TODAY'S GAME

BuktaTEAMWARE.COM Super League
TAYPORT v GLENROTHES

Glenrothes were to have been our first visitors of 2009 until the weather dictated otherwise. The New Town club arrive at the Canniepairt on the back of a disappointing Scottish Cup defeat at Kirkintilloch last Saturday, but boasting a pretty impressive away record in this season's Super League nevertheless, a solitary single goal defeat at Bathgate in October being their only failure to gather at least a point on the road.

In the programme notes for this game's original date, 3 January, we wrote "Draws - four to date- have been Glens undoing and like ourselves, Glens are currently plodding along in mid table. Mid table, the clubs might be, but both are acutely aware that a couple of wins would propel either into the top of the league bracket. Conversely, of course, failure to pick up anything from the next couple of games or so, would see either club slip into the relegation mire. It is, therefore, an important game for both clubs this afternoon." Well, Tayport got their couple of wins - and more - while Glens have had mixed fortunes, losing heavily at home to Kelty and then beating Linlithgow at Prestonfield. Their other games since then have been Scottish Cup ties, a draw v Ballingry, a win v Ballingry and then Saturday's exit at Rob Roy. Essentially nothing's changed, it's still a crucial game for both clubs.

Glens have a compact but very experienced squad which normally gives little away and, as we found to our cost at Warout Stadium earlier this season, they are happy to keep things tight and take full advantage of the chances which will inevitably come their way. Adept at taking such opportunities - and the player with most assists - is the effervescent midfielder Lee Duffy who netted the crucial opening goal against us and who currently leads his club's Super League scoring charts.

The long serving Clive Guppy has made way for Jamie Roberts recently. Up front, Gregg Meikle, although he hasn't managed to add a league goal to his double scored at Whitburn on the opening day of the Super League season, is a lively attacker who will pose problems to the home defence. Absent from the Warout squad will be the influential former Dundee FC midfielder player Neil Jablonski who has returned to Australia.

Tayport will likely be without influential players Brian Livie and Reon Juskowiak but Stuart Ferguson who impressed on his debut at Bathgate last week and Adam O'Connor, who capped a sound performance with a goal on his return to action for the first time since the turn of the year, will be hoping to keep their places. Barry McNaughton is available after missing out last week and Darren Scott, suffering from a cold last week, is also now raring to go. Chris Webster is still out following breaking a foot at Carnoustie but Willie Garner has a couple of trialists at his disposal. Defenders Dean Wallace and Andy Sommerville, yes son of the legendary and original, have been training with 'Port for some weeks and were both on the bench at Bathgate last week.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

Lost.....for a week in December, the Tayport v Lochee United match report on the Lochee United website. www.locheeunited.co.uk the message was 'Report to follow' .... but it took its time to get there. The webmaster, clearly huffed by comments posted on his site, finally responded "Here is the match report that a couple of 'pain in the arses' have been asking for. The reason, if you must know, that no report was put on was I shot off to work after this game and had a very busy night. Sunday came and went and before you know it...it was the Ayr Utd game and everything that I'd remembered about this game was oot ma heed!!! " Selective amnesia perhaps?

The punter known as Superbigal posted this on the Tayport FC Forum before the big freeze-

"Love this on Pie and Bovril site"

Lochee Utd 1-3 Bo'ness Utd

Bo'ness confirm themselves as the world's top football club* with a much improved performance on last week's miserable capitulation to Tayport.

*Bo'ness have now beaten Lochee home and away this season. Ayr Utd drew at Lochee, needing a replay to beat them in the Scottish FA Cup. This proves Bo'ness are better than Ayr. Last weekend, Ayr drew with Kilmarnock in the same competition. If Ayr are the equals of Kilmarnock, then logically this makes Bo'ness superior to Kilmarnock. In their recent game at Easter Road, Killie beat Hibs. Ergo, Bo'ness are better than Hibs. In Hibs' most recent meeting with Celtic, Hibs won, making the BUs better than Celtic. In their latest meeting with Manchester United, Celtic drew. Therefore, if Celtic are the equals of Manchester United, the supposed "World Club Champions", and Bo'ness are evidently superior to Celtic, then Bo'ness must be the best team in the world.

A response...

Barman, I'll have the same as him please!!! Great stuff! Certainly puts these fandans from Parkhead and Old Trafford in their place. Where does it leave Tayport though ... I mean they horsed you!

Comparing surgical notes on the touchline at our last home game were Chris Webster and Dean Rennie, one on crutches, one in a stooky. Webby has since had the wire removed from his broken foot and is on the road to recovery but was still on crutches as recently as the Whitburn match. Dean, who suffered a second leg break of his career playing for his Sunday team, has now abandoned the surgical boot and is also well on the road to recovery. Both players who were team mates earlier in the season until Dean was freed by former boss Iain Jenkins, hope to be back in training soon. Dean has been offered training facilities by Willie Garner as he embarks on the road back to fitness.

Bathgate Thistle may be Scottish Cup holders, the town itself may have a population of 15,068, but the attendance at Creamery Park last Saturday was a hugely disappointing 150. Of that total, one third were there to support Tayport, most of whom had made a 130 mile round trip to do so. For a town with a population of 3,847 at the last count, it's a great following.

Tayport players, committee and supporters alike were saddened by the news of the sudden death recently of Roy Gunnion, aged 61, father of former player Ross. Roy and wife Ann were regular attenders of Tayport matches, home and away, during Gunner's seven years with the club.

Tayport FC's committee's time wasn't wasted when the match v Bonnyrigg was postponed five weeks ago. They went shopping for a new mower and were successful in finding a suitable model which should be signed in good time for a debut as the grass emerges from its winter slumber.

Tayport's remarkable turnaround has caused a few raised eyebrows. Less than a week before Christmas, Tayport languished in third bottom spot in the Super League, 14 points behind runaway leaders Linlithgow Rose. Indeed Tayport hadn't even scored a goal away from home, never mind won a point. Nine weeks later, 'Port are third top, one point off the top of the table, and now only one point behind Linlithgow. Not only that, but Ronnie Kenneth is currently the Super League's top scorer.

According to last Friday's Evening Telegraph (20/02) we had played a midweek friendly against Dundee Violet. No, you hadn't missed the result / report. There was no game. Once again, it demonstrates you can't always believe what you read in the papers!

A real kick in the goalies for the Scottish Rugby hierarchy last weekend. A couple of Scottish ties involving minnows St Boswells and Cumbernauld had been delayed by bad weather. So what does the SRU do? They decided the 'big' clubs would win anyway so, to avoid further delay, they binned St Boswells and Cumbernauld, thus allowing their opponents to progress. No doubt there were a few red faces when Saturday's Scottish Cup results came through and 4th Division Howe of Fife knocked out Premiership One hotshots Glasgow Hawks in Cupar.

Let's hear it for Tayport Arms FC. The Sunday Morning League side recorded yet another unlikely Scottish Sunday Cup win to reach the last eight of the National Tournament. Unlikely because they once again trailed their opponents, only to stage a sensational comeback. 0-3 down in the second half against Sports Bar in Harthill, the 'Port lads rallied in superb fashion to win 5-3. The lads are on the road again tomorrow, heading for Livingston and a quarter final tie against Harvester FC. The semi finals beckon and we wish them the best of luck.

Three clubs will leave the Juniors at the end of the season to move into the Seniors. Four North League clubs, Turriff United, Strathspey Thistle, Formartine United and Banks of Dee applied for three vacancies in the Highland League. Following a secret ballot of clubs on Wednesday past, Banks of Dee, who are currently top of the North Super League, missed out, receiving only 5 votes. Turriff (15 votes), Strathspey (14) and Formartine (11) take the step up. Formartine and Strathspey are in Div 1, the standard of which probably struggles to be on a par with the third tier down here. Seems clear that Banks of Dee will have to brush up on their hospitality to visiting clubs!

DUNMORE'S ANGLE

Tayport looking to maintain momentum

Six weeks ago visitors Kelty came to the Canniepairt in buoyant mood, having hit Glenrothes for six, and must have harboured aspirations of recording another win against Tayport, especially after taking an early lead, through a John Martin penalty.

A fine move saw 'Port draw level, with Reon Juskowiak and Murray Urquhart involved on the right flank, setting up Barry McNaughton, who added yet another Super League goal to his tally.

A goalkeeping error played a part in Tayport's next counter, with Stefan Elvin the beneficiary, although he still had to show good imagination in looping his header over a defender and into the net. So, the hosts led at the break and they would soon establish a two-goal cushion. Ronnie Kenneth took advantage of another goalkeeping lapse and, again, his finish, from the edge of the area, was exemplary.

Kenneth was quick to latch onto a poor Tom Courts pass-back, with fifteen minutes remaining and was upended by 'keeper Fleming. The on-form goalscorer took the resultant spot kick, dispatching it emphatically beyond Kelty's makeshift custodian, Fleming having been red-carded. Another dismissal followed, with Stefan Winiarski, a substitute, dismissed shortly after entering the fray. As has been proven on several occasions in the past, playing against nine men does not suit Tayport - Tam McGeorge pulled a goal back for the Central Parkers, making the scoreline 4-2.

'Port perhaps suffered a slight break in momentum with the postponement of the game against Bonnyrigg, but when action resumed three weeks ago, there was more good news to report.

The Canniepairt outfit finally buried a Whitburn hoodoo which had stretched back to the 1995 Scottish Junior Cup quarter-final. Stefan Elvin was yet again on the scoresheet, tapping home after the 'keeper had parried Ronnie Kenneth's long-ranger, early in the second half. It was an otherwise tight affair, on a far from ideal surface, but Tayport generally had the better of the game. Brian Livie and Roberto Morris both went close in the first half and, after Elvin's goal, stout defending and one fantastic save from Frazer Fitzpatrick earned another valuable win.

After two weeks without a game, there was finally some action last weekend, when 'Port travelled to Creamery Park. Hosts Bathgate opened the scoring on the stroke of half-time, through former Rangers player, Iain Nicholson.

It did not take the Canniepairt men long to draw level, although they needed a bizarre, yet blatant, handball offence to do so. Ronnie Kenneth tucked away the spot kick, for his seventh Super League goal of the campaign.

A flowing move led to Adam O'Connor arrowing home from the edge of the box, to give Tayport the lead and it looked like Willie Garner's side were going to climb to the top of the table.

A late penalty for 'Gate, however, put paid to those aspirations. The game's second such decision was far more contentious, but there was no stopping ex-Motherwell and Falkirk hitman, Paul McGrillen, as he beat Frazer Fitzpatrick, from twelve yards.

The Citylink Scottish Junior Cup Last Sixteen

This how we viewed it in the last programme -

ASHFIELD to edge it. VIOLET to shock Talbot. GLENS to recover and disappoint big crowd. CAMELON, maybe after a replay. GOWFERS to keep the flag flying. BEITH are in form. ROSELEA after a replay. Big spending MEADOW. KILSYTH to pull off a shock. ROB ROY after being held at home. LARKHALL surprise locals. LANARK too strong, PEASIE but will need a second game. BANKIES a banker. THORNIEWOOD to scrape it. WHITBURN up for it.

Violet to shock Talbot, we said. That was a laugh! Violet capitulated to the tune of 9-0! Otherwise we didn't do too badly. 12 out of sixteen, a 75% success rate. Pretty good in fact.

A WORD WITH WILLIE

Today we welcome one of my former clubs, Glenrothes to the Canniepairt on Super League business. Amazingly, due to bad weather and subsequent away fixtures at Whitburn and Bathgate, this is our first home game since we defeated Kelty on 17th January, and indeed only our second home game since defeating Lochee on 20th December.

Last week saw contrasting results for ourselves and the Glens. Whilst they were going out of the 'Scottish' at Kirkintilloch Rob Roy, we were on league duty at Bathgate where we drew 2-2. Considering we had not played for three weeks, I was relatively pleased with our performance, although not at all happy at the way we conceded two goals, one from the penalty spot and we had a discussion about these incidents after the game.

As you know, even although we do not have a large squad, I have very much kept the same team through our recent run, but was forced into a couple of changes last week due to work commitments of Brian Livie and Barry McNaughton. The absence of Livie meant that Stuart Ferguson made his debut, and also Adam O' Connor came back into the side, his first game since the Lochee match. I was really happy with both players' performances. Stuart brings with him great senior experience, and on numerous occasions this came to the fore, and all the hard work and effort Adam has put in during his prolonged absence certainly paid off, with his good performance being rewarded in him scoring our second goal.

A measure of how far the players have come in a short space of time, was how disappointed they were that, in their view, we had dropped two points. I felt that the character they showed in the second half, having lost a goal right on half time, was fantastic. Their movement and support play in that second half was great to watch and I felt that with that bit of luck that we always need, we could have scored two or three more goals. In the end we had to settle for a draw.

During the enforced break we have worked really hard on the training field. Jim has been putting the guys through some really intense sessions, with total commitment from the players, as always.

As I have mentioned in previous programme notes, one look at the league table suggests that it will be some time before all the serious outcomes are decided. What we will be doing is continuing to work as hard as we possibly can, and hope that is enough, along with some good fortune, to maintain a position of challenge.

Lastly I would like to thank you for your continued support. It was again good to see many of you at Bathgate and Whitburn. Lets get right behind the team today.

Support the Port

Willie Garner

Originally prepared for the match programme on 24 January, we've not had a home game since the postponement that day, but rather than wait 250 years until Rabbie next chalks up 250, we've kept this in the programme

Rabbie Hits 250

Tomorrow is Robert Burns 250th birthday, so to mark the occasion, we've looked out some tales about Burns Suppers.

The cannibal chief was invited to a Burns Supper by the resident white administrator. After a sumptuous meal and much to drink, the company were asked to be upstanding. "What are we doing now," asked the cannibal chief. "We're going to toast the lassies," he was told. "Oh no" the chief replied. "I couldn't eat another thing"

A speaker invited to speak at a bowling club Burns Supper. He turned up and went straight to the secretary and by mumbling and gesturing indicated that he had suffered an accident to his dentures and would be unable to speak.

Being an enterprising sort, the club secretary went to the phone and, after a brief conversation, indicated to the speaker that help was on its way. A short time later, someone arrived and handed the secretary a box which he in turn handed to the speaker as he led him to the toilets with the words "see if you can find something suitable in there" The guest found the box contained dozens of sets of dentures and emerged smiling a few minutes later and told the secretary: "You'll never believe it but I found a set of teeth even better than my own".

He went on to make a sparkling speech which was the hit of the evening. As he left he shook hands with the secretary and said: "Please give my sincere thanks to your dentist friend." "I will," replied the secretary, "but he isn't a dentist, he's an undertaker"

***

A Burns joke collection wouldn't be complete without some reference to sex.... Which reminds us of the woman pushing the pram along the East Common. She is approached by an elderly senior citizen who examines the baby and says: "That's a bonnie wean ye've got in the pram and what a grand heid o' hair. Wis his faither red heided as well?"

"Dunno," replied Tayport's young mum, "He never took his bunnet aff"

Two 90 year old men, Andy and Sandy, have been friends all their lives. When it's clear that Sandy is dying, Andy visits him every day. One day Andy says, 'Sandy, we both loved football all our lives, and we played football on Saturdays together for so many years. Please do me one favour, when you get to Heaven, somehow you must let me know if there's football there.'

Sandy looks up at Andy from his death bed, 'Andy, you've been my best friend for many years. If it's at all possible, I'll do this favour for you.'

Shortly after that, Sandy slips away. At midnight a couple of nights later, Andy is awakened from a sound sleep by a blinding flash of white light and a voice calling out to him, 'Andy...Andy.'

'Who is it? Asks Andy sitting up suddenly. 'Who is it?'

'Andy ... it's me, Sandy.'

'You're not Sandy, Sandy just died.'

'I'm telling you, it's me, Sandy,' insists the voice.'

'Sandy! Where are you?'

'In heaven', replies Sandy. 'I have some really good news and a little bad news.'

'Tell me the good news first,' says Andy.

The good news, 'Sandy says,' is that there's football in heaven. Better yet, all of our old friends who died before us are here, too. Better than that, we're all young again.

Better still, it's always spring time and it never rains or snows. And best of all, we can play football all we want, and we never get tired.'

'That's fantastic,' says Andy. 'It's beyond my wildest dreams! So what's the bad news?'

'You're in the team for Saturday.'

Tayport get their place in the (Scottish Amateur FA) history books.....but it's inaccurate.

The Scottish Amateur Football Association recently marked its Centenary Year, 1909 - 2009, with a grand dinner in Dunblane and the piece below appeared in the glossy publication issued by the Association to celebrate the occasion. A researcher had trawled through 100 years of the Association's papers and minutes to provide a record of each decade. Whilst we are pleased that the club should be mentioned in such a prestigious document, it would appear that they got it wrong in the 1970-1979 A Decade of Dramatic Development feature.

For season 1972/73, there were four hundred and sixty entries for the Scottish Amateur Cup and in an unusual departure from normal business a dispute was settled by Fife Police. Abbotshill (Kirkcaldy & District AFL) played Tayport (Midlands AFA) in the Scottish Cup and the rule at the time meant the home team had to pay travel expenses to the opposition provided the distance travelled exceeded thirty miles. The clubs could not agree, and the SAFA called upon Fife's finest who decided the distance between the grounds was thirty one miles. Thus Tayport were liable for expenses!

1 It was a Fife Cup 2nd round tie, not a Scottish Cup-tie

2 Abbotshill was the home team and the game was played at Beveridge Park, Kirkcaldy

3 The distance confirmed by Fife Police (31 miles) benefited Tayport, as the away team, so we successfully claimed the expenses, not Abbotshill.

The game actually took place over 36 years ago on 23 December 1972 and although they may have won the expenses wrangle, Tayport lost the tie on the park, going down 3-2.

Tayport's team that cold afternoon was Derek White; Ian Mathers, Abby Oswald; Frank Leslie, Jim Mathers, Lindsay Ancell; Ian Howe, Walter Williamson, Andy Johnstone, Raymond White and Eddie Gilmour. It was the first season in which two substitutes were allowed and Tayport's two subs were Walter Kemp and Stewart Grant. Wattie Williamson and Lindsay Ancell, aka Fancy Dan, were the Tayport scorers.

Never mind not believing all you read in the newspapers, it just shows you can't even believe all you read in the history books either! Suppose we'll have to wait 100 years for a correction to be published.

Stuart Ferguson, the newcomer to The Canniepairt

Stuart, a left sided defender, is a member of the fairly select band of professional footballers who have turned out at first team level for all four Angus Senior clubs.

After playing for Forfar Athletic's Youth team, Stuart signed for Montrose where he had six season before leaving for Brechin City, then Arbroath before completing his tour of the county with a spell at Forfar Athletic from where he moved to Tayport.

In total Stuart, who has just turned 28, played 195 games in Divisions 2 and 3 weighing in with 7 goals. Although signed in time for the Whitburn three weeks ago, the manager wanted to assess Stuart's match fitness before giving him his debut v Bathgate on Saturday past. Stuart has squad number 10.

Leaving the Canniepairt as Stuart arrived was Robbie Holden who was transferred to Kinnoull, from whom he joined us at the start of the season.. Robbie featured in 19 of our 23 matches this season (5 as substitute), scoring 4 goals. Robbie made a scoring debut for Kinnoull, notching his new club's only goal in a 1-4 defeat at Musselburgh
