The Baker's Bit

Jeanfield Swifts provide our league opposition this afternoon. I'd like to welcome their players and officials to the Canniepairt. It's been a wee while since I last penned a column. If you cast your mind back it was before our league victory over Montrose. My recollection of the game was how well we started but failed to capitalise on our outfield supremacy. But, with a bit of help from our opponents, managing to reduce themselves to ten men, things began to work in our favour and we ran out 6-0 winners.

My feelings are of disappointment with the following week's 1-1 draw at Thomson Park. On chances we should have been sitting 4-1 ahead at half-time instead of having to settle for a 1-0 lead. With the elements in our favour in the second half, we really should have proved too strong for Lochee. Instead of rubbing salt into the wound we allowed them back into the game and got what we deserved. Although I must add that a dreadful offside decision stopped us going two up. Only time will tell whether it was a point gained or lost.

Two different away cup ties followed and, on both occasions, we were forced into extra time. 1-0 at Downfield and 3-0 at Arbroath has seen us advance in both competitions. It was disappointing that we didn't finish them off in the 90 minutes. We had umpteen chances to do so.

At least we managed to seal a victory within the 90 minutes on Wednesday past. Two goals from Kevin Vannet did the damage over Carnoustie giving us two more valuable points. Once again we never looked like losing a goal. There is no doubt that, like myself, our supporters are becoming a bit frustrated at us not turning our outfield supremacy into more goals. I can assure you that it's not something that has gone unnoticed by the coaching staff. We've worked hard lately in training to rectify the problems. And we'll keep on doing so until it comes good. We've got, without doubt, three of the best strikers in the Region and, really, it's down to them to put in the hard work in training and in matches. I'm sure the confidence will return. I've been there myself. There's no magic wand. You simply have to put the bad behind you and, with hard graft, the good will return. As a club we need these players back to their best if we're to continue our phenomenal success over the past 5 seasons. A victory today will put us on 40 points with three games to play. We hold the record with 45 points. Above the pavilion flies a flag, on it the dates 1990/91/92/93/94. I want to see 95 going on it also. That can be achieved as can four cup wins. Every game from here on in must be treated, in terms of attitude as a cup final. Do so, then I'm sure we'll not be far away.

Support the Port, Dave Baikie.

REVEREND FRANCIS COUGAN

Last Saturday Tayport lost one of its most respected citizens with the passing of Frank Cougan, formerly the minister of the United Free Church in Tayport and, of course, father of long-serving Tayport FC committee member Iain.

Although born in Rutherglen 87 years ago, Mr Cougan moved to Glencraig in West Fife with his family when only a few years old. It was in the mining community there that he gained his life-long interest in football. Although moving to Tayport some 41 years ago Frank Cougan was a Raith Rovers man and there was no happier fan when Rovers defeated Celtic to win the League Cup earlier this season.

With the introduction of the Juniors to the town in 1990 Mr Cougan quickly had his interest in the game rekindled, and was a season ticket holder in each of our five seasons. He didn't get to as many matches as he might have liked but he followed the fortunes of the team through the press and the Port Prog

Our condolences go to Mrs Cougan, Iain and other members of the family.

- Perthshire Advertiser reviewing Kinnoull 2 Jeanfield 0 (4/4/95)

"A goal five minutes from time deprived Tayport of a vital championship point in last Saturday's A.T. & T league division one match at Thomson Park"

- Fife Herald on Lochee United 1 Tayport 1 (7/4/95)

"Spiders' management team of George and Willie Grier is one of the best and they have brought plenty of success to the club. They will attempt to outwit another shrewd tactician in Tayport's Dave Baikie who has built the team into the most successful in the Region"

"Tayport will play Sunnybank in the semi-final of the inter-regional North End Centenary Cup...Sunnybank are a slick outfit and will test the first division leaders."

"Tayport came out on top in a dour struggle with Downfield, a Ewan Cameron strike in extra time enough to take the Fifers through"

- Evening Telegraph (12/4/95) reviewing Downfield 0 Tayport 1.

"There was little to separate the two sides during the regulation 90 minutes, but when Downfield central defender, Jones, was shown a second yellow card in the closing stages the writing was on the wall for the home team"

- FIFE HERALD (14/4/95) reporting Downfield 0 Tayport 1 (aet)

"Tayport remain one of the top clubs around and Baikie is delighted with the form of Keith Nicolson signed earlier in the season from Brechin City....he has been outstanding recently"

"Jeanfield's Graeme McKay was in top form in the home tie against Luncarty, hitting five goals in a 9-0 win."

- The Courier (17/4/95) reviewing the Intersport tie v Luncarty.

"Faced with a windswept, dry and bumpy park this was never going to be a classic and so it transpired with Tayport never finding top gear against a side which rarely looked like ending a run of seven games without a win under new manager Jimmy Cant.....
.....Keeper Mann and his back four displayed the qualities which have seen the side concede only seven goals in twenty three games"

- Fife Herald (21/4/95) reporting Arbroath SC 0 Tayport 3 (aet)

TODAY'S VISITORS

JEANFIELD SWIFTS

Since we joined the Juniors, Jeanfield Swifts have been a permanent fixture in the first division. No longer, however, as, next season they will be playing their football in Division Two.

Whilst Swifts have invariably given us a tough game, they have failed to show that spirit in too many of their other games it appears and have failed to arrest the slump which set in during last season. With, probably the Region's best Social Club adjacent to one of the Region's best grounds, Simpson Park, it should be unthinkable that Swifts will not be playing their football at the top level next season.

Manager Drew Hay has had a troubled time since he took over a team already on the slippery slope. Injury problems and a failure to attract new faces has meant that he has had to struggle on with often a bare minimum of players.

Youngster Mark Murray has been holding down the No.1 spot, being preferred to the more experienced Alan Morris, an ex-Newport Amateurs goalie. Chris Martin, another ex-Newport lad is the lynchpin of the Swifts back four and always puts in spirited display against Tayport.

Left back Stewart Cassidy formerly played his football in Dundee, latterly with Downfield, and could hardly have expected to be relegated when he moved up river to play with Swifts. Defender Scott McIntyre arrived at Simpson Park from Forfar Athletic via the Highland League and previously played with Newburgh in the Fife League. Helped his father-in-law, Forfar Athletic manager Tommy Campbell, crack open the champagne last weekend.

Scott McIntyre with wife Julie and father-in-law Tommy Campbell

Despite their team's poor showing this season both fullback Steven Robertson and midfielder Clayton Robertson have impressed sufficiently to be included in the Tayside Select to meet the North Region for the Chapman Cup at Swifts' Simpson Park tomorrow.

Up front Swifts have the goalpower of Graeme Mackay. The ex-Fair City man netted five last week against Luncarty and, along with Willie Hutchison, provides Swifts with a fairly potent strike force. Hutchie is not long back from injury but has proved he has not lost his goal touch with a double in the win against Harp two weeks ago and a treble v Luncarty last Saturday.

Sniffing About With The Snout

IF anyone ever had any lingering doubts that The Courier's Junior Correspondent cribbed his notes from The Sporting Post then last weekend's report will have dispelled those doubts. Big Archie at Arbroath SC got Grant Miller and Steven Stewart mixed up and credited Stevie with Tayport's second and third goals instead of Grant when he phoned in the match details. Would the mistake be repeated in The Courier? Well, of course, it was and poor Grant missed out. I don't suppose Grant was too bothered but I'm sure that Isobel had something to say!

KINNOULL, our opponents in the league at Perth next Tuesday evening, have parted company with manager Jimmy McLaren who had been at Tulloch Park for less than a year. Roger Duncan, a former manager and now on the committee, has taken over the reins on a temporary basis.

DALRY'S appeal against their fine following the trouble at the Whitburn OVD game was, as expected, thrown out. One might have thought it best to let sleeping dogs lie now, but not Dalry's local newspaper. They clearly still think that Dalry was hard done by and are continuing to have a go at SJFA secretary Joe Black. In a blistering attack Mr Black was described as "Herr Fuhrer". His comments in another paper were described as "his latest attack of foot and mouth". He is then described as "His Lordship" and accused of "spouting garbage". Phew, not the sort of stuff The Courier would print about Big Jock.

SPEAKING of indiscipline, Forfar Albion was fined a total of £300 at the last meeting of the Tayside JFA. There had been a bit of a Donnybrook in a recent cup-tie against East Craigie when five players were sent off. When the dust settled, the outcome was that two committee members were given sine die suspensions in addition to the aforementioned fine.

ST JOSEPH'S Perthshire Advertiser Cup winning team against Forfar West End at McDiarmid Park contained four former St Johnstone players. Four of the side also wore Tayport colours at one time - Andy Heggie, Gus Malone, Molly Brown and Grant Cushnie.

SATURDAY morning SFA SOCCER SKILLS sessions for boys and girls aged 5 years to 12 years have resumed at The Canniepairt. Under the direction of Dave Baikie, the sessions are held between 10am and 12 noon and all interested youngsters are welcome. Details are available from Dave on 01832 669547.

BUILDER Bill Palmer is throwing KILWINNING RANGERS out of their Abbey Park ground. The OVD Cup quarter finalists have been given notice to quit but are looking for a stay of execution to allow them to plan a brand new stadium. They want a custom-built affair which is estimated would cost £4m. To get things moving the people of Kilwinning have been given two weeks to come up with the club's share of £100,000. Quite an undertaking.

Today's Game

It's top 'v' bottom this afternoon. Jeanfield have been leap-frogged by Kirrie Thistle and are entrenched at the foot of the table. With their final games against Downfield and St Joseph's, the Simpson Park side cannot be too confident of finishing the season any higher.

Swifts have struggled for a team on many occasions this season thanks to injuries and last week Manager Drew Hay had to pull on a jersey for the Intersport Shield match versus Luncarty. This being a league game today, trialists are permitted and Swifts might have a couple of new faces out.

Back to back cup wins in the last two weeks at Harp and at home to Luncarty will have given our visitors much needed confidence. These games have brought eleven goals, all but one coming from Willie Hutchison and Graeme McKay. Hutchison has missed much of the season through injury but, with five goals in two games, is clearly back on song. McKay is a clinical finisher as he showed with Swifts goal in our 2-1 win at Perth earlier this season.

Carnoustie came to the Canniepairt on the back of an impressive Saturday win over St Joseph's but generally disappointed the fans on Wednesday evening, rarely posing a threat. We weren't particularly impressive either, it must be said, but were worthy winners. A mix-up between Lex Richardson and keeper Brian Anderson was seized upon by Kevin Vannet to give us the lead during the second half and Kevin sealed the issue with a fine second goal.

The home fans will be looking for better this afternoon but Swifts have never made things particularly easy for us, indeed they were the last side to beat us in a League game back in October 1993.

8,000 CROWD AT TANNADICE?

With only four days to go excitement will be mounting in Loches in anticipation of the eagerly awaited OVD Cup semi final against Camelon at Tannadice. United defeated Downfield by 2-0 on Wednesday night in a league game but have today off as they build up to their big game.

8,000 is the attendance being predicted in some quarters and it's likely that the crowd could approach something like that figure, particularly if the weather is kind. The following evening at St Mirren Park at Love Street, Paisley, Glenafton and Tayport's conquerors Whitburn meet in the other semi final.

Tayport Supporters' club are running a bus to Tannadice on Wednesday. Details from posters or from Mary Walker (Tel.553647)

THE TRAIN NOW STANDING.....

If you're on holiday this year down Devon way, don't be surprised if you hear a familiar voice over the tannoy at Exeter Station. Ian 'Bomber' Harris, the babe of the side of two seasons ago, has just started a new job as the Railway Station announcer at Exeter St.David's. The new post restricts his availability for the local side with which he has been playing as he's got to work every second Saturday.

AMONG THE ARCHIVES

23 years ago today

Exactly 23 years ago this weekend Tayport FC took their first tentative steps on foreign soil when the Amateurs made their debut in the Bergmans-Collignon International Challenge Tournament in Ougree, a suburb of Liege in Belgium.

It was to be the beginning of a wonderful friendship, a friendship which lasts to this day. Next month a team from Newport Amateurs, including a sprinkling of 'veterans' of such trips from Tayport travels to Belgium to participate in this year's Tournament.

Twenty four were in the party that made that first trip including the present club chairman, vice-chairman, secretary and Groundsman Davie Hughes who was seeking to renew acquaintances made during the Second World War!

Also in the party was Councillor Walter Goodwin. Councillor Goodwin had been sent along by the Tayport Town Council to look after their interests - they had, after all, subsidised the trip to the tune of £200. Not much, you may think, but it must have been worth a bit more in those days because the total cost per head for travel, accommodation, food and everything else totalled a mere £16 for the five days.

The team which beat the German side S.C.Fuchtorf by 2-1 on 22nd April 1973 was Gordon Brankin; Walter Kemp, Ronnie Fleming; Ian Mathers, Jim Mathers and Eddie Gilmour; Abby Oswald, Doug Henderson, Raymond White, Ian White and Frank Leslie. Subs were George Caldwell and Lindsay Ancell. The goals were scored by Oswald and Gilmour.

Others in the party were Andy Johnstone, Murray Anderson, Andrew 'Bunt' Robertson (no show without Punch, even in those days), cheerleader Bobby Jackson, Ian Rae, Alex Houston and the late Bruce Ross and Jimmy Herd. Doug Henderson, who was teaching in France, joined the party over there. He was, incidentally, playing for Paris St Germain at the time.

WILL THINGS NEVER IMPROVE?

At the request of 'The Sporting Post', the Tayside Juniors moved their kick-offs forward to 2.30pm for league games and 2.00pm for cup-ties. Few would argue that this wasn't a good move. The coverage of the Juniors in this paper has improved since and we all get home or to the pub that wee bit quicker. After all, the 3 o'clock kick-off times are a throw back to the times when everybody worked on a Saturday morning and the pubs closed at 9pm.

Although we're aware that this is an old chestnut as far as the Port Prog is concerned, the Tayside Executive doesn't seem to bother its butt when member clubs blatantly and consistently fail to phone in their results despite having plenty of time to do so. Two of the worst culprits are Bankfoot and Coupar Angus and they were at it again at the weekend. No result in the Cream of the Barley from Bankfoot and no result in the Intersport from Coupar where the locals played Harp.

It's about time big Jock and his fellow office bearers sorted these clubs out. I'm sure that, if it was Tayport or the Joey's who weren't getting in touch, then we'd soon hear about it.

ATTRACTIVE SEMI FINAL TIE

Tayport will play host to Aberdeenshire cracks Sunnybank in the second of the Inter-Regional trophy, the Dundee North End Centenary Cup, semi finals on Saturday 13th May. Tayport secured their place in the last four with a 1-0 extra time win at Downfield, Ewan Cameron getting the vital goal. It wasn't quite as close a scoreline for Sunnybank - they crushed Inverurie Loco by 9-0.

The other semi final features St Joseph's and Violet and will be played three days before on Wednesday 10th May at Fairfield Park. St Joseph's accounted for Lochee United by 2-1 while Violet crushed Balbeggie by 9-0.

Dundee North End Social Club sponsor a Man of the Match award for each of the ties in the later stages of the competition. Grant Paterson picked up the award for the Longside tie and scooped the award again in the quarter final against Downfield. What price a hat-trick against Sunnybank?

WHYTE & MACKAY CUP DRAW

The draw for the second round of the Whyte & Mackay Cup, the holders of which are ourselves, has paired us with St Joseph's at Fairfield Park a week today.

The other ties are Lochee United v East Craigie; Kirrie Thistle v Elmwood; Kinnoull v Blairgowrie; North End v Brechin Vics; Balbeggie v Scone Thistle; Downfield v Forfar West End; Bankfoot v Montrose Roselea.

Tayport's next league action is at Tulloch Park, Perth on Tuesday evening where our hosts are Kinnoull. Team and Supporters' transport leaves the Cannieapairt at 5.15pm picking up at the SMT Garage/Dock Gates at 5.30pm.

BILLY JELLYE

One of the best known, some might say most notorious, of the Tayport Amateurs players of the 1960's, Bill Jellye passed away at the end of last month.

An uncompromising type of player, 'Rocky' was at home in the centre or in the goal and could well be described as 'wholehearted'. Such were his exploits that bairns in the town in the sixties would listen in awe to tales of Billy Jellye. He moved out of the area for many years and, according to legend, became something of a reformed character in the Wimbledon area of London before moving back up here. He took an interest in the Juniors and was a regular attender at the bigger games until illness struck him down.

A lasting memory? Billy coming through the plowter en route from Linksfield to the Common fully kitted out for the match, boots and all, wearing not a tracksuit but a raincoat.

Offbeat to the end Bill had Fats Domino's 'Blueberry Hill' played at his funeral service.

IT'S 100 UP

Few will be aware of the significance of Wednesday's 2-0 win over Carnoustie Panmure. It was in fact our 100th Tayside Juniors First Division game. In these four(almost) seasons Dave Baikie's team has a remarkable record.

Of the 100 games, 76 have been won, 20 have been drawn and only 4 have been lost.

The team has conceded only 58 goals in these 100 matches and needs four goals to hit the 300 mark.

Today's opponents have been responsible for two of the four defeats, 3-2 wins on each occasion at Simpson Park. The others were 1-2 at Forfar West End and a 1-0 home defeat by Forfar Albion.

A superb record and one of which the relatively small squad of players and the management team can be rightly proud.

THE GERRY & JIM SHOW

Mark Sunday 7th May in your diary. The club are holding a Question of Sport Dinner in the Nortel Hotel, Coupar Angus where the Guest Panel will be the Sunday Mail and Scotsport's Gerry McNee, Scotsport linkman Jim White, Dundee United's Dave Bowman and Hearts' Craig Levein. With a line-up like that it's got all the makings of a spirited evening with, I'm sure, no shortage of controversial topics being aired. Tickets, priced £25, are available now from the Committee or Dave Baikie. Group bookings are welcome.

DESERVED RECOGNITION FOR FRASER

Goalkeeper Fraser Mann is one of four Tayport players in Tayside's 15 man pool for the Chapman Cup match against the North Region at Simpson Park, Perth tomorrow. Fraser's record speaks for itself as a glance at the Port Prog's statistics page will show and this is worthy recognition for the big goalie.

The accent is on youth, with the game being used as an opportunity to keep the bulk of the Under 23 side ticking over in preparation for their forthcoming semi-final tie against the Central Region.

Fraser's teammates, Gary Maher, Steven Stewart and Dave Reilly join him in the pool. The rest of the squad is Roy Price, Scott Glass and Graeme Ferrie (Downfield), Alan Ramsay and Mark Hutton (Carnoustie), Clayton Robertson and Stephen Robertson (Jeanfield), Barry Gray (St Joseph's), Ian Greig (Arbroath SC), Scott Peters (Forfar W.E.), and Mark Fulton (Kinnoull).
