No. 12

All change this season for the Citylink Scottish Cup semi finals

For the first time, the Scottish Junior Cup semi final ties this season will be two legged affairs. The Junior FA has made this decision on the back of increasingly poor semi-final attendances. Not just the attendances but the ground rent and exorbitant police charges. The ties,

Pollok v Clydebank
Kirkintilloch Rob Roy v Auchinleck Talbot, will be played on Saturdays 18th and 25th April. 90 minutes each game going straight to penalties if the scores are all square

Whilst there are some downsides, there are a lot of advantages which include home gate receipts, hospitality, programme sales, refreshment sales. Downsides? For players and fans, the losing semi finalists miss out on the chance to play at a Senior venue and probably less chance of a shock result.

For the record the quarter final results were

Petershill 1 - 2 Clydebank
Irvine Meadow 0 - 2 Pollok
Newtongrange Star 0 - 2 Kirkintilloch Rob Roy
Auchinleck Talbot 3 (1) - 1 (1) Arthurlie

Clydebank groundshare with Yoker but Holm Park has been deemed unsuitable, so the Bankies' home leg will be at Vale of Leven's Millburn Park.

How would Tayport have fared had their seven semi final ties between 1993 and 2006 been played on a home and away basis? Interesting. The club would certainly have missed out on one of the most sensational matches in their history, the 3-0 win over Auchinleck at Firhill in 1993 when Hamish Mackay achieved cult status with a hat-trick.

TODAY'S GAME

Redwood Leisure Cup
TAYPORT v ROSYTH

After playing ten successive league games since mid December, Tayport return to cup action this afternoon. A failure to make a mark in the Scottish and East of Scotland Cups this season, sees the Redwood Leisure Cup as the last opportunity for regional cup success.

Rosyth caused an upset on their last visit to Canniepairt in May 2007, winning 2-1 in an East of Scotland Cup tie. The south Fife club was going well that season, just missing out on a Super League place and reaching the final of the East of Scotland.

After the dizzy heights of 2006/07, Rosyth went into freefall in 2007/08 and ended up relegated from the Premier Division to the Central Division. The club has staged an impressive turnaround and although they have lost their table top status, are still vying with St Andrews United for the sole promotion spot.

John Lumsden who replaced former Tayport striker Billy Spence, now at Hill of Beath, as Rosyth manager has a big player pool at his disposal and recently boosted his squad by taking three Cowdenbeath FC Under 19s on loan. Striker Callum Young, midfielder Jon Robertson and defender Chris King, who played for Tayport pre-season, will all likely be in the Rosyth squad for this afternoon's tie.

Prior to the date on which today's tie was originally scheduled (7th Feb), Tayport were on a roll, set to name an unchanged line-up for the fourth successive week and looking to extend a run of five league games which had delivered 13 points from a possible 15. Since then, however, there's been no opportunity for consistency of selection and this hasn't helped a situation which has seen only one point taken from five games and no goals scored in the last three of these games.

The enforced weather break didn't do Rosyth any favours either. They emerged from the same two week hibernation as Tayport to beat Luncarty 1-0 only to then lose by 1-2 to each of their Central League title rivals, St Andrews United and Thornton Hibs.

Murray Urquhart missed out for Tayport last week through illness and could again be an absentee as could Adam O'Connor who has been unable to train this week. Brian Livie was back in action at Bonnyrigg after missing five games and Grant Paterson is back in contention after missing out at Bonnyrigg with a rib injury sustained against Hill of Beath.

A WORD FROM WILLIE

Today's game gives us a little break from the Super League, and puts us against Rosyth in the Redwood Leisure Cup. Rosyth are doing really well this season and on current form are one of the favourites for promotion. Although picking up more points in the league is, and always will be my main priority this season, this is the only regional cup competition we are still in and therefore it would be great if we can have a good run.

My thoughts from last week at Bonnyrigg are that although we dominated the game, we did miss some opportunities to win it, and succumbed to a sucker punch with a home goal late in the game. I felt that the players were back in that zone where they had great belief and, although bitterly disappointed by the result, the performance gave me a certain amount of pleasure.

During the week at training we have focused on the positive aspects of the performance and hopefully our performances will continue to improve between now and the end of the season. We have some really crucial league games coming up and a good performance today would help the players' confidence and also keep us with an interest in this competition, although I am sure Rosyth will be thinking the same.

Although there is always the debate each season about the number of games the players are asked to play in various cup competitions, if you ask any of them, they would rather be involved in playing in the later stages of these cups, instead of going along to watch. The evening games always create an interest and with the clocks going forward tomorrow we will see the start of them soon. Let's hope we have a few in which to play.

Once again you travelled in good numbers to Bonnyrigg, and I hope you saw signs of us getting back to the level of performance we had only a few short weeks ago. Your continued support will be crucial in these remaining fixtures and is really appreciated by everyone at the club.

Support the Port, Willie Garner

FROM THE ARCHIVES

TAYPORT V ROSYTH

1ST MARCH 2003

Rosyth, then known as Rosyth Recreation, paid their first ever visit to The Caniepairt in Spring just over six years ago to meet Tayport in the Redwood Cup. Rosyth were in the Fife District League and Super League Tayport, having lost only eight goals during the previous six months, were hot favourites to progress. And so it transpired, with the locals winning at a canter by 4-0.

Six years and a fair degree of upheaval down the line, Rosyth have no players in their squad today who wore the red and black back in 2003. The visitors' line up that day was Ewan Stenhouse; Martin Rennie, Mark Gibson, Gareth Wall, Scott Stenhouse, Bret Haggett, Kieran Grattan, James Watt, Michael Brown, Alan Aitken and Craig Scott.

Subs were Ronald Duncan and Callum Douglas

Tayport have four survivors from that game which attracted a crowd of 157, Fitzie, Patty, Roberto and Baz. The line-up was

Frazer Fitzpatrick; Scott Peters (retired), Grant Paterson, John Ward (Brechin City), Roberto Morris, Jonny Mitchell (Bo'ness United), Allan Ramsay (St Andrews United), Brian Craik (Broughty Athletic), Davie Evans (St Andrews United), Gareth Dailly (Lochee United), Barry McNaughton. Subs were Steven Stewart (Kirrie Thistle), Doug Scott (retired) and Mark Craib (retired)

Peters, Ward, Evans and Craik shared the goals.

Within three months, Tayport were to be crowned Scottish Cup and Super League champions.

BLETHER WITH BROWN
Bomber

Saturday 28th March 2008 Issue Number 2

Tayport fans can easily be excused for wanting to forget this month due to disappointing on field results, but off the park, everyone who attended our Footballers Supper in The Bellrock Tavern left well watered, well fed, and well entertained.

The challenge was, as ever, to at least match our last speaker, and with he being John Gahagan, it looked like an impossible task. However, Jimmy Nicholl was called upon, and did not disappoint.

The laid back and relaxed style in which he took centre stage, almost gave you the feeling this was where he was most comfortable. More Jimmy Tarbuck than Jimmy Calderwood! But then once you heard the stories of Old Trafford, Ibrox, and playing in the same team as the late George Best, you quickly realised that first and foremost you were in the presence of a football great. The Kaiser Franz Beckenbauer famously once said he had only heard of three Scottish teams, Rangers, Celtic and Raith Rovers (!), and Jimmy was the reason for that; almost single handedly propelling the wee Fife club to previously unknown heights.

Sitting with Jimmy was a pleasure, and hearing him swap stories with Willie Garner would have in itself been worth the admission.

Half way through the night I told Jimmy that we share an acquaintance, in Aberdeen centre half Lee Mair. Lee was a neighbour of mine in Broughty Ferry when he played with Dundee, and we remain good friends. Jimmy's eyes lit up and he asked me if I had Lee's number, to which I replied I did. "Give him a wee text now" he said. "Ask him how his horse got on yesterday" So I sent an SMS, and the reply I got could not possibly be printed on this page. Confused, I turned again to Jimmy. "I gave him a wire, last week" he explained. "It was about 100/1 or something, and had absolutely no chance. But I told him it was a banker, and I think he put a wad on it!!!" Unknown to Jimmy, Lee had also passed the 'banker' onto several of his friends, making him rather unpopular in his peer group!

Blether with Bomber is calling on all the Port Support to call write or e-mail stories, tales, or comments to this page. Photographs and any memorabilia is always very welcome.

The Redwood Leisure (Fife / Tayside) Cup

The Redwood Leisure Cup is contested by clubs who formerly played in the Tayside and Fife Junior FAs and was inaugurated in 1995/96 season under the banner of the then sponsor Taycars, the Dundee based car sales firm. Taycars' sponsorship of the competition lasted until 2000. There was then a season without sponsorship before the present sponsors, the Dundee based hotels and pubs chain Redwood Leisure, filled the breach. This season is the eighth season of Redwood's sponsorship.

The thirteen years of the competition have been dominated by three clubs, Hill of Beath Hawthorn, Lochee United and Tayport.

Hill of Beath (Ritchie & Wright) were the inaugural winners, beating Dundonald Bluebell (Cochrane) 2-1 in the final before an estimated crowd of 1,000 at Glenrothes' Warout Stadium in June 1996. Tayport, who had won the Scottish Cup two weeks earlier, were odds on cup favourites that season, having earlier eliminated Newburgh, Kelty Hearts and Lochee United, but went down 3-2 to Dundonald in the semi-final. Rosyth lost 5-0 to Haws in the quarter finals.

Tayport did, however, make their first final the following season but lost out 2-1 to St Josephs (Kopel, McGill - Coventry)

It was 1999 before Tayport got their name on the trophy, beating St Andrews United 5-1 (Reilly 2, Ross 2, Ramsay - Dochard) in the final at Glenesk Park. Twelve months later, Tayport became the first team to retain the trophy, beating Bankfoot on penalties after a 1-1 draw (Cameron - Keddie) at Glenesk.

Although Tayport would appear in another two finals in 2005 and 2006, there was to be no victory parade, Hill of Beath and Lochee United respectively, winning these games 1-0 and 3-1.

Rosyth's best run in the competition was 2004/05 when they reached the semi final, beating Bankfoot, Lochee Harp and Violet on the way, before losing to Tayport on the Canniepairt by the only goal of the game, scored by Ralph Hunter.

It was the second meeting between the sides, the first being in a 2nd round tie in 2003, when 'Port won 4-0 on the Canniepairt (Peters, Ward, Craik and Evans).

Today, then, is the third meeting of Tayport and Rosyth, the previous two also being on the Canniepairt. The visitors are looking for their first win and their first goal whilst Tayport are looking to complete a treble. Rosyth can take heart from Tayport's recent record in the competition, defeats at Oakley two seasons ago and at home to Thornton Hibs last term.

Tayport desperate for a positive outcome today

After a wonderful start to the year, Tayport are now in the midst of a dismal run of results, with the last two Super League fixtures bringing narrow 1-0 defeats.

Against both Hill o'Beath and Bonnyrigg, the opposition scored a winning goal in the final quarter of the match, but leaving the scoreline aside, the games were very different.

At home to the Haws, a fortnight ago, 'Port created very little, posing no threat to either of the visiting 'keepers; Creer being replaced by McNeely during the first half. It was a poor performance on a windswept Canniepairt, compounded by the concession of a relatively late penalty. Stephen Bathgate was the Hill o'Beath scorer.

Willie Garner managed to galvanise the troops for the visit to New Dundas Park, where Tayport had the better of the chances against title-chasing Bonnyrigg. Various openings came Tayport's way, with Adam O'Connor having a shot blocked and Roberto Morris just off target with a delightful curling effort.

Best opportunity of the first half fell to Reon Juskowiak, who stabbed wide after Stuart Ferguson's cross eventually fell kindly to the powerful midfielder.

After the break, Tayport continued to threaten, with Juskowiak, Stefan Elvin and Barry McNaughton all having shots at goal, while O'Connor had a chance from an in-swinging Ferguson free kick.

'Rigg were not without their good spells during the ninety minutes, but were most fortunate to take the lead, when a deep free kick deflected off the Tayport wall, into the path of substitute Ross Hamilton, whose effort beat Frazer Fitzpatrick in fortuitous fashion.

It was another cruel blow to Tayport who will be desperate for a positive outcome this afternoon, when Rosyth come to town.

Summer football for the Juniors?

The SJFA has launched a consultation to determine whether the Juniors should move to a March to November season. Well, it's not really a consultation, more a toe in the water. The clubs are being asked simply Yes or No. One can assume a Yes vote will see the concept explored in detail prior to any final decision being made.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOUT

We mentioned in the last programme the longevity in football terms of Craig Brewster, the former Stobswell Junior FC player, still knocking them in for Ross County at the age of 42. Well, he did it again on Wednesday past, scoring a cracker in the last minute to put one of his former clubs, Dunfermline, to the sword once again in a 2-1 win at Dingwall. We wonder if there will be a Junior player of today scoring goals in the Scottish Football League (probably SPL 2 by then) in 2030?

The club secretary has announced he is open to offers to trade his Tayport FC Diamond Club number - 044 - for anybody else's number. Number 044 came out of the bag yet again last week, for the umpteenth time. He's not looking for much. We understand a pint and a nip will secure a swap deal.

Jim Duffy hasn't had the best of starts since taking over the manager's reins at Brechin City and following Tuesday evening's heavy defeat at home by Raith Rovers, the Glebe Park boss may be rueing the fact that former Tayport hero John Ward was left on the bench, particularly as two of Rovers' four goals came from headers off set pieces.

The English skilltrainingltd Northern League's Tow Law Town's Ironworks Park, as we know, is situated high in the hills outside Durham and is regarded as one of the coldest and windiest places in the north of England. The club have plans to cash in on this climatic asset by installing wind turbines in their ground to generate enough electricity for the club's needs and sell what's left over to the National Grid. They had thought about solar panels in their refurbished clubrooms but apparently they don't get enough sun!

Bo'ness United and manager Eric Sinclair parted company following the BUs defeat at Kelty last week. Eric, it will be recalled, was manager of Tayport's amateur team which lifted the Midlands title in 1982 whilst he was a player at Dundee FC. It's understood that Bo'ness officials have been speaking this week with former Tayport boss and now Scottish International manager, Keith Burgess. Keith had been tipped as the new manager at Linlithgow following Brian Fairlie's waygoing but three wins on the bounce have given the Rose management a bit of breathing space and it would appear. they are now in no great hurry to appoint a successor.
