TODAY'S GAME

SUPER LEAGUE

TAYPORT v BO'NESS UNITED

Such is the competitive nature of this season's Super League that every game on the card this afternoon could well be described by each participating club as 'crucial'. This afternoon's event on the Canniepairt is certainly in that category, with both sides haunted by the spectre of relegation, and looking on today's game as the proverbial six pointer. And to think, only six weeks ago, a disputed penalty five minutes from time stood between Tayport and the top of the table position. Since then it's been four league defeats, three by the odd goal.

Like Tayport, Bo'ness enjoyed a successful period around Christmas and the turn of the year, the 4-0 defeat by Tayport in the corresponding game at Newtown Park excepted. The BUs recorded three wins in that period, the third of which was at defending champions Lochee United. Since then it's been three draws and four defeats in seven games.

Without a win in six games, the Bo'ness committee did what committees and boards do in such circumstances, they sacked the manager, or at least they parted company with the manager, and Dundee FC (and Tayport FC) legend Eric Sinclair was on his way following a 3-1 defeat at Kelty Hearts. The club then did what clubs do when they have just parted company with a manager, they put the assistant manager in charge and the team put in a battling performance. Despite being down to ten men, the BUs salvaged a point in a 1-1 draw with a Camelon side which had scored twelve goals and collected full points from their previous two games.

Despite the rumours flying about regarding somebody new wearing the manager's coat, it's pretty likely the club's record goalscorer Paul McKinlay, assistant to Sinclair, will be charged with keeping Bo'ness in the Super League. Substitute Scott Brown saw red for two yellows last week, so is likely to be on the bench again this week. Indeed there's likely to be little change in the visitors' line-up.

Willie Garner gave defender Dean Wallace his first start last week against Rosyth and Darren Scott and Madras College X1's captain Michael Gray livened things up when they came on as substitutes. Derek Wemyss and Adam O'Connor were also on the bench but will be in contention for a starting place today. Grant Paterson, though, injured v Hill of Beath, could have to wait for a return to action.

Sinky in happier mood

Date: Monday 24 May 1982

Venue: Tayport Arms public bar

Occasion: Eric Sinclair, recently deposed Bo'ness manager, is carried shoulder high as Tayport celebrate winning their only Midlands Amateur FA title, by LOSING their last game of the season 1-0 to Dundee YMCA to take the title on goal average. Others in the pic are Ian Howe (quaffing a pint), Ken Smith, Drew Herd and Alan Gray, father of current player Michael Gray.

The Good Old Days? Suggest that at your peril !

In the context of life in 2009, the following 'rules' in a 1950s home economics textbook for girls, are breathtaking but they were published in Housekeeping Monthly May 1955 as The good wife's guide. The 2009 version, of course would be vastly different, eg there would be reference to the football boots being polished, pouring a chilled lager after training and setting Sky plus to record the footy. Aye, right!

- Have dinner ready. Plan ahead, even the night before, to have a delicious meal ready on time for his return. This is a way of letting him know that you have been thinking about him and are concerned about his needs. Most men are hungry when they get home and the prospect of a good meal is part of the warm welcome needed.
- Prepare yourself. Take 15 minutes to rest so you'll be refreshed when he arrives. Touch up your make-up, put a ribbon in your hair and be fresh-looking. He has just been with a lot of work-weary people.
- Be a little gay and a little more interesting for him. His boring day may need a lift and one of your duties is to provide it.
- Clear away the clutter. Make one last trip through the main part of the house just before your husband arrives. Run a dustcloth over the tables.
- During the cooler months of the year you should prepare and light a fire for him to unwind by. Your husband will feel he has reached a haven of rest and order, and it will give you a lift too. After all, catering to his comfort will provide you with immense personal satisfaction.
- Minimize all noise. At the time of his arrival, eliminate all noise of the washer, dryer or vacuum. Encourage the children to be quiet.
- Be happy to see him.
- Greet him with a warm smile and show sincerity in your desire to please him.
- Listen to him. You may have a dozen important things to tell him, but the moment of his arrival is not the time. Let him talk first - remember, his topics of conversation are more important than yours.
- Don't greet him with complaints and problems.
- Don't complain if he's late for dinner or even if he stays out all night. Count this as minor compared to what he might have gone through at work.
- Make him comfortable. Have him lean back in a comfortable chair or lie him down in the bedroom. Have a cool or warm drink ready for him.
- Arrange his pillow and offer to take off his shoes. Speak in a low, soothing and pleasant voice.
- Don't ask him questions about his actions or question his judgment or integrity. Remember, he is the master of the house and as such will always exercise his will with fairness and truthfulness. You have no right to question him.

A good wife always knows her place.

A WORD FROM WILLIE

As I have mentioned in previous notes, playing Super League football is the most important thing on everyone at the club's mind right now, from the players and committee to you, the supporters.

With three of our four remaining fixtures at home, it is imperative we pick up as many points as possible. Again I urge you to give the players your full backing. What you will always get from my players is a fantastic attitude and 100% commitment. What I do not always get, however, is a consistent level of performance. This, though, is human nature and it is certainly not for the want of trying on the players' part. I know I always get everything the players can give. Although at times you, the supporters, get frustrated I would again ask you to support and encourage the players in these remaining games. We are treating every game as a cup final and with four cup finals to go, the games should produce some exciting stuff, although I would settle for dull and picking up the points.

Briefly on last week, the important thing for me was to get into the next round. We had little phases of good play and created quite a few really good chances. Had we converted some of these the game may have been different but I take nothing away from a really decent performance from a young Rosyth team.

Let me finish by reiterating what I said earlier. Your support today is crucial to us, especially when the team needs a lift. Regardless of individual performances the guys are giving their all and really appreciate your backing.

Let's get right behind the Port today.

Support the 'Port,

Willie Garner

DUNMORE'S ANGLE

Today's game hugely important

There was a certain novelty value in last weekend's match against Rosyth, in that Super League points were not at stake. In truth, Tayport probably did need a break from the rigours of league duty, but the performance was not as fresh and positive as had been hoped for.

Yet again, a strong wind blew down the Canniepairt and it was clear that free-flowing, entertaining football was not to be on the cards. What was important was that 'Port were able to see off the Central District outfit and make it through to the second round of the inter-regional Redwood Leisure Cup.

Progress, however, was far from smooth. Rosyth took the lead, just before the interval, scoring with a free header from a deep free kick. While Tayport had carved out a few openings, their efforts did not threaten the visiting goalkeeper.

After the break, Rosyth could have extended their advantage and it took a double-substitution to spark Tayport back into life. The equaliser came midway through the second half, when Darren Scott squeezed the ball home from a tight angle, after having been played in by fellow sub, Mike Gray.

Eventually, penalty kicks would be required to decide the outcome of the tie. The 'Port five kept their nerve, all finding the net with their attempts. Roberto Morris, Darren Scott, Barry McNaughton, Reon Juskowiak and Ronnie Kenneth were the scorers. Frazer Fitzpatrick, though, was the hero, his early save from Colin Brown being the pivotal moment.

So, back to Super League action today and a hugely important fixture against Bo'ness. Let's hope memories of the win at Newton Park inspire Tayport to a repeat performance this afternoon.

Saturday 4th April 2009 Issue Number 3

The Pie & Bovril website often gives me a chuckle, and like it or loathe it, it remains a great way of keeping up to date at what's going on in the juniors.

Recently, several posters, many of whom have a 'mate of a mate' or 'work beside a boy who's on the committee' have exclusively revealed the next manager of our Superleague rivlas Linlithgow, and today's visitors Bo'Ness, but alas, the interim managers remain in charge at the time of writing.

One name who has been touted for both these posts is former Tayport manager Keith Burgess, currently of course in charge of the Scottish Junior International side, of which Tayport has been a good feeder in recent years.

Keith appears to have one particular backer in the form of the poster who goes by the name 'maroon army' who states four players left The Canniepairt in protest over his departure, and that he is still regularly attend players' nights out by invitation. Having co-ordinated, and attended, all 'bonding sessions' since June, I for one cannot say I've heard his name being mentioned, but this brings me onto another matter.

Are all these posters just punters? Or could there be some officials bent on setting the record straight? Another poster on the same topic has begun humorously referring to 'maroon army' as Mr Burgess, and one topic in particular that springs to mind was when 'Junior Expert' revealed the real reason David Hannah left Lochee United. This time 'dundeepheh' was very keen to clear up matters, leaving one to speculate that Larry Duncan may have been the man behind the keyboard. Certainly, that theory is not far fetched, judging by Larry's regular postings on the official Tayport forum.

I guess you just can't beat good old gossips... looks like our very own Snout still has his work cut out!

FROM THE ARCHIVES

30 YEARS AGO

The Secretary's Report for season 1978-79

The season just finished was fairly successful, one of the club's best ever in fact. Both teams won their respective premier cups, the Bremner and Alliance Cups. An extended run in the Scottish and Fife Cups proved to be most enjoyable both on and off the park. Given a couple of breaks, I feel we could have gone even further. The Scottish Cup run was the furthest that any Tayport team has gone in the national trophy.

We disappointed in the leagues, but I think we suffered more than most with having one of the biggest backlogs of fixtures to play after we had got ourselves free of the outstanding cup fixtures. We dropped two places, from 5th to 3rd, and the Alliance team slipped from 3rd to 4th. A bad patch midway through the season cost them dearly.

Training attendances throughout the season were, in the main, excellent and the ex-manager/coach Bobby Waddell has to be congratulated for his tremendous enthusiasm. The committee and players were all sorry to see Bobby go. He has seen the club rise to its present respected position in his time with us and his experience in the Senior game has rubbed off on both players and committee.

However, the committee feel that with our new manager, former player Ian White, things can only continue to improve and I would ask the players and committee alike to give him your full support next season. Ian Dorward, well known in north Fife footballing circles, has been appointed manager of the Alliance team.

Off the field things have developed slowly, particularly the social club. The committee is awaiting details of price of the building planned by our architects.

The new pitch should be ready in August but despite a series of meetings with the club's solicitor and the District Council's legal and parks departments, no lease has been forthcoming.

In conclusion, I would like to say that the committee is continually seeking improvement off and on the park and, to help maintain and improve these standards, finance is required. I would therefore ask all club members to support the club fund raising schemes, draws, golden goals etc. I would especially ask for support for the Coffee Morning, particularly the cake and candy stall which should be a good money spinner but which is always lacking greatly in baking etc.

Note: 1 - The club played in the Midlands Amateur League. 2 - the new pitch referred to is the Canniepairt. 3 - the social club, to have been built in Henderson Street, was abandoned after brewers Lorimers were taken over.

How our visitors see this afternoon's game

Looking ahead with chief match correspondent John Spowart

Tayport

Bukta East Region Super League, Saturday 4th April 2009

This week's game at Tayport represents the biggest match of the season so far for Bo'ness United. Both clubs are sitting in the middle of the table with Tayport having played the same amount of games but are a single point behind. However with all the teams below them having games in hand Bo'ness and Tayport are equally desperate to win points to ensure their Super League survival.

The BUs showed up well on Saturday and fully deserved their hard won point against Camelon Juniors. The big plus though was the spirit shown by the players who fought back after going behind to a controversial penalty while seeing Scott Brown sent off for a double dose of dissent. Clearly a difficult match at Tayport will require that same team spirit though the players must keep their discipline as they will need all their resources to have any chance of victory.

Tayport find themselves in a very unusual situation in that they are usually fighting for prizes rather than struggling near the wrong end of the league. Tayport started 2009 with a win at Bo'ness that was followed by two victories at home to Kelty and away at Whitburn. However since then a draw against Bathgate followed by three defeats leave Tayport in the precarious position they are in now. In saying that a penalty kick shootout victory against Rosyth in the Redwood Leisure Cup gave Tayport the taste of success and by all accounts they were unlucky to go down narrowly at Bonnyrigg the week before.

Tayport were worthy victors at Newtown Park earlier in the year and though a visit to the Canniepairt is a daunting prospect Bo'ness have won there in the past and must look to repeat that achievement of five years ago.

After the game on Saturday both teams will only have three matches left to ensure Super League football for next season and therefore the scene is set for an epic survival encounter. It is therefore the time for all Bo'ness United supporters to make the trip to Fife to get behind their team and give them the support to inspire them to victory.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

Robbie Holden, who moved from the Canniepairt to Kinnoull midway through the season is playing a key role for his new club as they bid to get back into the Super League. In a splendid 3-0 win at Penicuik last Saturday, Robbie scored one and set up the other 'Noull goals. Mind you, the home side's cause wasn't helped by getting two players ordered off in the opening half hour. Another ex-Tayport Robbie, Robbie Henderson, is also starring for his club. After a spell out injured Robbie is back amongst the goals as Cove Rangers head for a second successive Highland League championship.

Tayport fans would not be surprised to note that Glenrothes' Benny Andrews was ordered off v Bathgate on Saturday past for an 'off the ball incident'. On this occasion the match officials spotted the offence unlike on the Canniepairt a few weeks ago when Ronnie Kenneth went off for retaliation following an unprovoked off the ball incident perpetrated by Andrew.

In the days before Senior clubs recruited their players from kindergartens, Junior clubs were rich breeding grounds for the big boys. Bo'ness United, founded in 1945, were no exception. Hibs' John Blackley, Hearts' Donald Ford, Aberdeen's Paddy Buckley were all full Scottish internationalists who cut their teeth at Bo'ness. However, arguably the most famous of the many players who moved on from Newtown Park, was Alex Scott, right winger in the famous 1960s Rangers forward line of Scott, McMillan, Miller, Brand & Wilson.

Missing from the touchline this afternoon is Willie Garner's assistant Jim Moffat. Jim's in France for the next week with Bell Baxter HS's sports teams. Also there is trip veteran, the Herald football reporter Derek Ritchie, who's manager of the school's 1st XI football team. According to Jim, Derek's the guy you don't stray far from, as he's the man with the lingo!

Look for a healthy Bo'ness travelling support this afternoon. The game's been billed locally thus: 'this week's game at Tayport represents the biggest match of the season so far for Bo'ness United'. Given that United have twice this season played Scottish Cup semi-finalists Auchinleck Talbot, it's a measure of how important this game is.

Apart from the fact that local garage owner Tom Willison drives a train at the Bo'ness & Kinneil Railway, there are a couple of other - football - connections between Tayport and Bo'ness. United's Jon Mitchell won a Scottish Cup medal with 'Port when we defeated Linlithgow in the 2003 final. Tayport manager that day was Dave Baikie who was in charge of Bo'ness for a relatively brief spell in 2005/06 in between Senior engagements.

It'll be a fairly quiet April, May and June for Tayport's players. Compared with the other seasons since the Super League was introduced, that is. After today we have a minimum of 5 games to play and, should we reach the final of the Redwood and Currie Cups, a maximum of 13 games. Compare that with the 29 in 2002, 24 in 2005 and 22 in both 2003 and 2007. Fewest we've played during this period was 15 in 2006.
