TAYPORT & ELMWOOD THE PREVIOUS MEETINGS

With Elmwood having been relegated at the end of season 1991/92, there have not been too many meetings between the sides. That was the only season in which they clubs were in the same division and was the season in which Elmwood salvaged anything from the meetings of the sides - a goalless draw here on the Canniepairt.

FROM THE PHOTO FILES

It's photo of Juniors' season ticket holder and club member Dougie Henderson, taken in 1968 prior to a Tayport Amateurs match on the East Common. Henny, a French teacher at Bell Baxter HS, now stays in St Andrews and is still playing football 27 years on. In fact, at the ripe old age of 46, Dougie put in two 90 minute stints the other Sunday. On the East Common for the Tayport Veterans against Joss's Giants in the morning and another full game at St Andrews University in the afternoon. Even the thought has me reaching for the Ralgex!

OVD CUP DRAW

The draw for the 2nd round of the OVD Scottish Junior Cup was made in Aberdeen last Sunday.

At the draw in the Banks O'Dee Social club Tayport was represented by Vice-chairman Alastair Oswald, Treasurer Ross Macmillan and Match Secretary Davie Ayre.

Tayport will meet a Fife side for only the second occasion in 35 OVD ties when Lochgelly Albert visit the Canniepairt.

Holders Camelon have something of a mis-match with a tie at home to Luncarty.

The Tayside team to pull the biggest plum is Kinnoull who await a visit from Pollok. A large number of buses will also be heading for Kirriemuir when beaten finalists Whitburn call at Westview Park - a bumper day for the social club is in store here.

Elsewhere the top crowd pullers will be Ardeer v Auchinleck, Arthurlie v Linlithgow Rose, Beith v Armadale and the all-Fife clash of Hill O'Beath and Newburgh.

The ties will be played on Saturday 11th November with a 2pm kick-off. The full draw is featured elsewhere in the programme.

Port Prog predictions for last week's replays weren't too bad with 5 out of 8 correct.

TODAY'S GAME

This afternoon's game is our second tie in our attempt to retain the North End Centenary Cup. Although we will be favourites to go through by virtue of the respective clubs' league placings, there is no such thing as an easy tie. Elmwood have a shrewd management team and there is little doubt that their charges will be well briefed on how to make life difficult for Tayport.

Having made a disappointing exit from the OVD Cup last week, Elmwood will be determined to retain an interest in the what is arguably the second most prestigious tournament on the circuit.

It's a tie which has to be played to a finish and such a conclusion always holds an attraction for a side well organised in defence. Elmwood have shown that, in conceding only three goals in their past five games, that they are such a side. Wood have shown, too, that they are no respecters of records having recently ended Bankfoot's unbeaten record thanks to a solitary Jed Alexander goal at Coronation Park.

Keith Nicolson, who missed last week's game through suspension, will return to the 'Port line-up and it's possible that Hamish Mackay, Steven Stewart and, perhaps, Billy Coventry will be considered fit enough for a starting place.

The tie, as mentioned above, must be decided today and the prize for the winners is a place in the all-in draw with the North Region clubs.

EXCLUSIVE !

ANOTHER SUPER CUP MOOTED

EXCLUSIVE !

Prospects of a National Junior Super League seem to be gathering momentum. Hard on the heels of Kilwinning Rangers' proposal to have a 16 team invitation tournament played throughout the season, comes another proposal, this time from Glenafton Athletic.

Tayport is one of eight clubs which has been invited to take part in a Super League/Champions League type competition. Invitations have been sent to what is considered the "creme de la creme" of Junior soccer viz Pollok, Camelon, Linlithgow Rose, Glenafton, Arthurlie, Auchinleck Talbot & Hill O' Beath.

Now comes the interesting part. The teams would initially be split into two groups, the games would be played in the new year every second Sunday. A major sponsor is lined up and the principle, it is understood, has the blessing of the SJFA. A meeting of the invited clubs has been set for early next month when the proposal will be further explored. The upshot of a competition such as this being successful is bound to be the formation of a Junior Super League.

Watch this space!

THIS AFTERNOON'S VISITORS ELMWOOD FC

We welcome Elmwood to the Canniepairt for the first time since 1991. Their fortunes have waned since that time and they are now resident in Division Two. Under the management team of KENNY BUNCE (manager), GEORGE RANKINE (Assistant), NEIL DOIG and DAVE CHRISTIE (coaches), Elmwood are making a determined bid to regain their top division status.

Their defensive record is one of the best in the division and part of the credit here must go to their veteran 'keeper DAVE TOSNEY. Dave is no stranger to the Port Support, having performed for various teams against many of club's amateur sides in the 70's and 80's and, of course was the Juniors' first ever goalie in 1990/91. Signed for Elmwood at the start of the season.

PAUL JAMIESON. Newcomer from under 18's football. Formerly an Arbroath 'S' signing who can play in several positions.

KEVIN SCOTT. In his second season at Elmwood, 'Sergio' has come into his own since moving to the sweeper role. Another plus for Kevin is the fact that his granny is a regular at the Tayport FC bingo in the Ponderosa!

GEORGE NICOLL. Second spell at Elmwood for 'Dode' who signed from Jeanfield at the beginning of last season.

MAURICE McDONALD. 'Mojo' is team skipper. Steady full back with great acceleration.

KEVIN WALKER. Youngster who has recently joined the club. Has all the skills to take him right to the top in the Junior game.

JIMMY ALEXANDER. An aggressive midfielder who has settled in quickly after signing at the start of the season.

RODNEY ARCHIBALD. In his second year with the 'Wood, young Rod's ability gained for him the Club's 'Most Improved Player' award last season. Just getting over a foot injury.

JAN DAMMER. Recently signed up from amateur football. Needing time to settle and probably won't be seen at his best until later in the season.

IAN RICE. Another in his second season at Elmwood. Plays midfield or defence. Injured recently and is just getting back to fitness.

SCOTT GARDEN. 18 yr. old who was fixed up from Duncraig. A skilful player not short on confidence. Turns out for Brechin City's BP Youth team.

DAVE O'NEIL. Another of the 'Wood squad enjoying a second spell with the club. Last played for the club back in the eighties in the company of the likes of John Ruddle, Paul Blair etc.. Quiet lad, described by his manager as a 'model player'.

BILLY FLYNN. Last season's Clubman of the Year, Billy is a strong, robust centre with a 'never-say-die' attitude.

GED ALEXANDER. Nippy, skilful centre who was club's joint top goalscorer last season. Can cause the best of defences trouble when he sets his mind to it.

ANGUS GALLACHER. 'Moose' is in his second spell at Elmwood having been at Lochee United in between. 'Wood's other joint top scorer last season. Angus' goals tend to be of the spectacular variety. Spent a spell with Tayport Amateurs' Fife X1 in 1990.

MICHAEL BRANKIN. Stepped up from Lochee United's Under 18's this season. Fast and skilful striker who's good in the air. Will only get better as he gains in experience.

WAYNE RUMGAY. Senior player in the young 'Wood team. Played for the club since he was 17. Notched the last minute goal which brought the fruitless replay against Blairgowrie in the OVD Cup a fortnight ago.

GRAHAM DAVIDSON. Presently on a delayed transfer to Brechin City where he is a regular in their reserve side. Has been injured recently.

THE BAKER'S BIT

Elmwood provide our Centenary Cup opposition this afternoon, so I'd like to take this opportunity to welcome their players and officials to the Canniepairt.

Last weekend saw us pick up another two valuable points at home to Scone Thistle. I must admit to being a little bit wary going into the game with us having a number of players unavailable through injury and suspension. This coupled to the fact that Scone had managed to take a point at St Josephs and were, by all accounts, desperately unlucky the previous week at Lochee United, losing only to an injury time penalty kick.

But my fears were really unnecessary. The 2-0 scoreline didn't reflect how one sided the game was. We dominated from start to finish. I do feel that their manager Tom Van Der Ham went home, although unhappy with a defeat, relieved at not losing by a much larger score. Yes, we did miss a host of good scoring opportunities, however the fact that they were created, and that we've got two points in the bag, would suggest that we're not too far away and, hopefully, better things are to come.

A healthy pool would certainly help. With Paul Reilly out for most of the season and so many niggling injuries, it's amazing how quickly the size of the pool dwindles. Last Saturday morning there was a time when I was about to send out an 'all points bulletin' to start the search for a pair of boots with 'DB' on the back. However I thought better of it and phoned Mel Irons instead.

On Tuesday past, all five of our Tayside Select players did the club proud. I thought everyone played well in the 1-0 victory over the East Region at Perth.

I must say that I find it a bit puzzling as to why none of our Tayside players are thought to be good enough to represent our country. They certainly more than matched a very strong and experienced side from, what I would argue, is the strongest Junior Region in the country at present. This argument is backed up by the fact that last term's Scottish Cup final was contested between Camelon and Whitburn and, with sides like Linlithgow Rose, Newtongrange Star, Armadale, Thistle and Bo'ness all very capable clubs. I honestly don't know why our players are being overlooked. I have my thoughts as to the reason why, but I won't go into it in this column.....maybe when I write my memoirs!

Today's game with Elmwood gives us the opportunity to advance to the last sixteen stage of the Centenary Cup. Being the holders, I'd like very much to keep it. Our opponents today stand in our way but I'm sure that, if we approach the game in the proper manner, we can advance towards that goal.

Support The Port, Dave Baikie.

What was the most frequently asked question in the Tayport pubs last Saturday night? We can exclusively reveal that the question was - What was the Downfield score? We listened to Radio Tay....., we scoured the Sporting Post....., we had our ears glued to Radio Scotland but still, there was no score forthcoming. Well, we said to ourselves, Arbroath SC aren't the best at phoning in their result but.....wait a minute! the game was at Downfield! Oh, well then, we'd better check the Teletext at 8pm (page 177 by the way). No problem, Big Jock had done the business and got the results on the telly. Oh yes, the result? A third shocker on the trot - Downfield 0 Arbroath 3. See, it doesn't pay to be nasty about us in their programme! One nasty comment = 3 bad results!

FIVE YEARS AGO

OCTOBER 1990

Tyaport's Junior side was in its first year of existence and five years ago we were in the midst of our first ever Scottish Junior Cup tie. The tie, against Larkhall, had been drawn 1-1 at Tayport and we travelled to Lanarkshire for the first of what was to be many stirring OVD encounters away from home.

In goal for Tayport was the man who will be between the sticks for Elmwood this afternoon, Dave Tosney. Below is how the Larkhall programme reported the first tie and how the Fife Herald reported the replay.

Tayport's line-up for the first leg was D.Tosney, G.Malone, G.Paterson, G.Irons, F.Dolan, S.Wilkie, G.Cushnie, (M.Spalding), B.Coventry, G.Christie (D.Reilly), K.Thoms, G.Lamont. For the replay Spalding started in place of Christie and Baikie came on as substitute for Coventry.

TAYPORT 1 LARKHALL 1. Last week we started out on the long road to the Scottish Cup Final with a historic visit to Tayport for their first ever Scottish Cup game.

The Jags started well having two good efforts saved by keeper Tosney in the opening ten minutes (he's known as the "Flying Pig" by the Port fans). The first half saw few chances being made as both defences coped with most attacks although Port had the ball in the net but the Ref. decided the ball was out of play for a goal kick.

The second half livened up a bit with the Port keeping Bowman busy but it was the Jags who struck first with Morrison scoring from 12 yards after good work on the left by Gallagher.

The Port levelled the game with 8 minutes to go after a poor clearance caught our defence napping.

LARKHALL THISTLE.....1
TAYPORT JUNIORS.....2

A fighting display by Tayport last Saturday saw them through to the second round of the Scottish Cup.

Following the previous week's draw with the Lanarkshire side, there were those who thought that Tayport might have lost their chance of advancing, but sterling performances from every man in the side saw them safely through.

Thistle supporters had decided winger Gary Lamont was the man to watch. The fans are obviously on the same wavelength as the team, because it was early in the first half when the "wee man" had to leave the field for a few minutes to receive treatment for a knee injury following some crude treatment from the Larkhall defence.

Following an incident almost an hour later, Lamont, after tormenting the home defence non-stop, had to come off the park with blood streaming from his nose, an injury sustained in a sickening off-the-ball incident.

This incident apart, this was a hard-fought, entertaining match with only a Kevin Thoms strike in 17 minutes separating the teams at half-time. Only two breathtaking saves by home keeper Bowman from Cushnie and Spalding efforts, kept Larkhall in the game, or else the second 45 minutes would have been a formality.

Larkhall threw everything forward after the break, but it was Tayport who could have increased their lead when Lamont turned Julian outside-in and crossed for Thoms, who failed to connect properly with the ball and saw it sail over the bar.

With the homesters still pushing forward, and Gary Christie on for the unfortunate Lamont, it was in a classic breakthrough that Thoms found himself in possession in the Larkhall half. He controlled the ball, raced into the box and fired a low, unstoppable shot past Bowman.

"Mel" Irons, playing wide on the right, was finding a lot of space and provided some fine balls into the goalmouth, which had substitute Baikie striving hard to put the result beyond doubt.

As it was, Tayport finished the game defending gamely, with clearances off the line by Dolan, Wilkie and Paterson in quick succession.

The referee had allowed the game to run two minutes over when McAdams blasted a 35-yarder past Dave Tosney. Incredibly, it still wasn't over, and in the 95th minute Tosney stopped a point-blank shot before the referee blew his whistle to bring the pulsating cup-tie to a close.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOUT

ELMWOOD could fairly reasonably be nicknamed 'The Nomads'. For ten years now this afternoon's opponents have been homeless. With no ground to call their own, Elmwood have been forced to rely on the charity of other clubs for their home fixtures. They previously shared Glenesk, courtesy of Violet, and presently share Whitton Park, courtesy of Broughty Athletic. For a time they even had to use a Council pitch at Riverview, Monifieth. It's obviously an unsatisfactory arrangement for the 'Wood whose committee are striving ceaselessly to find a home of their own.

THE Joeys must have snout in the Highland League! Latest in the line of players who have flitted back and forth from the Tayside Juniors and the Highland League is ex-Tayport Juniors (and Amateurs) player Andy Heggie. Unhappy at being unable to hold down a place with the Fairfield Park side, Andy has thrown his lot in with Deveronvale. Dundonian teammates there are Steve Dolan and Eddie Wolecki. Chance of glory beckons, however for Andy, 'cos Deveronvale have drawn Albion Rovers in the first round of the Scottish Cup.

ELMWOOD are one of the clubs with which Tayport are associated in the Super Six, our weekly lottery. 'Wood have been doing quite well so it's a partnership which is benefitting both clubs. Not got your ticket yet? Get one now at the paygate! Prize this week is £800.

NOT a lot of people know this! But this club has probably played against more foreign opposition than any other amateur or junior club in the country. A quick check reveals that we've turned out, at one time or another, against French, Belgian, Italian, Spanish, German, Yugoslavian and English teams. Oh, yes, and Russians too, if you count a friendly on The Common against the crew of a big timber boat berthed in Tayport harbour. The only ones we never came out on top against were the Yugos.

LANCASTER City, our pre-season opponents a couple of years ago, have started like a bomb this season and lead the Unibond 1st Division. They were also in the news recently when they played host to ten children from Chernobyl, victims of radiation-related illness following the disaster there in 1986. City had donated to a Chernobyl linked charity and the visit was by way of a thank you to the club.

SCOTLAND could only muster 12 players for the challenge match last Sunday against OVD winners Camelon. Manager Denis Gray decided at lunchtime on Saturday that he wanted the services of Dave Reilly and Gary Maher but neither player ever got the message. Somebody will have to tell Denis that we have a phone down here at The Canniepairt and that the number's in the book!

TAYPORT QUINTET STAR IN TAYSIDE WIN TAYSIDE REGION FA 1 EAST REGION FA 0 (HARLEQUIN TROPHY)

A late goal from Carnoustie's Mark Kelly was sufficient for Tayside to retain the Harlequin Trophy at Jeanfield's Simpson Park last Tuesday evening.

The substitute's goal (he had replaced North End's Rab McLaren with twenty minutes left) was no more than the Tayside team deserved in what was an excellent performance against the Region which had supplied both finalists in last season's OVD Cup Final.

Tayport's Grant Paterson, Sean Wilkie, Gary Maher, Alan Ramsay and Dave Reilly were on from the start and, although it is unfair to pick stars from five excellent displays, mention must be made of the contribution of Paterson, Wilkie and Ramsay each of whom was outstanding.

The Tayside line-up was Grant Clark(Downfield); Jim McMulkin(Downfield), Sean Wilkie, Grant Paterson; Gus Malone(St Josephs), Allan Ramsay, Jim Henry (Lochee United), Gary Maher; Dave Reilly, Rab McLaren (North End). Substitutes were Murray (Jeanfield), Price(Downfield), Tanner (Kinnoull), Hutchison (Jeanfield), Jeffries (Broughty Ath.) and Kelly (Carnoustie Panmure).

PRESS REPORT

" Tayport are at home to promoted Scone Thistle and should have few problems defeating a team with only one league victory "

- The Courier previewing Tayport 2 Scone 0 (21/10/95)

" Newburgh must steel themselves for the visit to Lochgelly Albert. Previous successes may count for little as Norrie McArthur's side take on a tough Albert line-up who are determined to turn around a poor start to the campaign "

- The Courier previewing Lochgelly Albert v Newburgh (21/10/95)

" Elmwood failed to make home advantage count in their (OVD) replay with Blairgowrie.....Wood fought to the end but Blair's defence held firm "

- The Courier (23/10/95) reporting Elmwood 0 Blairgowrie 1.

" Newburgh's winning run crashed to a halt at Lochgelly Albert "

-The Courier (23/10/95) reporting Lochgelly Albert 3 Newburgh 1.

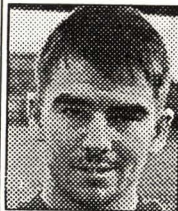

" Scone performed well against Tayport although going down 0-2 . Both goals came in the first half, the first of which came from the penalty spot in the 25th minute. The incident also saw Scone's Ian Flaherty ordered off and this decision caused a bit of controversy. What seemed to happen was that the ball hit Flaherty's hand which he had raised to protect his face, no argument a penalty but the ordering-off seemed rather harsh as the player was really only intent on protecting himself from the vicious drive struck by a Tayport player.

- Perthshire Advertiser (24/10/95) reviewing Tayport 2 Scone 0.

" Tayport opened up a two point lead at the top of the A.T. & T. League Division One last Saturday when two first half goals were enough to claim the points from visitors Scone "

- Fife Herald (27/10/95) Tayport 2 Scone Thistle 0
