REUNION DINNER A GREAT SUCCESS

Tayport FC's Golden Jubilee Dinner held recently was, by all accounts, a big success with a full house in the Gregory Hall enjoying an evening of nostalgia.

Current secretary Albert Oswald welcomed the guests from five decades of football and introduced the main speaker for the evening, Alan Rough. Supporting Alan were Jackie Knight and former player from the sixties, ex-local publican and bookie, Jim Rodger.

Amongst those attending were several who had travelled from foreign shores - USA, United Arab Emirates, Hong Kong, Portugal - for the occasion as well as a number from various outposts in the United Kingdom, Worcester, Derby, Stockport and Portree to name but three.

For the record the full attendance list is as follows -

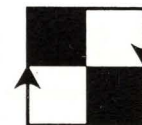

David Adam	Jim Grant (SJFA)	Ian Pattie
Lawrence Adam	Bob Gunn (SFAR)	Ian 'Pepsi' Paterson
Bert Aitken	Kenny Gorham	Ian Paterson
John Aitken	Alan Hart	Alan Paterson

Steven Graham	Ron Nicoll	Raymond White
Alan Gray	Albert Oswald	Doug Whammond
Colin Gray	Alastair Oswald	Donald Wallace
	Norman Pattie	David Wilkie

Richard Tough represented the club's sponsors, Messrs. Scott & Fyfe. Bob Gunn and Jim McBurney represented the Referees' Association. Alastair Martin, secretary Midlands AFA, and Jock Myles, secretary Tayside JFA, represented their respective associations.

We had the unique distinction of having as our guests, both the President of the Scottish Amateur FA, Bob Lamberton, and the President of the Scottish Junior FA, Jim Grant.

As a memento of the occasion each of those attending received a miniature of whisky, specially commissioned for the occasion. There is a limited number of these special miniatures available from club treasurer Ross MacMillan, priced £3.

The committee would like to take the opportunity of thanking the catering staff, the bar staff, the waitresses and the hallkeeper for their sterling efforts in helping to make the evening a success. Thanks also to Shirley Forsyth of Scott & Fyfe and Ewan McGill of Tayport Printers.

TODAY'S GAME

We welcome Arbroath SC to The Canniepairt this afternoon (not Canniespairt as Dick Donnelly insists on calling it in the Radio Tay adverts and Sports Desk!) for this semi-final tie in the Taycars Trophy.

The Taycars is fast becoming established as one of the jewels in the Tayside JFA and Fife JFA crowns. The sponsors take a keen interest in the Junior game and are, quite using the opportunity of this sponsorship deal to promote their car sales business. There were vouchers for service savings at Taycars issued to those attending both semi-finals today and at the Final there will be vouchers for cash back on car sales at Taycars.

The other semi-final goes ahead simultaneously at North End Park where St Josephs play the Dokens. Ideally, of course, there would have been two Fife and two Tayside clubs contesting this stage of the competition but it wasn't to be. There will, however, be two Fife based members of the Taycars Executive Committee here today as observers, Bobby Weldon (Oakley United) and Norrie Clark (Glenrothes).

Arbroath SC have put together a great run recently and, but for a dreadful mid-season sag, would probably have been contesting the title. The recent good run has coincided with the signing of Jim Henry from ourselves. Jim's ability was never in doubt but he couldn't accept not being guaranteed a jersey every week and asked for a move. Arbroath SC boss Dave Martin, Jim's mentor whilst both were at Lochee United, was a front runner when it came to prospective moves but the clubs couldn't agree terms until literally the eleventh hour before the transfer deadline on 31 March.

Jim has been amongst the goals at Seaton Park, notching more in his short spell there than he did in his fifteen months and 37 games at The Canniepairt. Jim will be a key player for SC today, obviously anxious to do well against his former club.

Martin's assistant, Derek Carr, was at Downfield on Wednesday, missing his side's game with Kinnoull to run the rule over Tayport, a measure of how important this tie is to the club.

There is no shortage of experience in the SC pool today. Most of the players are well known to Junior fans. Big Bob Duncan is an imposing figure between the sticks, Scott Peters and Jeff Strachan are classy performers and Bobby Skelligan and Ian Greig are never short of energy. Indeed had a deal with Arbroath for Jim Henry gone through earlier, Greig might have been in a Tayport jersey today.

Arbroath had a good win in midweek over Kinnoull when Harry Cargill, with his first goal of the season, Jimmy Brown and a Steve Craib penalty counted for the winners.

Tayport reshuffled their front line on Wednesday against a Downfield but still secured a comfortable win. Allan Ramsay, injured against Sunnysbank, wasn't fit enough to play but should be in contention today. Arbroath SC will provide much tougher opposition today and,

SINCE THE SEMI-FINALS

Today is the last action for both ourselves and Pollok before next Sunday's final. Since the semi-final we have played two games, winning both by a 2-0 scoreline, the league match against Downfield and the North End Cup semi v Sunnybank.

Pollok, by contrast, have had four fixtures. In the league they have beaten Vale of Leven 4-0 and drawn 2-2 with Larkhall Thistle. They play champions elect Maryhill this afternoon.

In cup-ties, semi-final opponents Blantyre Vics were beaten again, this time by 2-1 in the CPS Cup and on Monday of this week Arthurlie put the skids under the 'Lok with a 5-2 win in the West of Scotland Cup quarter final tie at Barrhead.

THE BAIKER'S BIT

Good afternoon. A warm welcome to the Port Support and to the players and officials of our Taycars semi-final opponents Arbroath SC.

It's been a fair time since our last issue of the Port Prog. It's also fair to say that we've had quite a successful time. The defeat of Kelty Hearts in the last stage of this competition was the last time that I penned this column. I thought on the day that we just about deserved our 1-0 victory in what was always going to be a very difficult encounter against arguably the best side in the Fife Association.

We followed that with three 1-0 wins over Violet, Carnoustie and Bankfoot, gaining nine league points into the bargain. Four victories by narrow scorelines and it goes without saying the problem we've had in turning the supremacy which we've had in games into more convincing wins. The important factor from my point of view is that finding a cure to our problems is a whole lot easier starting from a position of strength because it has not really affected the outcome of games.

Our last three games have shown a slight improvement with victories over Arthurlie at Fir Park, Motherwell to reach the final of the Scottish Junior Cup, then the 2-0 victory over the North Region champions elect, Aberdeen Sunnybank at Canniepairt to reach the final of the Centenary Cup. And lastly, on Wednesday past, our rather uninspiring 2-0 win at Downfield in the League.

So, seven wins with the loss of one goal. Four league victories with twelve league points and pressure on our main rivals for the title. The prospect of a Scottish Cup final and a Centenary Cup final to look forward to. All in all, it hasn't been a bad four or five weeks.

This afternoon our players have an opportunity to reach the final of the Taycars Trophy. In front of us is a team from the Tayside Region and at this moment in time I've never felt up so much for a game in my life. I know my players feel the same as myself. They know exactly my thoughts as to the outcome and the satisfaction a victory this afternoon will bring us.

Support the Port, Dave Baikie.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

OVD Cup hero Stevie Ross' goal drought which had lasted since December finally came to an end on Wednesday when he was on the spot to score the first goal at Downfield.

THERE is speculation that the final of the Taycars Trophy could be staged at Dens Park although the final date of 7th June could be a problem. Dundee may be unable to delay its close season maintenance programme.

DAVIE Robertson take a salute! Who's Davie Robertson? Davie is centre half, captain, manager, chief executive etc. of Balmullo Thistle who play in the East Fife Amateur League - and has been for the best part of quarter of a century. A real Roy of the Rovers character. You know the sort - crashing in a wonder goal at one end then seconds later bravely heading off the line at the other end all whilst sporting a blood stained bandage from an earlier collision yet defying the trainer's plea to come off! On top of that Davie's never missed a match. Yet, in all those years Balmullo have very little to show for their efforts. However the team's recent Wilson Cup Final win over St Andrews University changed that. Congratulations, Davie.

FORMER Tayport player Jackie Devine and ex-coach Ronnie Robb were amongst a number of former club members spotted at the Arthurlie semi-final. Robbo, contrary to what was said in a recent programme, is not on the staff of St Josephs. Work commitments prevent him devoting a lot of time to the game now, but he does a bit of freelance scouting and spying when time permits.

SPECTATORS will have noticed the increased admission charges for adults at today's game. It is a situation outwith our control. The charge was set by the Taycars organising committee. What is a little surprising is the fact that, although the charge has gone up by one third, the senior citizens and weans charge has remained the same. On the subject of admission charges, there were a few moans at the gate from Downfield regulars on Wednesday when the admission was up from £1.50 to £2.

WHO says football doesn't put a place on the map? Tayport received a first ever mention in the Sunday Times last week. We just got a bit part, however. The Diary article was about our OVD Final opponents Pollok and the fact that, following their semi-final win, Michelle Evans Junior correspondent of the Evening Times, was hauled into the dressing room and drenched with champagne. Champagne for the semi? Probably just as well it was used then. No point in wasting it!

JACK McCARTNEY, former boss of Shettleston, and kenspeckle figure in the Junior game in the west has taken over the hot seat at troubled Irvine Meadow. Recapturing past glories has proved elusive for the new town side and Jack is the latest to be charged with the task. It means he has had to stand down as manager of the Central League's Under 23 side which meets the East Region on Sunday. Winners meet Tayside in the final.

FROM THE ARCHIVES

TWENTY YEARS AGO

1977

Back in Spring 1977 Tayport Amateurs were having a successful season, eventually finishing in third spot in a 16 team Midlands Division One (no Premier Divisions in those days).

It was the season in which Tayport lost an early season midweek league game at Windmill Park, Newport by 2-0 but successfully protested over a teamline irregularity and were eventually awarded the points. The circumstances caused a bit of ill-feeling at the time, particularly when this time of the season came along and our local rivals were rapidly spiralling towards Division Two.

The two teams finishing above Tayport were Auchterhouse and SMT. Auchterhouse were a power in the land at that time and were our opponents in a Bremner Cup tie up in the Sidlaws this corresponding weekend twenty years ago.

After being level 2-2 at half-time through a double from Ian Howe, Tayport eventually went down 4-2. The team was - Richard Callander; Bruce Ritchie, Ian Mathers, Bobby McMahon, Frank Feechan; Keith Ritchie, Ronnie Fleming, Gordon Gray; Doug Henderson, Ian Howe, Gordon Hughes. Subs. were Franky Dewar and Peter Spink. Not many locals in that line-up. Mathers, incidentally, is still pulling on a jersey, having been in the Amateurs line-up twice in the last couple of weeks.

Down on the East Common that same afternoon back in 1977, the Reserves were going down by 0-2 to Carnoustie in an Alliance League match. The team was - Derek White; Angus Robb, George Taylor, Alan Craig, Abby Oswald; George Ritchie, Stuart Davie, Stewart Ritchie; Bruce Burnett, Matthew Lawson, Andy Dewar; Subs. were Brian Boardman & Derek Nicoll.

It was a good end to the '77 season for the Alliance XI. Within 4 weeks the team had upset the odds to win the Alliance Cup, 4-3 in a thrilling final against Grove. Only two weeks previously Grove had beaten Tayport by 5-0 in a league match.

On the Club Committee in 1977 were Davie Hughes (chairman), Albert Oswald (vice-chairman), Abby Oswald (secretary), Matt Lawson (treasurer), Eddie Stewart, Andy Robertson, Freddie Bremner, Alastair Oswald, Ernie Simpson, Iain Cougan, Ian Rae, Robert Watson, Ian Mathers and Davie Henderson.

Amongst the matters discussed were the laying out of the Canniepairt pitch with the payment of £950 to Messrs Paterson Bros for works carried out, being authorised. Mr Finlay, the local farmer was to be engaged to rotavate the ground. Eric Beat was appointed to the committee vacancy caused by the resignation of Ernie Simpson.

The question of building a Social Club in Henderson Street in conjunction with Donaldsons and Lorimers Brewery was looking like becoming a very real possibility.

Arrangements were being made for various fundraising functions - a Coffee Morning and a dance to 'The Shipmates' in the Gregory Hall. There was a perceived problem here. The pubs were now allowed to open later but the suggestion was made that the dance should finish even later to take this into account.

Problems with getting a lease from the District Council were discussed, with the draft being described as 'being very one-sided in favour of the Council'. Comment was made that we shouldn't give an inch from what was agreed with the former Town Council. Twenty years on and nothing much has changed!

TAYSIDE REVIEW

The outcome of the Tayside League Championship is fairly straightforward. Because of their vastly superior goal difference, if St Josephs beat Kinnoull in midweek, then the title is their's. Two points dropped by St Josephs and Tayport win their last four games then the title stays at The Canniepairt.

Not so clearcut at the other end of the table. Forfar Albion and Bankfoot Athletic will be playing second division football next season but who will join them? Either Lochee United or Scone Thistle is the answer. Scone have matters in their own hands. Indeed had they not blown it in midweek when they went down to relegated Forfar Albion, they could have been only goal difference away from safety.

But the crunch game is undoubtedly the game at Thomson Park between Lochee United and Scone. With the backing of their commercial organisation and the Grier Brothers at the helm it's difficult to imagine United going down. However they lost an equally crunch fixture in midweek at Jeanfield so it's not impossible.

Scone have games in hand over Lochee United to collect the points that they need but these two home games could hardly be tougher - Tayport and North End. If it comes to goal difference, Lochee United have an unassailable advantage.

Moving up to play division one football next season are Kirrie Thistle, Forfar West End and Elmwood (Oh good, I can hear the fans say, two social clubs out of three!)

The Dundee North End Centenary Cup Final between ourselves and St Josephs takes place on May 31st at North End Park.

In the Whyte & Mackay Cup (previously Currie Cup) the semi-finals are Downfield v St Josephs & Scone Thistle or Violet v Arbroath SC.

In the D.J.Laing Homes Cup North End are in the semi-final awaiting the following quarter-final ties -
Carnoustie v Lochee United; Harp v St Josephs
Kirrie Thistle v Arbroath SC or Tayport

In the Intersport Shield, Kirrie Thistle are in the final and await the winners of the Montrose v Coupar Angus semi-final which is being played today.

When we see other Junior Associations floundering about at this stage of the season with three games a week for weeks and one club, would you believe, a week into May with more than half its league programme to go, the Tayside Association can take a pat on the back for the way in which the fixtures are planned out. All credit here to the clubs for agreeing to play off local cup-ties in one game and to Big Jock for his fixtures organisation although, given more flexibility in the winter months, Jock would probably be able to improve things further.

PRESS REPORT

"Tayport striker Steve Hutcheon will line up against Arthurlie in tonight's Scottish Junior Cup semi-final at Fir Park hoping the presence of the TV cameras can once again turn him into a video star"

- THE COURIER (30.04.97) reporting on the last time that Steve appeared on TV (for East Fife) he hit a hat-trick.

"First class postie Steve Hutcheon delivered Tayport their third Scottish Junior Cup Final appearance in four years with a superb double at Fir Park, Motherwell last night. The former East Fife striker - making his debut in the competition - struck twice in the space of 25 first half minutes to send the Port support into raptures"

- The Courier (01.05.97) Tayport 2 Arthurlie 1.

"Two first half counter thrusts from 'Port resulted in great goals from Steve Hutcheon and it looked as though it might be a repeat of the Saturday semi-final. But, to their credit, 'Lie came out battling and they were rewarded with a Steve Convery goal after a series of close things around the 'Port goal. But it was too late. If they had put the same effort into the first half, it might have all ended differently."

- SCOTTISH PYRAMID NEWS (03/05/97) REPORTING ON TAYPORT 2 ARTHURLIE 1.

"Arthurlie's dream of making it to the OVD Scottish Cup Final came to a sad end at Fir Park. The Barrhead side put up a brave fight but couldn't overcome the sheer strength of holders Tayport, who ran out 2-1 winners..... Some will say Arthurlie bottled it, others perhaps they didn't play well enough in the first half to merit a win. But plain and simply, their cup luck just ran out. In the past month they've staged a string of amazing comebacks, most notably against Cumnock in the quarter finals. Last night they desperately needed another, but 2-0 down to the holders after 40 minutes proved too much for them"

- MICHELLE EVANS REPORTING IN THE EVENING TIMES (01.05.97)

"Local lad Steve Hutcheon, signed from East Fife just before last month's transfer deadline, grabbed the headlines in his first ever Junior Cup-tie with a superb double in the first half of a match which cliché enthusiasts would gladly embrace as a 'game of two halves'"

- FIFE HERALD (02.05.97) REPORTING THE OVD SEMI-FINAL.

"Tayport face Arbroath SC who will include 'Port old boy Jimmy Henry in their side. The Arbroath men have been in free scoring form lately and Henry has been amongst the goals."
