Press Comment

- " We wanted a home tie but I would have preferred a team from another Region. Carnoustie are a good side who can trouble the best so we won't be taking anything for granted "
- Tayport manager Dave Baikie in 'The Courier' on hearing the cup draw (11/2/95)

- " We have enjoyed close games with Tayport in the past and it could be an interesting affair "
- Carnoustie treasurer Doug Mitchell's response on hearing the draw ('The Courier' 11/2/95)

- " We didn't play fluent football, but we got 100% effort and that was all we asked for.... there were times when we rode our luck, but I felt we were worth a point at the end of the 90 minutes. We wanted to keep things tight for as long as possible, to give ourselves a chance and we were happy to go in at the break, level at nil-nil. "
- Forfar West End manager Dave Reid in the Forfar Dispatch (9/2/95) following West End 1 Tayport 1.

- " The weather all but wrecked the Junior programme last Saturday Tayport's game lasted until only half-time against Montrose Roselea. The Fifers led through a John Devine goal but, with weather conditions worsening, the referee called a halt at the break. "
- Junicus in the 'Evening Telegraph' (16/2/95)

- " After a half-time inspection, the match officials decided to halt proceedings with the pitch apparently no worse than when the match commenced, much to the annoyance of the home side and their support. It would have been very interesting to see what the referee would have done had Tayport converted the barrowload of chances which they created in the first 45 minutes."
- Fife Herald (17/2/95) Tayport 1 Montrose 0 - abandoned at half-time.

- " Although leading marksman Hamish Mackay has resumed training, manager Dave Baikie is unlikely to risk him today as he will be a key figure in the Scottish Cup plans. "
- 'The Courier' (18/2/95) previewing Arbroath v Tayport.

- " In the first division, leaders Tayport dropped a surprise point, drawing 0-0 away to Arbroath Sporting Club. "
- 'The Courier' (20/2/95)

- " Tayport's alarming goal drought continued last Saturday as yet another championship point was squandered at Seaton Park. "
- Fife Herald (24/2/95) Arbroath SC 0 Tayport 0.

Today's Game

This is the big game in the Region this afternoon. Two Tayside teams bidding for a place in the last eight of the Junior game's biggest prize. For Tayport it's a fourth appearance in the 5th round in five years. For Carnoustie it's a reminder of the halcyon days of the late 1970's and 1978 in particular when the Gowfers reached the cup semi final only to lose 4-2 to eventual winners Bonnyrigg Rose at Tynecastle. Amazingly, not since that occasion 17 years ago have Carnoustie graced this stage of the competition.

For Carnoustie chairman and local businessman David Laing it's an opportunity to taste the success for which he was surely hoping when he took over the reins of the ailing club a few years back.

Since the teams met first back in 1991, the games between the sides have been littered with goals, an average of over five goals per game. Indeed no game between Tayport and Carnoustie, home or away, has ever produced fewer than four goals.

Carnoustie's attack has been prolific this season, finding their opponents' net in all but one of their twenty three games to date including, interestingly enough, all their away games. Tayport's attack has been even more prolific and they can boast the soundest defence in the country. Indeed only one goal has been conceded on the Canniepairt since October 8 last year.

For today's tie Tayport hope to see the return of Hamish Mackay who has missed the last three games following a training injury. Mackay is presently the Region's top marksman but his scoring exploits in the OVD Cup have been overshadowed by those of Panmure's Mark Kelly who has found the target in every tie to date.

Missing from the Tayport starting line-up last week as well as Mackay were Gray, Hunter, Wilkie and Paul Reilly. All will be in contention for a place today. Carnoustie brought back experienced defender Gerry Conway last week at Kinnoull and he will likely retain his place despite the return today of the ex-Dundee FC defender Stewart Forsyth who was unavailable last Saturday.

Adding spice to the tie is the fact that two of the Carnoustie team formerly wore Tayport colours, keeper Brian Anderson who was with us last year at this time and Gary Christie who was one of Dave Baikie's first signings back in 1990.

The stage is set then for a classic cup tie.

Tayport will wear their change strip this afternoon as the clubs' colours are the same and, unless the clubs can agree otherwise, the home club has to change.

The referee is Linlithgow solicitor Jim Carlin who is returning to the Canniepairt for the first time in almost exactly four years. He had charge of the Scottish Cup tie against Pollok.

We are once again indebted to Tayport and Carnoustie businessman Jackie Martin for sponsoring the match and the match ball. The Man of the Match award will be selected by Mr Martin's party and presented immediately after the match.

Today's Visitors

BRIAN ANDERSON (goalkeeper) An ever present this season. Signed for Tayport in January last year from DCFE when Fraser injured a hand at work. Was transferred to North End before signing for Panmure at the start of the season.

STEWART FORSYTH (defender) Ex-Dundee, Arbroath and Montrose. Left Senior football on joining the police force. Strong, experienced defender who can take a goal as his strike against us earlier this season can testify.

MARK N. KELLY (defender) The pony tailed Kelly. Joined up at Westfield in 1994 from Arbroath. Like most of the Gowfers' defenders, he likes to get forward.

GERRY CONWAY (defender) signed at the start of this season from Forfar West End. An experienced Junior, Gerry has seen service also with Broughty Athletic and Lochee United. Has been out recently through injury but made a successful return last week at Kinnoull.

ALAN CRANSTON (defender) Hefty central defender who was signed as a centre forward from St James. Notched 19 goals in each of his last two seasons. Still knows the road to goal and has several to his credit already this season.

BRIAN CRAIK (midfield) spindly, unorthodox player with no shortage of skill. A regular goalscorer regardless of whether he plays in midfield or up front. Signed in 1993 from St Joseph's having previously seen service with East Craigie.

ALAN RAMSAY (midfield) Terrier in the Panmure boilerhouse. Always in the thick of the action where his tenacious play rarely endears him to the opposition. Ex-Forfar Athletic, Alan has represented Tayside's Under 23 side.

LEX RICHARDSON (sweeper) can truly be described as a veteran. Doubles up as assistant to team boss Mark Bennett. Normally turns out in the sweeper role where his guile can compensate for any loss of pace. Played Junior with Blantyre Celtic and Arthurlie before having a fairly distinguished Senior career with St Mirren and Dundee prior to moving on to Morton, Arbroath and Albion Rovers.

GARY CHRISTIE (midfield) Joined Tayport from East Craigie when we made our debut in the Junior ranks but didn't settle and returned to Craigie before going Senior with Montrose from where he joined Carnoustie. The team's playmaker who is comfortable on the ball and uses deadball situations to good effect.

MARC HUTTON (forward) signed at the start of this season from Forfar Albion. Had Senior experience with Forfar Athletic, Dundee United, St Johnstone and Hearts.

MARK KELLY (forward) The Kelly without the ponytail, Mark has been a prolific marksman for the Gowfers. Was top scorer last season with 28 strikes and looks like bettering that total this time round. Was with Montrose before he joined up at Westfield and during his time at Links Park had the distinction of notching a winning goal at Hampden Park - against Queen's Park in the B & Q Cup.

JOHN HENDRIE (forward) Man of many clubs, John joined up in 1992. A skilful left sided player who can take a goal. Had previous Junior experience with St Joseph's.

BARRY WILL (defender) Youngster who signed from Arbroath at the start of this season. Had a spell at Lochee United before stepping up to the Seniors. Was a regular at the start of the season but might have to settle for a place on the bench this afternoon.

GLEN KNOX (midfield) Promising youngster who was also with Arbroath. If manager Bennett goes for experience, Glen might also have to settle for a place on the bench this afternoon.

STEPHEN KYDD (forward) Joined Panmure at the start of this season on a delayed transfer from Montrose. Came off the bench to open the scoring against Kinnoull last week and with an OVD goal to his credit already this season will be hankering after a place in the starting line-up.

KENNY ROBERTSON (forward) signed earlier this season from Lochee Harp. Yet to make his mark. GARY HAILSONES (midfield) former player re-signed last week from Wishaw Juniors.

The Baker's Bit

Good afternoon to the Port Support and a warm welcome to our visitors Carnoustie Panmure.

We've had a frustrating past couple of weeks. Firstly we had our home league game against Montrose Roselea abandoned at half-time, leading 1-0 going on six. Then we followed up at Abroath last week with a 0-0 draw where, once again, we didn't turn our chances into goals. But we must take heart from the fact that we're producing numerous scoring opportunities. Someone is due for the backlash. This would be a fine time and place today.

If past games between our clubs are anything to go by, I'm sure that you won't be disappointed. There always seems to be goals in our encounters. I hope that that can be repeated today - all the one way, of course!

With Tayside being the Region with the most clubs left in the competition, I suppose that there was a good chance that two clubs from our Region would be drawn together. It's disappointing but I suppose that, as a Region, we can take comfort that at least we'll have one representative in the next round.

This is the most important game of the season for our two clubs and I've no doubt that, as far as the bookmakers are concerned, we start as favourites. That doesn't bother me. I'm not a gambler. As far as I'm concerned we both start the match as joint favourites.

I've every respect for Carnoustie, the club as well as their players and officials. We have a battle on our hands this afternoon and if there is anyone at this club that doesn't realise that, then we don't deserve to progress in the competition. I won't accept complacency. There certainly won't be any in our opponents' camp. They'll be totally fired up. We have the talent at this club to take on any team in the country but it's a simple fact that, if you don't put in the effort, then you don't get the rewards.

It's in our players hands. They know as well as I do their potential. I'd give my right hand to be in their boots this afternoon, to battle for a place in the next round of this cup, and another step nearer to one of my goals. I say this to our players - you dream with your eyes closed and, if you have the strength, fulfil them with your eyes open.

Show our fans today that you have what it takes.

Support The Port, Dave Baikie.

KEVIN THOMS BENEFIT YEAR

A Quiz Night will be held on Monday 6th March at 7pm in the Downfield FC Social Club, the proceeds of which will go towards the Kevin Thoms Benefit Fund.

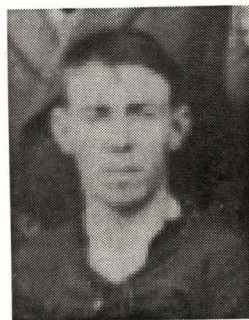

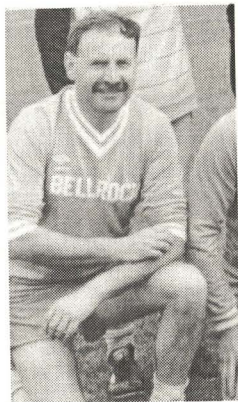

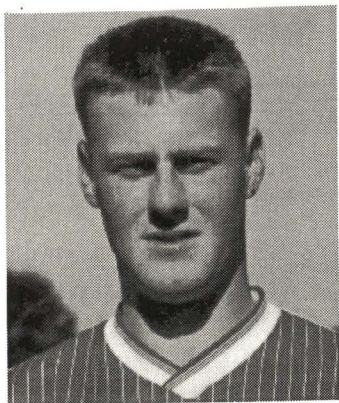

It is hoped to attract 30 teams for the quiz which will be basically a football quiz. Entries are £10 for a team of four. There will be prizes for the winners and runners-up and each team entered will be included in a free prize draw.

In addition, the evening will include a 'Question & Answer' session with an invited panel comprising well known names from the football world, at least well known locally!. Chairing the panel will be Willie Grier.

YOUNG MAN GOING TO THE TOP

Tayport Amateurs player of recent vintage, ROGER WELSH, is certainly going right to the top in his job. Our photo, which appeared recently in a national newspaper, shows Roger carrying out survey work near the top of the Scott Monument in Princes Street, Edinburgh. Other photos show three generations of Roger's family who turned out for Tayport over the years. Jock Dempster (grandfather - 30's), Graham Welsh (father - 60's) and Roger.

£££££'s FOR GOALS IN THE OVD CUP !

The Tayside team which scores most goals in this season's OVD Scottish Cup will receive £200 from Cup sponsors, OVD Rum. At the moment Lochee United lead the way with 16 goals, North End are next in line with 13 while Carnoustie and Tayport are still both in the hunt with 11 goals each.

LOCAL CLUBS NOT RATED BY THE BOOKIES

Tayside clubs have been virtually written off by the bookies as possible OVD Cup winners despite having a bigger representation in the last sixteen than any other Region. Let's hope they're wrong. Best priced are ourselves at 8/1 while our opponents today are an amazing 50/1. Both North End and Lochee United are at 25/1.

Favourites are Shotts at 9/2. Then come Kilwinning at 5/1 followed by Camelon and Glenafton at 7/1. Arthurlie are on 8/1. Hill of Beath, somewhat surprisingly, are 10/1. Whitburn are 12. Ashfield and Tranent are 16, Dalry and Kelty are 20 and you can get 66/1 for Lewis United.

Sniffing About With The Snout

MOVES are afoot to introduce a cup competition to be contested by Tayside and Fife Junior clubs. This, it would appear, would be run on similar lines to the likes of the Dundee North End Centenary Cup which is for Tayside and North clubs and the Whyte & Mackay Cup which features the Fife & Lothians clubs. It sounds like a first class proposal and one which a sponsor would find attractive.

If such a proposal got off the ground then the next logical step would be an amalgamation of the Fife and Tayside Regions. The addition of one club would give a nice little package of three divisions of 14 clubs. Road communications in Fife are now excellent and away trips are no longer the time consuming journey which they once were. Food for thought.

GRANT Paterson had an excellent game for Junior Scotland last week at Bathgate where the International XI defeated a Clydebank XI by 3-1. It was a game which gave new Scotland team boss Denis Gray an opportunity to run the rule over a number of new faces, those from east coast based clubs in particular. Several including Grant, will have done their chances of a cap call-up no harm at all. Tayport's other representative, Hamish Mackay, unfortunately had to call off through injury.

FINDHORN Supplies, manufacturers of cold weather clothing and workwear are the latest company to link up with Tayport. The Dundee based firm will be taking up trackside and programme advertising as well as supplying warm up kit to the club.

STONEBURN Juniors came up with a fairly novel way of finding a sponsor and funding a new strip. They asked 40 businesses to pay £10 to go into a draw. and the one pulled from the hat had their name emblazoned on the team's strip. The draw was made at the club's racenight when a local builders' merchant's name came out of the hat.

THE draw for the Fife & Lothians' Whyte & Mackay Cup quarter finals is Bo'ness v Bathgate; St Andrews United v Fauldhouse United; Newburgh or Camelon v Arniston or Kelty; Linlithgow Rose v Hill of Beath.

TAYPORT Juniors member & season ticket holder Alistair McVinnie will be running the London Marathon in April. Alistair is being sponsored for the Lewis Forgan Trust, the Trust to which the Committee donated the proceeds of their charity cricket match earlier this season. Anyone wishing to sponsor Alastair should contact him or Lewis's grandmother, Mavis.

THE club intends to hold a 'Meet the Manager' evening in Cobbies Inn on Sunday 19th March. It will be an informal occasion during which supporters will get the opportunity to quiz Dave Baikie about any manner of matters concerning the team. Starts at 8pm.
