TODAY'S VISITORS - DUNDEE NORTH END

This afternoon's visitors, Dundee North End, are one of the best known Junior clubs in the country. Formed in 1896, The Dokens as they are nicknamed, have one of the best set-ups in the Tayside Juniors with a well appointed social club adjacent to their ground just along the road from Dens Park.

To celebrate their centenary year the North End Social Club have sponsored the prestigious Inter-Regional Trophy, the final of which will be played at North End Park on Saturday 3rd June between ourselves and Dundee Violet.

North End can finish fourth in the league and they still retain an interest in the Whyte & Mackay Cup as well as the Cream of the Barley Trophy. A 3-2 league win at home to Arbroath SC on Wednesday night saw them extend a good run which has seen them taste defeat only once in their last seven outings.

Ian Christie, who played here at the Canniepairt in our inaugural season shares the goalkeeping duties with Mark Hornby who came into the picture after young keeper Bruce Alexander, pitched into the fray after Christie had been taken off injured, carried the can for North End's defeat by ourselves at Christmastime.

North End boast one of the most experienced back fours in the League. Eddie McAuley and Mike Feeney are both Junior Internationals and lack nothing in terms of commitment. Right back Derek Paul is another who is in with the bricks at North End Park. His full-back partner is likely to be ex- Jeanfield Swifts man Bruce Tindal.

North End get their fair share of goals from midfield men Bobby Douglas, a seasoned campaigner in the Tayside Juniors, Billy Cooper and Ian Gray. Newcomer this season Tommy King was listed as substitute when we met in December but the Berwick Rangers delayed transfer man will be looking to start the game today. Another new face who didn't feature in that game but is in the pool for today is Kevin McGuckin.

The main goalthrust this season has come from Brent Vance, last season's top scorer and with seventeen to his credit this season, and the club's close season signing from Broughty Athletic, Stevie Ross. Stevie has proved to be an astute signing by the Dokens, his all-action style contributing 20 goals so far this term. Another who knows the route to goal is Mike Harkins who is into double figures for the season.

Recent signings from the amateur ranks are Scott Flynn and Mark McCord. McCord, signed from DCFE, had been tracked by several Junior sides but opted to try his luck with North End.

THE LOCAL CUPS - THE STATE OF PLAY

The semi final draws for the three local competitions, the Intersport, the Cream of the Barley and the jewel in the Tayside crown, the Whyte & Mackay (the former Currie Cup) now some 84 years old will probably be made after next Saturday's ties. Semi-finalists are:- Whyte & Mackay - Tayport, Scone or Kinnoull, Downfield or North End and Kirrie Thistle or Lochee United. Intersport - East Craigie, Elmwood or Forfar Albion, Forfar West End or Carnoustie, Tayport or St Joseph's and Jeanfield or Arbroath Vics. Cream of the Barley- Carnoustie or Jeanfield, Balbeggie or Blairgowrie, Downfield or Lochee United and the winners of this afternoon's game between ourselves and North End.

You may think that our photographer caught Andy and Janet at a seminar for the V.C.'s (vertically challenged, for the uninitiated) but no, mine host & hostess at Cobbies Inn met up with Gordon Strachan in Tenerife where Coventry City were having a break last month from the rigours of fighting relegation. Where, you may ask was Big Sandy (McDade) who, along with wife Margaret, accompanied the Phins to Tenerife? Big Sandy was at the bar with Big Ron, the Coventry manager, knocking back champagne and discussing their respective investments. Well, you know that can't be true - Sandy was on lager 'champagne's a waste of money'

The Baker's Bit

I'd like firstly to welcome our visitors Dundee North End to the Canniepairt for this Cream of the Barley quarter final tie and a good afternoon to the Port Support. Since last Saturday we've been successful in three important games for the club.

The first was the North End Centenary Cup semi-final, a 5-0 win over Aberdeen Sunnybank. I've got to say that I was delighted with the scoreline but, as always, there's definitely room for improvement. We certainly didn't start the game well at all. But once the first goal went in, there seemed to be an inevitability about the outcome. Their heads seemed to drop which is something that I didn't expect to happen with so little time gone in the game.

We then moved to Monday night with a Whyte & Mackay semi-final place at stake. Bankfoot provided the opposition. Their manager was overhead telling his players at half-time "We managed to frustrate them for 35 minutes" He must have forgotten about the 120 minutes earlier in the season. But it's a sad day when a manager thinks along those lines and I felt sorry for the lad who was asked to play just in front of the back nine! Still, that's their problem. We won the tie 6-0 and are in the semi-final.

Probably the most important of the three was our home win over Downfield on Wednesday. 1-0 was the scoreline. We definitely deserved our victory and I felt that we had some excellent performances, but we also had some ordinary ones which really was the difference between the narrow victory we got and a comfortable win. But I can't really ever recall seeing a classic between ourselves and the Spiders. Two points was the objective and that's what we gained. It sets us up nicely for our final league game of the season.

I'm looking forward to this afternoon's game with North End. We've met on two occasions this season and I have enjoyed both. If I remember correctly, we were a bit lucky to win the first one - a late Gary Maher goal gave us a victory - and the second was a 3-1 win at North End.

Our players must realise that they've got a game on their hands today, but they also know that, if they play to their capabilities, then we can achieve a victory and see Tayport into the semi final.

SUPPORT THE PORT, DAVE BAIKIE.

TODAY'S GAME

Of all the established clubs in the Tayside 1st Division, North End are probably the club which we have met on the fewest occasions. Apart from two league games a season since promotion, we have previously met each other on only two occasions. Quite remarkable considering we have had the potential to be drawn together in a total of thirty cup competitions during this time.

This afternoon is our third cup meeting. The first meeting was the Perthshire Advertiser Cup Final in 1993 which Tayport lost 1-0 and the most recent was in last season's Cream of the Barley Trophy 1st round when we recorded a fine 6-1 win at North End Park.

North End are here today seeking their first win at the Canniepairt. They did come close on their last visit earlier this season when a late goal from Gary Maher was all that separated the sides.

On their day North End can match the best but their form has been patchy this season, resulting in their league challenge fizzling out early and a failure to make a splash in either of the major cup competitions.

The Dokens have had a couple of hard fought matches to reach this stage of the competition - seeing off Kinnoull after extra time and eliminating Violet, by 2-1 last Saturday. We came from behind to beat Forfar West End by 2-1 the other week but trounced Broughty Athletic 8-0 in round 2 last midweek.

Today's game will be played to a finish with extra time and penalty kicks if necessary.

Press Comment

"Although Sunnybank, third in the league, are no slouches, the home side look a good bet for the final"
- The Courier (13/5/95) previewing Tayport v Sunnybank.

"We are playing well and it is encouraging to see younger players coming in and doing a good job,"
- Dave Baikie quoted in The Courier (13/5/95)

"The Final of the North End Centenary Cup will be between Tayport and Violet after the Fifers' emphatic 5-0 defeat of Aberdeen Sunnybank at the Canniepairt."
- The Sunday Post (14/5/95)

"Tayport's Hamish Mackay and David Reilly were key figures in the 5-0 home win against Aberdeen Sunnybank in the North End Centenary Cup semi-final on Saturday. Mackay got a hat-trick to bring his total for the season to 42 while Reilly got the other two."
The Courier (15/5/95) reviewing Tayport v Sunnybank.

"Tayport's hopes of retaining the First Division title are dim....The Fifers face Downfield tonight in their penultimate game with two points a must"
- Junicus writing us off in The Evening Telegraph (17/5/95) prior to our midweek win over Downfield.

"Three cup ties in five days saw Tayport fire nineteen goals for none in reply. This barrowload of goals put 'Port into the quarter finals of the Cream of the Barley Trophy, the semi-final of the Whyte & Mackay Cup and the final of the North End Centenary Cup."
- Fife Herald (19/5/95)

"...however the free-scoring home forwards were once more in the mood and their visitors from the North returned home a much chastened side."
- Fife Herald (19/5/95) Tayport 5 Sunnybank 0.

"Newly promoted Broughty, like Scone a few days before them, were left wondering what next season in the top flight has in store for them after a crushing defeat at the Canniepairt."
- Fife Herald (19/5/95) Tayport 8 Broughty Athletic 0.

"Even without the scoring partnership of Cameron and Mackay, both sidelined through injury, there was no shortage of goals for the fans to enjoy and in the end it could have been a far greater winning margin"
- Fife Herald (19/5/95) Tayport 6 Bankfoot Athletic 0.

ON F.A. CUP FINAL DAY A LOOK AT 50 YEARS' FINALS

THIS season's FA Cup Final is the 50th since soccer picked up the pieces after the Hitler War and got on with a game sorely wounded but in great heart.

Now months of controversy are ending, with millions of people longing for the biggest club event of the lot to live up to its reputation and produce a showpiece.

Since August, English soccer has been a catalogue of catastrophe, a saga of sleaze, that has obscured most of what good there has been. No wonder so many people are keen for Manchester United and Everton to give us all a lift by putting on a show of football's arts, without the punctuation of snarling confrontation between players, rows over referees, and violence among spectators.

There are players capable of doing so. Even without Cantona, even though so many League points have been squandered, United have a string of quality captures still full of ambition no matter how many honours they have collected. One, Mark Hughes, will set a record for Wembley FA Cup Finals if he takes a fourth winning medal: last season he became only the 17th man with three.

A comparison of the playing staffs indicates that Everton have little chance, but that has been said of several Wembley winners - not all of them in the distant past.

Joe Royle, a losing player in 1968, later served a long managerial apprenticeship with Oldham before returning to his first club. The turnaround since then has been remarkable and those who know their Final history will not be too surprised if Royle follows managers such as Livingstone (Newcastle 1955), Buckingham and Ashman (West Bromwich 1954 and 1968) and Lyall (West Ham 1975) in winning this trophy in his first season.

For a club with so many supporters, United are remarkably unpopular. And so although the head says United to win, the heart is with Everton, if only because they have come back from a bad spell, so bad that lesser clubs would have crumbled.

We all hope for a match fit to put before royal prices. But do not be surprised if we do not get one. There have been so many Final disappointments before now.

But the FA Cup is still a great contest and we have had half a century of wondrous feats to look back on, haven't we?

I first saw Wembley in 1946, when I was a kid and the stadium was still bright and fresh, full of magic and not ankle-deep in litter. I've seen it dozens of times since, building up a stack of memories.

Such as Arsenal, oddly attired in gold shirts, repulsing everything my Liverpool heroes could throw at them in the drizzle of 1950, and again in the blazing heat of 1971. Such as Newcastle, demons in those licorice-alsort stripes, seeing off Blackpool in 1951, with Jackie Milburn's two dazzling goals, and wearing down Arsenal a year later, then doing the same to Manchester City in 1955, despite the heroics performed by Bert Trautmann, the best goalkeeper I've ever seen. Such as gallant Preston's resistance to a vibrant young West Ham in 1964, when they were level or in front for all but the last 30 seconds, and then missed promotion as well.

I think of the lucky ones, like Jimmy Greenhoff, for ever credited with a goal for Manchester United in 1977 when a shot going for a corner flag hit him and looped into the Liverpool net. Like Roger Osborne in 1978, given one chance and scoring the only FA Cup goal of his 12-year career at Ipswich, after they had hit one Arsenal bar and two Arsenal posts. Like Trevor Brooking of West Ham two years later, again with Arsenal on the wrong end, scoring the winner "when the ball hit me on the head and went in".

And David O'Leary, twice a winner with Arsenal, 14 years apart, and both times by a goal in the last minute. The other side of that particular coin concerns Douglas Holden, a last-minute loser with Bolton in 1953 and with Preston in 1964.

That Bolton team were perhaps the unluckiest losers of all, after hanging on with nine fit men, only to concede two goals in the last three minutes to a team inspired by the 38-year-old youngster gambolling down Blackpool's right wing. Stanley Matthews, of course.

I was lucky enough to be in the crowd behind the goal Bolton defended in the second half, on leave from national service, clutching my 3s. 6d. ticket (what it was to have a father with a bit of influence) and screaming myself hoarse as the old sorcerer weaved his spells. Among the pomp and circumstance, the goals and the misses and the injuries - remember that gloomy run of breaking bones and tearing ligaments, almost one a year from 1952 to 1961? - Matthews takes first place for an individual performance.

But the prize for THE outstanding single moment, THE match-turning piece of inspiration, goes to a player who gained few medals during a longish career, and even at his peak could pass unnoticed in virtually any street.

Jim Montgomery's save from Peter Lorimer in the Sunderland-Leeds game of 1973 defied all logic. Trevor Cherry's diving header had brought a good stop from Monty, but Lorimer - a splendid and notably calm taker of chances - had virtually the whole net to aim at when the rebound reached him. "One-one" says the voice on the video, and so we all thought. But somehow, Monty stopped it. We didn't believe it then, and we can hardly believe it now.

Sunderland, inspired, held on to win with Porterfield's early goal. They did not have an international in their team, although some went on to earn such honours: Leeds had 10 plus Cherry, later capped (and to lose some teeth in his country's service).

Leeds, figuratively, lost their collective teeth that day. Only rarely have they been much of a force in the game since. Nor have Sunderland. But the parade of teams and individuals goes on, and the FA Cup Final is still a day for historians to savour, the climax of soccer's greatest tournament.

Bar none.

Sniffing About With The Snout

THE Tayside Juniors have fixed the dates for their cup finals, although in most cases the venues have yet to be decided. The North End Centenary Cup Final takes place at North End Park on Saturday 3rd June. The Cream of the Barley Trophy is on Saturday 10th June. The Whyte & Mackay Final is on Monday 12th June and the Intersport Shield Final is on Thursday 15th June at Glenesk Park.

MARK down Sunday 11th June in your diary. That's the date of the Tayport FC Gala Day on the Canniepairt, the main feature of which will be a match between Kevin Thom's Select XI and the Celebrity team Dukla Pumpherstons Sawmill & Tannery XI. Dukla was founded by Tony Roper of Rab C. Nesbitt fame and Chic Young of Sportscene and features former stars of the Scottish soccer scene and showbiz personalities.

Also featured will be youngsters 5-a-side games, tug o' war, sideshows, pipe band etc. And the punters won't go hungry, there will be burgers and the like on sale and a beer tent to quench your thirst.

Tayside secretary Jock Myles won't be at the Cream of the Barley Final on June 10th. He'll be at another match that day when he takes his daughter down the aisle for her marriage in Broughty Ferry LOCHEE United striker Ross Graham has signed for Brechin City. The big striker didn't do himself justice in the OVD semi final but his 27 goals this season to date (not 19 as it says elsewhere in the Prog), have caught the Seniors' attention.

IT'S a poor show tomorrow when we aren't getting the OVD Cup final between Whitburn and Camelon on TV. Apparently Grampian aren't taking the game, choosing to show the Aberdeen v Dunfermline game live instead. STV are showing the Junior Final, however, but, unfortunately, not many of us on Tayside get STV.. It will be a pity if this is the case, particularly as we were eliminated by Whitburn and played Camelon last season as did North End and Downfield this season.

WELL, it's all down to the last couple of games to determine the outcome of the A.T. & T. League Championship. St Joseph's v Tayport next Tuesday then St Joseph's v Lochee United on Monday week. We're a point behind with a better goal difference, so you can work out for yourself the significance of the matches. Between the games we meet St Joseph's down here next Saturday in the Intersport Shield. An interesting week? No wonder Joey's boss Les Barr chose to watch us instead of his own team on Wednesday past.

TAYPORT Amateurs looked doomed to relegation a month ago after suffering nine successive defeats but an unbeaten eight game run since has seen them climb to a comfortable position of safety, in fact they'll probably end not too far off a promotion place.
