TODAY'S GAME

WHYTE & MACKAY EAST SUPER LEAGUE

TAYPORT v CARNOUSTIE PANMURE

Founded 1936

You've got to go back to August 19th for Tayport's last Super League win on the Canniepairt but, to be fair, we've only played one other League fixture at home during the intervening 12 weeks, the recent reversal at the hands of nearest neighbours Lochee United.

In the ultra competitive Super League, wins are everything and a couple of good victories can do wonders for a club's league position. On the contrary, a couple of defeats sends a club plummeting into relegation alley.

Carnoustie Panmure experienced a dismal opening to the campaign when three successive defeats saw the Laing Park outfit installed as the bookies favourites for a bottom two placing come the end of the season. The bookies had Panmure at 5/2 for their visit to Oakley and another blank days seemed on the cards. However, it was to be the turning point of the season for the Gowfers and a 2-1 win sparked off a run of three wins on the bounce to send our visitors today soaring up the table, from relegation candidates to title challengers.

The last two weeks have been taken up with two tough games in the Scottish Cup v Bathgate and late goals in both games secured a morale boosting passage to the last 64 at the expense of last season's beaten finalists.

Tayport's fans have been subjected to a mixed bag of results over the same period. A rather unfortunate loss at Whitburn was followed by a pretty disappointing display v Lochee United. The cup win over Thorniewood caused a few flutters but against Violet last week, the win was wholly comprehensive. During the course of these games a number of injuries have cleared up, so the squad should be in better health today, which of course, gives the manager selection problems of the more pleasant sort.

Carnoustie, though still retaining the experienced backbone which has stood the team in good stead over recent seasons, have introduced some new faces. Midfielder Stuart Abbot from Dundee United who grabbed the equaliser at Bathgate, Aaron Conway from Sauchie, Kevin Cumming and Robert Hendry from Forfar and Henry Hall's young lad, Ewan from Montrose. Most recent recruit is the seasoned campaigner Gary Bolland. The former Dundee United star who also saw service with Rangers was most recently with Brechin City. On the bench for the last couple of weeks, he could be on from the start here today.

Several Tayport players have carried a number of niggling injuries over the last few weeks, but indications are that only Lloyd Young (broken foot) and Craig Brown (cartilage) are out through injury. Barry McNaughton, back from holiday, and Robbie Henderson are back and, with the latter having four training sessions and 45 minutes last week under his belt, could be on from the start.

Former Carnoustie player Murray McDowell was Tayport's trialist at Violet last week and another former Gowfer, Chris Webster, plays his first game in Tayport colours against his former teammates.

LEAGUE CAMPAIGN FRAGMENTED

EAST REGION DIVISIONS REVIEW

The fact that an East South and an East North Division causes confusion to the uninitiated before a ball is kicked is perhaps symptomatic of the current untidy state of play within the East Region's five divisions.

Little can be gleaned from a Super League which shows that one club, Linlithgow, has played three times as many games as another club, Lochee United, only three months into the season. What little there is, however, suggests that Bonnyrigg Rose are shaping up as prime title challengers with Whitburn also showing they could be putting together a more sustained bid than last season. Bo'ness, with one wins and seven defeats from eight, have a lot to do as have Kinnoull with only four goals and one point from their opening five matches. It is early days, however, and in a hugely competitive league it will likely be six months before the die is cast.

In the Premier Division, it's the same situation with Kelty, for example, having played only 2 games compared with Penicuik's 9 and North End 3 compared with Arniston's 8. It's going to be one helluva scrap before promotion and relegation is settled next May or more likely, June.

A bit more shape about the North Division with Forfar West End, Downfield and East Craigie as yet unbeaten. Even at this early stage, Coupar Angus and Brechin Vics look as if they have their work cut out to avoid being the clubs battling it out for the bottom slot. For the championship, it's difficult to look further than Forfar West End, Broughty Athletic or Blairgowrie.

In the Central Division, Luncarty, Bankfoot and Jeanfield will be enjoying visiting the fields of Fife but it's difficult to see the Big County clubs getting the better of say, Dundonald, Kirkcaldy or Ballingry Rovers for a promotion spot.

The East South Division will be a marathon with 28 games to be played by each club, so it's going to be a long haul for the Lothians clubs and it will be a few months yet before the challengers move away from the pack.

The new league structure laid the foundations for a strong and competitive league which could have provided a real springboard for the Junior game in the east of Scotland. However the marketing potential has been stifled by the misguided decision to clutter things up the League Cup - certainly in its current format.

Friday's Edinburgh Evening News' preview of last Saturday's card had a full page feature and photograph on former Tayport star John 'Chalkie' Elliott, whose impressive form is a significant factor in Bonnyrigg Rose's unbeaten start to the season. Chalkie commented that the unbeaten run which has continued from last season and stretches to 20 odd games has given the team great confidence, Said John " We really believe we are capable of going anywhere and winning". He did concede, however, that the famous Bonnyrigg slope has helped them.

The Evening Telegraph preview concentrated on the Scottish Cup replays and credited Gowfers gaffer Ian Flaherty's half-time pep talk as working wonders in securing a second bite at the cherry. Carnoustie's Dougie Mitchell called it right when he was quoted as saying that everyone was optimistic about going through to the third round.

Downfield manager John Clenaghan, justifiably as it turned out, warned against complacency after returning from Musselburgh with a draw, reckoning that the Spiders would have to "perform to our maximum, as they have players who can punish us". This they duly did, winning 2-1.

The Fife Herald's headline gave Bryan Duell the credit for spearheading Tayport to victory in their Scottish tie at home to Thorniewood. The report acknowledged that the Uddingston team had given Tayport an 'almighty scare'. The reporter considered that the sending off of 'wood's McGraw at 1-2, turned the game in Tayport's favour. "Too many players were off colour" commented manager Burgess in his summing up. The Herald scribe also spotted that Thorniewood actually had three players red-carded, noting that sub Murphy had been carded after the final whistle.

The Herald also covered Newburgh's surprise Scottish Cup win at Coupar Angus. Great determination, strength and character had been displayed and there was a special mention for young Rikki Wells, who was with Tayport pre-season, and had caused Coupar's defence all sorts of problems.

In the Herald's preview of the Violet League cup-tie, Keith Burgess insisted that he wanted to see his experienced defenders cut out the defensive lapses that had occurred in recent outings. The article pointed out that the least experienced defender is Brian Livie and he has played in two Scottish Cup semi finals and one final.

Monday's Evening Telegraph provided comprehensive coverage of the weekend's card with its Sixth edition concentrating mainly on the Fife based clubs with a big report on the seven goal Super League thriller between Oakley and Hill of Beath and two colourful action photos from Newburgh where Kirkcaldy were the visitors. As well as reports, all the tables, local results, fixtures and Scottish Cup draw made the Tele's Junior page good reading at the Monday tea table (or is that still considered bad manners?).

The Late Extra edition had coverage of all the matches from north of the Tay, concentrating on what was a good day for the locals in the Scottish Cup. Only a small para, but East Craigie received deserved credit for a 2-1 smash and grab in their replay at Buchanhaven.

Keith Burgess writes.....

Good afternoon and a very warm welcome to both sets of supporters to the Cañniepairt for today's East Super League match against Carnoustie Panmure.

Today's opponents arrive in a buoyant mood after last week's victory against Bathgate Thistle in the Scottish Cup. Their season started off poorly, by their standards, but has improved after Ian Flaherty's appointment as manager following the resignation of Jake Ferrier last month.

We know that the game this afternoon is going to be no different to the normal tough encounters with our Tayside rivals, where no quarter is given or taken. I can only guess that Carnoustie will be up for the battle, but I know that our guys are certainly ready for the match as training this week has been very upbeat and passionate with the thought of today's match firmly in our players' minds.

Since my last report we have had two good wins against Thorniewood, at home in the Scottish Cup and Dundee Violet in our last league cup section game up at Glenesk Park last Saturday. The game against Thorniewood United was a bit frustrating for us as we had loads of possession but found it hard to break down a packed defence which was hanging on to a one goal lead and was defending as if their lives depended on it. This made us rush things a bit too much and the quality of our football never quite matched our endeavour and desire to get the win we wanted. Eventually though, we got the long awaited breakthrough after many missed chances and close things. Chris Webster scored the goal that broke our opponents' resolve and after that there was only going to be one winner, with Bryan Duell scoring a double to seal the victory and secure our place in the next round and a home tie against Kirkintilloch Rob Roy.

Last week was very different story when we dominated from start to finish, scoring three goals and conceding none in an excellent team performance in which we created a barrowload of chances. Willie, Fraser, Steven and myself were delighted with the way we played and the commitment of the players which makes the hard work during the week all the more worthwhile.

We thought we would freshen the team up a little, giving young Malcolm Downie and ex Partick Thistle striker Murray McDowall their first starts for the club. Gus Malone, Robbie Henderson, Ronnie Kenneth and Derek Wemyss returned to the starting line-up to prove that our squad has great quality throughout and these six certainly made a big impression on the game.

With Allan Ramsay and Steven Stewart available again after injury, Lloyd Young and Craig Brown are the only players ruled out for today's game. Things are certainly looking a lot healthier than they were three weeks ago when we only had 12 fit players against Lochee. We know that we will have to produce our best this afternoon to get a result but with our commitment and your support there is a great chance of us coming out on top.

Enjoy the match, cheers.....Kaita

The Tickle me Elmo Toy

There is a factory in Northern Minnesota which makes the Tickle Me Elmo toys.

The toy laughs when you tickle it under the arms. Well, Lena is hired at The Tickle Me Elmo factory and she reports for her first day promptly at 8:00 am.

The next day at 8:45 am there is a knock at the Personnel Manager's door.

The Foreman throws open the door and begins to rant about the new employee. He complains that she is incredibly slow and the whole line is backing up, putting the entire production line behind schedule. The Personnel Manager decides he should see this for himself, so the 2 men march down to the factory floor. When they get there the line is so backed up that there are Tickle Me Elmo's all over the factory floor and they're really beginning to pile up. At the end of the line stands Lena surrounded by mountains of Tickle Me Elmos.

She has a roll of plush red fabric and a huge bag of small marbles. The 2 men watch in amazement as she cuts a little piece of fabric, wraps it around two marbles and begins to carefully sew the little package between Elmo's legs. The Personnel Manager bursts into laughter. After several minutes of hysterics he pulls himself together and approaches Lena. "I'm sorry," he says to her, barely able to keep a straight face, but I think you misunderstood the instructions I gave you yesterday..."Your job is to give Elmo two test tickles".

The Tayport No.2 jersey can now be officially reallocated with the news that Scott Peters has moved to hometown club Kirrie Thistle. Kirrie haven't been having the best of seasons in the North Division and their regular chapping of Scooter's door to help them out has finally seen the Port legend relent..... Is that the sound of the sharpening of refs' pencils we hear?!

TAYPORT FOOTBALL CLUB

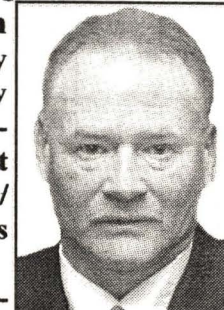

In 2007 the Club will be 60 years old. To commemorate this achievement we have launched

THE DIAMOND CLUB

A WEEKLY AND QUARTERLY DRAW FOR BIG MONEY
STARTS IN JANUARY 2007. TO JOIN SEE JOHN ANDERSON

Lyall Murdoch and Jim Elder

The Junior football fraternity was stunned this week to learn of the sudden and untimely death aged 53 of the East Region Association's immediate past president Lyall Murdoch (pictured). Lyall, current secretary of Broughty Athletic, had been involved in the juniors for many years and was previously secretary of Dundee Violet. He served lengthy periods on the management committees of the SJFA, East Region JFA, North/Tayside and Fife/Tayside FAs. Only the previous evening he had attended a meeting of the ERJFA. Lyall, a chargehand blacksmith with Dundee Contract Services, collapsed at his work on Wednesday lunchtime.

We were also saddened to learn of the sudden passing of Jim Elder (69) of EP Engineering. Jim had lived in Tayport for many years and had long taken an interest in the fortunes of Tayport FC, providing advertising and sponsorship through his business. Jim was predeceased some years ago by his wife Marion, a popular librarian at Tayport library.

" A LEAGUE CUP FORMAT, HOPEFULLY, NEVER TO BE REPEATED"

says

Dunmore

It's league business on the Canniepairt this afternoon, following two consecutive Saturdays of cup football for Tayport.

Thorniewood came calling a fortnight ago, in the second round of the Scottish Junior Cup and twice put themselves into a leading position.

Written off by the bookmakers, T'wood sent the noisy element of their travelling support into even more of a wild frenzy as early as the second minute, when Frazer Fitzpatrick could only smash an attempted clearance against forward Chris Queen, with the ball rolling into the unguarded net.

Roberto Morris did eventually equalise on 45 minutes, but the visitors were not deflated by that goal. In fact, before the half-time whistle, Martin Devlin restored their advantage, courtesy of a fabulous strike into the top corner.

However, once defender Ryan McGraw was dismissed, Thorniewood lost their way and three quickfire goals saw 'Port safely into the third round. Chris Webster was delighted to grab the all-important leveller, having previously spurned a fine chance.

Bryan Duell then notched a brace, with contrasting finishes, and the incident-packed tie was finally over as a contest.

At Glenesk Park last weekend, the match was won by half-time. Derek Wemyss netted the opener and trialist Murray McDowall made his mark with the second of the afternoon. Chris Webster completed the scoring, but how it remained 3-0 is a mystery. In the second half, there were opportunities galore, but no more goals to cheer.

Not that the goalless second half was a concern. The most important thing was that the D.J.Laing League Cup section had been concluded and the feeling is one of relief. It was clear a couple of months ago that Tayport would top the section, which they did with seven wins out of eight. The problem was the long, drawn out nature of the competition, which, hopefully, is a format never to be repeated.

CUP ACTION FOR THE NEXT TWO WEEKS

A visit to Strathmore Park, Forfar for the DJ Laing League Cup quarter final, then Kirkintilloch Rob Roy on the Canniepairt in the Scottish Cup on 2nd December. That's the programme for the next two weeks

Forfar West End are never an easy touch on their own patch and we will have our work cut out against a team which, to date, has only suffered one reverse, a Scottish Cup defeat at Arthurlie at the beginning of the month.

Rob Roy are flying high in the Stagecoach Central League first division, currently sitting in second place a point behind leaders Clydebank with two games in hand. It's a tough task Tayport have been handed and a good crowd should be attracted to the Canniepairt two weeks today.

It will be Kirkintilloch's third visit to Tayport. Tayport triumphed 2-1 in 1996 on the way to lifting the Cup for the first time, then it was 0-0 in December 2003. Tayport won the replay 5-1 on the way to the 2004 Cup Final

SNIFFING ABOUT THE WITH THE SNOUT

Jonathon Mitchell, who won a Scottish Cup medal when with Tayport in 2003, has been on the move again. He was in the Linlithgow squad when we met Rose earlier this season but he's been unable to command a place and has moved to join Eric Sinclair at Bo'ness

It's understood that plans to have a fixture break on 23rd and 30th December have been abandoned and there will be fixtures scheduled for both these Saturdays. It's clearly a measure to try and claw back some of the anticipated backlog. Of course, at that time of the year, weather conditions will have a big say.

Isn't it a trifle strange that neighbouring clubs should be matched against each other at this time of the season - Tayport v Lochee and Tayport v Carnoustie in successive home games, and Harp at St Andrews last week for example, when these games could be played during the early weeks of midweek fixtures in April instead of potential trips to the Lothians.

Of all the bars in all of the world.....Two former Tayport FC players bumped into each other working for GE Penpower in Jerez, Spain and are set to join up again for a contract in Chad in deepest Africa. Paul Barnett couldn't fail to recognise former 'Port, St Johnstone, East Fife and Joeys favourite Willie 'Molly' Brown when they ended up on the same job. Willie, it will be recalled, netted four goals on his debut for St Johnstone v Albion Rovers after signing from Tayport in 1986 after hitting 35 goals in 43 games for us.

Carnoustie are still battling with Angus Council over issues at Laing Park. Hot water to only one of four dressing rooms last week, no proper public toilet facility and apparently the siting of their portacabins is a planning enforcement issue. Panmure don't even have the final say as to when they can use the park. It's a very disappointing situation for a hard working committee. One wonders why Councils appear to undervalue the benefit to their community of a vibrant Junior football club.

Latest East Region mix-up was the fixture list supplied by the East Region to The Sun this week which had Forfar Albion meeting Forfar West End in the Currie Cup. Only problem here was that Forfar Albion had actually been drawn against Arbroath Vics in the Currie Cup. Fortunately an eagle eyed journalist spotted the error and the fixtures were altered in time for Monday's Tele.
