Last weekend Pollok's defeat at home by Renfrew saved the bookies a major payout, with the other Scottish Junior Cup ties going pretty much as expected.

With Arthurlie and Lochee still to replay, it's no surprise that Tayport have been installed as 5/2 favourites for the OVD Scottish Junior Cup.

Maryhill are quoted at 3/1, Arthurlie and Lochee, both at 7/2 and Renfrew quoted as 6/1 outsiders.

That could all change after tomorrow's draw which will be on the Newslane.

OVD SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP

The OVD Scottish Junior Cup quarter final ties didn't quite go to plan with the major hiccup being the home defeat of bookies' cup favourites Pollok, by fellow West Super League Premier side Renfrew. An attendance of 1,477 at Newlandsfield saw 'Frew win through by the odd goal in five. Having lost their last six league games, including a 6-1 drubbing from Cumnock, few could blame the bookies for making Pollok odds on favourites. However, that's football and there were few at Pollok who would fail to acknowledge that the visitors deserved their win.

At Troon, Maryhill looked set to take their hosts back to Glasgow for a replay when Troon's Martin Graham had the misfortune to put the ball in his own net. It was pretty typical of Troon's luck this season. Stuck near the foot of the West Super League, a place in the last four for the first time in their history would have been a welcome distraction for the Portland Park club.

Lochee United and Arthurlie replay this afternoon after drawing 1-1 at Thomson Park. United took full advantage of the quarter final limelight, ensuring there was plenty pre-match publicity, in the hope of taking advantage of the absence of Senior football in the city. Lochee even produced a rare match programme for an occasion that attracted an attendance reputed to be around the four figure mark.

On a cold afternoon, many of those assembled on the grassy hillside had made an early exit, confident that Jon Thompson's early first half header would be sufficient to take Lochee through. With United pretty much controlling things in the second half, few could blame them, but it ain't over until the fat lady sings, as they say, and a last gasp equaliser saw Arthurlie salvage a replay at Barrhead.

It will be recalled that in 1993, Tayport had been written off after drawing 1-1 at home with a strong Arthurlie team which included a young James Grady, now with Dundee United, but won the replay 3-0. So write off Lochee at your peril. That all-local semi-final tie could still come out of the bag yet. Especially if the discs/balls have been in the freezer!

The draw is on Football First tomorrow (check listings for time). Is there a chance, perhaps, that the powers that be will get a classy-looking velvet bag and four decent-sized balls and a wee rack on which to place the balls, thus to giving the draw a wee touch of professionalism?

Tayport had been expected to get through at Lugar and did so in the end, but there were anxious moments. A upset looked on the cards when Lugar, urged on by a sizeable and noisy local support, took a first minute lead. However the ease with which the goal was cancelled out within a minute, ensured that perhaps Lugar's confidence had suffered more damage than had been done to Tayport's. By midway through the second half it was the Tayport support which was singing with the home side and their fans subdued by a professional Port performance.

A fourth successive appearance in the semi-final (not three as mentioned on TV and in Monday's Evening Telegraph) awaits Tayport on either Friday 15th April or Friday 22nd April. Linlithgow (at Almondvale), Maryhill (at Broadwood) and Glenrothes (at Starks Park) were the previous semi-final opponents in the new Millennium.

STATOIL Quadrangular Tournament

Tayport players John Ward, Scott Peters and Roberto Morris are still in line for places in Scotland's squad to play in the STATOIL Quadrangular Tournament in Glasgow on 28, 29 and 30th April.

There's a further trial game at Creamery Park, Bathgate on Tuesday 22 March, kick-off 7pm which will feature the three 'Port players.

The Tournament itself involves Isle of Man, Republic of Ireland, Northern Ireland and Scotland. Scotland's games are scheduled for Thursday 28th April v Northern Ireland at Arthurlie's Dunterlie Park, kick-off 7pm; Friday 29th April v Republic of Ireland at Petershill Park, kick-off 7pm; Saturday 30th April v Isle of Man at Newlandsfield, Pollok, kick-off 3pm.

TAYPORT MONOPOLISE THE OVD SEMI-FINALS

Since Tayport joined the Junior ranks in 1990, 27 clubs have reached the semi-final stage of the competition, fourteen of which have been on only one occasion. Eleven of the 27 are from the East Region. No North Region clubs have reached the penultimate stage during this period.

Tayport top the semi-final table with seven appearances, closely followed by Auchinleck on six. Arthurlie can join Talbot on six if they overcome Lochee this afternoon. Glenafton have five, Kilwinning four, while Pollok and Maryhill have three appearances each.

Just a thought...

OVD quarter final goals have long since become an established part of STV's junior football coverage. To the casual observer this must appear a treat for the country's thousands of junior football fans. Yet for most, cramming 13 goals from four matches into two minutes and forty seconds, was another missed attempt at taking junior football seriously.

That the cliché-ridden embarrassment that is Scotsport's junior cup coverage needs an overhaul is surely beyond question. If you had discussed Tayport on national television as much as Jim Delahunt would you not be tempted to actually go and watch a game of football there? Archie MacPherson was once the voice of British Eurosport but has long-since been unseated by a new generation who take their job seriously. These commentators rely heavily on a wealth of pre-prepared statistics which, although not comparable with a first-hand knowledge, at least allows them to inject a little interest for the casual viewer. And then there are the pundits.

MacPherson: sell-by 12/05/87

Those wheeled out for the occasion seem to regard research as something best left to scientists. Their in-depth knowledge suggests little more than a quick chat with a journalist friend who once went to a Linlithgow versus Hill of Beath quarter final.

Loss of television coverage would undeniably dent the prestige of the competition, so this criticism is intended to be constructive and positive. In this age of celebrity there must be someone ready to become Scotsport's face of junior football. It would require a dedication to attending junior football matches on a weekly basis, and, other than a starring role on cup final day, the return would be a handful of brief appearances to add some worthwhile content to the draw or highlight packages. Interested? Applications to STV, Cowcaddens, Glasgow. Good luck!

"NO JOB TOO BIG OR TOO SMALL FOR

MARSH AND SULLIVAN"

Keith Burgess writes.....

Good afternoon and a very warm welcome to both sets of supporters to Canniepairt for this afternoon's important East Super League clash against Oakley. This is a must-win game for both sides, as we still have not given up the chase for the league title and Oakley require a win to help steer them away from the drop zone.

Over the last few seasons Oakley have been the masters of escaping relegation, but we all know they are a very capable side when everything slips into place and, led by their very influential player/manager Willie Newbigging, I'm sure that once again they will survive and start next season in the Super League. From a Tayport perspective, however, we must look to take all three points and keep our recent excellent form going, and that form was very evident in last week's trip to Lugar Boswell in the Scottish Cup.

It has been well documented in all the tabloids about our magical mystery tour around Ayrshire before arriving at Lugar 25 minutes before kick-off, but I can only agree that our slow start to the game had a lot to do with us showing up late and not having the chance to warm up properly. Sometimes, though, these types of situation make you more determined to pull through and certainly our second half performance was one of which to be proud. Backed by a fantastic Tayport support, we just had the feeling that things would work out as we planned.

The response from our guys after losing a second minute goal was great, with Barry McNaughton finishing off a cross from Robbie Henderson five minutes into the tie. Then, having won and converted a penalty on ten minutes, we thought we were back on track but the referee decided that the penalty had to be retaken and unfortunately big Wardy had the second attempt saved, so once again it was game on.

The rest of the half was keenly contested, but going in to the break, we knew we had much more to offer and, with a bit of encouragement from Derek, Stewart and myself at half time and a few tactical changes, we took the game by the scruff of the neck and dominated from then on in. With further goals from Gary Middleton and two from man of the match Scott Peters, we deservedly took our place in the last four of the Junior Cup

All in all it was a day to remember and a huge thanks to the Tayport faithful who once again made the long journey down to deepest Ayrshire and certainly inspired the team to victory. Now, we can all look forward to tomorrow's OVD semi-final draw on TV.

Let's get behind the team again today.

Enjoy the game

Cheers, Keith

Today's Game

TAYPORT v OAKLEY UNITED

Whyte & Mackay Super League - Game 17/22

In the first season of the Super League, Oakley visited newly crowned champions Tayport, needing to win to stay amongst the elite. This they duly did with a 1-0 win which propelled them four places up the table, relegating Carnoustie Panmure instead.

Last season Oakley again flirted with relegation, amassing two fewer points but still avoiding the drop by finishing one place off relegation.

Another Houdini act is on the cards this season but, if there is any club which is geared up for a last ditch battle to avoid the drop it is Oakley.

That's what will give this afternoon's match its edge, as the inconsistent Oakley embark on a mission to collect the ten points from a possible twenty-one which should ensure safety. Indeed, a decent run of form could see Oakley climb rapidly into the top half of the league.

For Tayport, a win would see them move up to third, even second if Thornton were to win at Bo'ness, but a defeat or a draw would mean consolidating a disappointing mid table position.

Oakley's good work a fortnight ago, when they cuffed Thornton by 4-1 was undone, to some extent, last Saturday when they went down 2-0 at home to Carnoustie. Inspirational player/manager Willie Newbigging may not be as fleet of foot as he once was, but he still wields a telling influence as his three 'assists' v Thornton would testify. Following the Carnoustie loss, Newbigging bemoaned the fact that his team had plenty of the ball but lacked a cutting edge.

This is Tayport's first league fixture since 8th January and they will be looking to build on their good cup form of recent weeks. Manager Burgess will have his players made well aware of the threat posed by Oakley, emphasising the importance of picking up three points.

It's likely that some of the players who didn't start against Lugar will get the nod today. Allan Ramsay, whose last game was at Beith, is on the road to recovery and might claim a place on the bench. John Knox, ordered off v Glentanar, will sit this one out.

Tayport could have an addition to their pool this afternoon. The club has been in negotiations during the week, and there is the possibility that the player could be listed as a trialist. Tayport can make two 'joker' signings outwith the transfer window and could take advantage of this facility.

“ Barry’s quick fire equaliser the most important goal of the season thus far? “

DUNMORE

When Glentamar visited the Canniepairt for the Dugout Cup tie, a fortnight ago, they were outclassed by a confident Tayport. From the moment John Ward headed in Gary Middleton's inventive free kick, on 21 minutes, victory was a near certainty.

John Knox confirmed this with a fabulous strike, fifteen minutes later. Wardy's second half header emphasised Tayport's superiority and, despite Knox getting himself sent off, they cruised into the quarters of the North/Tayside trophy.

The dismissal apart, the display seemed ideal preparation for the OVD cup quarter-final at Lugar. When Saturday came, however, preparation became a touchy subject. The late arrival at Rosebank Park could have been costly, and Lugar undoubtedly profited, scoring in the opening minutes.

Barry McNaughton's quick-fire equaliser may well be the most important goal of the season thus far. In effect, it allowed 'Port to start the match again. The first half remained hectic, though, with Ward's penalty saga the other major incident.

The second half began with the Proclaimers belting out over the Tannoy system, just as they had done when Patty stepped up to lift the Scottish Cup, in June, 2003. It must have been a good omen. A Gary Middleton free kick and a Scott Peters double, one from very close range, led to a comprehensive 4-1 scoreline.

The club can now gear up for a magnificent seventh Scottish Junior Cup semi-final appearance, having established themselves as the team of the OVD era. What's more, we are just two wins away from convincing the rest of the country.

IN WITH THE BRICKS* At last the brick wall is taking shape!

The wall of bricks engraved with the names of supporters, players, committee, sponsors of Tayport FC through the years is now under construction and we're looking for names for another order of bricks. More details from secretary.

media matters

Tayport has had it's share of press, TV and radio coverage this week. The brief highlights of the Lugar cup tie came over well on STV's Football First programme on Sunday at lunchtime and it's probably fair to say that, of the four ties covered by the cameras, Tayport v Lugar was the pick of the bunch. The support for Tayport at Lugar was excellent and it was good to see the giant flags conspicuous on TV.

Tayport boss Keith Burgess was on BBC Scotland's midweek football phone-in, giving opinion on the breaking news that the SFA's 93 members clubs will be asked to vote on junior participation in the Tennent's Scottish Cup. For the Juniors to even be mentioned on BBC Scotland is progress! As The Sun (16/03/05) said, "Junior duo Pollok and Tayport could be facing up to Celtic and Rangers in next season's Scottish Cup".

The Courier (17/03/05) got on the bandwagon a day late with the same story. Apart from adding Lochee United and spelling Pollok wrongly, it was virtually the same story.

Tayport may have joined the elite few clubs who have, in the Scottish Cup's long history, reached a fourth successive semi-final, but it was a statistic lost on The Courier whose small article had Lochee United's draw with Arthurlie as its headline. Compare that with the huge coverage and banner headlines which The Courier gave Tayport when they reached their first semi-final back in April 1993. Suppose that it's a backhanded compliment that reaching the semi-finals is no longer big news. It's still big to us, though!

It's been a bad week for DCTs. The Evening Telegraph (14/03/05) had Tayport's win at Lugar as their headline but reported that it was a third successive semi-final and the Sunday Post (13/03/05) coverage of the OVD semi-final ties was, as usual, worse than pathetic.

The Sunday Mail (13/03/05) had good coverage of the OVD semis, as did its stablemate the Daily Record in its Monday pull-out "the Winner". Lugar boss Jimsie Kirkland, who had been featured in Saturday's Sun, conceded that Tayport had been deserved winners.

The Record also reported that Thornton had "booted out" midfielder Ken Renwick who had failed to turn up for Hibs, game against Bathgate.

Scott Campbell in The Sun (14/03/05) highlighted Tayport's bus getting lost en route to Lugar in his report but correctly noted that Tayport had overcome this setback to reach their fourth straight semi-final.

Tayport Veterans' XI Shine Tayport Veterans' XI 4 Henderson & Loggie 1

Two weeks ago the Tayport Veterans were in action against a young Henderson & Loggie team of accountants at Gussie Park. Regulars Ian Howe and Gordon Hughes were unavailable (SAGA meeting) and Port suffered late calls off from Brian Cosgrove and Jimmy Bissett. Keeper Ian Lyall, clearly already suffering from incipient memory loss, forgot about the game and only arrived five mins from kick-off – minus gloves. Tayport gave a debut to Glen Pearson (pictured), recently back from Iraq with the Black Watch. Glen, at 35, just made the qualifying age for the team.

The Veterans fell behind to a looping header which somehow managed to find its way over 'Port's giant keeper. [Player / Manager Mathers immediately announced there would be a post match enquiry into the loss of this goal]. Tayport quickly levelled through Dougie Cook. Alan Gray and Dougie Henderson both hit the woodwork and Pearson had a goal disallowed before the break.

The class of the Vets showed in the second period Burnett netted from a free kick then his cute backheel set up Jim Downie to crash home an unstoppable drive. Pearson capped a fine debut with goal No. 4.

Late in the game Ian Downie (17) and Malcolm Downie (15) were given a run alongside father Jim and their Uncle Neil as Port cruised to victory.

With twelve players listed Tayport made a change every five minutes and lined up Ian Lyall (51), Colin Gray (42), Alan Gray (43), Dennis Loftus (45), Ian Mathers (52), Neil Downie (41), Jimmy Downie (51), Bert Valentine (48), Dougie Cook (41), Doug Henderson (55), Bruce Burnett (43) and Glen Pearson (35).

The Veterans' team is eagerly awaiting news of their next fixture, although the timescale is likely to be dictated by the condition of the player/manager/captain's hamstring problem.

Norrie Marshall has worked wonders to get him this far, but as Norrie says, it's not so easy to get the spare parts for these old models anymore.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

Following the debate in the Tayport Arms the other week, Snout can confirm that, on the same Saturday afternoon, Tayport once attracted a bigger crowd than Dundee FC. It was 21 March 1997 when Dundee, on their way to the first division title, won 2-1 at Hamilton Accies in Division One before 1,180. Tayport playing a few miles along the road at Pollok, drew 0-0 in an OVD Cup replay watched by 2,006.

Tayport FC will be well represented by committee and fans alike when the Tayport battalion of the Royal British Legion visits Normandy early next month. It's the latest in what has become an annual trip to mainland Europe where visits are made and respects paid at World War memorials.

Brian McNaughton, assistant manager at Arniston Rangers until Dave Baikie lured him from Newbyres Park earlier this season has been appointed to the coaching staff at Newcastle United. Graeme Souness announced Brian's appointment to the gathered media following Newcastle's win over Olympiakos on Wednesday.

Scotland boss Jim O'Donnell has made four changes to his pool for this Tuesday's trial match at Creamery Park, Bathgate against Bathgate Thistle. Out of the squad go Paddy Flannery (Linlithgow), Ray McKinnon (Lochee United), Ronnie McPherson (Camelon) and Keith Hogg (Glenafton). In come Steve Dallas (Petershill), Tom Courts (Hill of Beath), Derek Scrimgeour (Renfrew) and Martin McGarvey (Arthurlie). Kick-off is at 7.30pm

A new super improved Tayport FC website should be up and running soon. It promises to be the best yet with many new pages and features. The previous sites started well but ultimately failed, however it is hoped that the new site will be built to last. Details of the launch will be intimated on the Newsline.

The OVD Scottish Junior Cup semi-final draw will be made on Football First on Sunday. The programme starts at 12noon. Details will also be on the Newsline shortly afterwards.

Tayport last night received a request from the Scottish Schools FA to host the Bank of Scotland Scottish Schools Under 18 Shield semi-final tie between Fraserburgh Academy and St Margaret's from Airdrie. Subject to TFC committee approval and availability, the tie would go ahead this Thursday 24th March at 3pm
