What's been happening.....?

As readers will have realised, this is the programme which was prepared for last week, so the programme is actually for the game being played on Saturday 9th February. So all references to last week, are actually references to two weeks ago!

Opposition is the same this afternoon but there are a couple of updates to note viz.

- Today's referee is Steve Crichton who replaces Raymond Whyte
- Brian Craik had the plaster removed from his arm during the week, so is back in contention for a place.
- Dean Rennie and Peter Flick are still on the injury list
- Frazer Fitzpatrick made a surprise return to training during the week
- In common with the Canniepairt, most grounds were declared unplayable last Saturday. No games survived north of the Tay and only two were played in Fife.
- Lochore Welfare were eliminated from the Scottish Cup, beaten 1-4 at home by Newtongrange Star. As Lesmahagow drew with Maybole, that's the only change to the draw which appears elsewhere in the programme.
- Ballingry Rovers, who meet Pollok in the next round of the Scottish Cup, were on the end of a shock result, losing 1-2 at home to Luncarty in a local cup tie.
- Scottish Junior Cup winner with Tayport in 1996, Jim Henry, has pulled on his boots again, this time helping out Forfar Albion.
- David Paterson and wife Joan retired as landlord and lady of the Bellrock Tavern earlier this week. We wish them well in retirement and thank them for their continued support to Tayport FC over the last 27 years.

Today's action.....

No Super League games survived last week and there is only one other Super League game scheduled for today - Oakley v Kelty Hearts. Kelty will be looking for a 'Port slip up to move up to fourth top. They will, however, be wary of their West Fife neighbours who turned over league leaders Whitburn in their last outing. Like Bonnyrigg, Oakley will be battling for every point to escape the bottom two rungs of the Super League table.

In the Premier League, should leaders Bo'ness take full points from their visit to Perth where they meet 3rd top Kinnoull, then it will be a massive step towards regaining Super League status. At the other end of the table, in the Premier's only other game, a defeat at Dundonald would leave Rosyth in a precarious position.

Holders Linlithgow Rose and Cumnock make a fourth successive attempt to get their outstanding Scottish Cup 4th round tie played at Prestonfield this afternoon.

The North/Tayside Cup and Fife & Lothians Cup ties dominate the remainder of the programme today

Super League clubs' results on the Newslane soon after today's match.

GHOSTBUSTERS IN TAYPORT..... read on [page 1 of 3]

Paranormal Activity

Helen, the owner, completed Paranormal Discovery's questionnaire and indicated that there was unexplained activity in the Auld Hoose in Whitenhill, Tayport. After discussing this with her, the team decided that the building would be worthy of investigation. Paranormal activity has occurred in various ways and is ongoing. For example, noises have been heard and poltergeist type activity has been reported as well as visual phenomena.

The Investigation

Thursday, 16th August 2007, midnight - 4.15am

Outside conditions: Weather: warm, dry, still Moon: waxing crescent in Virgo

Investigators present: Katrina, Laura, Tori, Natalie and Terry (owner)

Equipment Used:

Camcorders: nightvision Sony Hi8 analogue, Sony DCR-HC35E digital

Digital cameras: Sony cybershot 3.2mp, Lumicon LDC4013 4.1mp, Epson Photopc 2100Z

Digital voice recorders: 2 Olympus set at high quality recording

Thermometers: 2 in/out digital thermometers, Infrared thermometer

EMF meters : Electrosensor with detection range 50-60Hz & display range of 1.334-30 milliGauss, Cellsensor meter with detection range of 50-60 Hz and display range of 0-50 milliGaus

Ultraviolet Detection Powder & Ultraviolet torch: Glitterbug powder

Investigation Notes

00.00 - 00.45 Back bar

The team arrived and commenced baseline tests in the back bar area: EMF low readings around the room perimeter due to electrics, ambient temperature 20-22.C (cooler towards the rear of the room). The team discussed Tori's drawing which she had done prior to arriving at the location. It showed a spirit man she felt was either visiting or grounded at the pub. She felt that he was quite a joker but had a mean streak. He had a scar by his left eye, dark hair and was in his 30s or 40s. He also had a military connection and the initials J or M. She had also drawn a floorplan of the pub based on our earlier visit. The plan showed the areas that Tori felt were active (the area around the pool table was highlighted as the most promising).

00.30 Tori decided to do pendulum dowsing around the back of the room by the pool table. She stated that the pendulum showed an area of high energy at the very back wall of the room continuing down the side of the pool table towards the toilet door. She had also noted a green trail emitting from the tip of the pendulum which she could not explain, never having seen this before.

Katrina, Natalie and Tori all felt strange sensations like static on their hair and intense pressure/headache since arriving at the pub.

01.00 Whilst filming around the room, Laura's camcorder turned off suddenly for no apparent reason. There was no beeping as there should have been to indicate it was switching off and the camera worked again after being switched back on.

01.05 Katrina experienced a horrible prickly feeling down her right arm which was quite sore.

01.17 Left the room to go to the lounge bar.

00.18 - 01.42 Lounge bar

Temperature of room 21.C, high EMF reading by door (electrics cupboard) [continued over]

TAYPORT v BONNYRIGG ROSE

When Bonnyrigg last called at The Canniepairt in May of last year they were chasing the championship and the three points they won that day kept them in the hunt. Alas they were to lose out on the title by a point to Linlithgow and so lost the chance of playing in the Scottish Cup. It had, nevertheless, been a pretty good season for Rose who picked up the Fife & Lothians Cup and the Lothians' St Michaels Cup.

Given that success last season, it's all the more surprising that Bonnyrigg are currently sitting second bottom of the Super League table, particularly when nine of the starting XI last May are still at New Dundas Park. Clearly they are in a false position and their performance in their controversial 1-0 Scottish Cup defeat at Auchinleck in their last outing, is further proof that manager Pat Glynn and his assistant, ex Dundee player Graham Harvey, feel it's just a matter of time before everything clicks into place.

Former Tayport favourite John Elliott broke a hand in training and he could miss out again. Gary Maley who kept goal when Tayport stunned Bonnyrigg with a 3-0 win at New Dundas Park in September, gave way to Scott Cantley for the Auchinleck game.

The loss of striker Sean Grady to Forfar Athletic at the start of the season, was a bit of a blow but, as Glynn said at the time, the player had been a good servant and deserved a chance at Senior level. He was replaced with the speedy Sean Paliczka who has tormented a few defences this season. As it turned out, things didn't work out for Sean at Station Park and he's now back in the Juniors with Linlithgow.

Prior to the tie at Auchinleck, Bonnyrigg had been in good cup form during December, winning v Culter, Luncarty and Harthill, scoring 16 times without reply. January was a bad month, however, with only the Auchinleck tie beating the weather.

Tayport's play v Pollok was praised but they will have to cut out the habit of starting from the back foot by losing the first goal if there is to be a move up the table. They will again have Birdie and Dean missing and added to the injury list is keeper Peter Flick, who turned and ankle at training this week. Also missing will be Shaggy Paterson whose loan arrangement from East Fife was terminated at the player's request. Making is league debut will be Darren Scott who came close to opening his goal account several times v Pollok. Maybe today?

Two sides who will have a lot to prove as they attempt to kick start their season following Scottish Cup exits, should be the recipe for an entertaining afternoon's fare. Let's hope so.

right times" says

Tayport managed to open the scoring at the Canniepairt, when Barry McNaughton forced home Ronnie Kenneth's flick, from Ross Gunnion's throw-in, but, unfortunately, the lead only lasted five minutes.

Alan Waddell stuck out a foot to divert the ball over David Currie, for something of a lucky counter and, during the second half, both teams had chances. These were not taken, with McNaughton and substitute Kevin Kelly having the better of the openings, towards the end of the contest.

So to the Newlandsfield replay and another big crowd for the type of high profile game 'Port have become so used to playing over the years. It did not start well, though, with Paul Hyslop breaking the offside trap before touching home Pollok's opening goal.

Tayport went on to play some really positive football and the travelling fans were confident that their side would get back on level terms, only for Robert Downs to be allowed to double the home team's lead, on 65 minutes.

Chris Webster, set up by Kenneth's header, immediately reduced the deficit and 'Port still had quarter of the match left to salvage the tie. Sadly, it was not to be. Home substitutes Bryan Dingwall and Brian Mackay cashed in late on and the dream of further Scottish Cup success was over for another year.

It would difficult to argue against the Glasgow giants going through to the last-sixteen, but Tayport ran them close. Pollok simply took their chances at the right times.

Let's hope Tayport do something similar this afternoon, to reignite some sort of league challenge.

FROM THE MANAGEMENT

Good afternoon.

Today we welcome the players, officials and supporters of Bonnyrigg Rose to the Canniepart for our Whyte and Mackay Super League fixture.

This fixture could not come soon enough for us after last week's exit to Pollok in our Scottish Cup replay. For long periods of that match we controlled the game and even though we trailed by one goal at half time, I felt we were by no means out of the tie.

The second half was going exactly to plan with us dictating the game, the chances were being created and I believe if we would have got back on level terms we would have gone on to win the game. Unfortunately we never managed to draw level and gifted Pollok a second goal, we still kept going and managed to claw one back but lost two goals at the end for a scoreline that flattered our hosts. Over the two games we were punished by a very good side for not taking our chances and poor defending.

Prior to our first meeting we were delighted to sign Darren Scott from Arbroath. Darren was someone we wanted to bring to the club as soon as we took over last year. We thought we had secured him in the summer but Arbroath offered him a crack at senior football. We still kept him in our sights and when the chance arose to bring him in, the committee worked hard to make sure we got our man. He will be a great asset to the club in the next two and a half years and will give us a different option in attack.

Leaving the club is Derek Paterson who returns to East Fife. Derek is a young player who would have benefited from staying with us but he wants to play every week and that is something we couldn't guarantee, he leaves with our best wishes for the future.

Today's visitors find themselves at the wrong end of the table but the task in front of us today is huge. They are a team who possess some very good players and will hurt you if you are not on your game. Although we won the first encounter 3-0 back in September, we rode our luck at times, so we know today's game will be a stern test of our character. Here's looking forward to a good match which is played in the right spirit and the players performing to the best of their abilities. We will have to be at our best to get a result today and your support can help us get that.

Cheers, Ian Gilzean

THE FALLOUT FROM NEWLANDSFIELD

COMMENT ON LAST SATURDAY'S CUP-TIE AT POLLOK AS SEEN BY THE POLLOK FANS ON THEIR WEBSITE FORUM

To be truthful, we weren't at our best again today, except from the moment Dingy came on. They were all over us and playing some good football for the first 25 minutes of the second half. Added to putting on MacKay, the whole game just turned round for us.— DAVE

Tayport couldn't make anything of their outfield superiority and succumbed in the end. - PL

No doubt Tayport will feel a bit aggrieved at the final scoreline as it certainly flattered us. That said, how often have we been the better team in the Scottish only to go out. Lets also hope we dont see Mr Watters around these parts for a while, that was a shockingly inept display of refereeing for both sides - Blackandwhite

Took the game in today and comments are from a neutral perspective. A scrappy match with not a great deal of quality on show. I thought Tayport were the better side throughout especially during the first 20 or so minutes of the second half but they never took the few chances that they created, particularly the one on one with the keeper. Pollok took their chances and were helped by some poor defending from Tayport — Fueradejuego

As another 'neutral' who attended today (I WANTED Lok to win but still...), I thought Pollok struggled in defence before they scored against the run of play to make it 1-0. While it was still 1-0 in second half, what a bad miss from the Tayport player through on goal - big Kris caught in no-mans-land, but got away with it. His save in first half was a cracker though - if his kicking was as good as his shot-stopping ability, he'd obviously be playing at a higher level.

Both sides seemed to cancel each other out as well at times. Never a three-goal margin between the teams, and a bit disappointed it wasn't more entertaining for the many neutrals there. Tayport have been 'poor' this season and truth be told, I was surprised Lok were made to go to a replay. Lok deserved to go through though. If I was a Lok fan, I'd be a bit worried about how the game went before Lok opened the scoring. Tayport will rue that one missed chance, but that's the cup for ya - Kingjad

Scoreline flattered us and I think Tayport played at their best and on another day would have gone through. BUT if you analyse the chances they had - they didn't really create too much. Sure they had possession a lot in our half but they couldn't create a lot of clear cut chances and likewise ourselves. The difference is when we got chances we took them. Goal of the game for my was Hyslop - what a composed finish from a great ball from Waddell. MOTM McKeown for me cause he punched Roberto Morris (lucky to get away with it though!!!) - Terencej

Agree also that the score flattered us. Tayport can feel aggrieved at not taking it to pens...they pounded our goal for 20mins of the he second half and we looked all over the place at times. Our fitness was good and dingy certainly made a positive impact when he came on. Not a great performance but a great result - and that's all that matters in the cup! - monthelok

'Port must think that they have come to the big city and got mugged!! but as the others have been saying, we rode our luck and took our chances.—Graeme

media watch

The two weeks which spanned the Pollok tie provided some excellent coverage the local and national press - an exception being last week's Sunday Mail, at least the edition on sale in these parts. For some reason the local edition had missed out on its Junior coverage. Maybe a blessing in disguise!.

The Evening Telegraph (Friday 17 January) carried a cracking archive shot of Barry McNaughton and Tayport fans, taken after scoring the winning goal v Renfrew in the Scottish Cup two years ago. The Canniepairt tie v Pollok attracted six press photographers who provided extensive photo coverage for the Fife Herald, The Sun, Daily Record and Evening Telegraph.

The Sun sent reporter Scott Campbell up for the game and his report carried an interview with debutant Darren Scott who expressed disappointment that he would have to wait to team up with former Harp colleague Birdie Craik who was out of action with a broken arm. Experienced Pollok defender Joe Caruth told Campbell "we knew this was a formidable task but we're pleased to be taking them back to our place".

The Sun, Daily Record and Evening Telegraph all carried pics of Barry McNaughton's goal which put Tayport ahead. The Record's angle on the game was the absence through illness of Pollok manager Rab Sneddon and the fact that he kept an open telephone line to the Canniepairt as he tried to "steer Pollok into the fifth round in the battle of the junior giants".

The Evening Telegraph (25 Jan) featured a lengthy review of Saturday's events on the Canniepairt by Junicus who pointed out that "Tayport had a surprise for their supporters when they named former Lochee Harp striker Darren Scott in their starting line-up after signing him from Arbroath on Friday".

The Fife Herald (24 Jan) carried extensive coverage of the Canniepairt tie and a preview of the replay with three large action colour photos. In his interview with the Herald's reporter, Tayport manager Frank Conway was critical of the way his side lost the equaliser, "switching off after conceding a throw and then going to sleep as they attacked".

Monday's Evening Telegraph (28 Jan) understandably headlined with Lochee United's recovery from being two goals behind to win through to the last sixteen over Sauchie. Along with the report of the 'Port tie, there was a photo from Newlandsfield which showed in the background the healthy four figure crowd. Frank Conway interviewed, said "I'm totally shell shocked after that result. We probably played our best football of the season in the first half, yet we found ourselves one down..."

Bonnyrigg had their share of column inches covering their Scottish tie at Auchinleck. And what a controversial match it was, a late disputed penalty, awarded on the call of a linesman - giving Talbot a passage into round 5 by the slimmest of margins. Speaking to Daily Record reporter Kevin McGoldrick, manager Pat Glynn said "...we were cheated. Before the match I had said to my players the linesman could be intimidated - and I've been proved right"

The Edinburgh Evening News reporter John Gilmour didn't beat about the bush. According to the reporter, "the Bonnyrigg players went berserk..." when the referee pointed to the spot. The report certainly suggested Bonnyrigg had been hard done by in a game which they certainly didn't deserve to lose. The Daily Record was back at the Canniepairt in midweek for a photo opportunity with Darren Scott at training for an article on 'Port's new striker which appeared in Friday's edition (25 Jan)

FROM THE CLUB'S ARCHIVES JANUARY 1988

TWENTY YEARS AGO on SATURDAY 30th JANUARY 1988, Tayport, then an amateur club, played their 12th Midlands Premier League game of the season at home to TIMEX FC in wet and miserable conditions on the Canniepairt.

Although having too many draws to put in a serious championship challenge, Tayport were having a reasonable season and edged a 1 - 0 victory thanks to Neil Shaw's second half goal. Tayport finished the season 6th top of the table.

Not too many familiar faces in the line-up that afternoon:- Paul Hunt; Steve Rollo, Micky McPherson, Colin Downie, Jimmy Falconer, Neil Downie, Stuart Davie, Norrie Farningham, Steve Potts, Neil Shaw and Doug Kemp-ton. Subs were Paul Thackeray and Doug Paterson.

47 players turned out for the 1st XI that season. Jimmy Falconer played in all 40 competitive games including all 26 league fixtures. Eight players played in at least 30 of the games including Colin Downie who would go on to manage Junior clubs Glenrothes and St Andrews United, top scorer Andy Heggie who would have a lengthy career in the Tayside Juniors and is still playing with Dundee Violet and local stalwarts for many seasons, Stuart Davie and Neil Downie. There were even four sub appearances for current committee man Ken Smith.

Across the factory burn on the East Common, the club's second string played an East Fife Amateurs League Two game at home to St Andrews University, winning 3-2. It was to be an unbeaten league title winning campaign. The line-up that week was Kenny McRitchie; Dunc McKellar, Davie Blair, Alan Hart, Davie Ford, Jimmy Anderson, Lindsay Clark, Bryan Fitchet, John Fernie, Gordon Smith, Dougie Henderson. ### GHOSTBUSTERS IN TAYPORT.....

Katrina, Natalie and Tori all felt strange sensations like static on their hair and intense pressure/headache since arriving at the pub.

01.00 Whilst filming around the room, Laura's camcorder turned off suddenly for no apparent reason. There was no beeping as there should have been to indicate it was switching off and the camera worked again after being switched back on.

01.05 Katrina experienced a horrible prickly feeling down her right arm which was quite sore.

01.17 Left the room to go to the lounge bar.

01.18 - 01.42 Lounge bar

Temperature of room 21.C, high EMF reading by doorway (electrics cupboard)

01.25 Clicking noise heard behind bar heard by everyone.

01.26 Creaking/rasping noise heard behind the bar by everyone.

01.34 Another noise behind the bar which almost sounded like paper being flicked. Nothing could be seen to account for this.

01.39 Creaking noise by the bar near Katrina heard by everyone.

01.42 Returned to back bar.

01.45 - 04.00 Back bar

01.45 Tori sat down on steps by pool table to try some automatic writing. She jumped up as something had hit her back. She said that it felt like a little stone had been flicked at her. A tapping noise had been heard at the same time by Natalie who was sitting next to Tori. The floor was checked over and nothing found that could have been thrown.

01.50 Tori felt as if the pen in her hand had been moved forcefully off the edge of the paper.

01.52 Katrina called out for a sign of spirit presence. A noise was heard by everyone to the right of the pool table by the fire exit.

02.00 Glass divination started. Camera set to film the team doing this. Various noises were heard during this time - shuffling and footsteps in the corner by the pool table and footsteps on the path outside.

02.10 Chair behind Nat creaked and Katrina thought she saw it moving out of the corner of her eye. Natalie's foot was not near the chair.

02.19 Movement heard by everyone in corner which sounded like footsteps.

02.23 Tori said she had seen a shape like a human leg through the glass door in front of her. 2 loud bangs heard. Thought to be Terry who had gone down into the cellar.

02.25 Terry was asked if the banging had been him but he said it was not.

02.26 Another shuffle heard by everyone by the pool table.

02.28 Natalie heard shuffling again then the glass on the table 'jumps' and gives everyone a fright.

02.36 Spirit asked to make a noise. Noise heard by the bar. Terry asked if it was caused by him. He heard it too and said he hadn't caused it.

GHOSTBUSTERS IN TAYPORT.....

02.45 Tori sensed a figure sitting beside her on the bench

02.50 Katrina sees a white blob move from right to left at the top of the stairs to the pool table. Natalie also sees a white shape.

02.55 Fast footsteps heard outside on the path assumed to be somebody running down to the pub door and back up the hill again.

At just after 3am Terry decided to go upstairs for a break and locked the 4 team members into the back bar (there is a fire exit for a quick escape). After going to the bathroom, the team returned to sit at the coffee table. A second voice reorder was started and left on top of the pool table. The trigger object experiment was now finished as the camcorder tape had ended and the objects had not moved any. The 4 team members sat quietly on the bench and Natalie decided to attempt automatic writing.

03.30 Several noises were heard from behind the bar during this time and the area was examined to see if the cause of the bumps and scrapes could be found. Nothing was discovered that could be causing these noises which were like dull scrapes.

03.45 Tori sensed a dark human form standing on the middle of the bar as if looking down on us. The camcorder was aimed at the particular area but nothing untoward was filmed.

03.50 Tori called out for the spirit she was sensing to make itself known. A tuneful whistle was heard by everyone just after. Each team member had thought it was the others as it had sounded so close. Nobody had whistled.

04.00 Natalie stops writing. Much to her surprise, she had written a name - Seymour Lesley.

Terry returned and the investigation ended.

Information gained from glass divination:

1. Male with the initials F S who used to work at the pub. Visits because he loves the place. Born in 1812, married and had 1 child.
2. Male with first initial M (possibly Martin) and surname Johnstone. Died at the pub in a fire along with his pregnant wife. Is buried in the graveyard next door. Has unfinished business and is looking for money taken from him before the fire. Lived in Tayport.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

Lochee United's Scottish Cup win over Sauchie at Thomson Park last Saturday was soured somewhat by a fracas in the dressing room area at the end of the game. There was disappointment expressed over the attendance at the tie, but that won't be the case next round when a visit to Clydebank is on the agenda.

Another 'it's a small world' Bunter story. Bunter, aka Andy Robertson, a club sponsor and our man in Dubai, tells us he was on the phone to the widow of a former colleague, Joe Jack, who had recently passed away. Bunter, a good friend of Joe's, trained as a clerk of works at college with Joe and had worked with him in the Middle East. Bunt tells us that after an hour on the phone to widow Joyce, she happened to mention her grandson played football had just signed for Tayport. None other than Darren Scott.

Derek Paterson who signed in August on loan from East Fife for a season, has been transferred back to East Fife from where he was expected to sign for Montrose Roselea. Shaggy had been disappointed in not featuring in the starting line-up recently and it was mutually agreed that he move to a club where he could be guaranteed a regular game. He goes with everybody's best wishes.

Rosyth manager Billy Spence, the former Tayport striker, has resigned from his post following his side's heavy defeat at Bo'ness last week. Billy reckoned the committee's ambition didn't match his own.

Still on managers, it was reported early this week that Kinnoull's long serving boss, Scott Brown, had resigned his post at Tulloch Park. The club issued a terse statement with chairman Chris Jones thanking Scott for his time at the club and inviting applications for the vacant post. One of the applications must have been from Scott, because by Friday he had been re-appointed. Must be a story there!

Rangers, Celtic, Forfar Athletic, Tayport and Downfield. That's the soccer career path trod by Garry Fraser. The striker, on loan to Tayport from Forfar since the start of the season, was shipped back to Station Park at the end of the year. Despite the paucity of goals at Forfar this season, Garry clearly doesn't fit in with manager Jim Moffat's plans and he's now on loan at Downfield.

Pollok officials were telling Port people that the Scottish Cup has meant a huge financial boost to the Junior clubs, particularly themselves and Linlithgow. £40,000 is reckoned to be a pretty conservative estimate of Linlithgow's share of the action. Pollok picked up £2,000 as their share of the gate against Montrose at Links Park, but the Inr Bru third division team did substantially better in the replay, returning north with a cheque for three times that amount.

The crowd at Pollok last Saturday was amongst the top dozen football attendances in Scotland last Saturday, bettering all the Inr Bru Division three crowds.
