THIS AFTERNOON'S VISITORS

Today we welcome the re-vitalised Lochee United to the Canniepairt for the top A.T. & T. match of the day. United are one of the Tayside clubs which has risen to the challenge of meeting the high standards set by ourselves these past few years.

The Thomson Park side's progress under the management duo of Davie Martin and Derek Carr guided by the business acumen of club president Tom Macmillan has been swift. Their appearance in last seasons's OVD semi final at Tannadice is testimony to that.

One of the attractions today will be the appearance of former Canniepairt favourite Ewan Cameron in a blue shirt, no doubt playing out of his skin to prove a point or two. Ewan was Tayport's top scorer two seasons ago and he will be doing his utmost to prove that he's not lost that scoring touch.

Other new faces in the United line-up include Tony McAulay. The versatile McAulay arrived from Elgin City while Heath Bisset came from St Joseph's. Missing today through suspension will be Lochee's record signing from North End, international defender Michael Feeney and midfielder Jim Henry who had close season trials in London with Leyton Orient.

The veteran Ronnie Mitchell can still do a turn for the Blues in whatever role he's asked to play while Darren Taylor and Davie Fisher always carry a threat.

FROM THE ARCHIVES

This week's delve into the archives has unearthed this photo of the TAYPORT VIOLET side of 1951. Anyone spot a likeness between the handsome lad holding the ball and any members of our current squad? It's EDDIE FLYNN, brother of Port Supporter Mary Reilly and uncle of Davie and Paul Reilly. Eddie and his wife live in Dundee but looked into Cobbies the other week when across in Tayport. Unfortunately they chose the Saturday when we were at Nairn.

Those older members of the Port Support will recognise a few faces from the committee of 45 years ago. One such familiar face is the pawky wee character beside the goalie in the back row. It's Davie Phin, late father of mine host in Cobbies Inn, Andy Phin. Regulars at Cobbies will probably recognise Joe Weir kneeling on the extreme left of the photo. Joe lives just across the street from Cobbies. Sadly most, if not all the other committee men, are now in that big committee room in the sky. Pictured are back(l-r) J.Smith, unknown, J.Ross, J.Buist snr, W.Clark, D.Phin, Unknown, W.Gray, J.Bernard, J.Harley. middle R.Gowans, Unknown, E.Flynn, Gilhooley, Crerar. kneeling J.Weir, Smith, W.Gowans, J.Buist jnr.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR AWARDS

1994/95

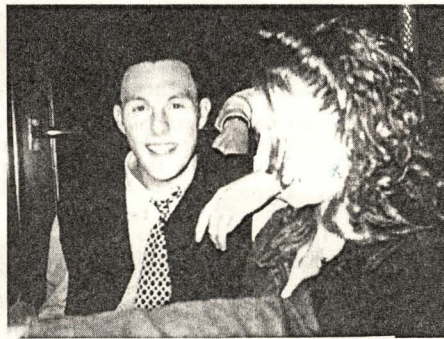

An enjoyable evening was had by all in June at the Red House in Coupar Angus at the Player of the Year Dance. The awards, presented by Keith Sinclair, club sponsor and mine host at the Taybridge Bar, went to the following.

Player of the Year - Sean Wilkie; Players' Player of the Year - Grant Paterson; Top Scorer - Hamish Mackay; Fans' Favourite - Grant Paterson; Supporters' Club Player of the Year - Steven Stewart; Morris Couper Trophy for Goal of the Season - Gary Maher v St Joseph's;

Below are a selection of photographs taken at the dance by Jimmy Abernethy. Jimmy, unfortunately, suffered a serious accident during the close season when he tripped and fell. He underwent a major operation in the neurosurgical unit at DRI but we're happy to report that he's on the road to recovery and should be back at the Canniepairt soon.

BAKER'S BIT

Good afternoon to the Port Support and a warm welcome to Lochee United, our visitors this afternoon. This is really my first opportunity to thank our fans for their tremendous support throughout last season.

I have only one thing to ask of you this afternoon - have a look around your neck just to make sure you don't have a blue and white scarf on. I believe Abby Oswald managed to sell quite a few prior to the last Tayside League game of last season! This was quite a game by all accounts and of course the result had a tiny bearing on what turned out to be a highly successful season for Tayport Football Club. To go through a league season undefeated and win a fourth Division One title was a tremendous achievement. Add to that three other trophies, the Herschell, Cream of the Barley and Centenary Cups. We could even take comfort from the fact that our exits from the PA Cup and the Whyte & Mackay Cup were really defeats snatched from the jaws of victory! Both games saw us dominate proceedings throughout the 120 minutes only to lose on the lottery of penalty kicks.

For some clubs, reaching the quarter finals of the Scottish Cup is, in itself, an achievement. I don't. Our exit was of our own doing and I must shoulder most of the blame. But sometimes you can't see the wood for the trees. I know now we were too loyal to certain players and didn't show enough faith in players who have proved by their performances since, that I got it wrong. No disrespect intended but my opinion of Whitburn was that they were a workmanlike but well disciplined side. If you recall we lost Sommerville at 0-1 down through the lack of that important ingredient. At that point I knew our Scottish Cup campaign was at an end for another season. But the Scottish must still remain our aim for 1995/96 together with the first division title.

Our pre-season preparation has gone according to plan as has the training. The new players in the squad have fitted in well. We played six friendlies with six victories. That was followed by a 5-0 Herschell trophy victory a week past Wednesday. Our first league encounter at Forfar West End was, for me, a worrying fixture. Strathmore Park has never been a particularly happy hunting ground for Tayport but a good all round performance saw us come home with a convincing 4-0 win.

Broughty Athletic were our visitors on Wednesday past. Once again we performed to a good all round standard. I've got to be pleased with a 7-0 result.

This afternoon we entertain the most improved side in the Region. They did us proud last season. I, for one, have every respect for what they are trying to achieve on and off the park. I know and our players must realise, we've got a game on our hands today. But, if our attitude and discipline is correct, then there is no reason why we can't gain a further two points.

Support The Port, Dave Baikie.

ERROR COST CLUB DEARLY

No doubt there would be a few chuckles in certain quarters when the news broke that Tayport had failed to retain players Cameron, Sommerville and Devine as per the SJFA's retention rule.

As explained by club chairman Eddie Stewart at the recent club AGM, all three players were up for transfer and several clubs had expressed an interest in obtaining their signatures. Talks took place over the fees to be paid, indeed in one case, agreement had been reached and handshakes exchanged. However it was then realised that the players in question had not been retained by Tayport and, as such, were free, literally, to go to the club of their choice.

It proved an expensive error as far as Tayport were concerned.

Anyway it's water under the bridge or money down the drain, whatever way you look at it and we'll just have to get on with it.

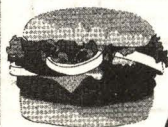

Ewan Cameron went to Lochee United, our visitors today, in face of, it is understood, stiff competition from St Joseph's. Joeys had more luck with the other two, picking up Devine and Sommerville for no more than the cost of the ink on their forms. A case of, if you can't beat them, get them to join you!

Prior to the aforementioned cock-up, Tayport had secured the transfers of Grant Buist from Broughty Athletic and Stephen Ross from North End - unfortunately both are on holiday at present as is Mark Spalding.

St Joseph's Barrie Gray was to have been part of the deal which was to have taken Jackie Devine to Fairfield Park but, when that fell through, we had to meet St Joseph's price to bring the 21 year old to the Canniepairt on Wednesday in time to turn out as substitute against Broughty.

We're still in the market for Carnoustie's Alan Ramsay. The player was made available for transfer by Panmure during the close season but the clubs cannot agree on a valuation.

ONLY THREE TEAMS ON FULL POINTS

After the opening two fixtures in the A.T. & T. Division One, only ourselves, North End and Downfield have full points - with there being no shortage of goals in these three teams fixtures - 29 to be precise.

The surprise to date was Scone's 2-2 draw with St Joseph's - the darlings of the D.C. Thomson press. A week ago the Perth side in losing 5-0 here on the Canniepairt certainly didn't look capable of taking a point from the perennial title contenders, particularly at Fairfield.

North End's revamped side certainly seems to be producing the goods with two splendid victories at Violet and Kinnoull. Downfield, customary poor starters and relying on the bulk of last season's pool, will be well pleased with their solid start - wins over Kinnoull and Montrose. Not so pleased will be Violet who look to be a better side than successive defeats from North End and Forfar Albion would suggest. The expected Perth challenge from Kinnoull hasn't got off the blocks yet. Two defeats from Downfield and North End is hardly the sort of start the 'Noull committee were expecting of new manager Andy Brannigan.

TAYPORT'S FORTHCOMING FIXTURES

Wednesday	August	30	Away v Violet	(League)
Saturday	September	2	HOME v Arbroath SC	(League)
Saturday	September	9	Away v Lochee United	(League)
Saturday	September	16	Away v North End	(League)
Saturday	September	23	HOME v Lochee Harp	(N.E. Centenary Cup)
Saturday	September	30	HOME v St Joseph's	(League)
Saturday	October	7	Away v Downfield	(League)
Saturday	October	14	OVD Scottish Junior Cup Round 1

Punters may wonder why we're playing Lochee United again a fortnight today in the return league fixture at Thomson Park. That's the day for the 1st round of the P.A. Cup and United and ourselves were the only division one teams to receive a bye. Rather than make a change to the fixtures already planned out, league officials decided to schedule the return for that date.

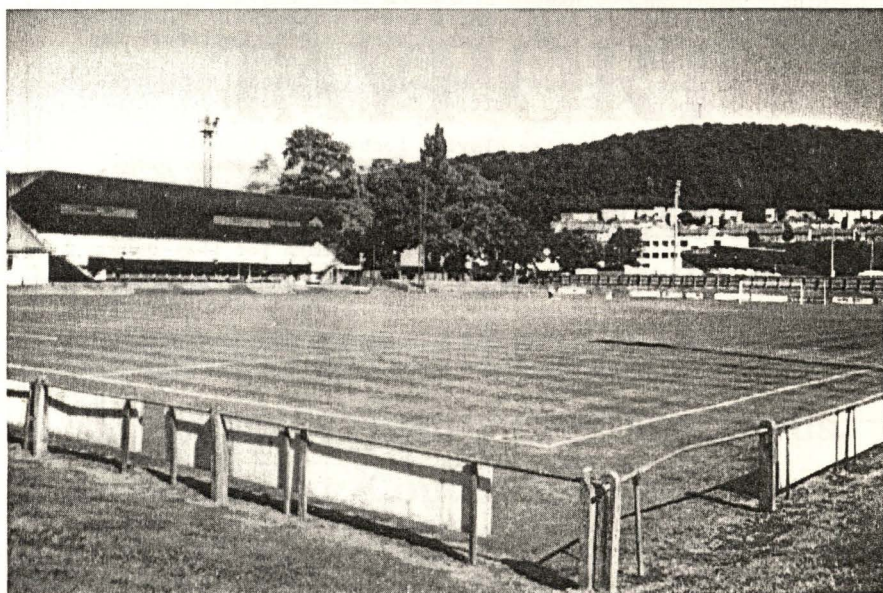

Tayport's trialist versus Forfar West End and Broughty Athletic was Balmullo lad Chris Nicoll.

The photo on the front cover of this season's programme is of The Canniepairt. It was taken on a Friday morning last January by Iain Cougan.

DURING the close season two of the squad were married. Grant 'Hobi' Miller tied the knot with Isobel and Jimmy Hunter did likewise with Gillian.

Two members of the Port Support (pictured) also became husband and wife during the summer. Brian Roberts and Amanda Bruce went off on holiday to Florida and returned as Mr & Mrs Roberts!

The couple had been planning the event for a year and, apart from Brian's sister Sheree and her husband Lloyd who acted as witnesses, both sets of parents and families were completely in the dark. According to informed sources it was a real fairytale wedding and the congratulations & best wishes of all at the club go to the happy couple.

It's congratulations too, to Davie & Dawn Reilly and Fraser & Annette Mann. The Reillys had a wee boy, Keir, and the Manns were presented with a daughter, Ashleigh Beth. Young Reilly is already a regular at the Canniepairt and Miss Mann is expected to make her first appearance of the season anytime.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

TAYPORT have been invited to take part in the Pollok Sevens again this year. The invitation seven-a-side tournament, again sponsored by Tennents, is on Sunday 24th September. A problem here for the committee - that's scheduled as a car boot sale day. We could always cancel it but what would Davie Martin's wife say?

JUNIOR newcomers this season, Steelend, who play in the Fife League, have got off to a less than auspicious start, losing by heavy margins in their opening fixtures. The Fife League lost a member club prior to the season's start when Clackmannan, who joined the Junior ranks in 1961, withdrew.

THE Tayport players' training gear will have a new look to it this season thanks to a new sponsorship deal with LEUCHARS GLAZING. This area's premier glazing firm already sponsor the match programme and the committee are delighted at proprietor Ronnie Cameron's decision to extend his sponsorship of the club.

READERS will have observed a number of new advertisers in the '95/96 edition of the Port Prog. It goes without saying that we are delighted to have their support and we hope that you in turn will support the advertisers.

MATCHDAY catering manageress, Cara Mathers (she's the cheeky one) embarks on a nursing career next week but, such is her dedication and love of the aroma of burnt pies and bovril, she's decided to stay on and serve you, the hungry punter, for another season.

P.M.IRVINE'S papershop has just taken delivery of a new supply of polo shirts in various colours embroidered with the club badge. Also on sale are baseball caps, ski hats, scarves and lambswool pullovers. Orders can be taken for pullovers in any colour of your choice, if not in stock.

MOST unimaginative headline of the season so far goes to the Fife Herald for last week's effort for Newburgh's match report. 'Newburgh Attack' was their offering and suggests that the paper's coverage will be as uninspiring as ever this year.

THE crowds were out in force at Barrhead last Saturday. 1,500 was the reported attendance for the Arthurlie v Pollok League Cup tie which the home side won by 3-0.

NEXT Saturday morning, September 2nd, a touring team from Essex, Broomfield Under 16's, will be playing Dundee United SC Under 16's at Tayport.

VALE OF LEVEN, original members of the SFA in 1873 along with Rangers and six others, were within an ace of pulling the plug and disappearing, perhaps for ever, during the close season. The former Scottish Senior and Junior Cup winners, with no funds, no sponsors and seemingly not much else either were set to call it a day when in stepped The Mail On Sunday to bail them out with a cash injection and sponsored strips.

PRESS REPORT

" Following their success at Highland League Nairn last week Tayport sizzled in the heat at Netherdale in their first ever visit to Gala "

- The Sunday Post (6/8/95) Gala Fairydean 0 Tayport 4.

" (Scone) found the Tayport boys just too strong for them.....obviously it was no great surprise that Tayport, the holders, retained the Herschell Charity Cup, as they are the strongest side in the Region "

- Perthshire Advertiser(18/8/95) Tayport 5 Scone Thistle 0

" A new season brings a fresh challenge, and we are certainly not frightened of them (Tayport).....the real stuff starts this Saturday and hopefully we will get off to a good start "

- Forfar West End manager Dave Reid in the Forfar Dispatch (17/8/95) prior to West End 0 Tayport 4.

" A satisfactory performance and a good result, considering we were without Sean Wilkie, Grant Buist, Steve Ross and Mark Spalding "

- Tayport manager Dave Baikie in The Courier (20/8/95) following Forfar West End 0 Tayport 4 .

" Manager Kelly who had overseen a 35 year reign of trophy-less terror, is best known for stationing members of his family at all parts of the ground to ensure that referees have no hiding place..... "

- a quote from 'Harpbreak Hotel', a humorous article on Lochee Harp in the latest edition of 'The Absolute Game' fanzine available in Tayport from McKenzie's and Irvine's.

" The crowd gave vent to their feelings and a plot to overthrow the Kelly dynasty was hatched, but none of the nine people present would admit to being Harp fans, such is the Ceaceascu-like grip of the Kellys that dissent is almost unknown "

- another piece from 'Harpbreak Hotel'

" It was good to see Billy Coventry back in the side after an 18 month lay-off through injury, and getting a goal. "

- Evening Telegraph reviewing Tayport's 4-0 win at Forfar (23/8/95)

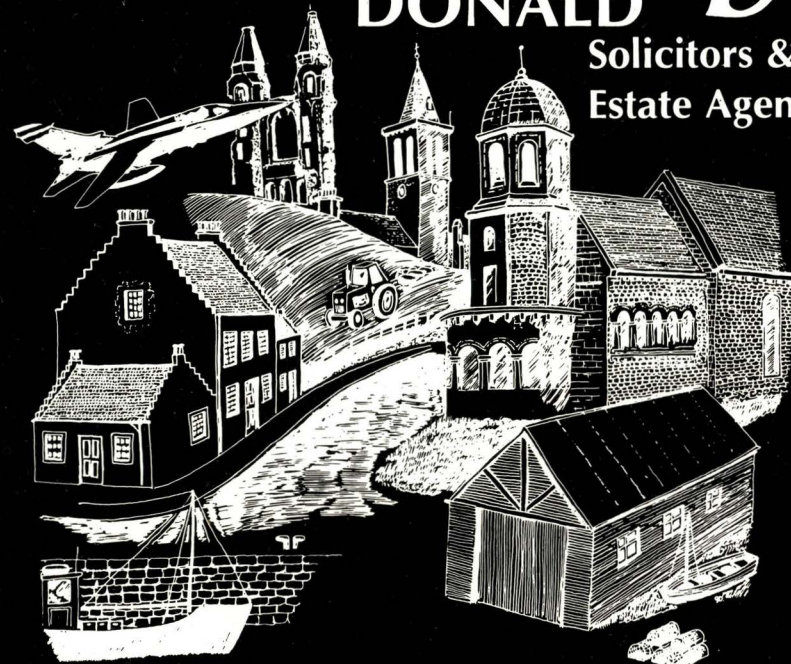

" We always knew it was going to be a tough opener and full credit to Tayport, they are a strong team and deserved to win.....we can take solace from the fact that we won't be facing sides of the calibre of Tayport every week "

- Forfar WE manager Dave Reid quoted in the Forfar Dispatch on 24/8/95.
