THIS AFTERNOON'S GAME

FINDLAY & Co. CUP SEMI-FINAL

TAYPORT v DUNDEE NORTH END

As well as the fact that it's a semi-final tie, today's game holds extra interest in that opponents North End have more than a sprinkling of players and management with a Tayport FC connection. It's a situation which is sure to give the tie extra spice.

38 years old Dave Reilly, a legendary figure here at Canniepairt through his record number of goals for the club, is still weighing in with his quota of crucial strikes. If Dave is merely legendary then his strike partner at North End, Stevie Ross, could be a candidate for future canonisation as the memory of his two goals in the OVD final (and one in the final the following year) drift away with the mists of time! When will Tayside see the like again?

Still on that OVD win, cup winning skipper Sean Wilkie is back at The Canniepairt and he demonstrated in the recent Laing League Cup final that his passion for winning is as keen as ever. If ever a player wanted to put one over his former club, it was Sean that night.

Wing-back Barry Gardiner, sporting a new image following a make-over as he travelled the world, is as lively as ever and the Dokens' coaching staff takes on a distinctly 'Port hue in the shape of Paul Reilly and record breaking 'keeper Fraser Mann.

Tayport already have some silverware in the bag and a Concept Trophy Final to look forward to next Saturday but, for North End, the season can only be prolonged by a win here in the Findlay Cup this afternoon. A defeat will leave them trophyless with one league fixture remaining to complete an injury restricted season. The most recent of those injuries was a broken arm sustained by towering defender Chris Martin, who, ironically, had been brought in from the amateurs late in the season to provide injury cover. There will be a new face in the North End line-up, that of midfielder Bobby Hughes, a player with whom Tayport were credited with an interest at one time, and who was signed from Newburgh just before the deadline.

Work commitments permitting and recovery from an injury sustained on Monday, Tayport could have Scott Flynn in to face his former teammates for the first time since moving from North End Park in March. Incidentally, apart from keepers Frazer Fitzpatrick and Duncan Bruce, Scott is the only player still waiting to find an opponents' net this season. Frazer was doing his best to end that spell on Monday evening when he appeared from the gloom to add weight to the team's scoring efforts in the closing minutes of the league game with Forfar West End. All to no avail of course.

This afternoon's game is to be played to a finish with extra time and penalties if required.

SUPERLEAGUE ... May 16

This week's Pyramid News editorial

Ayrshire clubs met this week and resisted the temptation to vote with their feet against the decision of WEST REGION's steering group not to give them local autonomy for their new District league and cups. This could help to calm a growing crisis in the EAST... where WHITBURN have declared their intention not to accept the promotion they have earned. Neither revolt will affect the setting up of new regions.... all it may do is bugger up the East Superleague numbers game and lead to resolutions to expell or discipline offending clubs. That could quickly lead to some leaving the junior system. This is sad, because in both cases, the proof of the pudding is in the eating.... it's just like getting your youngsters to eat their lettuce. But... like stubborn children.. these clubs do not want to know that this diet is likely to be good for them. They prefer to stick their heads in the proverbial sand and pretend that chips and gravy is best.... The problems arising from these situations are numerical and philosophical.

NUMBERS GAME.....

As things stand, with PENICUIK returning to the East district Div 2, the numbers are - Super 12, Tay Prem 10, Tay 1st 10, Fife 12, East 1st 10, East 2nd 11. If this is an isolated case, their may be room for a compromise for one year which gave an extra place to FIFE, provided FOUR East clubs go up. Then Fife, East 1st and East 2nd would all be 11 clubs, 20 league games. Tayside already has a plethora of competions to fill their small gap. In the West, the threat of three Ayrshire clubs not taking up places in Super premier division (the second level) has been averted. It would have been covered by simply adding more Central sides. If, however, the problem in EAST widens to a serious degree, then it may not be possible to simply make up the numbers from other East, Fife and Tayside clubs. That would mean a tiny minority are defying the vast bulk of junior football and THAT problem must be addressed.

BETTER RULES NEEDED....

This problem stems directly from the opposition of certain clubs to the changes approved at last year's AGM.... and the fact that a silly rule is allowing them to hold everyone else to ransom.

Ayrshire's problem can easily be satisfied by keeping their bank account and committee meetings.... which nobody has the power to prevent.... whilst they work in the new region to get things improved... over a period of time. They have formed a committee and invited local MP Brian Donohoe to get involved. Meanwhile, EAST's problem can be satisfied even more simply.... just try the new set-up for a year. If it doesn't work... we'll all be under pressure to hold our hands up and look at other options... within the rules... at AGM 2003.

TAYSIDE refused to attend the last regional meeting because they are 100% behind the new system and want it to take effect as per AGM ruling. Even so, a proposal from Bonnybridge that the new constitution be thrown out was defeated by a 17-16 majority. There was also a narrow majority for retaining £3 and £1 entry (as stupid as that), instead of £4 and £2 for Superleague. This shows that the dissenters CANNOT POSSIBLY WIN A VOTE in the new region. The vast majority in East, Fife and Tayside support change... as they do in the WEST.... and in the NORTH. In this situation, it is no good pussy footing around the problem.

At the end of the day, there are only TWO roads that can be gone down. One is where ALL clubs accept the AGM decision.... join the new regions and accept (and contribute to) new systems being laid down for their benefit as well as everybody else's.... and talk about any changes that may ne needed. Two is where "wreckers" take a hike.... found their own "Brigadoon league" (maybe the Welfare FA will take them) and let the rest get on with the REAL PROBLEM of improving the game. The first step should be to get rid of any possibility of opt-out without serious sanction demotion to the lowest league... exile from the major cups. In the case of entire regions on strike..... they must be expelled. There are 165 clubs in the juniors. We are in danger of losing only a half dozen who are any good.... and they won't be much good outside. Secretary, Allen Bryce, has said " the region lost an AGM vote and have to get on with things"... The sensible Junior majority needs to BACK HIM UP. Most of these clubs will then back down...

THE SCOTTISH WEEKLY

Big Bobo Ward gets mobbed by Wemyss, Fitzpatrick (what's he doing there?!) and Gunnion after netting the winner v Carnoustie last Saturday

A woman brought a very limp parrot into a veterinary surgery. As she laid her pet on the table, the vet pulled out his stethoscope and listened to the bird's chest. After a moment or two, the vet shook his head sadly and said "I'm sorry but Polly has passed away". The distressed owner wailed, "Are you sure? I mean, you haven't done any testing on him or anything. He might just be in a coma or something".

The vet rolled his eyes, shrugged, turned and left the room returning a few moments later with a beautiful black labrador. As the bird's owner looked on in amazement, the dog stood on its hind legs, put his front paws on the examination table and sniffed the dead parrot from top to bottom. He then looked at the vet, shook his head and barked.

The vet fussed the dog, took it out and returned in a few moments with a cat who jumped up and also sniffed the bird on the table from end to end. It then jumped off the table and left the room.

The vet looked at the woman and said, "I'm sorry, but like I said, your parrot is dead" He then turned to his computer terminal, hit a few keys, produced a bill and handed it to the woman. The parrot's owner took the bill and looked at it. "£150!" she cried. "Just to tell me my bird is dead?! that's ridiculous!" The vet shrugged, "If you'd taken my word for it the bill would only have been £20, but, what with the Lab report, and the Cat scan.....

CRUNCH GAMES NEXT WEEK FOR ALL INVOLVED

Just as last Monday's league game on the Canniepairt was of crucial importance for our opponents, so too is this Monday's. Downfield need to win to escape having to play-off for a place in next season's Premier Division. A draw for the Spiders secures their Premier place. In that scenario, our game at Bankfoot on Wednesday comes into the same category with the Bankies then having to take something from the game to avoid the play-off spot at the expense of Kirrie whose programme is finished.

THE BAIKER'S BIT

Good afternoon to our fans and may I also wish a warm welcome to the players and officials of our visitors today, Dundee North End, for this Findlay & Co Cup semi-final.

This afternoon's game may be the last chance for our visitors to gain some silverware this term and, with five former Tayport heroes in their ranks, they'll want and demand a performance of their teammates. But we know this. We also realise that if we don't better their attitude and commitment, we'll struggle.

We go into this encounter having played two midweek games while, like our opposition last Saturday and Monday night, they rest and prepare. I'm not complaining, though. I'm sure our opponents would much prefer to be in our position. It would, however, be terrific to get back on the training ground to work on some areas I feel need attention, but I don't think that will happen.

Two weeks ago was our last issue of the 'Port Prog. We've managed to play six games in twelve days without defeat with wins over Jeanfield Swifts, Arbroath SC, Arbroath Vics, Carnoustie and Dundee Violet with one draw against Forfar West End.

Looking back over this period, my thoughts are that we've made excellent advances, considering the demands made of our players, to reach two semi-finals and to continue to make inroads on the present leaders' seemingly unassailable lead in the league. I felt we thoroughly deserved to win all six encounters.

We all felt let down on Monday past, with the drawn game against Forfar West End, but, considering all aspects, it was always going to be a difficult fixture. I felt conditions on the night most definitely played a part. In fact twenty minutes from time up, the referee should really have halted the game to allow miners' helmets to be handed out and we could have issued ones with high intensity beams for the officials, maybe then justice would have prevailed!

Today we have the opportunity to reach another semi-final, I believe, as I'm sure our players do, that we are capable of achieving this but we all need reminding that "the only place where success comes before work, is in a dictionary." So I say to our players, produce the workrate to make it happen.

Support The Port,

Dave Baikie

TAYPORT FOOTBALL CLUB SEASON 2001 - 2002

REVIEW

by Dunmore

Today's Findlay & Co. semi-final will be Tayport's seventh match in a hectic fortnight, with the quest for the NCR Tayside championship being the main focus of attention.

The three league fixtures have, of course, yielded seven points. Colin McGlashan's hat-trick brightened up the trip to Arbroath SC's Seaton Park (6/5), with Gareth Dailly also on the scoresheet.

'Port's biggest domestic match of the season took place last Saturday, when Tayside's top two met at Westfield Park. The Gowfers managed to open the scoring, thus piling the pressure on their visitors, who responded in magnificent fashion. Derek Wemyss headed an 80th minute equaliser, which, in itself, would have deprived Panmure of their title party. There was still drama to come, though. In the final minute of the contest, the champions moved firmly into the driving seat, when John Ward powered in to head home the winner, from a Steven Stewart cross.

Unfortunately Tayport did not have much time to enjoy the victory, which lost some of its gloss on Monday evening. Two points were dropped at home to Forfar West End, in a tale of two penalties. Ross Kiddie netted for West End and John Ward confidently converted his kick, levelling the scores. Try as they might, the Canniepairt men would not force another dramatic comeback, but remain very much in title contention.

Two Findlay & Co. Cup-ties have also taken place. A Davie Evans treble helped account for Jeanfield Swifts two weeks ago. Ronnie Kenneth and John Ward also contributed, taking the tally to five without reply.

A rare trip to Arbroath Vics (8/5) produced a solid 4-0 triumph. Evans, Craik, Kenneth & McGlashan netted a goal apiece, setting up today's North End encounter.

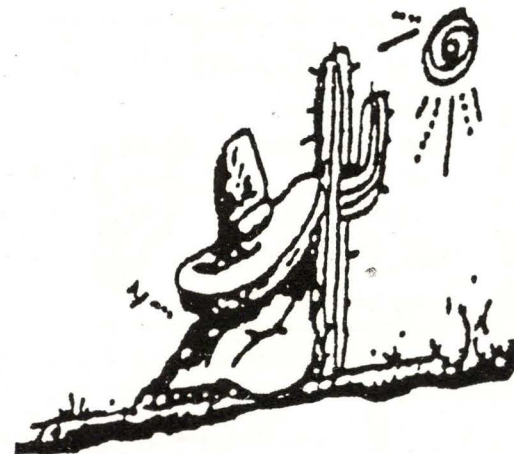

Most recently, Superleague bound Dundee Violet visited the Canniepairt for a North End Challenge Cup-tie (15/5). For the third successive match, 'Port fell behind, with another spot kick doing the damage. The immense John Ward further enhanced his goalscoring reputation to put Tayport back on level terms, and Barry McNaughton delivered the confidence-boosting winner, ensuring Tayport retain an interest in four competitions with one trophy already secured.

Nothing to do with football but, as Scott & Fyfe are our sponsors, I suppose there is a tenuous connection. It's a photo of young and old from Tayport Spinning Mill embarking on an away day by coach c. 1967. Too many names to list but all either were, or still are, familiar faces in the town. The six smooth operators in front are (from left) Jim Cook, Jimmy Frizzell, Tom Scott, Francis Connor, Charlie Symington and Ronnie 'the bear' Fraser. How many can you name?

FANS' FAVOURITE / GOAL OF THE SEASON VOTING

Voting is currently taking place for the annual awards. Get your form from the secretary now. All votes have to be cast by Saturday 25th May.

THE UNKNOWN FINAL

The Unknown Final is how tomorrow's OVD Cup Final has been dubbed on the internet. There's no doubt that Sunday's Scottish Junior FA showpiece between Linlithgow and Auchinleck at Firhill has been greatly overshadowed by the Champions League Final, Scotland's dismal showing in the Far East and the imminent World Cup. That probably explains why it's been off the footie pages of the nationals during this week.

There has been criticism over lack of advertising and publicity compared with, for example, the Scottish Claymores playing at Hampden Park at the same time on Sunday. Although it's being televised, the TV company's enthusiasm for the event seems to be lukewarm and there are unlikely to be too many neutrals attracted to the game.

The crowd, however, is likely to be as good as it's been for many a year as both Talbot and Rose are well supported and from communities which can readily identify with their teams.

Linlithgow are favourites but Auchinleck have dug in to get where they are and could just spring a surprise to lift the cup for a record seventh time, their most recent being exactly ten years ago. Rose's only win was in 1965.

The Final is live on Grampian TV tomorrow at 2.35pm. Kick-off 2.45pm

Dundee Schoolboys Under-15's beat their Fife counterparts 3-0 in a Scottish Schools Cup, third round tie at the Dundee University playing grounds at Riverside on Saturday.

Goals from Edmonds, McNaughton and Bollan saw the Dundee side through to meet Lanarkshire in the semi-finals.

ENGLAND 4 SCOTLAND 2

ENGLAND defeated Scotland by four goals to two in the annual international football match played at Al Ahli.

The English quickly got into gear and raced into a three-goal lead, with goals from Mick Cantwell, Rob Busst and Les Wardle after only twenty minutes played.

With some of the Scots in the crowd sensing a mauling at the hands of the "Auld Enemy" the "Boys in Blue" managed to keep the English forwards at bay to go in at half time without conceding any more goals.

The second half started much the same as the first only it was Scotland who were in the driving seat, spurred on by Bahrain import John McCann they pulled a goal back through Stuart Davie, with a shot from outside the box.

With the English coming under increasing pressure they somehow managed to string a good move together for Simon Lever to score a crucial fourth goal for England.

However, the Scots came back again when Stuart Davie scored his second goal of the game with a lob over the goalkeeper's head.

THE SUPER LEAGUE

Speculation still abounds after reports that Whitburn have decided to exert their option of not stepping up to the Superleague. Linlithgow Rose are reported to be making a statement after the OVD Cup final tomorrow. There have been rumours that they might be contemplating a move to the East of Scotland League and even bidding to take Airdrieonians' place in the Bell's Scottish League. Time is running out, though, with final decision day four weeks today at the SJFA annual general meeting in Perth.

It must be said, however, that the continuing silence from the SJFA isn't helping the situation. One would have hoped, for example, that a template for dates for the season's league fixtures might have been put on the table by now and that details of sponsorship might have been announced. Such information would go a long way to whet the appetite of clubs and fans alike.

Tayside's quartet is now decided. Following West End's failure to secure full points, Violet's late run has been rewarded with fourth spot.

In Fife, Hill of Beath have raced up the league and secured their place. The other two places are still in the balance but a shock midweek defeat for Glenrothes at second bottom Steelend has put their place in real jeopardy. Their forthcoming games v Hill of Beath derby rivals Thornton should be games to savour. Indeed Thornton's run-in couldn't be tougher, with Haws and Kelty their other opponents. However the ball's in their court. It's very tight with Lochore, Kelty and Oakley bring the total to five of clubs still in the hunt for the two places.

Bonnyrigg and Bathgate join Linlithgow and Edinburgh United will join them also, unless Bo'ness beat Whitburn by 4 clear goals on Wednesday next. Bo'ness look likely to take advantage of Whitburn's decision, with Arniston Rangers also waiting in the wings.

Edinburgh boss Jimmy McLaughlan this week slammed the clubs reported to be having second thoughts. He said "some of the clubs are talking about the financial implications but, if a club like Edinburgh, who are run on a shoestring, can take part, so can others. "Junior football needs change and I believe this is the right way forward"

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

It's still Big Jock but it's Fat Jock no more. We've not had too many visits from Tayside Secretary Jock Myles, who tries to look in on all grounds during a season but, on a recent visit to Canniepairt, 'Port supporters will have noticed a significant change in the big man - he's five stones lighter! Starting his diet last September, he's more than halfway to his target of losing nine stones. No secrets, he says, just cut his previous meal portions in half and has cut out beer. Here's hoping he makes his target

Derek Ritchie, Fife Herald scribe for Tayport's matches, has been paying attention to what he's been watching these past few seasons! A teacher at Bell Baxter HS, Derek looks after the school's under 15s football team and last week they lifted the Fife Schools' Cup for their age group. Faced with favourites, Kirkcaldy HS in the final at Warout Stadium, Derek pulled a couple of tactical masterstrokes which nullified the opposition's strengths to help his team record a 2-0 win.

In the Non-League Programme of the Year survey, which takes in Highland, East of and South of Scotland Leagues as well as all the Junior leagues, 'Port Prog was placed first in the Scottish section pushing East of Scotland League side Edinburgh City and Forres Thistle into 2nd and 3rd places respectively. Nationally, the competition is somewhat fiercer, with the likes of the Nationwide Conference clubs in competition but Tayport came in 170th of 1,039 programmes surveyed.

If you've not got a ticket yet for the Club's Dinner on Sunday 2nd June (the Jubilee holiday weekend) in the Invercarse Hotel, better be quick. Tom Borland's the man to see tel 553249. Promises to be a great night

Good to see a number of former players taking in the midweek games. Among those attending during the week were Hamish Mackay and Mark Spalding. Mark had his twin daughters in tow. They insisted on returning on Wednesday, having been fascinated by the spider they found in the ladies loo wash hand basins on Monday!

Association secretary Jock Myles was heard to praise Tayport for never moaning about their current heavy fixture schedule which, he said, was a marked contrast to the hassle he had received from a club last season.
