TODAY'S GAME

WHYTE & MACKAY SUPER LEAGUE

TAYPORT v WHITBURN

Whitburn manager Derek Strickland was an interested spectator at Bonnyrigg last week and no doubt his game plan for the Super League's match of the day this afternoon will reflect his observations.

It's Whitburn's third season in the Super League and in their previous campaigns, they have lacked consistency after starting both campaigns well. With a 100pc record to date, the Central Park boss will be hoping it's third time lucky.

An opening day defeat, by the odd goal to Fauldhouse, effectively cost Whitburn League Cup qualification and, although they won the remainder of their section matches, so too did Fauldhouse to qualify for the last four. Today Whitburn look to maintain their record of scoring in every match played to date this season, rattling in an average of over three goals per game and chalking up an eighth successive victory.

No shortage of quality and experience in the visitors' likely line-up with the likes of Iain Ramage, John Murphy and Kenny Hannah as well as the internationalist Joe Mbu in central defence. Last season's top marksman Andy Roberts and top scorer for the previous two seasons, Colin Strickland, along with new signing and current top scorer Alex Lurinsky provide a potent goal threat.

Lurinsky and another new signing midfielder Scott Murphy were in the Fauldhouse United side which exited the East of Scotland Cup here earlier this year, so it's a quick return to Canniepairt for them.

Tayport were without four key players at Bonnyrigg last week, Roberto, Brian Livie and the injured duo of Chris Webster and Steve McAllister but, although the first three named will return to the squad, McAllister will sit out again through injury. Ronnie Kenneth was an unused substitute last week but his fitness has improved and he is set for a return as it's expected Gary Fraser will be recalled by Forfar Athletic. Missing will be Dean Rennie and probably Peter Flick.

There were a number of sound performances last week, so it will be interesting to see who make the management's starting XI.

The following article is taken from the Whitburn Juniors' Website and gives an interesting insight to life in the Juniors during the middle of the last century

Memories of an ex Whitburn Juniors Committee Man

I received the following text in an email from Alexander Sibbald who was a Burnies' committee man in the early sixties.

I joined the Whitburn Committee in April 1959, the same day as Jimmy Ferguson. I was just short of 20 years of age. I left in October 1964. It was a wonderful experience. Three of us were elected, that day. Morris Everitt being the third. This brought the committee up to the full complement at the time of 21 members, which was a first.

Ronnie McGlinchey, Bobby Welsh, Jimmy Kerr, Wullie Johnstone and Tam Baillie of the 1966 committee, were also members during my tenure. I became Minute Secretary for a year or so. In those days the minutes were written by hand in a Minute Book, and were read out at the next weekly committee for adoption. The meetings were held on Sundays in the old tea rooms just at the main gate. These old minute books will contain a mine of information.

We spent ages at the weekly committee meeting debating the merits of the team and players for the previous game. Then believe it or not the whole committee of 21 picked the team for the next game. (The Trainer only trained the players in those days). It was quite farcical and was more so, because often we would have a meeting just before a game, whether home or away, to reselect the team due to last minute injuries of players etc. So there we were in public arguing the merits of last minute selections.

Some of us tried to get the system changed to selection by the trainer, but it never happened in my time, because Jimmy Brown the ex player, who was appointed in 1959 as trainer didn't want to take on the responsibility of team selection. I would imagine the system didn't change until Wullie Johnstone gave up the Secretary's job.

We used to run monthly late night dances in the Welfare Hall on the first Friday evening of the month until 3.00 am on the Saturday morning to raise funds. Calling into Wood's bakery on the way home to buy freshly baked stuff was marvellous. The bakery and shop was diagonally opposite Morrisons pub. One of the two brothers who owned the bakery, Jim, was Treasurer of the Burnie for many years until about 1957 when he moved down to Blackpool to run a guest house. In those days many people went on their annual two week holidays to Blackpool, either for the Edinburgh fortnight, or the Glasgow Fair fortnight, or the Bathgate Trades fortnight. There were many factories and pits in those days in the Whitburn/Armadale/Bathgate triangle taking their holidays on one of these fortnights, dependent upon tradition and location.

Weekly bingo sessions were also run by committee members for fund raising in the Baillie Hall (now the District Council Offices.) Bobby Welsh, Jimmy Ferguson, Tam Baillie and Johnny Sneddon, another committee member at the time, ran these sessions for years. Johnny was quite a character. He worked in the grocery department of the old West Benhar Co-op just along from Woods bakery on the same side, and next door to the second pub in Whitburn, called the Old Market Inn. A Mr Roberts was the pub owner. Johnny was a mild man until match day when he stood at the pavilion and hurled abuse at the referee when he thought Whitburn were being hard done by.

We also got income from selling match raffle tickets, and of course transferring players to the seniors. A white form signing paid 200 pounds and a green form paid eighty pounds.

And occasionally Morrison's pub would buy a match ball for the club for the Scottish cup ties, without any public fanfare. The start of sponsorship.

We got 200 pounds in 1959 when the Rangers signed John Greig, one of their great players, in spite of the fact, he never kicked a ball for us, or entered Central Park. He had played for the juvenile team Edinburgh Athletic. Sid Bryson who ran this team had Whitburn connections and asked us if we would sign John on a white form, even although he was going straight to Ibrox, from Edinburgh Athletic. Signing this form made John Greig a registered junior player and ensured he could play junior football if he hadn't made it at Ibrox. At this time players couldn't be reinstated from seniors to juniors if they hadn't previously played, or signed white or green forms at junior level.

Rangers played fair by us by getting John to sign a white form rather than a green one, as they could have done. Of course John Greig went on to play very successfully at senior level for Rangers and Scotland. But he's in the record book as a Whitburn signing.

We played our players ten shillings (50 pence) for a win, and nothing for a draw or loss. Big matches like the Scottish Cup was big money. A pound was the fee for winning and ten shillings for a draw - nothing for losing. Players also got an annual signing on fee. From memory it was about twenty pounds.

I also remember that it was in the early 1960s when the club first discussed the possibility of setting up a social club. Committee member Gilbert French agreed to gather information on how to get it off the ground. Successful social clubs at the time were the Miners Welfare, the Bowling Club, and the Labour Club. There were two very large pits at either end of the town, Polkemmet Colliery at the west end, and the Lady at Redmill. And of course Whitburn was very much a Labour Party town then.

Other memories I have of the club are

The erection of the enclosure in 1946. It came from the old Polish army camp at Polkemmet Estate. One of the best things the club did.

The levelling of part of Central Park about 1957. At that time there was quite a hill running up to the enclosure at the Longridge Road end of the ground. It extended down the park to about the eighteen yards line at the same end.

In 1948 20 people or so flew to Aberdeen to a replayed Scottish cup tie against Aberdeen Balgownie. One of the organisers was Geordie Franchitti, who was an Italian immigrant to the town in the 1920s. He owned the West End Cafe next to the Miners Welfare Hall. Geordie is related to Dario Franchitti the current very successful Indy 300 car driver in the USA. Geordie used to walk down every morning to Bert Topping the barber for a shave. The barber's shop was next to Woods bakery.

TAYPORT v WHITBURN

The previous meetings

Prior to the introduction of the Super League, Tayport and Whitburn had met each other only once, a Scottish Cup quarter final tie on the Canniepairt in 1995.

892 spectators saw goals from Keith Jardine and Paul Taylor give the visitors their victory and a place in the semi final v Glanafton which they duly won before losing to Camelon in the final.

It was only one of two blemishes on Tayport's 53 game campaign record that season and ended a 36 game unbeaten run.

It was ten years before the sides would meet again, in August 2005, their first meeting in the Super League and, although it was only 3-2 for the Burnies, they played Tayport off the park that afternoon.

Alan Flanagan, Iain Ramage and Colin Strickland had the home side 3-0 ahead and cruising before Bryan Duell and Sean Christie grabbed late goals for Port before 278 at Central Park.

The return at Canniepairt was a goalless affair in April 06. To the 265 fans, Tayport looked to have blown their title chances by failing to secure victory, but as we all warmly recall, Whitburn beat Bathgate 2-0 in the last game of the season to leave Tayport as unlikely champions. Still a great feeling, though!

Last season it was 2-1 for Whitburn in both league encounters Strickland and Kenny Hannah/ Ronnie Kenneth at Whitburn (353) and Strickland and Andy Roberts/ Kenneth at Canniepairt (158).

Paul Taylor (above) and Grant Paterson (right) are the only survivors from the 1995 meeting.

FROM THE MANAGEMENT

Good afternoon, and a very warm welcome to both sets of supporters to the Canniepairt for today's East Super League fixture versus Whitburn

Our visitors today, I feel, will provide us with our sternest test to date. Whitburn arrive, like ourselves, with a 100% record in league games. They are a very strong and well organised side, with quality players throughout their squad.

Come the end of season I have no doubt they will be in the mix to win the Super League. We know we will have to be at our very best to continue on our winning run. Confidence is very high in our camp at the moment, so it is a game our boys are looking forward to with anticipation.

It has been a very pleasing start to our league campaign, but to emphasis again it is only a start. We hope to continue our good form, but it is important that we keep working hard and keep to the standard that we have achieved so far. The players realise they will only get the rewards if they put the effort and commitment in that is required to be successful.

Since Ian's last report we have had two excellent results, with victories against Glenrothes and Bonnyrigg Rose. It has been very encouraging to see Kevin Kelly's name appear regularly on the scoresheet as it is important that we score goals from other areas of the park so that the burden is not solely left on the strikers.

The form of the defenders has also been very pleasing. Last week's game showed we have certain individuals who are prepared to stand up and be counted. Derek Wemyss, I thought, was man of the match, pushed very hard by David Currie who had three top class saves at crucial times during the game.

On chatting with the supporters after last week's game it was refreshing listening to their comments. We all agreed that there is definitely self-belief and a will to win back at the club. It was good to see the supporters turning out in large numbers last week so we will be looking for you to cheer the boys on today. I hope you make your presence heard and encourage them to achieve another great result.

Cheers, Frank & Ian.

"SOMETHING'S GOT TO GIVE TODAY"

says

Tayport have enjoyed a fantastic start to the East Super League campaign, their best ever, and the last two Saturdays have seen the club maintain its 100% record.

Two weeks ago, fellow Fifers, Glenrothes, visited the Canniepairt and 'Port recorded a good 4-2 win. Kevin Kelly set the ball rolling, with a cracking first-time strike, although former Tayport player, Ralph Hunter, equalised for the Glens. Thankfully, Murray Urquhart restored the lead, in composed fashion, all in the opening twenty minutes.

Not long into the second half, Ronnie Kenneth converted a Kelly cross to establish a two-goal cushion, and Kelly himself sealed the points, with a left-foot finish. One disappointment was that the Glens were able to notch a second goal, but, all told, it had been a positive performance from the Canniepairt outfit.

They produced another fine display last weekend, winning by three goals at Bonnyrigg, and, this time, keeping a clean sheet, despite some 'Rigg pressure. David Currie made a couple of very notable stops during the course of the match, making a big contribution to the result.

In terms of goals, Brian Craik got 'Port off the mark, glancing home a Ross Gunnion throw-in, half an hour into the contest. It was not until the final fifteen minutes that the visitors grabbed the crucial second counter, and it came from the ever-industrious Kevin Kelly, who is fast becoming a firm favourite of the 'Port support.

Kelly netted his second in the 80th minute, knocking home a hanging Derek Paterson free kick, with the Bonnyrigg goalkeeper in no-man's land. The goal was the former Harp man's fifth in four Super League appearances, a terrific start to the young player's Tayport career.

Let's hope that the form continues into today's encounter, whereby 'Port face a team they have yet to beat. Whitburn boast a superb record against Tayport, and they too have won all of their league fixtures to date. Something has to give this afternoon, so an intriguing contest awaits.

The article below appears in the current edition of the Arngrove Northern League's quarterly publication Northern Ventures Northern Gains and we reproduce it here because the subject matter, the Reverend Frank Campbell, was assistant referee for our match at Bonnyrigg last Saturday. He certainly gets around, apparently he's on the line at a match in Middlesbrough this afternoon.

THESCOREON FRANK CAMPBELL

The Rev Frank Campbell, 50, is a Church of Scotland minister near Jedburgh and an ANL assistant referee since 2005. Ordained in 1989, his previous jobs include secretary of Queens Park FC. He is married to Alexis with two grown-up children

It's better than a broken leg or punch on the nose.

Q Ever have to turn the other cheek?

A You bet! I have to really work on Proverbs 15 – a soft answer turns away wrath.

Q Any favourite ANL grounds?

A I like them all, but was sorry to lose Alnwick – always a warm welcome.

Q What does Mrs Campbell make of it all?

A Would "barking mad" suffice? I suspect she quite likes having the house to herself, so long as I don't awaken her returning from mid-week games on Teesside.

Q How fares the Church of Scotland?

A In some ways problems are akin to the ANL's – counter-attractions on the box etc. We're trying to get the right message across and exploring the ministry of healing.

Q Family apart, who or what is the love of your life?

A Between "The Boss" and the family, I'm very happy, thanks.

Q Who's your all-time hero, and why?

A Maybe, reflecting on early season fixtures, the inventor of effective, environmentally friendly midge repellent.

Q How do you rate "Scotch" pies compared to the English version?

A Don't like them. Give me a nice hot curry any day.

Q Can our friends at Gretna survive in the SPL?

A I'd love to think so, but fear an uphill struggle. I think Brooks would gladly accept 11th right now and start next season back at Raydale.

Q What's your idea of heaven on earth?

A Alexis and I have found a wee holiday spot in Fuerteventura. More seriously, we firmly believe that we're here to bring as much of heaven to earth as we can. That's why we support the "Water of Life" project to bring fresh drinking water to African communities.

Q And hell?

A Discovering on arrival in heaven that the angels' chosen sport is cricket.

Q When they make you Prime Minister, who'll be the first three on your honours list?

A I can think of at least three I'd be delighted to confirm as ambassadors to other planets – but then there's turning the other cheek, isn't there?

Q And the first law you'd introduce?

A I'd ban unsolicited communication from banks, credit card companies etc, the penalty to give the recipient £50,000 – or a season ticket to their local football club, whichever is more expensive.

Q Many years from now, what music or hymns would you like at your funeral?

A So much praise, we'd need a triple album. At the moment, God of grace, amazing wonder; In Christ Alone and Before the throne of God above – for starters.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOUT

Those drivers who have to endure the plethora of speed bumps en route to the Caniepairt may be interested to know that in Kirkcaldy residents kicked up so much fuss over the number, height and location of speed bumps that the council changed their plans. The residents reckoned that the design showed some streets had bumps where there were no problems yet in others where there were reports of speeding there were no plans for bumps. Backed up by their local Councillors, the residents took Fife Council's transport officials to task and persuaded them to alter their plans. Power to the people, but not in Tayport where the situation of bumps suggests the planners have little local knowledge.

Speaking of bumps, it's congratulations to Roberto who became a dad last week when his partner Vicky presented him with a baby girl, Libby..... and that explains his absence from the line-up at Bonnyrigg.

Will he, won't he? That's the question. East Region Match Secretary Bill McDonald BEM, MBE is threatening to quit his post after his executive committee have been unable to come up with a replacement. External pressures have led Bill to acknowledge he can't do the job of both secretary and match secretary, so he wants to unload the latter responsibility. Developments are awaited.

No confirmation yet that the League Cup Final will be played on Saturday 13th October. We had heard this would be the date. However, officials are having second thoughts. They apparently forgot that the attention of Scotland's soccer loving public that day will be centred on Hampden Park and the Scots Euro qualifier against Ukraine. The counter attraction of Tayport v Lochee United at the sponsor's uncovered Laing Park would likely be the choice of few neutrals never mind the fair weather followers of both clubs.

Never fails. Carnoustie lose 5-1 and the Scottish Juniors' Yahoo forum has the following headline from a Glenrothes contributor - Rumours are rife around this neck of the woods that Carnoustie have sacked their manager and that Eddie Wolecki will be named as their new manager later this week. Anybody else heard anything?. A typical Wolecki rumour was the immediate response from another poster.

Ashington FC is a team with clubrooms which reek of nostalgia, given that it is the hometown of Bobby and Jackie Charlton and Jackie Milburn and the walls are covered with soccer memorabilia. It's a club in fast decline, however, as we observed on our pre season visit to Portland Park. Things took a turn for the worse on Saturday past when Clydebank beat Ashington 12-0 in a friendly. Ashington sold their ground a few years ago to the local council for 10k in order to clear their debt. The Council have just sold it for £7million to a Supermarket chain and penniless Ashington will later this year play their last ever game at what has been their home for 100yrs +.

media watch

In the Fife Herald (21 Sept), Kevin Kelly got the headlines and a photo recognition of his two goals v Glenrothes, a feat that was to be repeated against Bonnyrigg seven days later. Manager Frank Conway thought his team had played well but was disappointed to concede two goals. The scribe reported that Reon Juskowiak 'demonstrated fabulous technique to unleash a screaming volley which thundered off the bar—so near a wonder goal—which would have been Tayport's fifth'.

Whilst the Evening Telegraph on Monday (24 Sept) didn't have too much to say on Tayport's win at Bonnyrigg, the Edinburgh Evening News had a couple of pages and three pics of the New Dundas Park clash. The newspaper understandably concentrated on Bonnyrigg's fourth successive defeat, noting that it was officially the club's worst start to a season since 1890 - 117 years ago!

Reporter Mark Bonthron described Tayport as a 'physical, uncompromising side' but noted Linlithgow manager Jim Sinnet's astonishing declaration that it was the 'worst Tayport team he had seen in more than six years'. Said the reporter, however, the proof of the pudding is in the results and .....at the weekend they blew Bonnyrigg away in the opening 45 minutes and, but for some poor finishing, the tie could have been over as a contest by half-time'.

The Midlothian Advertiser (27 Sep) carried a lengthy report on last week's game. Describing Bonnyrigg, double cup holders and Super League runners-up last season, as an ailing side, 'Striker' reported that Rose eventually crumbled to a better team on the day. The report agreed that 'Referee Hogg had denied Tayport a penalty when Craig Meikle crashed Brian Craik in the box' and observed by the end that 'down 3-0 with 13 minutes to go it was damage limitation for Bonnyrigg who were well beaten over the 90 minutes'.

It was red faces on The Courier sports desk and quizzical expressions in the hoosies of Arbroath on Tuesday morning when a headline announced 'Arbroath Vics part company with Low' It was, of course, Arbroath SC, who had parted company with their manager but SC never got a mention. Jim Low had been at the helm at Seaton Park for ten years and, as secretary John Barron said, 'he had been more than just a manager over the past decade and everybody is truly grateful for the effort he has put in...'

Ahead of today's first round of the re-vamped Scottish Cup, the Sunday Herald (23 Sept) had an all too rare article featuring Junior football. Pointing out it was eleven years since the Juniors had first approached the SFA requesting that the Juniors get a few places at the top table, the article made reference to the fact that 'former Tayport boss Dave Baikie had made a successful re-emergence from the junior game at East Fife'.

Linlithgow boss Jim Sinnet was interviewed as was Rose striker Brian Carrigan. 18 trophies in six years at Linlithgow were attributed to Sinnet, so arithmetic is clearly not Jim's or the reporter's strong point. 'Come Saturday, said the article, the junior clubs will be out to teach the rest of Scottish football a lesson'. Let's hope so.

The Scottish Cup has a new format this season. This is how it works:

First round

Saturday, 29 September, 2007.

35 clubs (17 ties and one bye):

14 clubs formerly participating in the Qualifying Cup North, excluding the top two in the Highland League: Brora Rangers, Buckie Thistle, Clachnacuddin, Cove Rangers, Deveronvale, Forres Mechanics, Fort William, Fraserburgh, Golspie Sutherland, Huntly, Lossiemouth, Nairn County, Rothes, Wick Academy.

18 clubs formerly participating in the Qualifying Cup South, excluding the winners of the East of Scotland and South of Scotland leagues: Burntisland Shipyard, Civil Service Strollers, Coldstream, Dalbeattie Star, Edinburgh City, Edinburgh University, Gala Fairydean, Glasgow University, Girvan, Hawick Royal Albert, Newton Stewart, Preston Athletic, St Cuthbert Wanderers, Selkirk, Spartans, Vale of Leithen, Whitehill Welfare, Wigtown and Bladnoch.

3 Scottish Junior FA clubs (would have been four if Linlithgow Rose had not qualified on two counts):

Winner of the Scottish Junior Cup: Linlithgow Rose

Winner of the East Super League: Linlithgow Rose

Winner of the West Super League: Pollok

Winner of the North Super League: Culter

For the first time ever Junior clubs have automatic entry to the Scottish Cup. The revamped competition is described on these pages and spells out the potential progress for Linlithgow Rose, Pollok and Culter - not to mention Girvan (whose entry is something of an anomaly as they are unique in being both members of the SFA as well as the SJFA) - to next May's final.

Second round

Saturday, 27 October, 2007. Draw on Tuesday 2 October, hosted by Annan Athletic FC.

32 clubs (16 ties):

18 first round winners

Top two in the Highland League: Keith and Inverurie Loco Works

Winner of the East of Scotland League: Annan Athletic

Winner of the South of Scotland League: Threave Rovers

Ten clubs in the Scottish Football League Division 3: Albion Rovers, Arbroath, Dumbarton, East Fife, East Stirlingshire, Elgin City, Forfar Athletic, Montrose, Stenhousemuir, Stranraer.

Third round

Saturday, 24 November, 2007

32 clubs (16 ties):

16 second round winners

Ten clubs in the Scottish Football League Division 2: Airdrie United, Alloa Athletic, Ayr United, Berwick Rangers, Brechin City, Cowdenbeath, Peterhead, Queen's Park, Raith Rovers, Ross County.

Four clubs in positions 5-8 in Scottish Football League Division 1 last season: Clyde, Livingston, Partick Thistle, Queen of the South.

Two clubs promoted from Division 2 last season: Greenock Morton, Stirling Albion.

Fourth Round

Saturday, 12 January, 2008

32 clubs (16 ties):

16 third round winners

12 clubs in the Scottish Premier League last season: Aberdeen, Celtic, Dundee United, Dunfermline Athletic, Falkirk, Hibernian, Heart of Midlothian, Inverness CT, Kilmarnock, Motherwell, Rangers, St Mirren.

Four clubs in positions 1-4 in Scottish Football League Division 1 last season: Gretna, St Johnstone, Dundee, Hamilton Academical.

Fifth round.

Saturday, 2 February, 2008

16 clubs - fourth round winners

Sixth Round.

Saturday, 8 March, 2008

8 clubs - fifth round winners.

Semi-finals

Saturday 12 April and Sunday 13 April, 2008.

No replays - matches played to a finish.

FINAL

Saturday, 17 May, 2008 or Saturday, 24 May, 2008

If Scotland qualifies for Euro 2008, the final will be on 17 May. If not, it will be a week later, on 24 May.

THE CLUB WISHES TO EXPRESS ITS THANKS TO MR.
TOM BRADLEY WHO HAS KINDLY DONATED THIS
