TODAY'S GAME

OVD SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP 2nd ROUND

TAYPORT v COUPAR ANGUS

It's quite a historic occasion this afternoon, as it's the first ever competitive meeting between the two clubs. For thirteen seasons the teams have been avoiding each other.

The season Tayport were promoted, Coupar were relegated so there was never the opportunity for a league meeting and the sides have never been drawn together in a cup tie until today.

Apart from the luck of the draw, one of the reasons for lack of competition between the clubs has been Coupar's tendency to be eliminated at the early stages of most competitions in the interim.

We had to be drawn together sometime, however. Amazingly in 13 seasons of both being in the hat along with another 22 clubs in umpteen local competitions, we come out together when there are 128 clubs in the hat!

On paper the respective pedigrees are a mile apart but Coupar are a fairly settled team whose results suggest they are not far from putting in a promotion challenge. A heavy defeat by Hill of Beath in a recent Redwood Leisure cup tie was a blow but this experience will not have been lost on the Coupar management and we are bound to find the Foxhall club well organised and determined opponents this afternoon.

It's highly unlikely that the Coupar management team will be asking their troops to adopt a cavalier approach to this afternoon's game. It will certainly raise a few eyebrows if they do. It is likely that the game plan will be based on a sound defensive strategy and looking to hit on the break, taking full advantage of breakaways and free kick situations.

Tayport have been short of a few from the pool for several weeks through injury and Roberto Morris' suspension, and this situation has restricted the manager's selection options. Last week, for example, there were basically only a dozen or so fit players.

Long termers Derek Wemyss and Mark Craib are still out, of course, and Gareth Dailly is unlikely to be risked but Davie Evans should be ok this week and Ralph Hunter is getting ever closer to getting back into action. Ralph hasn't kicked a ball in anger since coming off at half-time in the opening game of the season. No wonder the Tayport physio room has been dubbed 'the Ralph Hunter Suite' by his cruel teammates.

Three 'Port Players in North/Tayside Squad for SJFA Trial Match

The SJFA have released the squads for the North/Tayside Select v the East/West Select trial match to be played at North End Park, Dundee on Sunday 17th November. Kick-off 2pm.

Tayport, with three players, have the biggest representation in the North/Tayside squad, while Linlithgow with four players dominate the East/West selection. The East have already played West in a trial game and this squad has been selected following that game.

The trials are in preparation for selecting a side to represent Scotland in next Spring's quadrangular international tournament

TODAY'S VISITORS

COUPAR ANGUS

Founded in 1935, Coupar Angus Juniors halcyon period came shortly afterwards in the 1938/39 season when they carried all before them in the Angus Junior League. It was a success story not to be repeated to this day.

Another event never likely to be repeated was the attendance that season for the league decider against Kirrie Thistle when 4,000 fans squeezed into Foxhall Park. It's still the same Foxhall Park today but it's hard to imagine a 4,000 crowd ever being repeated.

Coupar's most famous ex-player is Dundee FC, Spurs and Scotland legend Alan Gilzean, although Rangers keeper George Niven was another product of Foxhall Park.

Today the squad assembled by Dundee based management team of Derek Grier and Bob Brankin has been recruited, in the main, from the amateur ranks.

There will be a couple of familiar faces to Port fans, though. Strapping defender Billy McGregor played with Kirrie and another defenceman, Paul Jamieson, joined from North End. Keeper Jamie Clark played on the Canniepairt last season when he put up the shutters for Downfield in a league game.

Paul Cooney, one of the two Cooney brothers in the Coupar squad, had an eventful match against Lochee United earlier this season, missing a penalty kick then later being ordered off.

One of the best results of the season for Coupar to date was the Redwood Leisure Cup defeat of current Tayside Premier League leaders Broughty Athletic. Fancied Athletic went down 2-1 at Foxhall to goals from Neil Fleming and Andy Weir. Tayport should note that the PA reported 'this was no fluke'.

A visit to another Premier side, Kirrie Thistle, earlier this season saw Coupar force a creditable 2-2 draw in a league cup tie thanks to goals from Dave Cooney and Paul Jamieson.

Coupar's league season opened with a 1-2 defeat by strong going Scone Thistle but they got off the mark in their second fixture, beating Lochee Harp by 3-1 at Foxhall last Saturday when Paul Blackwood netted a double.

THE BAIKER'S BIT

Good afternoon to our fans and a warm welcome to our visitors Coupar Angus for this second round Scottish Cup-tie.

A good performance this afternoon can hopefully provide us with the beginning of another Scottish Cup adventure. I don't know how many games we've played in the competition over our twelve years existence as a junior club but I'm quite certain we'll have been involved in more ties than any other club in Scotland.

Last season's ten match excursion was, for me, more than I expected but, when we lost out at the semi-final stage, it hurt. I felt rightly, or wrongly, we were still a year or two away from being the finished article, but on the night, I thought that our opponents were more than fortunate. They received a massive boost when we lost Derek Wemyss prior to the game and the decision not to allow Ronnie Kenneth's goal in the first half, was yet another stroke of fortune for the eventual cup winners. Maybe it was, as some people have said to me, that their name was on the cup. Still, as far as I'm concerned, the ten Scottish Cup encounters must have given our younger players experience and the taste for more of the same.

I felt that we deserved our victory last week. Although our opposition must be congratulated on their total commitment, especially in the first half when they left us, on numerous occasions, second to the ball. However, I did feel their commitment turned to aggression which in turn contributed to their demise.

We didn't match their workrate in that first 45 minutes and got what we deserved - nothing. But we improved in that department after the break and were, for me, the better side and proceeded to win with an accomplished and disciplined 3-0 victory.

As I mentioned previously, we have an opportunity to advance in this competition. Our opponents come to Tayport with nothing to lose and everything to gain. But I believe with the right attitude, we can and will be in the hat for the next round.

Dave Baikie

MATCH REVIEW

by

DUNMORE

Tayport this afternoon play their fourth successive home match with the previous three seeing them progress in two inter-regional cup competitions, as well as collect three valuable league points, scoring a total of fifteen goals in the process.

Last weekend was the NCR North and Tayside Trophy second round tie against Sunnybank. Injury hit 'Port eventually triumphed by three goals to nil, helped in no small measure, by the Aberdeen outfit's somewhat physical approach, which saw them reduced to nine men with half an hour to play.

Goalless at this stage, it came as no surprise that the Canniepairt men went on to record a victory with top scorer, Brian Craik again emerging as his team's hero, notching a brace of headers from left wing crosses, taking his season's tally to an impressive ten.

Scoring his first of the campaign was Ross Gunnion, who took full advantage of the air of dejection within the Sunnybank ranks, to volley home a cracking goal, for the highlight of a drier afternoon.

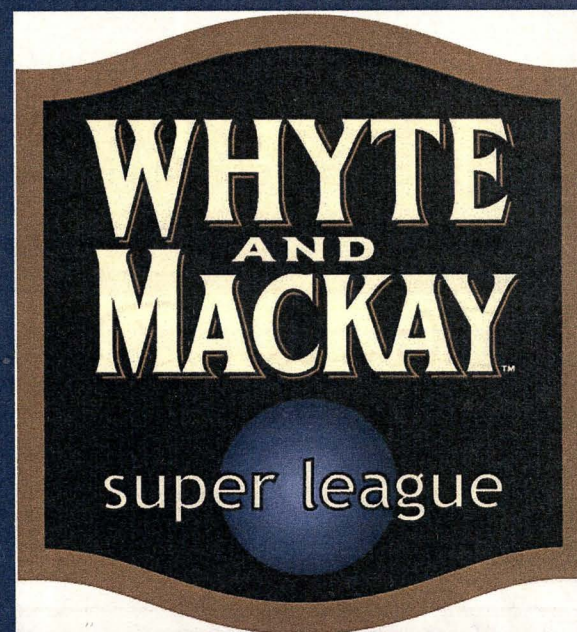

It is unfortunate then, that the encounter will be remembered more for the number of cards amassed, especially for the visitors, who would obviously have been better served by a full compliment of players.

MATCHDAY HOSPITALITY AT THE CANNIEPAIRT

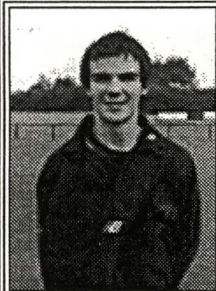

Last week at the Sunnybank game, a group of a dozen or so Tayport FC former player of the amateur era, all current members of the Tayport FC Veterans' XI, enjoyed the club's matchday hospitality. By all accounts they had a good day and were quickly into reminiscent mode.

This week enjoying Scottish Junior Cup day hospitality are parties from BRE Limited and EP Engineering. Included in the BRE party will be former Tayport FC match secretary Davie Ayre who confessed that he took a bit of persuading before accepting the invitation as his pre-match routine was usually a bit more mundane.

MEDIA WATCH

It may be the current standing of St Johnstone but the Junior coverage for Perthshire clubs in the Perthshire Advertiser is pretty extensive these days. It publishes twice a week, with blow by blow match accounts on Tuesdays and on Friday, a pre-view of Saturday's games. Last Tuesday saw an entire page devoted to the Juniors. What it lacks, though, is a photo or two.

Also last Tuesday, the Glasgow Evening Times gave a full page build up to the Central Beaton's Coaches League Cup final between John Brogan's East Kilbride Thistle and Tommy Coyne's Bellshill Athletic being played that evening. Thistle upset the odds by the way, winning 2-0.

Monday's Evening Telegraph made a big play of Tayside's domination of the NCR North/Tayside Cup, devoting the lead story to Tayport's match and illustrating the article with an action shot from the game of Ross Gunnion challenging Sunnybank's Gary Clark.

The Edinburgh Evening News on Monday led with the well attended Arniston v Haddington Heineken Cup-tie illustrated with a good action shot from photographer Pamela Grigg. The page was completed by another sixteen match reports - all with line-ups.

COUPAR ANGUS IN THE SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP

It's not exactly a glorious record, indeed one has got to look back to 1997 for the Foxhall Park team's last goal in the competition. That was in a 6-1 thumping from Whitburn. Since then they have lost seven, five and four goals twice.

Two wins in 15 years hasn't given the Foxhall faithful much to shout about as the club failed to progress past the second round during that period. Their recent record is as follows

1988/89 Coupar 1 Thornton 4	1995/96 Whitlets 6 Coupar 2
1989/90 Troon 2 Coupar 1	1996/97 Beith 6 Coupar 1

Postscript to 'Archive' article in Port Prog No. 6 (v.Violet). Port fan Tom Bryson tells us that the 'unknown' in the back row of the 1938 photo was Jock Laing, a local policeman's son. Thanks, Tom, just as well we've still got some folk around that can remember that far back!

A...B...C... a Tayport Football Club A -Z

Fourth of a series to be continued in forthcoming programmes.

L is for Lunches. Well before the advent of the Juniors and in advance of the second storey being added to the current pavilion, the committee would meet at the pavilion on Saturday morning to prepare for the game. Rather than pop home it became the habit to have a bite of lunch and, with one of the committee something of a culinary expert, this eventually extended to excellent three course lunches cooked on an old electric cooker situated in what is now the referee's room. Unfortunately one day something went wrong with the soup and it turned out lumpy. Being short of the normal kitchen utensils, there was no strainer to hand but our lads have always been innovative and one of the match socks was put to good use. It worked a treat. Indeed one of the players who had arrived early for the game unknowingly sampled the strained soup and declared it to be the best he had tasted. Little did he know it had been his sock that had been used!

M is for MIDLANDS AMATEURS. For fifty four years, from 1947 to 2001 Tayport FC graced the Midlands Amateur Football Association, the area's premier amateur football organisation. Like every club, Tayport had its ups and downs, but win or lose, there are generations of men who have fond memories of their days playing for Tayport in the Midlands, in particular the friendships they forged and the trips to play away games.

Unlike their Junior successors, the amateurs didn't pick up too many honours. For many seasons in the fifties and sixties the team struggled in the nether regions of the league but from the seventies on, became a club to be respected and provided many players for the Association's representative team and picked up some silverware.

N is for NETS. Playing with goalnets in the amateur game in Dundee and district is a relatively. Not so many years ago nets in the amateur game were reserved for cup finals and the like.

When nets were a luxury, Tayport Amateurs used old fishing nets for goal nets on an occasional basis when, for example, a 'big' club came visiting the East Common in a North of Tay Cup tie. However from 1968 nets became standard equipment for Tayport in every game and eventually the club's proposal that all first team games be played with nets was adopted as a rule by the Midlands Association.

At Tayport, an assortment of nets, of various colours and designs, have been used over the years, culminating in the current style adopted three seasons ago

SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP TEN YEARS AGO

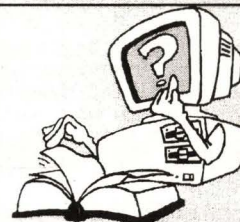

31st OCTOBER 1992

Tayport opened their 1992/93 OVD Scottish Cup campaign with a crushing 7-1 first round win over Cumbernauld United on the Canniepairt.

Tayport lined up Fraser Mann, Paul Reilly, Grant Paterson, Mark Spalding, Andy Sommerville, Kevin Lynch, Jimmy Hunter, Billy Coventry, Hamish Mackay, Dave Reilly and Jackie Devine. Gary Lamont and Bomber Harris were substitutes. 3-0 up at half time, 'Port netted through Hamish Mackay (3), Dave Reilly (2), Devine and Lamont. Ian Valentine got the United goal.

The Fife Herald said that 'The Fifers outplayed the visitors in all departments and the ever impressive Hamish Mackay grabbed the headlines again with another well taken hat-trick'

The Cumbernauld News and Chronicle described United as a team which was 'outplayed, outthought and tootily overrun.' It went on to describe Tayport as 'a fine side, the best United have played against for a long time. They could go further than last season when they reached the quarter finals' The scribe was correct, of course, Tayport went to the final, losing 1-0 to Glenafton Athletic.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOUT

Gareth Dailly's absence last week and probably this week too, can be explained by the fact that he's had laser treatment to his eyes which will allow him to throw away his contact lenses. It was an expensive operation but his recent jackpot win in the club's Super Six lottery has looked after the bill. You too can be a jackpot winner. There's £1,600 to be won this week.

Bellshill's home win over Shettleston could have been their last at Brandopn Park. They are set to groundshare until their new stadium is built. It's quite possible they could be sharing with a Senior club, with Clyde, Airdrie and Hamilton Accies all in their neighbourhood and all having been mentioned in despatches.

The Canniepairt had its biggest crowd of the season to date with a near four figure attendance for the town's Guy Fawkes bonfire and firework display on Tuesday evening. A great effort by the committee and helpers to build an excellent bonfire and put on a polished and professional firework display enjoyed by young and old alike.

Lyll Murdoch, the association president, has, in a shock move, resigned his post as secretary of Dundee Violet, hard on the heels of the Pansies' defeat here two weeks ago. After a tenure of 17 years, it was bound to be a wrench to leave but the reasons for the resignation weren't given. Don't expect The Sun to run an exclusive, though. Lyall wasn't long without a club, however, taking over as secretary at ambitious Broughty Athletic earlier this week. A number of former Violet personnel are at Whitton Park, including manager Andy Heggie, so it's maybe no great surprise. Mind you, other rumours in the city had him going to North End and Downfield.

Strathspey Thistle from Grantown-on-Spey, who play in the North Juniors Scotscup League lost their 25 unbeaten run which has stretched since February when they went down 3-1 to Carnoustie last Saturday. They are reputed to have shelled out a bit of cash to build their current side and observers at Westfield rated them a fair side. Included in their side were two members of the famous Inverness Caley side which turned over Celtic a couple of years ago - keeper Jim Calder and Mike Noble.

The men from the north considered themselves hard done by, reckoning a couple of dodgy decisions by referee Hornby cost them the match. They know how to do things in style, however, travelling down Friday and staying in a Dundee Travel Inn overnight.Baiker, don't even think about it!!

Inter Regional Competitions Progress Report

Teams from Fife shone on 19th October in the first round of the

Redwood Leisure (Fife/Tayside) Cup

In summary - nine Fife teams and six Tayside teams progressed to round two with one tie yet to be decided. No real shocks with Glenrothes winning the tie of the round in their "Super League" clash with Dundee North End. Oakley's narrow one goal victory over Blairgowrie ensured the other top league representatives all progressed to round two. The draw for the next round will not take place until the New Year. Second round results were:

Arbroath Sporting Club	0 - 2	St Andrews United
Bankfoot Athletic	0 - 6	Kirriemuir Thistle
Crossgates Primrose	1 - 0	Downfield
Dundonald Bluebell	7 - 0	Forfar Albion

Kinnoull	0 - 4	Kelty Hearts
Tayport	7 - 0	Kirkcaldy YMCA
Tulliallan Thistle	1 - 4	Camoustie Panmure

On 2nd November the balance of power moved to Tayside following the second round of the

with eleven Tayside representatives progressing to round three accompanied by only four North teams. Tie of the round was at the Canniepairt with a repeat of last year's final and a 3-0 win for the 'Port. Montrose enjoyed an excellent victory against Formartine. Similar to the Redwood Trophy the NCR Cup now goes "on ice" until 2003. Second round results were:
