TODAY'S GAME

NCR NORTH / TAYSIDE CUP QUARTER FINAL

TAYPORT v LOCHEE UNITED

This will be the fourth meeting of the clubs in this competition. Each of the previous encounters has been decided by the odd goal and who would bet against this afternoon's encounter deviating from that pattern?

1990/91 Lochee United 2 Tayport 1

1991/92 Tayport 2 Lochee United 1

1999/00 Tayport 1 Lochee United 0

The Bluebells arrive here on the back of a 7-1 Findlay Cup thumping of Harp in the Lochee derby last Saturday, so confidence will be high. They started that match in blistering fashion and were two goals up inside the opening couple of minutes.

Among the goals were ex Port players Jackie Devine and Kenny Cameron, two players whose performances here in the past have brought cheer to the local support. Two other combatants today, Jackie Thomson and John Ward, have also turned out in the colours of both clubs.

United have not disguised their ambition to play Super League football and the Thomson Park committee has put their faith in manager Eddie Wolecki and his backroom team to deliver the goods. There is little doubt that Eddie, who was a coach at Arbroath under Dave Baikie, will see today's game as a measure of how his team building plans have progressed.

Ross Kiddie, signed from Forfar West End at the start of this season, has rewarded Wolecki's judgement with a barrowload of goals already. Another shrewd acquisition this term has been Iain Macleod who, along with Cameron, was prominent in Carnoustie's run to the final of the OVD Scottish Junior Cup in 2001.

Tayport will find the free scoring Lochee side a stiff test in advance of next week's OVD tie at Cumnock. Lochee, of course, played down at Cumnock earlier this season and performed creditably before going down 2-0 in a third round tie.

Dave Baikie has been mixing his pool in recent games and it's likely that he will continue with that policy this afternoon. Ross Gunnion and Grant Buist missed out last week through injury and Ralph Hunter also missed out, having just returned from holiday. Mark Craib made his first start since being injured in October and will be anxious to stake a claim for a regular spot.

Today's tie has to be played to a finish with extra time and penalties if required.

FOUR FIGURE ATTENDANCE ANTICIPATED AT CUMNOCK NEXT WEEK

Cumnock v Tayport in the quarter finals of the OVD Scottish Junior Cup next Saturday has been billed as the match of the day and, according to reports from the south west, an attendance of up to 1,500 is a possibility.

Cumnock's odds have been cut to 8/1 with William Hill's after a lot of cash had flooded on to the Ayrshire club to win the Cup, including a three figure bet placed at 10/1. Tayport are now out to 7/2 with Hill's with Linlithgow now favourites at 3/1.

Cumnock surprisingly went down 4-2 at Shettleston last week in the West of Scotland Cup, but the feeling is they had an eye on the big one next week.

Apart from an opening day league cup defeat by local rivals Auchinleck, Cumnock have lost only once at Townhead Park in seven months and a glance at the statistics elsewhere in the programme confirms that they have done consistently well in the OVD Cup over the last ten years although they have never progressed beyond the quarter finals during this period.

This is the fourth meeting of the sides in the Scottish Cup. Tayport won 2-0 at Tayport in a third round tie in 1991/92, 4-1 for Tayport at Cumnock in the fourth round in 1992/93 and it was 2-1 for Tayport in the fourth round at Townhead Park in 1997/98.

Kick-off next week is at 2.30pm. Brief highlights of the four quarter finals will be screened on Scotsport on Sunday afternoon.

A quick look at the other quarter finals.

Arthurlie v Bo'ness. Another big attendance at Dunterlie for the visit of dark horses Bo'ness whose window signings have given their chances a boost. The Barrhead side cruised home at Bonnyrigg and will be daunting opponents on their own midden.

Linlithgow see their name on the cup again and memories of last May will see the attendance against Beith boosted in anticipation of another march to the final. However although Beith cannot be underestimated anything other than a home win would be a major upset.

Maryhill v Kilbirnie is almost too close to call but Hill manager Neil Watt is a clever operator and he could just steal a march over his counterpart George Walker whose side was far from impressive in seeing off the challenge of Rob Roy in the last round.

MATCH REVIEW

by DUNMORE

With the much anticipated Scottish Cup clash versus Cumnock looming large on the horizon, Tayport today entertain Lochee United in the NCR Trophy and will be looking to go one better than the twenty game unbeaten run which preceded the club's last triumphant visit to Townhead Park, in 1997/98.

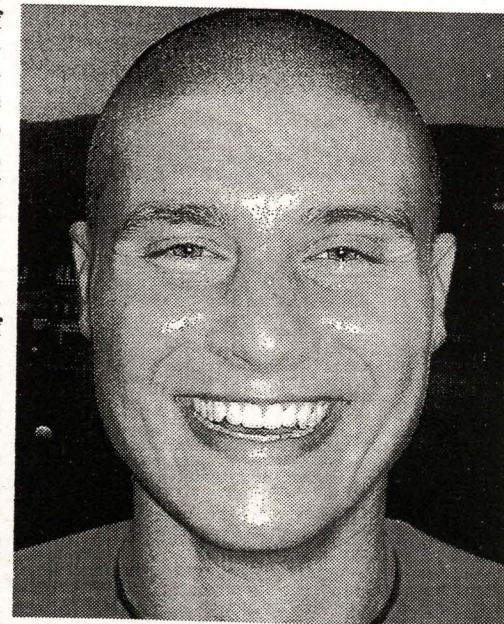

This season's run extended to a score of matches courtesy of last Saturday's win against Rosyth Recreation in the Fife and Tayside Redwood Leisure Cup.

'Port were ahead inside a minute, through the irrepressible John Ward, with Davie Evans doubling the lead around the quarter-hour mark.

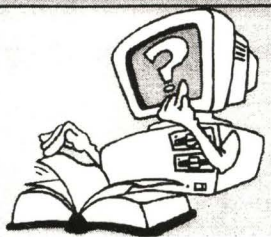

Despite the gulf in quality between the sides, there would be no further goals during the first half as the early strikes seemed to dull Tayport's killer instincts.

There was a similar story after the interval. Scott Peters and Brian Craik had both netted by the 65th minute, giving the home team a more than comfortable advantage. Little else of note occurred in the remainder of the encounter, other than the sending off of yet another opposing player, when Gareth Hall saw red for an off the ball incident.

This latest dismissal, like so many of the others, was borne out of sheer frustration. It is not, however, because opponents have been ordered off that Tayport are winning games so convincingly. On the contrary, it is because Tayport have been dominating matches that opponents have been ordered off. Long may 'Port's fine football continue.

John Ward.....irrepressible

ANY QUESTIONS ?

your questions answered and pub arguments settled. Just tell, hand or phone your query to a committee member and Ann Oraque will try to find the answer

Q. Can you settle an argument? When Carnoustie lost the 2001 OVD Cup Final to Renfrew on penalties, had Kenny Cameron scored with his kick, would Panmure have won the cup? - Pub bet

A. Yes

Q. In last week's Port Prog there was a photo of a 1949/50 team which included George Cockburn. Am I correct in saying that two subsequent generations of Cockburns have played with the club? - Port Exile

A. Yes. George's son Gary played for the amateurs in the late 70s and early 80s and grandson Scott played for the Amateurs in the early 00s. Scott, incidentally, recently became engaged to our former chief pie seller Cara who looked after the catering at the Canniepairt during our OVD Cup winning era.. Congratulations.

Q. My grandad told me that Tayport were once led through the town by a piper after winning a cup. When was that? - William

A. That would likely have been in 1964 after Tayport Amateurs had beaten Grays United 1-0 to win the Carne Trophy. The team had travelled by train and on their return to Tayport Station were piped off the train. However details are a bit sketchy and perhaps someone can shed some further light on this occasion almost 40 years ago.

LEGENDS

The description 'legendary' is often overplayed but what are the criteria for being deemed a Legend? According to the dictionary it is 'a person having a special place in public esteem because of striking qualities or deeds, real or fictitious'. Which players match these criteria is what we need to know in order that a gallery of Tayport FC legends can be created in the clubhouse from photographs held by the club.

If you have an opinion as to who should come into the 'Legend' category - and why - contact the secretary or let a club official know and that player will be considered for legendary status.

The Strongest Clubs in the OVD feature elsewhere in the programme was plagiarised from Superleague News and contains an error. The pointages in the end column for the top three are correct but it should be in order Kilwinning 58, Tayport 56 and Arthurlie 55.

THE BAIKER'S BIT

Lochee United provide our opposition for this NCR quarter final tie. I'd like to welcome both their players and officials to Tayport. May I also welcome our fans this afternoon.

I have many fond memories of my time as a player with Lochee United. Signing in 1977 and playing 'til the summer of '84. These seven years were for me the most enjoyable of my playing days and, because of these times, Lochee's result is the one I always look out for. In recent times an added reason I like to see them do well is because Tom Macmillan & Co made a wise decision in appointing my former youth coach at Arbroath, Eddie Wolecki, for whom I have the utmost respect, as manager. Eddie's brought in a number of very good and experienced players and staff to the club this season. That, coupled with his dedication and ambition, means that Lochee can't help but go in the correct direction. I must say, however, that I sincerely hope that they have a setback or two on the way. Today would be an excellent time to start.

Last week saw us advance to the Redwood Leisure Trophy quarter final stage with a 4-0 victory over Rosyth Recreation. Although I'm happy to be in the next round, I must say I was a bit disappointed with our performance on the day.

Maybe it was a case of doing enough to win the game but I was left short changed by a number of performances which is not acceptable. We expect to produce a certain standard of workrate and quality. We have people who pay to watch and enjoy Tayport Football Club and I don't think we gave them that.

We played below our standard last week and won the game comfortably. This week we can't produce the same and expect to succeed because it won't happen. I know and our players must realise and expect nothing other than a very difficult afternoon but I genuinely believe if our attitude and workrate is correct, we can and will succeed.

Support The Port,

Dave Baikie

TAYPORT IN THE FIFE CUP

PART 4

1973/74 saw Tayport Amateurs' interest in the Fife Cup extend beyond Christmas for the first time and on 19th January 1974 one of the best attendances for a number of years was attracted to the visit of one of Fife's top amateur sides, Star Hearts, to the East Common in round 3. The improved form was maintained when Tayport forced a 0-0 draw. Making his last appearance for the first team was the veteran wing half Maurice Flynn, who was listed as substitute. Tayport's team was Phil Callandar; Ian Mathers, Graham McLaren, Ronnie Fleming, Frank Leslie; Lindsay Ancell, Jim Scott: Stewart Ritchie, Ian Howe, Raymond White, Doug Henderson; Abby Oswald, Maurice Flynn.

Two weeks later Tayport travelled to Star of Markinch for the replay but made their exit from the Cup, going down 2-1. Only change was Brian Burchell for Flynn. White scored the goal.

The following season, the club's impact on the competition was sustained with a six game run, only coming to an end in the 4th round on 15 March 1975, beaten 1-0 at home by Star Hearts who eight weeks later would lift the Scottish Amateur Cup.

The first round 'Port were held 1-1 at home by the quaintly named Boglily Bluebell from the Kirkcaldy League but triumphed 3-1 in the replay, Gordon Hughes hitting two goals and Ian Howe the other. Stuart Davie, a current regular at Canniepairt, made a scoring debut in the 2nd round, a 5-0 home win over Kirkcaldy YMCA. Also making cup debuts were the late George Taylor and current Dundee Contract Services gaffer Peter Wilson.

The 3rd round draw paired Tayport with local rivals Cupar Hearts at Duffus Park where Keith Ritchie became another scoring debutant in a 2-2 draw. In a tense affair on East Common, a Spider McLaren goal gave Tayport a 1-0 win.

Then came the defeat by Star Hearts to dash the cup hopes for another season. Still, there was another visit to Belgium to look forward to in 4 weeks time. The team that went down to Star was : Phil Callandar; George Taylor, Peter Wilson, Ian Mathers, Frank Feechan; Doug Henderson, Jim Scott, Dave Henderson (Ian Rae); Frank Leslie, Ian Howe, Gordon Hughes; Abby Oswald.

MEDIA WATCH

After all the hoo-hah emanating from south of the Forth last season on reconstruction and the general reticence to join the Super League, it's refreshing to note the change of heart from the Lothians - if last Friday's Edinburgh Evening News is anything to go by. The main article on the Junior page was an interview with Sauchie boss Willie Irvine prior to his side's win at Whitburn which took them to the top of the table. The article contained comments such as 'much coveted spot among next season's elite Junior clubs' and quoted Willie as saying "A place in the Super League is a great prize because it has proved to be great for the game, and we, like most clubs, want to be there".

In Friday's Evening Telegraph, the Blether with Brown page's leading article was on Tayport FC - amateurs and juniors - supported by a photograph from the 1981/82 season.

Saturday's Courier continues to give good coverage to the Super League. Carnoustie boss Tom Van Der Ham reckoned the Gowfers' game v Edinburgh was a must win affair, so he'd be disappointed after a 1-1 draw. Not so Jock Finlayson. Jock reckoned that, "with Tayport otherwise engaged, it was a good chance to close the gap on them". Jock got his wishes with a 2-1 win at Glenrothes.

Monday's Courier (Fife edition) covered the Fife District League clubs and led with "It's all going sour for Kelty", pointing out that in losing their last three successive games they had crashed out of the three major cups - Scottish, Fife/Tayside and, on Saturday, the Fife and Lothians Cup after losing to Armadale on penalties. Rosyth's chances at Tayport hadn't been helped by the resignation of their manager on Friday night but secretary Charlie Crawford remarked "The gulf in quality was there for all to see".

In Monday's Sun reporter Scott Campbell covered the Bathgate Bonnyrigg 0-0 Super League draw with both managers commenting on the fact that a draw was of little use to either side. Rose's Pat Glynn said it would be a very tall order to try and catch Tayport and Thistle's Willie Hill agreed saying that he didn't really see anyone catching Tayport. [That's not what Haws' Jock Finlayson will be saying, however!]

The Edinburgh Evening News had its usual comprehensive Junior page on Monday with reports and line-ups for eleven junior games. North End v Linlithgow was covered with the reporter criticising ref Colin Brown for 'a string of poor refereeing decisions.' This time he was a Fife ref.. However, when he refed Tayport v Bathgate he was described in the News as a 'Dundee ref'. The reporter also bemoaned the fact that sent off striker Sinclair would miss Rose's OVD quarter final tie.

Rules and Instructions.

1.—Players must at all times keep themselves in fit and proper condition, and must turn up to play and train at the times notified.

2.—Players are always subject to the special instructions of the Trainer. From the date of training, players whose time is wholly engaged by the Club, must attend at the Ground for training at 10 a.m. each day, and in the afternoons when specially required, unless excused by the Trainer.

3.—Players engaged in business during the day must attend training on Tuesday and Thursday evenings (or oftener if required), as early as possible, unless excused by the Trainer.

4.—Players must not attend Dance Halls after Monday evening, except with special permission of the Trainer.

5.—The Club Doctor is Dr. A. R. Wood, "Ravenswood," Garstang Road, Preston, who can be seen at the above address from 8-30 a.m. to 9-30 a.m.; 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. and 6 p.m. to 7 p.m. In cases of illness or accident, players must consult the Club Doctor exclusively.

6.—Players getting minor injuries are expected to report such to the Trainer immediately, and, if necessary, may be required to attend the Ground for treatment on Sunday or Monday.

7.—Training shall mean all work desired by the Trainer, also all instructional work on the field of play or elsewhere as desired by the Coach appointed. It is a special instruction to all players to faithfully carry out all ball practice, &c., required by the Coach.

8.—Players will be provided with the necessary outfits for playing and training (such outfits to be the property of the Club, and not to be taken away, except with the consent, in writing, of the Trainer). Match jerseys must not be used for training purposes. Players must see that their boots are in proper condition, and if requiring attention, immediately report same to Trainers.

9.—Players will not be allowed to bring friends into the Home Dressing Room either during practice or on match days under any circumstances whatever. The Trainer has strict instructions and is held responsible for carrying out this Rule.

10.—On match days all players must report to the Trainer in charge forty-five minutes before time of kick-off, and be at the 11.—All communications and complaints must be made direct to the Trainer.

Changes of address should be immediately notified to the Secretary.

12.—Players must not attend any Greyhound Racing Track on the evening prior to any match day.

13.—Smoking is strictly prohibited during training hours, and on the outward journeys for away matches.

14.—All notices relating to training and matches will be posted in the Dressing Room, and players must accept this intimation.

15.—The use of motor cycles, or motor cycles with sidecar, by players is strictly prohibited. Players riding as passengers in motor cars for the purpose of pleasure are instructed to take the utmost care. Any injury sustained thereby will release the Club of all responsibility regarding payment of wages during period of unfitness.

16.—Players are not permitted to take part in matches or any other form of football competition, other than those organized by this club without first obtaining the sanction of the Board.

17.—RECREATION ROOM. The attention of all Players is called to the care of this room, and offenders will be dealt with accordingly for any damage that may be caused.

18.—The Player agrees that he will not without the written permission of the Club grant interviews to nor write articles for or disseminate any information (acquired in the course of his employment by the Club) to newspapers or other publications nor take part in television or radio programmes.

19.—As the Trainers are held responsible for the carrying out of these Rules, they must report any breach of same.

20.—Any infringement of the foregoing bye-laws and breaches of discipline will be met by suspension of all wages for a period according to the gravity of the case.

21.—These rules and instructions are subject to any alterations the Directors may from time to time deem necessary, and due notice of any such alterations will be announced upon the Players' Notice Board.

Station twenty minutes before the train's departure and report to the Trainer in charge.

All players who have not been selected to play in any team must be at the ground on match days forty-five minutes before time of kick-off and report to the Trainer in charge.

22.—On the field of play it must be distinctly understood that the Captain is in absolute command, and his orders must be obeyed.

Players are reminded that the decisions of the Referee are final and that at no time should these decisions be questioned in an unseemly manner. Players should at all times act in a gentlemanly manner on the field and endeavour to observe the spirit of the Laws of the game.

23.—No players, other than those selected will travel with the team without permission. No player must leave the team and officials without special permission, during a journey unless arrangements to do so have been obtained prior to the completion of the travelling arrangements.

Players are not allowed to take anyone in the saloon without the permission of the official in charge.

This week, nothing to do with Tayport FC but an insight into the regime under which a professional footballer played almost 40 years ago. Ron Selway played in 65/66 under manager Jimmy Milne at Preston North End in the English Division 2 and reproduced here are the Players' Rules. Changed days indeed. [thanks to Ron]

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

The club's inaugural Sportsman's Brunch on Sunday past seemed to be voted a success by all those present. The speakers, Gwyn Rees, Dave Nicoll, Dr Tom Dymock and MC Lindsay Wood were excellent and the question and answer session with Dave Baikie also went down well. General consensus was that the brunch itself could maybe have been more substantial but the organisers have acknowledged that. Being the first of its kind, there was always going to be some areas which would require to be polished up for next time round.

There was a rammy at Dalry when the home side beat Muirkirk 3-2 in a top of the table Ayrshire League match two weeks ago. According to reports one of the Muirkirk players was attacked by a fan as he left the field and their dressing room door was kicked. Muirkirk boss Bill Whiteford said "It's sour grapes if we complain so we won't"

How can you tell there's a Community Council meeting on in the Town Chambers on a Monday evening? There's sure to be a car parked on the bus box outside.

According to a report on the net, the entire Bellshill Athletic committee has resigned after a bust-up with their 'sugar daddy'.

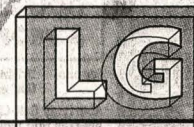

In 1990/91 Lochee United manager Eddie Wolecki was a star stiker with St Josephs in the Tayside Division two and he holds a record that will probably never be beaten. Joeys scored 62 goals in 34 games, including 11 in one game, that season and Eddie notched 49 of them, his teammates managing only 13 between them.

With all the home games we've had since the turn of the year, we hope the pitch hasn't suffered too much damage. After all, the new season's Car Boot Sales are scheduled to recommence at the Canniepiart on Sunday 13th April!

Derek Sinclair, who was sent off playing for Linlithgow Rose at North End Park last Saturday is the son of Dundee FC legend Eric Sinclair. Sinky junior was with Camelon before taking off to Australia for a year but rather than go back to the Mariners, he chose Rose on his return.
