TODAY'S GAME

East of Scotland Cup 1st Round
TAYPORT v LIVINGSTON UNITED

It's been a long wait.... Five months to be precise, but after four postponements and a change of venue, this 1st round East of Scotland Cup tie finally gets underway. Two bereavements and two frozen pitches caused the postponements and a still unplayable pitch at Livingston necessitated the move today from Station Park to the Canniepairt.

Tayport may think they've had a bad winter in terms of postponements but our visitors today haven't seen competitive action since 12th of December. Few clubs can have suffered as much from winter weather. It's far longer than any summer close season.

Tayport, therefore, should have the decided advantage in terms of match fitness but under the new management of Nicky Brookfield, the Livi lads will be determined to show what they can do and are sure to be quickly out of the blocks.

It's been something of a mixed season to date for the South Division club who can only climb the league table following a run of six league games without a win. Despite this poor run of form, Livi have still managed to score in every game they've played since early September and indeed have only failed to find the opposition net this season on two occasions. With a healthy number of the Lothians' Constabulary in their ranks, fielding a settled team can sometimes be an issue for the Station Park club, but no such problems today with all reporting for football duty.

Tayport's selection will be restricted through injuries to Derek Wemyss, Graham Nicoll, Stuart Ferguson and Martin O'Doherty. Scott Hunter (illness) and Neal Ferrie (cup-tied) will also miss out. On the plus side Mick O'Donnell is available again. The Irishman trained twice this week and will be in contention for a starting jersey, given that the manager only has thirteen fit players at his disposal.

Livingston contested the 1994 East of Scotland Cup final, losing 2-1 to Camelon, but haven't really made their mark since and Tayport's record since they first entered the competition in 2004/05, is far from impressive, so both clubs have an incentive to improve on these records.

The tie will be settled on penalties if level after 90 minutes. Winners are at home to Dundee Violet in the 2nd round.

DUNMORE'S ANGLE

"Despite postponements,
February was a good month for Tayport"

Despite the postponements and the re-arranging of fixtures, this last month has been a good one for 'Port. Progress to the quarter finals of the Scottish Junior Cup acts as a tremendous boost to the club, although promotion back to the top flight still remains the priority.

To that end, Tayport collected three valuable points last weekend, when Fauldhouse came to town on East Premier League duty. In what was proving to be a fairly even contest, the Canniepairt outfit made the breakthrough, in the middle of the second half. Great credit should go to David Black, who chased a seemingly lost cause to the by-line and fired over a cross to the near post, where Lee Bryce pounced to turn home his first goal in Tayport colours.

'Hoose then missed an absolute sitter and would rue that spurned opportunity to equalise. Moments later, Bryce raced clear and, despite the goalkeeper getting a hand to the shot, the ball ended up in the net and the points began to look secure. Substitute Darren Scott made them safe in the closing stages, with a composed finish and, all of a sudden, Tayport had recorded a comprehensive win.

The clean-sheet was an added bonus, especially after the re-shuffle to the back-four, after only 25 minutes, when Derek Wemyss and Stuart Ferguson succumbed to injury.

So, still battling on all fronts, there is much to look forward to as we reach a critical stage in the season. We might even manage to play Livingston, in the East of Scotland Cup.

JOHN 'BOMBER' BROWN'S

Football

Clubs - Broughty Utd Boys; Bank Street Albion; Broughty Central; Douglas Athletic (all Sundays); Riverside Athletic. Retired at 21. I could have gone Senior but when I turned 14, I suffered a horrendous lack of ability.

Worked with Broughty Athletic, North End and Dundee FC before Tayport

Honours - won a few in boys football and a couple with my amateur teams. Before I started composing them, I won the quiz a few times on the team bus, despite being in the same team as Sam Morris !!!

Most difficult opponent you've been directly up against - when I was a boy Kevin McNaughton (now Cardiff City) always stood out. He used to mark me and despite being at least a foot shorter than me at the time, used to win everything. Gary Middleton, ex Tayport and now at Lochess Utd, always stood out too.

Most impressive opponent in any team you've played against - the best one was ex Tayport player Davie Evans in boys' football. He scored goals for fun at that age. I remember I played against him in a Boys Brigade Cup final. We were 2-0 up at half-time and for some reason Davie was on the bench. They brought him on at halftime and they won the game 4-2. The wee man scored all four.

Clubs supported as a boy - Dundee FC— wee soft spot for Rangers, though. But Tayport is the only club I've wanted to be Commercial Manager of !!

Most admired player of the modern era - probably guys like Wayne Rooney, David Beckham and Roy Keane for their attitude on the park and their work ethic. Barry Donachie is impressive too. Some of the things he does reminds me a lot of John Terry.

What annoys you most in football - lots of things. Cheating cracks me up. Also I don't like the way some linesmen—or assistant referees as they now like to be called—don't help the ref by refusing to give fouls right in front of their noses. Grant Manzie shouted at me from the park a few weeks ago and that made me pretty angry too!

'Must watch' football programme on TV - got to be Soccer AM. Not so good since Tim Loverjoy left, but still makes me laugh.

Domestic

Age - 28 Born - Dundee Brought up - Broughty Ferry

Stay now - Lawside.

WoG - just my mum - only one that loves me. Barry McNaughton asked me out for a drink a few weeks ago but nothing came of it Kids - apart from looking after Blacker on a night out ?? I work with kids. Love my job but the best bit is being able to walk away after a tough day and leave them! That's enough kids for me!

Current occupation - work in Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services with the NHS

Previous occupation(s) - before going to University, I served my time as a welder & blacksmith. Not a lot of people know that!

Favourites

Newspaper - Evening Telegraph - of course. Read that in the afternoon and The Sun in the morning

Favourite all-time TV Programme - There's a few. Gavin and Stacey, Extras, The Office and Desperate Housewives. Everybody loves it but I am the only one who has the guts to admit it! I've been watching the Secret Millionaire too. I'm waiting on the episode starring Ronnie Kenneth Music Tastes - very varied. My last concert was Bruce Springsteen at Hampden—was unbelievable. Listen to a lot of Indie music. Darren Scott makes me listen to Take That, Will Young and Westlife in the car on the way across to Tayport.

Movie of all time - not much of a movie buff, but enjoyed Slumdog Millionaire, Crash & In Brugges

Last book read - reading The Lost Symbol by Dan Brown just now. Last book I read was The Secret which teaches the Law of Attraction. If I can find an audio copy, I'll give it to Davie Black, he could do with some attraction in his life Nightclub - I've just recently discovered I am getting too old for nightclubs, but still Fat Sam's if I make it that far. More of a Casino man these days. You can usually find me in the Fort Bar beforehand.

Pint - lager tops then I'll move on to Morgans and diet coke. In a tall glass with ice, please. Joe Pepper serves a mean one in Papa Jacques.

A WORD FROM WILLIE

At long last we have an opportunity to play our much delayed East of Scotland cup tie against Livingston. With the match being switched to the Canniepairt, it gives both teams a much needed game in what has been an unprecedented spell of bad weather.

Last week saw us back in league action, the first time since 5 December, but with 3 rounds of the Scottish having been played prior to the Fauldhouse game, we were starting to slip a lot of games behind our other contenders in the race for promotion. A good result was imperative, and fortunately we did that with a fine 3-0 win. With today's cup tie and the quarter final of the Scottish probably next week, we again will be well behind in league fixtures. It is crucial, therefore, that I ensure all the squad are getting game time and this will reflect on the team selection today. I have a really good squad of players at my disposal, knowing that whomever I select will be putting in a performance that will give me a selection headache the following week.

Again I must stress that the league is the single most important competition for us this season. The Fauldhouse win was pleasing in many ways for me. I felt over the 90 mins we defended really well, especially when I had to take off Derek and Fergie after only 25 mins, due to injuries. They were replaced by Joe and Barry, and this further highlighted the flexibility and ability of the squad, with both of them turning in really good performances. I was then required to make a third enforced substitution when Grant went down with cramp in both legs (I think the players' committee has issued him with a fine for this). Darren, who has been coming back from injury, was introduced and capped a good 30 mins with a well taken, some would say typical Darren Scott goal. Don't get me wrong in that, although the league is the main priority, I want to win every game, and this cup is the biggest one in our region. It would be great to progress to the next stage which is why we will be giving our opponents today every respect, as we do with every team who visit the Canniepairt. Livingston have not played many competitive games since early December, but knowing their assistant manager Nicky Brookfield well from our days at Edinburgh United, he will have them fit and prepared.

On the training front we have been fortunate this week in being able to get onto the training pitch both nights. We managed to get in some real good hard preparation work just before the frost started to set in. Although down in numbers slightly with a couple of injuries and Scott Hunter ill, the players once again worked their socks off, and with Mick O'Donnell making a welcome return after work commitments had kept him away for a couple of months, we are fit, ready and prepared for this game today.

Tayport at Lochee next Saturday in Scottish

Tayport play their first Scottish Junior Cup quarter final tie in Dundee for seventeen years when they make the short journey to Thomson Park to meet Lochee United next Saturday. Kick off is at 2.30pm

This will be the 58th meeting between the teams, the 25th in a cup competition. The days when Tayport rattled in seven, eight and nine against Lochee are past and recent games have been much closer with the six games at Thomson Park since Tayport's 2-0 Scottish Cup tie at Tannadice bringing three wins for the home side, two for Tayport and a draw

stereotypes

When you meet people from different countries it is remarkable how often these people seem to conform to their national stereotypes. There are always exceptions of course, but many Belgians can be quite boring and unremarkable, Americans can seem oblivious to the rest of the world and, while we might not like to admit it, there are a lot of tight Scots out there.

It should come as no surprise therefore that national football teams also seem to embody national characteristics. The German team is ruthlessly efficient, the Dutch have more than a streak of arrogance, the Koreans are incredibly industrious and the Western African teams are all plagued by the chaos which seems so rife in their respective countries.

Given these similarities it is easy to understand why people come to see their football teams as a sporting representation of the country itself. Hence why the standards demanded of those footballers who represent our nations are so much higher than those demanded of our club sides. This all helps to explain why John Terry's appearance at Wembley on Wednesday was met with a few boos from the home support.

Of course there is no justification for such behaviour. Terry was chosen for his undeniable footballing qualities and if he can help England to win the World Cup then he will have served his purpose. But then perhaps the boos were not directed at Terry, but instead were a more general reaction to what their country as a whole has become.

The bore's views are the result of too many pints and in no way represent those of TFC

BLETHER WITH BROWN
Bomber

Saturday 6th March 2010

It's unusual enough to get an e-mail from a Dundee United fan asking for Tayport memorabilia, but even more so when the Tangerine follower comes from Poland! That was indeed the scenario when Grazyna Tudela got in touch last week, and pleaded with to my generous nature.

"I'm from Poland and I have a fascination with Scottish football" said Grazyna "I would like to receive sun new information about your team. I collect badges from the Scottish national team, referees, and football clubs. I will be grateful if you send me some things connected with you're a badge" [sic]

After a little more digging, I found that the Pole is no amateur to this field, boasting 570 pin badges from British football clubs, despite having only been collecting for three years! "My favorite Scottish club is Dundee United, and my Polish club is LKS LODZ. Lks played a UEFA Champions League in 98/99 at Old Trafford! At least one of your teams experiences European football sometimes I suppose! " Anyway, in true Jim'll Fix It fashion, Grazyna, a few bits and bobs are on their way!

Tayport Travel Club member Billy Gibb was again out of luck this week. I received a text whilst at training [in case anyone imagines Bomber was actually training, I can assure you he means watching training – Ed] on Monday night from the 'gypsy' of Junior Football asking me for a contact number for Livingston United, presumably so he could arrange directions to the nearest social club where he would no doubt allow people to buy him a few drinks before the match. Being as organized as ever, Billy had just booked his Megabus seat through to the Lothians for him and his usually companions. Just a shame the match had been switched during a conversation between Abby and his counterpart some 30 minutes earlier!

Thanks to all who attended the Race Night in the Tayport Arms last Saturday.

Gail and her staff, as ever, showed tremendous hospitality, and a fine time was had by all.

Some of Grazyna's collection. Bomber

FROM THE ARCHIVES

SATURDAY 1st FEBRUARY 1992

It was 18 years ago last month that Livingston United made their only previous visit to The Canniepairt.

It was a Scottish Cup 4th occasion which attracted see the fledgling Junior Livingston outfit, unbeaten manager Bobby Ramsay, tish Cup run.

Tayport hadn't been doing looking for a ninth conceded only three goals in round tie and it was quite an estimated crowd of 550 to home team take on a in twelve games and, under having their best ever Scot-too badly either, and were secutive victory, having con- that eight game run.

The home side prevailed from Jackie Devine (2) and Dave Reilly. Divvy was the star of the show as the match record noted "Tayport won well in the end despite the absence of Malone and Wilkie and an injury to Coventry. Devine again brought the house down" Tayport lined up - Fraser Mann, Frankie Dolan, Grant Paterson, Billy Coventry (Paul Reilly), Andy Sommerville, Jimmy Hunter, Mark Spalding, Grant Cushnie, Kevin Thoms (Gary Lamont) Dave Reilly, Jackie Devine Livi fielded a side packed with ex Seniors including former Arsenal striker Mark Yardley who would subsequently return for a successful spell with the seniors. Livi's squad was Micky Hill, Gordon McNeil, Colin Reid, Tommy Ash, Davie Rooney, Tim Brady, John Allison, Alan Docherty, Mark Yardley, Steve Cowan, Brian Fairlie, Steve Dunn, Jimmy Smart, Mickey Lynch, Ian Gordon and Jamie Fairlie.

The man in the middle, Alastair Freeland from Aberdeen, moved on to become a grade 1 referee. Match receipts totalled £832.

The Sunday Post said "Tayport gave a magnificent display" and the Sunday Mail said "It was simple Devine for Tayport. Jackie Devine hit two second half goals, a spectacular volley and a superb solo effort to clinch victory for Tayport".

18 years on and Grant Paterson is the only player from that first meeting to feature in today's squads.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

Goodness knows why we've had to wait so long for the draw for the Emirates Scottish Cup 6th round. Three of the ties are set for next Saturday and with the draw only taking place last night, it's giving clubs little time to organise buses, hospitality and the like. Why make the draw on Real Radio, a station which is aimed at a central Scotland audience? No doubt there is a good reason but nobody tells us. There is no great awareness of Real Radio here and reception in Tayport and in Dundee is patchy to say the very least. Indeed, when one local punter heard the draw was to be on Real Radio, he thought that meant a radio with a cable and a plug. It is hard to argue with those who bang on about a west coast bias in the Scottish game.

It is with regret that we mourn the passing earlier this week of Jim Robertson who had been a staunch follower of the club since we joined the Juniors. Jim was a good friend of Grant Paterson's late mother Gina and that's where he made his connection with the club. Originally from Fife, Jim lived in Dundee until moving to Tayport some years ago. A Platinum Club member, Jim rarely missed a match, home or away, and until recently, was a regular on pre-season trips. Our condolences go to Grant, Gill and family.

The Scottish Juniors' International select team's friendly earlier this week against Rutherglen Glencairn was abandoned at half-time following a bad injury sustained by Glencairn full back Craig Palmer. The sides were level at 1-1 when the game was called off thus preventing any of the Scottish subs getting a run. For the record the East Region players in the starting XI were Ross (Lochee), Fleming (Bo'ness), Gielty (Newtongrange), Lister (Bathgate Thistle) and McLaren (Bathgate Thistle). Subs with East Region teams were Courts (Kelty), Strckland (Whitburn) and J.C.Hutchison (Camelon)

There was a rumour doing the rounds this week that three East Region Junior clubs would be applying to join the East of Scotland Senior League for next season. Speculation was that Dunbar United, Edinburgh United and Haddington Athletic were the clubs. Dunbar and Haddington were very quick to scotch the rumours that they were interested in a change.

Next Saturday Lochee United will get their biggest crowd since their game v Ayr United, but it will be nowhere near the 2,770 who assembled at North End Park to see Tayport eliminate Downfield by 1-0 in the last ever tie to go to three games. But will there be a programme.....?
