THANKS TO ALL RACEGOERS

Many thanks to all those who attended the Tayport FC Racenight held in Scotsraig Bowling Club recently. It proved to be an enjoyable evening, the proceeds of which provided a good wee boost to the club coffers.

GET IN QUICK FOR THE FOOTBALLERS' SUPPER

Tickets sales are going well for the Footballers' Supper in the Bell Rock Tavern on Saturday 29 November when The Evening Telegraph's John 'Blether with' Broon will introduce John Gahagan, the speaker for the evening. John Gahagan is one of the better after dinner speakers on the circuit and is sure to provide good entertainment. With the Bell Rock chef Ron Alexander sure to put on a splendid meal it's bound to be an enjoyable evening. The size of the Bell Rock means that tickets are limited, so don't be left disappointed.

TODAY'S GAME

CITYLINK SCOTTISH CUP ROUND 2
TAYPORT v ARBROATH SC

Tayport, playing their 124th Scottish Junior Cup game this afternoon, meet Arbroath SC for the first time in the competition.

Whilst Tayport were cooling their heels last week after the late postponement of their game at Bo'ness, Arbroath SC were racking up five goals to record their biggest win of the season, 5-2 v Forfar Albion.

ASC supporters have actually been spoiled for goals this season. They've seen an average of four goals per game, with their favourites on the mark in all but one of their dozen games played to date. Not much use on the treble chance, however, as the Seaton Park club have yet to feature in a drawn game.

Manager Mark Bennett and his assistant Danny Powell have put the emphasis on youth and included in their squad are Arbroath FC loan players, keeper Sean Logie and Stuart Richardson. Richardson, however, is likely to miss out today after being injured v Forfar Albion last week. Also missing out today is striker Blair Marshall who was cup-tied for his previous club, East Craigie, v Pollok. With Arbroath operating with a small player pool, there is the possibility that former Tayport favourite Ian Greig could be brought out of retirement for today's game.

Greig is one of four survivors from the SC team which last played here in 2005, Gary Hamilton, Jamie Martin and Gary McFarlane are the others. Surprisingly only two of the Tayport team which played in the 1-0 home victory that day, are still at the Can-niepairt—Grant Paterson and Roberto Morris.

Last Saturday, Tayport had a full squad from which to select for the first time this season and that should be the situation again today when Willie Garner takes charge of the team on a match day for the first time. There was a full squad in for training last Saturday after the Bo'ness game was postponed, giving the new boss the opportunity to get to know his new players.

Today's game is only 90 minutes and in the event of a draw, the replay will be at Seaton Park next Saturday when it will be settled by penalties if level after 90 minutes.

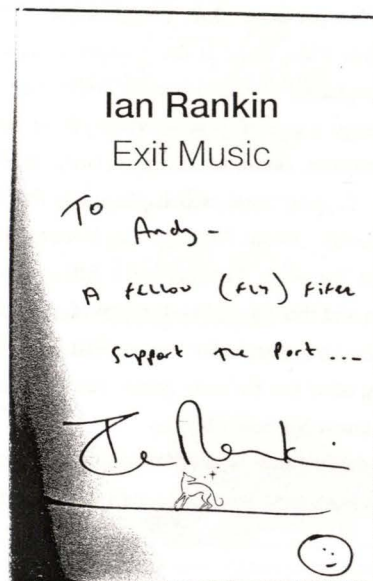

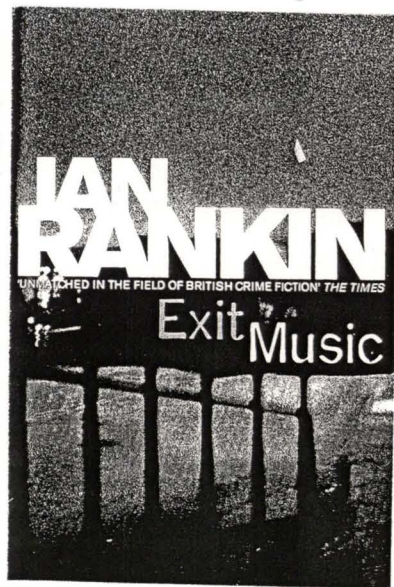

LOCHEE UNITED DOING THE JUNIORS PROUD IN THE HOMECOMING SCOTTISH CUP

The only disappointment for Lochee United last Saturday when they convincingly beat the Highland League's Buckie Thistle to reach the 3rd round of the Homecoming Scottish Cup was the attendance which was reported as being 202. Lochee officials had been confident of an attendance approaching four figures. One would have thought what was a historic occasion, in that it was the first time a Dundee junior side had met a Senior club in a competitive match, would have been sufficient to pull out a few more local punters.

The prize for Lochee is an eye catching home tie against Inverurie Division Two promotion chasers Ayr United. Although Thomson Park, with its steep banking and poor access, isn't well suited to a large crowd, it's very unlikely Lochee would want to switch anywhere. And who would blame them? Get rid of Ayr and there is, of course, the possibility of a huge payday in the fourth round. Exciting times down Napier Drive way. The Ayr United tie is on 24th November.

The other surviving Junior side, Banks o' Dee, met their match at Inverurie where former Junior side Inverurie Loco Works beat them 5-1. Elsewhere there were no shocks, with the ties going pretty much as expected with perhaps the home defeats of Berwick and Cowdenbeath by Albion Rovers and Elgin respectively being the exceptions.

THIS AFTERNOON'S VISITORS ARBROATH SPORTING CLUB

A warm welcome this afternoon to the players, officials and supporters of Arbroath Sporting Club who make one of their increasingly rare visits to the Can-niepairt.

Once a season was the minimum frequency for many years but since being relegated on league reorganisation in 2002, visits have been restricted to cup games, their most recent being in January 2005.

Arbroath SC came into being as an amateur club, then a Juvenile club before joining the Juniors in 1973. At one time based on the Low Common, SC took up residence at Seaton Park, their home now for many seasons.

Throughout the 1990s and into the early part of this century Arbroath SC was probably the most consistent club in the Tayside Juniors. For over twelve years they held down a place in the top division, never falling below ninth place, but never finishing higher than 4th.

During this period, ASC often promised to take a major local honour, but whilst Downfield, Forfar West End, North End, Carnoustie and St Josephs all had their moments before slipping back down the league, the Seaton Park club plotted a steady middle of the league course.

The only honours in the last twenty years have been a Tayside League Cup win in 1981, a Cream of the Barley Trophy win in 1991 and a D.J.Laing Homes Cup win in 2000.

The end to the steady course came in 2002 with relegation to the Tayside District League after finishing the final post-reorganisation season in bottom place. Second place in the Tayside Division 1 gave them a Premier League place. Again SC demonstrated a good level of consistency, finishing in 7th spot for three successive seasons. Unfortunately a seventh place wasn't good enough to keep them in the second tier on further reorganisation and they slipped to their lowest ebb in the club's history, taking their place in the Northern Division in 2006. A second top finish wasn't enough to win promotion and last season they fell away to finish only four places off the bottom of the North Division.

A WORD FROM WILLIE

"it's great to be back!" Having spent a season at Forfar Athletic it was a privilege for me to be named Tayport manager last week. Unfortunately the weather put paid to what would have been my first game in charge against Bc'ness so today will be my 'debut' and what a competition to make it in, the Scottish Cup. So much of the club's history relates to this competition.

Having negotiated a replay win at Broughty in the last round, today we welcome Arbroath SC to the Canniepairt. Arbroath did have a game last week against Forfar Albion, and having scored five goals, they will have our utmost respect.

With last week's game off, it gave me the opportunity to bring the squad in on Saturday for a training session. It also allowed me to have a decent discussion with the players, to look them in the eyes when I asked the question about what they want to achieve this season. I had no fear doing this as I already know many of the lads, and watching them in training confirms my belief that there is a dressing room full of pride, hunger, hurt and quality. Added to this the ability and freshness of the younger players, gives me great encouragement for the tough season ahead.

Today's game is the start of a journey for myself and the players. It is a journey that I hope will bring success to the players, the club and importantly, you, the supporters.

What I can guarantee the supporters is that they will watch a very fit, organised, hungry and committed group of players who all want the same thing for this football club, success.

The supporters have a big part to play, by getting behind the team today and for the rest of the season. Your support is essential especially at this time.

Willie Garner

DUNMORE'S ANGLE

ARBROATH SC HAVE PROVED TO BE STUBBORN OPPONENTS IN THE PAST

With last weekend's fixture at Bo'ness having been postponed due to a water-logged Newton Park pitch, the only on-field action to report came a fortnight ago, when Forfar West End visited the Canniepairt for their first ever East Super League fixture against Tayport.

Thankfully, 'Port recorded a crucial victory, their first of this year's league campaign. While West End have been familiar opposition over the years and Tayport victories have been the norm, this one was different. So quickly had the Strathmore Parkers found their feet in the top flight, that a trip to the two-time Super League champions held no fear for them. Indeed, they came into the match as favourites, on the back of a resounding 5-2 win against Camelon.

After losing on the Canniepairt, West End then scored four without reply in their next game, against Bonnyrigg Rose, another of the division's established clubs. Put into that context, Tayport's triumph seems all the more impressive.

During the match itself, the visitors did have chances, but could not convert, while, at the other end, Tayport did make one of their opportunities count. On the hour, Stefan Elvin led a break upfield, playing in Robbie Holden who tucked the ball expertly past Steve Vanderdeyl, for the only goal of the afternoon.

Towards the end of the encounter, Forfar's Graeme Gibb, not for the first time, perhaps let frustration get the better of him and saw red for a second bookable offence. It was Tayport's day.

Off the park, the club has moved to appoint Willie Garner as successor to Iain Jenkins and the supporters can now look forward to a new era, which, hopefully, will be both successful and long-lasting.

First test for the manager comes in the shape of Arbroath SC, who have invariably proved to be stubborn opponents in the past. Let's hope that Garner's arrival and the aura that surrounds the Scottish Junior Cup can inspire the increasingly confident 'Port players to another win and a place in the third round of the national competition.

FROM THE LOCAL ARCHIVES

The 1974 Tayport Directory

The March of Time

There have been many changes in Tayport over the past 35 years or so, as these extracts from the 1974 Tayport Directory illustrate.

It was the last year of the Tayport Town Council prior to local government reorganisation. Of the Councillors and Officials listed, Senior Bailie Doctor, a former Tayport FC 'keeper is still to the fore.

Of the businesses listed, around a third so of the 50 odd listed still survive on the same site, most of which are under new ownership, or a different type of business. What'll be left in another 35 years? A couple of convenience stores, perhaps.

A WINDY SATURDAY IN ARBROATH
IN NOVEMBER 1999
ARBROATH SC 0 TAYPORT 1

Barely a month before the 20th Century drew to a close, Tayport travelled to Seaton Park for a NCR Premier League match.

Tayport, under the management of Andy Sommerville, were in the midst of a good run during which they recorded eight successive victories, losing only one goal in the process.

It was to be a season during which SC would finish 4th in the league, their highest ever finish.

Steve Jackson was manager and they lined up that afternoon—Gordon Dunn; Barry Will, Mark Davidson, Kevin McGuckin, William Davidson, Ian Gray, Gary Hamilton, Davie Fisher, Steve Scott, Steve Gove and Kevin Burns. Substitutes were Harry Cargill, Graeme Clark, Kevin Laing, Ross Burnett and Craig Smith.

Tayport fielded Fraser Mann; Grant Buist, Grant Paterson, Keith Nicolson, Kenny Jones, Ian Greig, Allan Ramsay, Steven Stewart, Brian Craik, Dave Reilly and Freddie Deswarte. Mark Spalding and Mark Corcoran came on as substitutes

As he was to be so often, Brian Craik was the matchwinner with the only goal of the game.

Two players, Davie Fisher and Ian Greig played for both clubs. Nine years on Gary Hamilton is in SC's squad for this afternoon, whilst Grant Paterson and Brian Craik will line up for Tayport.

Fred Deswarte is currently in Dubai where he has a coaching position.

Another Managerial Change

Tayport FC announced ten days ago that Willie Garner would be the club's new manager in succession to Iain Jenkins who resigned in early September after only a few short weeks at the helm. Willie and the committee wanted Sean Wilkie to remain at the club and work with the new manager but Sean did not wish to take up this option.

The club wish to put on record their appreciation of Sean's work since Jenks brought him in as his assistant and during his recent spell in charge of the team. The committee is disappointed Sean chose not to stay but wish him well for the future.

Willie, who was previously at Tayport for a short time, as assistant to Keith Burgess, brings a great deal of experience to the post and takes charge of the team in a match situation for the first time this afternoon.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOUT

Think positively must be the motto of the Tayport Travel Club. Aware of the distinct possibility that last week's game at Bo'ness might be a victim of the increasingly deteriorating weather, the club members set off in the direction of Newton Park at 9am. Undaunted by the fact that the games was put off two hours later, Tayport's finest made a day of it, finally getting back to Tayport around 10.30pm. It was a brow day, commented one of the members.

Interesting to follow the thread on the Dundee FC Forum in the lead up to the appointment of Jocky Scott as Dundee FC manager. Hardly a mention for Jocky on thread early doors, as fans speculated who would succeed Alex Rae. As the days rolled on, however, there was an increasing amount of fan postings urging the board to give Jocky the job. By the middle of the week the power of the punters was clearly influential and, hey presto, by Thursday, Jocky was in the hot seat.

Four players who were Scottish Junior Cup winners with Tayport at Tannadice in 2005 could feature in four of the Homecoming Scottish Cup 3rd round ties at the end of the month - Gary Middleton (Lochee), John Ward (Breichin City), Lloyd Young (East Fife) and Robbie Henderson (Cove)

Midlands Amateur FA's Dundee College AFC, formerly DCFE and before that Kingsway Tech FC, celebrate the club's fortieth anniversary with a dinner this weekend. In 1968 the newly founded club played its very first ever game, at East Common, Tayport on Saturday 10th August 1968. It wasn't a debut to remember for the College side—they lost 9-0. Things improved for the Tech, however, and they went on to become stalwarts of the local amateur game. For Tayport, it was also the start of a new era. Previously, a club which, since 1947 had drifted between the divisions, that Saturday afternoon was to become the launch pad for the 'new' Tayport. From that day on, the club wouldn't look back and slowly but steadily moved forward until 28 years later they would reach the pinnacle when the club won the Scottish Junior Cup.

Forfar West End certainly suffered no hangover from being turned over in the Super League at the Canniepairt two weeks ago, bouncing back from their defeat by Tayport to crush previously unbeaten Bonnyrigg Rose by 4-0 at Strathmore Park. The Edinburgh Evening News reported that Bonnyrigg were "comprehensively outplayed, having no answer to the pace and commitment of a very good West End side". Just another indicator of how tight this season's Super League is going to be.

Tayport have been drawn at home to Rosyth, who play in the East Region Central Division, in the Redwood Leisure Cup 1st round. No date yet for the tie, but probably towards the end of December.
