FRASER MOVES ON

Long serving goalkeeper Fraser Mann has moved to pastures new. Unable to win back his jersey from Frazer Fitzpatrick, Fraser accepted an offer to move to Elmwood and made his debut for the Railwaymen last Saturday.

Fraser revealed that the only reason he moved was to get a regular game. In his time at the Canniepairt, Fraser picked up virtually every medal the game had to offer.

After 434 games during which he kept 243 clean sheets including 9 in a row, Fraser moves on with all best wishes from the club.

His next scheduled appearance on the Canniepairt, apart from bringing his girls to the Guy Fawkes

DAVE BOOKER

It was with great sadness that members of the club learned earlier this week of the death in Roxburghe House of Dave Booker. Dave, a giant of a man in every way, was good friend to the club and had an excellent rapport with the players and management over the past eight or so years during which time he helped out with the club's commercial interests and introduced the players to his somewhat off-beat football training methods. Off-beat or not, they worked!

Despite his illness, everybody, not least the four players, appreciated Davie's attendance at the Testimonial Dinner earlier this month.

We offer our sincere condolences to wife June and members of the family.

TODAY'S VISITORS

LOCHORE WELFARE

Last season when the 'Port visited Central Park, they posted a 3-1 win in the quarter final of the Taycars competition in a highly entertaining contest to eliminate the ambitious Crosshill club who had accounted for East Craigie and Downfield at home in earlier rounds.

Ultimately, they finished fourth in the Stella Artois League last term, their first under the guise of Lochore Miners Welfare following the merger of Benarty and Lochore in the summer of 1999.

So it was a highly creditable start for the fledgling club under the shrewd and wily management of JIM HARDIE whose vast experience as a boss and a player encompasses the senior ranks as well as clubs in Fife and in Lothians. He had only been in charge at Benarty for a matter of weeks before the clubs combined.

His assistant is former Benarty boss JOHN STEEL and coach ANDY MUIR, the third member of the backroom staff, came from amateur football. From that firm base of last term's progress, boss Jim Hardie had a busy close season, making several significant signings, constructing almost an entirely new defence as he seeks to improve on last season's showing. They included goalkeeper NEIL RUSSELL, formerly with Cowdenbeath who returned to the game in August after being out with a knee injury, similar to the one suffered by Ian Durrant.

Last week against Kirkcaldy YM, however, his deputy and former Benarty keeper WILLIE CROWE, was in goal, keeping a welcome clean sheet after losing ten goals to Musselburgh and St Andrews.

Occupying the right-back slot is another close season newcomer, JASON STRATHDEE who was snapped up from Camelon, but he can also fill a central defensive role. He is keeping DAVID HUTT on the bench, a player who is in his second spell with Lochore, having been at Bonnybridge in between times.

Perhaps the most familiar figure in Lochore's team is the experienced central defender GARY PATERSON who was signed from Montrose this summer, returning to Lochore for a third time after senior experience with Dundee and Stirling Albion before his move to Links Park in December 1998. With his height he is always a threat at set pieces.

SCOTT WILLIAMSON, formerly a defender with Alloa, but until recently with Bonnybridge, was another of the acquisitions for the new term.

Former Benarty centre-half WILLIE McLEISH and SNP member is one of the older defensive hands, whilst CRAIG REYNOLDS, signed from Camelon in 1999, normally plays in the sweeper position and is a thoughtful and intelligent reader of the game.

At left-back is DAVID KENNEDY, yet another of this season's newcomers. He was also at Bonnybridge where he played under Jim Hardie.

Another option in defence is ANDY KINNELL who was signed last season. In midfield DENNIS CURRIE plays on the right-hand side and was previously with Dunfermline Athletic. JAMES SEARLE was recruited from Lochgelly Albert whilst the influential ANDY WILSON, previously with St Andrews United, only made his come-back after injury last week, playing in the opening forty five minutes in the 4-0 win over Kirkcaldy YM.

MAURICE DOYLE is one of the longer serving players, having been with Benarty, whereas BARRY TILLIER from Crossgates, who can play in defence or midfield, was yet another of the incomers this summer.

KINNOULL's top scorer last season COLIN BURKE and striker GEORGE ALLISON from Camelon were also close season arrivals whilst the other main frontman is GEORGE GIBSON. Recruited from Lochgelly Under 18's, the son of the former Hearts striker Willie, is a student at Edinburgh University when not banging in the goals for the Welfare.

Jim Hardie's attacking options were enhanced by the arrival of the experienced WILLIE CALLAGHAN who played for a host of senior clubs including Dunfermline, Montrose and Livingston, but until recently was junior with Camelon.

Not surprising in view of all the changes in personnel, the Lochore outfit are still gelling, but their remarkable 6-5 defeat at the hands of Musselburgh in the Heineken Cup excepted, they have made a good start to the new campaign and come to Canniepairt currently occupying third place in the Fife League with a 2-2 draw at Hill of Beath proving that the Crosshill side can compete with the best.

MATCH REPORT

BY

DUNMORE

'Port are in cup action today, following three consecutive league wins, which have enabled them to maintain their grip at the top of the NCR Premier Division. This sequence of league fixtures was interrupted though, when Dundee United visited the Canniepairt for the much-anticipated testimonial match for Sean Wilkie, Grant Paterson, Dave Reilly and Mark Spalding.

One of these players, Grant Paterson, celebrated his return to the squad with a 'Goal of the Season' contender at home to Violet (30/9), which paved the way for a comfortable 3-0 victory. The points were not made safe, however, until late in the game, when substitutes Dave Reilly and Graham Nicoll each added their names to the scoresheet.

Reilly would continue this scoring form into the following weekend. A trip to a rain-soaked Guthrie Park to play Forfar Albion (7/10), was brightened up by the prolific forward's 27th hat-trick for the club. In addition, as was the case against Violet, two players, Ronnie Kenneth and Mark Corcoran on this occasion, came off the bench to find the net. Eddie Winks did briefly give Albion some hope, but his strike ultimately proved to be mere consolation for his team, in a 5-1 defeat.

The next day, came the encounter with Dundee United, who fielded several players with Premier League experience, as well as a host of South Americans, probably bought with the first team in mind. Their calibre showed early on, and it was not a major surprise when the Tannadice men opened the scoring. 'Port, who included guests Mark Spalding and Keith Nicolson, soon rallied, though, and a solid performance enabled them to gain a morale-boosting win. Fittingly, Dave Reilly notched the equaliser, from the penalty spot, before Ronnie Kenneth grabbed the limelight, with a fantastic effort, in the final minute of the game.

Last Saturday (14/10), a second trip of the season to Simpson Park saw the league leaders score seven without reply, as they eased to three points, against Jeanfield Swifts. Mark Corcoran and Ronnie Kenneth both bagged second half doubles, while Davie Evans, Brian Harris and Grant Paterson, with another great strike, netted one goal apiece.

TOUGH TIE FOR TAYPORT IN SCOTTISH CUP

Tayport travel to Cambuslang Rangers two weeks today in the 2nd round of the OVD Scottish Junior Cup. The 'wee' Rangers, as they are known, earlier this month lifted the Central Region's League Cup and they will in confident mood.

Cambuslang is not unknown territory, however, for Tayport. Four seasons ago a last minute goal from Allan Kennedy gave Tayport a 1-0 win in a quarter final tie. Lochore are at home to Bo'ness United in their 2nd round tie.

A full run down on the OVD ties in next week's Port Prog.

In the Concept Group Trophy 2nd round Tayport have been drawn away to Aberdeen Lads Club. This game is on 18th November.

ANDY'S ANGLE

Good afternoon and a warm welcome to the Canniepairt to the players, officials and supporters of Lochore Welfare for our cup tie today.

This will be the third time we have played Lochore in this competition. Last season we beat them in what was one of our most difficult games of last term and, having had them watched this term, I expect this game to be no different.

Lochore are putting in a serious challenge for the Fife League this season, accumulating forty goals in twelve games. As we are also scoring freely at the moment, the supporters could be in for a feast of goals today.

In last week's game away to Jeanfield Swifts I was pleased to see us play some of our best football of the season. Not only because we scored seven goals and didn't concede any, but in open play, we kept possession well and were patient whilst trying to carve out an opportunity to score a goal. All too often in the past we have become frustrated when we have been faced with packed defences.

When we have faced such problems in the past we have lost our shape and individual players lose their discipline in a positional sense, with players trying to do it all themselves. We played last week's game with a certain amount of renewed confidence. In my opinion this confidence was gained in the testimonial game against Dundee United. We owe a debt of gratitude to the four players who celebrated that day as it gave us the opportunity to be really tested against first class opposition and it was no surprise to me that we more than matched the highly paid team in tangerine and black. It was a great day for the four players. It was also a constructive day for the football team as the result gave the team a whole new self-belief and, if we can take this self belief and confidence into future games, we will take some stopping from any opposition.

It is with great sadness that my next subject is the death of Dave Booker. Booker, as he was known to his close friends, was a larger than life character and, whilst he was not directly involved with the club in an official capacity, he motivated many of the players individually and was instrumental in creating a good team spirit within the playing squad. He was dearly loved and will be sadly missed. All our thoughts are with June and family at this difficult time.

Holders Tayport earned a meeting with Fife League cracks Kelty Hearts, in the semi-finals of the Taycars Trophy, by virtue of this hard-fought victory against the on-form Lochore, in what was an intriguing 'cup-tie' at Central Park.

The visitors pressed forward from kick-off and were rewarded with a goal after only three minutes. Grant Paterson flighted a free kick deep into the Lochore area, where Steven Stewart's presence posed problems for the home defence, allowing Kenny Cameron to pounce and send a firm header past 'keeper Neil Crichton.

Stewart was involved in 'Port's next two attempts on goal, flashing a powerful volley wide of the target on 15 minutes, then seeing a header cleared off the line, shortly afterwards.

Lochore had enjoyed a fair amount of the play without really threatening, until they snatched a controversial equaliser on the half-hour mark. 'Port' keeper Ryan Sochanik was deemed to have picked up a pass-back and Terry Donaldson immediately took the free kick, giving forward David Kirkham the simple task of slotting home, while the Tayport players were rushing back into the box to defend the set-piece.

Towards half-time, Kenny Jones was prominent at either end of the field, seeing a looping header float narrowly over Crichton's crossbar, before being required to clear a goalbound effort from Craig Nicholson, as the sides went in level at the interval.

The match was proving to be a keenly-contested affair and Tayport edged themselves back in front seven minutes into the second half, following a fluent passing move down the left flank. Ian Greig won possession and found Sean Wilkie, who played a fine pass inside the full-back for Stevie Ross, whose pace took him away from his marker, and he crossed to the far post, where Kenny Cameron arrived to gleefully slam the ball into the roof of the net.

Far from accepting defeat, however, Lochore pushed forward and Terry Donaldson emerged as their dangerman. A rare slip by Kenny Jones gave Donaldson his first chance, but Ryan Sochanik did well to block. Moments later, the forward was given another sight of goal and the young Tayport 'keeper produced a fantastic reaction save to maintain his team's slender advantage.

Keen to end any doubts as to the outcome of the game, Tayport again went on the offensive with both Kenny Jones and Stevie Ross going close, around the 70 minute mark, although Lochore were not without their own opportunities in the final 10 minutes.

'Port's place in the next round of the competition was eventually sealed in injury-time, when Ian Greig released Stevie Ross, who drove the ball, left-footed, beyond goalkeeper Crichton, for his fourth goal in four games.

Victory aside, another pleasing aspect of the afternoon was that goalkeeper Ryan Sochanik was rewarded for his positive performance, especially in the second half, by being named the sponsors' man of the match.

Lochore: Crichton, Hutt, Muir, Reynolds, Bryce, Nicholson, Currie, Wilson, Kirkham, Doyle, Donaldson.

Tayport: Sochanik, Buist, Paterson, Wilkie (Corcoran), Nicolson, Jones, Greig, Stewart (Craik), Cameron, D. Reilly, Ross.

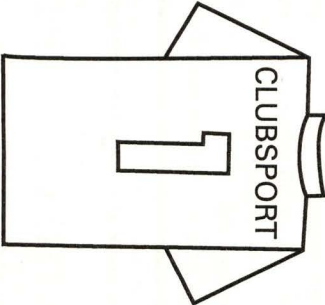

Tomorrow, Saturday, Tayport will again be in cup action, when they take on rivals Carnoustie Panmure, in the semi-finals of the Concept Group Trophy, at Westfield Park. Kick-off is scheduled for 2.15 pm and the tie will be played to a finish. In the second semi-final, Montrose Roselea meet Lochee United.

MEMORABLE
TESTIMONIAL MATCH
TAYPORT 2 DUNDEE UNITED 1

A week past last Sunday Tayport played Dundee United on the Canniepairt and for a report of the game from a different angle we've turned to Arab FC, an Independent Dundee United website.

" An understrength Dundee United side took on top junior side Tayport at Canniepairt in a testimonial match for Tayport players Dave Reilly, Grant Paterson, Sean Wilkie and Mark Spalding. Between them the four players have an impressive total of 1759 competitive appearances during a 10 year spell at the club and ,at the end of the 90 minutes, they were celebrating an impressive 2-1 victory over the SPL side.

It was an afternoon when Tayport taught Dundee United an important lesson in teamwork, a quality which has been missing from United's first team for several months.

During the glory years at Tannadice there was a team spirit about the place which, sadly, has ebbed away over the years to the extent that the Dundee United side on show today comprised of 11 completely separate individuals each struggling to take on take on the whole Tayport TEAM.

However there were still some very impressive displays from Carlos Macora and Francisco Ramirez, which gave the handful of Dundee United supporters who turned up some hope for the future.

With 20 or so caps for the Uruguayan International side, Carlos Macora dazzled the Tayport players with his quick feet and his inch perfect passing had United supporters drooling at the thought of seeing him in action for the 1st team against Hearts next weekend. Although he does look surprisingly light for a professional footballer, that only seemed to help him drift past the opposition players with ease.

Whereas, new Honduran signing Francisco Ramirez showed some good pace and movement off the ball and was rewarded with the opening goal early in the first half. Only 13 minutes had gone when RAMIREZ used close control to beat the Tayport defence and found himself one on one with Fraser Mann. Then, from 10yards, he curled his shot around the keeper into the bottom right hand corner to put United 1-0 in front.

For the United supporters who paid the value £3 to enter the match, it was a sight that has been so rare recently, that it hasn't yet happened to United in the SPL ...they went 1-0 in front!!

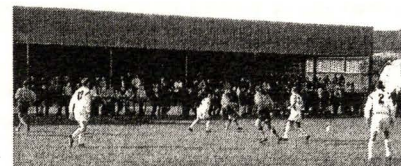

Another rare sight was seeing United's starting 11 wearing the numbers 1-11, as they took the field wearing this season's tangerine home strips.

The match gave United an opportunity to run the rule over two more foreign trialists. Pablo Pozzuto and Gustavo Gallego were replaced by under 21 players Jamie McCunnie and Gary Middleton early in the second half.

Although Gustavo Fuentes did not take part in the match as expected, he watched as his team-mates lost the plot in the second half of the match. Firstly a mistake by United goalkeeper Paul Gallacher gave testimonial hero DAVE REILLY the equaliser from the penalty spot in the 57th minute. Then substitute RONNIE KENNETH chipped Gallacher at the far post from just outside the box to win the match for Tayport in the 82nd minute.

Dundee United supporters must be terrified by the future prospects and wondering what else can be done to turn the season around and a 2-1 defeat by Tayport, even in a friendly match, will not appease those fears.

However, credit must really be given to the Tayport side for their performance. The result should not be looked at as a defeat for Dundee United, but as an impressive victory for the junior side.

TESTIMONIAL GOLF A BIG SUCCESS

Splendid golfing weather greeted a field of sixty at Scotsraig Golf Club last Sunday morning for the final event of Grant Paterson, Dave Reilly, Mark Spalding and Sean Wilkie's Testimonial Year.

It was a shotgun start with gamekeeper Jim Allan getting things underway at 8.30am. Teams of four counted their best two stableford scores per hole.

Winners with a total of 88 points was Ian Johnstone's (A.R.D.S. Ltd) team of himself, Frankie Dewar, Gary Smith and Maurice Milne. With umpteen Scotsraig Club Championships between them, Ian's team was always going to be a good bet!

The winning team picked up a suitably engraved crystal decanter and glasses specially commissioned by George Malone and Keith Sinclair.

In second place, courtesy of a better inward half, with 83 points was the Scott & Fyfe team of Lindsay Law, Stan Cowe, Jim Shields and Davie MacLean.

On the same points and just pipped for the silver was Graham Nicoll's team of St Andreans, Duncan Caithness, Jamie Anderson and Rhuraidh McQueen.

Sandy McDade had indicated earlier in the week that he didn't think his game was good enough to be tested in such exalted company - and he wasn't wrong! Sandy and brother Jim were in the R & M Bearings team with Steve Martin and Alastair Fiddes which collected the wooden spoon.

Other prizewinners were Longest drive (10th hole) - Graham Nicoll;

Nearest pin - Willie Duncan (CJ Lang) (3rd); Graeme Philip (6th); Rhuraidh McQueen (13th); Maurice Milne (15th).

George Ritchie won the prize draw of £100.

Tayport FC's coaching sessions for local primary school children drew to a close recently when the participants were presented with their certificates. The boys had attended the sessions on Saturday mornings throughout the summer. Some of the boys are pictured at a recent session with the coaches

SMIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

LOCHORE's giant central defender Gary Paterson was the recipient of one of the game's most unusual bookings. A dog had invaded the pitch during a match v Kirkcaldy YM and its removal was facilitated by Gary's boot, an indiscretion for which the referee considered merited a yellow card. Gary, of course, is the man whose transfer to Dundee during cash strapped days at Dens made the headlines. The fee was reputed to be a set of tracksuits moving from Dens to Central Park.

TAYPORT 'keeper Frazer Fitzpatrick and Lochore's Gary Paterson were team-mates at Montrose last season. Looking at the three clubs' respective league positions, they are unlikely to rue their decisions to move.

EX-Tayport striker, Steve Hutcheon, now a member of Her Majesty's Fife Constabulary, is still cracking in the goals for Glenrothes. A hat-trick in winning the final of the Fife Peddie Smith Malocco Cup against Hill of Beath was followed by a treble against OVD Cup holders Whitburn in an opening round defeat in the Heineken Cup.

ALLY Craigie who has been deposed by Fraser Mann in the Elmwood goal has asked for a transfer and been put on the list by manager Jim Finlayson.

FURTHER evidence that the gulf which at one time existed between the foot of the Scottish League and the top junior clubs is no more. Pat Clark who moved from Stirling Albion to OVD Cup winners Whitburn was quoted as saying that the standard of his new club's play was equal to many second or third division teams in the league. A well known football person who attended Tayport v Dundee United recently reckoned that the form Tayport displayed in the second period would have them a good bet for promotion from the third division. Makes SFA supremo David Taylor's comments re. a shake up in Scottish football on last week's SportsScene programme quite pertinent.

TAYPORT FC's inaugural newsletter which went out last week to season ticket holders, sponsors and advertisers has been well received. It is hoped that the next issue will be in December.

FAULDHOUSE United, bottom of the East Region's first division, have parted company with boss Jimmy Crease. Crease gave his reason for leaving as the cash demanded by players. Fauldhouse can't compete with the big clubs, he said, and the last straw was when his assistant Tom McCafferty left the club after failing to agree terms as a player

PRESS REPORT

Fife Herald (30/9/00)

Tayport 3 Violet 0

"Grant Paterson made a triumphant return to the Tayport line-up on saturday, opening the scoring with a terrific effort, following a few months uncertainty regarding his future at the club"

Fife Herald (7/10/00)

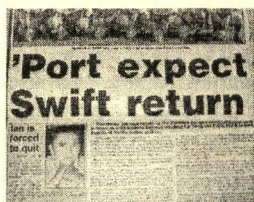

Forfar Albion 1 Tayport 5

"Reilly brightened up a dreich day in the 20th minute, when he rose majestically to head home a left flank Brian Craik cross following good work by Brian Harris "

Fife Herald(8/10/00)

Tayport 2 Dundee United 1

"...The stage was set now for a Tayport victory and the Tayside League champions did not flatter to deceive. With five minutes to go Graham Nicoll challenged for the ball which broke to Ronnie Kenneth, 25 yards out. The striker then produced a magical turn and shot which sailed over the helpless 'keeper to the great delight of the 'Port players and supporters alike"

St Andrews Citizen

-St Andrews Utd 4 Lochore 2 (7/10/00)

"...this brought the [Lochore] crime count to nine booked and two sent packing for the visitors. An excellent all round performance against a side that quite simply lost the plot when going down against a team that they just couldn't handle.."

Central Fife Times - St Andrews 4 Lochore 2 (7/10/00)

"Eccentric refereeing saw this game develop into something of a farce. The man in the middle must have had to buy a pencil after this one...."
