TODAY'S GAME

NCR TAYSIDE LEAGUE PREMIER DIVISION
TAYPORT v ARBROATH SC

Games between Arbroath Sporting Club and Tayport are generally closely fought affairs and, despite the clubs' respective league placings, this afternoon's contest is unlikely to be any different.

Arbroath are in the midst of probably their their poorest season for over a decade and surprise has been expressed at their lowly league position. Light appeared at the end of the tunnel last Saturday, however, when SC recorded their first league win of the campaign, a 2-1 home success over Dundee Violet.

It's a result which will give Arthur Walker's side great heart for the fight to climb clear of a play-off spot. [The bottom two clubs in this season's Premier Division play off against the two sides finishing third and fourth in Division One to see which clubs take their place at Tayside's top table next season.]

It will not have escaped Tayport's notice, either, that Arbroath, despite holding up the table, have only failed to score twice in league games and, although losing all their games on the road, have never been what you might say, thumped. Tayport's home league record is not the best. Only nine goals scored in five contests and three wins out of five is not the fare to which the 'Port support are accustomed.

Arbroath are without the experienced Gavin Norrie through injury while Tayport will likely be without Scott Peters, Allan Ramsay and Steven Stewart. Steven missed out last week after failing a late fitness test and is unlikely to be sufficiently recovered to make the starting line-up today.

Ronnie Kenneth and Colin McGlashan seem set for the striking roles although there could be a place for Davie Evans, if it's decided to play three up front. Derek Wemyss is available again after his two game suspension ruled him out of the Pollok ties.

Bomber Harris has moved to Dundee Violet whilst work commitments mean that Andy Lawson has also left the club.

This afternoon's referee is Jeff Banks from Perth and he will be assisted by Chic Nicoll and John Hayman from Montrose.

TODAY'S VISITORS

ARBROATH SPORTING CLUB

IAN GREIG returns to the Canniepairt today for the first time since his transfer back to Arbroath SC at the start of the season. Greigy came here in 1997 and returned to Seaton Park four years later with a clutch of medals. Indeed, apart from a Scottish Cup gong, he's probably got the full set.

Ian, too will be very disappointed with the form of SC this season, but one thing's guaranteed, there will be no more determined player on the park this afternoon.

There have been a number of additions to the Arbroath SC pool this season, with a number of players having been recruited, several from the local Arbroath amateur ranks.

Keeper CRAIG MARTIN, though, arrived from Violet where he had been understudy to Bryan Brown. Experienced central defender GORDON SMITH is back at Seaton Park after being at Forfar West End then in amateur football with Arbroath HSFPs. Also recruited from the FPs is young left back ALASTAIR WYLIE, whose father Dave is a weel kent face in Arbroath amateur footballing circles.

One of the two SC goalscorers last week against Violet was CALUM RAE. Calum missed out most of last season through being at College in Edinburgh but has elected to travel back for games this year. Another addition to the pool is SCOTT PEARSON who was signed from Arbroath Amateurs.

Long serving defenders BARRY WILL and former Downfield man BRIAN MACKIE are still the mainstays of the visitors' defence while in midfield a key player as ever will be the elegant KEVIN BURNS who knows how to take a goal.

GARY HAMILTON, returned from Broughty, and ex-Lochee United man WAYNE FERGUSON will likely fill midfield roles this afternoon. Another ex-Lochee man, ROSS KENNY, who netted the other SC goal last week against Violet, and former Arbroath FC signing DAVID BUTLER, along with Rae will provide the main goal threat. KEVIN MCGUCKIN and veteran standby 'keeper IAN BOARDLEY complete the SC pool

Euphoric scenes at the Canniepairt

TAYPORT..... 2 POLLOK..... 0

Tayport roared into the fifth round of the OVD Scottish Junior Cup, by virtue of a brave replay win against Glasgow cracks, Pollok, who had so often proved to be the Canniepairt side's cup nemesis. Barry McNaughton notched the critical opener, but it was the scorer of the second goal who, perhaps, stole the show.

After being out of action for five long months, Ronnie Kenneth made a heroic return to the line-up on Saturday, having lost none of his incredibly prolific goalscoring form. Partnering Kenneth up front was the club's latest signing, Colin McGlashan, who made his junior debut, following nearly 20 years in the senior ranks.

It was Brian Craik, though, who was first to threaten. Allan Ramsay's excellent pass found Gareth Dailly, wide on the left. Craik was unfortunate not to be able to make true contact with the winger's cross.

There were, however, few chances in the first half, with much of the contest being confined to the midfield area, and several combatants receiving cautions. Pollok's best chances were a Drew McWilliams strike, which flew over the top, and an opening for dangerman Phil Cannie, who was thwarted by the alert Frazer Fitzpatrick.

Ten minutes into the second half, Cannie again came close, sending a free kick narrowly wide, after Joe Bryers had been fouled on the edge of the box, by Barry McNaughton.

Ironically, Tayport took the lead moments later, when Pollok defender Alan Dickson was short with a header back to his goalkeeper, and McNaughton quickly latched onto the mistake, before supplying the supreme finish, which induced vastly contrasting emotions within the two rival elements of the 600-strong crowd.

Shortly afterwards, Danny Hanley was again beaten, when Ronnie Kenneth provided evidence of his prowess, by acrobatically netting a McNaughton knockdown, but the assistant referee's offside flag cruelly halted the striker's exuberant celebrations.

This blow only served to increase Kenneth's determination, though, and the fairy-tale comeback was completed in the 71st minute. Gareth Dailly's long throw was flicked on by Brian Craik, and Kenneth's outstretched boot guided the ball into the far corner of the net, to send his team into the last 16 of the competition, and the 'Port support into a state of near-euphoria.

Saturday's match was Ronnie Kenneth's first, since scoring against Bankfoot in the curtain-raiser to the new season, way back in August. Now with two goals to his credit in this campaign, the irrepressible forward has a tally of 60, in less than 50 games, in Tayport colours.

Pollok, for their part, were never allowed to find their rhythm, due to the tenacious spirit of the Tayport players, typified by the willingness of several key men, such as Grant Paterson, Scott Peters and Allan Ramsay, to play through the pain barrier, in pursuit of a previously elusive victory against their Newlandsfield counterparts.

Tayport: Fitzpatrick, Gunnion, Paterson, Ward, Peters, Craik, Ramsay (Fisher), McNaughton, Kenneth (Evans), McGlashan, Dailly.

Pollok: Hanley, O'Neil, Fabiani, Dickson (Elliot), Pacitti, Aitchison, Bryers, M. McWilliams (Gibson), D. McWilliams, McNeil, Cannie (Madden).

In the fifth round of the OVD Scottish Junior Cup, Tayport have been drawn away, to holders Renfrew, with that potentially tough tie due to be played on Saturday, February 9.

This weekend, attention must be focused on the quest for league points, as Arbroath SC visit the Canniepairt for an NCR Premier Division fixture. Kick-off 2.00 pm. The following Saturday, February 2, 'Port will play host to Luncarty, in the inter-regional Concept Group Trophy. Please 'phone the newswire, 552755, for up-to-date details.

THE BAIKER'S BIT

Our victory last weekend was particularly pleasing for me, as it was a case of third time lucky against Pollok.

In my first season we lost out in the fifth round and then of course in my last season before I disappeared to Arbroath we again lost out in the Scottish Cup final, so as you can imagine I took great pleasure from what I felt was a deserved 2-0 win.

As I mentioned in this piece prior to the game a mistake by either side on the day could prove costly, it happened, a poor pass back, a great finish 1-0 to us, from that moment on I felt we took a tremendous lift from that and for the last forty minutes or so of the game our workrate was terrific and we kept our discipline well under difficult conditions.

The win has given us an opportunity to face last season's Scottish Cup winners, Renfrew, not an easy draw to say the least, but what a challenge for our players.

Firstly we must concentrate our thoughts and efforts on this afternoon and our opposition Arbroath SC. who arrive with confidence on the back of their first league win last weekend over Dundee Violet.

I cannot stress enough the importance of this game today, not only for the three points we can gain, I know from experience that indifferent attitudes and complacency can be the order of the day following a good Scottish Cup performance. We cannot allow this to occur this afternoon.

REVIEW

by Dunmore

Tayport go into today's league match in buoyant mood, following last weekend's excellent 2-0 Scottish Cup defeat of Pollok.

Despite several injury problems, 'Port proved to be the more resilient of the two teams, and they also seemed to possess a greater sense of belief than their Central League counterparts.

The news that the team's already potent attack would be boosted by the inclusion of fit again Ronnie Kenneth, as well as new signing Colin McGlashan (pictured), must have contributed significantly to the confidence within the Tayport ranks.

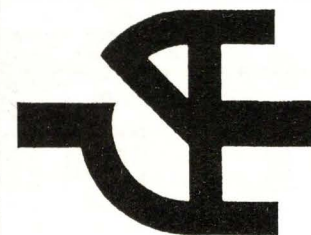

Given the importance of this fourth round replay, it came as no real surprise that the sides went in goalless at the end of a tense first half.

The match really came to life, though, on 55 minutes when Barry McNaughton anticipated a weak back header, raced on to the ball and calmly sent his effort beyond 'Lok keeper Danny Hanley.

While there was plenty time remaining, one sensed that the Newlands-field outfit would not claw themselves back into the contest, and Ronnie Kenneth who'd had an earlier 'goal' chalked off, capped a fine afternoon, by netting the 71st minute clincher.

Following the months on the sidelines, it was fitting that Kenneth, who played such an immense role in Tayport's successes of last season, should once again add his name to the scoresheet

OFF THE INTERNET

Phew.....the vitriol was dripping off the keyboards of the Pollok p.c.s last weekend. It all started with reports which ripped into Tayport.

Some extracts from John McCafferty's match report on PollokNet - ...again I thought the referee was very weak as Tayport were allowed to get away with some terrible tackles...Pollok can have no complaints about the result.....Tayport had good players in Gareth Dailly, Brian Craik and the excellent Grant Paterson who never put a foot wrong in the two games. However they have a couple of thugs as well (step forward John Ward and Scott Peters) and if they come up against a strong referee I can see them being reduced to 9 or 10 men.....still I wish them well in the next round against Renfrew.

Now Jamie Wire - The Fife ref was abysmal....Having seen Tayport twice, I can only conclude that they are where they are by bruising the opposition out of the way. Their thugs will come undone against a decent team. We are where we are because we're feart to do the same thing in reply.....nice set-up though at Tayport.

Then Wire again - They're a very physical team this year under Blaikie (sic). 3 or 4 guys that don't play football at all, Ward and Peters are two of them. The dirtiest non-football team I've seen. But they have some cracking players as well - McNaughton, Dailly and Paterson. They are very hard to play against and fast going forward. It ain't pretty though, but maybe effective.

Then more from McCaffery - Apart from Paterson, Dailly, McNaughton and Craik the rest of the team are poor. Tayport are also the dirtiest team I have seen this season. They got away with some terrible tackles today by a referee that was pure p and a coward and should go and hang himself and do the world a favour. The fullback Peters is a shaved gorilla and one of the most thuggish, least talented players I have ever saw (sic)....as well as a sickening challenge from Kenneth that could have broken a leg.

Unfortunately such comment is picked up by all who access the site and then we get responses on the Renfrew site which say.....A hard draw....Seemingly Tayport were a disgrace on Saturday against 'Lok... see notes in 'Lok forum...They (Tayport) will use every dirty trick in the book, just hope for a good ref....

OFF THE INTERNET

And.... Yeah I read that too. The term "thugs" was used to describe some of the Tayport players....let's hope our ball players do get some protection from the match officials on the day.

And another...for Mick's dossier (the Renfrew manager Mick Dunlop), a 'Lok fan tells me that not only were Tayport a very physical and uncompromising outfit, they were also one of the tallest teams about. Apparently very strong defensively but not too much to offer up front.

Then a chappie from Cambuslang in response to Mr Wire.....deffo not what they were last year.....they played a lot of good football against us and certainly gave us a lot of problems. They could have beaten us but at 1-1 and the game looking like extra time, we scored from a set piece in the last minute. If they have turned to physical stuff, then it's a shame cos they were quite impressive last year.

Then Wire again on Monday...I think 'Lok fans were surprised about how they played. I was asking about them before the first tie and everyone was eulogising about how they were such a good football team but we got kicked off the park in both games.. It's sad when teams resort to such tactics especially them as they really do have some good players hidden amongst the hackers.

Then from a Mr Davison, a more hinged view....I wasn't at Tayport on Saturday but saw the first game at Pollok and it may be that Jamie (Wire) has let his disappointment result in his being unfair on Tayport. They played hard but fair at Newlandsfield and when I saw them last season, Tayport came across as anything but a dirty team. Renfrew will play hard when Tayport come to Western Park but I can't imagine the game getting out of hand.

But back comes Mr Wire in reponse....I'm always even handed about any team. And I wouldn't call the incident where Dailly nuttered Kev O'Neil in the balls in the first game, hard but fair. Or Stewart's tackle on one of our players that went unpunished. I think the physical side of their game was more in evidence on Saturday and not for one moment have I suggested that Pollok were cheated out of the result. We (Pollok) were s*.

Also on Jamie'site was a comment from a Mr Tennant, a Glenafton fan. His side lost 0-1 and he was having a go at the referee Mr McKendrick from

OFF THE INTERNET

Troon...I have to say that you were shocking, John ...Why didn't you book... Why did you let... away with time wastingetc etc (there was more) No doubt you will have the smart answers, but the fact is, John, you were shocking....by the way I'm the guy who came up to you and said you were shocking to your face at the end...

To ref John's credit, he did come on-line and gave some justification for his decisions.

So, what can we draw from this week's on-line jousting? Certainly that there's more than a hint of sourness about the grapes down Pollok way. There's also a distinct rosy hue about the optical aids in the west. But the fact is that, despite more level headed comments also appearing, unfortunately - and worrying - the old cliches about mud sticking and giving dogs a bad name spring readily to mind.

And who's been reading it all? ref John. And who's down to referee Renfrew v Tayport.? That's right John McKendrick from Troon!

EAST SUPERLEAGUE 2001/2002 - THE STATE OF PLAY

CARNOUSTIE	LINLITHGOW	LOCHORE
TAYPORT	WHITBURN	CROSSGATES
NORTH END	EDINBURGH	ST ANDREWS
BROUGHTY	N'TONGRANGE
	BO'NESS UTD

Again no real change in TAYSIDE. Carnoustie edged past North End and merely confirmed that their place in the Superleague is more or less assured. With the chasing pack all dropping points regularly, North End's prospects were hardly damaged by their 0-1 defeat. Broughty dropped another three points, that's 24 now, and opened up the opportunity for any of the other teams in the league to take a place if they can put together a run

In FIFE, St Andrews bounced back into the picture in some style by beating Hill of Beath 3-2 at St Andrews, a result which underlines the task facing Tayport on the 23rd February when they go to Recreation Park in the Redwood Leisure Trophy. For Hill of Beath - and others - it's perhaps a warning that 3 points in the bag is better than having 3 in hand.

In the East, a point against Haddington was sufficient to move Edinburgh United back into the top five at the expense of Armadale.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

Of the Tayport fans who were delighted with their side's win over Pollok, none was happier than Jimmy Abernethy who was celebrating his 48th birthday last Saturday. 'Best birthday present a man can ask for', Jimmy exclaimed. Such were his celebrations that he failed to make work on Monday AND Tuesday!

Although former ballboy Danny Oswald, jetting in from Guadalajara just in time for the Pollok replay, was the furthest travelled Tayport fan for last Saturday's replay, Willie Henderson's son Philip had so enjoyed the first game in Glasgow, he made the lengthy trip from Lochgoil to Tayport especially to take in the replay - and he wasn't disappointed. See you at Renfrew, Philip.

Tayport fans will have noticed coach Dave Nicoll doing the spongebag duties during both Pollok matches. What's wrong with Norrie, I hear you ask. Well, Norrie's indisposed having recently undergone a cartilage operation. If he's not back on the park today, he should be back soon.

The Renfrew secretary, Ricky Cantwell, was on the phone to our secretary during the week and he happened to mention that he had an uncle who had once stayed in Tayport. Had our secretary known him? The secretary had remembered him. Indeed he was able to recall that forty years ago his uncle was on the secretary's paper round from Arthur Black's (a Daily Record) and that his uncle had driven for Williamson's and had driven his school bus! It's a small world right enough!

Spare a thought for Bankfoot's Mike Jarmuzwski. Mike broke a leg playing for Bankies against Forfar West End at Strathmore Park back in September in the League Cup and made his return to action last Saturday. By coincidence his return was.....against Forfar WE at Strathmore Park. What happened? Poor Mike broke the leg again and spent the night in the P.R.I.. We wish him a speedy recovery. Next time don't make your return at Forfar against West End!

The League Cup Final between ourselves and North End is likely to be played at Glenesk Park on a Saturday yet to be decided.
