TODAY'S GAME

Well, this is billed as the Tayside game of the day. It must be, because The Sporting Post have seen fit to send their No.1 Junior reporter to the game at the expense of the local scribe who dutifully reports the games on the Canniepairt week in, week out.

It's the top match of the afternoon because the respective sides are neck and neck at the top of the table. We are trying hard to win back the league title that was won last season by our opponents this afternoon, after five successive 'Port successes as the flag billowing above the pavilion testifies.

Goals were in short supply when the teams met on league business last season. Indeed they were non-existent, both games ending in goalless draws. The games v Tayport were the only occasions on which St Josephs failed to score in the league last season and the Canniepairt encounter was Tayport's only home blank.

The respective defences haven't been so tight this season but Saints still have the league's best defensive record with only eight goals lost in the same number of games. Not surprising considering the experience of the individuals that make up their defence and the fact that the rearguard is largely unchanged from last season.

Goals haven't been so plentiful, however, and, in the league, the Tayport attack is currently the more prolific of the two, with Stevie Ross & Hutcheon, Dave Reilly and Barry Gardiner finding the mark regularly.

A new management team of George Shields and ex-Violet duo Phil Smith and George Sinclair has picked up the reins dropped by Andy Sommerville and Dave Tosney and they will be anxious to prove their worth today.

A drawn match today would suit the other realistic title challengers, North End and Carnoustie. North End are at home to East Craigie while Carnoustie have home advantage v Downfield.

Man in the middle today is Mike McGregor and one of his assistants is his old man, Bill. His other assistant is Jeff Banks from Perth. Jeff is just getting back into action following an eye injury received whilst officiating at a St Johnstone game earlier this season.

OVD SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP REVIEW

Last season's last eight still retain an interest in this season's competition after last Saturday's 2nd round ties. Of the eight, only FAULDHOUSE UNITED aren't certain of being in tomorrow's draw. They will, however start as favourites at LOCHORE today when the teams make a second attempt to get the tie completed, a waterlogged pitch being responsible for abandonment last week.

Two goals from Danny Diver put POLLOK through by the odd goal in three at BONNYRIGG ROSE. ARTHURLIE were made to fight all the way before overcoming Ayrshire second leaguers SALTCOATS VICS. AUCHINLECK, the bookies favourites as usual, made the longest haul of the competition a fruitless journey for BUCHANHAVEN HEARTS who lost 6-1.

GLENAFTON did well to come from behind and get a 1-1 draw at ARNISTON RANGERS. Glens had to make the eleventh hour signing of ex-Partick keeper John Hillcoat after Henry Smith was recalled by Ayr United. Another surprise for the 'Afton faithful was the appearance of Frank McGarvey in the No.9 jersey.

LOCHEE UNITED looked to be cruising into the last 64 when they led HILL O'BEATH by 3-1 with only a few minutes left but a late rally by the Haws secured a replay. KELTY HEARTS, one of Fife's big cup hopes crashed 4-1 at home to BEITH. KIRKCALDY YM had their first OVD win since 1989 when a single goal put the skids under DYCE. Blood and snotters at ST ANDREWS UNITED where ST ROCH'S, who have a 100% record in the Central third division, went out to Tommy Falls' goal. Four sendings off here and an estimated 10 bookings (nobody's really sure but it was a bumper day for the SJFA treasurer who will collect from the clubs in fines, more than they would have received from the 'gate')

KINNOULL continue to struggle and listed only 12 players for their game at HARTHILL ROYAL. A penalty from Devaney was their only consolation in a 1-3 defeat. COUPAR ANGUS took the lead at WHITBURN after half an hour but lost 5 second half goals to go down by 6-1. JEANFIELD did well to win 3-1 at Larkhall against ROYAL ALBERT who have been experiencing a rather better season than of late. There must have been a news embargo at Renfrew where Downfield lost 0-1. Other than the scoreline, the papers had nothing to report. Tayside's CARNOUSTIE and NORTH END scraped through by the odd goal against NEWBURGH and DALRY respectively but ST JOSEPHS found it considerably easier against ELLON UNITED at Fairfield, winning 5-0. The North Region teams seem to be mirroring the form of their Senior neighbours at Pittodrie. Only TURRIFF, 4-3 winners over BELLSHILL, won against out of the area opposition.

LINLITHGOW ROSE, East Region champions and current league leaders, saw their cup dreams end on the Canniepairt last year but they are up for it again following a good 3-2 win at Baillieston. There was a big shock for their fellow East side Bo'ness United. Having started the season well, Bo'ness were expected to polish off Neilston who presently prop up the Reebok Central Premier Division, but were beaten 4-1.

TODAY'S VISITORS ST JOSEPHS

St Josephs continue to be the most talked about team in the Tayside League. Last season because of their unprecedented success at local level. This season because of the apparent turmoil at Fairfield Park.

The waygoing of Peter Marr to Dundee FC, taking with him Kenny Cameron snr., secretary Willie Dryden and commercial duo Derek Souter and Jim Connor among others was undoubtedly a blow. The loss of such luminaries is bound to leave a gap which is difficult to fill.

Three years on, there are very few left of those who made up the backroom staff at Fairfield as the 1994/95 list below shows.

With John Young, Scott Kopel and Paul Bruce apparently in dispute with the club, there is currently a paucity of players available for selection at Fairfield. Also of last season's squad, Greg McGill and Brian Brown were transferred to Dundee Violet and Kevin Burns left for Arbroath FC. Dave Baikie would be delighted to get Kenny Jones as well but the big defender is the cornerstone of Saints' defence and there's been no deal done.

On the positive side Ross Graham is back to full fitness and scoring goals again, Gary Mearns has recovered from a nasty head injury and Gary Mitchell arrived from Violet as part of the McGill deal.

Scottish Amateur international striker Ronnie Kenneth was signed at the tail-end of last season and has quickly found his mark in the Juniors and is currently Joeys' top marksman. However a recent sending off has left its legacy, in that he is suspended for today's game.

Despite the personnel upheaval, St Josephs can still boast a very strong line-up this afternoon. Keeper Fitzpatrick has few peers in the Junior game, Gus Malone may be at the veteran stage but he's a wily old fox and, along with McMulkin, McAuley, Jones and ex-Dundee, Sunderland and Airdrie defender, policeman Gary Ogilvie, provides the team with an abundance of skill and experience.

Gary Mearns provides the steel in midfield and up front there's the goal threat of Cameron, McIlvennie and Graham. Jackie Devine, a former Canniepairt favourite, is still strutting his stuff and is one of a quartet of former 'Port players in the Fairfield camp. Cameron, Malone and Smith are the others.

FROM THE MANAGER'S PEN.....

Today we welcome St Josephs to the Canniepairt. St Josephs, like Tayport have had to contend with major changes at their club since winning the championship last season. Firstly Peter Marr left to go to Dundee FC. taking with him manager Kenny Cameron and secretary Willie Dryden. Next co-managers Andy Sommerville and Dave Tosney, who had been promoted when Kenny Cameron departed, also left. Not the best preparation for a team hoping to retain the title, but to their credit, they have still managed to be up there, challenging at the top.

Today will be the first game in charge for the new management team of George Shields and coaches Phil Smith and George Sinclair, all of whom I know and respect for the work they have done at their previous clubs. I hope that we can give them a baptism of fire in their first match. I am sure it will be a keenly contested game that the supporters will enjoy. I ask the 'Port Support to get right behind the boys from the very start of the game until the final whistle.

It gives me great pleasure to inform the Tayport fans that the injury crisis which we have been faced with since the start of the season, is at long last showing signs of waning. Saturday past had only three players reporting injured for the Scottish Cup-tie away to Forfar Albion. Good news at last! Of these three injured players, both Paul Reilly and Billy Coventry have been training of late. Unfortunately, however, Barrie Gray goes into hospital this weekend for an operation on his shoulder. Everyone at the club wishes him well. I must, at this point, pay tribute to Andy Bell whose expertise and commitment is invaluable to us. Andy, as you can imagine, has been extremely busy so far this season. Thanks, Andy!

Going back to last Saturday's cup-tie, I was, as you would expect, delighted to win 4-0. Considering the weather, the ground conditions and a very stuffy Forfar side, it could have turned into a very tricky game. Forfar set their stall out very early and the 'Port players have to take considerable credit for their performance in taking us through to the next round.

This afternoon we face arch-rivals St Josephs and I have no doubt that this is going to be a cracking match. The players have been fired up at training this week and I am sure they will be ready come 2pm.

Support the Port, Kenny Bunce.

FROM THE ARCHIVES

15 YEARS AGO - NOVEMBER 13 1982

1982 were halcyon days for amateur football in Tayport. The club fielded three teams every week and all were doing well in their respective leagues. The 1st XI were Midlands kingpins, the 2nd XI played in the East Fife Amateurs and the Strollers XI played in the Midlands Alliance.

That November afternoon it was a strong Tayport which recorded a 3-0 Scottish Amateur Cup 3rd round win away to Lomond Vics at Falkland.

Team was Angus Charity; Micky McPherson, Phil Smith, Alan Hart, Andy McRobbie; Jim Downie, Jim Bissett, Ronnie Whitton; Alan Harte, Ian Howe, Malcolm Graham. Subs were Rab Downie and Ronnie Stewart. Harte, Howe and Graham had the Tayport goals.

Gus Malone, who is in St Josephs' line-up this afternoon, had been transferred the previous week to Brechin City and two weeks later, Phil Smith, Joeys' coach, also went Senior, moving to Forfar Athletic. The Lomond Vics game was actually the last of Phil's 51 games for the 'Port. Apart from Ronnie Whitton, who is in Australia, that team still all live locally.

The Fife XI was also away from home, winning 5-2 at Balmullo Thistle in a East Fife Division One game.

Line-up was Dave Tosney; Colin Gray, Sandy Hamilton, Doug Henderson, Neil Downie; Stevie Whyte, Roy Shaw, Brian Simpson; Bruce Burnett, Gordon Smith and Brian Cosgrove. Subs were Des Docherty and G. Burnett.

Dave Tosney was, of course, a member of Joeys' management team up until a few weeks ago and Gordon Smith is Phil's wee brother. Whyte (3), Burnett and Docherty were the scorers. By the way, if anybody ever sees Des Docherty, tell the treasurer. The sod still owes for a pullover!

The Alliance team was enjoying a good season and on 13/11/82 were chalking up their 7th win in 8 games with a 2-0 home win over NCR with the following team.

George Hayter; Dougie Hill, Davie Blair, Bob McDonald, Dean Anderson; John Falconer, Frank Feechan, Roy Lessels; Roddy McCafferty, Micky Hall, Ian Ness. Subs were Steve Cassells and Rabbin Burns. McCafferty and Cassells were the marksmen.

We had a German, Wilf Pawlik, playing for the Alliance XI that season and this was one of the few games that he missed. He was hardly Gerd Muller or Jurgen Klinsmann but he did manage to notch in a 5-1 win over Newport on 6 November and, therefore has the unique distinction of being the only German to score for the 'Port.

TAYPORT FC VETERANS' XI

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

SAD to learn last week of the death of St Josephs enthusiast, Jean Pierre Babin. A Frenchman, Jean Pierre, had lived in Dundee for around 50 years and was well known in local football circles, not just with St Josephs, but also Timex Amateurs for many seasons.

ALAN HART has resigned as manager of the club's Amateur team. The team are presently at the bottom of the Midlands first division and a series of heavy defeats prompted Alan's departure. In between a couple of those defeats came a 7-0 win at Coupar Angus in the Scottish Amateur Cup. This gives Tayport a place in the third round and a home meeting with Ayrshire's Barleith next Saturday.

IF you walk into the Pandy on Saturday 13th December, you'd be forgiven for thinking you had walked into Tuttle's Neuk instead. The 36-0 Arbroath Supporters' Club are holding their Christmas Party in the Tayport Arms that day. With a home game in the afternoon against Cowdenbeath, spirits should be high.

THE draw for the third round of the OVD Scottish Junior Cup takes place at Cunnock Social Club tomorrow afternoon. Details of the draw should be on the Tayport FC Newsline from around 2pm.

THE annual Guy Fawkes Night Bonfire and Fireworks Display on The Canniepairt last Wednesday went off without a hitch and the 1,000 or so crowd enjoyed a spectacular show. The weather had been wet most of the week but miraculously relented for the duration of the display.

ONE thing is for sure. There won't be a Tayport Veterans XI game (see photo elsewhere in the programme) during the New Year Holiday. The team's head cook & bottle washer, Ian Mathers, is leaving the country on Hogmanay. He's flying to Australia to attend his nephew's wedding. As somebody said, not a bad idea to fly on Hogmanay, be able to celebrate bringing in the New Year on about three different occasions as he changes time zones!

THERE could be some feedback from the Juniors' 'Think Tank' soon. It's understood that there is to be a meeting held shortly but it still looks like a lot of clubs/associations are wary of change and hopes of a brave new set-up look remote. We live in hope, however.

PRESS REPORT

"....they (Forfar) were a mere shadow compared with Saints.....Saints should have walked this tie, but on the day luck, and only luck, gave Forfar the match"

"....West followed up with a penalty shoot-out success over a plucky St Andrews outfit in what was an evenly contested game "

You'd be excused for thinking that these extracts were from reports on different games but...no, they are both from the Taycars tie two weeks ago, Forfar West End v St Andrews United. The first is from the St Andrews Citizen and the other is from Forfar Dispatch. The words 'grapes' and 'sour' come to mind on reading one of the reports!

++++++

" Tayport never really looked in danger of losing this match, despite taking the foot off the pedal following a good start. Thornton's goals seemed essentially down to slackness on Tayport's part, while at the other end, the firepower of Gardiner, Reilly and Hutcheon proved to be too much for the Hibs' rearguard."

- FIFE HERALD (7.11.97) Tayport 6 Thornton Hibs 3

++++++

" Tayport looked poised to run up a cricket score early in this first round tie, but the visitors rallied to give their hosts a game of it"

- GLENROTHES GAZETTE (5.11.97) Tayport 6 Thornton Hibs 3

++++++

"...Albion look to have the tougher task (than Kirrie v Rosyth). Visitors to Guthrie Park will be Tayport, winners of the Scottish Junior Cup the season before last and runners-up in 1996/97. Tayport are gradually returning to something like their old form, and cruised through to the second round of the Taycars Trophy on Saturday past when they hit Thornton Hibs for six"

FORFAR DISPATCH (7.11.97)

++++++

" Forfar Albion will look to ex-Carnoustie man, Alan Cranston, to beef up their challenge to Tayport, who are currently firing on six, or seven, cylinders "

SCOTTISH PYRAMID NEWS (7.11.97)

" Tayport's victory came as no real surprise, as they clearly had much more experience than their second division opposition. On a dreadful day weatherwise, the 'Port support were at least rewarded with a decent second half display from their side "
