TODAY'S GAME

DUGOUT CUP (the North/Tayside Cup)
Round 2
TAYPORT v GLENTANAR

A measure of just how far Glentanar have come since they joined the Junior ranks in 1998 will be in evidence this afternoon.

In that inaugural season, Andy Sommerville's Tayport travelled to the well-appointed Woodside Sports Complex in Aberdeen and trounced the fledgling Juniors by 9-0. Steven Stewart will remember the game. His stunning overhead kick in that North/Tayside cup tie won for him the Goal of the Season award.

Two years ago Glentanar, by then making steady progress and established as members of the new North Region Premier Division, lost 1-0 to Tayport on the Canniepairt in the semi-final of the North/Tayside Cup, then sponsored by NCR. Last season Glentanar finished in a highest ever, level second spot, as well as lifting the Acorn Heating Cup and losing the Grill League Cup on penalties.

Progress has been maintained and, already this season, the Grill League Cup is in the trophy cabinet and a serious championship challenge is underway. Glens ventured south to play Neilston in the OVD Scottish Cup and returned north with a 1-1 draw, only to lose narrowly in the replay at Woodside. Given that Neilston gave Lochee United the fright of their lives in the OVD the other week, Glentanar's capabilities should in no way be in question.

Manager Gary Forbes has masterminded Glentanar's onfield progress to see the club established amongst the North's creme de la creme. The core of the side which played at Canniepairt in April two years ago is still there. Somers has moved to Sunnybank (where he was sent off last week v Glentanar), Lonie is at Highland League Keith and ex-Dundee Jerry O'Driscoll is also in the Highland League, with Huntly.

Among the new faces are strikers Stevie Bartlett from Buckie, Alan Cooper from Formartine, defender Anthony Henry from Huntly and midfielder Vinny Mars who is ex Peterhead. Bartlett was on the mark in last week's 2-1 win at Sunnybank, but it is still Colin Pirie who will be the big goal threat. Pirie hit a hat trick in the 4-2 Grill Cup Final win v Stonehaven and notched the double which ended Vale of Clyde's OVD aspirations earlier this season.

Manager Burgess' team selection is anyone's guess. Gareth Dailly was laid low by a migraine attack last week but should be ok. Allan Ramsay will likely still be out and also missing today will be Derek Wemyss (injured) and Brian Livie (Labour Party Conference) but it's probable that Paterson and Morris will return.

One thing clear, is that Tayport will find today's game one of the biggest cup challenges they have faced so far on the Canniepairt this season. The game goes to extra time before ending in penalties if still all square.

media matters

The Fife Herald (4/3/05) takes the accolades this week with a full back page devoted to last week's tie v Dundonald, along with a preview of today's tie. But what made the page stand out were the action colour photos from the match. Both photos were good action shots with interesting crowd detail as a background. What the punters must be wondering, however, is the identity of the guy with the flat cap sitting on the 'Port bench. Yep, it's Tom Borland, standing in for Norrie Marshall and desperately waiting for someone to go down injured!

The Evening Telegraph (28/2/05) also had an action shot from the Dundonald game but, with featureless trees as a background, failed to capture the atmosphere of the Herald photos.

Gary Middleton's hat trick didn't just get himself a back page portrait in the Fife Herald - again - but a half page colour shot in Monday's (28/2/05) Daily Record 'The Winner' pull-out. The photo captured Gary in typical celebratory mood. The Record also carried a match report with Gus Malone providing assistance to the reporter by supplying the quotes.

Smokey's treble, the first from a Port player since Ralph Hunter v Downfield last season, also saw him grab the headlines in the Evening Telegraph (28/02/05).

The Sun (28/03/05) carried a report on a Auchinleck v Lugar Boswell Ayrshire Cup tie as its main feature, but the report of the game was overshadowed by the emphasis the article placed on next week's OVD Cup tie v Lugar and Tayport.

Lugar's 18 goal 'hitman' Pat Walker has netted in every round of the Scottish and he told The Sun's Scott Campbell that Lugar will be no easy touches and when they play Tayport, they'll be looking to add another scalp to those of Sauchie and Newtongrange Star. For the record, Lugar went down 1-0 to a late goal.

FROM THE ARCHIVES

How The Courier and Evening Telegraph reported Tayport FC's move to Junior football in season 1990/91

Tayport over first hurdle

TAYSIDE JUNIOR FA confirmed that Tayport will be applying at the SJFA annual meeting for membership (writes Our Junior Correspondent).

The regional association unanimously accepted their application at their last meeting and now await confirmation from the association's annual meeting.

Tayport have been playing in the Midlands Amateur League for a number of seasons and have had a measured amount of success.

Tayport have extremely good facilities, a sound financial base and what is most important, a hard-working committee.

The association also confirmed that they will play for a new cup next season sponsored by Whyte & Mackay. The sponsorship is valued at about £300 and the winners will each receive a gift. This competition will be played on a home and away basis.

All systems go for Tayport

THE JUNIOR season has just ended but it seems just to start again (writes our Junior Correspondent).

Tayport, who are new to the McEwan Lager League, have not been slow to get off their marks and have already signed a number of experienced players.

From the junior ranks they have signed ex-Scottish international striker Dave Baikie as player/assistant manager. Dave played with Lochee United before joining Downfield.

Also from Downfield they have signed Kevin Thoms and Mark Spalding.

Graeme Irons who played for Lochee United and Downfield before going to Forfar West End as player/manager has also signed.

From the amateur ranks Billy Coventry and Frank Dolan from St James have signed along with Dave Tosney the Riverside goalkeeper. They have a number of re-instatements under way who will be signed in the near future. It appears to be all systems go at Tayport's trim enclosure.

On the other side of the coin Elmwood, who split with East Craigie at the end of the season, hope to have the matter of an emergency park in hand during the week and have signed a number of players for next season.

North End FC held their Annual Meeting in the clubhouse yesterday with the following office bearers elected—President, A. Grubb, vice president—M. Barclay, secretary, John Reilly, treasurer, C. Masterton, minutes secretary, R. Moral, coaches, J. Shaw, J. Kyles and K. Boyle will be in charge of the playing side, 14 of last year's squad have signed for next season.

Delegates are reminded of the following meetings which will be held in the North End FC Social Club on Tuesday 26th June. Disciplinary Committee 7 pm, General Committee 7.15 pm with the AGM at 7.30 pm.

TAYSIDE JUNIORS

TAYPORT ARE still signing players and have added to their squad Sean Wilkie who has been re-instated from Brechin City, Gary Christie from East Craigie, Grant Paterson and David Rae from Riverside Amateurs and David Reilly, Lawside FPs.

East Craigie have signed 12 of last year's squad. Besides Gary Christie they have lost Keith Nicholson, called up by St Johnstone, and Forfar Athletic have claimed Stewart Petrie. Manager Ian Cook has been negotiating to increase his squad.

Downfield have lost four of last season's squad with the departure of Dave Baikie, Kevin Thoms and Mark Spalding to Tayport Juniors and Montrose have called up Roy Price.

They have added Kenny Jones from Douglas Amateurs who was capped recently for Amateur Scotland. They have also signed Stewart Cassidy from Elmwood and striker Derek Mitchell from Lochee United.

SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP FIFTH ROUND

Four Tayside clubs were today striving to reach the last eight in the OVD Scottish Junior Cup.

Downfield v. Bellshill

Downfield—Clark; Young, Anderson, McMullin, Mcintosh, Mitchell, Price, Jones, Duffy, Fraser, Blair. Subs—Nisbet, McLeod.

Bellshill—Wagh; Tomlinson, Burke, Toner, Neill, McGuire, Millar, O'Hare, Green, Smith. Subs—Ferry, Murphy.

Referee—G. Trann, Kirkcaldy.

Downfield were under pressure early on when a shot from O'Hare went just over.

However, Downfield soon settled and Wagh did well to clutch a Mitchell cross and the same player had a header cleared off the line.

The Spiders came close again when a Fraser shot was pushed out by Wagh.

Downfield were looking increasingly dangerous upfront and a Jones header went just wide of the target.

The home side broke the deadlock in 40 minutes when MITCHELL turned well in the box and swept the ball home.

MITCHELL added a second just on half-time.

Half-time—Downfield 2, Bellshill 0.

The visitor's hopes were killed off in 54 minutes when MITCHELL curled a shot in from the wing to complete his hat-trick.

The visitors missed a great chance to pull one back when Smith sent a penalty over the bar.

It was almost four for Downfield when a Young header went just wide.

Final—Downfield 3, Bellshill 0.

Arthurlie v. St Josephs

Arthurlie—Bowie; Rossiter, Colhoun, Lynch, Cairney, Lindsay, Gardner, Bulloch, Grady, Fulton, Thomson. Subs—Arthur, McConville.

St Josephs—O'Hanlon; Dow, Cameron, Kenyon, Peoples, Heenan, Peacock, Malone, Buchanan, McLaren, Gibson. Subs—McAulay, Barr.

Referee—A. Granger, Kilmarnock.

St Josephs went behind in the 8th minute when Peoples tackled Thomson. The referee pointed to the spot and GRADY scored.

St Josephs hit back gaining the equaliser in the 14th minute. Arthurlie's defence were slow to clear a corner and were punished when PEACOCK drove the ball from 12 yards to beat keeper Bowie.

Ian Heenan came close to snatching the lead for the Jokeys in the 17th minute when his shot was just wide.

McLaren of St Josephs was yellow carded for persistent fouling.

Half-time—Arthurlie 1, St Josephs 1.

Keeper O'Hanlon came to St Josephs' rescue in the 52nd minute when Gardner at the near post turned quickly to test the keeper.

In the 70th minute a free kick by Colin Lindsay hit the St Josephs crossbar.

A minute later a lofted passback by defender Rossiter forced Arthurlie's keeper Bowie to clear the danger.

Final—Arthurlie 1, St Josephs 1.

SPIDERS' MITCHELL SCORES HAT-TRICK

Tayport v. Shettleston

Tayport—Mann; P. Reilly, Paterson, Spalding, Sommerville, Wilkie, Hunter, Gushie, Mackay, D. Reilly, Lamont. Subs—Davine and Lynch.

Shettleston—McKie; Currie, Devlin, Fisher, Ashcroft, Smith, Thomson, MacArthur, Holland, McNeil, Johnstone. Subs—Caldwell and Docherty.

Referee—R. McNab, Aberdeen.

Tayport opened the scoring when REILLY beat Smith to a Lamont through ball and fired past McKie.

However, in the 20th minute Shettleston drew level when Sommerville, under pressure, handled in the area and MacARTHUR made no mistake from the spot.

Half-time—Tayport 1, Shettleston 1.

In the 78 minute Tayport stunned the visitors with a goal out of the blue. D. Reilly and Lynch combined well and Lynch's cross was headed in by MacKAY.

Six minutes later Tayport made it three when Mackay crossed from the right and D. REILLY beat two defenders to slot the ball home.

Final—Tayport 3, Shettleston 1.

Broughty v. Auchinleck

Broughty Athletic—Glen; Bulst, Geddes, Young, Jack, Findlay, Gourlay, Gray, Duncan, Dods, Ross. Subs—Donnelly, Heston.

Auchinleck—Wilson; Gemmell, Young, Houston, McCulloch, Pirie, Dick, Lyden, Mills, Paterson, Thomson. Subs—MacDonald, Adams.

Referee—J. Rowbotham, Kirkcaldy.

Broughty were under pressure from the kick-off and keeper Glen was on the spot to hold a McCulloch header from a Paterson corner.

The pressure told on Broughty's defence in 35 minutes when LYDEN latched on to a Paterson ross and crashed the ball past Glen.

Gourlay (Broughty) was booked.

Half-time—Broughty Athletic 0, Auchinleck Talbot 1.

In 72 minutes Broughty were awarded a penalty for a push on DUNCAN. He took the kick himself and scored the equaliser.

Broughty's Gray was sent off and in 86 minutes Talbot capitalised on their advantage when MILLS netted a Paterson cross for the winner.

Final—Broughty Ath. 1, Auchinleck Talbot 2.

"NO JOB TOO BIG OR TOO SMALL FOR MARSH AND SULLIVAN"

Good afternoon and a warm welcome to the Canniepairt to both sets of supporters for this afternoon's Dugout Cup tie between Tayport and Glentanar.

Our opponents sit in mid table in the North Super League but we know they are one of the fancied teams to win that title this season. They have played a lot fewer games than their rivals and, if they win most of their games in hand, they will top the table. So, we are under no illusions that this is going to be a very tough encounter.

Recently our form has picked up considerably with the team again playing with confidence. I think this showed last week in our 4-0 home win against Dundonald Bluebell in the Redwood Leisure Cup.

Personally, I think the scoreline could have been more, as we dominated the game for long periods, especially in the second half, when every time we went forward we looked as if we might score.

We took the opportunity to make a few changes from the week before, to freshen up the team and give some of the players who haven't featured recently the opportunity to show what they could do and they all did very well.

One of those missing was Roberto Morris who was injured against Glenafton and we felt that with him, Scott Peters and John Ward all playing for Scotland against Petershill last Sunday, we didn't want to jeopardise his chances of getting through to the final squad. By all accounts the lads did very well and look to have done enough to book their places in the team. Well done, lads, it's a great honour for both yourselves and the club.

Against Dundonald we only had a Robbie Henderson strike to show for our first half efforts, although there were a few close things around the opposition box. I felt that we were playing well within ourselves and stressed that at the half time team talk.

With Gareth Dailly feeling unwell, we brought Gary Middleton into the team at the interval to add to our goal threat, and what an impact he made with a great goal one minute into the second period, when he lobbed the 'keeper from 30 yards. It was the start of what was to be a very good afternoon's work for Smokie, as he went on the complete his hat trick with another two fine strikes.

Not that it was a one man show, as the entire team performed well, with the defence looking tight in giving nothing away, a strong midfield led by the impressive Scott Peters and our strikers looking a real threat in and around the Dundonald box.

All good signs as we enter the final third of what could be a great season for us, but we will be reminding the lads that we must perform at a high level every week, if we want to fulfil our ambitions and go on to add to our impressive trophy haul from our previous campaigns, and that level must be reached today against a very capable Glentanar side.

Get behind then team, enjoy the game and we'll see you all next week down at Lugar Boswell

Enjoy the match, Keith Burgess

Get Well Soon

Missing from the Canniepairt today will be club vice-chairman Alastair Oswald a.k.a. Herx who was rushed into hospital on Thursday for an appendix operation. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Tayport FC
v
North Region Clubs

March of progress sees end of Tarff Rovers

The days when communities supported their local side are, sadly, now a thing of the past., it would appear.

The days where once, small communities in far flung parts of the country supported their local football club look to be numbered. There isn't the interest to sustain a football team in what were once thriving communities, thriving on the back of abundant local employment, whether it be mining, farming, shipyards or whatever.

Tarff Rovers existed for 131 years in the Wigtownshire village of Kirkcowan, population 350, one of those places where a visitor gets the distinct impression that time has stood still.

In the late 1990s and thru' to 2002 Tarff, apparently bankrolled by a sugar daddy, won a succession of league titles. In 2003 they finished runners-up. The following season i.e. last season, they lost their opening fixture 13-0 and promptly went into abeyance, intending to return this season. It never happened.

The final straw for Tarff, apparently, came a fortnight ago when chairman Clifford Allan arranged a meeting to try to breathe new life into the club. Allan said: 'We put posters in the all the local pubs and on notice boards advertising the meeting but not a single person outside the committee turned up.

'So regrettably we have closed Tarff Rovers down. 'The demography of Kirkcowan has made it impossible as the majority of people are of retiring age. 'We can hardly field a team with 80-year-olds at the back and a 90-year-old in goal.

'You need people, players and pounds to run a football club and unfortunately we have none of those.'

Chic Charnley, who was one of those who played for Tarff in 1998/99, said. 'They were a friendly and well-run club when I was involved and it's a shame to see what has happened to them now.'

As well as the demographic, aspect, the Tarff situation perhaps also illustrates the risk that's taken when a club is bankrolled to such an extent it becomes wholly dependent on the firm or individual doing the bankrolling. When the plug's pulled, there's nothing left, no committee, no players, no fundraising structure. Nothing.

The FIFE HERALD

Tayport v Glentanar

NCR Cup Semi Final
19 April 2003

How the local press reported the last meeting of the teams

TAYPORT - 1 GLENTANAR - 0

There was a positive outcome to Saturday's match, with Tayport reaching a second cup final of the season, by virtue of a narrow semi-final win against North outfit, Glentanar, in the inter-regional NCR Trophy. Interestingly, 'Port's opponents in the tournament final will be Tayside rivals North End, whose co-manager, Paul Reilly, will be keen to exact revenge for last week's home league defeat against his former club.

Other than reaching the final, however, the 'Port support had little else to cheer, on an afternoon of few highlights. The game had begun in an encouraging fashion when Brian Craik's diving header tested the visiting 'keeper, Carson Riches, in the first minute, then, moments later, Gareth Dailly opened the scoring with a curling free kick, which the custodian could not keep out. Given that Glentanar boss, Gary Forbes, was in charge when Tayport rattled in nine without reply on the last occasion the sides met, back in 1999, he must have been fearing the worst. Ultimately, though, only Dailly's early strike would separate the teams.

Tayport certainly dominated, retaining possession for lengthy periods of time, but, despite constantly probing for openings, could not add to their tally. This left Tayport chief Dave Baikie somewhat frustrated. "We got into good areas several times, but the final ball was lacking. Jonathan Mitchell's pace down the right, for instance, caused Glentanar problems, although he couldn't quite find the end product," said Baikie in a post-match interview.

Towards half-time, the Canniepairt men almost paid for their slackness in the final third of the park, when Glentanar's Martin Ross appeared in the 'Port box to crack a shot beyond Frazer Fitzpatrick, only to see the ball rebound off the woodwork.

The best efforts of the second period came from midfielder Allan Ramsay, who did his utmost to instil some urgency into his team's display, but they were to no avail and even substitute Davie Evans missed the target, after having been played in by Brian Craik's knockdown, in the closing stages of the encounter.

Tayport : Fitzpatrick, Gunnion, Paterson, Ward, Morris, Scott(McNaughton), Ramsay, Stewart, Craik, Mitchell(Hunter), Dailly(Evans).

Glent'r : Riches, Ross, Lonie, Raby, A. Campbell, McGregor(Black), Somers, Shirreffs, O'Driscoll, Rennie(Masson), S. Campbell(McAllister).

" A potentially tough afternoon awaits "

DUNMORE

No doubts as to the star of the show in the Redwood Leisure Cup tie against Dundonald last weekend. The first half had been a fairly mundane affair, notable only for Robbie Henderson's opening goal, following good work by Sean Christie.

It was only with the introduction of Gary Middleton, just before half-time, that Tayport really sparked into life. Never one to shirk a shooting opportunity, Smokey delighted the home support with two exceptionally well-taken goals, one of which came a mere fifteen seconds after the interval.

The finishes, which stunned the battling Bluebell, came either side of a less spectacular close-range effort, as Middleton claimed his first ever Tayport treble.

At the back, 'Port were typically solid, and this aspect of the team is obviously vital to success. The qualities typified by Middleton, however, could well make the big difference when the silverware is eventually handed out.

That time, of course, is still a long way off, but each match plays its part, including this fixture against Glentanar. Sometimes, teams cannot help but go into matches with one eye on an encounter yet to come, and that could even be the case for Tayport today. It will not be the case for the visitors from Aberdeen, though. They will be devoting all of their energies to this Dugout Cup tie. A potentially tough afternoon awaits.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

Although, by the time you read this, the story's probably been picked up by the national press. Kello Rovers from Kirkconnell, the most southerly situated Junior club, has struck it rich. Kello's president, Jim Campbell, ever looking for funding sources as we all are, thought he'd drop Greta's multi millionaire chairman, Brooks Milesen, a line asking if he could help. It was a shot in the dark, but it hit the target and the philanthropic Brooks has given Kello £10 grand a year for the next three years as well as strips and training gear.

Where's the Heathcote Cup? That's the question posed by elderly football follower Sandy Rankine. Sandy tells Snoot that the cup was contested between the wars by the schools in Tayport, Newport and Wormit as well as the boys from the Mars ship which was anchored in the Tay (The Mars accommodated juvenile delinquents in those days). Presented by Captain Heathcote of The Mars, the cup had been won by Tayport in its last few years, during the early 1930s and has never been seen since. So, thoughts are that it could be in a shed or an attic, somewhere in Tayport. Another query from Sandy. Anybody have any record of a Tayport football team known as Tayport Red Star? Methinks it's a case for local historian Andy Phin

The most observant of Port supporters at last week's game v Dundonald Bluebell would have noticed the absence of physio Norrie Marshall, who had been struck down with 'flu. Into the bag-carrying breach stepped that man for all seasons, Tom Borland. With the minutes ticking away, surely Tom would be called into action, but No, for the first time in four years the services of the sponge man weren't called upon and Tom missed out on his big chance!

Still on the topic of sponge men, reminds us that former club treasurer and occasional sponge man Ross Macmillan officially retired from work yesterday. Best of luck in your retirement, Ross. Ross and the sponge bag prompts the memory of the time during the amateur days of the club when a Tayport player went down injured on the far side of the park. Ross raced across the park at breakneck speed, knelt down beside the injured player, went in to his heavy duty carrier bag, to discover two flasks of hot orange! Never again was the water and sponge put in an identical bag to the half-time drinks! Ross, of course, claimed that the Vitamin C would do the player the world of good.
