TODAY'S GAME

Tabletopping North End are our visitors this afternoon and they come to the Canniepairt defending an unbeaten record for the season. Like ourselves, they have recovered from a couple of dodgy draws in their opening three fixtures to put together a sequence of three wins on the trot. Indeed the sides take the field today with identical records, although in the league, the Dokens have played a game more, one of our games being a cup tie.

North End showed that their top of the table placing in 1998 was no fluke by staying in the top two, albeit as runners-up, last season. This season again, they are well equipped to put in a strong challenge and this will be demonstrated in this afternoon's game.

One of North End's victories on the road was an impressive 5-1 win at Bankfoot where the locals conceded that they were well beaten by an on-song outfit which would have won by an even bigger margin had it not been for the form of home keeper Walker.

Tayport stuttered a bit early on before eliminating Violet from the Taycars, putting four past Montrose and then ending early Premier leaders Kirrie's 100% record with a first class performance last Saturday. These results achieved despite having a depleted pool from which to select.

Graham Nicoll, signed from Newburgh at the start of the season is settling in well to his new club and has been on the mark in each of his last two starts. Missing today will be Grant Buist and Brian Craik who are both still on holiday.

Sean Wilkie, Steve Ross and Keith Nicolson were all out for last week's win at Kirrie but are likely to be back in contention for a place today

It all points to an entertaining game this afternoon as the league's best defence looks to deny the league's most potent attack.

Taking charge of the game are officials from the west of Scotland who have been drafted in as part of the SJFA's policy to give referees the opportunity to gain experience in other associations.

In a groundbreaking move the SJFA have encouraged clubs to play these ties on Friday, Saturday or Sunday, 7th, 8th or 9th October with 3pm kick-offs. Most ties, including Tayport's will, however, go ahead on the Saturday.

Amazingly there are four ties in close proximity to each other where Tayport are playing. Muirkirk make the long journey from Ayrshire to play Islavale at Keith, Bishopmill have a local derby with Buckie at Elgin and along the road Dalkeith Thistle play at Kinloss.

The big game of the round is undoubtedly Maryhill v Linlithgow while other tasty encounters are Arthurlie v Bonnyrigg Rose and a derby between Newtongrange Star and Haddington Athletic.

Local groundsharers East Craigie and Elmwood have both been drawn at home and it's likely that the Shipbuilders, as landlords, will have Craigie Park on the Saturday.

TODAY'S VISITORS

North End will be without Billy Cooper and Bobby Douglas both of whom are long term injured but even without that veteran duo it's a squad packed with experience in all departments.

Defender Don McVicar who has a long career of Senior football behind him, is well past the first flush of youth but is as enthusiastic as ever and deadly from set pieces. Graeme Finnan in goal is as safe a pair of hands as there is in the league.

Barry Gardiner

Instantly recognisable will be ex Tayport player Barry Gardiner. Scone based Barry left the Canniepairt last season to join Bankfoot Athletic and help them to the second division title before joining up at North End Park during the close season. Barry was basically a winger at Tayport but has had more of a wing back role since joining the Dokens.

Paul Yule

Other new faces are ex Brechin City striker Graeme Davidson whose signature from Elmwood in the close season wouldn't have come cheap and David Taylor who stayed in the top division when his club of last season, Lochee Harp, went through the relegation trapdoor.

Despite the new blood, established North End marksmen, Paul 'Pele' Yule, Ronnie Adams and Alan Cranston have all been amongst the goals this season and will test the 'Port defence this afternoon. Adams notched the winner against Carnoustie last week to take his side to the top of the league

ANDY'S ANGLE

First of all I would like to welcome the players and officials of North End to Canniepairt for our league game today.

Last week saw us put in our best performance of the season against an in-form Kirrie Thistle. Going into the game we were four points adrift of our opponents and a loss would have meant a seven point gap. Even at this early stage of the season a seven point gap would have left us with a mountain to climb. This is the reason it was vital for us to win. Not only for the points but for the psychological side of things. If they had beaten us, it would have given them the self belief to go on and beat other teams in similar fashion. So, not only did we win the points, but we took the initiative from them and put an element of doubt back into their game.

The Tayport players need games against this standard of opposition, because it definitely brings out the best in them. They approached the game with the correct attitude and thoroughly deserve all the credit for what was a superb performance.

If last week's game was crucial in retaining the league, then this week's game is even bigger. We must now get consistency into our play. We have to build on all the good work done last week and there could be no bigger obstacle in our road than North End. In my opinion it is fitting that today's game will decide who will sit top of the league. Like ourselves, North End, whilst unbeaten, have drawn two games and will be desperate to put on a good show and establish themselves as title contenders. This is by no means a winner take all encounter, but it will go a long way to deciding which team will take a big advantage into the rest of the season.

This is the reason I would publicly challenge my players to once again rise to the occasion and give the same commitment to this game as they did the previous game. If they do that I can guarantee they will get the same enjoyment out of the game. Another pleasing aspect from last week was the partnership of Graham Nicoll and Kenny Cameron, both of whom scored. Lately, for various reasons, we have had to chop and change players in almost every position on the park. One player who has featured recently is Ryan Sochanik who came in to deputise for Fraser when he had flu. Ryan is a tremendous prospect and it is not surprising that he is interesting a few senior clubs. On a lighter note it may interest you to know that the average age of the substitutes on the bench for the Kirrie game was seventeen - one 16yr old and two 18 yr olds -excluding Sean Wilkie, of course!

FROM THE ARCHIVES

Fifteen years ago the club was in the midst of a ten year spell when it was running three teams, competing in the Midlands, Midlands Alliance and Fife's Kingdom Caledonian Leagues.

This corresponding Saturday in 1984 the Midlands team was drawing 2-2 at Carnoustie. Team was George Hayter, Alan Gauld, Graeme McPherson, Rab Downie, George Wilson, Jim Downie, Stevie Whyte, Willie Brown, John Fernie, Stuart Davie and Derek McDonald. Subs were Allan Harte and Mark Whiteside. 15 years on all these players have retired. Gauld and Wilson, it will be recalled, travelled from Brechin each week to play. Indeed, of the starting XI that day only Stuart Davie actually resided in Tayport at that time.

The Fife XI were having a year out of the East Fife Amateurs and had their one and only season in the Kingdom League. It was a tough league for what was essentially a second XI and 'Port went down 1-8 at home to Star Hearts. Tayport lined up Brian Smith, John Aitken, Davie Blair, Alan Hart, Ian Lees, Ronnie Stewart, John Squire, Ian Ness, Roddy Davie, Ian Howe, Colin Robertson. Graeme Dempster and Colin Gray were substitutes. All apart from Keeper Brian Smith, now with NCR Amateurs, have retired. Brian, it will be recalled, kept goal for Tayport when we won our first trophy in the Juniors, the Perthshire Advertiser Cup.

The Alliance XI weren't in action that day but their regular line-up at the time was Neil Ferrier, Neil McLeod, Scott Crichton, Frank Feechan, Jimmy Brunton, Neil Robertson, Lyall Clark, Joe Myles, Roddy McCafferty, Stuart Turnbull, Roy Lessels. Again all the players here have since retired from the game.

At a committee meeting held that week among the items discussed were proposed plans for a pavilion extension, a Euro trip, staging our own International Tournament and a proposed barrier around the pitch. Team Manager Drew Herd had just been suspended for four weeks by the Midlands AFA Executive Committee after falling foul of a referee. It was noted that the chairman had put Bobby Waddell, assisted by George Norrie, in interim charge of team selection.

Donaldson's Timber had presented the club with a sponsorship cheque to the tune of £400.

PRESS REPORT

Bankfoot 1 North End 5

PERTSHIRE ADVERTISER(14/9/99)

"The Dundee club are currently second top in the league and being quoted as prospective league champions and they certainly did this forecast justice with a scintillating display of attacking football, especially in the second half"

Tayport 2 Dundee Violet 0

FIFE HERALD(10/9/99)

"Despite the absence of several key players, Tayport turned in a positive performance, especially in the first half, to oust Violet from the Taycars Trophy, at the preliminary stage, on Saturday afternoon"

Tayport 4 Montrose Roselea 0

FIFE HERALD(17/9/99)

"Champions Tayport defeated newly promoted Roselea on the Canniepairt on Saturday afternoon with youngster Graham Nicoll doing most of the damage, by scoring once in each half of the game"

THE COURIER(18/9/99)

"...there is nothing special about this fixture. All that's at stake is the three points. You don't get anything extra because it's Tayport" - Kirrie manager Wilson Coupar previewing the league leaders, Kirrie (0) v the league champions Tayport (2)

The draw for the 1st Round of the Taycars Trophy will take place at the Warout Stadium tomorrow (25 September). The Newslane will be updated with Tayport's opponents in the draw around 6.30pm Sunday The Taycars AGM also takes place that day.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

Downfield striker Darren Bonella would hardly be delighted with the Perthshire Advertiser's report of the recent Jeanfield Swifts v Spiders match. They clearly had difficulty getting his name right. Darren might not be too unhappy with 'Bonnelli' but I think he'd draw the line at Darren Bowells!

The SUN is once again tipping East champions Linlithgow Rose to go all the way in the OVD Cup after a great start to the season. Rose fans must see this as a kiss of death. But, with Davie Flynn now leading their attack and George Fairley in the manager's chair, they might just fulfil that promise. Their early season form took them to the final of the East League Cup on Wednesday past but there was a shock in store, Harthill winning the trophy on penalty kicks to claim their first major junior honour.

Those who doubted that Dave Baikie would make his mark in the Senior game as he had in the Junior game will be of different mind now. The way things stand at the moment, next season's east coast derby will be Aberdeen v Arbroath! A situation unthinkable when Baiker took over Scotland's bottom side just over two years ago. And it's been done on a shoestring. With little purchasing power, Baiker has had to rely on his legendary wheeling and dealing to take the Red Lichties to their current position.

Snout understands that the Tayport Veterans XI could be considering contesting a veterans tournament in Belgium next June. The Veterans game is quite big in mainland Europe and the tournament organisers are always looking for new blood. Opportunity here for Jigger and DR?

Lochore Miners Welfare got off to a flying start in the Fife Junior League with four wins and a draw in their first five games but were quickly brought back to earth when it was discovered that they had inadvertently fielded a player under suspension. It cost them three points and five goals.

Grant Buist, missing last week, will also be missing for the next few weeks. He's off to USA to get married today to Louise. Louise already had Tayport FC connections of course. She is the niece of former committee member and ace photographer Iain 'Coogs' Cougan.

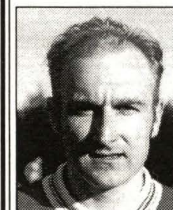

We are only 5 or 6 games into the league campaign but history suggests that pre-season contenders Carnoustie and Lochee United won't be champions. No team has won the league in the last ten years by dropping as many points as these two clubs have already.

FOCHABERS

It's a long way to Fochabers - about 120 miles to be precise- but that's where Tayport begin their quest for the Scottish Junior Cup on 9th October.

Fochabers is in the heart of Highland League Football country, sandwiched between Keith and Elgin. However the place itself is probably better known for Mrs Baxter's Cock-a-Leekie Soup than for its football. (note to Tom & Dick: tours of Baxter's Factory and Visitor Centre are available for Mrs B & Mrs M!)

Fochabers play in the Scotscup North Section of the North Region and had the doubtful distinction last season of finishing bottom of the league, collecting 10 points from a possible 78, scoring less than a goal a game. League goals conceded went into three figures.

Fochabers have made a better start to this season, however, having shared the points in three of their first six games.

The OVD Scottish Junior Cup hasn't exactly been their forte. In the last ten campaigns, draws against Craigmark Burntonians and East End have been their sole crumbs of comfort. Their last three ties have been 0-6, 1-6 and 1-7 exits from Tranent, Jeanfield and Newburgh respectively.

Founded in 1983, Fochabers are nicknamed 'the Bears' and play out of Fochabers Playing Fields.

THE TAYSIDE OVD CUP CHALLENGE

163 clubs set out in search of the holy grail that is the OVD Scottish Junior Cup. As the OVD publicity states, it is one of the oldest soccer competitions in the world. Quite significant when one realises the impact the game of soccer has had in the ensuing 100+ years and the £billion business it now is. Being the Millennium this would be a particularly good year to win the cup. Mind you, any year is a good year to win the cup!

Less than a third of the clubs in this year's competition have savoured that cup winning feeling but all will be kicking off in the hope that this will be their year. Fourteen Tayside teams contest the first round with only one derby, Montrose Roselea v Forfar Albion. There should be comfortable wins for Downfield, Carnoustie and Kirrie Thistle while Violet and Lochee United might each expect double figures v Burghead Thistle and Tulliallan respectively. Jeanfield Swifts will be up against it at Fife League leaders Oakley United. East Craigie, Arbroath Vics, Bankfoot and Blairgowrie won't find their ties easy but will all fancy their chances of making progress. Elmwood v Glenrothes is an interesting one which could find a Sunday slot - and, if so, a reasonable attendance. Big spending Glens have already reached the final of the Peddie Smith Maloco Cup but their investment will be aimed at a run in the Scottish. Elmwood could give them a fright. All Scottish Cup kick-offs are at 3pm.

PLEASE NOTE THAT THERE IS A BUS FOR NEXT WEEK'S CARNOUSTIE PANMURE MATCH WHICH WILL LEAVE FROM THE CANNIEPAIRT AT 12.45pm PICKING UP AT DOCK GATES (1.00 pm) AND CLAYPOTTS (1.10 pm)

Montrose Roselea 11/9/99

Kirrie Thistle 18/9/99

Over the past fortnight, Tayport recorded two consecutive league wins, enabling them to climb the table, after a stuttering start to the campaign.

First up were newly promoted Montrose Roselea, who put in a brave performance on the Canniepairt, and trailed by a solitary Graham Nicoll goal, at half-time.

Three further strikes, in a ten minute spell, from Kenny Cameron, Nicoll again, and Grant Paterson, eventually ended the match as a contest.

Interestingly, Roselea were not without their chances, and Ryan Sochanik, deputising for Fraser Mann, produced a couple of notable stops, to earn his second successive clean sheet, after having shut out Violet, the previous week.

Ultimately, though, this was an efficient performance from the 'Port, as was the case last Saturday, when they travelled to Westview Park to take on league leaders Kirrie Thistle.

For all Thistle's endeavour, an early Hamish Soutar header proved to be the only real moment of concern for a fit-again Fraser Mann. At the other end Tayport played some crisp football and Kenny Cameron's 18th minute opener was well deserved.

The highlight of the afternoon was Graham Nicoll's second half clincher, when, after collecting a Paterson pass, he beat Kirrie keeper Menmuir with a top drawer finish, which will go a long way in helping the recent signing as he bids to establish himself in a Tayport jersey.
