FROM THE ARCHIVES

33 YEARS AGO

Not a football photo this week but a class photo instead. It's an early sixties shot of Primary 5 (?) at Tayport PS. Two of the class sadly are no longer with us but half the class still stay in Tayport. Of that half, 75% were amongst the Port Support at the Scottish Cup Final including the club's vice-chairman, positioned, as he normally is in club photos, in the middle of the back row. For the names, see elsewhere in the programme.

TONIGHT'S MATCH

Tonight's league game against runners-up Downfield will be our 53rd competitive game of the season - more than any other Junior club in the country certainly, and more too than most, if not all, our Senior clubs. It's asking a lot of the players to turn on the style 53 games on and the fans to turn out when folk's minds are more tuned in to Euro '96, summer holidays and the like.

For Downfield, tonight is the end of an era. After illustrious careers with the Spiders, the club's management team, the Grier brothers, Willie & George, have handed in their notice. This is their last game in charge. What the future holds, only George and Willie know. But if they are to stay in the game, then there is unlikely to be a shortage of offers.

The Grier brothers have played a big part in raising the profile of the Tayside Junior game and, whatever they may decide, everybody at Tayport wishes them the very best of luck.

Until Tayport came along at the turn of the decade, the Spiders were Tayside's leading lights but to a certain extent since then, they've had to play second fiddle. Three times in five seasons Downfield have been runners-up in the championship.

One thing is certain. Downfield will be out to get a result tonight. As well as being the swan song for Willie & George, it'll likely be the last game in a Spiders' jersey for several of their players. Kenny Jones, for example, has been placed on the transfer list.

Since our Scottish Cup success our form has been up and down. There have been some excellent performances and some pretty mediocre ones. Only to be expected, of course, but let's hope that we can finish what has been a magnificent campaign with a display to match. The tactically astute Griers will have other ideas, however, so we could be in for an intriguing match.

'Who's this Hamish?' was the cry when the Evening Telegraph printed a less than complimentary letter about Tayport FC and the club's achievements. There were several replies published which ripped into Hamish and then there was a further letter, this time from 'Hamish's wee brother' which was in a similar vein to the original. Hamish seems to have a chip on his shoulder about the fact that Tayport, a Fife based club, play - and clean up - in the Tayside League. Is there a clue from this piece which appeared in the match programme of another Tayside club earlier this season? ".....maybe this is the start of a campaign to get Tayport into their local Fife league and out of the Tayside Leagues!??..."

Food for thought.

COMMENT

Tayport FC supporters have had a unique experience. They have witnessed a season very few Junior Football supporters will have ever experienced in over 100 years of the game. Similarly many communities never get the opportunity to enjoy the euphoria that the football team's success has brought to the town these past two months.

Because it's unique, it's an experience we should all savour. And, all you Port Supporters, take a bow. Your loyalty and unstinting support for the club has been magnificent. You deserve to savour every minute.

We've seen an amazing number of records tumble this season. The Scottish Cup, a sixth successive league title achieved with a record points total, a record number of goals scored and fewest points conceded. Perthshire Advertiser Cup, Tayside Region's Fair Play Trophy, Herschell(Charity)Trophy, Craig Stephen Trophy, Dave Reilly hitting a record goals total to become Tayside's, indeed Scotland's, top goalscorer.

Joondalup City sign Tin Man

by Portile

We are now a few weeks into the pools using Australian football matches and following my recent move to Western Australia an insight into the local scene may help you win those elusive millions!!!

The big news back in April, especially for all those who support Rangers as their second team (if you're reading this I assume the 'Port are your main team) was Joondalup City signing Ted McMinn when he received a free from Birmingham City. Rumour has it that he is on A$350 (L175) per match. Big wages for a part time footballer in Western Australia but peanuts compared to what he must have been earning previously. No doubt there are other fringe benefits involved including the sun kissed beaches populated by scantily clad young ladies.

Big Ted made his debut for first division Joondalup on the first Saturday in April when his new team visited second division Queens Park in the preliminary round of the West Coast Cup. No the match was not at Hampden Park but at an athletics ground which had a grassy bank on either side for spectators. While there was a barrier around the pitch there was no seating (apart from the grass) and no cover.

Within 25 minutes the Tin Man proved his worth when he was involved in all four Joondalup goals as the visitors took a commanding lead. Queens Park hit back twice before the interval, both from the penalty spot. There was no further scoring in the second half and Ted retired with half an hour remaining suffering from heat exhaustion.

What little coverage there was in the local press the next day (Aussie Rules dominates everything) mentioned a big crowd! By my counting, including the dogs, there were at the most 200 spectators at the match. At least a quarter of them were wearing Rangers jerseys and were there for only one thing.

That evening I visited the WACA (home of the Western Australian Cricket Association) to watch the West Coast Eagles entertain Brisbane Bears at Football Australian style in front of a capacity 37,000 crowd. I'm still trying to work out the rules and the score but apparently the home team lost to Brisbane for the first time in history. I won't be asked back!

Back to proper football and the start of the league season on 14th April. An early morning telephone call from some drunkard in Cobbeis babbling on about some Junior team reaching the final of some cup in Scotland meant I had plenty of time to select which match I should attend. In Western Australia there are 30 professional? teams split into three leagues - Premier, First and Second.

Many of the Club are linked to a particular European nationality and up until last season carried names such as Inglewood Kiev, Floreat Athena, Bassendean Caledonian, Stirling Macedonia, Wanneroo British and Perth Italia. However in the recent past there have been several 'mothers of all battles' between teams in particular those linked to countries which have sub divided in Europe. As a result the league instructed all reference to nationalities/cultures to be removed from team names. The names have changed but the makeup of the teams remain unchanged!

I chose to watch Floreat with the Athena removed play Inglewood Falcons (formerly Kiev). Both teams were tipped to be strong contenders for the Premiership title. The match was at the Lake Monger Velodrome which has a capacity of 5,000 including 2,100 seats of which 600 are covered. The uncovered seats are roped off as they are a safety hazard. As the name suggests the Velodrome is a cycle track and the pitch is squeezed into the middle.

I arrived at about 2.55pm to find a crowd of about 250 (this for the top match of the day). Surprisingly as the match progressed the crowd decreased! Investigation revealed that each professional Club must field three teams each Saturday. The under 18s play at 11.00am, the Reserves at 1.00pm and the First team at 3.00pm. The people leaving were those who had either watched or played in the previous matches. These matches had finished 3 - 3 (under 18s) and 3 - 0 to Floreat Reserves.

An experienced Inglewood side with at least four very strong Scottish accents redressed the balance with a 3 - 1 win in the Senior match. Without doubt the very young Floreat side played better football but Inglewood with several old heads made their experience count.

As the Scottish season comes to an end with yet again Tayport carrying all before them in the Junior game the Australian soccer season is now about a quarter completed. My first impressions are that the standard, grounds and major crowds are comparable with Tayside Juniors. However it probably needs a pre-season tour by Tayport to draw real comparison. Offers of sponsorship for this tour welcome.

Where should you put your crosses on the coupon? Haven't a clue. British Football or Australian Soccer it's all a lottery.

A further piece of advice - if you meet an Australian call their national sport 'aerial ping pong' then stand well clear.

BAKER'S BIT

Downfield provide our opposition tonight for this last league game of season 1995/96. I would like to welcome their players and officials to The Canniepairt and would also like to take this opportunity to thank our fans for their magnificent support throughout this past season.

The end of tonight's encounter will close the book on a long but the most rewarding season in our short history in the Junior game. I can't heap enough praise on everyone connected with the club, committee, coaches, physio and most of all the players who have and will continue to strive for higher standards for themselves and each other. It's paramount in my mind that we can and will get better. It's so important for our players to keep an open mind and not just have a willingness to improve but to have a hunger for it.

The other day someone said to me 'What more have you left to achieve? You've won the Scottish Cup and you've won the Tayside 1st Division for the fifth season in a row.' My reply was that I haven't won the Scottish twice or the Tayside 1st division title 6 times in a row. That would be an even greater achievement, don't you think?

I must mention that, forby these two, we also picked up the Herschell Trophy, the P.A. Cup, the Craig Stephen Trophy for the highest goals total in the Region and, probably the most remarkable of all, the Fair Play Trophy.

I really consider this a tremendous achievement. When you think that we've been involved in almost double the number of games than some clubs in our Region, in ten Scottish Cup ties, some of which were real powder kegs, that discipline, without doubt, played a major role in bringing the Scottish Cup to this Region for the first time in 67 years.

Last Saturday saw us pick up another good 3-1 league victory away to St Josephs. And really, I don't think that they could have grumbled had the the scoreline been even wider. Another great plus for the club was the return of Hamish Mackay. He must have been pleased with his performance, as I was.

Tonight our visitors need little introduction. Downfield and ourselves have had numerous close encounters over the past five seasons and I've no reason to believe that tonight's will be any different. On a sad note it will be George & Willie Grier's last game in charge of Downfield. I'd like to take this opportunity to wish them all the best for whatever they do in the future. Unfortunately tonight I desperately want them to go out on a losing note and, if our players can produce the form of last weekend, then I'm confident we can achieve a victory.

Support the Port,

Dave Baikie.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

EX- Lochee United official Larry Duncan is back in the game. Larry has teamed up again with Ally Watson to take over the reins at Midlands Premier Division club NCR.

CUP goal hero Stevie Ross' father travelled all the way from Canada for the Scottish Junior Cup Final and managed to squeeze in a couple of games at the Canniepairt whilst he was here. Tonight we welcome to The Canniepairt another guest from the Dominion, Monolito Silverheels Chando B.A., M.A., PhD, a Canadian Indian who took in the game at Joeys last Saturday. Monolito is in this country for a while and we hope he enjoys his stay.

TAYPORT FC will be honoured next Tuesday when Dundee City Council hosts a Civic Reception in recognition of the club's achievement in winning the Scottish Cup. Fife Council have been in touch with the Club advising that they will follow suit on a convenient date in August.

THE video of the events of Cup Final Day should be available soon. Just over two hours long, the video captures the happenings in Tayport and at Fir Park from early morning until the team comes home with the Cup. Just about everybody who was there features on the video. It is hoped to have the video on sale at the Presentation Dance and thereafter at Irvine's the newsagent.

TAYPORT have been invited to play English Non-League side Ashton United from the Manchester area for The International Challenge Cup which has been put up by NYNEX Ltd. for the occasion. The game will take place at Ashton under Lyne on Saturday 3rd August.

THE Shotts Bon Accord saga rumbles on. It will be recalled that the Central League Premier team was thrown out of the SJFA for submitting bogus sick lines in an attempt to avoid playing a local cup tie. For their part in the fiasco the Shotts Committee members held to be responsible were banned from all football by the SFA. However, as they had refused to demit office, the club could not get back into the Central League. An Emergency General Committee meeting of Shotts was called recently when by 54 votes to 16 the five awkward committee men were turfed out leaving the way clear for the club to rejoin the SJFA and the Central League. It is understood that Dr. Mohammed Muqit who supplied the sicklines has been reported to the General Medical Council by SJFA Secretary Joe Black.

IT looks as if St Josephs are set to rebuild again virtually from scratch under manager Kenny Cameron. Several players signed during the previous regime are likely to be made available for transfer as the club prepares for the new season. Also on Joey's agenda of course is a new ground. Monymusk seems to be the preferred option with the currently homeless Elmwood FC taking over at Fairfield.

PROGRESS on the new enclosure, as you may have observed, has been slow after a brisk start but hopes are high that everything will be in place for the new season.

CUP FINAL PRESS REPORT

THE COURIER " Tayport's victorious footballers returned to a heroes' welcome in the town last night after their triumph in the OVD Scottish Junior Cup final. Hundreds of fans bedecked in red and white lined the streets of the north Fife town to welcome home the winning team."

THE SUN " TAY-KI THAT. CAME'S UP AS STEVIE THUNDER POUNCES.
OVD Cup specialist Stevie Ross slammed an extra time double to clinch junior football's top honour for Tayport at Fir Park yesterday"

SCOTSMAN " TAYPORT VALUE THEIR CROWN JEWEL
The OVD Scottish Cup final has a habit of providing fairy tale endings and perhaps Tayport had the better credentials in that respect at Motherwell yesterday. They always looked likelier to score than the cupholders and eventually took the trophy to northern Fife through two goals in extra time by Stephen Ross "

THE DAILY RECORD " CRACK OUT THE PORT 'N CIGARS
Tiny Stevie Ross wrestled the Scottish Junior Cup away from Camelon at Fir Park yesterday. The Tayside terror - the smallest man on the field - grabbed the extra time double which earned his side the cup "

SCOTLAND ON SUNDAY " SILVERY TAYPORT AND DEEDS OF VALOUR
It is all a question of direction for Tayside's leading football sides. In one of the biggest mass exoduses from Tayside since Sydney Devine last played the Whitehall Theatre, 8,000 Dundee United fans and 2,500 Tayport fans will regroup on the A80 north of Glasgow to discuss how the west was won."

DAILY EXPRESS " SUPER ROSS ON HIGH AS TAYPORT HIT GLORY NOTE
Tayport are celebrating this morning after collecting the top honour in junior football after only six years in existence "

THE HERALD " FAIRY TALE SUCCESS WHEN FOUR PUBS ARE NOT ENOUGH
For the normal refreshment of Tayport's townspeople four pubs are plenty. Their efficient arrangement is along one street, with agreeable wee side staggers in between. But sometimes four pubs, though abundant, are not enough. Then Tayport (population, 3500) has its own way of extending its licensed premises. Local custom is to start at one oasis, do each other in turn, then keep starting again. That was the way of it on Sunday night."

SCOTTISH DAILY RECORD AND SUNDAY MAIL INTERNATIONAL (AUSTRALIA)

" HERE'S TAY US!
Tayport tot Stevie Ross couldn't believe he was the head man in the Scottish Junior Cup Final joy day. The 5' 6" winger set the Dundee side on their way to glory with an extra time header. And he grinned ' You don't score many goals with your head when you're my size! ' "

GOALS

95 minutes. Mark Spalding sent Grant Miller down the right. Dave Reilly headed Grant's cross on to Steven Stewart on the left of the goal. Steven's shot was cleared but only to DR 16 yards out, a deft chip by DR found Stevie Ross coming in from the right to head past Banner from 2 yards

112 minutes Grant Paterson intercepted Wilcox's through ball into Tayport's half and fed Jim Henry who pushed the ball wide to Grant Buist on the right. Buist, Mark Spalding and Steven Stewart worked the ball upfield for Stewart to find Henry on the right. 25 yards out, Jim threaded the ball through to Stevie Ross whose run was timed to perfection to knock the ball low past Bannan from six yards.

GAFFE OF THE SEASON

Whilst we are all grateful for the support which OVD RUM gives to the Junior game, it's perhaps time they changed their advertising or P.R. agency. There were a number of faux pas surrounding the final and it wouldn't take a genius to improve matters. After all, OVD Rum and the Scottish Junior Cup are pretty marketable products. Anyway, any shortcomings had just about been forgotten when, on Friday 31st May through the letterboxes of each of thousands of licensed trade establishments in the country popped the latest edition of Scottish Licensed Trade News. Read on

Camelon's OVD Cup

ALEX Carnie, sales director, on-trade, of Seagram UK, presents the OVD Cup, the top trophy in Scottish junior football, to Dave Wilcox, captain of the side.

Camelon, who also won the cup last year, defeated Tayport in the final at Motherwell's Fir Park. Also pictured at the presentation are Joe Black, the secretary, and Ronnie Orr, the president of the Scottish Junior Football Association.

ANSWERS TO TRIVIA QUIZ. 1. Gary Maher(4). 2. Reilly, Ross, Miller, Spalding. 3. two. 4. Grant Buist and Allan Ramsay. 5. Ross and Miller. 10 points - you've either been cheating or you're lined up for Statto's job on Fantasy Football. 6-9 points - You've been watching that video too much. 2-5 points - you spent too long in the pub and then had to make too many visits to the loo. 0-1 point - You were obviously celebrating before the match and are still celebrating yet!
