Today's Game

Today's game is an important one for both clubs. For ourselves it is an opportunity to go back to the top of the league while for West End it is a chance to climb further away from the league's basement area. Two points would put us top on goal difference as our nearest rivals are on OVD replay business today.

It's a third successive week on the Canniepairt and the previous two games haven't exactly seen a deluge of goals - one to be precise and, if West End adopt a defensive strategy as they have done on occasions in the past, it could be another afternoon where patience is required from both players and spectators.

There's no 'winter break' for the Juniors as is the case with the Seniors this season and hopefully the weather will be kind and allow us to attract fans who might otherwise have been at the Seniors. This being the case, we have to turn on the kind of fare that both teams are capable of producing and give an enjoyable afternoon's entertainment.

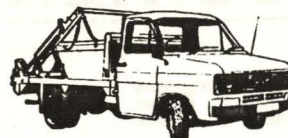

Action from the last occasion on which today's teams met, the Whyte & Mackay Cup Final at Thomson Park. A fourth successive win for the Port - the first time that record has been achieved in the competition's 83 years history.

Today's Visitors

1ST, 4TH, 2ND & 7TH. West End's league positions these last four seasons. Current form suggests that this season could see the Strathmore Park side finish even lower. Indeed talk of relegation has appeared in the 'Forfar Dispatch'. A win over Jeanfield, a second successive win, has given manager Dave Reid some welcome cheer and he will be looking to extend that run.

In goal will be BRUCE GLEN, a fixture for many seasons at Broughty Athletic but persuaded by manager Reid to move to Forfar to wear the jersey discarded by Gordon Dunn.

SCOTT PETERS is a versatile defender signed from Forfar Athletic three seasons ago. Has youth on his side and his displays this season have seen him included in Dave Baillie's Tayside Under 23 pool.

KEITH WILSON. Dundee lad signed from Lawside FP this season. Solid, dependable defender. Scored his first goal of the season the other week but unfortunately it was for Downfield!. BRUCE FLEMING. Sweeper recruited from Letham Lads Club a few weeks ago. Settling in well at Strathmore Park. ARTHUR WALKER. Team skipper who has been with the club for many seasons. Mainly plays in the middle of the park but the injury situation this season has necessitated his dropping into the back four from time to time.

GRAEME McAULAY. A new face this season in the West End line-up. Left back who joined up from local Midlands Amateur side Lowson United. Knows the road to goal and already has several to his credit this season. PAUL BLAIR. Midfielder who returned to Strathmore Park after a brief and generally unproductive spell at Downfield. Highly experienced Junior who has served West End well.

JOHN CRAIG. Midfielder who has been with the club for a number of years. Played Senior with Montrose and was also formerly with Arbroath S.C. Works offshore and as a result is not always available for selection. WAYNE FERGUSON. Joined up in April last year, previously having been with Arbroath F.C.. Versatile player, although probably preferred as an attacking midfielder.

IAN GUNN. Wholehearted type of player who was at Carnoustie for 5 or 6 seasons. Didn't play much last season but after turning out a couple of times for Arbroath Vics at the start of this season, moved up to Strathmore Park. Central defender.

GLYN SMITH. Teenage midfielder who was attached to St Johnstone at one time. Recent arrival at West End who will be seen as one for the future by manager Reid.

HAMISH SOUTAR. This is the striker's second spell with the club, having seen service at Blairgowrie and more recently with Kirrie Thistle. West End's leading scorer last season with twenty odd goals but has been having a fairly lean time so far this season. Signs though in recent games that the old goal touch hasn't deserted him.

NICK MARKOWSKI. In his first season at Forfar, having signed from Arbroath Vics with whom he was a prolific marksman, including a few against us. Struggling to find that same goalscoring form so far this season.

PAUL YULE, forward signed from Downfield, unlikely to play because of injury as is fellow striker LEE STRACHAN. Also likely to be out is another front-man MIKE THOMSON and definitely missing will be the experienced defender BOBBY ANDERSON who is still on the injured list.

Past Encounters

Today will be the sixteenth meeting of Tayport and Forfar West End. Tayport have had the best of these meetings, winning eight, drawing four and losing three. One of these three was a cup tie which had to replay after Tayport had successfully protested and won the subsequent replay.

In the fifteen games played Tayport have netted on 29 occasions, losing 13 goals.

The scorers of twenty of those goals are in line for a game this afternoon. Dave Reilly leads the way with eight followed by Jackie Devine with six. Billy Coventry, still striving to regain fitness, has notched five of the goals. Covy, unfortunately won't feature this afternoon.

Of the Tayport players in line for a jersey this afternoon, only two, Mark Spalding and Dave Reilly, are ever presents.

The record of the games between the sides is as follows:-

1990/91 Intersport Final	Tayport 5 Forfar W.E. 1	(Devine 3, Coventry, Reilly)
1991/92 League	Tayport 1 Forfar W.E. 1	(Thoms)
Whyte & Mackay	Tayport 0 Forfar W.E. 1	* Tayport protested.
Whyte & Mackay	Tayport 2 Forfar W.E. 0	(Devine, Reilly)
League	Forfar 2 Tayport 1	(Hunter)
Cream o'Barley	Tayport 2 Forfar W.E. 0	(Reilly, Iamont)

Port Prog's editor has been taking stick all week over last week's cup predictions in the programme. A mere 38.5%. Not bad when you consider the sort of percentages I used to get at school!. If the predictions for the postponed games are correct, as I expect they will be, the percentage correct will go up to a respectable 48.4%. How many of you would have expected Hall Russell and Turriff to win their ties, I ask you?

The Baker's Bit

Last season's Whyte & Mackay Cup Final at Thomson Park was the last encounter with today's opposition Forfar West End. The outcome then was a 3-0 win for Tayport and a record four successive Cup wins. A similar scoreline would be very welcome today.

We made life difficult for ourselves last week but we are in the hat for the 4th round draw. I didn't feel that we were ever in danger of losing but, after going ahead, we failed to turn the screw. I'm sure that if a second goal had gone in we'd have gone on to win handsomely. But that didn't happen. The important thing for me was that we did create numerous scoring opportunities and, as long as that continues, and I'm confident that it will, everything will come out in the wash.

Tomorrow sees three of our players representing the Tayside Region in the Scottish Under 23 Inter Regional Tournament at Glenrothes' Warout Stadium. A victory would see Tayside reach the semi final stage as section winners following our 4-2 win over the North Region. So, if you've nothing on tomorrow, why not come along and give your support to Gary, Steve, D.R. and the rest of the team.

Getting back to this afternoon's game, Forfar West End, although not having the best of seasons, come here on the back of two victories. So it won't be easy. But I'm not interested in what West End do, only in Tayport. It's about how we fare. It's about the standards we set, strive to reach and maintain.

If we get it right, for me, there can only be one outcome - two points and a victory for Tayport.

Support The Port, Dave Baikie.

OVD SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP

It was a day of shocks in the Third Round of the OVD Scottish Junior Cup last Saturday and nowhere was there a bigger shock than at Newlandsfield where Pollok were knocked out by Turriff United by 1-0. Turriff showed last season when they went to the last sixteen that they were no mugs. On that occasion they were unfortunate to go down by the odd goal in seven to finalists Glenafton. Pollok, though, were odds on favourites and will be devastated to miss out on the money spinning later stages. An early goal put the Aberdeenshire team ahead and thereafter it was backs to the wall stuff with the United keeper performing heroics.

A great result too for Glenrothes who eliminated Maryhill by 3-2 at the Warout Stadium. The Glasgow side are riding high in the Reebok Central Division and the previous week had just hit four past Arthurlie in a League match. A good result also for Kelty Hearts, winning 3-2 away to Bonnyrigg Rose, the side which had ended the hopes of holders Largs Thistle in the previous round. Fellow Fifers Dundonald did not fare as well. They went down by 1-3 to a Camelon side which is reputed to be playing very well at present and is well fancied for the Cup itself.

However it was the Aberdeen teams that continued to provide the shocks. Hall Russell United, who took Largs to a replay in last season's fifth round, ended the hopes of Ayrshire big guns Beith in some style, winning by 4-1 at Beith. Inverurie Locos returned north from Greenock with a 1-0 win to their credit while Lewis United will fancy their chances against Kinnoull in the Chris Anderson Stadium, Aberdeen after holding the Perth team to a 2-2 draw at Tulloch Park.

The well fancied Shettleston team saw their hopes end at the wide open spaces of Hannah Park, Shotts, beaten by the only goal of the game. The occasion of the day, though, was at Auchinleck where over 2,500 watched the derby tie against second division Cumnock (mind, you, probably most of them were policemen!). A tremendous crowd which bettered 13 of the 19 Scottish Senior matches the same afternoon. No shock here, with Auchinleck winning 3-1.

Almost a shock at Bellshill where St Joseph's, despite racing into a 2-0 lead, had to hang on desperately in the end to secure a replay in Dundee this week. The locals came storming back to equalise and proceed to put their opposition through the mill. North End's rich vein of form continues after hitting Benburb for four without reply. In the Tayside derby Lochee United, despite losing what was probably the quickest goal of the season, recovered to go nap against Broughty Athletic.

Carnoustie live to fight another day after sharing four goals with the locals at Lochore but our nearest Fife neighbours, St Andrews United, failed to pack their shooting boots and went down by the only goal of the game to Kirkintilloch Rob Roy who play in the same division as Port Glasgow.

Five games were postponed and go ahead this week.

Press Comment

" This is a real four pointer. They are placed just above us in the league and we need to find some consistent form in the league to move away from the relegation battle "

- West End Manager Dave Reid previewing his team's game against Jeanfield Swifts last Saturday which West End won by 2-0.

" Although the first division champs were disappointed at drawing 0-0 with Violet on Saturday it was a rare day off for their marksmen who squandered numerous chances..... Tayport have prepared thoroughly and must be firm favourites for the next round."

- The Courier previewing last Saturday's OVD tie v Port Glasgow

" Despite spending most of the match in their opponents' half, the home strikers' frustrations of recent games continued with several glorious chances going a-begging"

FOOTBALL FROM A DIFFERENT ANGLE!

(This is the Editorial which appeared in the December issue of "Team Talk", the non-league football magazine. The editor joined the board of Yeovil Town who play in the G.M. Vauxhall Conference, effectively the English 5th Division, where they currently lie second bottom of 22 clubs. As well as highlighting the finances involved in a non-league set up, it just shows how fickle fans can be. Less than twelve months after a great FA Cup run, halted only by Arsenal, the poor committee get stick from the fans. Interesting to see that other committee meetings are the same as ours - featuring everything other than the game of football!)

WHAT a month October turned out to be!

Having enjoyed thirty years of playing and coaching I had great fun helping develop a number of football publications before being invited to sample life as a director of Yeovil Town as a hobby.

I have thoroughly enjoyed the experience but having joined the club following a quite amazingly badly managed move from The Huish to Huish Park, I was horrified to find out that football club board meetings often featured everything other than the game of football.

An £800,000 deficit after the move left the club fighting for its life. The towns-people were magnificent and their strength inspired manager Steve Rutter and his squad to four FA Cup victories over League clubs and a much publised tie against Arsenal. Television fees and the transfers of Mark Shail to Bristol City and Malcolm McPherson to West Ham United, plus a best ever fourth place in the Conference helped the club knock £300,000 off the debt. A wonderful effort by all concerned!

But bank interest on the huge deficit limited squad development and although our experienced manager Brian Hall performed a miracle by keeping us up last season, his ageing team needs help now and the bank is not allowing the club to spend more on new players.

A defeat in the FA Cup brought matters to a head and some of the saddest sights I have seen in football made us all wonder whether this was really the game with which we all loved to be involved.

The most loyal and hard working chairman Bryan Moore, who with his wife Pauline have dedicated much of their lives to Yeovil Town, were abused and insulted. The manager was shocked at the fierceness of the feelings against him and many directors and supporters wives were badly affected by the anger shown against the board at the next home match, when Yeovil supporters won the game for Merthyr by demoralising their own players and lifting the visitors with their encouragement.

We have all felt the despair of bad results and I can understand some of the anager and frustration, but much of the reaction was quite disgraceful. However, quite strangely it brought an encouraging backlash from the more understanding supporters who showed their true support at the next game and inspired a fine 3-0 victory.

When a £90,000 profit last year was eaten up by the bank the Yeovil board realised the overdraft must be eliminated immediately if the club was to go forward. So all offers of financial help are being considered and maybe you will see a new board at Yeovil - it's certainly exciting and we all have the club at heart.

Comic turns with Terry

THE evening of football comedy began inauspiciously. The video screens on the walls of Terry Neill's Sports Bar in central London flickered, and there was Gazza at his mugging, gobbing, gagging, giggling worst. Heavens, we thought, if this is as good as it gets, we'd better get ourselves sent off pronto. But that was the low point. Terry and his crew behind the bar swung into high gear, dispensing Carling by the firkin, and Nick Hancock took the stage to introduce the evening's acts.

Terry's bar was the ideal venue: hung with his international shirts and photographs of the proprietor with the great, the good and George Graham, it exuded an atmosphere of football as powerfully as any boot room. The crowd were cognoscenti, sharp-suited and leather-jacketed, players, ex-players, commentators, hacks, hangers-on.

First up, after Hancock's cheerful but predictable introduction (a Merson gag after 87 seconds) was Tim Clark. Tim is a slim, bald chap whose act consisted of banter, most of it relating to his audiences's clothing and hairstyles. All well and good, but not much to do with football. So Tim chuckled in a few easy ones for form's sake: a Merson, a Grobbelaar, "Ah, a Manchester United supporter. Take you long to get in from Surrey?" Not bad, but not a patch on what followed.

Phil Jupitas is West Ham personified, Julian Dicks's weightier brother, 16 stone of lard in a leather jacket, with cropped hair, wicked grin, every other word an obscene adjective (you'll have to imagine them). "Fat? I'll tell you why West Ham is fat. You'd eat a pie if you was 3-0 down to Bolton, wouldn't ya? You think I'm fat? There's this bloke at Upton Park, 'e's pies akimbo, 'is face a blur of pastry. 'E makes me look like Kylie Minogue. Eight thousand like 'im down there, 8,000 fat blokes in nylon. Down Upton Park you don't get the Mexican Wave, you get the Mexican Wobble. In nylon. You could run the National Grid off the static." The room was in stitches. Andy Gray nearly spilt his lager.

Next up was Kevin Day, an endearing sort with natty sideburns who told a sorry tale of racism at Selhurst Park. "Oi, John Barnes!" a Palace yob yells, "Get back where you came from!" "Don't say that, you berk," his friend says, "he's just come from our penalty area and we're 5-1 down already."

Alastair Magowan closed the proceedings with some pin-sharp impressions, including Gary Lineker interviewed after his wedding night: "At the end of the day it's a question of being in the right place at the right time, really, and attacking the space, really." Magowan treated us to a glorious duet of mutual incomprehension between Ossie Ardiles and Kenny Dalglish, and the show was over - except for the prize draw, won by the editor of Living Marxism: another triumph for the people's game.

Sniffing About With The Snout

I hear that Downfield players, officials and supporters were less than enamoured when the match referee postponed their tie at Stoneyburn 25 minutes before kick off. Downfield thought that the park was playable but the match official thought otherwise. The club should be reimbursed the cost of their bus through the Junior F.A.'s insurance scheme but the poor Spiders' supporters will get zilch.

It's not so bad as a Fairmuir Boys' team which made two fruitless trips to Clydebank on successive Sundays only to find the match postponed. On the third trip through they played on a blaes park and were thumped something like 8-0. At about £200 per bus for each trip, it was a dear and very unrewarding cup run for the Dundee lads.

BIG Jock Myles, the Tayside secretary was an official observer at the Shotts v Shettleston tie and he reports that that the home side will be very, very difficult to beat on their own park. On the way there he passed Coltness' Victoria Park and he wasn't in the least surprised that their tie with Ashfield was off. The pitch was under 5" of water.

SCONE have made probably their biggest signing in securing the transfer of Jimmy Fotheringham from Carnoustie after protracted negotiations with the Westfield Park side. The signing is an indication of Thistle's commitment to getting out of the second division. The ex-Montrose and Arbroath striker should prove a sound acquisition.

DID you know that Hamish Mackay has the distinction of once scoring two goals at Hampden Park. Big Hambo was twice on the mark when the Gable Endies beat Queen's Park 2-0 in April 1991.

TAYPORT Amateurs reward for a stirring 3-1 win over Edinburgh Amateurs' Premier side Edinburgh Albion in their 100th Scottish Amateur Cup tie last Saturday is a home tie in the 4th round against Drymain Hearts. The game is scheduled for January 7th. In the North of Tay Cup 3rd round the Amateurs are away to Vale of Atholl in Pitlochry.

FORFAR West End probably have the best league record of all teams against Tayport. In six meetings, we have only managed one victory - and that was at the fifth time of asking! But we did it in style, winning 5-1 down here last season.

FROM THE ARCHIVES

A REAL BLAST FROM THE PAST. A SUNDAY EXPRESS REPORT OF ONE OF THE BETTER SCOTLAND v ENGLAND MATCHES (WE WON!) FROM APRIL 1962. FOR THE RECORD THE LAST GAME AGAINST ENGLAND WAS SIX YEARS AGO.

Jim Baxter the magician YES, THE HAMPDEN WIZARDS

by HARRY ANDREW

Scotland 2, England 0. (H.T. 1-0)

SCORERS: Wilson (13min.), Caldwell (88, pen.).

OVER 100,000 joy-crazy fans REFUSED to leave Hampden Park after the final whistle had blown... refused although the teams had vanished from the field and the flags were being taken away. They wanted to see these eleven great Scots again. The eleven who had bested England at Hampden for the first time in 25 long, long years.

The eleven who had recorded our first victory over England anywhere for eleven years.

The eleven, glory be, who had won us the Triple Crown and the undisputed Championship of these British Isles and won with a flourish and an artistry that made the World Cup-seeking Sassenachs look like mere apprentices.

HEROES

And that huge crowd had its way. As the cheers mounted and rolled until the heavens shook, Scotland's bedraggled heroes came trooping back from the dressing rooms—clearly ordered back by some official with common sense.

Out they came, these men who will be as immortal as the Wembley Wizards. The little Ranger, Davie Wilson, was in bare feet. So, too, was the ghost of Tottenham, John White... and on his back was the white England jersey of Johnny Haynes.

It was the same with the others. This was a motley crew, indeed... but they were loved as no Scotland team has ever been loved before. They ran round the pitch and waved to the fans and all of them wore grins that will not, I swear, wear off for many a day to come.

TRIBUTE

For 10 amazing minutes this fantastic reception lasted, the never-to-be-forgotten tribute of a crowd delighted to learn again that we CAN play top-class football.

True the wonderful enthusiasm of the crowd was at least partly compounded of relief that at last the Hampden hoodoo had been broken; that at last the grin of superiority had been wiped from the faces of the English.

But, no team could have earned such a tribute without offering something more than a mere victory. And Scotland did, in fact, offer up 90 minutes of silken Soccer that should have earned us a much bigger triumph—a point on which I insist DESPITE the fact that England lost out in a dispute over a goal.

With the score 1-0 and 22 minutes left, Greaves passed to Haynes. The England skipper shot, the ball thudded against the underside of the bar, rocketed down, bounced again and was headed over the bar by pivot McNeill.

It appeared that referee Leo Horn had given a goal. But then we saw a linesman point and the decision was changed to a free kick for Scotland. I must say Haynes' shot looked over to me.

Anyway, you have to set this one let-off for Scotland against the dozen amazing escapes that came the way of outplayed, out-run, out-thought and out-manoeuvred England, propped up by one lone hero, the fabulous Ron Springett in goal.

Where all did well for Scotland, one man, I thought, stood above the rest—the incredible Jim Baxter, a master magician whose superb talents welded the home team into a menacing, thrustful unit right from the start.

He beat them one, two, three at a time with the flick of a foot, a wriggle of those slim hips. His passes were perfection and—believe it or not—he tackled like a tiger! This, I dare swear, was the poorest international ever for Jim's immediate opponent, Jimmy Greaves.

Next to Baxter put Denis Law. Splendid Denis, planner, worker, marksman. The man who kept the attack ticking all the time.

IMMACULATE

And, right up there with these two were those immaculate defenders, Bill Brown in goal, Alex Hamilton at right back and Billy McNeill at centre half. So note that among the all-stars were McNeill and Law, two men about whose selection there was considerable controversy.

WHICH MEANS, IN FAIRNESS, A BIG PAT ON THE BACK FOR THE MEN WHO CHOSE THEM. I'VE SLAMMED THE SELECTORS FREQUENTLY. BUT THERE MUST BE NOTHING GRUDGING ABOUT TODAY'S PRAISE... NOR THAT FOR THE NEW BACK-ROOM TEAM OF MANAGER IAN MCCOLL AND TRAINER JOHNNY HARVEY.

SPLENDID

Eric Caldwell was a splendid skipper, Pat Crerand completed a half-back line that was streets ahead of its English counterpart and Dave Wilson was just about as effective a forward as Law.

Add a stream of perfect passes from White, some rank had finishing luck for Ian St. John and a not-quite-so-outstanding show from Alex Scott and you'll see that this was, indeed, a team of which to be proud.

I'm sure we would have looked a lot better in Chile than England! They had Springett. They had a great full-back in Ray Wilson. And they had a tremendous trier and fine player in Johnny Haynes. They hadn't a thing else!
