 6-0 clearly haven't let that result affect their season. They presently top the Premier League's first division and are looking good for a step-up. Incidentally they are in the same division as Gretna who failed in their bid to join the Scottish League.

FRASER Mann's hand, injured at work just before Christmas is healing well and the big goalie could soon be back challenging Ando for his place.

SNOUT understands that Lochee United, favourites for promotion, have restructured their club to form a two tier committee set-up involving an Executive Committee and a General Committee. Experts in various fields have been brought in to take the club forward. Included in the blueprint are plans to improve Thomson Park and provide hospitality facilities. Tom Macmillan of Fairfield Garage is the new club president with local solicitor Jim Laverty the new secretary.

ABERDEEN Division one club Bon Accord who visited Tayport in the Zamoyiski two years ago are being tipped to join the Highland League. With the loss of two clubs to the Scottish League the Highland League are anxious to bring their league up to strength.

RUCTIONS down the Clyde coast recently when the Saltcoats Vics committee asked manager Jimmy Clarke to resign. The move didn't go down well to say the least. Nine players immediately asked for their release.

EX-Rangers goalkeeper Dave McKellar has been appointed as the new manager of Central League champions Petershill. Previously the Peasies committee had a big say in team selection but a condition of McKellar's acceptance is that he has full control of team matters.

THE referee was on overtime at a recent Largs Thistle v Lugar Boswell game. He yellow carded 9 Lugar players and red carded another 3.

RIOCH'S PHILOSOPHY

Bolton Wanderers is the team of the moment down south and their manager Bruce Rioch, the ex Scotland international, has been thrust into the limelight. The following extract from a recent press article gives an interesting insight into his thinking and the influence a spell in the U.S.A. had on him.

Then came the first of three spells in the United States, coaching and playing in Seattle, which were to have a profound effect on his thinking about the game.

"What I learnt were the Americans' positive attitudes," he says. "Making people feel bright every day. The courtesy. I brought that back and have tried to use it at all my clubs. If you ask people how they are, 95 per cent of them will say 'Not bad'. Well no one says 'Not bad' here. The response at this club is 'Brilliant'. If people feel bad I don't want to know. I didn't get up in the morning to hear their problems. You find you can change people's approach, not just to football but to life."

John McGinlay, the Bolton striker, vouches for the power of the positive thinking Rioch has instilled. "With all due respect to the other clubs I've played at, the spirit among the lads here is the best I have ever known," he says.

A flashback 21 years to 1973 and the biennial trek to Wembley for the England v Scotland International.
