THIS AFTERNOON'S VISITORS ARNISTON RANGERS' SQUAD

In goal this afternoon will be GAVIN KIRKWOOD who has conceded only one goal in the Cup to date. Kirkwood, 34 next week, signed from Armadale just over a year ago.

Full-back TOMMY CUNNINGHAM is in his fourth season at the club and he will be partnered by RITCHIE McCAUL who is the club's longest serving player.

Inspirational player/boss JACKIE MYLES calls most of the shots on the park and his all action style belies his 36 years. 22 years old central defender MARK FRASER had two seasons at Ibrox playing for the big Rangers before being reinstated to Arniston 2½ years ago. Defender PETER THOMSON has been virtually an ever present since signing from Newtongrange Star during the summer.

Midfielder GORDON IRELAND is in his fifth season at Newbyres since joining up from near neighbours Dalkeith Thistle. ROGER CARR was signed a couple of years ago from Cowdenbeath and has notched two goals from midfield in his last five outings.

PAUL SIMPSON is one of two members of today's visitors' squad to have played on The Canniepairt previously. Paul who is Arniston's top scorer this season, was a member of the Camelon squad which played here in 1993.

JOHN TAIT is another who can take goals from midfield and has found the net in three of his last five games. PAUL RAMSAY, a regular in the No.11 jersey, is in his first season with the club having signed from Newtongrange Star. Paul grabbed the goal which eliminated Kilbirnie in the last round.

30 yrs old striker RODDY MACDONALD doesn't have happy memories of his last visit to the Canniepairt. Roddy was in the Blackburn United team which crashed 7-1 in the OVD Cup exactly six years ago. This was the game, you might recall which ended in Blackburn being fined £250 for the conduct of their spectators.

Midfielder ROSS MIDDLEMASS, a recruit from the Juvenile ranks this season, has had to be content with a place on the bench for most games and that situation is unlikely to change today.

Assistant to team boss Myles is player/coach ROBIN RAE. A goalkeeper for several seasons with Hibernian, Rae plays outfield these days - when the boss gives him a game!

Defender STEPHEN LOCKE, Arniston's most recent acquisition, has made only two starts since signing from Rosyth at the back end of the year. Midfielder DONALD STOUT, signed from Cowdenbeath in 1995, hasn't featured in the team in recent games. Reserve goalkeeper is KEVIN BROWN who joined Arniston from Gala Fairydean in 1995.

Winton Rovers boss Rab McNaught watched several rivals drop points as his side played a 4-0 friendly win over Royal Albert. Having signed three experienced players from West Kilbride Amateurs, the new Winton coach is on the look-out for a handy centre-forward, amateur or junior. Phone the NEWS office.

The Western 2nd division race was compressed slightly by last week's draws, with Annbank and Muirkirk still in the play-off reckoning.

Meanwhile, Dennis Gray must have thought he'd won the league with last week's late comeback against leaders, Glenafton, and 2nd bottom Dalry the only other 3 points winner in a great steal at Kilbirmie.

The OVD Cup overshadows all else this week, with four Ayrshire sides bidding to enter the quarter-finals.

Elsewhere, points become even more crucial for the remaining league contenders in Div 1 and Div 2. Winton, Craigmark and Muirkirk must all take something from away games, whilst in the top division, Glenafton and Kilwinning are still title candidates, with the other four clubs in action desperate for points.

The two big guns look set to play their outstanding Ayrshire Cup - round 1 - tie next week with Athletic having won the equivalent league encounter.

O.V.D. Scottish Junior Cup

TODAY'S GAME

TAYPORT v ARNISTON RANGERS

This afternoon we welcome Arniston Rangers to the Canniepairt for the first time. Previous visitors to Tayport this season, Larkhall Thistle, claim to be Scotland's oldest Junior club but Arniston Rangers were also founded in 1878.

Based at Newbyres Park in Gorebridge, about three miles or so south of Dalkeith, Rangers' best season in the Scottish was 74 years ago when a crowd of 20,000 at Tynecastle watched Musselburgh win 3-0 in the final tie.

After six seasons in Division Two following relegation in 1989, the appointment of Jackie Myles, signed from Bonnyrigg Rose, as player/manager signalled a change in fortune for the Gorebridge club. Runners-up spot in 1995 brought a return to the top division last season.

To say that Arniston took Division One by storm would be an understatement. They went to the top of the table in November and stayed there until June. Their lead looked unassailable as they waited for the other teams to catch up on their fixtures. However Whitburn embarked on a sensational run which took them from the foot of the table to the title inside three months, pipping Arniston by a point for the championship on the final day of the season.

It seemed to take a while to get the disappointment out of the system and Rangers had a stuttering start to this season. But they got their act together following a single goal defeat at Dunbar on November 2nd and are unbeaten since.

The run started with their opening tie in the OVD Cup when Saltcoats Vics were eliminated by a 3-0 scoreline at Newbyres Park. Player boss Myles has had a settled side in recent months and the team's capabilities were apparent when they hit six goals for the second time in four games recently in defeating Armadale. The only decision the manager appears to have to make from what has been a fairly settled line-up is whether to choose Paul Simpson or Roddy MacDonald to play up front.

With an age profile of around 29, Arniston's experience is in no doubt. They are certain to be tough and resolute opponents who have got their act together in good time for a determined assault on the cup.

Their run to the fifth round, which is the club's best run for many years, has brought a buzz to the Gorebridge area and the team looks certain to be well supported this afternoon.

Although nobody could pretend that the team's form in recent week's has been earthshattering, a feature of Tayport's play these past two weeks has been the quality of the goals. Three crackers against Craigie were followed up by another three toppers at Jeanfield. More of the same, please.

THE BAIKER'S BIT

Good afternoon to our fans and a warm welcome to the players and officials of our Scottish Cup opponents Arniston Rangers.

Prior to our league victory over East Craigie I said we had to match our opponents' effort. Do so and I felt our ability would do the rest. I believe the first hour or so justified my thoughts. Although we had the majority of the ball there was a distinct lack of passion in our play. Fortunately the loss of a goal and the substitutions gave us the kick start that we desperately needed and of course we went on to win 3-1. Surely our players must realise what I am saying. Success can only be earned.

If someone predicted a 3-0 win at Jeanfield I'm quite sure I would have settled for that. The important thing about the victory was the way we started the game. I've often preached that this is the vital period of any game. We set out to impose ourselves on our opposition and for the greatest part of the game we did just that. And with a bit more fortune the score could have been much more.

This afternoon we have another tremendous challenge ahead of us. Our opponents aren't at this stage by default. They've earned the right to be here, defeating Saltcoats Vics., Rosyth Recreation and top Ayrshire side Kilbirnie Ladeside by 1-0 after a good draw down in Ayrshire.

To be part of these games should be motivation enough in itself. A quarter final place is at stake and the opportunity to compete in the Scottish Junior Cup Final. We've competed in two of these in the past four years. Of course we have the ability. Match it with the passion required and I'm confident we'll be in the draw next time around.

Solicitors & Notaries

This afternoon's OVD Scottish Cup 5th round tie is sponsored by MUIR, MYLES & LAVERTY, Solicitors and Notaries, Cupar and Dundee. We are delighted to welcome their party to The Canniepairt this afternoon.

Already well established in Dundee, MUIR, MYLES & LAVERTY have recently opened an office in St Catherine Street, Cupar, just opposite the County Buildings.

As you can see from the firm's advertisement in the Port Prog, MUIR, MYLES & LAVERTY specialise in all types of legal work.

For the convenience of Tayport folk, MUIR, MYLES & LAVERTY will be in attendance at THE DOLPHIN CENTRE, TAYPORT EVERY THURSDAY from 3pm to 5pm to provide FREE LEGAL ADVICE on a complete range of topics.

The MYLES in the partnership is Joe Myles, a stalwart for Tayport Amateurs' Fife XI in the 1980's. Welcome back to a much changed Canniepairt, Joe. We hope you, and your party have an enjoyable day.

UP FOR THE CUP!

OVD SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP 5TH ROUND

CAMBUSLANG RANGERS	v	ABERDEEN SUNNYBANK
ARTHURLIE	v	HILL O' BEATH
BEITH JUNIORS	v	FAULDHOUSE UNITED
LARGS THISTLE	v	BLANTYRE VICS
CUMNOCK	v	PETERSHILL
TRANENT JUNIORS	v	AUCHINLECK TALBOT
HERMES	v	POLLOK JUNIORS

The other fifth round ties are listed above and there are some mouthwatering encounters. It's 43 years since SUNNYBANK's greatest hour and the North Region league leaders look well placed to take a stab at repeating that achievement. Sunnybank is the biggest test to date for CAMBUSLANG who are nearer the bottom than the top of the Reebok Division One.

HILL O'BEATH are currently enjoying a lengthy unbeaten run but they have rarely been tested on the domestic scene. Facing ARTHURLIE at Barrhead will be a far more daunting task for them. A win here will give a lie to those who say that some of the players are too old to repeat their 1990 success.

BEITH will find a buoyant FAULDHOUSE their toughest opponents so far. Wins over Lesmahagow and Glenrothes will have given the East Region team every confidence that they can get to the last eight. But, beating Bon Accord away from home in a replay shows that the north Ayrshire team can handle things when the chips are down.

LARGS THISTLE, surprise packets in 1994, can't surely repeat that feat but they will fancy their chances of getting a stage nearer with a win over BLANTYRE VICS who are at the wrong end of the Reebok Premier League. Both have taken notable scalps on the way and it's anyone's guess which team will end up on top here.

The bookies don't think that CUMNOCK can do it against PETERSHILL and they are probably not far off the mark. A big local support will have different thoughts however. Petershill have promised so much without producing the goods in the Scottish in recent years. A win is essential here if their credibility is not to be further eroded.

A huge attendance is expected too, at TRANENT where cup favourites AUCHINLECK are the visitors. Talbot's form was put to the test last week when two late goals gave them verdict v Glenafton to leapfrog their opponents to take over at the top of the table. Mike Galloway has worked wonders at Tranent since taking over this season. This is his biggest examination yet.

Bridge of Don will be gripped by cup fever today in anticipation of the visit of POLLOK to local side HERMES. It's the biggest day in the North club's short Junior history. The tag of being rank outsiders won't weigh heavy on the Aberdeen lads. They'll give it their best shot, I've no doubt, but, alas, it's unlikely to be good enough.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

SOMEWHAT tongue-in-cheek, Scotland on Sunday has recently been conducting a survey to find their readers' "Scottish All-Time Immoral XI". You know the sort of thing. Tommy Docherty is the manager, and the likes of Andy Goram, Willie Johnston, Frank McAvennie, Duncan Ferguson and Maurice Johnston are first choices. A supporter remarked that we should put together 'Tayport FC's All-Time Immoral XI' So, nominations to the editor, please. The line-up will be revealed at the Jubilee Dinner in April. Of course any team has got to be backed by a committee and there will be no shortage of candidates for places in 'The All-Time Immoral Tayport FC Committee'!

ALL but three of this afternoon's last 16 in the OVD Cup are former winners of the competition. Arniston Rangers were beaten finalist on one occasion, Beith have yet to reach a semi-final stage and Hermes are having their best ever run this season, having only joined the Juniors in 1993.

ARNISTON are defending a proud record this afternoon. They have never failed to score in a Scottish Cup tie for over four years.

A first time visitor to Tranent last week tells me he was stung buying half-time draw tickets. Seeing a healthy attendance, our man invested £2 in tickets. Needless to say, he had no luck but what niggled him were the prizes - £5, £3, £2. Either very few bought tickets or the profits were vast!

OUR pre-season visit to Greater Manchester has had a spin-off. Bramhall FC Veterans XI have been in touch with us with a view to playing the Tayport FC Veterans XI in a tour match in Tayport sometime in the Spring. The TFC Veterans XI were in action the other week when they had a well earned 3-0 win over Spider McLaren's Vets. on the new floodlit astro pitch at St Andrews University.

GRAEME Nicoll, son of Tayport FC coach Ronnie, has been signed by Newburgh Juniors from East Fife on a delayed transfer. Graeme, who had a short run in the Methil 1st XI a few weeks ago, was quickly on the mark for the 'Burgh with their goal in a 1-1 draw with Dundonald last Saturday.

WHAT about the plonker who wrote to the Sporting Post last week? He was 'amazed' that Tayside were thinking of merging with the Fife Region. One of his concerns was the cost of a bus. £90 to £150 he said. Typical comment from those who get a nosebleed when they cross the Tay. Does he not realise that places like Kelty, Kirkcaldy and Glenrothes are as close or closer to Dundee than Montrose and Bankfoot for example. Would his club hire a bus to go there?

DO I detect the pressure of being at the top of the table is getting to St Josephs a wee bit? The dig at The Snout in their recent newsletter suggests that there are raw nerves somewhere. The Snout's certainly not 'ferreting mad' as claimed, but he is allowing himself a wry smile.

from ROBIN JENKINS'

'THE THISTLE AND THE GRAIL'

(1954)

It is an axiom throughout Scotland that to win the Junior Cup a little luck is essential. Skill, stamina, courage, and morale are necessary; but teams which have these qualities in abundance find them unavailing without this other tiny ingredient. Nor can it be cultivated. Amulets can be carried in waistcoat pockets, from miniature Buddhas to whippets' teeth; prayers can be offered into the froth on beer; ladders can be avoided; boys can be employed to drive away from the precincts of the field all black cats; wives can be ordered to stitch magical emblems on to scarves; and ministers can be prevailed on to mention the team in pulpit addresses. These propitiations can all be made, indeed must be made, but as they are being made elsewhere at the same time by opponents there is in the laboratories of the occult a cancelling out. A team, therefore, in its progress has to be like any individual man: it must wrack heart, soul, and limbs; if it is lucky, it will succeed; if unlucky, it will fail. God can be praised or blamed thereafter.

Good wins for Shettleston and Arthurlie, combined with Pollok's late winner against leaders, Maryhill, brings the top five clubs back into close contention for the title - with champions Pollok outsiders. Rob Roy also had a good win to move away from that bottom area - a full five places!

Five Central big-guns go in the OVD Cup this week - none of them against each other - so, prospects of the five reaching quarter-finals are good.

Shettleston, Maryhill and Rob Roy have chances to consolidate their league form in the Premier, now reduced to the top five and the bottom seven.

In Division 1, Leamaghaw and Lanark United should edge into commanding positions, whilst in the lower division, the game between St.Anthony's and Bellshill looks a cracker, with both needing wins to keep in touch with the leaders.

GLENS ARE OVD TEAM OF THE 90'S - SO FAR

If confirmation is required of the strength of EAST REGION clubs in the SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP during the 1990's it is the fact that three of their sides make the top ten appearance table. TAYSIDE, AYRSHIRE and CENTRAL are on two each with FIFE on one appearance. The lack of a challenge from the NORTH to date is evident in that Region's failure to have a club make the top ten.

Based on the number of appearances each club has made in the OVD Scottish Junior Cup during the 1990's, GLENAFTON ATHLETIC are out in front with 51 appearances.

Confirmation that the Central League's grip on the Cup in the 90's has slackened significantly (there hasn't been a Central League winner since 1985), is the fact that only ARTHURLIE make the top six, coming second top with 49 appearances.

Next come TAYPORT with 47 appearances and then AUCHINLECK TALBOT with 45 appearances.

Next Tayside appearance is that of DOWNFIELD who are one of five clubs on 32. Others on this mark are HILL O'BEATH, WHITBURN, CAMELON and POLLOK. Hill O' Beath and Pollok will add to that total this afternoon.

In 10th spot are ARMADALE on 28 and just outside the top ten is another Tayside team, ST JOSEPHS, on 25. Next come LINLITHGOW ROSE and LESMAHAGOW both on 23 appearances.

Two clubs always well fancied by the bookies, PETERSHILL and CUMNOCK, have flattered to deceive to date with 19 and 16 cups games respectively during the 1990's.

DAVE & STEVEN GET INTERNATIONAL CALL-UP

DAVE REILLY and STEVEN STEWART have been named in Scotland manager Dennis Gray's squad for matches against Partick Thistle at Firhill on Tuesday 18 February and against a Highland League Select at Cove on Tuesday 4 March. Following these games the pool will be announced for the Four Nations Tournament in Northern Ireland in April.

The squad is: Stewart McIntosh(Kilwinning Rangers), Jamie Picken(Cumnock), Gavin Duncan(Arthurlie), Bryan Smith(Petershill), Iain Ashcroft(Pollok), Stuart Allison (Shettleston), Gordon Fraser(Newtongrange Star), Gary Graham(Auchinleck), David Fulton(Arthurlie), Eddie McGuinness(Lesmahagow), Derek McCulloch(Auchinleck), Duncan Sinclair(Cumnock), Steven Stewart(Tayport), Danny Diver(Pollok), Dave Reilly(Tayport) and Billy Spence (Hill O'Beath).

Players on standby are Gary Smith(Camelon), Darren Stewart(Cumnock), Davie Walker (Glenafton) and Christie McKenzie(Camelon).

Tayport boss Dave Baikie will be in charge of the Tayside Under 23 team which plays the Reebok Central League Under 23's in their second match in this season's Under 23 Tournament. Both sides won their opening games by 2-1 so there is everything to play for.

The pool is: King, Gray, Kelly & McCafferty(North End), Gray, Ramsay & Stewart (Tayport), McGurty & Hutton(Downfield), Bruce & Houghton(St Josephs), Murray(Jeanfield), Lindsay(East Craigie), Milne(Carnoustie), Ferguson(Forfar West End), Lundberg(Leochear Harp), Hamilton(Kinnoull).

The game will be played at Maryhill's Lochburn Park on Tuesday 25 February.

PRESS REPORT

"In the first division, Tayport eventually got their act together to take the points. East Craigie made the better start and took the lead through a cracking goal from Beattie in 37 minutes. Stewart came on and levelled the score after 70 minutes. Then two goals from Dave Reilly, the first from a spectacular overhead kick, saved the day for the champions"

- The SUNDAY POST (2.2.97) Tayport 3 East Craigie 1.

"A late flurry from Tayport saved their blushes and the points, in this NCR Division One match at The Canniepairt. A couple of substitutions with just over twenty minutes remaining saw a more determined 'Port side which finally denied the visitors any share of the spoils from a match which they led for over half an hour."

- FIFE HERALD (7.2.97) Tayport 3 East Craigie 1.

"Jeanfield have a daunting task in Division One when they play hosts to last season's league champions and Scottish Cup holders Tayport. They will come to Simpson Park desperately seeking full points to help them sustain their challenge to retain the league title"

- PERTSHIRE ADVERTISER (7.2.97)

"The toughest part of forecasting Junior Cup ties is undoubtedly these last two rounds before the semi-finals. You always have a good smattering of the very top clubs, often playing each other, as well as a few well organised 'also-rans' who are still capable of snatching a shock result. This year should be no exception"

- SCOTTISH PYRAMID NEWS (8.2.97) previewing today's ties.

"Tayport kept up their challenge at the top of the league with a comfortable 3-0 victory away to Jeanfield Swifts. Gray opened the scoring and Dave Reilly added to the tally with a spectacular strike. Substitute Miller completed the scoring 10 minutes from the end after latching on to a Paterson through ball"

- The SUNDAY POST (9.2.97) Jeanfield Swifts 0 Tayport 3.

"Swifts were at home to 'hot-shots' Tayport and, while Swifts eventually went down 0-3, they put up a very spirited display but were beaten by a stronger side"

- PERTSHIRE ADVERTISER (11.2.97)
