PORT GO ON A STORMER

FAVOURITES Tayport are still on course for another OVD cup triumph after seeing off the last hope from the West of Scotland.

The Taysiders' early pressure was repelled by ex-Well defender Brian Martin. But Cambuslang almost took the lead in five minutes when a William Galloway piledriver was parried by Fraser Fitzpatrick and Derek Carmichael's shot on the rebound struck the post.

The Wee Gers threatened again but Carmichael's drive went over.

The goal came in 15 minutes when the lively Sean Christie crossed for Barry McNaughton to drive past Craig Rowan from 18 yards - with the keeper appearing to think the ball was going past.

Cambuslang fought back and Paul Burns forced Fitzpatrick into a save from 18 yards.

But the Glasgow side found it difficult to sustain attacks against the experienced Tayport defence where Scott Peters and John Ward were prominent.

In 35 minutes Galloway put Paul Brown through but the big striker was foiled by Fitzpatrick coming quickly off his line.

Tayport suffered a set-back in 40 minutes when Christie was forced to limp off and he was replaced by Ralph Hunter.

By half-time the crowd had swelled to around 1,500, Cambuslang's biggest gate for a decade.

In 46 minutes Fitzpatrick had the save of the game from Paul Burns' drive.

Hunter brought Tayport back in 50 minutes but his long-range effort sailed over.

Fitzpatrick was in great form and was at his best in 55 minutes when he cut out a dangerous free-kick from James Coulter.

On the hour Cambuslang should have equalised but

Winner: McNaughton blasts Tayport through

CAMBUSLANG..0 TAYPORT..1 John Drury reports

Galloway shot weakly past from a great cross by Burns.

Burns started to create problems for Tayport and from his cross in 65 minutes Ward cleared off the line with Fitzpatrick out of goal.

The home side introduced Jamie McCarroll and raised the tempo but they lacked a cutting edge when Paul Brown failed miserably in front of goal in 68 minutes.

Ward was proving a rock at the heart of the defence with his aerial power.

Tayport were relying on breakaways and in one of these Steven Stewart was just foiled by Martin Feenie on the point of shooting home in 72 minutes.

Cambuslang's cause was lost with the dismissal of Martin Feenie in 84 minutes for a second booking.

TODAY'S GAME

NCR North / Tayside Cup
Tayport v Dundee Violet

Once again the former Tayside clubs have dominated the NCR North/Tayside Cup competition, the last North Region hopes Glentanar, being eliminated 2-0 at home by Arbroath SC for whom former 'Port favourite Ian Greig netted a fine solo goal. Also awaiting the winners of this afternoon's tie in the semi-final draw are Montrose Roselea and Lochee United.

This is the first season since Tayport made their Tayside first division debut, that today's sides have not met on league business, a situation created by the Pansies relegation from the Super League at the end of last season.

Violet have quickly adjusted to life in the Tayside Premier League and currently lead the table by 13 points. Not sufficient, however, to guarantee the title, with Carnoustie, Montrose and Forfar West all having similar designs on the flag.

It has been heard, however, that, if they win the title, Violet will turn down the chance of a place in the Super League. Time will tell.

It's cup football today, though, and a chance for the Pansies improve on what is a pretty dismal record against Tayport over the past 14 years.

There have been sweeping changes in the Violet squad since the teams last met in June last year. That occasion was, of course, the infamous North End Challenge Cup Final at North End Park, when Robbie Holden pulled the match out of the fire for Tayport before Pansies' Kenny Jones saw red and earned himself a ban.

Jones is one of ten players from that evening who will be missing from today's Violet line-up.

Manager John Markie replaced co-bosses Andy Sommerville and Dave Tosney who had both intimated well before the end of the season that last season would be their last in charge at Glenesk. Markie has brought in a host of new faces to get a mix of youth and experience and who will be anxious to perform well this afternoon, including a former 'Port player, Jackie Thomson.

Tayport have Davie Evans on loan from Raith Rovers in the squad and, with a number of players suffering from knocks, the Tayport top scorer for the last two seasons could well feature, from the bench if not from the start.

EAST OR WEST, WHO'S BEST?

In his column in the (Glasgow) Evening Times last week, Junior Scotland team boss Jim O'Donnell previewed the Cambuslang v Tayport game, pointing out that 'Lang were the last surviving West club in the competition. Was the power base of the Junior game moving east, questioned Jim.

"The very thought provokes widespread horror on this side of the country, said Jim in his column and, even if Rangers were to fall to 'Port, leaving an all-east semi-final, could this really be construed as compelling evidence of the in-roads made by forming the East Super Leagues? "Sorry", said Jim, "got to be a few more seasons of similar imbalance for that to be believed" he added.

Of course, he's right, time will tell. Nevertheless things are changing and the domination of the Junior game by the West is now history. Is it just a coincidence that the first all-east last four in 117 years is hard on the heels of establishment of the Whyte & Mackay East Superleague?

Which takes us on to the 2004 Final. With an all-East final, the oft uttered cry this week, has been "Surely it will not be at Firhill". Well, there has been no indication to the contrary, with the suggestion that there is a three year contract with Partick Thistle.

Carnoustie v Glenrothes at Firhill, for example, would probably attract less than half the attendance of a full house final at McDiarmid Park. One would imagine, therefore, that a change to the east coast would be a tempting proposition.

Two semi-final replays this afternoon with Glenrothes v Sauchie and Hill of Beath and Musselburgh vying for the chance to join Tayport and Carnoustie in the semi-finals.

If we get the results before the end of today's game, we'll make an announcement on the p.a. system. What a boost for the Kingdom of Fife, never mind the Whyte & Mackay Super League if Glens and Haws were to join Tayport in the semis.

At the time of writing, the semi final Carnoustie v Musselburgh or Hill of Beath is pencilled in for McDiarmid Park, Perth on Friday 23rd April while our tie v Sauchie or Glenrothes is down for Starks Park, Kirkcaldy the following week, 30th April. These are speculative at the moment but, by the time you're reading this, the dates and venues should be finalised.

GUS MAKES SCORING DEBUT FOR TAYPORT FC VETERANS' XI

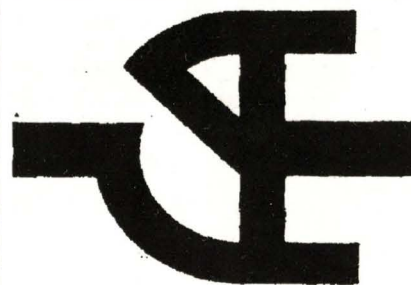

Gus Malone pulled on a Tayport shirt for the first time in nearly 22 years when he made his debut for the Tayport FC Veterans XI, the other Friday against Henderson & Loggie. Tayport's line-up of 40s and 50+s was:- Ian Lyall, Colin Gray, Dennis Loftus, Ian Mathers, Neil Downie (right), Jim Downie, Bert Valentine, Gordon Hughes, Brian Cosgrove, Bruce Burnett (below) and Doug Henderson. Gus Malone came on as substitute and won the match for 'Port with a crashing drive, the only goal of the game. Also on as sub was teenager Ian Downie, son of Jim.

The Vets take on European opposition for the first time next Saturday morning (10th April) when Belgian side AC Ougree provide the opposition at Tayport. Kick-off is at 10am.

The Belgian party of 40 are spending a four day holiday in Scotland and this is the only game they will be playing.

The Tayport Vets have Howe, Lyall, Henderson and Valentine unavailable, so added to the pool that played v Henderson & Loggie for the AC Ougree game are another couple of teenagers, Bradley Burnett in goal and Chris Burnett, son of Bruce. Other additions are Jimmy Bisset and Dougie Cook media matters

Whilst we concede that the Evening Telegraph generally does a good job for the Junior game with its coverage on a Monday and Friday, the other DC Thomson publications, the Sunday Post and The Courier leave much to be desired. Saturday 20th March was unique in Junior Football history in that four clubs from The Courier's catchment area featured in each of the Scottish Junior Cup quarter final ties. One would have imagined that the Courier's Sports Editor would have picked up on this and instructed a feature on what was an unprecedented occasion. But no, nothing special, the usual articles, one for Tayside edition featuring Tayport and Carnoustie and a separate article for the Fife edition, featuring Haws and Glens.

Then on the Monday afterwards, The Courier had three different articles on the Juniors, the Super League article reflecting on the solitary game that was played, supported by a league table that hadn't been updated with the scoreline of the game featured. What's worse the same table appeared the following week—again out of date. Still, it had us above Linlithgow!

The Sunday Post's efforts to cover Junior football continue to be nothing short of abysmal. Carnoustie Panmure, upset the odds to get to the last four and strike a tremendous blow for east coast Junior football in front of a bigger crowd than any Bells Scottish League second or third division match, yet it warranted only a couple of lines. Similarly last week, Tayport join their East League neighbours in the last 4 after appearing in front of a near 1,600 crowd and again it's a couple of lines. Full marks to its rival the Sunday Mail who managed a lengthy reports each week, supported by an excellent action photos.

The Evening Telegraph (Monday 22nd March) still cannot seem to come to terms with the fact that there is no longer a Tayside JFA, and the quote attributed to East Region secretary Jock Myles wishing Tayport and Carnoustie well, yet making no mention of two of his other East Region clubs, Hill of Beath and Glenrothes, wouldn't go down particularly well in central and west Fife.

Whilst Monday past's Courier coverage of Tayport's win at Cambuslang was pretty pathetic, The Sun and Daily Record had superb coverage. The Sun's Scott Campbell cottoned on to the fact that Sean Christie holds the record for being the youngest ever player to play Senior football in Scotland when he turned out as a 15 year old for Forfar Athletic. The Record filled its football supplement's back page with great photographs of the tackle which saw Sean Christie carried off plus a match report from Scott Kopel.

Of course history was made, when, for the first time in over a century, Cambuslang's defeat meant there would be no west coast representatives in the semi-finals. Not unexpectedly then, there was no Junior coverage in The Herald.

Would that have been the case if a Glasgow team had got through? I think not. And to think, that newspaper dropped 'Glasgow' from its masthead and claimed to be a national paper. Pull the other one!

Legends JIMMY HUNTER

Jimmy Hunter signed for Tayport from Downfield in January 1991 and went on to play 188 games for the club until 1996. Although effectively a coach in his final season, 1995/96, Jimmy managed five games that season before hanging up his boots, his last appearance being against Downfield in the semi-final of the Whyte & Mackay Cup.

According to local legend, The soft drink VIMTO was invented in Tayport at the lemonade works formerly situated in Dalglish Street

Did you know? - exactly five years ago this afternoon, Scott Peters and Ralph Hunter lined up against each other at Gayfield for Arbroath and Cowdenbeath respectively. A crowd of 771 saw the Lichties win 2-0.

What about all those firms that have 'Employee of the Month' titles and the like? Surely none can compare with a certain Arthur Winston, a cleaner with Los Angeles Public Transport. Arthur has just completed 70 years unbroken service with the firm. He has not had a single sickie in all that time, indeed he has had only one day off since the 23 January 1934—and that was probably understandable—his wife had died. The 97 year old still drives to his work and has only one regret. He'd liked to have been a driver but he wasn't allowed to do that job. You see, Arthur is black.

Why do we recommend other companies' products?

To get the best deals, of course.

Does that make good business sense, Bingley?
Absolutely. Bradford. Recommending other companies' mortgages, investments, pensions and insurance is excellent business.

How so?

With so many financial products on the market and so little time for people to make sense of them, we can do the hard work for them.

With you so far.

We can sift through thousands of products from hundreds of banks, building societies and other financial companies.

And then our expert advisers recommend to our customers the ones that best suit them?

Indeed. Because we believe our customers deserve the product that's best for them.

And not the one that's best for us.

Now you're cooking on gas, Bradford.

So, we can recommend products from big companies like Halifax and Standard Life, or smaller ones people possibly haven't heard of.

Spot on.

And our buying power means we may be able to get deals you can't find anywhere else.

You've got it.

And that means our customers keep coming back. That is good business.

So good that we're the biggest independent mortgage and financial adviser in the country.

That's quite a recommendation.

DAVE BAIKIE

Good afternoon to our fans and may I extend a warm welcome to our visitors for today's NCR quarter final tie against Dundee Violet.

It seems an absolute age since our last home game, or should I say, official home fixture. We had a friendly against Jeanfield Swifts a couple of weeks ago but I didn't attend due to club business. Of course that last official game was our 2-1 victory over Forth Wanderers in the Scottish fifth round replay. We followed that with three fine away wins over St Andrews United, Carnoustie Panmure and the vital away league game at Bathgate Thistle.

Last week's 1-0 win at Cambuslang Rangers had many people leaving the ground not particularly impressed with our performance, not for the first time, nor will it be for the last time, but at the end of the day it's Tayport FC that progress in the competition. I don't disagree that we've had better Saturdays. Our players would be the first to accept that, but what people don't understand is that there is a lot of tension leading up to and during these fixtures. Remember we were playing a side who'd been undefeated at home all season, had recorded seven straight wins prior to our meeting and had eliminated Pollok and Maryhill, both very good Super League sides. So, all in all, our players did alright.

I'm quite sure you'll know by now that Davie Evans has returned to us on a delayed transfer from Raith Rovers. I'm delighted Davie took the decision to return. With a potential twenty four game fixture list ahead of us, his talents will only enhance our options over this period.

Today's visitors Dundee Violet come to the Canniepairt as Tayside Premier League leaders and, such is their lead, they must be favourites to join us in the Whyte & Mackay Super League next term, so it goes without saying, we've a very difficult task ahead this afternoon. However I do feel that if we show the attitude and commitment we've produced this past month, then I believe we can advance to the semi-final stage of the NCR Cup.

FORWARD Davie Evans has returned to his former club Tayport on loan until the end of the season.

Rovers manager Antonio Calderon said: "It is of benefit to us because he will play in the first team there and still be our player."

"Ramon Pereira and Sebastian Ferrero are doing really well, and I want to give young Craig Malcolm a chance, so there is not much room for him here."

the tayport arms

The TAYPORT ARMS Public House, Nelson Street welcomes customers old and new before and after football matches at The Canniepairt. Indeed the TAYPORT ARMS welcomes customers old and new at any time.

A new management and staff is in place to cater for you and your friends, not just on football matchdays but 7/52.

Although negotiations are still on-going, Tayport Football Club has taken up an invitation to discuss acquiring an interest in this new development and, as such, The TAYPORT ARMS will now be providing the after-match catering for visiting clubs.

“ ‘PORT’S WIN OVER CARNOUSTIE, A REHEARSAL OF GREATER THINGS TO COME? “

asks

DUNMORE

The last time Tayport played a competitive match on The Canniepairt, they were bidding to reach the last eight of the OVD Scottish Junior Cup. ‘Port are now, for the sixth time in eleven years, semi-finalists.

That fifth round tie against Forth Wanderers was certainly a nail biting affair, with the unfancied visitors taking an unexpected lead. Gareth Dailly’s fine finish levelled the score and the stage was set for captain Steven Stewart to net the most dramatic of winners, from a free kick, just when extra time and penalties seemed to be looming.

As a result of Stewart’s late intervention, Tayport made a third trip to Cambuslang’s Somervell Park, to take on the five times winners of the national competition. Again ‘Port won through by the narrowest of margins, but at least the goal came early. On-form forwards Brian Craik and Sean Christie were the architects, with Barry McNaughton arriving in the box to crack the ball home.

Sandwiched in between the OVD Cup-ties came three away fixtures, the highlight being the league win at Bathgate. After going behind to a penalty, Tayport came storming back, led by Scott Peters. A Sean Christie wonder-strike and a Craik tap-in completed an excellent 3-1 victory; all the more important given that it remains, as we enter April, the only East Super League game which Tayport has played in 2004.

Cup-ties have dominated and Dave Baikie’s team has kept on winning. The previous month also included notable triumphs over St Andrews United, in a north-east Fife derby, and Carnoustie Panmure, in what may have been a rehearsal for greater things to come.

Tayport FC feature in Tam Cowan’s ‘Offside’ programme.

Not only did Tayport feature on Sunday’s STV Scotsport programme but there was also BBC coverage of the Cambuslang Rangers game on the Offside programme on Monday evening.

The irreverent programme interviewed fans on the terracing, players in the dressing rooms and showed footage of members of the Tayport Travel Club having a swally in the Cambuslang club after the game. Particularly prominent was Willie ‘Taggart’ Henderson whose appearance on the screen could well have prompted thoughts of ‘where have I seen that face before?’ from some of his former Glasgow ‘clients’. Barry’s cracking goal also featured in what was all too rare Beeb exposure.

SMELLING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

Bett Homes have lodged plans to build 46 luxury homes on Simpson Park, home of Jeanfield Swifts. Simpson Park has been home to Swifts for over 50 years but the club are moving to a new stadium at North Muirton. Unfortunately, at present, things aren't moving with the new stadium development. The Club is still in discussion with the planners but, according to reports, some locals want to "boot out the development" Doesn't look too promising for Swifts, does it? Remember Baillieston.

No prizes for guessing to whom this description applies " Having had the misfortune to actually pay to hear him some time ago at a sports night, I can confirm he is even more boring in the flesh. If anyone else has to hear him live, I would advise you to take a dictionary with you to look up the words he uses and no-one has ever heard of before, and an alarm clock to wake you up after nodding off" You've guessed. Herald columnist and Scotsport pundit Graeme Spiers.

The saga which has prompted charges and counter charges, which managed to reach the news pages of the Daily Star and Daily Express will be debated by the East Region Executive next week. The saga, of course, is the cup-tie between Rosyth Recreation and Oakley United a few weeks ago when an incredible eight red cards were shown, leaving Rosyth down to five men. It was at this stage that referee Brown called proceedings to a halt with Rosyth trailing 5-1 in goals and 10-5 in players. Amazingly, it was reported that "it was not a dirty game" Mr Brown, it will be recalled, ran the line at last season's OVD Cup final and was referee for the Tayport v Bonnyrigg game at The Canniepairt earlier this season

Sauchie, who could be our Scottish Cup semi-final opponents, have just built an impressive new stand. It's called 'The Jimmy Millar Stand' and is named after the club secretary of over 40 years, who died a year or two ago. According to the story, Mr Miller, an intimidating character, by all accounts, was one of the old school, a retired miner who looked after the pennies. While he was alive, any money Sauchie accrued stayed in the bank. He's now passed on and suddenly Sauchie have got lots of cash..... Just a story, mind you.

The football ground at The Canniepairt has been used for many different events over the years and that list is added to on Sunday 6th June when the Tayport Churches intend to hold a joint 'Songs of Praise' at the ground that evening. The Championship winning Tayport Instrumental Band will be providing the musical backing for the event to which all are welcome. It is scheduled to start at 6.30pm.

An interesting comment from Bathgate Thistle historian Ian Anderson following our recent win at Creamery Park. "They [Tayport] are a vastly improved outfit on the one which spluttered its way through the opening couple of months of the season and look a mightily impressive beast...."
