Port fail to capitalise against nine men

LINLITHGOW ROSE . . . . 2
TAYPORT . . . . . 2

IN junior football's match of the day, the two former East Super League champions, Tayport and Linlithgow, shared four goals in an incident-packed encounter at Prestonfield on Saturday.

It was a case of two points dropped for the visitors, as they played against only nine men for the final 20 minutes.

Midweek signing Martin Grant, formerly of Glenrothes, was handed his Tayport debut and, within three minutes, created the opener for Bryan Duell, who knocked a first time effort beyond home keeper Pinkowski.

Gareth Dailly then had a couple of shots blocked as 'Port looked to extend their advantage, and the dismissal of Rose full-back Ryan Jordan, for a double bout of dissent, should have enhanced Tayport's hopes.

Instead, Linlithgow snatched an equaliser on the stroke of half-time, when dangerman Gordon Herd ran at Roberto Morris, forcing his way into the box, and slotted the ball past the recalled Frazer Fitzpatrick, into the corner of the net.

After the break, the Canniepairt outfit had the better of the exchanges, going close through Dailly, Steven Stewart and the mightily impressive Martin Grant.

There was, however, a stunning sucker-punch, when Herd again raced clear.

UNLIKELY

This time, Ross Gunnion forced the forward out wide, but his eventual cross found strike partner Paddy Flannery, whose header looped over the helpless Fitzpatrick, giving Linlithgow an unlikely lead.

Flannery's joy was short-lived, though. Lifting his jersey in celebration of the goal, the former Dumbarton player collected his second caution of the afternoon, his first having been for dissent.

On 70 minutes, Tayport's pressure paid off, with Derek Wemyss pouncing to fire home his first goal of the season, to make it two apiece.

Manager Keith Burgess then sent on John Knox and Gary Middleton, as 'Port sought to make the most of their numerical supremacy.

Knox himself had one shot on target, while another substitute came close to grabbing the headlines.

Midfielder Scott Peters, previously been unavailable due to work commitments, returned to training in mid-week, providing a huge lift to the club.

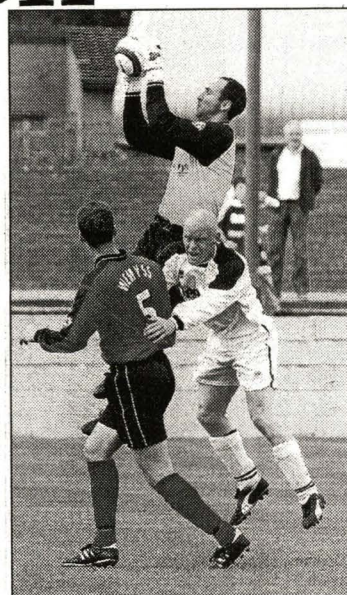

Initially on the bench, an injury to Brian Livie prompted a first half appearance for the powerhouse, but it was late in the game when he almost made his mark.

Unfortunately, a volley and a back-post header were both off-target and the contest ended all-square.

The last-minute dismissal of Bryan Duell, for a high challenge on the goalkeeper, was indicative of Tayport's frustration at a fourth consecutive game without a win.

Linlithgow: Pinkowski, Jordan, Bennett, Landells (Byle), McGuinness, Hogg, Allison (McEwan), Dair, Flannery, Herd (Fallon), McArthur.

Tayport: Fitzpatrick, Gunnion, Paterson (Middleton), Morris, Wemyss, Dailly, Grant, Stewart, Duell, Henderson (Knox), Livie (Peters).

SCOTTISH JUNIOR CUP REVIEW

Pictured below is a label of the very special limited edition whisky, bottled to commemorate Tayport's Scottish Cup win in 2003

The long haul to the Final of the last Scottish Junior Cup which be sponsored by OVD begins today with the first round ties. Tayport are one of ninety three clubs to receive a bye into round 2 on Saturday 5th November. It's quite uncanny that the bookies' two cup favourites should be locking horns this afternoon in a league game at the Canniepairt, home of the cup-holders.

Match of the Day

Without doubt, on paper, the lok where one of the biggest will gather at Newlandsfield, on Arthurlie. The venue in the first round in triumphed by 3-2 before match of the day is at Pol-crowds outside the SPL to see the home side take teams met at the same 1998 when Arthurlie going on to the semi-final.

Shock of the Day

Maybe at Sauchie, where those doughty cup fighters meet West Super League's Johnstone Burgh. Or at Kelty where Glenrothes are the visitors. Glens can't seem to buy a goal just now, their blank v Tayport being their fifth of the season. However Manager Willie Garner told the Glenrothes Gazette that he was pleased with his side's performance, which he considered was better than the lethargic display of the previous week at Lochee. Maybe Glens can turn the corner this week.

Certainties of the Day

Arniston at home to Brechin Vics who haven't recorded a Scottish Cup victory this century. Bo'ness will expect to win by some distance at home to West Calder United. Larkhall will run up a cricket score v Fochabers and a defeat for Whitburn at home to Blairgowrie looks unthinkable. The Scottish Cup ties kick off at 3pm, but we will try to get some selected results on the Newslane

"NO JOB TOO BIG OR TOO SMALL for

MARSH and SULLIVAN"

Good afternoon and a very warm welcome to both sets of supporters for this afternoon's very important East Super League match against Linlithgow Rose.

The game is the only Super League match in the Region today and a win is vital for both sides, as Linlithgow look to lift themselves up into the top five and we look to take over second spot in the league, and to get within a point of early leaders Whitburn.

As always, matches against the Rose are tight affairs with total commitment from both sides who have, over the past six or seven seasons, dominated the East Junior scene. They are two teams who like to play football the way it should be played, as was shown in our earlier tussle this season which ended in a 2-2 draw, with goals, bookings, sendings off and controversy throughout the ninety minutes. I expect today to be no different (not the bookings and sendings off, though) as both teams will be hungry for the three points on offer.

Last week the Rose lost out in a five goal thriller to their bogey team Arniston, while we won 1-0 against Genrothes in what was a dour game but one which had plenty talking points to ponder on our way home to Tayport. Brian Livie's fantastic match winning free kick, the missed penalty by big Livie, the chances which we missed and of course, the sendings off - two Glens players and Gary Middleton's stupid red card for opening that big mouth of his and giving the referee his view on the free kick awarded against him for tripping an opponent, only two minutes after Glenrothes had been reduced to ten men.

This kind of dissent will not be tolerated at the club any more, and the player will be dealt with by the team's own discipline committee. We cannot afford to lose players during a game or for future matches in this very tight league.

Gary has apologised to everyone at the club for his behaviour and realises that, just as he has started to play to the form we expect from him, he now faces a ban and a fight to regain his place in the team.

On a more positive note it was great to see Barry McNaughton back from a lengthy injury absence and I think his presence on the park on Saturday brought a calmness and control to the team, just when it was required.

Stewart, Derek, Grant and myself have been encouraged by results recently. Although not playing at our best, we have ground out results against other title contenders and now it's all about getting results and putting points on the board. With our form picking up as we go into the winter period, and with the Scottish Cup just around the corner, we all know that this when Tayport kick into life.

This week we welcomed back Grant Paterson from holiday and Bryan Duell from suspension, but we will be without Derek Wemyss, who is on holiday for ten days and the suspended Gary Middleton.

Let's all get behind the team and hopefully we can encourage them to win the vital three points against one of the other title favourites.

Cheers, Keith

TODAY'S GAME

WHYTE & MACKAY SUPER LEAGUE
ROUND 10/22
TAYPORT v LINLITHGOW ROSE

It's the meeting this afternoon of what are generally recognised as the two top clubs of the Whyte and Mackay Super League since its inception. Games between Port and Rose have frequently turned out to be epics, so the fans will be looking for some more of that this afternoon.

It's a second league meeting of the season already, a situation brought about by the clubs receiving byes in the first round of the Scottish Cup. Only four weeks ago that first game lived up to its reputation for thrills, spills and controversy. Both sides reckoned they should have taken the points, but, given that they were down to ten men by the end of the first half and nine early in the second period, Linlithgow were probably the happier of the two, in that they did get a point.

Much has been made of Linlithgow's injury troubles this season and there's little doubt that this situation has contributed to their relatively poor start. Nevertheless they have shown that they are still a team to be reckoned with, and only two weeks ago, were only a whisker away from dumping league leaders Whitburn. Two very late goals gave the Central Park side a point when all had looked lost for Burnies

As we saw at Prestonfield at the beginning of the month, the main Rose goal threat comes from their striking duo of Gordon Herd and Paddy Flannery (pictured).

The recent return of midfielder Ian Gallacher, following a long spell out injured, is a plus for manager Jim Sinnet, but he has missed, through injury, the experienced Danny Smith and Mark Whyte.

Keeper Steve Pinkowski, from Partick Thistle, one of six close season signings, was taken off injured last week v Arniston and if he fails to recover, his replacement Jamie Swinburn will keep his place. Other new faces in Rose colours are Scott Murphy (Bo'ness), Les Byle (East Fife), Keiran McGuinness and John Fallon (both Bellshill) and Keith Hogg (Glenafton)

Tayport will definitely be without Gary Middleton (suspended) and Derek Wemyss (holiday), so manager Burgess will be forced into making changes. Whether he changes the system as well, remains to be seen.

There could be starting places for Barry McNaughton, who returned as sub last week for his first appearance of the season, and Bryan Duell, also a sub at Glenrothes. Martin Grant is an injury doubt but full backs Grant Paterson and Ross Gunnion will come into contention for a place and a possible replacement will be required for Martin Grant who has been on the treatment table this week.

It could have been us.....

Two weeks today the Tennents Scottish Cup Qualifying Cups (South) quarter finals and the Qualifying Cup (North) semi-finals take place. The stakes for the South teams? A place in the first round proper. The four North semi-finalists are already there.

SOUTH

Preston Athletic v St Cuthbert Wanderers
Edinburgh City v Spartans
Selkirk v Girvan Amateurs
Threave Rovers v Annan Athletic

NORTH

Already in the semi finals and the Scottish Cup proper

Forres Mechanics v Cove Rangers
Lossiemouth v Inverurie

It really is a crazy set-up in this country when Girvan, members of the West Region Juniors, can participate when the top performing Junior clubs are denied access to the competition. Who would your money on if 'Port or Lithgae were paired with any of the above?

What makes a Tayport FC Legend ?

That's what we want to know for the website feature.
And it's not just legends from the Junior days, it's from previous eras as well.
There are two on the site at the moment, Hamish Mackay and Andy Sommerville.
So, let's hear your suggestions - and reasons - and we'll give them all consideration

Tayport FC's Primary Schools Coaching sessions on a Saturday morning on the Canniepairt finished last week for the season. It's been a very successful summer and thanks must go to the coaches Ian Mathers, Ian Ness, Ian Howe, Ian Henderson and Connel McKenna.

“ Events at Warout best forgotten, as long as lessons have been learned “

says

Dunmore

Two straight wins have seen 'Port edge towards the top of the table. After a run of five games without a victory, things took a turn for the better a fortnight ago, when Bo'ness visited the Canniepairt.

Robbie Henderson got back on the goal trail that afternoon, netting twice in the first half to put Tayport firmly in control. While everyone was fairly confident that three points would be coming our way, there were some late doubts after Kevin Donnelly headed home a corner kick, giving some hope to the visitors. It was not the first time Donnelly has made his mark against Tayport, so we should maybe be grateful he started on the bench.

In truth, though, the back three of Brian Livie, Derek Wemyss and Roberto Morris did cope with any threat from Bo'ness and the win was deserved.

Frazer Fitzpatrick will have been glad to record a clean-sheet in his next outing. Unfortunately, though, with only one goal to show for their efforts against Glenrothes, there was more late panic when the Glens were awarded an indirect free kick inside the area. Anything could have happened.

Thankfully, the wall held firm and, thanks to Livie's excellent 66th minute free kick, Keith Burgess again triumphed at his former club. That said, the boss would not have been entirely happy. Gary Middleton was one of three players red-carded and his was a dismissal which should certainly have been avoided.

Ten-a-side, or ten against nine as it became, rarely makes for a good spectacle and the events of the Warout are best forgotten, as long as lessons have been learned. And so to today's challenge against Linlithgow. With no other Super League fixtures scheduled, the match offers both teams the chance to get points, not just one, in the bag.

Neither would be likely to view a draw as a positive result.

SMIFFING ABOUT THE WITH THE SNOOT

It is with sadness we have to report the passing away last weekend of the club chairman's pet labrador dog, Hamish. Eddie acquired Hamish as a pup twelve + years ago and he was named in honour of Hamish Mackay whose hat-trick had just put Auchinleck Talbot to the sword in the 1993 OVD Scottish Cup semi-final.

There was one spectator at the Warout Stadium last Saturday a bit more restless than the rest. He had £200 on Tayport to win at 4/5 and had to live out a troubled last half hour as Tayport missed several sitters and at the other end conceded a free kick in a most dangerous situation. Referee Banks' whistle couldn't come quickly enough, leaving our man to collect £250 from his local bookie.

Back to square one - almost - for Arbroath. FC. When Dave Baikie left Tayport for Arbroath in 1997, Arbroath were the worst Senior club in Scotland, languishing in 42nd place. The Baiker revolution propelled the club to finish a heady 19th place in 2002. Last Saturday saw the Gayfield club's decline become absolute, when defeat saw then back at the bottom of Division Three - almost - in 41st place. Bet there are a few Lichties fans rueing the day Baiker fell out with the Chairman and handed in his notice.

No decision has yet been taken on whether or not there will be a fixture programme on Christmas Eve and Hogmanay.

Midweek reports suggested that Lochee United manager Eddie Wolecki was one of those in line for the Arbroath manager post, left vacant by the resignation last weekend of Harry Cairney. The job did go to a manager of a local Junior club, but it wasn't Eddie. The Gayfield club has gone for John McGlashan, who left the Lichties as a player at the end of last season to manage Dundee Violet.

Tayport received a bye in the first round of the Redwood Cup drawn last Sunday. The second round takes us to Memorial Park to meet Thornton. Date not yet decided.

It's well recognised that the East Super League is the tightest of competitions with a couple of wins or defeats on the bounce, sending a club either zooming up the table or plummeting into relegation trouble. Incredibly, 70% of games to date have been drawn or settled by the odd goal.

Ex-Tayport and Linlithgow player Mark Corcoran is in line to collect his first Senior Cup medal after helping St Mirren overcome Morton to reach the final of the Bell's Challenge Cup where Saints will play Mark's former club Hamilton Accies.

Internet

Ally Kinnersley has been excelling himself, capturing a host of action shots for the local newspapers. In the last week or so, he's had photographs of Tayport FC's match action in the Evening Telegraph, Fife Herald and St Andrews Citizen. In addition the Tayport FC website carried a sequence of photos which provided a video effect to Brian Livie's goal v Glenrothes. The down side for Brian was that the site also carried a shot of his missed penalty. The ball was last seen heading in the direction of Kinglassie.

Both the Fife Herald and the St Andrews Citizen (24/9/05) carried reports of Tayport v Bo'ness. It was the same report but the photographs were different. Robbie's goal was in the Herald whilst the Citizen had a pic of the Tayport players in a huddle celebrating Robbie's second goal.

The Daily Record, in its Winner supplement on Monday 19/09/05 had a major spread on 'Port's win over Bo'ness. Reporter Scott Kopel's assertion that Robbie Henderson scored his first goal 'from what looked like an offside position', was given little credence by the photo of the goal which appeared in Monday's Evening Telegraph which clearly showed Robbie to be well on-side.

The East Super League continues to get prominent coverage in the local press and the national tabloids. On Monday 26/09/05, The Sun featured the Hill of Beath's 2-1 win over league leaders Whitburn and the report contained an interview with Haws keeper Marc Graham. Graham was singing the praises of the Super League. He has noticed a huge improvement in the standard of the Juniors since he returned from the Seniors. He reckoned the Super League set-up had taken the game to a new level, on a par with the football in the Bell's second and third divisions. Whitburn boss Derek Strickland was disappointed. He reckoned that the Burnies had played some of their best football of the season and deserved to take something from the game.

The Daily Record's Winner had the Carnoustie v Lochee game as its headline game. Lochee boss Ed Wolecki thought his team's 1-0 win was fully deserved and although Carnoustie assistant boss Ian Flaherty conceded that Lochee had the better of the first half, he reckoned the Gowfers were the more dangerous side after the break.

The Record blotted its copybook by crediting Hill of Beath's win over Whitburn as their seventh in a row, when it was seven without defeat - still a significant achievement, mind you.

Junicus, after watching North End go down to Bonnyrigg, reckoned it was going to be a long winter for the Dokens.

In Linlithgow Today (23/09/05), Jimmy Sandison defended his defensive strategy which cost two goals in each of the games v Glenrothes and Tayport. Sandison said he would stick with it for one more game, after midweek training was concentrated on eliminating simple errors. It worked! Bathgate 0-0 Bo'ness.

The Daily Record thought Robbie's goal was 'from what looked like an offside position'

Fortunately Alan Kinnersley was on the spot with his camera to dispel that notion!

The photo appeared in the Evening Telegraph and Fife Herald.
