SAME REFEREE FOR TODAY'S GAME

This afternoon we welcome three officials from the Central Region to what we assume is their first visit to Fife's most northerly footballing outpost. Mr Muir from Garrowhill, Glasgow had charge of last week's game at Bathgate and although one of his assistants, Mr Ventre from East Kilbride, accompanies him to the Canniepairt, last week's other assistant, Mr Bashir, is unavailable and he is replaced by Mr Miller, also of East Kilbride.

ARCHIVE PHOTO circa 1980

not a football photo but the Tayport Branch Royal British Legion
Dominoes Team

There is, of course, a tenuous connection with TFC in that some of those in the photo also turned out for Tayport Amateur FC in days of yore. Back (l-r) Kenny 'Toast' Thomson (six pints & match fit was his battle cry), Rab Hosie, Jock Nelson, Stan Opala. Front - Alex Campbell, Alan Fyfe, Sid Burnett, Billy 'ma ba' Nelson, so called because in a 2nd XI match in the hungry 1960's, he said to the ref. after an indiscretion (probably for talking out of turn!) " you can't send me off, it's ma' ba' " The ref, not believing a word, dismissed the bold William, who promptly picked up his ball and went home leaving the ref. no alternative but to abandon the game. It was the only ball the club had. Finally Bruce Burnett, a striking legend for the Amateurs for 20 years who is no doubt at the game today.

Isn't it shocking the coverage given of Junior football by the so-called quality Sunday and Monday broadsheets? Attendances at last week's OVD games by far surpassed many Senior games and all rugby games yet not a mention in these newspapers. Surely attendance = interest, therefore interest should = coverage?

Ex- Tayport FC Mark Corcoran (right) in action for Linlithgow Rose v Bathgate in the teams' 2-2 draw earlier this season. Mark featured prominently in Rose's 2-1 over Shettleston last week to reach the OVD Semis.

LEAGUE CUP FINAL SCHEDULED FOR

TUESDAY 23 APRIL

The final of the DJ Laing League Cup between Tayport and North End has been fixed for Tuesday 23 April at Westfield Park, Carnoustie.

It's been a long haul since the competition kicked off in August and both sides likely to have changed a bit, personnel wise, since then. It's a pity the competition was unable to have been played out to a conclusion in September.

It's also a great pity that a Senior ground or at least a ground with lights was not available. Also, a ground more convenient to both clubs accessing for what is bound to be a very early kick-off. It's just unfortunate that the likes of Forfar wasn't available.

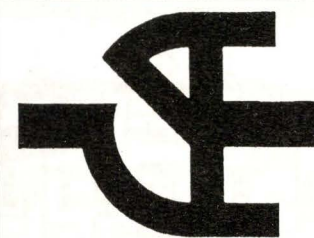

With extra time and penalty kicks to be budgeted for, a 6 o'clock or 6.30pm kick-off is likely with players and committee struggling to get to Carnoustie in good time. A dull, rainy night could well see an abandonment if extra time is required. Fingers crossed, though, that it's a bright, dry warm and sunny evening.

THE BAIKER'S BIT

Someone once described the OVD Scottish Cup as a marathon. I'm now understanding his reasoning. Today's quarter-final will be our ninth encounter this term which must be up there with record breakers. So, for the fourth time we entertain a side at Canniepairt having drawn away.

For me, last week's game was a typical Scottish tie which, for the spectators provided great entertainment but, for managers and coaches, total frustration.

I felt we started well and took the lead rather fortunately. But you take everything going, then, for the next 30 minutes or so, lost our way. We showed a lack of respect for Bathgate, we dropped our workrate, leading to them having too much possession, And we dropped our concentration, leading to poor marking for the first goal. There was too much indecision on too many occasions for my liking, one of which probably played a part in their second goal. If I was their manager I wouldn't have wanted the first half to end.

The interval allowed us all to take stock and hopefully right some wrongs. The second half was more productive for us and I felt a bit disappointed we did not take advantage of our supremacy.

Over the piece, I was disappointed the way we played because we have much more to offer, and much more we must produce if we are to overcome our opposition this afternoon.

As I said earlier, this is our ninth tie and surely we must realise by now that it is about how we are on the day. Complacency cannot be tolerated. Today's game is about CHARACTER, it's about individuals taking responsibility. The rewards are fantastic if we want it enough. I thoroughly believe if our workrate and attitude is total we can and will achieve our goal this afternoon.

Derek Wemyss (pictured) again proved to be Tayport's Scottish Cup hero on Saturday, notching the second half equaliser at Bathgate's Creamery Park, thus ensuring today's decisive replay.

'Port had taken an early lead through Barry McNaughton, his second goal of the Scottish Cup campaign, but the hosts, in keeping with their good run of form, would be ahead before half-time elapsed.

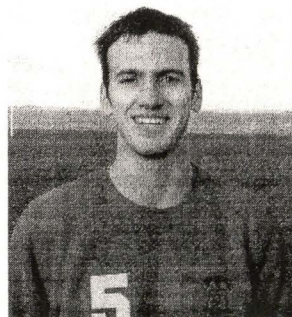

Ged O'Hara's 14th minute header went in off the post, then, shortly afterwards, Andy Roberts netted Thistle's second, after Frazer Fitzpatrick had blocked the player's initial header.

From then on it was a case of Tayport pressing for the equaliser and they were not without their chances. A few opportunities came and went, before Wemyss struck his 65th minute counter. The ball maybe didn't hit the back of the net, but it did cross the line for a goal the visitors undoubtedly deserved.

The 'Port support had a far more relaxing afternoon a fortnight ago, when Forfar West End visited the Canniepairt for a Concept Group Trophy quarter final tie.

Ace marksman Ronnie Kenneth scored a first half hat-trick, and with Scott Peters also netting, the game was won by half-time. There were few talking points after the interval, aside from a Davie Evans goal which took the tally to five.

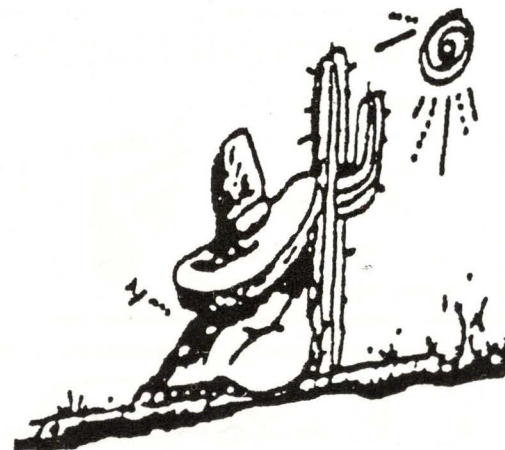

With a place in the semi-finals of an inter-regional cup already secured, 'Port will today bid to match that achievement on a national level, although Bathgate will certainly provide more stubborn opposition.

EAST SUPERLEAGUE 2001/2002 - THE STATE OF PLAY

|            |            |            |
|------------|------------|------------|
| CARNOUSTIE | LINLITHGOW | CROSSGATES |

| NORTH END  | BATHGATE   | OAKLEY UTD |
| BROUGHTY   | ARMADALE   |            |
|            | WHITBURN   |            |

Things are heating up as we move into the last eight weeks or so of the season, although, for some clubs, the season could extend into the middle of June. Take Hill of Beath for instance, only 9 league games played out of 28 in the best part of 8 months. Three teams in the Fife league have played exactly double that number.

That's not as bad as Auchinleck Talbot however. In the 7 team Ayrshire 1st division, where they play each other three times, they have played only 6 league games in 8 months.

Back to the East Superleague, though, and it's as you were on Tayside. North End, dropping three points at home to Kirrie, will hardly dent their hopes of a Superleague place but kind of scuppers any title aspirations they may have cherished. The win, however, may have rekindled the hopes of Kirrie who have games in hand. A win at home to Carnoustie today will put the Jags very much back in the running.

Tayside League boss Jock Myles will undoubtedly be unhappy to hear rumours circulating that several Tayside clubs will decline to join the Superleague should they finish in the top four. Lochee United are not one such club. The Bluebells are desperate for a Superleague place and the fact that it could be by default does not worry the Thomson Park management in the slightest. Probably in a similar frame of mind are Violet but they've slumped to the foot of the table and look to have left things too late.

In Fife, no change at the top but it will be the flurry of games at the end of the season that will decide, with the likes of Haws, Kelty and Glens confident that a late run will take them into the frame.

The existing East Region are concerned over constitutional changes planned for the new league set-up but, despite their rumblings, there seems little doubt that the SJFA will have its way. Bathgate, currently 3rd, look good bets to finish top five - a huge improvement on last season when relegation was avoided by a hairsbreadth. Linlithgow are certs and Whitburn will also be at short odds.

TODAY'S GAME

OVD SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP QUARTER FINAL
TAYPORT v BATHGATE THISTLE

Although this is Tayport's 7th OVD Cup quarter final appearance in the past 12 years, four of which have been at Tayport, this is the first replay to be staged at The Canniepairt. In this respect it must be the biggest game to be staged here to date.

Bathgate are bowling along on the crest of a wave, having now gone 13 games undefeated. Not since October have manager Willie Hill's men tasted defeat. Indeed you have to go back to September and a shock Fife & Lothians Cup defeat at Newburgh for their last defeat on the road. That's a measure of the task which faces 'Port this afternoon.

The experience in Thistle's line-up was a major factor in Bathgate's 1-0 win at Cumnock in the last round, and this was again evident in last week's game when experienced defenders Davie Smyth, Eddie Petrie and Paul Jack stood rock steady, particularly as Tayport forced the pace in the second half.

Bathgate's game plan is unlikely to vary much from that which paid dividends in Ayrshire, when a good team performance restricted their opponents so effectively that Cumnock were unable to create any clear cut chances. Striker Craig Finlay, who had three seasons at Hearts, was signed from Peterhead earlier this season to provide extra firepower and, along with top scorer Andy Roberts, will be the men manager Willie Hill will be looking to for goals.

Paul Jack and coach Peter Godfrey took in Tayport v Forfar West End two weeks ago and will have marked boss Hill's card. Godfrey, the ex-St Mirren defender, is no stranger to these parts having twice been here with Linlithgow Rose.

Manager Hill felt that his side underperformed last week and hinted that he will be making a few changes for today. Dave Baikie, too, could possibly make changes, with striker Colin McGlashan getting ever closer to fitness and Gareth Dailly available again after suspension.

It was an entertaining affair last week and the fans will be hoping for more of the same as the teams bid to join Linlithgow, Kilwinning Rangers and either Glenafton or Auchinleck in tomorrow's semi-final draw which will take place on Football First on STV and Grampian TV.

Today's game has, of course, to be played to a finish with extra time and penalty kicks if required.

SMIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOUT

How could they get it so wrong? STV's Football First managed to make a cock-up of three of the four scorers in last Saturday's tie. We had O'Hare instead of O'Hara, Robertson instead of Roberts and Waymiss instead of Wemyss. Speaking of getting names wrong, the News of the World had Scott Peters scoring our equaliser at Bathgate.

As we know today's game will be settled by penalty kicks if there's no decision over 90 or 120 minutes. That's what happened in the Scottish Amateur Cup 7th round replay between old adversaries of our amateur days, Leven's Norton House and Bannockburn last Saturday. 1-1 it finished but incredibly Norton won the shoot out 18-17 on penalties. What drama there must have been!

Snout hears that Tayport's sponsors for the tie at Bathgate were less than charmed by the actions of a Bathgate committee member after last week's game. The sponsors' party, which included two ladies, had sought shelter from the biting wind and sleet, in the spacious lounge at Creamery Park as they waited for the Tayport players to get changed. However, with a 'whit do you think this is, a hame frae hame?' the party was unceremoniously ejected and tramped the half mile or so to the warmth of the Masons' Arms where their annoyance was tempered by the fine spread which the publican had prepared.

What a disappointment! It's not often a stalker features in a Tayport match. When it does happen, it has to be a male stalker that resembled one of the Pinheads out of the Kamikaze Freak Show. The appearance of the aforementioned stalker at the same time as Birdie Craik was set to tuck away a goal during Saturday's second half can be the only explanation for the miss. Would Birdie have scored had it been a female stalker?

The tie against Bathgate brought back memories for a prominent 'Port punter. Snout has learned that the Tayport supporter, then but a footloose and fancy free man-about-town, was staying at the London Tara Hotel for the Wembley weekend in 1979 when he clicked with a young lass from Bathgate in town to see Cats and staying at the same hotel. On his return north, he looked her up and took her to a nightclub in Bo'ness the following weekend. So, if Ms. McIntyre reads this - you had a lucky escape, girl.

OVD TRIVIA

SOME THINGS YOU PROBABLY DIDN'T KNOW ABOUT
TAYPORT and THE OVD CUP 1990 to 2002

Attendances

The biggest is 6,500 for the 1993 final v Glenafton, while the smallest is 40 at the Chris Anderson Stadium in Aberdeen for a 2nd round tie against Lewis United in 1991

Appearances

61 players have pulled on a Tayport jersey since the club's first tie in 1990. Grant Paterson, with 73, has made most appearances. Next is Dave Reilly (now at North End) with 66. Five players including Dave Baikie twice, have appeared only as substitute and four players have made only one starting appearance. This afternoon is the club's 77th OVD game.

Goals

Dave Reilly, with 45 goals is the top marksman. Stevie Ross (now North End) (17) and Hamish Mackay (retired) (15) trail well behind. Of the current squad, Steven Stewart (6) leads Brian Craik (4). Grant Paterson is still looking for his first OVD goal.

Hat Tricks

Eight hat-tricks have been recorded, three of which came in the same game. Dave Reilly v Blackburn & Fochabers, Kenny Cameron (now Carnoustie) v Arniston Rangers & Fochabers, Mark Corcoran (now Linlithgow) v Fochabers, Hamish Mackay, famously, in the '93 semi v Auchinleck, & Cumbernauld United and Stevie Ross v Banchory.

Distance

Tie nearest home was at St Andrews United and furthest travelled were the ties at Glenafton and Fochabers

First out of the hat

Tayport were drawn at home on 16 successive occasions between 1994 and 1997.

Biggest Bump

On Baiker's head after he had celebrated a Hamish Mackay goal v Auchinleck in 1993 by crashing his head into the roof of the Firhill dugout!

Biggest Rip-off

The gate receipts at Loch Park Glenafton in 1992

Region most frequently played against

Central with 33 games, of which 4 were lost - Pollok (2), Cambuslang & Shotts
