TODAY'S VISITORS

From going something like five years without meeting a Fife Region club, this afternoon we find ourselves meeting our second Fife opponents inside three weeks. In common with our visitors of three weeks ago, Lochgelly Albert, Newburgh Juniors are steeped in Junior tradition with a host of memories from their 85 years existence. In those 85 years they've experienced the peaks and troughs of Junior football.

The peaks have been two Scottish Junior Cup semi final appearances, in 1962 against Renfrew at Firhill and in 1973 against Cambuslang Rangers at Brockville, and four successive Perthshire Junior League titles in the mid fifties.

The nadir for the club was only a few short years ago in 1989 when, finding themselves acutely short of players, they were forced into abeyance for a season. Unlike Lochgelly Violet who went into a period of abeyance in 1949 - a period which has lasted 45 years - Newburgh have survived and come good again.

Under the guidance of manager Norrie McArthur and his coach, ex-Scotland goalkeeper Ernie McGarr, Newburgh are once again one of the most respected sides in the Region. Despite a limited budget McArthur and McGarr took 'Burgh to sixth place in the league last season and won the Kingdom Cup after eliminating Hill O'Beath in the first round. They further showed their mettle in the Fife & Lothians Whyte & Mackay Cup by taking OVD Scottish Cup winners Camelon to a replay before going down to the odd goal in three. A couple of faces in the Newburgh ranks will be familiar to Port fans from their time in the Tayside Juniors. Defender Craig Healy and midfielders Ian Duff and Derek Simpson were both with Jeanfield Swifts.

Two of the top performers in the Newburgh squad are Jimmy Nairn and Billy Martin. Centre half Martin returned for a second tour of duty at East Shore after a spell at St Andrews United. Midfielder Jimmy Nairn, a reinstatement from Dunfermline Athletic two seasons ago, hit 24 goals from midfield last season and was the club's Player of the Year.

Football in Newburgh has always had an affinity with Perthshire and for many years the town's football teams played their football in the Perthshire Leagues. Things have now swung towards Fife with both the town's Amateurs and Juniors playing in the Fife Leagues.

The most weel kent face at East Shore Park is not a player but the club's director of operations Drew Campbell with an amazing 46 years involvement with the club. The 'Burgh patriarch has experienced the whole gamut of football emotions hundreds of times over in his near half century at the club.

Drew has never been entirely comfortable with the idea of a Tayport team playing in the Tayside Region Juniors. He is firmly of the opinion that, if you are based in Fife then you should play in Fife. "It wouldn't have been allowed in Blaney's day", said Drew. With respect to Drew, we think that the case we put forward in 1990 to play in Tayside has been fully vindicated.

TODAY'S GAME

The advent of sudden death in cup-ties these days has given a new edge to matches such as today's first round tie in the new Taycars Trophy. It's a new competition which, after a preliminary round, brings together the clubs of the Tayside and Fife Regions.

A quick glance at the ties scheduled for today suggests that this is the tie of the round. Tournament secretary Jock Myles must think so anyway because it's the only tie to have been allocated linesmen.

With the tie to be decided on the day, extra time and penalties being brought into play in event of a draw after 90 or 120 minutes, it's an exciting format.

Newburgh's track record suggests that they can compete with the best on their day. Only two weeks ago they took unbeaten Hill O'Beath right to the wire in an OVD Cup-tie before going down 2-1. Until that defeat Newburgh had tasted defeat only once in ten matches.

The 'Burgh have had the benefit of a visit to the Canniepairt already this year when they went down by 1-3 in a pre-season friendly. Prior to that friendly manager Norrie McArthur had faced Tayport as manager of St Andrews United. He was in charge of the United team which went down to the 'Port in an OVD Cup-tie in season 1990/91. Saints were noted for the quality of their play in that era and, if Newburgh's play is of a similar quality, then the fans are in for a treat.

After tumbling out of the OVD Cup two weeks ago 'Burgh made their exit from a second 'major' last Saturday, losing 4-1 at home to Bonnyrigg Rose in the Fife & Lothians' Whyte & Mackay Cup. Clearly they will be pulling out all the stops to avoid an inglorious hat-trick of 'major' exits in as many weeks.

Selection problems meant that Ernie McGarr had to step in between the sticks. Mind you, Ernie's got a fair pedigree, having won Scottish caps v Austria and Eire whilst an Aberdeen player a quarter of a century ago! That was a long time ago and Ernie was no doubt glad to hear Saturday's final whistle.

Scoring goals hasn't been a problem for our visitors. In netting 41 times in their last dozen games, Newburgh haven't failed to find their opponents' net. Included in those 41 strikes have been two 7 hits, a six and a five. With Tayport also having tucked away 41 goals in their last dozen outings, the spectators today should be well entertained.

The archive photograph which appeared in the last issue of Port Prog (no.9), as expected provoked a reaction and we had a couple of phone calls to rectify errors. Tom Bryson, who was in the photo, assures us that it was a photo of Tayport Violet, not Tayport Amateurs taken not in the 50's but in 1948/49. Tom tells us that he never played for the Amateurs so that seems pretty accurate info. The photo was taken by a Mr Hamilton of the Freemasons Arms (now Cobbies Inn). Norman Pattie, who called from Cheshire, says that it was the Amateurs but I think we'll stick with Tom's version.

It wasn't Clem Dempster in the photo, it was Davie Dempster and it was Wallace Richardson, not Willie Richardson. That will teach us to rely on Davie Hughes for info. We thought that, seeing as he was in the photo, he would know who his teammates were and what team he was playing for!

CLUB PULLOVERS FOR CHRISTMAS ?

If you are stuck for a gift this Christmas, why not give a Tayport FC lambswool sweater? We've just taken delivery of new stock in an assortment of colours and sizes. DON'T MISS THE OPPORTUNITY, GENTLEMEN

Forty years ago Hibs, then Scottish champions, were invited to take part in a new competition involving teams from all over Europe. The SFA frowned on this new competition and advised Hibs not to take part. However the forward thinking Hibs chairman at the time ignored the advice and entered the tournament. That tournament was the European Cup.

Forty years on, we have in Scottish Junior Football, two invitations on the table to be part of an exciting new development in the Junior game. We also have regional officials saying - "Kilwinning have called a meeting of all Regional Secretaries...but I'll not be attending" Interested parties have been invited to attend meetings to further the initiatives put forward by Kilwinning and Glenafton but the advice from Tayside Region is that "clubs should not attend.."

We are told that the proposals are "completely illegal". This is difficult to comprehend as the first item on the meeting's agenda is "(1) SFA and SJFA approval." It's also difficult to come to terms with the fact that merely meeting to discuss proposals can be illegal.

The proposals are gaining momentum and, in light of the current 'Think-Tank' set up to point the way forward for Scottish Football, there's probably no better time to investigate new initiatives.

There were several clubs which turned down invitations to be part of the Glenafton plan with the result that Tayside now has two clubs in the picture, St Josephs having been asked to join the other seven teams.

The Kilwinning proposal is a 16 club affair and other Tayside invitees here are Downfield and Lochee United. There would appear to be something of a conflict here between the two clubs' proposals but the important thing is that the leading clubs in the country sense that change is in the air.

Such proposals should be welcomed by member clubs - at least the opportunity to discuss proposals should be welcomed - and regional officials should be taking part in these discussions to look after the interests of their member clubs as well as to contribute their experience.

It's worth remembering that the European Cup idea wasn't exactly a bad idea.

THE Italian FA has come in for widespread criticism for deliberately imposing a period of suspension on a dead player.

Luigi Coluccio, ordered off in an amateur game playing for Gioiosa Jonica against Bocale, was later shot outside a pub in what is believed was a Mafia execution.

Several days later his family protested about the insensitivity when a letter was received saying that Coluccio had been suspended.

But Nino Cosentino, chairman of the disciplinary commission, replied: "We had to suspend him even though he was dead. We regret it, but this is how our system operates. Promotion and relegation can be decided on discipline."

We've heard of medals being awarded posthumously but suspensions ?!

SOME CAR INSURANCE QUOTES ARE SO HIGH YOU'D THINK THEY DIDN'T WANT YOUR BUSINESS (THEY DON'T)

Surprisingly enough there are many reasons why an insurance company won't insure you (or charge so much it would be cheaper to run around in a taxi). At Swinton we have the widest range of policies. So you can be reassured that whatever your circumstances, at least one company wants your business (we do).

THE BAKER'S BIT

Good afternoon to the Port Support and a warm welcome to the players and officials of Newburgh. It's good to be back at The Canniepairt! I think that the players were suffering from home sickness last Saturday or it certainly looked that way to me. Mind you, I don't blame them. I felt a bit strange myself, when you consider that, prior to last week's game, we'd played something like five home games on the trot.

The most recent was our 2nd-Round Scottish Cup encounter with Lochgelly Albert, a game which, for us, went very much according to plan. A vital aspect of that 6-0 victory was the way in which we approached and then began the game. Any goals are welcome of course but I felt that we scored our goals at vital times in the match. Two in the first five minutes or so followed by two just before half-time which really sealed victory for Tayport and a place in the third round.

I suppose that some would say our visit to Perth last week also went according to plan. Yes, we defeated Kinnoull by 2-0 and gained two league points but I'm sure that our players would be the first to agree, and statistics will prove, that we didn't set the heather on fire by any manner of means. But I must say that I was pleased with the way in which we continued to battle and how well we kept our discipline when decision after decision seemed to go against us. I've always maintained that those type of victories are the ones that win titles.

The win put us four points clear at the top of the league, albeit for only 24 hours or so with our nearest rivals playing out a 0-0 draw on Sunday, debatably the ideal result for Tayport, keeping both Downfield and St Joseph's three points adrift.

Another very pleasing result was the Tayside Under 23's 2-0 win over the East Region at Linlithgow in the Scottish Inter-Regional Tournament on Monday night. We had more than a passing interest with six of our players in the starting line-up and all six, may I say, doing their bit for our Region and doing the Club proud.

Today's visitors Newburgh need no introduction to the Canniepairt having played here in a pre-season friendly. I must say that the same result this afternoon would do me nicely but we know that there's only one way that can be achieved and that's by constantly striving to play to the standard which we've set for ourselves. Do so and I feel that we've a good chance of progressing in this cup.

Support The 'Port. Dave Bathie.

THINGS ARE MOVING IN THE SHOWERS

Unknown to the vast majority of the Port Support things have been stirring in the bowels of the Tayport pavilion. The new shower room in the home dressing room area, which has lain dormant for a long time awaiting the next phase of its development, is now fully tiled. Thanks for this go to club sponsor Jackie Martin who arranged for tiler, John Heggie, from Carnoustie to do the work last weekend. The finishing touches and the plumbing should be done shortly allowing the new showers to be brought into use.

OVD CUP ACTION ON THE CANNIEPAIRT NEXT WEEK BAILLIESTON ARE THE VISITORS

It's a ninth successive home tie next Saturday when Baillieston, the Reebok Premier League team from the east end of Glasgow, are our third round opponents here on the Canniepairt. Note the early kick-off time of 1.45pm. It will be the first meeting of the two teams although we did afford ourselves of Baillieston's hospitality en route to an OVD tie in Ayrshire a couple of years ago.

It's definitely one of the tougher ties of the round and should attract a healthy attendance to the Canniepairt.

Next Saturday's other ties are:

Largs Thistle v Muirkirk
Irvine Vics v Deveronside
Dunipace v St Andrews United
Inverurie Loco v Kilbirnie Ladeside
Sunnybank v North End
Kilsyth v Cumbernauld
Arbroath SC v Whitburn
Carnoustie Panmure v Whitellets Vics
Scone Thistle v Lochore Welfare
Cruden Bay v Glenafton
Irvine Meadow v Dundee Violet
Coltness v Vale of Leven
Yoker v Arthurlie
Stonehaven v Lewis United
Darvel v Camelon
East Kilbride v Auchinleck Talbot

Tranent v Annbank
Glenrothes v West Calder
St Joseph's v Fraserburgh
Hill O'Beath v Arniston Rangers
Kirkintilloch v Banks o'Dee
Forth or Lochee United v St Anthony's
Tulliallan Thistle v Petershill
Hall Russell United v Stoneywood
Rosyth v Carluke
Pollok v Craigmark
Cumnock v Beith
Nairn v Greenock
Kilwinning Rangers v Kelly Hearts
Ormiston v Bon Accord
Larkhall v Livingston

The draw has produced some cracking ties including the meeting of Hill O'Beath and Arniston and Yoker v Arthurlie. Glenafton will be wary of their visit to Cruden Bay and Whitburn will not relish another trip to Angus, this time to meet Arbroath SC at soulless Seaton Park. Carnoustie have pulled an easy one in Whitellets Vics as have St Josephs and Scone with Fraserburgh and Lochore Welfare respectively.

North End have a tricky one at Sunnybank as have Violet at Irvine Meadow. Lochee United, should they overcome Forth today in their replay, won't be unhappy about having St Anthony's at home. Holders Camelon find themselves down the Irvine valley to meet Ayrshire Division Two side Darvel.

TAYPORT'S SUPER SIX

Six Tayport players were in the Tayside Region Under 23 side which recorded an excellent 2-0 win over the East Region in the Scottish Junior Under 23 Tournament at Linlithgow last Monday evening. With a home game against Ayrshire to come, it gives Tayside a very good chance of reaching the semi final stage.

Although under pressure for long spells, Tayside successfully restricted their opponents attacks on goal and led at half-time after Mark Hamilton (Kinnoull) had latched on to Tony McAuley's (Lochee United) long pass to put the visitors ahead. In the dying minutes Tayside sealed the issue when Allan Ramsay burst clear of the home defence to set up Dave Reilly for a second goal.

The line-up was Murray(Jeanfield), Livingston(Lochee United), Wilkie(Tayport), Buist(Tayport), McAuley(Lochee United), Tanner(Kinnoull), Ramsay(Tayport), Stewart(Tayport), Hamilton(Kinnoull), Reilly(Tayport) and Gray(Tayport). Substitutes were Kemlo(North End), B.Mitchell(Downfield), C.Mitchell(Violet).

A good result considering that six players had withdrawn from the original pool. Not without cost, however, with Reilly and Ramsay on the treatment table on Wednesday evening.

TAYPORT v NEWBURGH MATCHES ARE A RARITY

Football matches between Tayport teams and Newburgh teams are something of a rarity as are players who have played for both Tayport teams and Newburgh teams. Certainly, post second world war, games involving teams from the respective towns, literally the next port of call this side of the river, have been restricted to Boys Brigade games and a handful of East Fife Amateur games during the 1980's. Today's game, then, is something of a unique occasion.

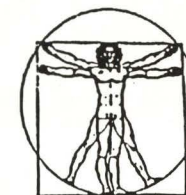

Players who have played for both teams are equally rare although Andy Phin, mine host at Cobbies Inn, assures me that, whilst a player with Newport Amateurs in 1952/53 or thereabouts, he played a trial for Newburgh Juniors towards the end of the season. he remembers it well because it took all day and the game was only at Blairgowrie. An eight o' clock start and various changes of buses to Newburgh and then on to Blairgowrie and the same again on the way home. And, to cap it all, Phinny tells be Blair., who had already won the (Perthshire) league gubbed Newburgh but he had a good game!

Another who has been in both camps is Bobby Waddell. Deedle had a brief spell as player/manager at East Shore Park after leaving the Senior game but things didn't work out and he eventually ended up being reinstated amateur with Tayport Amateurs' Fife XI.

FROM THE ARCHIVES

This week's Archive feature is a photograph from the Phin Collection. It's from a cigarette card and features a Newburgh team of just under 60 years ago. We don't imagine many of the team are still knocking about the town but there are a few familiar Newburgh 'names' amongst those in the photograph. Maybe Drew Campbell will recall some of those in the photo.

No. 67.

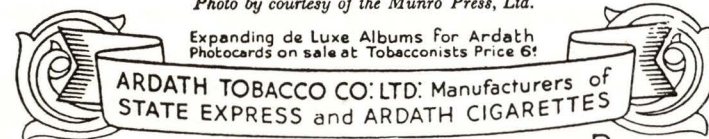

NEWBURGH TAYSIDE ATHLETIC F.C.

Formed in 1928 this club has a most impressive list of successes which include the Dewar Shield, Brotherhood Cup, Stewart and Bissett Cup and Lindsay Cup. In both 1984/85 and 1985/86 they were Champions of the Perthshire Juvenile League.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOUT

A cracker from last Saturday's Courier, "Forfar Albion are doing well" was the comment. Hardly. They had just lost four and drawn one of their previous five games!

STILL on Albion. Their officials weren't happy that Downfield had put their lights on during their league game a couple of weeks ago when it became real gloomy. The comment in The Forfar Dispatch is worth relating - "Playing conditions in the second half did not help Albion with falling leaves on the park making play difficult and the lack of natural lighting resulting in poor lighting being used" - Don't think that The Spiders will be too chuffed about their lights being described as 'poor'. If the daylight was as poor as it was on The Canniepairt that afternoon, a Davy lamp would have been an improvement never mind £15,000's worth of floodlights! The Downfield players must have managed to skip around the leaves - enough to score five goals anyway.

NCR AMATEURS fielded a who's who of Tayside Junior and Senior veterans for a recent North of Tay Cup-tie. Included in their line-up were Alex Brash (just back from a year's suspension), Billy Gallagher, Gavin Howey, Kenny Fraser and recently sacked Forfar West End manager Dave Reid. In goal for NCR was ex-Tayport Amateur and Junior PC Brian Smith.

STILL on the Amateur game. Tayport Amateurs found themselves at the centre of a bizarre situation last Saturday. In Ballinluig to play a North of Tay Cup-tie against the local teachers, the Tayport lads were just about to run out for the game when the opposition players tumbled out of their dressing room. Not on to the park, though, into their cars and away into the distance. Enquiries by the bemused Tayport players revealed that the home side had discovered who was to referee the game (a Perthshire Ref., incidentally,) and, having previously crossed swords with the same gentleman, decided they 'weren't going to play with him refereeing'. Although Tayport will be awarded the tie, it was an expensive afternoon for the club.

IN a climate in Scottish football which seems to be moving towards change, what with Ernie Walker's 'think-tank' and Glenafton and Kilwinning's separate proposals for Junior 'Super' competitions, it is interesting to note that the Highland League's sub-committee, set up to look at league reforms, threw out an idea which would see the bottom club in the Highland League relegated every season. They also binned the suggestion that two new clubs be admitted at the end of the season. North Junior sides Bon Accord and Inverurie Loco's had expressed an interest in turning Senior.

MORE on the Highland League. Ex-Tayport Junior and Amateur Andy Heggie who was out in the cold at St Joseph's has had a fairytale start following his move to Deveronvale for a reported £4,000 fee.

Andy's all action style of play seems to have caught the imagination of the Banffers and he became an instant hero when he notched both goals in the 2-1 defeat of champions and league leaders Huntly the other week. With a Scottish Cup-tie against Albion Rovers in a fortnight, the fairytale might just continue.

PRESS REPORT

"At the end of the 90 minutes they (Forfar Albion) were well beaten but the young members of the squad will have taken a lot of experience from the occasion and will learn from it.....despite holding the league leaders for a long spell, they were no match for the sharpness and touch of Tayport and especially the finishing skills of four goal Dave Reilly."

- The Forfar Dispatch (10/11/95) Tayport 5 Forfar Albion 1

"Tayport safely booked their place in the third round of the OVD Scottish Cup with an impressive 6-0 victory over Lochgelly. Mackay, out through injury for several weeks, opened the scoring after four minutes and Tayside's leading marksman Reilly added a second three minutes later. A superb double by Gray gave Tayport an unassailable lead before half-time....."

- Sunday Post (12/11/95) Tayport 6 Lochgelly Albion 0

"Tayport booked their spot in the third round of the OVD Scottish Cup with a clinical demolition job on Fife League side Lochgelly. The homesters were particularly devastating in the first half and two goals in the opening seven minutes had the visitors on the ropes long before the interval"

- Fife Herald (17/11/95) Tayport 6 Lochgelly Albion 0

"Lochgelly were always going to find Tayport a handful and so it proved. The Albion were two down after ten minutes and four down at the interval"

- Central Fife Times (16/11/95) Tayport 6 Lochgelly Albion 0

"Visitors Newburgh battled hard but the Haws were eventually too good for them.....Newburgh managed a late goal but the Haws were well worth their win"

- Central Fife Times (16/11/95) Hill O' Beath 2 Newburgh 1

"Home boss Andy Brannigan has a full squad available and will be hoping his men can make life difficult for the visitors but this looks like another win for the Fifers"

- The Courier (18/11/95) previewing Kinnoull v Tayport.

"In the first division Tayport maintained their advantage at the top, winning 2-0 at Kinnoull. Dave Reilly continued his impressive run with both goals"

- The Courier (20/11/95)

"Newburgh went down at the hands of Bonnyrigg Rose Athletic. Norrie McArthur's men failed to convert first half chances and were punished when Rose raced into a two goal lead within three minutes of the restart....."

- The Courier (20/11/95) Newburgh 1 Bonnyrigg Rose Athletic 4

"Kinnoull had the Division One leaders Tayport at Tulloch Park and they departed with an unbeaten record in this competition after winning 2-0, but they were made to fight all the way to keep this record intact. Kinnoull scored quite a few good chances especially in the second half."

- Perthshire Advertiser (21/11/95)

"Tayport's hopes of a record-breaking 5th successive league championship were fuelled last weekend when they came out on top in an awkward trip to Tulloch Park, Perth. A further boost was received when closest rivals St Josephs and Downfield shared the points in a goalless encounter on Sunday leaving Port three points clear at the top of the A.T.E.T. League Division One"

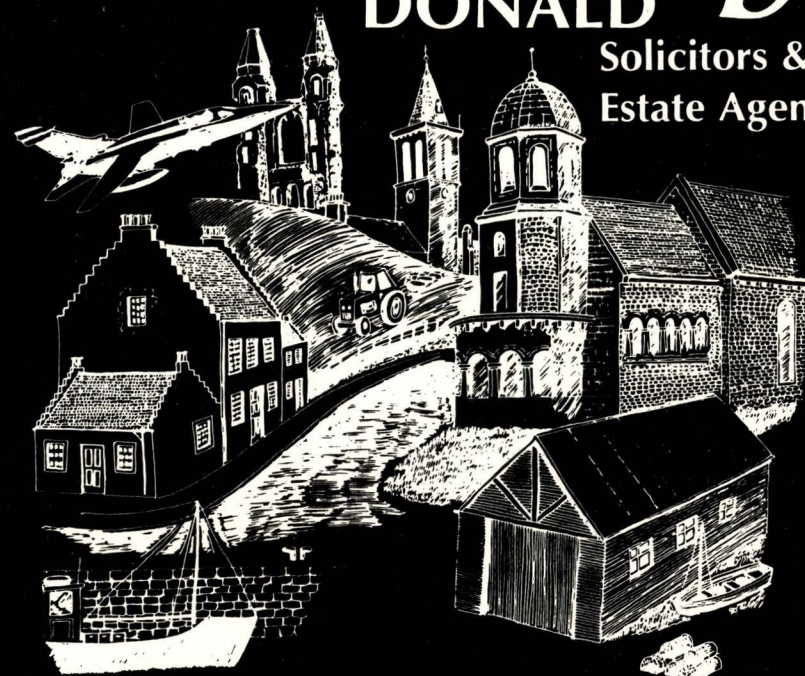

- Fife Herald (24/11/95) Kinnoull 0 Tayport 2
