Today's Tayport & Forfar West End trivia

- The teams have met on 46 previous occasions, Tayport winning 33, drawing 9 and losing 4.
- The teams have contested four cup finals, all going Tayport's way.
- Kenny Cameron scored four goals in one game v West End back in season 98/99
- Grant Paterson, Tayport's left back, was sent off v Forfar West End whilst making a record breaking 500th appearance for the club
- West End failed to score a goal in the thirteen games between the sides from 1995 to 2001.
- Five opposition players have been ordered off in Forfar West End's last four Super League games.
- In 1991, Forfar WE won 1-0 in a Currie Cup tie on the Canniepairt. Tayport protested over a teamline irregularity. The Association ordered the game to be replayed. Tayport won 2-0 and went on to lift the cup.
- The biggest winning margin between the teams is seven goals, a 7-0 win for Tayport in 2000.
- West End have managed a clean sheet on only three occasions in 46 fixtures.
- Since Tayport joined the Juniors in 1990 there has been only one season - 2002/2003 - when the sides did not play each other.
- Although several players have worn the colours of both clubs, we cannot recall a direct transfer of a player between the clubs.
- Graeme Irons, aka Mel, now assistant to Dave Baikie at East Fife, was manager at Forfar West End before he put on his boots again to play for Tayport in the club's inaugural season in the Juniors.
- Grant Paterson has missed only two of Tayport's 46 games v West End.

TODAY'S GAME

TAYPORT v FORFAR WEST END
WHYTE & MACKAY SUPER LEAGUE

When Tayport and Forfar West End met for the first time back in 1990/91 season, West End were on the crest of a wave, having just won their only Tayside Championship. This afternoon the Strathmore Park club arrive at the Canniepairt, once more in ebullient mood, having confounded the pundits by soaring to second top spot in the Super League.

After losing their opening two Super League fixtures to Linlithgow and Bo'ness as they took their first, tenuous steps in top tier, West End have embarked on a four game unbeaten run and picked up ten points. Most recent success was a crushing 5-2 home win over Camelon last Saturday.

It's a match of sides with contrasting fortunes this afternoon. Whilst West End can boast of being the Super League's top scoring team and have in their ranks, the League's top marksman in veteran striker Darren Bonella, Tayport have notched only a solitary league goal, Barry McNaughton's late strike v Whitburn six weeks ago.

Manager Jim Finlayson has his team playing a fast and exciting brand of attacking football with 19 year old striker Scott Johnston causing havoc in opposing defences with his searching runs which have brought him four goals and the award of a couple of penalties. Another of Jim Finlayson's youngsters to particularly impress this season has been midfielder Grant Lawson who has already taken his tally of goals to 4.

Defensively, West End are well served by the resolute Graeme Gibb in central defence, the highly regarded full back Craig Logan and keeper Stephen Vanderdeyl whose excellent early in the game paved the way for last week's victory over Camelon.

It's a return to the Canniepairt for former 'Port player Bryan Duell who was signed from Forfar Athletic at the end of August and his jousts with his former teammates should be a feature of this afternoon's game.

Tayport's spirits will have been lifted by a good performance at Broughty last week. The 'Port support was encouraged by a more attack orientated formation and the home fans will be looking for more of the same this afternoon as they look to get their first Super League victory of the season.

LOCHEE UNITED AND BANKS O'DEE CARRY THE JUNIORS' HOPES IN NEXT SATURDAY'S HOMECOMING SCOTTISH CUP 2nd ROUND

North champs Banks o' Dee, West Champs, Pollok, East Champs Lochee Utd, Scottish Junior Cup winners Bathgate Thistle and Girvan represented the Juniors in the first round of the Homecoming Scottish (Senior) Cup.

Lochee came from behind to oust fellow East Super League side Bathgate, Pollok were edged out 1-0 in a replay v Spartans in Edinburgh and Girvan lost by the only goal at Huntly. Banks o' Dee, however, gave the Highland League something of a red face by trouncing Fort William by an astonishing 10-0. Incidentally, Banks O' Dee have since knocked Peterhead out of the Aberdeenshire Shield.

1st Round results were:-

Banks O' Dee 10 v 0 Fort William
Clachnacuddin 4 v 0 Burntisland Shipyard
Dalbeattie Star 5 v 1 Lossiemouth
Edinburgh City 2 v 0 Nairn County
Edinburgh Univ 1 v 2 Civil Service
Fraserburgh 6 v 3 Hawick Royal Albert
Glasgow University 0 v 1 Vale of Leithen
Golspie Sutherland 0 v 3 Threave Rovers
Huntly 1 v 0 Girvan
Inverurie Loco 5 v 2 Deveronvale
Lochee United 3 v 1 Bathgate Thistle
Newton Stewart 1 v 1 Brora Rangers
rep Brora 2 v 1 Newton Stewart (aet)

Pollok 1 v 1 Spartans
rep Spartans 1 v 0 Pollok
Preston Athletic 3 v 1 Gala Fairydean
Rothes 1 v 4 Buckie Thistle
St Cuthbert Wanderers 0 v 3 Wick Academy
Selkirk 1 v 1 Coldstream
rep Coldstream 2 v 2 Selkirk
(Selkirk won on pens)
Wigtown & Bladnoch 2 v 2 Forres Mechanics
rep Forres 2 v 0 Wigtown

Next week's second round ties are:-

Annan Athletic v Spartans
Berwick Ranger v Albion Rovers
Brora Rangers v Forfar Athletic
Civil Service Strols v Vale of Leithen
Clachnacuddin v Crichton FC
Cove Rangers v Whitehill Welfare
Cowdenbeath v Elgin City
Dalbeattie Star v Selkirk

East Stirlingshire v Preston Athletic
Edinburgh City v Wick Academy
Forres Mechanics v Keith
Fraserburgh v Dumbarton
Inverurie Loco Works v Banks of Dee
Lochee United v Buckie Thistle
Montrose v Huntly
Stenhousemuir v Threave Rovers

Buckie Thistle, who meet Lochee United in Dundee, have assembled the most expensive sides in their history. According to their fans, however, they've underachieved and are bound to be under pressure at Thomson Park thus making Lochee a good bet to progress to the 3rd round where the likes of Ross County, Livingston and Partick Thistle enter the competition.

DUNMORE'S ANGLE

SCOTTISH CUP WIN WAS COMPREHENSIVE AND PLEASING AND
CAN BE A SPRINGBOARD FOR MORE
WINS

Tayport get back to Super League business today, with Forfar West End's first such visit to the Canniepairt. 'Port will go into the match in confident mood, having eventually disposed of Broughty Athletic to reach the second round of the Scottish Junior Cup.

That tie dominated the last two Saturdays, with the initial match finishing all-square, on the Canniepairt. Sean Wilkie's troops did not play well on that afternoon, finding clear-cut chances difficult to come by.

Indeed, once Broughty had taken a first half lead, through Ross Kenny, there was a real danger of Tayport exiting the tournament. Chris Webster flashed home an equaliser, on 57 minutes, but there was another scare to come. Late in the contest, Broughty's Derek Farrell had the ball in the net, after a shot had struck the woodwork and 'Port were only saved by the linesman's flag.

Determined to avoid such narrow margins at Whitton Park, Tayport pressed forward from the outset and the pressure told in the twentieth minute, when Joe Pepper was fouled inside the area and Darren Scott tucked away the stonewall penalty kick.

A similarly bright start to the second half saw Robbie Holden have a goal chalked off before Scott did net Tayport's second. Credit should go to Barry McNaughton, whose perfectly-timed back-heel down the line sent Murray Urquhart racing down the left to cross for Scott, who completed a flowing move.

With five minutes remaining, Chris Webster expertly netted with a twenty-five yard free kick to seal his team's passage into the next round of the national competition. Brian Craik should have added a fourth, but was thwarted by the Fed' keeper, which was unfortunate, as young Michael Gray's fine pass was deserving of a better finish.

All told, it was a comprehensive and pleasing win for 'Port. Let's hope that the victory acts as a springboard for more such wins and that the Canniepairt outfit can start climbing the Super League table.

THIS AFTERNOON'S VISITORS FORFAR WEST END

A warm welcome to the players, officials and supporters of Forfar West End for the sides' first ever Super League encounter at the Canniepairt.

Forfar West End manager Jim Finlayson will be feeling quite smug when he looks at the Super League table and sees his team looking down on the cream of the East Region. Quite rightly so, as he's confounded any critics who questioned whether Fiddy could take West End to these dizzy heights.

Forfar West End has an excellent set-up at Strathmore Park. It's very well located, has an adjacent social club and pie shop (important priorities, at least for Tayport supporters). It's also a neat ground which has the capacity to be further developed and there are plenty bodies on the committee.

The origins of the club stretch back 116 years to the (very) local Junior Leagues of these days which have metamorphosed into the Super Leagues of today. West End have had their moments during all the eras but the only major achievements have been the Tayside Championship in 1991 and the North/Tayside Cup in 1993 and 2008. 2008 was also the season in which Finlayson took the club to its highest ever level, the East Super League, achieving promotion as runners-up to Bo'ness United.

The immediate aim will be to firmly establish the club in the top bracket of the Junior game and avoid the yoyo scenario. That achieved, the club will have the ambition to go further to win the Super League and Scottish Junior Cup and ultimately test themselves against the best of the non-league and lower Scottish League clubs in the recently re-branded Homecoming Scottish Cup.

FROM THE DRESSING ROOM

After a low tempo performance against Broughty here three weeks ago, Sean was delighted the fruits of his midweek efforts weren't in vain and a very much improved display was there for all to see at Whitton Park in the replay.

This was followed up in midweek with a 6-0 win in a friendly at Kirrie This-tle in which the goals - some crackers amongst them - were shared by six different players - Chris Webster, Barry McNaughton, Darren Scott, Birdie, Stefan Elvin and Ronnie Kenneth. Ronnie Kenneth? Yes Ronnie got the last quarter of an hour and declared himself glad to be back in action after a lengthy absence during which he had cartilage surgery. No ill effects were reported.

Steven Fallon, signed in the close season by Iain Jenkins and described by Jenks as the player around which the manager would build his team, has requested a transfer and was an absentee in the replay v Broughty. The club has agreed to this request. Kevin Kelly has been absent since early in the season and the fact that he has moved to Glasgow to stay and work has ruled him out of plans.

Adam O'Connor, who had been on holiday, returned to action in the mid-week friendly and will be looking to quickly find the sort of form which caught the eye at Linlithgow the other week.

Unavailable in midweek but back in contention this afternoon are Derek Wemyss, Robbie Holden and Sam Morris. Big Sam would have been between the sticks at Kirrie, so was particularly disappointed at missing out. Michael Gray, who came on against Broughty in the replay, will miss a few games, as he's taken advantage of the school half term to jet off to Florida on a family holiday.

Definitely out of contention this afternoon is Murray Urquhart but he can be excused as he's getting married today. Almost certain of a place on the bench is Ronnie Kenneth as he continues his rehabilitation and a place in the starting line-up.

DEVINE TREBLE IN TAYPORT WIN

Tayport and Forfar West End wind up the Tayside junior season when they meet in the Intersport Cup Final at Guthrie Park, Forfar.

Tayport—Christie, Dolan, Paterson, Wilkie, Somerville, Irons, Spalding, Cushnie, Coventry, Reilly, Devine. Subs—Kinnear, Robb.

Forfar West End—Duff, Blair, Dunn, Anderson, McManus, Tindal, Scott, Walker, Gove, McLaughlin, Kennedy. Subs—Hamilton, Dow.

Referee—I. Whyte, Dundee. The Second Division champions opened the scoring in two minutes.

A cross from the right found DEVINE and he took his time before slipping the ball past Duff.

Reilly had a chance to make it two, but mishit his shot from eight yards.

Tayport were creating the better chances and a Coventry shot from 20 yards went just wide.

Kennedy had a chance for West End, but a timely tackle by Dolan cleared the danger.

In another West End attack, Scott sent in a shot from 20 yards, but it was well off target.

Did well

Christie did well to clutch a Blair cross and West End keeper Duff had a fine low save from an Irons shot.

Tayport went two ahead in 38 minutes when a Reilly pass found DEVINE and, once again, he put the ball behind Duff.

The Fifers were in complete control and COVENTRY headed a third two minutes from half-time.

Half-time—Tayport 3, Forfar West End 0.

Second half

Tayport continued on the attack and Devine was inches away from his hat-trick.

West End's best effort of the game came from a Gove shot which went inches wide.

It was Tayport, however, who went further ahead with a fourth goal in 65 minutes.

A cross from Paterson was met by REILLY and he coolly flicked the ball home from five yards.

West End managed to pull one back in 73 minutes when DOW won the ball in the box and shot home from 10 yards.

● Tayport's WILLIE COVENTRY shields the ball from West End's MIKE McMANUS.

● Tayport keeper IAN CHRISTIE watches anxiously

Tayport hit straight back and DEVINE completed a well-taken hat-trick.

Final—Tayport 5, Forfar West End 1.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOUT

Our 4 – 0 defeat at Durham City during our pre-season tour to the north east of England is being put into perspective. Durham have suffered only one loss in 24 outings this season and that was a 3 - 0 reverse at the hands of Greenock Morton in an early pre-season match. Currently Durham have played seven league matches winning four and drawing three - losing only one goal in the process. Given that our defeat was our second match inside 24 hours on a baking hot afternoon with a weakened team, we didn't do too badly.

The highlight of the Durham City season so far however is their progress to the Fourth Qualifying Round of the FA Cup. On Saturday past a trip to Stalybridge Celtic (two leagues above) held no qualms and City returned with a 6 – 1 victory. In the previous three rounds they had scored 15 goals with no replies. The next round sees the main Conference sides joining the competition. Keep your eyes on Durham as the FA Cup progresses. With four millionaires backing them, they could surprise a few.

Forfar West End were less than enchanted by the Kelty Hearts supporters who made their way to Forfar a couple of weeks ago. The following comment appeared on the Forfar West End website Unfortunately Saturday's win was slightly over shadowed by what must be the worst travelling support in junior football. Kelty Hearts are right to be embarrassed at the section of their support who caused nothing but embarrassment to their club on Saturday with their antics at Strathmore Park. We have never seen anything like it in junior football. It may be true that the Kelty committee can do nothing to prevent this element travelling to their away games, but they could have warned us of the possibility of them coming to the game. Any club who have to entertain Kelty in the future beware..... Not exactly a Government Health Warning, but...it must have been pretty unsavoury behaviour.

Anybody who doubted whether Tayport would emerge victorious from their replay at Whitton Park last week would have paid little heed to 'Port's ability to win replays after being held at home. Fourteen times, Tayport have been held to a draw at home in Scottish Cup ties and only once have we failed to progress to the next round - last season at Pollok.

When Gretna's Brooks Milesen pulled the plug on his firm, Arngrove's, sponsorship of the Northern League (where we have played many pre-season friendlies), the Arngrove League had a massive budget gap so they raffled off 'stakes' of £250 units. The £250 stakes were bought by individuals, firms, syndicates, even a 90 year old guy from Leighton Buzzard who had played in the league before the war. The winning ticket drawn was from skilltrainingltd. The raffle raised £31,000 and it's now the skilltrainingltd Northern League.
