TODAY'S GAME

FINDLAY CUP SEMI-FINAL

TAYPORT v CARNOUSTIE PANMURE

Whilst Tayport have the Redwood Leisure Cup Final next Saturday against Lochee United at Glenesk Park, today is Carnoustie's last chance of getting their hands on some silverware this season. That will be incentive enough for the Laing Park side which has had a disappointing season by their own standards.

The league campaign saw them finish just above the danger zone, but in reality, which club didn't. Cup defeats were by Dundee Violet (twice), Hill of Beath on penalties, Bonnyrigg in the Scottish and ourselves in the Redwood Cup.

Since joining the Tayside Junior FA in 1990, Tayport have played against Carnoustie on more occasions than any other club. In fact this will be the 50th meeting of the pair. The early days saw Tayport notch some victories by sizeable margins, the first four encounters between the teams bringing Tayport four wins and nineteen goals.

It wasn't all one way traffic, however, in those days as the inconsistent Carnoustie notched up the two wins which long stood as Tayport's worst ever defeats, 5-2 on Canniepairt in 1994 and 6-3 at Westfield Park in 1997. Sizeable, they might have been but they were the only two defeats suffered by Tayport in the first 30 matches between the teams.

Davie Laing's emergence as the main man at Panmure brought greater consistency to the Gowfers and recent encounters between the sides have invariably been closer affairs, the zenith of which was the Angus sides Scottish Cup final win on a penalty shoot out in 2004.

This season the sides have been unable to be separated in the league with two 1-1 draws being the outcome. Four more points for Panmure would have given them a healthy finishing spot, but for Port it would have seen them sitting here today as title favourites.

At Laing Park back in August, a late Graeme Christie goal levelled Steven Stewart's early strike for Port. In the return down here, Jim Collier's early effort for the Gowfers was cancelled out by Robbie Henderson.

Tayport called the shots in April with a 3-1 win at Laing Park. Ralph Brand drew the home side level after Bryan Duell had opened for Port, but late goals from Steven Stewart and Ronnie Kenneth, who moved from Laing Park to Canniepairt during the January window, sealed the tie for Tayport.

Both teams will have their selection options curtailed by injury or suspension. Panmure's Webster misses out through suspension but Tayport's Dailly, sent off on Wednesday, will be available today but will miss the cup final next Saturday. On the visitors' injured list are Ogilvy, Wilkie, Anderson and Maher. For Tayport Stewart will definitely miss out but Livie could return. Striker Ralph Brand returns after suspension to the Gowfers' line-up but Jim Collier is cup-tied.

There will be a minute's silence prior to this afternoon's match in memory of former Carnoustie treasurer Tom Fenwick who died this week, aged 86. Tom was the last surviving founder member of the club which was established in 1936.

THAT WAS THE (LEAGUE) SEASON, THAT WAS

Looking on the bright side, Tayport can still win the Super League. Looking on the realistic side, we'll finish as runners-up, for a third year in a row. It's amazing how fortunes have fluctuated over the past few months, during which time both Bathgate and, to a lesser extent, Whitburn, seemed likely to run away with the title.

April's draw at home to 'Burn all but ended Tayport's hopes and with the Central Parkers hitting a major slump, Bathgate held all of the aces. Until, that is, Scott Peters popped up with a last-gasp winner at Creamery Park, thus reviving Tayport's hopes.

When North End were beaten on the Canniepairt and 'Gate dropped points to Arniston, the tables had turned. If 'Port could collect six points from the last two fixtures, Thistle would have to win all four of their remaining games. A tall order for the Scottish Cup finalists.

So, back in a position of strength, it all went horribly wrong. Glenrothes equalised with a late corner kick a fortnight ago, then, at New Dundas Park, a seemingly rejuvenated 'Port went into a two-goal lead, only to see all of the good work undone in the closing stages. Now, for Tayport, nothing more can be done. Bathgate need to gain three points from three games, as well as a couple of goals in the goal-difference column. It's no certainty, but let's not build up our hopes.

Highlight of the campaign was surely the 3-2 win at Bathgate, but, until then, there hadn't been much to get excited about. Well, maybe the 3-1 win at Thomson Park.

The low point? Some might say the four-nil drubbing against Dave Baikie's Bo'ness, although that could be marked down as a freak result. The great disappointment of the season has been the club's home form. It had all started promisingly enough, with wins against Arniston and Lochee United on the Canniepairt, but, after that, too many draws, not enough wins, not enough goals.

Reflecting on those games, everyone connected with the club would shake their heads in disbelief at the points which have been lost. To be fair, though, the league is an exceptionally tight one and the vast majority of teams have been even more careless with points. It's just that expectation levels at the club are so high.

Tayport only completed league doubles over three sides this season: Lochee United, Arniston and North End, two of whom have been relegated. Whitburn, Bonnyrigg, Linlithgow and Carnoustie all managed to avoid defeat against 'Port, with Whitburn's display back in August most impressive. Tayport were fortunate to escape with a 3-2 loss, as it could have been much worse.

At least that was a match that will be remembered. A lot of the others were just mundane. Best not to dwell on it. After all, only three defeats in a 22-match programme can't be that bad. Not quite champions, but not far away.

Keith Burgess writes.....

Good afternoon and a very warm welcome to both sets of supporters for today's Findlay & Co. Cup semi-final clash with Carnoustie.

We are expecting a very tough encounter this afternoon as all our meetings this season with Carnoustie have been very close affairs with Tayport just edging the last game in the final fifteen minutes with two late goals.

Since our last home programme we have had three matches. The first was against Glenrothes where we missed a few chances after Duncan Maclean had given us an early lead with a very well taken goal, only for us to lose a late goal direct from a corner kick which cost us two valuable league points. Then we had the visit of Kinnoull. I felt that we dominated the game and again got our noses in front only to squander chance after chance, with Barry McNaughton hitting the woodwork twice and Gareth Dailly missing a penalty. Poor finishing and a great goalkeeping display kept the visitors in the game, only for us again to lose a late goal and send the tie into a penalty shoot-out. The pressure was now on the penalty takers, but to their great credit, nobody hid from their responsibilities and we had numerous volunteers to take a kick. The pleasing thing for me was that we scored four out of four excellent penalties with Fitzy doing his bit and saving two of Kinnoull's to put us into another semi-final spot.

Then it was off to Bonnyrigg last week for our final league match of the season. The game started brightly for us with a few close things around their goal and one great save from their keeper as Ronnie Kenneth looked certain to score and it stayed that way up to half-time.

After the break we upped the tempo to play some good football, and it came as no surprise when we took the lead courtesy of a penalty from Bryan Duell and then doubled our lead five minutes later thanks to Derek Wemyss. Looking comfortable and playing controlled football we were then robbed of 3 points by two very poor refereeing decisions. The first bad decision was when Frazer Fitzpatrick was held down as he tried to take a cross and the ball was bundled over the line to give Bonnyrigg a bit of hope. Then came the ref's second and most controversial decision when Derek Wemyss was penalised for winning the ball fairly, and with the resultant free kick leading to Bonnyrigg's equaliser, we were all massively disappointed as we thought that we had played well and deserved to win the game. So now it's a case of can Bathgate get a win and a draw from their last 3 games.....let's hope not.

Before I close this week's managers page, can I just put an end to all the stupid rumours going around regarding myself and my management team leaving to take over at Linlithgow next season. I will be at Tayport as long as the club want me to manage the team. Why would anyone want to leave the best team in Scottish Junior Football. So, let's put all the gossip to sleep once and for all, and get behind the team as we chase the silverware that we have a chance of winning from now until the season's end.

C'away the 'port!

Cheers.....Keith.

SUPER LEAGUE

It could all be over today..... Three points for Bathgate at Glenrothes will all but assure the Lothians side of the Super League Championship and in so doing, will virtually consign Glens to relegation to Super League 1.

If Glens pull off a shock win, then regardless of how Lochee do at Linlithgow this afternoon, Lochee's last two games v Glenrothes and Bathgate will take on far greater significance for the Thomson Park boys. Of course a win for Glens and a defeat for Lochee would keep things bubbling at both ends of the table. Wm Hill's have no doubts, both Bathgate and Lochee being marked down as clear favourites to each pick up three points this afternoon.

Kinnoull, Oakley United and Camelon will take their place in the Super League next season.

Forming the new Super League Division One will be the relegated trio of Arniston, North End and AN Other, Scone Thistle, Lochee Harp and Montrose Roselea, from Tayside, Penicuik, Musselburgh and Armadale, from the Lothians, and Rosyth, Kelty and St Andrews United from the Fife League.

Jeanfield Swifts are The Tayside Division One Champions and Broxburn Athletic picked up the Lothians Division Two title.

Lochee Harp finally end their 16 year drought

It had to happen sometime. After 21 games and 21 wins since August 1990, Tayport finally fell to Lochee Harp when the Beechwood team eliminated Tayport from the Challenge Cup at the semi-final stage on Wednesday past. No less impressive was the goals tally for these 21 games, 81 for Tayport and 12 for Harp, 4 of which were scored in the one game.

Although Tayport contributed greatly to their 3-1 defeat on Wednesday, by missing a barrowload of chances and flogging cheap goals, take nothing away from a gritty Harp side who played with commendable spirit and no lack of skill in certain areas. The tie was a personal triumph for striker Darren Scott who hit a hat-trick to bring Harp's winning sequence to a magnificent 10 games.

For Tayport, it was probably the defeat that had been coming, following three successive, fairly unimpressive drawn matches. It was however, with the exception of the extra time loss to Scottish Cup winners Auchinleck, Tayport's first defeat in 20 games stretching back to early December.

IAN GREIG'S TESTIMONIAL MATCH v ARBROATH SC at SEATON PARK, ARBROATH on SUNDAY 11 JUNE

Ian Greig moved from Arbroath SC to Tayport in 1997 and after four years at The Canniepairt, during which he was a popular and enthusiastic member of the team, he returned to play with ASC. ASC have awarded Ian a Testimonial for his service and Greig has asked Tayport to provide the opposition.

Ian wants it to be a family affair and hopes that some of his ex colleagues come along with their families to enjoy the game and reception afterwards. It is also hoped that some of his former teammates can again pull on a Port jersey for the occasion.

Ian has requested that ALL proceeds from his Testimonial Match be donated to Downs Syndrome charities

"It's been a strange few weeks"

says

Dunmore

It's been a strange few weeks. 'Port go into today's semi-final clash after a run of four matches without a win, two in the league, two in the Challenge Cup.

Glenrothes were the visitors a fortnight ago, when 'Port had the title in their sights. Wins, however, were imperative. A poor refereeing decision deprived Lloyd Young of an early goal in that game, although Duncan McLean did lob Tayport into a first half lead. The match should have been over by half-time, but, as the second half progressed, the Glens came more and more into contention.

Conceding a goal straight from a corner kick was galling, especially as it handed the title initiative back to Bathgate. It was hoped that 'Port would bounce back at home to Kinnoull, in the quarter-finals of the Challenge Cup. Again, Duncan McLean provided an early advantage, but, again, a late goal was conceded, this time a header from Robbie Holden.

Thankfully, Roberto Morris, Lloyd Young, Gareth Dailly and Bryan Duell netted their penalties to see Tayport into the last four. Next up was the last league fixture of the campaign, at Bonnyrigg. Unlike the two recent home games, the tempo was much more upbeat at New Dundas Park and Bryan Duell's spot kick, plus an own goal, both in the second half, gave 'Port a decent cushion.

Disaster struck, however. 'Rigg notched two in the closing stages, to give rivals Bathgate another lift. If that wasn't bad enough, Wednesday night saw Tayport visit Lochee Harp.

Normally, an away win would be a near certainty, but, as we've said, it's been a strange few weeks. Darren Scott astonished all observers by notching a second-half hat-trick, the last of which came after Robbie Henderson had pulled one back and Gareth Dailly had been sent off. Tayport had huffed and puffed, but to no avail. Harp had been clinical on the break and deserved to reach the final.

Scottish Junior Cup Final Disappoints Once Again

Few would disagree that Sunday's Junior showpiece between Bathgate and Auchinleck Talbot was rather disappointing, as has been the case fairly consistently over recent years. And few would disagree either, that the better team won the cup.

What the final will be remembered for are two of the most unusual goals ever scored in a final, particularly the opening goal from Stevie Mallan which was as bizarre as they come. McVey's own goal to equalise was an absolute corker. Many would have expected the Talbot heads to go down after that, but the Ayrshire men finished strongly to take the cup back to the west.

The attendance, officially given as 7,469 was the best for around twelve years, but was again the subject of much debate on the internet with every contributor, almost without exception, claiming that there were very many more in the ground. One can assume that only the paying customers are counted, the balance of the attendance being made up with a substantial number of sponsors' guests and SJFA officials' guests.

The pre-match build-up seemed to be dominated by media articles on Bathgate manager/owner Willie Hill and below we reproduce one such article which appeared in The Herald.

Willie Hill, the multi-millionaire backer of Bathgate Thistle, who will contest Sunday's OVD Junior Cup final with Auchinleck Talbot at Rugby Park, has called for the Scottish Football Association to create a pyramid structure, which would allow leading junior clubs to follow Gretna's example and join the Scottish Football League.

Hill, who recently paid Stefan King, the nightclub owner and entrepreneur, £11.75m for the front half of the former GPO building in Glasgow's George Square, is frustrated by what he describes as the "self-interest" of Scotland's lower league clubs in thwarting the ambitions of junior clubs like Bathgate and claims their actions are stifling the development of the sport in the country. Hill, who has recruited a crop of former senior players to his ranks, while encouraging West Lothian talent to flourish, is pressing for the creation of a national junior superleague, which would effectively become Division 4 of the SFL.

It would be the catalyst for a system where such as East Stirlingshire were not allowed to languish at the foot of the Third Division every season without being punished. "The present situation is restraint of trade," he said. "We must be the only country in Europe which does not encourage proactive clubs, such as Bathgate, to climb the ladder. I have no doubt that, if Tayport, Auchinleck Talbot, Whitburn, Linlithgow and ourselves were allowed to take on the teams at the bottom of the [SFL] third division, we would beat them on a regular basis.

"You have to wonder why the SFL doesn't sort out this issue, because it cannot be doing the game any good to have Firs Park [home to East Stirlingshire] closed to the community for 95% of the time, for their players to be paid £10 a week, and for them to be last in the league every year," said Hill. "It is ridiculous that Bathgate could win the Junior Cup and the East Superleague in the next fortnight, yet it takes us nowhere. Do you think Brooks Milesen would be interested in building up Gretna and bringing them headlines across the world if he was stuck in the same boat?

"I propose that a new tier be established in the next two or three seasons which allows promotion and relegation from the junior superleagues into the SFL. I do not expect to win this battle easily, given the self-interest which exists among some [SFL] second and third division sides, but I'll not shirk the challenge."

The Herald understands that some high-profile junior clubs are prepared to pursue the matter in the European Court, alleging that the current Scottish structure prevents them from realising their potential and results in stagnation

SNIFFING ABOUT THE WITH THE SNOOT

Why is it that referees can nitpick over two goalkeepers in a match wearing the same colour of jersey, when they consistently ignore substitutes lining the touchline or parading behind a goal with the same colour of tops as one of the participating teams. It's time the match officials got their act together on this one.

Snout understands that the driver of a supporters' bus last Saturday, Bob Baldie, treated his passengers to a mystery tour of Midlothian en route to Bonnyrigg. Bob claimed that he was early and wanted to show his party some of the sights (?) but the punters weren't so sure.....

The phrase surely uttered at some point by Archie McPherson during every OVD Cup Final on which he's ever commentated - "some players are getting gey tired out there". It was OVD's last Cup Final and probably Archie's also.

Some members of the Tayport committee were getting a trifle concerned at training on Monday evening when Scott Peters and Gus Malone were seen disappearing over the promenade wall and into the sea. Performances haven't been great, they mused, but surely that's taking things too far. Physio Norrie Marshall was able to put the members' minds at ease, explaining that a paddle in the Tay was on his recommendation as they battled back to fitness.

Could Tayport soon be travelling by train to play Arniston Rangers in the future? The Waverley Line from Edinburgh to the Borders, which is set to be reopened at a reputed cost of £150m (I'm sure we could think of better things on which to spend £150m), will have stop No 7 from Waverley Station at Gorebridge, 30 miles down the track. As we know, there's a station barrow at every station - at least there used to be - and this would be ideal to transfer the kit. Mind you, this would only work if there was a guard's van and I've not seen one of those on a First Scotrail Sprinter, so maybe it's not such a good idea. It'd be OK for Davie Ayre and the Travel Club, though.

A pre-season tour for Tayport has been pencilled in for the first weekend in August, with Chester le Street FC, from County Durham, and Thornaby FC, from the Stockton area, the opponents on Friday and Saturday respectively. Supporters wishing to accompany the team should contact the secretary.

It might have been a disappointing game and result from Tayport's point of view, losing a 2-0 lead for the third time this year, but for the neutral it was different story, the Edinburgh Evening News describing the match as 'an absolute thriller. There may not have been too many thrills at home this season, but away games have been a different story.
