Today's Game

Balbeggie's last visit to the Canniepairt was in 1990 when they lost 2-5 in a Tayside Division 2 game. Only Spalding, D.Reilly and Paterson from Tayport's team that day will be in contention for a place this afternoon.

The clubs have had greatly contrasting fortunes since that last meeting here but that will all be forgotten as the two sides run out intent on winning a place in the 3rd round of the OVD Cup. The bookies will make Tayport clear favourites, but wasn't that just the case against Bankfoot the other week? Two weeks after we were being eliminated from the Perthshire Advertiser cup on penalties by Bankfoot, Balbeggie were being denied a win over that same Bankfoot team by a late penalty kick miss by Mark Hamilton in a 0-0 draw in a league division two match.

It's a strange game, football, and you can never be just sure how things are going to work out. Balbeggie's recent good run will have given them a degree of confidence but it's unlikely that we'll see the Perthshire team adopting a cavalier approach. An approach more in line with that of Bankfoot is a better bet!

Balbeggie will have to draw on all their defenders' experience to halt a Tayport attack that has netted twelve times in three games on the Canniepairt since that Bankfoot debacle. If Tayport can turn on the style that delighted their support at Downfield last week, then that same support will spill into the street at 3.45pm with a spring in their step.

Trip To Arbroath In Centenary Cup

The draw for the 2nd round of the Dundee North End Centenary Cup was made earlier this week and pairs us with Arbroath Vics at Arbroath.

The rest of the draw is: North End v Violet; Blairgowrie v Forfar Albion; Downfield v Jeanfield Swifts; Balbeggie v Kirrie Thistle; Bankfoot v Luncarty; St Joseph's v Elmwood; Lochee United v Broughty Athletic.

Armada Thistle, our OVD Cup victors last season, are selling their town centre ground, Volunteer Park, for £500,000 to a developer who plans to build a supermarket on the site.

However, the cash has already been spoken for. They intend to build a new stadium with 1,000 seater stand just across the road from their present ground. The cost of the new stadium is estimated to be £1,000,000.

Also set to move are Luncarty. Nothing as ambitious for them, however, with £30,000 the cost of developing a field next to their social club.

TIME TO TAKE ACTION, GENTLEMEN

On 29th October in the Courier's Junior Football notes, the headline was 'Trophy North End would love to win' and the following article devoted 10 paragraphs and 7 column inches to the Scone Thistle v North End North End Centenary Cup tie at Scone. Fair enough, Scone boasted an unbeaten record and North End's Social Club put up the prestigious Trophy, second only to the OVD Scottish Cup in importance.

So, having read the article your average junior punter decides to check out the Sporting Post that evening for the outcome. Not a bleedin' cheep. No report not even a result. Should we be surprised? I doubt it. Scone never seem to bother their backside about phoning in the score, never mind a report. O.K., we've moaned about the likes of Scone before who can't manage to get to a phone an hour after a game, but it's time the Tayside Junior officials stopped the pussyfooting with the likes of Scone. We all rely on sponsorship, clubs and the League and the attitude of clubs such as Scone do us no favours at all. We should all be doing our best to promote the Tayside game for the benefit of all.

So, come on gentlemen, if every club carried on in the manner of the few, there would be plenty to say, what about sorting out those clubs which continually cock a snook at your good-selves despite probably being told at every meeting to toe the line.

Today's Visitors

BALBEGGIE are one of the Cinderella clubs of the Tayside Juniors but when it comes down to determination to survive, they have few peers. In their twenty years of existence, they have known their share of heartbreak but, when success does come along, it tastes that much sweeter.

Balbeggie are in the midst of one of their best runs, in terms of results, for some time. Only one defeat in their past six games and only four goals conceded in that time.

In charge of the show at Redfield Park are co-managers Derek Hamilton and Sandy Smith. Both have a great wealth of experience in the Game. Derek had spells Senior with Dundee United and Forfar Athletic and was a member of a Jeanfield side which collected all the local honours. Sandy, as well as serving Bankfoot, was a stalwart at St Johnstone under the legendary Willie Ormond. Accompanying them on the bench is physio, west-coaster Billy Killin.

Last line of defence for Balbeggie today will be GORDON McINTOSH who kept goal for Scone and Bankfoot before joining his present club two seasons ago. BILLY BEATSON (full-back) was with St Johnstone in the 1970's but has been with Balbeggie for the past four or five seasons. Those of you old enough will recall the chart topping band The New Seekers. Their singer, Eve Graham, is Billy's sister.

Central defender CRAIG JEMPSON was signed from Guildtown Amateurs. His performances this season have been attracting the Senior scouts. Also in central defence is PAUL JOHNSTON. Signed a couple of years ago from Bankfoot and has also seen service at Scone Thistle.

In the sweeper role will likely be GRANT FORBES. Barney's been around the Junior game and for many years was a stalwart with the now defunct Perth Celtic. Another who turned out with Perth Celts was full-back BRIAN TAYLOR. This is his third spell at Balbeggie, having also been with Bankfoot and Luncarty. Was with Celtic as a youngster. JOHN SMITH is brother of co-manger Sandy. Plays in defence and was signed from Arbroath Vics, with whom he was manager, two seasons ago. A signing towards the end of last season was BILLY SHEARER. Billy is another who has done the rounds of several Junior sides including Scone and Forfar Albion.

Another youngster who is catching the eye of the Seniors is defender BARRY MONIE who was fixed up from Crieff amateur football. ALASTAIR SINCLAIR or Shuggie as he's better known, is a midfielder in his second spell with the club having been at Kinnoull and Bankfoot. FRASER DOIG (midfield) not ed one of the four goals against Elmwood last week. Yet another who is in his second spell at Redfield having been with Bankfoot. A lot of similarities with MIKE JACKSON. He netted last week, played with Bankfoot and is on his second tour of duty with the club. ALAN McINTYRE (midfield) signed from Crieff amateur football and currently enjoying his third spell with the club.

Up front MARK HAMILTON, son of co-manager Derek, will be one to watch. A regular scorer, he had a short period at Forfar Athletic. Third season at Redfield. Another regular marksman is the big veteran striker GEORGE BROWNING. Been with several Junior sides in Tayside and Fife and is yet another in his second spell at the club. (must be something about Balbeggie that makes all their players want to return).

DAVIE MILLAR was formerly with Scone and Kinnoull but before and between was with his present club. Scored the opening goal v Elmwood las week. STEVIE GORDON was signed from amateur football last year and is one of the few Balbeggians in his first spell at the club!

The Baker's Bit

I'd like firstly to welcome our Scottish Cup opponents Balbeggie to the Canniepairt.

It was great to see the Port Support out in numbers last week at Downfield. I hope that you enjoyed our victory. To be honest it's been a long time coming. Apart from our P.A. Cup performance there last season, I can't really recall a game where our outfield play didn't deserve more than it actually got, but last Saturday, the 3-0 victory was very satisfying

However I felt that we didn't really start particularly well, but as the game progressed we got stronger and after we took the lead there was a spell when we touched on the standards for which I'm looking. Once again the interval seemed to cool the attitude and really I was disappointed with the twenty or so minutes after the break. I knew that we were never in any trouble but we like to set high standards at this club and our players know this and must push each other and demand from each other just that.

The second goal was a real bonus and a killer for Downfield. Our third goal really delighted me and I'm sure Mel Irons as well because Steven Stewart's goal was the end product of a training ground set-piece on which he's worked from time to time with the players. A good two points for Tayport.

It really hasn't been a bad last three weeks with a 4-0 win over Forth followed by a good 3-0 win over Montrose and we also managed to slip in a wee 4-0 friendly win in between at the Gussie. Added to the Downfield score, I reckon that's 14 n.o. - not bad. Mind you, they've got a long way to go to catch my 30 odd or was it 40 odd n.o. which destroyed the Rotary Club bowling a couple of months back!

Seriously, though, we must build on these past three weeks. We're obviously going in the right direction. There's a lot more in the tank. A lot more work to be done on and off the training ground, but we're on the right road.

Today's Scottish Cup opponents Balbeggie come here to block that road. I put it to our players this afternoon 'clear the way. Get our club into the 3rd round draw. Focus on the job ahead. Don't drop your standards, increase them. Do so and we'll have no problems.'

Support The Port, Dave Baikie.

Competing without the throw-in

report on the revolutionary kick-in being tested out in Belgium

THE Sunday afternoon rain had stopped and a rainbow curved in the sky above the Beerschot football ground in Antwerp. There were unusual things happening on the field too. Every time the ball went out of play in the Belgian second division match, the players were allowed to break the precedent of a century by kicking the ball back into play instead of taking a throw-in.

Every minute or two, a rustle ran through the crowded tribunes as supporters discussed the so-called kick-in, which generally meant a long ball and an additional opportunity to score.

The Belgian second division, a tough professional league concentrated in Flemish factory towns, has been chosen by soccer's world governing body, Fifa, as the principal testing ground for the controversial rule change. It has also been implemented in minor leagues in England and Hungary.

When the kick-in was devised by Fifa, its proponents said that it would speed up play and force teams to attack rather than fall into a defensive shell. So far in Belgium, the experiment has certainly provided more excitement for goalkeepers and spectators alike, but as a set piece it seems to take as much time as the old throw-in.

Beerschot, based near Antwerp's busy port area, have no complaints. The side rides easily at the top of the division, four points clear of Genk, and has conceded only four goals in eleven matches while scoring 23.

One of the first goals of the season came from a kick-in, a header by the Polish centre forward Krzysztof Stepanski.

"The new rule has made a difference, but perhaps not as much as we thought it would," said the Beerschot head coach, René Desaeyere, smiling after a recent 6-0 romp over St Niklaas. "The opposition now have to cover our centre forward 50 yards away from the ball. It opens the defence and creates more space, and that's the idea of football, creating space."

Another person who can't have any complaints is the Beerschot keeper, Pierre Drouguet, a 32-year-old from Verviers. He went the first 804 minutes of the season without allowing a ball to sully his net, and when the first goal did come it was from a penalty kick towards the end of the ninth game.

Still, he acknowledges that the kick-in has introduced a new element of danger into an already dangerous profession.

"If the ball is close you have to be very aware of what is happening," he said. "It can arrive with short passes or can come right in front of goal. Before, with the throw-in, you knew it could never reach the goal."

Drouguet spent two years at KV Mechelen as back-up to Michel Preud'homme, the Belgian international now at Benfica, so he knows a bit about world-class keeping.

"The first match with the new rule was very hard," he said. "It looked so strange. For the first half-hour we did not know what was happening, because you think there should be an offside, but of course there can't be with a kick-in. Now, I would say, it looks normal. Dangerous but normal."

Guy Goethals, a busy Belgian international referee and son of Raymond, the former Belgium and Marseilles mentor, has handled several second division games with the new rule.

"My reaction so far is rather positive," he said. "But is it better? That is too early to say. We have to wait until we have seen a whole season."

Goethals said he did not think the rule made the game quicker, because players still have to start-up from a "dead ball" situation and wait for attackers to spring toward the opposing goal. "But you definitely have more chances to score," Goethals said.

The one problem he noted is that the linesman on the other side of the field sometimes has trouble telling if a decision near the touchline is a free kick, for which offside counts, or a kick-in, when it doesn't.

Teams treat the kick-in exactly as they would a corner, putting the tallest players around the goal for a header.

"At the beginning of the season I was worried that everyone would play it long, which is not much fun," said Beerschot's Desaeyere. "But they haven't. Usually you have the option to play long or short."

Belgian football is largely defensive, so the new rule is a welcome innovation for those who like a bit more action. Guido de Windt, of the Belgian Football Federation, which is in the midst of its 100th anniversary celebrations, says the kick-in would be a blessing to tall, aggressive players.

So far it appears that second division scoring and attendance is up since the introduction of the new rule, but that could be the influence of good weather rather than more attacks. The adoption of the English system of awarding three points for a victory has also clearly led to a more attacking style.

Sepp Blatter, general secretary of Fifa, is to go to Belgium soon to evaluate the new rule. All teams using it will be asked to answer a questionnaire in December, when the experiment will have been in force for six months.

Almost all fans appear to like the new rule. Camiel Cop, former secretary of the Beerschot club, has supported the club since 1936 when he was 11 years old and has seen most of its home games since. "The kick-in is an extra privilege for an attacking team," he said. "If a team is offensive-minded it will favour them, and that is the way it should be."

Press Comment

" Montrose Roselea face a formidable task with an away tie at Tayport. Port are showing better form after a sluggish start .... manager Dave Baikie is delighted with the all round improvement "

- The Courier (29/10/94)

" Top game in the first division should be at Downfield Park where Tayport are visitors. The Spiders made a slow start to the season but have shown recently that they are back to something like their best. Although badly hit by injuries this season, Tayport have once again proved to be the team to beat "

- Junicus in the Evening Telegraph (2/11/94)

****

" ...Fleming was involved in transfer talks last night that would take John Young, the midfielder signed from Downfield Juniors in July, to Dundee St Joseph's. Young has played well for City but is unemployed and was keen to take a handsome offer from St Joseph's "

- Press & Journal (4/11/94)

****

" This is another major addition to our squad and I feel we need two more major signings to complete the jigsaw "

- St Joseph's official Dave Young on the Young transfer -Courier (5/11/94)

" Balbeggie turned in their most pleasing performance for some time when they whipped Elmwood to the tune of 4-1. They were much in command throughout. ..although the first half ended goalless. Whether or not it was the sharp edge of the manager's tongue or Mrs Menmuir's special brew, it certainly did the trick as they hit the goal trail within five minutes of the restart. "

- Perthshire Advertiser (8/11/94)

****

" Even with Port skipper and central defender Sommerville's enforced absence with a knee injury, the 'Lea forwards were unable to much impression on a solid Tayport defence "

- Fife Herald (4/11/94) Tayport 3 Montrose 0.

****

" Tayport ended Downfield's run of five successive victories with this convincing A.T. & T. League Division One win at Balgowan Avenue last Saturday. It was a thoroughly professional performance from the Port which delighted a healthy support on a damp and misty afternoon. "

- Fife Herald (11/11/94) Downfield 0 Tayport 3.

Sniffing About With The Snout

OVD SCOTTISH Junior Cup holders Largs Thistle are in hot water following an article which appeared in their Match Programme and which was later reproduced in a local newspaper down Ayrshire way. The article apparently ripped into the SJFA claiming that the clubs lost out when the cup spoils were distributed, with the SJFA retaining £30,000. The SJFA replied that Largs had received around £13,000, although Largs had claimed their cup win was 'not a bonanza'.

The SJFA were, to say the least, not chuffed. Largs have been ordered to appear to explain their comments. Comments from the SJFA Committee on Largs' claims included 'despicable, impertinent' and 'verging on libellous'. One SJFA Committee Member even went as far as to say 'Largs should be reminded that we could go on playing with 166 clubs just as easily as 167'.

NO news at the time of going to press on a successor to Les Barr at St. Joseph's. Willie Brown has been handed the caretaker role but the two results since Les' departure haven't exactly been earthshattering so an appointment will be a priority. One of the names Snout has heard being bandied about is that of Jim Leishman, currently in charge at Rosyth Recreation.

STILL on managers. Steve Jackson has left North End to take up a position as Youth Coach with Forfar Athletic at Station Park. It is understood that North End aren't to seek a replacement. The committee are happy to leave team affairs in the hands of John Markie and Ian Cook who worked with Steve at North End Park.

THE Canniepairt hosted its biggest crowd of the season to date last Saturday evening when the club staged its annual Guy Fawkes Bonfire and Firework Display. Despite the poor weather, it was a spectacular display. The fireworks came from a different supplier this year following a tip off from the Chester Le Street Town FC committee during our pre-season tour. It was a worthwhile tip, the consensus of opinion being that the firework show was better than in previous years.

EX-Forfar Athletic, Raith Rovers and Kirrie Thistle centre half Alex Brash, now playing amateur with NCR fell foul of the beaks at a recent disciplinary meeting of the Midlands AFA, receiving a six month ban from football. Feeling a sense of injustice the veteran defender has appealed against the sentence to the SAFA. Brave lad! Apart from the appeal fee, the loss of the case could mean paying the meeting expenses, which can run into three figures, an extension of the present ban or both.

LAST Saturday's Downfield F.C. Match Programme launched a bitter attack on Elgin City manager Ian Fleming following the transfer of John Young from Elgin to St Joseph's earlier that week. Young had moved to Elgin in the close season from Downfield for a reputed £4,500 fee and the Spiders thought that they had an agreement whereby they would get first refusal if the player wanted to return south. Not so. The article stated that Downfield felt they ".... were not treated fairly by Mr Fleming who broke the agreement.....Fleming's comments [in response to Downfield querying the situation] will be taken with the contempt they deserve and he [Fleming] is no longer welcome at Downfield Park."
