Forget the Rest and Get the Best

Today's Game

It's OVD Cup time again and there's always a buzz around the Canniepairt on these occasions. We've seen some stirring encounters and hopefully today will be no different.

The prize at stake is a place in the last 32 of the competition who contest the fourth round on January 21st next year.

We don't know too much about our opponents who play in the middle division of the three division Reebok Central League. This is the same division that our first round opponents, Forth, play in. In fact, the two sides met last Saturday at Forth where the locals recorded their first league win of the season by two goals to nil - something of a surprise result.

Forth will have been filling their Central League colleagues in about Tayport but no doubt Dave Baikie has been on to Kenny Bunce at Elmwood whom Port Glasgow defeated 4-1 in the first round in Dundee.

The Port Glasgow hero that day was their No. 10, Kevin Hughes who bagged a brace. And it's goals that seem to be the Clydeside team's greatest strength - and weakness. They've one of the best goals for records in the league but currently have the worst defence.

It could be the recipe for a goal packed encounter this afternoon. Tayport frustrated their fans last week when faced with a stuffy Violet side but I'm sure that there was nobody more frustrated than the players themselves. The team will be looking to the backing of the Port (Tayport Port, that is) Support to help carry them through.

After a disappointing display last week Port Glasgow seem likely to ring the changes, using their available pool to full advantage. Tayport won't have too many choices. Coventry and Paul Reilly will still be out as will the vacationing (hard to say, that word) Sean Wilkie. Hopes are high that Andy Sommerville can return and that no injuries have been picked up during the midweek friendly with Coupar Angus.

ANDY BELL

Profile

In the manner that most managers pursue players, Dave Baikie chased and finally netted ANDY BELL to look after the physiotherapy duties at the club. Andy had completed three seasons in his second spell at Forfar Athletic when he became available. The Tayport boss moved quickly to bring Andy to the Canniepairt.

Andy first moved into Senior football 23 years ago, working under Alan Kennedy at Station before moving to East Fife. He spent five seasons at Bayview during the reign of Pat Quinn but a change in his everyday job necessitated him scaling down his physiotherapy duties.

Andy's change of job saw him working for the ambulance service as a paramedic.

Although he helped out North End during his spell away from the Seniors, he was back in the Scottish League in 1985 when he was asked to join the Montrose backroom staff.

Andy spent six seasons at Links Park, moving back to Forfar in 1991 from where he joined Tayport this summer.

During his spell with Montrose Andy changed jobs and worked first with the physically handicapped and then with the mentally handicapped before more recently taking up a position in the Final Inspection and Repairs Department at Torbrex Engineering.

Andy is Dundee born and bred but tells us that his mother is a Fifer from Kirkcaldy and he has a Tayport connection in that his brother Graeme is resident in the town.

Married 34 years to Moira, Andy has two sons one of whom is a policeman, the other a jeweller in the U.S.A.

As well as being involved in football all his life, Andy had a great involvement in his other sporting love, ice hockey, being physio to the Dundee Rockets and Dundee Tigers. During his days with the Rockets Andy picked up three British Championship medals and was honoured by being appointed as physio to both the Scotland and Great Britain ice hockey squads.

We quizzed Andy about his lifetime in football and here he shares some of his thoughts on the game.

PP - Did you play Junior football?

AB - Yes, I played for East Craigie until I was 33. I then took over as their physio before moving to Carnoustie Panmure in the same capacity.

PP - Any influences on your physio career?

AB - Without a doubt, the biggest influence was the late Andy Dickson of Dundee United who gave me every encouragement to become involved in the physiotherapy business. Andy was a great tutor, always willing to give advice.

PP - Who was the manager at East Fife when you were there?

AB - Pat Quinn who was quite a character. He was a successful boss, though, and took East Fife into the Texaco Cup where we played Burnley.

PP - Any other high spots while at Bayview?

AB - I suppose the day that I substituted Sir Bobby Charlton.

PP - What? At Wembley?

AB - No, at Bayview!

PP - How did that come about?

AB - It was a Testimonial Match for big John Martis who had given sterling service to East Fife after joining them from Motherwell. East Fife were playing a Fife Select. Bobby Charlton was guesting as was Nobby Stiles. I thought Bobby was feeling the pace a bit in the second half, so I took the liberty of pulling him off to give Stiles a game!

PP - Any other highlights that come to mind?

AB - It was a great day when East Fife beat Rangers at Ibrox in the old first division and when Montrose defeated Hearts at Tynecastle in the Skol Cup. Hearts' defeat that night was their first at home for 18 months.

PP - What about players you've seen early in their careers who showed that they could go somewhere in the game?

AB - One that springs to mind is Stewart Petrie, now with Dunfermline. I always thought that he would do well. While at Forfar he had a great attitude, no shortage of skill and a nose for goal.

Another was Colin Methven who played in central defence for East Fife. Colin moved to Wigan and I was surprised that he didn't make more of a mark on the game.

PP - What about managers?

AB - Things didn't work out for Paul Hegarty at Forfar but he was certainly the most pleasant manager I worked with.

PP - You've just moved to the Canniepairt from Station Park, was it something of a culture shock?

AB - No, not really. There's not a great deal of difference. In fact I would think that Tayport would give any third division club a run for their money. There's a lot of quality players at this club. Tayport are run on pretty professional lines. Dave Baikie is a 'players' manager' - mixes with them on and off the field but commands respect nevertheless.

PP - Finally, Andy, what about the current injury situation here at the Canniepairt.

AB - Well, I inherited five bad injuries when I took over here, Sean, Junior Reilly, Big Andy, Covy and Divvy. All have taken time to shake off their injuries but I'm happy to report that they all appear to be on the mend now and we should see all five back in action together in the not too distant future.

Today's Visitors

We can't tell you too much about our visitors today. Promises of biographical notes being sent through from Port Glasgow failed to materialise.

Formed in 1899, Port Glasgow appeared in their one and only Junior Cup Final exactly 80 years ago, losing 2-0 to Parkhead.

Relegated from the first division in 1990/91 Port spent two seasons downstairs before regaining their place in the middle league by finishing runners-up last season in division two. They conceded only 23 goals in their 26 league games last season but have already conceded one more in their ten games this season.

They are described as being unpredictable - capable of brilliance one day and of being diabolical the next day. They showed their best side last season when they eliminated Central Premier Championship runners-up Lesmahagow from the League Cup.

Lesmahagow were responsible for ending Port's best OVD run of recent seasons, a 1-2 defeat in the 4th round in 1992/93. Apart from that occasion, today's 3rd round appearance is the best for several years.

This season a 4-1 win in Dundee against Elmwood was followed by an even more emphatic 5-0 win at Bonnybridge, so it appears that the best form is being reserved for the OVD Cup.

Look for top scorer Kevin Hughes(No.10) who is capable of scoring spectacular goals and Drew Diamond (No.11) who is a potential matchwinner if on his game. Following last week's result it's likely that Frank Mulgrew could be brought back to steady the visitors' defence.

Amongst the famous names who have graced the Port Glasgow jerseys through the years are Charlie Cooke, Sam English(Rangers), Davie Provan(Celtic), Jim Townsend (St Johnstone) and Hughie McIlmoyle (Wolves)

Charlie Cooke, born in St Monans, but went Senior from Port Glasgow to Aberdeen. From there he went on to have a distinguished career with Dundee, Chelsea and Scotland. One of the silkiest players ever to grace Dens Park.

The Baker's Bit

Central League Port Glasgow provide our Scottish Cup opposition this afternoon. I'd like to take this opportunity to welcome their players and officials to Tayport.

Before I talk of today's game I'd like to address last week's 0-0 league draw. Obviously it goes without saying that we're all disappointed at the outcome. No more so than myself and our players. We've come to expect more and in our book a draw is a defeat. Thank goodness we feel that way. Our players know that they let themselves down and that the standard wasn't good enough.

More and more clubs come here with the sole purpose to shut up shop, defend in numbers on their own 18 yard line. By their own admission Violet did just that. No one can deny that we totally dominated the outfield play but the cold facts were that their goalkeeper was never really tested. Our final ball was dreadful, played into the box with the word 'hopeful' written all over it. That problem's been addressed this week.

I'm not oblivious to the frustrations on the terracing. You seem to see things as black or white, good or bad, nothing in between and are used to a high standard of play. In comparison, your counterparts who sit in the stands at Ibrox see the same things as you do and our opposite numbers within their club feel as frustrated at times as I and our players feel about letting our fans down. But through all their early season injury problems, where do Rangers sit at this moment in the Premier League?

We, on a smaller scale, have just the same problems. If you care to look at the middle pages of this programme, you will note that we've never been able to field the same team twice. A manager's dream is an injury free pool and a team that picks itself week after week.

Over the past three or four seasons we've been reasonably fortunate on that score. That's not been the case this season. In fact a number of our players have played and continue to play, with injuries because we've just not been able to rest them. I'd like to take this opportunity to thank them for that and so should you because the hard facts are that, despite all the problems, Tayport F.C. are still undefeated in open play in 18 starts and, in the league, we are actually one point better off than this time last season and it's been over 15 months since our last league defeat.

Yes, there are a couple of players going through a bad time form-wise but they'll come through that with my, and their teammates', backing. And with your support because I'll tell you this - verbal abuse to individuals on the park will only prolong their agony. I know that it can be hard at times to bite your tongue but, to me, supporters have a part to play in lifting the players to perform better. There's no logic in helping destroy a player's confidence that is already low.

Today we have an opportunity to advance to the fourth round of the Scottish Cup. The players will be left in no doubt of the task that lies ahead this afternoon. I'm confident, as are our players. They'll respond. So let's all unite behind the Tayport banner as one. We've only one thing in mind and that's a Tayport victory.

Support The Port, Dave Baikie.

TAYPORT HIT SEVEN IN MIDWEEK FRIENDLY MATCH

EWAN Cameron hit four goals when Tayport beat second division Coupar Angus Juniors at Foxhall Park by 7-0 on Tuesday evening. It was a worthwhile workout for the Port who fielded their latest signing, 40 years old George Malone, suggesting that the Silver Fox could be in line for a jersey this afternoon.

Also on the mark were Hamish Mackay with two goals and Gary Maher.

FROM THE ARCHIVES

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Sniffing About With The Snout

THE Royal British Legion Club in William Street may be no more, having been demolished this week to be replaced by housing but part of that club will live on. We have acquired the flagpole and hopefully, by the time you are reading this, the championship flag will be fluttering proudly from that same flagpole on the south gable of the our pavilion here at the Canniepairt.

MANAGER Ian Fleming of Elgin City who took John Young and Shuggie McLaughlan from the Tayside Juniors to the Highland League, has been recruiting again and had ex-Hibs and Aberdeen Hibs striker Stevie Cowan making his debut last Saturday. Those of us who saw Stevie playing for Linlithgow Rose in the Pollok Sevens will know what the reporter meant when he described him as being 'ponderous and unfit' last Saturday. Unfit he may have been but he knows the road to goal and notched in City's 2-1 win over Forres which keeps Elgin a point behind the league leaders Deveronvale with two games in hand.

DEVERONVALE have two Taysiders as regulars in their team, Bradley Kerr and Steve Dolan. It's a long haul up to Banff so Steve trains regularly with us at the Canniepairt.

MISSING from the Port Glasgow line-up today will be goalkeeper Robert O'Neill. The evening before Port Glasgow's OVD 1st round tie with Elmwood in Dundee, Robert was walking home when he was set upon and viciously attacked with a broken bottle. His throat was slashed and he required blood transfusions and more than 50 stitches. Greenock Police were treating the incident as attempted murder. Fortunately, Robert is recovering well from his injuries.

PORT Glasgow Juniors are nicknamed 'The Undertakers'. Apparently the name came from their reputation for burying opponents who visited their Woodhall Park ground in Port Glasgow. I hope that we don't have to replay!

TAYSIDE Juniors' Under 23 manager Dave Baikie had to cope with no fewer than eight calls-off from his squad that met the North Region at Forfar last Sunday. Despite these problems the team produced the goods, winning by 4-2. The Tayport representatives acquitted themselves well. Davie Reilly, the over age player in the side, hit a hat-trick while Gary Maher and Steve Stewart also turned in sound displays. Ross Graham (Lochee United) from the penalty spot was the other Tayside scorer.

Press Comment

" Although the Pansies have shown an improvement they are unlikely to have much joy against an in-form Port team "

- The Courier (26/11/94)

" ... but really the most fervent fan would have to admit that Tayport thoroughly deserved their win as they had very much the majority of the attacking play. The two factors that kept the score down were the excellent performance from Swifts' keeper Alan Morris and Tayport's ability to scorn good scoring chances. "

- Perthshire Advertiser (22/11/94) Jeanfield 1 Tayport 2 (Hardly ties in with Junicus's comment in the Tele that "Tayport were made to work hard for their 2-1 victory"

" In the first division, Tayport missed an opportunity to get within a point of leaders St Joseph's by drawing 0-0 with visitors Violet. Port dominated from the start but their strikers had a rare off day. "

- The Courier (28/11/94) Tayport 0 Violet 0.

" Tayport missed out on a golden opportunity to close the gap at the top of the A.T. & T. League division one when they failed to breach a packed Violet defence last Saturday "

- Fife Herald (2/12/94) Tayport 0 Violet 0.

" Another thoroughly poor exhibition by Rikki Cabrey's men on Saturday saw them get exactly what their performance deserved, and this immediately before they challenge Tayport away from home in the third round of the Scottish Cup. Should they serve up the same quality of football next week, Tayport will wipe the park with them. "

- Greenock Telegraph (28/11/94) Forth 2 Port Glasgow 0.
