TODAY'S GAME

This Whyte & Mackay Cup 2nd round tie brings together Tayport and St Josephs for the second time this season. The first occasion was back in September when we were held to a goalless draw at Fairfield Park. Since then both teams have played around 25 games and neither has given much away.

Tayport, already with three trophy successes under their belts this season, still retain an interest in all the game's prizes. St Josephs are out of contention for the biggest of those prizes, the OVD Scottish Junior Cup, but otherwise are having their best season to date.

It's a run built on the foundation of a strong defence which has given the rest of the side a confidence which was perhaps not so evident in seasons past. Last close season's recruitment concentrated on signings which would provide defensive strength. 'Keeper Fraser Fitzpatrick (Lochee United), Kenny Jones (Downfield), Jim McMulkin (Downfield) were three of the key signings. Downfield was further pillaged with the signing of strikers Mike McIlvannie and Kenny Cameron. The latter has found a rich vein of goalscoring form, particularly in recent weeks, under his father's tutelage. Old Kenny, the team manager, was of course a canny wee striker in his day many moons ago.

St Josephs noted in their recent newsletter that Tayport's heavy schedule might have a debilitating effect. However it's a situation which we've been well used to for seven years. It was also noted that the key to our success, particularly against today's opponents, has been our unrelenting professional approach. This is the attitude which no doubt former Port players Sommerville and Hunter have brought to Fairfield this season and it's been reflected in the team's results.

Counting vice president Peter Marr, St Joseph's have eight players/backroom staff who have been involved with the Tayport club at one time. Add Paul Bruce who lives in the town, one can see that there is no lack of interest for the Port Support in today's game which will be played to a finish.

Despite a comfortable win over Formartine last Saturday, Tayport will ring the changes again to keep everyone on their toes for the tough schedule which the next two months will bring.

Referee for this afternoon's tie is Mr Alan Thurston from Cupar. In the event of the scores being level after 90 minutes then thirty minutes extra time will be played and thereafter penalty kicks will determine matters if the teams cannot be separated. Interestingly this is the method which has been used to determine Tayport's fate in this competition in each of the last three seasons.

Today is also Grand National Day and we have 'on course' betting at the Canniepairt. Saltire Racing provide this facility and you are reminded that all bets are tax free. (see elsewhere in the programme for a guide today's match and Grand National odds.

Div 2-
Annbank Un 4-3 Muirkirk

Whitlets Vics 2-2 Ardeer Thistle

Annbank's win at home to leaders, Muirkirk, along with Kello's win at lowly Hurlford, kept both side's promotion hopes barely alive. Meanwhile, Winton were losing narrowly in an Ayrshire Cup replay to Kilwinning, safe in the knowledge that their rivals for a place in Div 1 next year will have to win all their remaining games. Rovers go to Ayr stadium to play the improving Whitlets Vics, with a win virtually certain to give them that 3rd place.

Largs Thistle eased their relegation worries a bit with a 3-2 win over doomed Maybole at Barrfields. It is virtually certain that the fight for 3rd bottom will be between themselves and Dalry Thistle whom they square up to this week in the 2nd round of the North Cup, both having received byes. Large must just be favourites to progress to the semi-final.

The 'Archive' photo of the Tayport School XI circa. 1931 reproduced in a recent Port Prog caused a fair degree of interest. Tayport exile Douglas Mackay, now living in Monifieth, caught sight of the prog. and forwarded it to another exile Jack Galloway, now staying in Culter, Aberdeenshire. Jack replied by saying that the photo was 'of tremendous interest - it brought back many lovely memories'.

This photo is of an earlier vintage and was supplied by Will Reid who still stays in Tayport and who went on to play professional football for Ipswich Town among others. Will, who is featured in the programme, takes in the occasional Juniors match. Back (l-r) Alex (later Dr.) Greig, Eddie Lancaster, Ian Taylor, Donald Campbell, Bob McKenzie, David Grant. middle - Tam Brunton, John Taylor, Jack Galloway, Curly Adam, Willie Wilson, 'Pop' Ferguson. front - Albert Oswald, Bruce Duthie, Will Reid and Bob Henderson. Grant went on to be a Junior International. Oswald is the father of the present secretary and vice-chairman.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOUT

ST ANDREWS United have signed Sinclair Marr from Carnoustie Panmure. Since signing last close season from Brechin, Sinky has never really established himself in the Gowfers line-up and will be looking to rebuild his game at Recreation Park.

*****

CAR Boot Sales for the summer season resume at the Canniepairt next Sunday (13th April).

*****

HAD a phone call from El Bunt, self styled president of the Dubai Tayport Supporters Club, the other day. He was at his name dropping best, telling me that Rod Stewart had popped into his local and given the regulars a song or two and that he (Bunt) had been on a four day visit to Cairo where he was advising on a repair to the Sphinx.

*****

ARTHURLIE manager Fergus Ferguson took advantage of the Reebok League's Easter break by paying a visit to The Canniepairt last Saturday to take in our cup-tie against Formartine.

*****

ACCORDING to the Ayrshire press last week, "Scottish Junior football may be on the brink of its biggest ever shake-up". 'SUPERLEAGUE ON THE CARDS' screamed the headline. On reading the article it wasn't quite the sensation that the headline perhaps suggested. Ayrshire clubs, significantly minus Auchinleck, Glenafton and Cumnock, had met to discuss a proposal whereby the top six Ayrshire clubs would amalgamate with the top six Central sides to form a 'Super League'. The suggestion had yet to be put to the Central League.

*****

THE Herald (the Glasgow variety) showed its true colours again on Monday past. It purports to be a 'national' newspaper, hence the dropping of 'Glasgow' from its masthead, yet, despite the fact that there were only a handful of west coast Junior fixtures last week, its Junior column failed to comment or report on any games north of the Forth. It just typifies the west coast bias that is prevalent in the media in all grades of football in this country.

*****

CAN'T knock THE SUN, though. Tayport receive excellent coverage from the knowledgeable Scott Campbell. Full marks too for Scott who seems to be the only journalist who gets the spelling of all Tayport goalscorers' names correct. You'd think that after nearly 300 goals The Courier would know that it's Dave Reilly not Riley.

*****

BY the time you are reading this St Josephs supremo Peter Marr along with brother Jimmy will probably have control of Dundee FC. That's what was intended to be in this column before news broke that the proposed Saturday lunchtime press conference which was to herald the completion of the takeover of Dundee FC by the St Josephs supremo was called off (it might be on again now for all we know) There seems little doubt, however, that it's only a matter of time before it takes place. It appears to be a daunting task which awaits them but it's also a task which they no doubt will relish. We wish them well.

*****

THE Scottish Schools FA have approached Tayport for the use of the Canniepairt on Saturday morning two weeks today for a Scottish Schools Under 13 semi-final match between Old Machar HS and Holy Cross HS.

THE BAIKER'S BIT

St Josephs provide our opposition today for this Whyte & Mackay cup-tie so, on behalf of the management I'd like to take this opportunity to welcome their players and officials to the Canniepairt.

Last week saw us gain one player and lose another. I'm pleased that Jim Henry will be back playing. His self imposed absence did no one any good and I sincerely wish him well at his new club. I'm particularly pleased to see Steve Hutcheon with us now after a long spell of on/off negotiations and I'm more than confident he'll prove to be a great asset to Tayport.

It's no secret that I've been pursuing another type of striker since the beginning of the season to give us more options in the last third of the park. I'm sure that was evident on Saturday past in our 5-0 win victory over Formartine United in the quarter finals of the North End Centenary Cup when the majority of chances we created were converted. It now gives us a semi-final home tie against Sunnybank.

Our visitors this afternoon are at present enjoying a great run, undefeated since their Scottish Cup exit way back in December. It would be great if this afternoon's encounter turns out to be an advert for Tayside Junior football for all the right reasons. We know that we will only have to play to our capabilities to succeed. Do so and I believe we will achieve victory.

Support The Port, Dave Baikie.

Glory for Glory?

Talk of the season in the National Soccer League in Australia is the performance and drawing power of new club Perth Glory. This is the first season that a team from Western Australia has been accepted into the national league and at the beginning of February they were well placed to qualify for the top six play-offs when they lay third in the league. However a disastrous run in the next six matches saw the Glory boys pick up only two points to slump to eighth by early March. More recently a scintillating performance against runaway league leaders Sydney United resulted in a 3 - 1 win on March 15th and a return to the top six.

An average crowd in excess of 11,700 has been attracted to Glory's home matches including an early January attendance of 17,582 for the visit of last year's runners-up Marconi Fairfield. Reportedly a record for a regular season league match. The average attendance for the league is below 6,000 per match.

The performance of Glory is even more amazing when you consider that there is no proper soccer stadium in Perth with the two main stadia, the WACA and Subiaco being dedicated to cricket and Aussie Rules. Undeterred the forward thinking Glory owners hired one of the local Aussie Rules grounds (East Perth) for the season. An Aussie Rules pitch is huge. About 200 yards by 100 yards. However in an effort to create a better atmosphere temporary stands have been erected along one side and at one end of the Aussie Rules pitch to create an oblong soccer pitch. The re-jigged ground supposedly has a capacity of 14,000 (the 17,582 mentioned earlier was not a misprint).

At one end of the revamped ground an old covered enclosure on a grass hill is occupied by mainly British punters and while a great effort has been made to provide pre-match and halftime entertainment 'the boys on the hill' provide continuous entertainment throughout the match with traditional British style singing and chanting. The fact that 'the hill' is one of the areas licensed for alcoholic refreshments does help!

There is a lot of American type razzamatazz at Glory's matches with the crowd being led by a professional singer and a troupe of female dancers prancing about before the match and at halftime. The dancers form a guard of honour as the Glory are welcomed onto the pitch by their anthem blaring out of a multitude of speakers located strategically around the edge of the pitch. The Australian national anthem is sung before every match. Glory goals are welcomed by their anthem again blaring out while the deafening silence which greets goals scored by away teams (invariably the total 'away' contingent - officials, players and fans will number less than 30) is covered by more music. Gaps in the play due to injuries again encourages more music. A little imp-like person with flags dashes around the edge of the pitch throughout the match like a demented demon while a human ball does continuous somersaults around the perimeter of the pitch.

To the soccer purist these distractions are not well received but the large mixed ethnic family crowd speaks for itself. One of the theories put forward for the success of Glory is that they are a mixed ethnic club. This is unusual in Australia with clubs invariably being linked to their ethnic origins, eg. Marconi Fairfield (Italian), Sydney United (Croatian), UTS Olympic (Greek), Melbourne Knights (Croatian). Perth Glory have no such affiliations with a great mix of ethnic origins. There are two Scots in the squad with Alan Mackenzie perhaps being a name known by the Raith Rovers fan.

DOWN UNDER

The longest distance travelled by Scottish League Premier League teams is roughly from Glasgow to Aberdeen. The closest away match for Glory is the short hop to Adelaide. A mere 2,712 kilometres plus a two and a half hour time difference! The trip to Brisbane is 4,357 kilometres plus a two hour time difference while Sydney is 4,217 kilometres plus a three hour time difference.

Similar to Aussie Rules the team which tops the league table after completion of the regular 26 league matches are not the Champions! Instead the top six play-off for the Championship. Not in a simple fashion! The top two play each other with the winner proceeding directly to the Grand Final. The team placed 3rd plays the 6th placed team with the 4th playing the 5th. The winners of the latter two matches play each other to decide which team plays the loser of the top two match in a Preliminary Final. The winner of the Preliminary Final then plays the winner of the first mentioned match in the Grand Final to decide the Championship. CONFUSED ? I AM ! A couple of scenarios are - a team finishing sixth in the league can be Champions. A team finishing first or second can lose their first play-off match but get a second chance to reach the Grand Final and win the title (Melbourne Knights did this last season).

The soccer sceptics in Western Australia expected Perth Glory's entrance to the national scene to be a total disaster. After their first two matches these expectations looked well founded following two defeats. The team however has responded in tremendous fashion to the support they have received from the Western Australia public and a play-off place looks likely. This would be a superb achievement in their first year and who knows what may happen in the play-offs.

As the National League reaches a climax the various State Leagues kick-off throughout Australia. The teams in these leagues appear on the British pools during the summer. Hopefully Glory have raised the profile of the game in Western Australia and crowds will increase for the local clubs.

Last season's Premier winners, Inglewood, are well placed to repeat their success while Stirling Macedonia, despite management and playing personnel disruptions, remain strong. Both have progressed to the semi-final of the pre-season Night Series. Other teams to look out for are Floreat Athena and Western Knights both of whom have added to stable squads from last season and have also reached the semis of the Night Series. My favourites for the title are Western Knights, although I admit a bias as young Portile (or should it be Portilic in view of the Knights Croatian origins) will be pulling on one of their jerseys again this season.

The State League in Western Australia has been restructured reducing to two leagues from three. The Premier League has been increased from ten to fourteen teams. This will undoubtedly lead to a fall in standards and teams such as Morley Windmills, Olympic Kingsway, Dianella White Eagles and Joondalup City (including Ted McMinn) will likely be on the wrong end of some high scores although all performed reasonably well in the Night Series.

The others, Swan, Bayswater City, Sorrento, Spearwood, Dalmatinac, Fremantle City and Perth SC will probably battle it out for the mid table spots.

Hopefully this advice will help you win these elusive millions this summer. When you do please contact Abby Oswald and he will let you know where my commission should be sent!

THE CANNIEPAIRT

FRIDAY

SATURDAY

SUNDAY

AS ONE PLAYER ARRIVES ANOTHER LEAVES LATE DEALS BEAT THE TRANSFER DEADLINE

STEVE HUTCHEON was signed from East Fife just in time to make his debut last Saturday against Formartine here on the Canniepairt. Steve may have only played the last 25 minutes or so but it was enough to impress the fans, the reception which greeted his goal testified to that.

We had been tracking Steve for some weeks but negotiations with the Bayview club dragged on. Steve has been in and out of the Fifers first division line-up this season under Jimmy Bone and it can't have been much fun playing a striking role for a team which has largely been cannon fodder for the rest of the division.

It was altogether a different story last season when Steve played alongside player/manager Steve Archibald as East Fife won promotion to Division One. Steve turned out in 30 of East Fife's games last season scoring five times. Two of those goals were in a win over Montrose whose line-up that day included new teammate Allan Kennedy.

The player moving out was JIM HENRY whose transfer to Arbroath SC was completed on Monday night just in time to meet the midnight deadline. Jim's stay at the Canniepairt lasted just over 15 months following his move from Lochee United.

Jim started 25 games, came on as substitute on 12 further occasions and scored three goals. Although Jim didn't set the heather on fire in his spell at the Canniepairt, he played his part in the club's Scottish Cup win. He played splendidly on his debut in a potentially tricky replay at Baillieston and was credited with an assist in a goal in both the semi-final and final.

Jim had recently been training with East Fife but when the Bayview club failed to make an offer, Dave Martin, his former manager at Lochee United, after chasing him since the turn of the year finally got his man. We wish Jim all the best at Seaton Park (except when we play them in the DJ Laing Homes Cup later this season of course!)

NINE TAYPORT 'OLD BOYS' AT FAIRFIELD

If you spot a few familiar faces in the St Josephs party at the Canniepairt this afternoon it's not surprising. Nine of those who have some involvement with St Josephs this season have given Tayport FC service in one capacity or another over the years. The nine are Peter Marr, Andy Sommerville, Jimmy Hunter, Gus Malone, Jackie Devine, Kenny Cameron jnr., Dave Tosney, Ronnie Robb and their 'fitness coach' Dave Booker.

The moment that tarnished the OVD Cup-tie between Fauldhouse and Beith. A Beith player lies on the ground and spectators look on in disbelief as a supporter does a runner. Fauldhouse were later made to post a £200 good behaviour bond. Linlithgow Sheriff Court dropped the charge against the person alleged to have assaulted a Beith player. (photo-Edin.Even.News)

ROB ROYMUGGED!

A registration error, over the playing of ex-Beith centre-half, Chris Dickson, at Baillieston on March 8th - Rob Roy won 1-4 - has cost the Kirkintilloch side a valuable three points in their fight to stay in the Reebok Premier division. Central Region officials made the deduction and censured the club last week. But, secretary, F.Scott Robertson, made it clear that they were not of a mind to give the points to Baillieston - themselves in the thick of the relegation battle. Both clubs may appeal to SJFA.

HONOURS EVEN

The big OVD preview between Pollok and Blantyre Vics ended in a no-score draw, as Jim Sinnet's men practised their semi-final tactics with some degree of success, as, not unexpectedly, Pollok had more of the play and chances. They have probably added a few hundred to the gate on Saturday, April 26th, though.

In Div 1, Lesmahagow were held by Cumbernauld. And in Div 2, Johnstone Burgh gave their fans a promotion boost, thumping rivals Bellshill Ath.

POLLOK and BLANTYRE turn their attention to the West of Scotland Cup this weekend with quarter-finals places waiting for the winners - of Pollok v Lanark at either Arthurlie or Vale of Clyde - and Blantyre v Glencairn away to Irvine Meadow (page 10).

Meanwhile, points are getting more vital for clubs involved in promotion and relegation in all three divisions. OVD Cup semi-finalists, Arthurlie, host Benburb needing to win every remaining game to catch the Premier leaders, Maryhill. And if Cambuslang want promotion they must start by beating rivals, Neilston, at Somervell.

PRESS REPORT

Despite enforced personnel changes, Tayport never looked in any danger of not progressing in this Taycars Trophy tie and indeed the margin of victory could well have been greater"

THE WHYTE & MACKAY CUP

The CURRIE CUP, now known as the Whyte & Mackay Cup in recognition of its sponsorship by the whisky firm since 1991, is one of the Association's oldest (1912) and most impressive pieces of silverware.

On joining the Junior ranks, Tayport had something of a monopoly of the competition, winning it in four successive seasons. Losing out in a penalty shoot-out denied us a fifth cup final success and it was the same story last season when we again went out on penalties, this time at the semi-final stage.
