TONIGHT'S GAME

The prize for this evening's victors is a place in the final of the Cream of the Barley Trophy against Downfield or Blairgowrie on Saturday week.

Fans of both sides will need no reminding of the last time the clubs met in this Tournament. It was just over a year ago at the quarter final stage when Panmure stuffed us by a record 5-2. Such was the surprise that folk were phoning the newspaper next day to confirm the scoreline.

How did the record books record that one? "What can you say! 2-0 up and cruising, Tayport were stunned by the Gowfers who hit five goals in the last thirty minutes to give us our heaviest ever defeat - more goals lost in that half hour than in our last 10 games!"

There should be no incentive required then for Tayport in their bid to reach the Cream of the Barley final for the first time. Indeed, it could be the last time, now that Stewart's, the sponsors are pulling out of Dundee.

Inconsistency has been Panmure's problem this season and that has been reflected in their mid table placing in the league. The fact that they are in two cup semi-finals suggests that cup football is more to their liking. This was shown as recently as last Saturday when they returned a 3-1 victory at Forfar West End in the Intersport Shield thanks to a Brian Craik hat-trick.

Carnoustie have shown in their two previous meetings to the Canniepairt that they are stuffy opposition. A late Steven Stewart goal was all that separated the teams in the OVD tie while in the league in April it was two second half goals from Kevin Vannet which kept us on track for the title.

A keen contest is anticipated with extra-time and penalty kicks to be used if necessary to determine the outcome.

Do you think that perhaps the local media were a wee bit surprised - or even disappointed - that we retained our title.

It may only have been by goal difference but it was enough to give us a fifth successive title - four Division One championships following on from our Second Division flag.

One would have thought that there would have been recognition for an unbeaten league season, an unbeaten run in the league which has stretched from the beginning of September 1993, top league scorers, an all-time low in terms of goals conceded - the league runners-up conceded 8 goals in their last 2 games, the winners conceded 8 goals in their last 18 games - worthy champions or what?

STOP PRESS

PORT PROG IS BEST IN SCOTLAND-OFFICIAL

It has just been announced that the Port Prog has been voted the Best Non-League Programme in Scotland. Tayport's Matchday Programme topped the Scottish poll with 115 points, 3 points ahead of last season's winner Largs Thistle and ten ahead of third placed Ardeer, both of the Ayrshire Juniors. Included in the poll were the three Non League Senior Leagues, the Highland League, East of Scotland and the South of Scotland League. Nearest Tayside rivals were St Joseph's who trailed 23 points behind.

UK-wide, Tayport didn't fare so well, finishing 124th=, not bad I suppose, from a total entry of 1133.

The Baker's Bit

I don't know how many times negative people have tried to bring us down this season. "It's the end of an era", one said to me. "Baker, you must concede that the Joeys are going to win the league", said another. Of course, I've had doubts, but, throughout this season I've honestly believed we could win the title and, make no mistake about it, Tayport won the Tayside 1st Division title for the fourth consecutive time. Why? Because, quite simply, we're the best!

A fortnight ago we sat three points adrift and we had two very difficult games ahead. So did they. I knew in my soul that we could win ours and I've said all along that they would falter as, of course they did. I likened their position, prior to their last 2 games to the climbing of Mount Everest. They did magnificently to reach final base camp but the hardest part of the climb was still in front of them. As they looked out from their tents, a storm was brewing in the form of Tayport FC. They had a go for the summit and took a severe beating, were mentally shattered and hoped like hell that the weather would relent. Running out of oxygen and willpower they had their one and only go at reaching the summit. They failed. Why? Quite simply - the best team wins the league - not the second best!

I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone connected with the club for their continued support. No matter how little you think you did, at least you did it and should be proud that you were part of our success.

Carnoustie Panmure provide the opposition for tonight's Cream of the Barley Trophy semi-final and I'd like to take this opportunity to welcome their players and officials to the Canniepairt.

I saw a number of incidents in last Saturday's game with St Joseph's that filled me with so many emotions. One of admiration, two of repulsion and a third one of sadness.

Mental tiredness lost us the match in extra time but, for something like 140 minutes, the scoreline read Tayport 7 St Joseph's 0. George Malone, who stood beside me for most of the 3hrs.30mins, told me later that, once the first St Joseph's goal went in, he knew Tayport were going to lose. And I think a number of our players felt the same way.

But I saw an incident late on in the game which everyone should take on board. The ball was played long over Sean Wilkie's head, down the left hand side of the park to a former Tayport winger who really must have been bursting with energy and hoping to prove his boss wrong. I saw Sean strain every part of his body, not only to make up a five yard start but to win a tackle and take possession. This incident proved an important point to me - where the mind goes, everything follows - you're only as tired as you want to be. That's why Sean is captain of Tayport FC.

The two incidents of repulsion, I can't really comment upon but everyone who was at last Saturday's game will know exactly what I'm talking about. The word 'cowards' would probably cover both incidents.

On my last emotion, I'm the first to agree that referees have a difficult job to do. Abraham Lincoln once said 'You can please some of the people some of the time, but you can't please all of the people all of the time'. The official's job, as I see it, is to enforce the rules of the game in the best possible way. If he achieves that, then he'll gain respect. Let's face it - without respect you're struggling. Guess who's struggling in my book.

I said before the Sunnyside semi-final that we had an opportunity to reach our 15th cup final in 5 seasons and we're there! So tonight, the 16th cup final beckons but, make no mistake about it, it doesn't get any easier. We must be mentally strong and produce the goods. If we approach this game as we should, I'm confident we can reach another cup final.

SUPPORT THE PORT, DAVE BAIKIE.

FROM THE ARCHIVES

Losing to St Joseph's after extra time last Saturday was probably inevitable. After all, we've beaten them so regularly that the law of averages dictates that we would lose eventually. If we had to lose, the Intersport would probably be the one to choose. It's the least prestigious of the Tayside competitions and one of those likely to be sacrificed for the proposed Fife/Tayside Cup Tournament.

Mind you, nobody likes to lose, and we are no exception. Probably the worst thing that could have happened to us was building up that comfortable 2-0 half time lead, hard on the heels of the five second half goals on Tuesday. Anyway, that's history now and, speaking of history, it should be recorded that Gus Malone's three goals for St Joseph's was the ex-Tayport Amateurs player's first hat-trick on the Canniepairt. Whilst with the amateurs, Gus twice hit trebles but both were away from home, to NCR in September 1982 and at Dunkeld in the North of Tay Cup the following month.

This weekend a party from Newport Amateurs and The Ponderosa are off to Belgium to contest the annual tournament in Ougree, a suburb of Liege.

It's 13 years since the Tournament was last won by locals but, with all respect to those taking part in this year's competition, we travelled in 1982 with a formidable squad.

To refresh the memories, we beat a Belgian side by 2-1 in round one, an Italian side by 1-0 in the semi final and faced another Belgian side, the host club, in the final.

The final, like last Tuesday against St Joseph's, was one of those performances which, if you were there, lives with you forever.

Tayport won 4-0 and the team that day was:- Angus Charity; Phil Smith (now manager of this Saturday's opponents, Violet), Alan Hart, Bobby Wilson (now Arbroath SC), Colin Gray (now Newport Amateurs); Gus Malone, Jim Bisset (now coaching for our opponents this evening), Barry Toner; Allan Harte, Ian Howe, and Kevin Murphy. Rab Downie replaced Colin Gray and he, in turn, was replaced by Kenny Smith (now of the Grampian Hotel and one of our current sponsors). Subs who weren't used were Neil Downie and Bruce Burnett.

Kevin Murphy (now a bus driver for Tayside Buses, I think) hit a hat-trick in the final with Allan Harte getting the other. Phil Smith's performance earned him the award of 'Young Player of the Tournament'.

TAYPORT and SAINTS TO MAKE IT A NORTH EAST FIFE DOUBLE ON SATURDAY ?

Hill O' Beath came from behind last Friday evening to beat OVD Scottish Junior Cup Champions Camelon and earn a place in today's Fife & Lothians Cup Final at Glenrothes against St Andrews United. United have surprised a few by getting to the final. There's no love lost between the two finalists and Haws will start as hot favourites.

This competition, now sponsored by Whyte & Mackay, has been dominated in recent seasons by Lothians /East Region clubs, indeed all the finals in the 1990's have been contested by East Region clubs. Hill o' Beath, last season, was the first Fife club to appear in the final during this era., only to lose 1-2 to Bo'ness United.

On Sunday past Shettleston, appearing in their third successive Whyte & Mackay (West of Scotland) Cup Final, the west coast equivalent of today's Finals, defeated Reebok Central League champions Pollok by 4-2 at Cambuslang.

It makes one wonder why Whyte & Mackay don't push the boat out and sponsor all three Inter-Regional Tournaments. After all, this is the second most prestigious competition for Junior clubs after the Scottish Junior Cup.

Tayport's last performance in Dundee, against St Joseph's last Tuesday, must have whetted the appetites for this Saturday's North End Centenary Cup Final between ourselves and Dundee Violet at North End Park. Adding further interest to the game is the fact that Violet are one of the only two teams over which we have failed to record a victory this season (Whitburn was the other).

We drew 1-1 at Glenesk in August and 0-0 on the Canniepairt in November so clearly the Pansies will fancy their chances of lifting the silverware. On both those occasions Violet were content to settle for a draw, let's hope both teams go for it on Saturday and give, what will be North End Park's biggest crowd of the season. a cup final to remember.

It's something of a unique occasion that two of the three North East Fife based clubs, Tayport and St Andrews United, should be contesting the finals of two of Junior Football's biggest tournaments on the same afternoon. I wonder if our local newspapers, the Fife Herald & the St Andrews Citizen, will make anything of this wee bit of Junior Football history? No chance! Their editorial staff are probably not even aware that the games are taking place, never mind the significance of them. Now, if they thought that there was the opportunity to sell some advertising, well....that would be different.

The presence of two Fife clubs in the final, to the exclusion of the East Region sides, underlines the need to have a Tayside/Fife competition. It's surely an attractive proposition for a sponsor somewhere.

FROM THE EDITOR.....

This is the last Port Prog of the season - 23 have been issued this season - so it's an opportune time to record the club's thanks. First of all to you, the purchaser, for remaining a loyal reader and supporting the club by buying the Port Prog. To all those who have taken out advertising space in the programme, in whatever form, to those who have completed questionnaires etc. To Matthew Lawson in Essex for providing the statistical update pages and to those others who help get the programme out.

Sniffing About With The Snout

THANKS to Jeek Johnstone who took a collection at last Saturday's game for the half-time tea ladies, Yvonne and Maureen. The girls have asked me to pass on their thanks to members.

ANOTHER fine gesture was that of Keith Sinclair at the Taybridge Bar on Monday evening. When word filtered through that Tayport had secured the title, Keith immediately cracked open the champagne to allow the bar regulars to toast the success in style.

THERE'S no truth in the story that Keith acquired the champers at knockdown price from Fairfield Park! There is truth, though, in the story that in the Fairfield sponsors' lounge at half-time during our 5-0 win there last week (it was 0-0 at half-time, remember), guests were reminded to return at full time for the title celebrations.

TAYPORT Supporters club did their bit to help in the title success by running a bus to Fairfield Park on Monday to cheer on Lochee United. In common with all those with Tayport leanings they went through a tortuous 90 minutes and an extra tortuous five minutes injury time. That's the second time in a couple of months that Tayport Supporters' club have run a bus to a Lochee United match. Just hope they remember who to cheer when we travel to Thomson Park next Monday night!

IT wasn't just Tayport and Joeys fans who were on tenterhooks on Monday night. Lochee boss Davie Martin had placed a bet with the bookies at the start of the season on Tayport to win the league. So his heart would have been in his mouth, too, during those closing minutes when Joeys goalbound efforts were saved at pointblank range by keeper Fitzpatrick, kicked off the line and rebounded from the crossbar.

ST JOSEPH'S supremo Peter Marr's commitment to his club is absolute. Although he had flown out to Magaluf on holiday on Saturday, he jetted back again for Monday night's decider, flying back after the game.

GARY Strachan has been appointed manager of newly promoted Broughty Athletic in succession to Graeme Irons. Gary who is one of the coaches at Tayport FC's Saturday morning SFA coaching classes, was previously in charge at DCFE in the Midlands Amateurs.

STILL on the Midlands. Barnhill were crowned champions last week but it was something of an anti-climax. St Joseph's amateurs, despite running two X1's, failed to raise a team and didn't turn-up for the game which Barnhill required to win. The outcome of the game was subsequently determined by the Midlands committee who awarded the points to Barnhill. A disappointing way to win any title but a deserved success, anyway, for Ian Mitchell

DIDN'T hear it myself but there were no shortage of people who did hear Radio Tay's Sunday Talk-in feature a caller who waxed eloquent over the Tayport performance at Fairfield Park last Wednesday. As a Senior football regular, he reckoned that Tayport's display was the best he had seen all season and that their skilful play was a tribute to the coaching which the team received. At £1.50, he reckoned it was an absolute bargain.

ONE of the first callers to find out the score of the St Joseph's v Lochee United game on Monday past was from Andy 'Bunter' Robertson in Dubai. Clearly delighted at the outcome, Bunt immediately made plans to join another ex-pat. and club member Stuart Davie for a beer or twelve..
