THIS AFTERNOON'S VISITORS

In October 1989 if anyone had ventured the thought that, in seven years time, the Canniepairt would be the stage for the home team kicking off a defence of the Scottish Junior Cup, they'd have been carted off or else would certainly have been subjected to ridicule. And who could think otherwise?

By then, however, the seed of a Junior side at Tayport had been sown and later that season the committee's pre-launch brochure had stated their intention "to create a Junior team of some standing, a team of which the community can be proud"

Well, here we are, just over six years down the line and, by an amazing coincidence, we begin the defence of our title versus the team against which we made our Junior baptism - Forfar Albion. The intervening period has seen Tayport achieve unprecedented success whilst Albion have led a more mundane existence with as many downs as ups. Threatening to deliver at times but failing to achieve consistency. This season - to date - they are experiencing something of a down.

A struggling start to the season saw the Albion committee axe their team manager. It was a piece of drastic surgery and the wound is perhaps taking a bit longer to heal than they had anticipated. The committee's action didn't please everybody with several players deciding to leave.

Into the hot seat comes Ian Cochrane assisted by Billy McGann. By a strange twist of fate Cochrane was also manager of Albion that August evening back in 1990.

The new management duo have been left with a sizeable injury list and the task of making new signings at a notoriously difficult stage of the season.

Problems or not, the Guthrie Park lads will be well psyched up for today's encounter. They've nothing to lose and everything to gain. And, of course, as the press never tire of reminding us, were the only side to defeat us in an otherwise unbeaten 46 game run during last season.

Scorer of the goal in that 0-1 defeat, Neil Scott, is one of only two Albion players from that 1990 meeting still with Albion, the other being Ian Ferguson.

Albion aren't alone in having injury problems. Not one of the three substitutes we listed last week was fit and physio Andy Bell has been working overtime to try and improve the situation. Maher and Cameron are still unavailable and it's no secret that manager Dave Baikie is keen to add to his pool.

When it comes to the Scottish Cup, league positions, track records and the like go by the board as the players seek the buzz that comes with victory. It's a great feeling. We'll hopefully see an entertaining match this afternoon with the Tayport players again experiencing that winning feeling which they have become so used to since these two clubs first met.

MILESTONES IN SIGHT

According to a club statistician, we are on the threshold of a couple of significant milestones. Two goals this afternoon would give us a century of Scottish Junior Cup goals. And, our next two goals in league fixtures bring our league goals total to 500. At present we're on 498 league goals having conceded exactly 100. Incredibly, Dave Reilly has, to date, scored 247 of those league and cup goals so he's also set to reach a significant milestone.

THE BAIKER'S BIT

Forfar Albion provide our opposition for this afternoon's Scottish Cup first round tie so, on behalf of the management, I'd like to welcome their players and officials and of course our fans to the Canniepairt.

Last week saw us gain three home league points at the expense of Arbroath SC. Make no mistake about it I'm delighted with the victory. You may recall our previous two league encounters with them. On both occasions we found ourselves having to claw our way back from being two goals down. At home for a 2-2 draw and away for a 4-2 victory. But after their man received his marching orders we once again found ourselves having to break down an opposition content to sit on their 18 yard line. Fortunately for us their goalkeeper, their man of the match in my opinion, failed to connect with a cross allowing Dave Reilly to head home. And I'm sure if we had scored a second, we'd have gone on to win handsomely. But that wasn't to be.

I said to our players at half time that the ball was on the other foot. Last week at Carnoustie we used Panmure's frustration to our benefit. It was important that we didn't get ourselves into that position. I know it can very very difficult. I can hear a number of our fans getting rather restless if things don't come off. But you've got to remember it can be very difficult to break down teams that tuck in to defend. We must be patient and I said to our players at half-time, a 1-0 win today would do me. Mind you, I think I'll change that last statement in future. 2-0 would do.

Once again one of the busiest men at this club is physio Andy Bell. We've not had our injury problems to seek. Even Saturday past our three substitutes, Jim Henry, Mark Spalding and Billy Coventry were all carrying injuries. But we've had these problems in the past and got through them. I'm confident we'll get through this one as well.

Once again it's Scottish Cup time. Of course memories of last season will come flooding back I'm sure in your minds and in the minds of the players when we take the field against Forfar Albion. But today is the start of a new campaign. We have opposition from our own division who know us inside out as we know them. The most important thing for me is how Tayport Football Club approach this game. We must be professional in our attitude. If we are then I'm confident we'll be in the hat for the next round of this trophy.

Support The Port, Dave Baikie.

FORFAR ALBION and the SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP

Since the club was formed in 1974 from an amalgamation of Forfar East End and Forfar Celtic, Albion haven't exactly had a love affair with the Scottish Junior Cup.

Prior to season 1990/91 the Guthrie Park club won 8 and lost 16 of their 24 ties. In the 1990's the club has fallen each season at their first hurdle.

DOWNFIELD SOCIAL CLUB LEAGUE CUP

1996/97

This years Downfield Social Club League Cup, a trophy which is contested by Tayside Region second division sides, has been progressing over the weeks since the start of the 96/97 season and is now in its final stages with the draw for the Semis having taken place on Tuesday past producing the following ties:

Arbroath Vics or Forfar West End versus Coupar Angus.

Broughty Athletic versus Kirrie Thistle. Dates to be announced.

The remaining teams have reached this stage after some closely fought Section games.

In Section 1 Broughty and Montrose were left to contest the outcome alone after Balbeggie disbanded. Broughty came out on top after a convincing 5-0 home win over Roselea, meant a 0-0 draw was not enough for Montrose to finish top.

SECTION 1	P	W	D	L	F	A	Pts	G/D

MONTROSE	2	0	1	1	0	5	1	-5

RESULTS

MONTROSE	0	0 BROUGHTY

In Section 2 Coupar Angus came out on top even after being turned over at home by Blairgowrie 1-2. Blair's home record let them down a 2-2 draw with Elmwood and a 1-2 defeat from Coupar Angus.

SECTION 2	P	W	D	L	F	A	Pts	G/D

'Section 3' has turned out the most interesting. With one match still outstanding between Forfar West End and Arbroath Vics. A win for either side could clinch the section though 'Vics' need only draw to come out on top. Incidentally, the reason for the match being abandoned was an injury, not to a player but to the referee, who twisted his ankle and no replacement official was available. The rearranged fixture is pencilled in for Saturday the 19th of October, providing 'Vics' don't have to replay in the 'Scottish'.

In 'Section 4' convincing home wins over both Brechin Vics and Luncarty, saw Kirrie Thistle going through due to Brechin Vics and Luncarty losing at home to each other by a 0-1 margin. The situation meant that the game which was cancelled on the 24th of August between Luncarty and Kirrie due to a thunder storm had no bearing on the outcome of the section and was declared void.

SMIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOUT

THE draw for the second round of the OVD Scottish Junior Cup will take place a week tomorrow in Longside FC's Social Club (Peterhead)

CONGRATULATIONS to goalkeeper Malcolm Coull for passing his driving test. The Gauldry based youngster trains every week with the Tayport Juniors.

FACED with the threat of being thumped by Grant Miller's wife Isobel, we have changed the photo of Grant in the programme's Player Sponsor feature. This season's pic apparently wasn't too flattering so last season's pic has been rescued from the bin to replace it.

STEVEN Stewart's indiscretion at Carnoustie when he was, rather harshly it must be said, ordered off after only three minutes has cost him a three match ban.

ALBION boss Ian Cochrane's first encounter with a Tayport team was as manager of the short lived Hydro Dynamo Junior FC when the clubs both participated in an international tournament in Belgium some twenty years ago.

ONE of the mobile grandstands which are stored at the Canniepairt has found a home for the winter. A deal has been struck between the Perthshire Advertiser and Perthshire Rugby Club to hire the stand for all their home games this season.

A late addition to to the Albion pool could be the ex-Tayport Amateur and Forfar Athletic defender Phil Smith. Phil's managerial stint at Dundee Violet ended the other week following a disastrous start to the season. Phil has since turned out for Albion but it remains to be seen whether or not he will put pen to paper and sign for today's match.

THE question was posed recently. Are there any three Junior grounds in as close proximity to each other as Glenesk Park, Beechwood Park and Thomson Park?

CLUB sponsor and local publican Andy Phin had the unusual distinction the other week of getting a parking ticket from a warden - in Tayport!

THE first of the Reebok Central League silverware this season has been won by Pollok who defeated Shettleston by 4-2 in the Abercorn Cup Final (League Cup). It would appear to have been an ill tempered affair with Shettleston ending up with eight men - all dismissed for fouling Pollok's Robert Anderson. Anderson was the reason that Arthurlie pulled out of the Pollok Sevens in the huff following the player moving from the 'Lie to Pollok. A tribunal is to set the fee.

THE Ayrshire Juniors' League Cup (The Jackie Scarlett Cup) was won by Cumnock who defeated Kilwinning by 1-0 in the final. Cumnock were reduced to ten men by the time they had snatched the vital goal just after half-time.

FROM THE ARCHIVES

OCTOBER 1989

This was the last season before the club took the major step of 'going Junior'. The club was running three amateur sides playing in the Midlands AFA, the Midlands Alliance and the East Fife AFA.

The Midlands team was enjoying a 20th successive season in the top division and had made a reasonable start to the season, with six points from six games. That afternoon, however things didn't go to plan and the team lost what was to be their only defeat in a run of ten games. Playing on the Canniepairt against a Lawside FP team which included the Reilly brothers, the home team went down 3-5.

The line up was: Paul Hunt; Steve Rollo, Mickey McPherson, Neil Downie, Gordon McRae, Gerry McCluskey, Jimmy Anderson, Eddie McIntyre, Lawrie Hill, Bruce Burnett and Chris Hay. Grant McLean and Neil Clark were the substitutes. Goalscorers were Burnett, McCluskey and Hill.

The Fife XI (or 2nd XI) that afternoon was winning an East Fife Division Two match by 9-2 against Leven Rovers at King George V Park, Leven. The line-up was Steve McGregor, Neil Munro, Gibby Valentine, Alan Hart, Bryan Fitchet, Roddy Davie, John Petrie, Ian Ness, John Fernie, Gerry McCabe and Andy Heggie. Sub was Ewan Willison. Fernie(5), Heggie(2) Munro and Petrie were the scorers. Of that team only Heggie (now Deveronvale) and Willison (now St Andrews United) went on to better themselves.

It was goals all the way that afternoon for Tayport's teams. The Alliance or Strollers XI was at Monymusk (set to be St Joseph's new stadium ?!) for a Midlands Alliance Division Two game against Birkdale and they returned with an 11 - 0 victory - their first win of the season. Line-up was Ian Lyall; Fergus Mann, Mike Smith, Dougie Hill, Dunc McKellar, Lyall Clark, Stuart Davie, Roger Welsh, Alan McDade, Roddy McCafferty and Glen Pearson. McCafferty was assassin in chief with 4 goals, McDade had 3 and there were singles for Davie, Pearson and Welsh. The match comment was " firing on all cylinders against a clueless Birkdale side". The Mann at right back is Juniors' keeper Fraser Mann's older brother. Despite his goalscoring feat McCafferty was to retire the following week!

A photograph of a game on the Canniepairt in season 1989/90. Recognise the No.3 ? The legs are a giveaway. It's Grant Paterson in action for Riverside Ath. v Tayport.

COMMENT

Whilst lauding the efforts of The Courier to get in step with the nationals and provide a comprehensive sports results service on a Monday, the question must be asked - why do the Tayside and Fife Junior results not feature?

OK, the Tayside results are included in the Junior notes and the Fife results accompany their notes. Unfortunately the Tayside notes appear only in the Dundee edition of the paper and the Fife notes only in the Fife edition.

The results feature within the notes anyway so would it not be an idea to drop the results at the foot of the notes and include them in Scoreboard? That way Dundee can keep track of what's happened in Fife and vice versa. That's surely as relevant as the East Junior results which were listed in Monday's Scoreboard.

RECOGNITION FOR TAYPORT PLAYERS

PRESS REPORT

"Tayport showed the stuff of which champions are made when they overcame what many expected to be a stiff hurdle at Westfield Park. To beat Carnoustie 4-0 on their home patch is a good result at any time, but to do so with ten men for most of the game is even more remarkable. Things looked bleak for the Scottish Cup holders when they had Steve Stewart sent off after only five minutes but it had the effect of inspiring the Fifers and, by the end, the Gowfers were run ragged and could have few complaints."

- Junicus in the Evening Telegraph (2/10/96)

"Carnoustie Panmure's reign at the top of the NCR League first division was short lived owing to a superb performance from a Tayport side displaying the form which took them to a league and cup double last season"

- Fife Herald (4/10/96)

"Tayport cruised to victory in the Tennent sponsored seven-a-side tournament at Pollok last Sunday....Any hopes Carnoustie had of revenge were dashed as Tayport netted in each half of the final to complete a unique hat-trick of wins over the Angus club in only 24 hours!"

- Fife Herald (4/10/96) reporting the Pollok Sevens.

"SC couldn't have chosen a tougher task than an away game against Tayport. Port turned on the style to knock Carnoustie off the top spot in the league on Saturday and it was further glory the following day when they won the prestigious Tennent Sevens at Pollok"

- The Courier (5/10/96)

"Panmure were top of Division One before this game but must have felt like a side near the foot after 90 minutes of top class soccer from the Scottish Cup holders. Tayside Region secretary Jock Myles called it 'vintage stuff'"

- Scottish Pyramid News (5/10/96)

"Tayport won the Pollok Sevens last Sunday, with Carnoustie in 2nd and North End in 3rd - a big slap in the face for other Regions."

- Scottish Pyramid News (5/10/96)

"Kinnoull continued their winning sequence with a 3-1 home victory over Forfar Albion, although bottom of the table Albion made them fight all the way and were a lot more aggressive after Kinnoull had been reduced to ten men"

- Perthshire Advertiser (8/10/96)

"St Josephs edged ahead of Tayport on goal difference in the first division thanks to an 8-0 win over Jeanfield while the current champions beat Arbroath SC thanks to a Dave Reilly header. While the Joeys attempt to take three points from Lochee United, Tayport have an equally important date on the Canniepairt as they begin their defence of the Scottish Cup."

- Junicus in the Evening Telegraph (9/10/96)
