TODAY'S GAME

OVD SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP TAYPORT v FORTH WANDERERS

Rarely can there have been a more intriguing game on the Canniepairt than this afternoon's OVD Scottish Junior Cup 5th Round tie against Forth Wanderers. It's got fairytale potential. Forth, heading fast towards oblivion when current team boss ex-Celtic man John Clifford took over in 2000, versus the Cup holders. It's Super League Champs versus a team which finished last season in the wilderness of the Central second division. Even when the cup was drawn back in the autumn 2003, the teams were at the opposite end of the spectrum. Tayport, amongst the favourites, Forth amongst the clutch of 500/1 outsiders. However, football being the game it is, we find both clubs one game away from the quarter finals of one of the world's oldest football competitions.

Forth Wanderers are on a roll and have emerged as real candidates to cause a cup upset. Their recent form has been excellent. They arrive here on the back of a ten game unbeaten run and are unbeaten at four Scottish Cup opponents' grounds already this season, with wins at Greenock, Annbank and Yoker and a draw at Dunipace. So, any thoughts that it's their notorious pitch at Kingshill Park which pulls them through can be put out of the mind.

Each side has two survivors from the last time the clubs met at Canniepairt in 1994, Forth have keeper Alan Colquhoun and Crawford Wright while Tayport have Grant Paterson and Steven Stewart. Colquhoun, it will be recalled, was the Shotts Bon Accord keeper who denied 'Port the last time we lost an OVD tie on an opponents' ground, back in 2000.

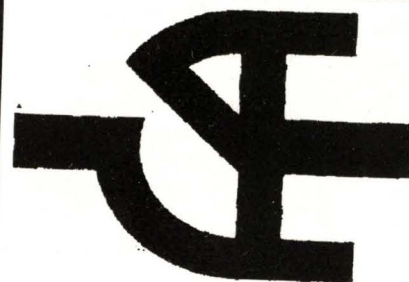

The former Glenafton player, veteran No.7 Neil Rowatt, will again be a key man for the Lanarkshire side who could give Darren Sneddon and John McNulty starting berths. Both have warmed the bench these last two weeks. Forth have never failed to score in their eight game run to this stage of the competition and the men they will be looking to continue that run and add to their fifteen goals will be six goal Kris Jarvie and his strike partner Vinnie Weightman, who has three goals to his name.

With the same line-up named in successive weeks, the odds are Dave Baikie will make changes today. Allan Ramsay and Sean Christie, both of whom came on as substitutes last week, Gareth Dailly, Ross Gunnion and Ben Honeyman will all be looking for a starting place. John Elliott, just back in training, won't be fit.

It's the same referee as last week, Mr Finnie from Edinburgh but it's different assistants, Mr McGeachie and Mr Watson.

Today's tie has to be played to a finish, with extra time and penalty kicks if necessary.

With stakes so high, spectators can expect both teams to give their all this afternoon and an exciting contest can therefore be anticipated.

media matters

The cup-tie against Arniston prompted unprecedented national newspaper coverage, outwith Scottish Junior Cup finals, for Tayport. The Edinburgh Evening News had full page features, illustrated with large action photos of Scott Peters and Barry McNaughton. The back page of the Daily Record's 'Winner' pull-out also had a full page colour illustrated feature and The Sun's leading Junior story on Monday 26th January was of Tayport's win, supported with two photos, one of which was of Barry firing home the winning goal.

The Daily Record must be commended for the effort put into its Junior coverage. Monday's 'Winner' pull-out had a cracking photo of Dundee referee Bill Hornby flashing a red card at a clearly unbelieving Roddy Grant, one of five Linlithgow Rose players who were given red cards—four during the 4-1 defeat by Hill of Beath and one after the game. Forth v Tayport was reported in the Record by a relatively new name in sports journalism, Carnoustie Panmure's Scott Kopel. The report was accompanied by a photo of Barry McNaughton and his skipper Steven Stewart having a cuddle following Barry's goal.

Wednesday's edition of the Daily Record, devotes a couple of pages to the Junior game in its 'Sportsworld' pull-out, which is published in five regional editions. There was a big splash on Kevin Heenan a few weeks ago and this week there was a two page colour feature on Tayport's Scott Peters which no doubt raised a few chuckles amongst his team-mates.

With bad weather ruling out competitive action in mid January, the Fife Herald still managed to provide 'Port with the back page headline announcing, "Port's legendary striker returns to Canniepairt" It referred, of course, to the return to Tayport of Dave Reilly who re-signed for the club after being released by North End.

The St Andrews Citizen, stablemate of the Fife Herald, as well as reporting on the fortunes of St Andrews United, has this season carried a report on Tayport matches. The respective match reports, which normally contrast greatly in style, on next Saturday's Redwood Leisure tie, should make for interesting reading.

Once again there was no contest between the Sunday Mail and Sunday Post for Junior coverage last weekend. The Mail had six match reports, a photograph and League tables. In comparison, The Post's coverage was pitiful and clearly needs to be revamped.

The Lanark Gazette did its bit to rally the Forth area troops for last Saturday's tie. The back page carried a preview, in which Wanderers boss John Clifford stressed the importance of a good home crowd saying 'Tayport will not for one minute like coming here....we are full of confidence'.

The Glasgow Evening Times did a fairly sizeable piece in last Wednesday's edition on today's game. Said boss Clifford "People will be writing us off at their peril...the never-say-die spirit in our dressing room might just see us come through....possibly we were in awe of Tayport's reputation as cup holders....I detect a lot less apprehension around now that we've seen them for ourselves at close quarters....this one could go all the way to extra time and penalties, that's why I'll be putting in some spot kick practice at tonight's training session"

TODAY'S VISITORS

FORTH WANDERERS

It's happy 100th birthday to our visitors to the Canniepairt this afternoon. It's exactly a century since the Lanarkshire club was founded. How appropriate, then, that Forth should be making such an unexpected splash in the Scottish Junior Cup. Football has a funny way of coming up with uncanny coincidences and Wanderers' run in their centenary year is something which no one at Kingshill Park would have dared predict as another season in the West Region's basement division got underway in August.

Forth were celebrating their 90th anniversary season when they first visited the Canniepairt ten years ago, going down 4-0 to 'Port after a 1-1 draw at Kingshill Park in a first round tie.

Such was the rundown state of Kingsmill Park, Forth last week, that it was probably hard to imagine that Scotland and Rangers legend Willie Waddell once graced the Kingshill turf as did former Scotland keeper George Woods, in more recent times. It's because of problems with their ground that Forth were forced to play away from home from time to time and in 1999 played Scottish Cup ties at Lesmahagow's Craighead Park.

However, it's relatively recently that the Forth ground was populated by its record crowd when 2,324 squeezed in to see a Scottish Junior Cup quarter final win against East Kilbride Thistle. That was in 1981 when Forth were unlucky not to reach the final. Pollok, who went on to beat Arthurlie 1-0 in the Hampden final that season, beat Forth 1-0 in a replay following a 2-2 draw.

Despite having a proud tradition of Junior football for 100 years, Forth have had relatively little success. When members of the Lanarkshire League, there were local cup wins in 1914, 1947, 1948 and 1960 and a Lanarkshire Championship in 1966. Since becoming part of the Central JFA, Forth won the Division One flag in 1980 and collected the Central League Cup, their last piece of silverware, in 1985.

The current cup run is without doubt the highlight of the last ten years which have, without exception, been spent in the lower divisions. It might all have been different, however, if in 1993, Forth hadn't missed out on promotion to the Central Premier Division by a miserly two goals. Level on points with Larkhall Thistle, Forth's goal difference was inferior by two. From there on, it was invariably a lowly league placing until they finally succumbed and were relegated to the bottom division in 1999 where they have stayed since.

Things have picked up this season however and the current run of ten games unbeaten is the best for many, many seasons. It's a rich vein of form which has caught the imagination of the locals and our visitors today can expect to have their biggest away following for some time.

NEXT SATURDAY'S MATCH—A LOCAL DERBY
v ST ANDREWS UNITED in the Redwood Leisure Cup at Recreation Park, St Andrews

It's only the third time Tayport will have played at St Andrews United and a healthy attendance is expected for this battle between the two north Fife junior sides. Had this tie taken place in the autumn, then Tayport would have been away bankers, but it's been all change at St Andrews these past few months.

After sacking the underachieving Pete Hutton, the St Andrews committee appointed one of their 'old boys' in Colin Downie who had been out of a job since being sacked by Glenrothes.

Downie's policy is to recruit locally and he hasn't been slow to make his mark, shipping a number of players out and bringing in his own men. Joining the backroom team is Ronnie Nicoll who was a coach here at Canniepairt in the late nineties.

No doubt relishing a return to his old stomping ground, is Ralph Hunter who was a St Andrews scorer when the sides last met in this tournament in March 2002. Tayport won 3-1. Previous to that Tayport beat Saints 5-1 in the 1999 Fife/Tayside Final at Glenesk Park.

Kick-off is at 1.45pm and has to be played to a finish

DAVE BAIKIE

Good afternoon to our fans and may I welcome the players and officials of Forth Wanderers for this 5th round Scottish Cup replay.

I mentioned to our players after last week's game that the only person within our camp likely to be happy would be our treasurer but, since that time, I'm sure most people would agree that it's much better to have players below standard and still be in the competition, than in the shoes of the likes of Kilwinning Rangers, Linlithgow Rose, Maryhill and Glenafton Athletic whose Scottish Cup dreams for this season have vanished.

Of course I'm disappointed with our performance at Forth. I felt quite a number of our players couldn't adapt their game to the conditions underfoot, In fact I've never seen us give away possession so cheaply. What is it they say in tennis? Unforced errors.? Of course the playing surface had a part to play in that. Even so, we did create a fair number of scoring opportunities but let ourselves down in that department as well. I read in one of the national newspapers last Saturday morning that '...on paper, Tayport should win comfortably'. They also said that about Kilwinning, Maryhill etc.. How wrong can they be?. Unfortunately football matches aren't won on paper. There's a certain number of factors (eleven) that can get in the way of that happening. In Forth Wanderers' case it was ten players whose workrate was outstanding, better than ours on the day.

However, today is another day and another opportunity to reach the quarter finals of this great competition and I genuinely believe that we have to aspire to achieve and produce the workrate that our opponents produced last week and, when we do so, then I'm confident we can achieve a victory and a place in tomorrow's draw.

"HERO BARRY SILENCED THE ARNIE CHOIR"

Dunmore

Today's fifth round replay will be Tayport's first competitive match on the Canniepairt since the goalless draw against Arniston Rangers, in the previous round of the OVD Scottish Junior Cup.

That clash perhaps didn't quite live up to it's 'Match of the Day' billing, although there was no denying the quality on show. So closely matched were the sides, that a single goal always looked like settling the tie, and it eventually came with just ten minutes of the Newbyres Park replay remaining.

Barry McNaughton was, of course, the hero, slotting home Kevin Heenan's low cross, to finally silence the famous Arnie choir.

That goal set up the tie against Forth, with McNaughton again on the scoresheet. His counter, coupled with the dismissal of the home team's Jim Gallacher, seemed to provide a steady platform on which to build a victory last weekend.

The determination of the hosts, the poor state of the playing surface and ill-fortune, however, all ensured that events would not go according to plan.

Grant Paterson's own goal put Forth back on level terms and brought about this afternoon's decisive contest. To be part of this year's quarter final line-up will be a huge incentive, for both camps. If Forth, for instance, were to oust the cup holders, they would be quietly confident of achieving further success.

The 'Port support will be hoping for a similar result to the one recorded in Portlethan, a fortnight ago when Tayport ran out 5-1 winners against locals Parkvale. A brace from Ralph Hunter and singles from Brian Craik, Scott Peters and Kevin Heenan provided a smooth passage into the quarters of the NCR Trophy, with a 'Vale goal and a late snowstorm, being the only negatives of the trip north.

Why do we recommend other companies' products?

To get the best deals, of course.

Does that make good business sense, Bingley?

Absolutely. Bradford. Recommending other companies' mortgages, investments, pensions and insurance is excellent business.

How so?

With so many financial products on the market and so little time for people to make sense of them, we can do the hard work for them.

With you so far.

We can sift through thousands of products from hundreds of banks, building societies and other financial companies.

And then our expert advisers recommend to our customers the ones that best suit them?

Indeed. Because we believe our customers deserve the product that's best for them.

And not the one that's best for us.

Now you're cooking on gas, Bradford.

So, we can recommend products from big companies like Halifax and Standard Life, or smaller ones people possibly haven't heard of.

Spot on.

And our buying power means we may be able to get deals you can't find anywhere else.

You've got it.

And that means our customers keep coming back. That is good business.

So good that we're the biggest independent mortgage and financial adviser in the country.

That's quite a recommendation.

SMIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

Davie Evans must have gone soft since he left Tayport for Raith Rovers. Readers of the Sunday press will have spotted the photo of him in action against Ross County the other week WEARING GLOVES. A reader's letter in this week's Fife Free Press, a Rovers' fan, took Woody to task for his fashion accessory. Pointing out that Rovers players came from all over the world, many from warmer climes, yet it was a Scotsman who had to be the only Rovers player wearing gloves!

Rosyth Recreation stopped off at Tayport's Bellrock Tavern today for some lunch en route to their Redwood Leisure tie against Arbroath SC at Seaton Park

Dave Reilly, who re-signed for Tayport after being released by North End, is ineligible for all cup competitions, so is confined to the nine remaining league games, starting with Bathgate away on 13 March. DR needs three appearances to hit the 500 mark for 'Port

Our thanks go to Drew Herd and Andy Phin for the essential slabbing and concrete maintenance work carried out at the Canniepairt recently.

Elmwood's delight at beating Lochee United in the NCR Cup the other week quickly turned to disappointment when it was learned that Lochee had lodged a protest, pointing out that keeper Richard Carroll had not been reinstated from Raith Rovers. This follows hard on the heels of Kelty losing three points and copping a fine for reinstatement offences. Hill of Beath had claimed the points in this case but the East Region committee did not agree and Haws effectively got nothing for their efforts in uncovering the matter. However Haws appealed to the SJFA who have directed that the case should be re-opened.

Andy Robertson (aka Bunt) of Andy and Sandy fame has left the country to work in darkest Africa, Angola to be precise. He has promised a 'Letter from Angola' for the Port Prog, but we're not holding our breath.

There may be suicide bombers, landmines, soldiers being killed on a daily basis, but that hasn't stopped Iraq from getting on with their 2006 World Cup campaign. In a qualifying tie on Wednesday, the Iraqis managed a 1-1 draw in Uzbekistan. Despite their domestic turmoil, any Iraqi fans in Uzbekistan would surely have been happier than their Scots counterparts in Wales.

Kinnoull have reached the semi-final of the DJ Laing League Cup thanks in no small measure to the efforts of Tayport loan players Duncan Bruce and Robbie Holden in a 2-1 win over Kirrie last Saturday. According to The Perthshire Advertiser, Kirrie were repeatedly thwarted by the brilliance of keeper Bruce and Robbie scored what proved to be the winning goal with 'an unsaveable left foot shot'.

THE ROAD TO ROUND FIVE

ROUND ONE

Tayport receive a bye and miss out on a 1st round tie in defence of their title. At Greenock, Forth with ten new signings this season, cause an upset with a 1-0 win, Craig Campbell grabbing the vital goal in the 89th minute.

ROUND TWO

Wilson's XI from Aberdeen are no match for Tayport on the Canniepairt, going down 4-0 thanks to doubles from Hunter and Heenan.

Forth lead 2-0 at half-time through Weightman and McNulty, but Annbank score twice in the last 15 mins to force a replay in Ayrshire. No problems second time round for Forth who win 3-1 with goals from Kris Jarvie (2) and a Neil Rowatt penalty kick.

ROUND THREE

Tayport fail to sparkle and are held to a goalless draw on the Canniepairt by Kirkintilloch Rob Roy. Manager Baikie rings the changes for the replay and is rewarded by a devastating performance. Four goals in short period midway through the first half ends the Rob Roy challenge. Morris, McNaughton, Peters, Dailly and Heenan score goals of the highest quality.

Forth draw Yoker at home and are held 2-2 (Jarvie and Rowatt). The press write off Forth, but again the Lanarkshire lads silence the doubters with a 3-1 win at Yoker through goals from Jarvie, Ward and Weightman.

ROUND FOUR

Tayport are again drawn at home and it's billed as the tie of the round when fellow Whyte & Mackay Super League contenders Arniston Rangers come calling. It's an exciting tie but ends goalless. The replay at Gorebridge looks to be heading the same way until Barry McNaughton converts a cross from Kevin Heenan for the only goal in 83 minutes.

Forth are drawn away to Dunipace, who are a division above then in the Abercorn Central League. Wanderers perform creditably at Denny and, although falling behind, equalise with a Neil Rowatt header to take the tie back to Kingshill Park. The replay is delayed by a snow-storm but any thoughts of an abandonment are dispelled when the sun comes out. Said Forth gaffer John Clifford, "I could tell Dunipace players were freezing and didn't want the game to go continue, so I just told my players to keep going" This they did, and went through to round five for the first time for almost 25 years with a 2-0 win, goals coming from Jarvie and Weightman.

OVD SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP REVIEWED

What an incredible afternoon it was for the OVD Cup last Saturday. A series of spectacular defeats blew the tournament wide open and come half past four there was the realisation that, with most of the 'big guns' out, it could well be the year of the underdog.

Out went Linlithgow Rose. Finalists for the last two years, beaten 4-1 at Hill of Beath. The Rose had invested heavily in an attempt to repeat their 2002 success and wrest the cup and Whyte & Mackay Super League from Tayport's grasp, but found bottom of the Super League Haws too hot to handle. Linlithgow, however, pressed the self destruct button and finished the game with seven men. Referee Bill Hornby from Dundee was at the centre of the controversy but, by all accounts, he didn't get too much wrong.

Out went Glenafton Athletic. To go to New Cumnock and win a fifth round OVD tie is a tremendous result, particularly when you've only notched up one league win in fourteen attempts and are firmly fixed in the relegation zone., but that's what Glenrothes managed. Suddenly memories of 1968 and 1975 come flooding back to the New Town now that there is a realisation that they are but two games away from the final.

Out went Kilwinning Rangers. Relegation was supposed to have taken the edge off Carnoustie Panmure's game and a lengthy wait to play Blantyre should have found them rusty. Not a bit of it! The Gowfers surprised many by the quality of their play and put another nail in the Ayrshire's OVD Cup coffin. Prolific marksman Ralph Brand showed that he can get goals against the top sides as well as against weaker teams that he has been facing regularly in the district league.

Out went Maryhill. Last season's semi-finalists were again well tipped but went the same way as Pollok in an earlier round when they lost out to Jamie McCarroll's free kick for Cam-buslang Rangers. Two significant scalps for the wee Gers

Into the frame come Sauchie, regarded by many as the dark horses of this season's competition. Their 3-1 win at home to Rutherglen Glencairn wasn't without controversy, with the Glens fans feeling they wuz robbed. After Sauchie had gone ahead, Glens quickly equalised through Scott Smith but were immediately reduced to ten men when teammate Ross Donaldson was ordered off, apparently on the say-so of a referee assistant for gestures to the crowd during the goal celebrations. The handicap of being down to ten men ultimately cost then dearly and the hosts ran out fairly comfortable winners.

.....and that leaves three places to be settled today.

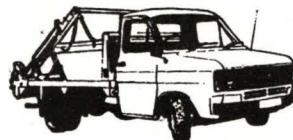

Around 900 were attracted to the Lothians derby between Newtongrange Star and Mus-selburgh Athletic which ended in a goalless stalemate. Pre-match entertainment was provided by the Nitten pipe band and that, apparently, was the sum total of the day's entertainment. Also having to settle matters today are Kilsyth Rangers and Kilbarnie Ladeside who drew 1-1 in Ayrshire last week, the home side getting what was described as a dubious equaliser. Regardless of which team goes through, it would mean that the West Super League Premier and First Divisions, effectively the cream of the Ayrshire and Central Junior clubs, would have only one representative in the last eight—probably for the first time in the competition's 118 year history.

The balance of power in the Junior game -on the field at least- has swung to the East, a huge boost to the new East Region restructure and to sponsors Whyte & Mackay who have backed the change. The draw for the quarter finals will be made on Scotsport between 5pm and 6pm tomorrow.

OCTOBER 1994

OVD SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP 1st round
FORTH WANDERERS v TAYPORT

It was almost ten years ago when today's opponents last met, when drawn together in the 1st round of the 1994/95 competition. The first game was drawn 1-1 at Kingshill Park on 15th October 1994. Before a reported crowd of 222 in damp and misty conditions, Tayport took the lead through Dave Reilly in 37 minutes but Pat Daly levelled for the Central League side eight minutes after half-time. According to the records, Tayport started well but faded badly after the break and were probably lucky to survive. The following week the teams locked horns once more at a very misty Can-niepairt, this time before an attendance of 353. Tayport made only one change, Gary Maher coming in for Steven Stewart in midfield. Tayport ran out 4-0 winners with goals from Hamish Mackay (2), Dave Reilly and Jimmy Hunter. The archives record that Hamish was in impressive form with two goals, an assist and an effort which came off the bar while Jimmy Hunter's goal was pile-driver. A goal ahead at half-time, once Tayport got No.2, it was all over, according to the report. The Forth fans must have been a hungry lot, as the pie shop sold out of pies and bridies. The programmes also sold out.

Dundee FC Supporters' Club Memories

The archive article in the last Port Prog on the DFC SC rekindled a few memories and Tayport committee member Tom Borland recalls his days with the club.

The club was funded by a weekly sweepstake (Sunday Post Pontoon). The payment, 1/- per week, was collected by Mrs Forbes from Banknowe who called for the money every Friday. When trips were organised, it was usually to smaller grounds like Love Street, Rugby Park, Firhill or Central Park and on the odd occasion it was Tynecastle. The bus was usually a 45 seater which cost members 2/- (10p) each.

Of the 45 who usually travelled, five men (Jack Mathers, Arthur Cooper, Charlie Cooper, Peter Harley and Tom Borland) went to the game and 39 women and Jackie Cooper went shopping! On the return journey, if Milnathort was en route, the bus would stop for a fish supper then an hour at a local hostelry. There was always a sing song which carried on to the bus and all the way home.

Tom adds, what he describes as a piece of useless information, and who are we to argue, when he recalls that, on one trip to Tynecastle in 1966, his mother-in-law, as usual skipped the football to go shopping in downtown Edinburgh and took the opportunity to purchase her outfit for Tom's wedding.
