OVD SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP

Fourth Round Draw

Ties to be played on Saturday 17th January 2004

The Fourth Round draw for the OVD Scottish Junior Cup took place on Tuesday past in the offices of the Evening Times in Glasgow at 7.30am. With two ties outstanding from the third round, in the hat went fourteen teams from the East Region, one from the North and nineteen from the West.

There are several cracking ties. None more so that the visit of fellow East Super League outfit Arniston Rangers to the Canniepairt. Other all Super League clashes see Bonnyrigg Rose entertain Maryhill and Bo'ness United take on Glenafton in East versus West top league contests. The North's sole representatives, Culter, make the trip to Hill of Beath in an East against North Super League clash. Glenrothes take on the only remaining Fife District team, Lochgelly Albert, in a Fife derby while Carnoustie's reward for their success against Lugar is a visit to Blantyre to meet the local Vics. The winners of the third round match between Kelty Hearts and Royal Albert today will entertain high-scoring Musselburgh Athletic in round four.

Newtongrange Star, following their impressive win against Lochee United will have to await the result of today's replay between Bathgate and Hurford although either will be a severe test while Vale of Leven await the visit of "team of round 3", winners against Pollok, Cambuslang Rangers. Last year's losing finalists, Linlithgow Rose, travel to Renfrew.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

An excellent photograph in Thursday's Evening Telegraph of Tayport Thistle Under 14s team. A very neat and orderly line-up, a credit to the club's hard working committee. By all accounts there are some talented lads in the team who could go on to make their mark. In the same edition of the Telegraph there's also a photo of Richard Tough, our sponsors' Scott & Fyfe's Operations Director, in a team line-up with his Rollercoasters' Table Tennis team

A new A5 size 48 page quarterly magazine devoted to Junior Football has just been launched. Titled "Mud and Glory". The first issue, a limited number of which are available from the gatehouse this afternoon, contains a number of interesting articles and includes features on Arniston Rangers' Scott Nisbet, Oakley's Willie Newbigging and Lochee United's Ray McKinnon. Certainly worth a read.

The cup winning manager moved into town, the cup winning team captain moved into town, so it was probably only natural that the man who scored the Scottish Junior Cup winning goal would also find a home in Tayport. Brian and Claire Craik flitted to Tayport from Broughty Ferry this week and we wish them a long and happy stay.

Most bizarre news of the week was the report that referee Bryan Cranston was quitting refereeing in the Juniors to become manager of East Craigie, currently the the bottom team in the Tayside Division One. That should lead to a few interesting confrontations with former colleagues. Refereeing is a thankless task, but so too is managing a side at the foot of the league. The words "pan, the, frying, of, fire, into, the, out", come to mind! Anyway, we wish Bryan well in his new role.

Tayport FC's special blend malt whisky, bottled to celebrate the Scottish and East Super League double season (see advert elsewhere in the programme) has taken a trick. Sales of the very limited edition whisky are going well. Don't miss out, get yours now before stocks run dry. It's a reminder of a magnificent season which can only appreciate in value. For example, what would Glenesk supremo Norrie Farquhar give now to get his hands on a specially bottled Dundee Violet Whisky, 1929 vintage?

There could be yet another former 'Port star in the visitors' ranks this afternoon. A shortage of backroom staff today could see ex-Canniepairt favourite Mark Spalding assisting Paul Reilly in the Dokens' dugout.

LOCAL, FRIENDLY, RELIABLE.

GIVE US A CALL, NO JOB TOO BIG OR SMALL!

I said at the beginning of this term that I believed the title would be won with as little as 44 points and the way it's shaping up, with most teams now having played half their games, I don't think I'll be far off the mark. From our current position, to repeat our success of last season, we must begin to show more consistency, especially at home. Victories, of course, are the key to success and that's why I believe that today's and next weekend's league games are absolutely vital for our club's aspirations.

I don't need to remind our players of the headlines our local press gave us at the end of August. "Tayport Hit Rock Bottom". And why shouldn't they have? Since that time we have provided some more positive headlines. But I repeat, we must find consistency. Do so and we can achieve.

Last week's performance proves what we are capable of. Make no mistake, the game at Rob Roy was a different proposition, given the circumstances, but our players responded magnificently and found inspiration from each other to produce a good victory. But that's all it was. One victory on the road and we know better than any club that, to be the best, we must produce these performance consistently.

Dundee North End are our visitors this afternoon for this league match. I'd like to welcome both their players and officials to Tayport. As I said earlier, every victory from now on in will give us an opportunity to be there when the honours are on offer. But we know that only hard work and discipline will carry the day. I'm confident that, if we produce these qualities this afternoon, we can achieve success.

Dave Baikie

During the winter, heavy rainfall or some snow on Friday night or Saturday morning can put a match on the Canniepairt in grave risk of postponement. On such occasions the difference between a match going ahead or not, is down to how much water or snow the committee can clear in a relatively short space of time. This is where we need you.

If you think you can give assistance in such events you can join CEPA. Please give your name and telephone number (mobile no. preferred) to a committee member. We'll put this on a data base and you will be texted or otherwise contacted in the event of a work party being required on Saturday morning. If you are available, you can pop down if you wish and give assistance. The more bodies the better.

TODAY'S GAME
WHYTE and MACKAY SUPERLEAGUE
TAYPORT v DUNDEE NORTH END

North End have struggled since the start of the season, with team selections hampered by injuries and unavailabilities. Manager Paul Reilly, the former Tayport defender, has not had his troubles to seek. There were a number of transfers out of experienced players during the close season and the replacements perhaps haven't quite adjusted to the pace of the Super League.

The Dundee side are staring up at the rest of the league and even the staunchest Dokens' fan must surely be fearing the worst. A haul of seven points and nine goals from the first half of the season is relegation form, given that Carnoustie were relegated with 26 points last season.

Still, statistics like that will not be foremost in the minds of the North End party today. They'd be happy to go down with a smile on their faces if they could have Tayport's scalp on their belts. Putting one over Tayport is the all the motivation North End require this afternoon.

It's that determination to cause an upset and capture Monday's headlines in the Evening Telegraph that will drive the Dokens on today, hopefully providing at the same time some entertainment for the fans.

The clubs, of course, had contrasting fortunes last Saturday. Whilst Tayport were running riot before a near five hundred attendance at Rob Roy, the Dundee club were surrendering all three points to Oakley United, losing 1-4 before a handful of fans at North End Park.

Dokens' keeper Andy Stewart was ordered off after conceding a penalty kick in the line of duty against Oakley and the loss of their talented No.1 allowed the Fife club to open their account and take control. It was a decision that had North End supremo John Reilly seething. the former SJFA President had a go at the man in the middle. According to The Courier, the decision to send off Stewart was described by JR as 'absolutely shocking'. Stewart, though, can play today.

Dave Reilly, the Tayport legend of the 1990s, had announced his retirement at the end of last season, but such have been the personnel problems at North End that DR has been persuaded to return and has been pretty much a regular this season. Another former Tayport star, Sean Wilkie, has missed much of the season through injury and this hasn't helped the Dokens' cause. Yet another former 'Port legend, although from the club's amateur days, Gus Malone, was brought in from Carnoustie earlier this season to add defensive stability to the North End line-up but injury has seen the veteran miss out on recent games and there are question marks as to whether he will recover sufficiently to help the cause.

Tayport reverted last week to virtually the side which lifted the cup - Ramsay for Mitchell being the only change from the Firhill line-up - but it remains to be seen whether Manager Baikie will make changes. Ralph Hunter is still out injured but those others who missed out at Adamslie Park will come into contention for a place if the manager decides to change things around.

There will be one definite change. John Ward is suspended. The big defender received a one match ban following an alleged post match comment to the referee at the conclusion of the Bonnyrigg game. Derek Wemyss looks the most likely replacement.

It's a big game for both sides and the fans this afternoon should be the winners.

HE'S SCOTT THE LOT: Peters scores for Tayport and salutes the fans

FORMER winners Tayport ripped Roy apart in this OVD Scottish Cup replay – and showed why they are tipped to go all the way again.

The Tayside giants easily disposed of the home side with a devastating barrage of football in the first 25 minutes. And the Kirkintilloch team were too shell-shocked to recover, especially having to play with 10 men for 50 minutes.

On this form Tayport must be favourites to reach the later stages. They exerted pressure from the start with skipper Steven Stewart twice coming close to getting the opener in the first 10 minutes.

Inevitably they went ahead in 19 minutes when Barry McNaughton lobbed Derek Smith from 18-yards. And just a minute later Roberto Morris made it two with a long-range drive.

It was turning into a rout when full-back Scott Peters volleyed a third from fully 25-yards.

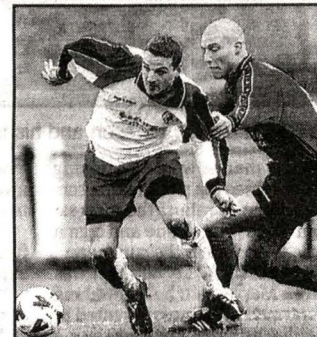

Then Gareth Dailly got number four on the half-hour with a fine individual effort after being sent through by John Ward.

And just when it seemed things couldn't get worse for bedraggled Rob Roy they were reduced to 10 men in 40 minutes when Donald McDonald was sent off for violent conduct. After the interval the hosts tried to make a fight of it and Mark McManus struck the bar with a free-kick in 65 minutes.

But despite taking the game to Tayport they always struggled to make chances.

TUSSLE: McDonald and Ward

The Taysiders were never really in trouble – although Chris Doherty got a late consolation in 88 minutes.

But even that was upstaged when sub Kevin Heenan restored the four-goal deficit just on the final whistle.

After the surprise draw last week one of the highly fancied clubs for the trophy came good again.

And on this form there won't be many sides looking forward to meeting them in the later stages.

THE SUNDAY MAIL

MEDIA MATTERS

Pick of the press this week was the Sunday Mail photograph and report on the 5-1 Scottish Cup win at Rob Roy which is featured elsewhere in today's programme.

Friday's Courier told us that Lochee United's swapped their usual rigorous Thursday training to take it easy, enjoying the leisure facilities of a local hotel. After being dumped out of the Scottish Cup two days later, they won't be trying that again!

The Fife Herald in their match preview, quoted Dave Baikie as expecting Rob Roy to engage a similar game plan as they had employed at the Canniepairt, attempting to frustrate 'Port. Spot-on. A guy on the Scottish Juniors e-group later criticised Rob Roy boss for attempting to do exactly that.

Rob Roy boss Mick Oliver used the columns of the Kirkintilloch Herald to issue a plea for the locals to turn out in force for the replay and get behind their team.

Saturday's Junior card seemed to be all about sendings off with reports of red cards being brandished in all the papers. In fact they couldn't make up their minds just how many had been brandished. The Sun and the Edinburgh Evening News tallied six reds at the Arniston v Johnstone Burgh match but the Glasgow Evening Times made it seven reds. Although realising he could be taken to task for his comments, Arniston Manager Jimmy Crease made his feeling plain in The Sun, blasting the standard of refereeing.

Monday's Evening Telegraph had North End "staring into the abyss" following the defeat by Oakley and reported that East Craigie manager Cammy McRae had thrown in the towel after his team's sensational 7-1 home drubbing from Bankfoot, the Coronation Park side's first league win in almost two seasons. The Tele was also reporting later in the week that Elmwood boss Jim Finlayson had resigned. There was a strong hint that Finlayson would be taking over the manager's peg at Downfield.

The Evening Telegraph's back page on Tuesday had a prominent piece on the draw for the 4th round of the OVD Scottish Cup. A pleasant departure from the norm for the Tele, but welcome nevertheless. Another example of the newspaper's continuing strong interest in the Junior game.

The Courier and Daily Record on Wednesday past, both carried a story on Doug Scott's retiral from football, tracing his history in the game over the past twenty years, culminating with a Scottish Junior Cup medal.

The Perthshire Advertiser on Wednesday reported that Tayport loan player Robbie Holden continues to impress for Kinnoull. 0-2 down at half-time it was Robbie who provided the spark for the Perth club's comeback v Violet, setting up two goals as they raced into a 3-2 lead only to concede a late penalty, thus having to settle for a draw.

Wasn't that a good photo in the Evening Telegraph a week past Monday, showing Gareth Dailly in full flow in front of a packed enclosure? The pic seemed to capture all the atmosphere one tends to associate with a hard fought Scottish Junior Cup tie.

Why do we recommend other companies' products?

To get the best deals, of course.

Does that make good business sense, Bingley?

Absolutely. Bradford. Recommending other companies' mortgages, investments, pensions and insurance is excellent business.

How so?

With so many financial products on the market and so little time for people to make sense of them, we can do the hard work for them.

With you so far.

We can sift through thousands of products from hundreds of banks, building societies and other financial companies.

And then our expert advisers recommend to our customers the ones that best suit them?

Indeed. Because we believe our customers deserve the product that's best for them.

And not the one that's best for us.

Now you're cooking on gas, Bradford.

So, we can recommend products from big companies like Halifax and Standard Life, or smaller ones people possibly haven't heard of.

Spot on.

And our buying power means we may be able to get deals you can't find anywhere else.

You've got it.

And that means our customers keep coming back. That is good business.

So good that we're the biggest independent mortgage and financial adviser in the country.

That's quite a recommendation.

OVD SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP

Third Round Results

The Third Round ties in the OVD Scottish Junior Cup have now been completed with the exception of two matches. The Royal Albert match against Kelty Hearts has been called off twice due to Royal Albert's pitch being waterlogged – the tie has been switched to Kelty this afternoon. In addition following a no scoring draw at Bathgate two weeks ago their replay against Hurlford was called off last week under similar circumstances - they'll try again today. There was a smattering of surprise results – none more so than the West Super League Champions and current leaders of that league, Pollok, falling at home to Cambuslang Rangers from the West Central Division 1 league. Our failure to defeat Kirkintilloch Rob Roy at the first attempt was also rated as a surprise in most quarters but we have, of course, corrected the position in the replay. Lochee United appeared to stumble when drawing at Newtongrange two weeks ago but the stumble proved to be more than that with the Lothians District League team winning by the only goal of the match at Thomson Park last Saturday.

Many of the Super League clashes required replays. Namely - Johnstone Burgh/Arniston, Bathgate/Hurlford and Larkhall/Hill of Beath. In the two replays since played both Fife based teams progressed to the next round - Hill of Beath on penalties. There were however wins for Culter against Glentanar in the all North clash, whilst Neilston disposed of another North hope in the shape of Formartine. Linlithgow, last years losing finalists, eased home in Ayrshire against Troon. All Tayside District teams fell by the wayside with the exception of Carnoustie while, in Fife, only Lochgelly Albert remain from the District League. The full list of results was:

FROM THE ARCHIVES

15 YEARS AGO 17th DECEMBER 1988

As 1988 drew to a close, Cumnock were on the way to lifting the Scottish Junior Cup, having taken the scalps of Forfar West End and Jeanfield Swifts in the 2nd and 3rd rounds respectively.

North End were having one of their best seasons in the Scottish Cup, reaching the last 16 only to go out by the only goal of the game at Kilbirnie.

The Tayside scene was being dominated by Downfield and Forfar West End. The only regional competition involving Tayside clubs, the North/Tayside Cup, was in its inaugural year. It would be Deveronside's cup that season, the one and only occasion on which a North side has lifted the trophy to date.

At Tayport the club was still a season and a half away from Junior status and was running two amateur teams, the first team in the Midlands Amateurs and the second string in the East Fife Amateurs.

On 17th December the Midlands XI was three games in to an eleven game unbeaten run. The following team accounted for Hillside Boys' Club by 4-2 on the Canniepairt - Paul Hunt; Davie Blair, Micky McPherson, Alan Hart, Steve Rollo, Gordon Ogilvie, Neil Clark, Gibby Valentine, Bruce Burnett, Jimmy Anderson, and Andy Heggie. Paul Thackeray and Bryan Fitchet were the substitutes. Heggie (3) and Ogilvie were the scorers.

According to the archives it was a fine day weather-wise. The match summary reported "dreadful start with the loss of a first minute goal but got things together thereafter to take both points against poor opposition"

In contrast to the 1st XI, the Fife XI were struggling and, on the back of eleven successive defeats, failed to get a side down to Methil to play a league match against Brig United and thus lost the points. Two players called off in the morning, another two didn't finish their work in time for the early kick-off and another failed to put in an appearance. Failing to raise a side was a rare occurrence for the club.

Incredibly Tayport used 81 players in their 39 Fife XI fixtures that season.

Only one player, Lyall Clark, made more than 20 appearances and Andy Heggie and John Fernie were joint top scorers with six goals each.

Among the 81 who turned out that season were several familiar names such as Kenny Cameron, Grant McLean, Ian Howe, Ian Mathers, Kenny Smith, Stuart Davie, Abby Oswald and current St Andrews United manager Colin Downie. In fact if you lived within a couple of miles of the park and had a pair of boots, you probably featured that season!

"SHOOT-ON-SIGHT POLICY PAYS DIVIDENDS"

says DUNMORE

The OVD Scottish Junior Cup has dominated the past few weeks, with the latest development being Tuesday's fourth round draw, something of a glamour tie at home to Arniston Rangers.

Not only are Arniston current East Super League rivals, but they are tipped by many to have an impact on the 'Scottish' this season. The draw could hardly have been tougher.

To earn their place in the last 32, 'Port had to see off Kirkintilloch Rob Roy. Unfortunately it took two games to do so, as the Rabbs visited the Canniepairt a fortnight ago, with the sole intention of forcing a replay. This they did, after weathering an early storm. Thereafter, Tayport were unable to create any clear-cut opportunities, against a well organised defence.

Dave Baikie's men certainly found a way around this problem at Adamslie Park. A policy of shoot-on-sight seemed to be adopted, and it paid dividends.

Once Barry McNaughton opened the scoring with a deflected drive, Tayport were always going to win. Roberto Morris hammered home the point within minutes, stunning all present, most notably Rob Roy keeper Derek Smith, with a screaming strike from almost 40 yards.

A dream five minute spell was completed on 23 minutes by Scott Peters, who crashed another thunderbolt into the Kirkintilloch net. Just seeing Peters on the park gave the 'Port support a huge lift. He didn't need to score as well!

Gareth Dailly made it four nil by the half hour. The remainder of the match was somewhat predictable. The Rabbs were reduced to ten men, but worked hard in the second half, forcing a consolation goal in the final minute.

All that seemed to do, though, was provoke a reaction from the visitors, who netted again, through Kevin Heenan, who now goes top of the Tayport goalscoring chart.

Ironically, Kirkintilloch's best chance of causing an upset had been on the Canniepairt. The venue will hold no such fears for today's opponents, however. North End are well used to trips across the Tay and will be utterly determined to pick up the points. Despite being at the bottom of the table, the Dokens represent a real challenge.
