No.12

It was with sadness that the local football fraternity learned of the death, earlier this week, of David Jeffrey aged 70. Pud, as he was always known, first played Junior for Broughty Ex-Service FC (now Athletic) in 1949 as a striker at the age of 15. He went on to give service with several other junior teams including St Andrews United where he is well remembered as a tough tackling defender and team captain. He also played in the successful Wormit Amateurs team of his era. Pud, although only an occasional spectator at Tayport matches, followed the club's fortunes closely and was an avid football man with a tremendous in-depth knowledge of all that was happening in the game. Our condolences go to wife Helen and son David.

"Super League thoughts on the back-burner as today's teams go for OVD glory"

says

Dunmore

Today's OVD Scottish Cup clash is, undoubtedly, Tayport's biggest game of the year, thus far. Not that there has been a great deal of competition. 2004 began with a friendly fixture, at RAF Leuchars, against Coupar Angus, which 'Port won by the expected comfortable margin.

There was a similar rout last Saturday, when the competitive action got underway. Bankfoot Athletic were the opposition for a Findlay Cup-tie on the Canniepairt and the hosts eased to a 7-1 win. Gareth Dailly, Barry McNaughton and Ben Honeyman all netted in the first half, as did Bankfoot's Derek Sturgeon, who provided his side's consolation goal on the half-time whistle.

The visitors still had 45 minutes of Tayport pressure to endure and were powerless to prevent Steven Stewart from helping himself to a brace of goals after the interval. Honeyman also completed a double, with the scoring being rounded off in farcical fashion by the unfortunate Perthshire men, who contrived to score a somewhat ridiculous own goal.

No such gifts either side of Christmas, however, as Dave Baikie's troops had to work extremely hard to clinch maximum Whyte & Mackay East Super League points on consecutive Saturdays. North End visited on the 20th December and it took a slightly fortuitous goal from Steven Stewart to finally break down the Dokens' defence. During the second half, the skipper guided Ross Gunnion's right wing cross goalwards and the ball eluded the visiting keeper and crept over the line, off the post. The inevitable complaints from the North End players were, thankfully, waved away.

The following weekend there was again no margin for error, and another solitary late strike was enough to clinch victory. Again Steven Stewart was the hero, just when hosts Oakley looked like earning a goalless draw. Only a few minutes remained when Stewart gathered possession, around thirty yards out and the midfielder connected beautifully with his left foot. On such occasions the back of the net is a regular destination for the speeding football, and this was certainly the case at Blairwood Park. Keeper Brian Potter was helpless as the shot flew into the top corner, for a goal which, fittingly, sent Tayport to the top of the league.

Today's visitors, Arniston Rangers, have the Canniepairt outfit in their sights, though, with a couple of games in hand. However, thoughts of the title race will be very much on the back-burner this afternoon. A place in the last sixteen of the "Scottish" is the priority and both teams are well capable of securing that berth. An entertaining contest is very much on the cards.

TODAY'S GAME

The notoriously noisy Arnie Army will have been flexing their vocal cords in anticipation of this afternoon's tie (why is it always the away fans who are the more vocal in big Junior matches?). They certainly look like having something to shout about with today's tie rightly billed as the tie of the round.

This is the sixth meeting of the sides, the third in the Scottish Cup, and those who can recall the previous five meetings between today's combatants, will agree that if today's fare is up to the standard of that dished up previously, then we are in for an exciting afternoon.

Since that first meeting back in the 1996/97 5th round, our visitors today have undergone a complete change of personnel, but Tayport still have four of that side in today's squad—Grant Buist, Allan Ramsay, Grant Paterson and Steven Stewart. A goal from the prolific Dave Reilly edged Tayport into the quarter finals en route to a second successive OVD final that February afternoon.

Arniston are having their best season for some time and some of their performances this season have had their fans waxing lyrical, the 4-1 first round thumping of short-priced West Super League side Arthurlie, springs to mind. The one real blemish on their record this season, to date, was the 3-4 home defeat by Rosyth Recreation in the Heineken Fife & Lothians Cup. The Arnie lads, by all accounts, took their opponents too lightly and paid the penalty.

No chance of that this afternoon. Arniston are aware they threw away the points when Tayport returned from Newbyres Park with a 2-1 win back in September, and will thus be intent on gaining some revenge today.

Unavailable for selection for the visitors this afternoon are defender Colin Inglis and seven goal Darren Pryde. Both players were suspended earlier this week for ordering off offences in the last round against Johnstone Burgh.

The loss of these players should not prove much of a handicap for the Lothians team who tend to shuffle their pack from week to week anyway. They will, however, be wanting to see big Scott Nisbet back in the side today. The big former Glasgow Rangers player who sat out last week's cup-tie wim against West Calder is a significant influence on the team. His aerial ability is always a threat, particularly when getting on the end of teammate Colin Nicol's prodigious shies.

Tayport look to have a full pool available although Ralph Hunter, who has been out with a leg injury and Kevin Heenan, out of match action with a broken nose, could be a bit short of match practice.

This afternoon's referee is Mr Willie Gilfillan from west Fife whom fans will recall was assistant at last season's OVD Cup Final. His assistants are also from the Fife Association.

This is Tayport's 90th Scottish Junior Cup tie and for Paterson, Stewart and Ramsay, it's 83, 56 and 54 ties respectively. A lot of experience there!

DAVE BAIKIE

As this is the first opportunity I've had to put pen to paper this year, may I first of all wish you all a happy and prosperous New Year. So, what will 2004 have in store for our club? Who knows? Only time will tell. 2003 was, of course, one of the most memorable in our short existence in junior football. Quite a number of people and fans I met at the start of this season posed the question "How can you better that?" and "No one will ever repeat what you achieved".

The month of August 2003 would suggest that, if it was going to be bettered or repeated, it certainly wasn't going to be by us! But, over the last three months or so, we have gradually 'sobered up' and realised that what we had, is still available if we dig deep enough within ourselves.

I've asked many questions of myself and our players this season. Do we have the capabilities? Of that, I have no doubt. Do we have the desire? The outcome of this afternoon's Scottish 4th round tie will certainly give us an indication.

The last couple of weeks have seen us produce fourteen goals which will do us no harm, but I'm sure our opposition in these two games will allow me to make the point that we face a much stiffer task today. Our players know the quality Arniston Rangers have and what standard we have to reach to overcome. I can think of no other incentive than a place in the last sixteen and victory.

FROM THE ARCHIVES

Whilst the fortunes of Tayport Football Club were at a low ebb in the 1950s and 1960s, not so the fortunes of Dundee FC. These were glory days for the Dens Park Club and there was a great interest in Dundee FC in Tayport. Sufficient interest, indeed, to see the formation of a Dundee FC Supporters' Club in the town in the early 1950s. Around 1953, fans flocked to Dens to see the likes of Billy Steel, Bobby Flavell, Doug Cowie and Tommy Gallacher turn out for the Dark Blues.

The Tayport Branch of The Dundee FC Supporters' Club had a vibrant membership which regularly ran buses to away matches. A glance at the books of the club shows that it was a well run and financially healthy organisation. There were weekly sweepies which brought in regular income. For example, Tom Bryson, a current season ticket holder here at the Canniepairt, brought in weekly donations of around £22 to the Supporters Club. A lot of money 50 years ago.

Donations from the funds were regularly made to needy causes including the Hungarian Relief Fund in 1956 and £10:10/- to the Broughty Ferry Lifeboat Disaster in 1959.

It was a popular away day for the ladies, too. They visited the shops whilst the men folk took in the football. The club even ran a bus on New Years Day 1957 to Pittodrie for the Aberdeen 2 Dundee 1 game at a cost of only £2:1/-.

One of the highlights of the Supporters Club year was the annual bus drives to places like Dunbar and Stonehaven, which were held at the end of the season. And, of course, the trips to Wembley for England v Scotland game every two years during the 1960s. Such trips were the source of many a tale. On one occasion the bus was in a crash which made the headlines in the Sunday papers the next day. And legend would have it that Angus Barbieri, a rather rotund member of the party, couldn't squeeze through the Wembley turnstile thus necessitating the opening of the big gates to allow access to the stadium. Incidentally the cost of the bus for the 1963 game (England 1 Jim Baxter 2) was £119:17:6d.

There would have been some memorable trips during the life of the club. The 13 year old lads on the trip to Tynecastle on 27th February 1965, for example, will never forget Dundee's stunning 7-1 win that day over Hearts. Similarly those who witnessed some thrilling games as Dundee won the 1961-62 Championship, the highlight, of course, being amongst the 26,500 at Muirton Park on 28th April for the 3-0 win which clinched the title. The cost the bus to Perth that day was £1:14/-.

Dundee FC won their last seven games on the run-in to the title and therein lies a connection with Tayport FC. One of the seven games was a 1-0 win over Hibs and the scorer of the only goal was Bobby Waddell, subsequently a player and manager during the amateur days and a committee member after the club went Junior.

A further connection with the Tayport DFCSC and the current club? Who else but the ubiquitous Andy Phin, of course, who was a fully paid up member in 1968/69.

Waddell of Tayport slides the ball into the Goal net at Saturday's East Fife AFA Division II clash at Tayport. His goal gave Tayport a 2-1 lead.

MEDIA MATTERS

The Fife Herald's new editor has been as good as his word. On his appointment as the first editor of both the Herald and St Andrews Citizen, he promised to give Tayport FC a higher profile in his publications and he's delivered.

The Sunday Mail, like its weekday stablemate, the Daily Record, has improved its coverage but has been badly let down by its distributors. The editions on sale in Dundee and Tayport last week carried no Junior coverage whatsoever, Highland League football taking its place. Not too many Wick Academy fans in this neck of the woods to appreciate the coverage.

This, despite the Mail sending a photographer to Thomson Park and getting their man in Dundee to file a 300 word report on Lochee United v Oakley United. That's all fine and well if you're a Bluebells fan who lives in High Street, Lumphinnans or Grassmarket, Edinburgh. Unfortunately most of the Lochee faithful reside a bit closer to High Street Lochee.

The Perthshire Advertiser provides an excellent service to Junior followers in and around the Fair City, with extensive coverage on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The Tayport v Coupar Angus friendly which heralded the New Year was the subject of a fairly lengthy report. The PA continued with an article on Kinnoull's ambitions. Scott Brown, the Kinnoull boss was quoted as saying that the Tulloch Park club chairman and committee have made no secret that Super League football is their ambition. Brown continued '...if commitment has anything to do with making this dream come true, there's no shortage of that from the Tulloch Park committee room'. Kinnoull, the PA reports, are starting to get things together and two players playing a significant role with the Perth club are Tayport farm-outs Robbie Holden and keeper Duncan Bruce. Robbie is regularly amongst the goals and Duncan's performances have been outstanding according to the newspaper.

The Courier still can't come to terms with the fact that there is no longer a Tayside or Fife JFA and we're now all East Region JFA. Despite Tayport receiving a civic reception from Fife Council last year, according to The Courier, after Kelty went out of the Scottish Cup, there were only three Fife clubs - Haws, Lochgelly and Glens - left to contest the fourth round.

In the Edinburgh Evening News this week Edinburgh United boss Jimmy McLaughlan slammed the referee for awarding Bathgate a controversial injury time penalty which brought them level in the sides' Brown Cup-tie and gave the Creamery Park club the opportunity to win the penalty shoot-out. Even Bathgate official Bert Leslie was quoted as saying that Edinburgh were harshly done by.

Since moving to Raith Rovers, Davie Evans, Tayport's top scorer over the past two seasons, has had something of a lean time but he was back in the team the other week for the win over Falkirk, receiving rave notices from the Fife Free Press's reporter who gave him 8/10 in the match ratings.

TODAY'S VISITORS

ARNISTON RANGERS

This page shows a cover of the match programme for Arniston's first game v Tayport, back in 1997. The following season the Gorebridge club lifted the Fife & Lothians Cup but have collected no silverware since.

However under the shrewd guidance of manager Jimmy Crease and assistant boss Brian McNaughton, fortunes for the Midlothian club are definitely on an upward spiral and, although there's nothing in the trophy cabinet at the moment, the Newbyres Park faithful anticipate things could well change on that front.

Their hopes look to be well founded and they meet a Tayport side today whom they see as the biggest threat to not only their OVD Cup hopes, but also their chances of lifting the Whyte & Mackay Super League.

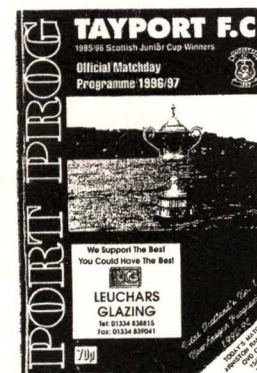

Arniston are a club with a 126 year history, yet beaten finalists in 1923, is the closest they have come to getting their name inscribed on the famous old trophy..

Rangers arrive at the Canniepairt this afternoon boasting a proud record of being unbeaten away from home in five months, during which time they have conceded only two goals, both in a 2-2 draw at Johnstone Burgh in round 3.

Arniston produced the result of the day in round 1, beating Arthurlie 4-1. The tie was described thus— "...the game lived up to all the hype and expectation of a Scottish Junior Cup-tie". Despite having keeper Scott Bennett (based at University in Dundee, he trains with Tayport) carried off in the first minute, Arnie went through with goals from Nicol, Nisbet, Mitchell and Pryde.

They were up in Dundee for round 2 and East Craigie were disposed of by 4-0, Pryde, Nicol, sub Karami and sub keeper Elder, who came on in a striking role, got No.4.

A cracking tie at Johnstone Burgh last month saw a recovery of major proportions to salvage a replay. At 0-2 down, Darren Pryde missed a penalty but Colin Nicol pulled one back, then one of his long throws was headed home in injury time by Stuart Fraser for the leveller. Nicol was again the man of the match in the replay, scoring one and creating another as Arniston went through 3-2 after extra time. It was blood and snotters by that time, with Burgh down to nine men and Rangers to eight. Another cracking tie with the orderings-off perhaps giving something of a false impression of a match in which, according to reports, there was hardly a bad tackle.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

Hill of Beath's predicament at the foot of the league could be eased. It is understood that Keltie fielded two ineligible players when they won 2-1 at Keir's Park last Saturday

Sportscene's Gordon Smith was at his patronising best last Saturday reviewing the Ten-nents Scottish Cup ties. When the Raith Rovers keeper flogged a goal he said that he probably performed miracles every week. He would need to, since he had been on the bench since Rovers signed Dundee's Langfield. Spartans were described as East of Scot-land League leaders when they were, in fact, third. These guys don't have a clue what goes on outside the SPL

Former 'Port player Billy Spence is making his mark in his new role as player/manager of Rosyth Recreation. He's led his side to the final of the Fife District League Cup at Hill of Beath's Keir's Park on Sunday 25th January v Thornton Hibs. However he'll have to do without his top scorer Ian Ferguson. The former Hearts and St Johnstone striker has just picked up a three game suspension.

Tayport's Redwood Leisure tie against St Andrews United at Recreation Park has been fixed for Saturday 21 February. United's squad has been subject to major surgery by new manager Downie, with a number of new signings, including Duncan Caithness and James O'Neill from Glenrothes, St Andrews based ex-'Port striker Graham Nicol from Lochore and the talented Reon Juskowiak from Crossgates Primrose, a signing described in the press as "a real coup

A guy on a Scottish Juniors' E.mail group is touting railway carriages for use at Junior Grounds....."calling all committee men, anyone looking for cheap buildings. Through friends in the railway museum I can put you in touch with a company that are looking to sell railway coaches. Mainly there are 2 types, parcels van either 65 or 57 feet long, steel bodied and in very good condition. Ideal for use as stores or converting to dressing rooms etc. Only around £1500. Less than the cost of a portakabin. Also passenger coaches 65 feet long with seating in bays of 4 with 2 toilets at one end, ideal for lounges, committee rooms etc, can be fitted with a bar and kitchen with little difficulty, in good serviceable condition cost is around 3-4000.

Transport for these vehicles will cost around £1500 as most are located in the south but that can be a lot less if the lorry has a return load, if not able to get unloaded straight from the lorry a crane may be required expect around £300 for a lift. These vehicles are not wrecks and indeed many have been in traffic with companies like Virgin in recent times but they cost a lot to store, hence the reason to sell them at scrap value but be quick as they will go for scrap."

Considering the railway to Edinburgh virtually ran through the Canniepairt enclosure, an Orient Express type hospitality suite would be just the ticket. All we need is a Scott & Fyfe lorry and three grand. A job for Sandy and Andy. They're good at loading lorries. And it'll take Sandy's mind off his broken collar bone.

Why do we recommend other companies' products?

To get the best deals, of course.

Does that make good business sense, Bingley?

Absolutely, Bradford. Recommending other companies' mortgages, investments, pensions and insurance is excellent business.

How so?

With so many financial products on the market and so little time for people to make sense of them, we can do the hard work for them.

With you so far.

We can sift through thousands of products from hundreds of banks, building societies and other financial companies.

And then our expert advisers recommend to our customers the ones that best suit them?

Indeed. Because we believe our customers deserve the product that's best for them.

And not the one that's best for us.

Now you're cooking on gas, Bradford.

So, we can recommend products from big companies like Halifax and Standard Life, or smaller ones people possibly haven't heard of.

Spot on.

And our buying power means we may be able to get deals you can't find anywhere else.

You've got it.

And that means our customers keep coming back. That is good business.

So good that we're the biggest independent mortgage and financial adviser in the country.

That's quite a recommendation.

Had to chuckle at the Arniston speech posted on the Tayport website titled 'Baikie Beware' by Big Tosh Churchill!

We shall sing at Tayport.
We shall sing on the bus and in the pubs.
We shall play with growing confidence on the ground and in the air
We shall defend our goal whatever the cost maybe.
We shall sing on the beaches, we shall sing at the football ground, we shall sing on the park and in the streets, we shall sing in the hills.
