TODAY'S GAME

This will be Tayport's 10th OVD Cup-tie against Central League opposition. In each of the ten ties the opposition have had to visit the Canniepairt, either in the first game or in a replay. Consequently the players and officials of Baillieston won't be short on advice from their fellow Reebok League teams.

Baillieton's manager Ian Currie made himself familiar with the ground and the Tayport side when he took in last week's Taycars Trophy match against Newburgh. What he witnessed there, it would be fair to say, would hardly have filled him with trepidation. It wasn't exactly the most inspiring of games. I'm told that some of the spectators found more interest in the comings and goings at the nearby bus stop!

One thing is certain and that is that today's game will provide more spirited fare. Baillieston are up for the cup. Make no mistake about that. They have an experienced squad and, in common with all Reebok Premier Division teams, see the OVD Cup as a realistic objective.

They've lost narrowly in their last two games, both in the league, to defending champions Pollok and current league leaders Arthurlie but they will see these games as secondary in importance to this afternoon's game.

Tayport failed to find their opponents' net for the first time this season last week against Newburgh but fortune shone on them in the penalty shoot-out. Today's game just lasts the ninety minutes with a replay in Glasgow next week if things finish all square.

Baillieston have had no difficulty finding the road to goal this season, failing to find their opponents' net on only three occasions. Only one of those occasions was in their past ten games and it was in the bizarre game mentioned in a previous Port Prog when Baillieston went down 10-0 to Benburb in the West of Scotland Cup. The fact that they finished the tie with only seven men may just have had some bearing on the outcome.

Injuries to a number of Tayport players was a legacy of their outings with the Tayside Under 23 Select earlier in the week and limited Dave Baikie's choice of team against Newburgh, several players not 100% fit having to be fielded. Andy Bell has been kept busy this week treating those players and hopes are high that he's had some success.

Today's official observers are Tayside Region president Paddy Winton and assistant match secretary Angus Adam.

PRESS REPORT

" Reilly of Tayport made a couple of openings but neither team could convert the few chances that they made and the game went into extra time "

- The Sporting Post (25/11/95) Tayport 0 Newburgh 0.

" Held together by influential centre-half Billy Martin, gallant Newburgh battled out a goal-less tie before being beaten three penalties to two by the much fancied Tayport. "

- The (Fife) Courier reviewing Tayport 0 Newburgh 0 (27/11/95).

" Even first division leaders Tayport only got through on a penalty shootout against visitors Newburgh, the tie having finished goal-less after extra time. "

- The (Dundee) Courier Tayport 0 Newburgh 0 (27/11/95)

" Tayport also struggled in the Taycars Trophy. They were held to a goal-less draw by Newburgh but went through on penalties. The Canniepairt outfit have Baillieston as visitors and.....it may not be easy...."

- Evening Telegraph (29/11/95)

" Dave Baikie is backing the new kids on the Tayport block to maintain the club's proud Scottish Cup record. The Tayside outfit have produced some storming OVD Cup shows since joining the Junior ranks five years ago. Said Baikie ' Baillieston maybe aren't the top Central League side but we are under no illusions about the task we face "

- The Sun (29/11/95)

" News reaches me of former fullback Mark Treanor who has had to give up the game because of a serious knee problem. Our former expert penalty taker has now discarded the walking sticks he had been reliant on and although he has no chance of playing again, he has agreed to do some light coaching with Baillieston Juniors in Glasgow "

- Extract from an article in a recent edition of the St Johnstone Fanzine (No.27) Wendy Who?.

" After 120 minutes of goal-less football, during which Tayport struggled to pierce a Newburgh defence superbly organised by central defender Martin, it came down to penalties. Robertson dived to save Gray's effort, but Duff and Nairn missed their spot kicks to put the Tayside league leaders through "

TODAY'S VISITORS

Baillieston Juniors are one of the big names in Junior Football. The team from the east end of Glasgow dominated the Scottish Junior Cup in the early 1980's. Although they only lifted the cup on one occasion, 1980, they had final appearances in 1982 and 1984. On these occasions, as in 1924 and 1965, they had to settle for runners-up badges.

The 1990's haven't been as rewarding for the Station Park team. Relegation from the Premier League was followed by a further drop in 1992 into the Central League's bottom division. However their stay there was brief and they were promoted the following season and continued that climb with a further promotion back into the Premier Division in 1994. Their top league status was consolidated last term when they finished in eighth place.

In possession of the No.1 jersey at Station Park is Junior Scotland goalkeeper Willie Devine who was signed from fellow Central League side Arthurlie.

At right-back will be Andrew Galt. The combatative defender is the longest serving player at Station Park with seven seasons under his belt.

At the heart of the Glasgow team's defence is ex-Clydebank, St Johnstone and, more recently, Stranraer defender MARK TREANOR. Now 32, Treanor joined up at Kilbowie Park back in 1979 from Eastercraigs. Injury curtailed his Senior career latterly and, although an absentee last week, Treanor was likely being kept back for today where he will team up in central defence with big 'Spider' Wallace.

Gerry Kelly, a defender or midfielder, was signed by Manager Currie from League of Ireland side Sligo Rovers. Kelly has the distinction of having played in the European Cup as recently as last season when he turned out for Sligo against Steaua Bucharest.

Several others in the Baillieston squad have sampled Senior Football. Midfield man Tom Corrie was with Partick Thistle while fellow midfielder Ian McColl, who hit both Baillieston goals at Arthurlie last Saturday, saw service at Notts County.

Top scorer is Tom Woods whom Manager Currie brought back from Ayr United having transferred him there only last season. The hardworking Woods is likely to be partnered up front by one of the two Kirkpatrick brothers in the pool.

FROM THE ARCHIVES

18 YEARS AGO

Saturday 28th January 1978 was a cold, wet and truly miserable day. At least it was in deepest Lanarkshire where Tayport Amateurs were playing Uddingston team Parkside in a Scottish Amateur Cup 5th Round replay.

The teams had drawn 1-1 three weeks previously on The Canniepairt but bad weather had prevented the replay taking place as scheduled. Eventually the go-ahead was given and Tayport arrived at a pitch which was a sea of mud with a good imitation of a burn running down one side of the park - inside the touchline!

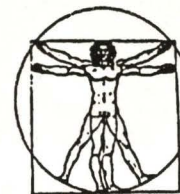

Anyway the referee put the game on, probably because it had been postponed twice and Tayport had travelled through. Despite the conditions Tayport put on a great display, drawing 4-4 after extra time. You can imagine the reaction when Parkside won the toss to host the third game the following week which Tayport subsequently lost 1-2.

The line-up for the game on 28th January was Bobby Nicol, Bobby McMahon, Ian Mathers, Ronnie Fleming, Doug Henderson, Peter Wilson, Mike Clerihew, Jim Downie, George Ritchie, Ian Howe and Gordon Hughes. Subs. were Terry Scanlon and Stuart Davie. Scorers were Howe(2), Wilson and Ritchie.

THE BAKER'S BIT

Baillieston provide our Scottish Cup 3rd Round opposition this afternoon, so I'd like to welcome their players and officials to Tayport.

I happened to mention in the Port Prog prior to our last Scottish tie something to the effect of 'I should stay away more often' after our 10-0 win over Elmwood. I suppose we got part of the scoreline the same last week against Newburgh - no goals against. But, by all accounts, although we never looked like losing a goal, the same could be said at the other end. We never really created enough scoring opportunities so, for the first time this season, we failed to score in a game.

I should mention that, in conversation with some Newburgh people, they admitted that their game plan was quite simple. Eleven players behind the ball at all times. I must say that I find that a sad attitude. O.K., it almost worked. Unfortunately almost is not enough and, to be honest, I'm glad. Not only because we've moved into the next round of the Taycar Trophy despite playing well below par but because negative tactics didn't work. The day I find myself preaching 'let's get everyone behind the ball' will be the day I take up fishing. When people pay their money as they come through that gate they expect to be entertained.

I can assure our fans that we'll always endeavour to provide entertainment which is why I'm personally so much in favour of some sort of Junior Super Cup. My own preference would be 'the Glenafton initiative' of a UEFA format this season leading to a Champions League style next season. This would consist of two sections of four with teams playing home and away and eventually leading to the formation, hopefully in the not too distant future, of a National Junior League.

It's now over four years since our secretary Albert Oswald, coach Graeme Irons and myself discussed, planned and drafted a pyramid system for Scottish football with a Junior Super League forming an important part of that structure. When we mooted this to the Press, both here and in the west, the reaction at that time wasn't too supportive to say the least. In fact Tayport were branded as 'rebels'. Perhaps Junior Football wasn't quite ready for change four years ago. And, of course, it wasn't their idea!

Today Baillieston Juniors will, I'm sure, provide us with our stiffest test of the season so far. With the Central Premier League out of their reach and eliminated from the West of Scotland Cup, they realise that the Scottish Cup is their only hope of glory this season. So I don't really have to remind our players that, if we don't match our opponents' commitment, we're going to struggle this afternoon. But our players have known and tasted many successes in the past and are aware that, at this club, we have the quality to proceed in this competition. Last week's result must act as a reminder that success can only be achieved by complete commitment. If we provide that this afternoon, then I'm confident we will be in the draw for the next round of the competition.

Support The Port, Dave Baikie.

O. V. D. SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP

HOW WILL TODAY'S TIES GO?

Thirty two ties are down for decision this afternoon at venues the length and breadth of the country and several will attract crowds into four figures, such is the attraction of the Scottish Junior Cup.

How will the ties go? The Port Prog predictions are below.

AWAY Arbroath SC v Whitburn	HOME Kilsyth v Cumbernauld
HOME Carnoustie v Whitletts	DRAW Rob Roy v Banks O' Dee
AWAY Coltness v Vale of Leven	AWAY Largs Thistle v Muirkirk
DRAW Cruden Bay v Glenafton	HOME Larkhall v Livingston
HOME Cumnock v Beith	DRAW Nairn v Greenock
AWAY Darvel v Camelon	HOME Ormiston v Bon Accord
DRAW Dunipace v St Andrews	HOME Pollok v Craigmark
DRAW E. Kilbride v Auchinleck	HOME Rosyth v Carlisle
HOME Forth v St Anthony's	HOME St Josephs v Fraserburgh
HOME Glenrothes v West Calder	HOME Scone Thistle v Lochore
HOME Hall R.Utd v Stoneywood	HOME Stonehaven v Lewis United
HOME Hill O' Beath v Arniston	HOME Sunnybank v North End
DRAW Inverurie Loco v Kilbirnie	DRAW Tranent v Annbank
HOME Irvine Meadow v Violet	AWAY Tulliallan v Petershill
HOME Irvine Vics v Deveronside	DRAW Yoker v Arthurlie
HOME Kilwinning v Kelty

Holders Camelon should encounter few problems at Ayrshire second division Darvel but last season's runner-up Whitburn could be in for a difficult time at Arbroath SC. Especially if the locals can reproduce some of the form which saw them take a point at the Canniepairt and inflict a 3-0 defeat on Downfield. Despite Dunipace being bottom of the Central Premier Division, St Andrews United will not find things easy and Hill O' Beath will have to subdue the spirit which has seen Arniston surge to the top of the pile in the East Region. Violet will take heart from the fact that Downfield stunned Irvine Meadow in Ayrshire last season with a 2-0 1st round win. North End have been given a tough assignment at Sunnybank and will be happy to get another game in Dundee. St Joseph's look like having a stroll into the last 32 at home to Fraserburgh while Scone Thistle's and Carnoustie's tasks at home to Lochore Welfare and Whitletts Vics respectively look to be just as comfortable. Shocks? Yoker to beat Arthurlie and maybe Kelty to put one over on Kilwinning.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

ALAN Smart, in whom we were credited with an interest whilst he was at Caley Thistle prior to his subsequent transfer to Preston North End is on the move again. Out of the picture at Deepdale despite rave notices last season, Alan has the chance to rebuild his career having accepted an offer to move to Second Division strugglers Carlisle United. He made his debut last Sunday as United shocked the in-form Wycombe Wanderers by winning 4-1. Should the move become permanent, he's likely to cost Carlisle in the region of £50,000.

HERE'S a piece of useless information. A Tayport lady's late brother featured in the winning side in an FA Cup Final at Wembley. A lot of people don't know that!

SURPRISE move this week with North End's top scorer, Rab McLaren, moving to St Joseph's. Surprising, in that it's only five months and sixteen goals ago since he moved in the other direction.

THINGS are not all sweetness and light at Scotland's newest league side Caley Thistle. Apparently if the Local Authority does not come up soon with a promised loan, the club will go under. Matt Hall, chairman of Gala Fairydean, who emphasised to the Tayport committee during the course of our pre-season tour just how disappointed the Border side was at not being elected, is watching developments with great interest. He feels that he was let down by the Edinburgh clubs last time but he's ready to give it another go if the opportunity presents itself.

TAYPORT Amateurs prolific goalscorer Ewan Willison is attracting the attention of a couple of Junior sides. Violet and St Andrews United have been making enquiries but Ewan wishes to remain with the Amateurs at present.

Apparently a sports complex is planned for Carnoustie in conjunction with a proposed new ground for Carnoustie Panmure.

THREE East Region players have just joined, or are about to join, the Senior ranks. Mark McGinlay (Linlithgow Rose) has signed for Queen's Park, Graham Little (Ormiston) has moved to Stenhousemuir and Billy Stewart (Armadale) is poised to sign for Ayr United.

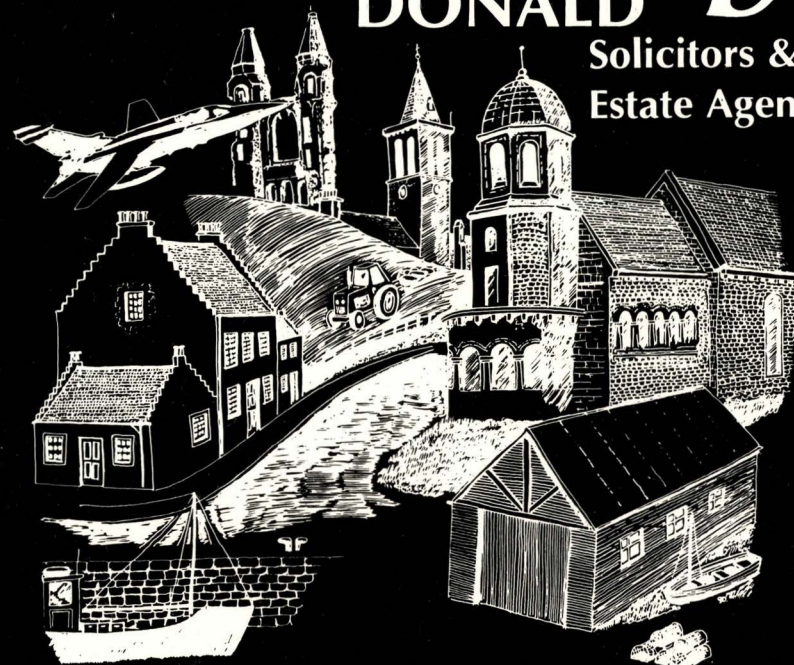

KENNY Young (Bonnyrigg Rose Athletic) won the East Region's Whyte & Mackay Player of the Week award last weekend for his outstanding performance the previous week when his side won 4-1 at Newburgh.

CHRISTMAS present problems? Call in at P.M. Irvine, Newsagent, Mill Lane, Tayport and choose a club sweater from a range of six colours and five sizes.
