Today's Game

Forth visit the Canniepairt today looking for their first victory in eight games. However, having drawn their last two they'll be hoping that it's a case of third time lucky. Like our own Dave Baikie, Wanderers boss John Jamieson has been plagued recently by injuries and other reasons for not getting out the squad which he would like to field.

The two bus loads of supporters which travelled to Lanarkshire were, like the manager, disappointed with the fare on offer and will be looking for something better to cheer about today. Tayport will be out to make amends, that's for sure, while Forth will take heart from the second half at Kingsmill and be out to make their trip north worthwhile. It all adds up to an intriguing contest.

Tayport will be anxious to rid themselves of some of the injury problems that have been evident in recent weeks. Forth will be in a position to field a stronger line-up this week. Fullback Crawford Wright should be available for selection as should Peter Naughton. It is possible too that the visitors could have a new face in their team. Officials have been busy this week attempting to make a signing who would be eligible for today's replay.

Being the only OVD tie on Tayside, the game could attract a healthy crowd and hopefully we'll give them something to cheer about.

The officials for today's game are changed from last week and, at the time of writing no linesmen were to be appointed. However both clubs are anxious that official linesmen are appointed and discussions are to take place with the SJFA with this in mind.

TAYPORT TAKE RUNNERS-UP SPOT IN OVD QUIZ

Scottish Junior F.A. officials Joe Black and Ronnie Orr were in Dundee on Monday evening in company with representatives of OVD Rum to run the first ever OVD Rum Scottish Junior Football Quiz. The event took place at the Downfield Social Club and was the first of six regional quizzes which the sponsors are running.

All the questions were on Scottish Junior Football, the first part being restricted to Tayside Junior Football

The Jeanfield Swifts team won the competition with 43 points. Tayport and North End tied for second place with 36 points. We then went into a tie break with North End. The teams still couldn't be separated but a second tie break saw Tayport edge out their opponents.

The other scores were: Referees 1V 35; Downfield 'A' 32; Forfar Albion 30; Violet 31; Downfield 'B' 28; East Craigie 25; Forfar West End 24; Lochee United 23.

Here's a sample of some of the questions: (answers later in the Prog)

- 1) Name the four Fife teams which have won the Scottish Cup (4)
- 2) Which teams play at the following grounds - New Pebble Park; New Byres Park; Humbug Park; Guy's Meadow. (4)
- 3) From Which Junior club did Celtic sign Tommy Burns (1)
- 4) Which Region provided most entries for the OVD Scottish Cup (1)
- 5) Which teams contested the first ever Scottish Junior Cup Final (2)
- 6) An Ayrshire team a Tayside team and two East Region teams all play at Beechwood Park. Name them. (4)
- 7) Two of last season's OVD Cup quarter finalists came from outwith Ayrshire and Central. Name them (2)
- 8) Which clubs won the following competitions last season. Fife & Lothians Cup, North Region Cup, Fife Cup. (3)

Tayport's team was the club secretary, the match secretary and that doyen of the club's supporters, Jim Spalding.

FOOTNOTE Try as he might, Monday evening's guest quizmaster, Radio Tay's Dick Donnelly just couldn't master the word 'Canniepairt' which cropped up on a couple of occasions. He tried hard, coming up with several variations but he still didn't manage to crack it!

The Baker's Bit

Good afternoon and a warm welcome to the players and officials of Forth Wanderers and, of course, to the Port Support.

I was hoping that we'd be playing in a league game this afternoon and not having to entertain another Scottish Cup tie, but really, we've only got ourselves to blame for that. You can't play for 45 minutes and then decide to go missing for the following 45. To be perfectly honest, I was extremely disappointed with our performance in that second half.

The majority of our players have been over this course so many times before. In fact today will be our 27th Scottish Cup tie in the past four years. Some players badly let themselves down last Saturday. I said before last week that I felt that the playing surface at Forth could be a big factor in the outcome - a great leveller - if we tried to play a passing game on it.

To be fair, the first half went mainly to plan and I felt that we deserved more than our 1-0 interval lead but, as we all know, a game lasts 90 minutes and for the latter half we quite literally lost the place and, may I say, the pace.

The half-time instructions seemed to have gone in one ear and out the other. Certain players began to pass the buck and, in turn, put added pressure on our defence. Not good enough and, if we are to progress in this tournament, the standard must improve. Our players really don't need telling (although I may just remind them!). They know that they let themselves and the fans down. But they are determined to make amends.

We can't turn the clock back now. It's in the past. But we can have a say in the future, so that's where we must concentrate our efforts.

We've been a bit inconsistent so far this season by our standards, but I really put that down mainly to the horrendous injury list which we've had this season. Some players have been unable to play or train this season and others are nursing injuries from Saturday to Saturday and not getting much training in between times.

In fact no less than six players took the field last week carrying some sort of injury. And, of the five substitutes which we listed, only one was completely free of injury. As you might imagine the busiest man at the club has been our physio Andy Bell. Andy has worked above the call of duty and must be commended for his efforts.

I'm not using this as a cop-out for last Saturday - far from it - but I must say that it would be bliss to have 16 or 17 players fully fit and competing for places. And I'm sure that Andy Bell wouldn't mind that situation either!

So, we start all over again today. Our players have been, and will be again, instructed in what's required for victory and a place in tomorrow's draw. If our players play with the attitude which they've shown in midweek, then I'm confident that we'll be in that draw.

Support The Port, Dave Baikie.

SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP

DOWNFIELD PROVIDE THE SHOCK OF THE ROUND
OVD SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP 1ST ROUND REVIEW

It's often been said that Downfield hog the headlines of the local press, regardless of their current form, but there's no doubt that they deserved all the headlines that they got at the weekend after that tremendous win in Ayrshire. Irvine Meadow will be absolutely gutted by the Spiders' 2-0 win. Clubs from down there bank on a good run in the Scottish and Meadow, the current Ayrshire champions would have been no exception.

Likewise at Petershill, the locals will be stunned at their 0-2 home defeat by Glenafton who always seem to manage to rise to the occasion. At Barrhead the locals would hardly have imagined that their favourites would be held at home by Pumpherston but, despite failing to win at home, Arthurlie will still be favourites to go through.

A shock too for Stonehaven at Elgin where Bishopmill United eliminated their more fancied opponents in a tie played at Borough Briggs. Carlisle Rovers' win at home to Livingston United was a real stunner. Rovers went into the match bottom placed of the 39 Central League sides, with no points and only two goals to show for their efforts in five league games, but, as they say, 'the cup's different'. Livingston learned the hard way.

Maud may not be setting the heather on fire up North but they pulled off a good result at Greenock by holding the local team to a 1-1 draw. A shock at Kirkintilloch where second division Rob Roy ousted those doughty cup fighters of recent years, Lesmahagow of the Central Reebok Premier Division by 3-0.

The long trip from Ayrshire to Aberdeen proved fruitless for Hurlford United when they crashed by 5-0 to Lewis United. Whitletts Vics who have struggled since they were revived a couple of years ago recorded one of their best cup results for some time by defeating Broxburn Athletic by 4-2.

Another of the fancied Reebok Premier sides to struggle was Dunipace who were held at home by Formartine and face a tricky trip north today. Also drawing 1-1 were Newburgh who are at Dalkeith this afternoon.

Largs showed last season that the OVD can come up with the shocks, let's hope that the first round has exhausted its quota of surprise results.

Today's Visitors

FORTH WANDERERS under new boss, ex-Shotts and Harthill Royal supremo, JOHN JAMIESON, had a tremendous start to the season going undefeated for the first four games to reach the quarter finals of the Central League's Abercorn League Cup. They went down to Pollok by 2-1 in that one and, before last Saturday, kind of came off the rails a bit, taking only one point from a possible nine and crashing out of the Whyte & Mackay Cup 4-0 to Shettleston.

In goal today for Wanderers will be 21 years old ALAN COLQUHOUN signed this season from Shotts YM Amateurs. Received some stick in the local press for some recent performances but showed his capabilities in last week's game. DEREK GRENFELL, signed this season from Royal Albert as a midfielder but manager Jamieson sees him as a more effective fullback. CRAWFORD WRIGHT (left back) missed last week through being in England with his work. A close season signing from Carlruke Rovers, he should be in his usual position today.

GRAEME HAMILTON (sweeper) was signed from Harthill this season as a fullback but has taken over the sweeper role at Kingshill. Played in the 1990 OVD Cup Final with Lesmahagow. VINCENT WARNIN (centre half) Signed only a couple of weeks ago from Harthill. Last week's tie was only his second full game for Forth. STEVE PILLANS was signed from Carlruke Rovers as a centre half but in one of Manager Jamieson's many conversions has been switched to midfield. MICHAEL DAVIE was signed at the tail end of last season from Newmains U 21's as a fullback but has also been used mainly in midfield. Skillful player but still finding his feet in the Juniors. JAMES MILLIGAN, midfielder who was signed from Premier League Lesmahagow. Formerly a Rangers provisional signing.

GARY BRYCE was signed from Harthill this season. Although he wears the No. 9 jersey he is noted more as a target man rather than a prolific scorer, indeed he has yet to find the net this season.

KENNY MACLEOD. Despite the name Kenny is English! He's been at Forth for some four seasons now and is one of the club's longest serving players. A midfield ball winner, Kenny was signed from Wishaw Juniors. Netted last week's equaliser.

Usually wearing the No.11 jersey is PAT DALY but the veteran ex-Petershill and Shotts player could be an absentee this week through a domestic matter. Another of the ex-Harthill players in the Forth squad, Pat is the side's top scorer and had the distinction of netting in all of Forth's sectional League Cup matches this season.

COLIN VANCE, a winger signed two seasons ago from Carlruke Rovers. Was formerly with neighbours Lanark. Playing last Saturday in the absence of Crawford Wright was JIM BROWN, signed three seasons ago from Shotts Bon Accord. Jim doubles up as assistant manager/coach

PAUL QUIGLEY (midfield or fullback). Another who has been three seasons at Kingshill Park. Paul is a nurse by profession and is theatre assistant at Monklands General Hospital. PETER NAUGHTON looks likely to get a jersey this week. A midfielder or forward signed last season from Newmains U 21's, he's missed the last five games through suspension. Was unfortunate to become involved in a scrap with an Ashfield player (who was suspended for 7 games) and has had to sit out since. Has only played four games for the club.

On the bench last week and helping out because of Forth's acute player shortage was DANNY McDOUGALL. Danny is the club's ex-manager and signs on to help out in emergencies.

Out of contention for a place is ALISTAIR BROWN who sustained a tendon injury in a pre-season friendly and had his leg in plaster for eight weeks. Still on the injured list.

Press Comment

" Second top Tayport had no problems in winning 5-1 at home against Arbroath Sporting Club. Port, the Region's top scorers, have Internationalist Hamish Mackay leading the goal surge. He notched a hat-trick against Sporting Club "

- Courier (10/10/94)

" Manager Dave Baikie is well aware that any away tie spells danger, but, having watched opponents Forth Wanderers, he is quietly confident "

- 'Junicus' in the Evening Telegraph (12/10/94)

" In the end the scoreline was quite emphatic but the visitors certainly had their chances, particularly each side of half-time when several opportunities were scorned "

- Fife Herald. Tayport 5 Arbroath S.C. 1 (14/10/94)

" Manager Dave Baikie's biggest worry is the pitch which is not in the best of shape and could be a leveller "

- Courier (15/10/94)

" Port manager Dave Baikie said 'When we went ahead, I believed we were on the road to victory and the equaliser was a bit of a surprise."

- Courier (17/10/94) Forth 1 Tayport 1.

THE SPIDER SAGA - THE THIRD (and hopefully final) PART

Following the Spider's reply in issue 4 of the Port Prog to the allegations re. the 'Cambusbarron Episode' published in Issue 3, we can now provide further evidence of Spider's on-field eccentricities. The following are extracts from previously unpublished match reports of games involving Spider (Graham McLaren) during his 18 years exile from Tayport F.C. Make up your own mind!

McLAREN - Alternating between total loquacious, and solid and dependable

McLaren  Gave away a penalty in hilarious style

The first goal was the result of a McLaren tackle within the box which predictably enough ended with the Arbroath attacker rocketing into the air with Spider's foot wedged firmly up his anal canal. Spider's protestations of innocence could not be ~~more~~ heeded.....

Sniffing About With The Snout

GORDON Dunn, one of those keepers who has less than a harmonious relationship with the Port Support, has come out of retirement. Forfar West End keeper Gordon retired from football following the Whyte & Mackay Final against us last June but has moved to the Senior ranks and has been keeping goal for Arbroath in the third division. Gordon has played against Albion Rovers and East Stirling these past two weeks

MONTROSE have announced that they will listen to offers for three ex-Tayside Juniors on their staff. Available are Darren Taylor (Lochee Utd.), Eddie Wolecki (St Joseph's) and Ian McKenna (Blairgowrie).

TAYSIDE officials are believed to be far from chuffed at the poor turnout of clubs at the SJFA/OVD Quiz last Monday evening. Amongst the absentees were Carnoustie, St Josephs, Kinnoull, Harp and Arbroath S.C.

SAD to hear of the death of ex-Forfar Athletic chairman Sam Smith. In any dealings which this club had with Sam, he was always the perfect gentleman. We have raised thousands of pounds over the years running Racenights for other clubs. Forfar Athletic ran our first Racenight for us and, though he may have been chairman, Sam was a 'hands on' type of guy and he was there with other members of the board helping run the racenight for Tayport.

FORTH officials came in for praise from our group of sponsors at last Saturday's tie. They were delighted with the hospitality afforded them at half-time and at the Mansewood Hotel after the game.

TAYSIDE'S Disciplinary committee dealt with 45 cases at this week's sitting. This is understood to be a record high for this committee at one sitting.

SNOUT spotted this gem in the newspaper recently: When North Korea's only golf course was opened it was only natural that the "Dear Leader" Kim Jong Il, should do great things on its fairways. But... five holes-in-one in a single round? "He is an excellent golfer," declared Park Young-man the course professional. Pity Kim was too late for the World Match Play.

THE draw for the second round of the OVD Scottish Junior Cup will take place tomorrow in Aberdeen. With all replays now being played to a finish today, the draw will be clear cut.
