John Walker East of Scotland Cup 1st round

TAYPORT v ST ANDREWS UNITED

After three league games the East Region clubs take a break for some cup action today with a full programme of East of Scotland Cup ties. In terms of entries and prestige, it's second only to the Scottish Junior Cup itself and has been contested annually since 1896/97. However, only in the past six seasons have clubs outwith the Lothians been eligible for entry.

In these six years St Andrews, although they have never been in the region's top tier, have fared far better than their opponents today in the East of Scotland Cup, 19 ties compared to Tayport's 12. Twice St Andrews have reached the semi final, losing to Linlithgow Rose in 2005 and to Lochee United in 2009. Tayport's best is three appearances at the third round stage.

Contests between Tayport and St Andrews stretch back 20 years and although there have been previous meetings in the Scottish and Fife/Tayside Cups and in the League last season, this is the first meeting in the East of Scotland competition.

St Andrews, according to reports, were in splendid form last week, winning 1-0 at Balingry Rovers in the Premier League, their first success after an opening day draw with Armadale Thistle and a single goal defeat at Broxburn. The artificial pitch got the blame for that one.

Both clubs have made a number of changes during the close season and only six of the Saints starting XI when the clubs met here back at the end of May, are likely to feature today. Tayport will probably have eight of their starting line up that evening in the squad this afternoon.

As was the case when Tayport and Saints met back in May, the fans were again treated to plenty drama last Saturday. There was some splendid football in the first half, warmly appreciated by the supporters but the second half was a bit of a let down. Nevertheless, there was no shortage of talking points...

St Andrews report a full strength squad and there will probably be starting places for striker Gary Sutherland, the club's top scorer in each of the last five seasons, and new signing from Arbroath FC, Ryan Suttie, both of whom started on the bench last week. Tayport will be without the injured David Black and Barry Donachie and the unavailable Barry McNaughton but Derek Wemyss returns. Manager Willie Garner will also be absent today.

If level after 90 minutes, the tie will be settled by penalties, the method by which six of Saints nineteen previous ties in this competition have been settled.

THE VISITORS

Today we bid a very warm welcome to TAYPORT JUNIORS in this the 3rd Round of the Scottish Junior Cup. This is the first season junior for the "PORT", and so far it has been a very successful one, having lost only 3 games, twice to Kierrie Thistle and once to Arbroath Vics.

Forced during the close season from the Tayport Amateurs, a (very good Amateur Team) they have brought in several players from experienced Dundee Juniors, some of whom are no strangers to us here in St. Andrews, one of whom is Kevin Thoms who when playing for Downfield, scored against us last season.

Although near neighbours of ours in Fife, the "PORT" play in the Tayside League, and the bulk of their players hail from that area, they are guided by Dave Baikie, who himself was a prolific scorer with Lochee United, and Downfield, before taking over at Cairnriepark Park.

No Club can be successful however without a hard working Committee, to back them up, and with the evidence of a splendid new pavilion and the set up at Cairnriepark the "PORT" obviously have this.

A hard game is in prospect and a good afternoon's enjoyment is in store for us all.

CHAIRMAN'S REMARKS

Chairman Jim has expressed on behalf of the Committee, his personal welcome to both the visitors and our supporters and he hopes an entertaining game will be enjoyed by all.

He would also like to thank the members of the Supporters Club for assisting in selling Raffle Tickets for the Annual Xmas Raffle.

MERRY XMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL

The Annual Xmas Night Out of the Committee Members and helpers was held in the Russell Hotel, at which everyone had a splendid time.

THE COMMITTEE

As promised in the last edition, mention must be made of the men who work hard in the background to try and make things a success. For the benefit of all, the Chairman is Jim Mackie, the Vice Chairman is Ally Bruce, Secretary is Ross Guild and our faithful treasurer is Dennis Martin, supported by the committee of John Berry, Wilma and Davy Dunn, and Willie Green. Most of the work these folks do is work that you and I never see or even think about. We the supporters, know what goes on and we appreciate it very much. Keep up the good work for the benefit of the United, well done everyone. If any reader is interested in joining the Committee, please contact the Chairman Jim Mackie, they would be only too pleased to have your assistance.

THE SCOTTISH SO FAR

After the good luck to get a bye in the first round, we went to Ardeer in the second and drew 2-2 away and won 5-1 at home, which included a hat trick from Tas Henderson, with goals from Gordie Glen and Dave Sheach. Well done Lads!

Tayport playing in their first ever Scottish defeated Larkhall Thistle (after a replay) the Ayrshire team Muirkirk 1-1 in the second round, two excellent results against good opposition, which all goes to make today's match a mouth watering encounter. The winner of this tie could be set for a long run in the Cup. Good Luck to all.

SUPPORTERS CLUB NEWS

A committee meeting was held in the Club on Sunday morning of last week, with average attendance, the young members particularly enjoying a game of POOL etc. Our thanks go to the Management Committee of the Social Club, for their co-operation in permitting the meeting to be convened in the Club. Although the funds of the Supporters Club are in a healthy state, we could still do with more members, anyone therefore interested in joining, please see previous page for details. Thanks indeed must go to Isabel Poole, for the magnificent job she has done in making Club scarves and Rosettes. Thanks a lot Isabel, they are first class. It was worth all the hassle Ian surely?

The committee of the Supporters Club would like to take the opportunity of wishing each and everyone a very happy Xmas and prosperous and successful New Year.

WILLIE BLANEY

It is with sadness that we learned of the death of Willie Blaney, on the 21st December. Willie was the Secretary of the Scottish Junior Football Association, for a good number of years and during his period did a sterling job. Indeed he has helped to make the "Scottish" the great competition it is. His knowledge of the rules and Regulations of the game was unbounded, and he was always very willing to impart his knowledge to any Club in doubt.

Our sincere condolences go out to all his family.

THE SEASON SO FAR

As reigning champions of the League and with four other Trophies in our possession it was always going to be the case of everybody trying their hardest to shoot us down, but so far it has proved. Going undefeated in the League for the whole of last season, we have lost 2 games this season so far 2-0 at Crossgates and 3-0 at home to Kilty Hearts. We are also out of the Laidlaw Shield, losing to Glenrothes 1-0. In recent weeks however there are heartening signs of last season's form returning, with a 5-1 victory over Ardeer in the second round of the Scottish, and a 4-1 win over Pumpherston in the second round of the Fife and Lothians.

We are also lying second in the League and involved in all the other cups, so a successful and exciting season is very much on.

Injuries have however taken their toll, and Tom Brown, Tommy Falls and Eric Gillespie are sadly missed. It's all too easy for us supporters to say United must buy, but the hard fact is getting quality players. There is no doubt that a part of last season's success came because United had a large following of supporters, it is up to us to get behind the team again this season, and cheer them on. Anyone wishing to join the Supporters Club can make contact with the President Alec Lewis or any of the members of committee. Names for buses for away games should be entered on the lists on the Notice Board in the Social Club.

The proceeds from the sale of the programme go to the Supporters Club funds, and my grateful thanks go to A. Oswald Secretary of the "PORT" for information he provided, it was much appreciated Ally. If anyone has anything to contribute to our next programme, it will be gratefully received, particularly advertising and sponsorship. Please contact F. Forbes (75408) or in the Bar (usually). Thanks are due to the Secretary of the Social Club - CHM - for his help in producing this edition.

Norrie McArthur wishes to thank all the supporters in getting behind the team, and as this is the big one, let's hear it from the SAINTS.

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO YOU ALL.

A WORD FROM WILLIE

I would like to give my views (or the ones that can be printed) on last week's game against West End. Once again we fell foul to a penalty kick against this club in the first minute of the game. My opinion was that one of our former players was fortunate to get the decision. After going behind, I felt we played some of the best football I have seen from the team for a long time. We passed the ball really well, we moved well and at pace, and we caused them major problems, culminating in us scoring twice before half time. Second half we did not manage to get to the level we played in the first, and that disappointed me. Although they did not look like scoring, we did not show the same confidence in our passing and possession. In saying that we did have a couple of chances to go further ahead and kill the game, but their keeper produced a great save from Robbie to keep the score at 2-1. Going into injury time, the inevitable happened when they were awarded another penalty. The referee was unsighted but the linesman saw something and gave the decision. Neil saved the first attempt but could not prevent their player scoring the rebound. I know that the old saying is things even themselves out over a season, and at Kelty the previous week there was a big shout for a penalty for the hosts late in the game, but it cannot be a coincidence that in our last five meetings with this team, they have been awarded five penalties against us. I will say no more.

Today we welcome our near neighbours St Andrews to the Canniepairt. I am sure the supporters who attended our last meeting will be talking about this game for many years to come, as it played a pivotal part in our championship win last season. The game had everything including one of the heaviest hail storms I have ever witnessed. So bad I felt the ref was going to abandon the game. Fortunately that did not happen as we had to come from conceding a late goal to scoring two goals late into injury time to claim the win.

You, the supporters, again turned out in numbers for last week's game and would have been disappointed with dropping two points so late on, but I can assure you, you are not as disappointed as myself, the coaching staff and the players. The draw felt like a defeat, and there were some angry and disappointed people in our dressing room after the game.

Your continued support is vital

Support the Port, Willie Garner

Tayport players (and the ref + David Black, Scott Hunter and his wee lad)) celebrate Barry's goal v FWE

From the Archives

Speaking at our Footballers' Supper this evening is John McKelvie, west coast based raconteur. It's not John's first visit to Tayport, however. That was in January 1978 as a member of the Parkside team which met Tayport in the 5th round of the Scottish Amateur Cup.

It was an epic cup battle which stretched to three games, Tayport eventually losing to a very late penalty which Ian Mathers, to this day, is adamant was a not a foul.

Tayport were drawn with home advantage and led at half time through Jim Downie but conceded the equaliser necessitating a trip to wildest Lanarkshire. It was a pretty bad winter and the replay was postponed on two occasions but finally got underway on 28 January.

The part of Uddingston where the game was played wasn't the sort of place you'd choose for a holiday, nor indeed to venture out after dark! Level 2-2 at half time, the sides couldn't be separated and after 90 minutes it was 3-3. Thirty minutes extra time still had the teams locked together at 4-4. Ian Howe (2), Peter Wilson and George Ritchie were the scorers but Jim Downie revelled in the heavy going and was accorded man of the match status. Tayport lost the toss and were back a week later.

Conditions for the second replay were horrendous. It was freezing and the pitch, having taken a hammering the previous week, was now a badly flooded mud heap. Same for both sides declared the ref! Level at half time thanks to a Gordon Hughes goal, Tayport, without the injured Jim Downie this week, succumbed to that disputed second half penalty.

Playing all three games were Bobby Nicoll; Bobby McMahon, Ian Mathers, Ronnie Fleming, Doug Henderson, Peter Wilson, Mike Clerihew, George Ritchie, Ian Howe and Gordon Hughes. Ian Dobie was replaced in the 13 by St Andrean Terry Scanlon for the two replays, Stuart Davie replaced Steve Braid in the 13 for both replays and Ian Brown was added to the squad in place of the injured Downie for the third game. The players were so cold in the spartan dressing room accommodation that they couldn't untie their boot laces and the laces had to be cut off.

Thirty two years on, Henderson, Ritchie, Mathers, Howe and Davie are current season tickets holders here at the Canniepairt. Further a field, though, is Bobby McMahon, who emigrated to Canada the following season where he has become a top media personality with his own football show on Fox Sports.

It's a funny old game!

The Canniepairt Jester

Rangers and Celtic are always to the fore when it comes to funny football stories!

It is said that when Celtic were combing Europe for a new manager they made an approach to the manager of Iceland. When he turned them down they then asked the manager of Farmfoods

The new Bhoys is being shown round the facilities at Parkhead and is very much impressed by the luxury of it all compared to what he has been used to. He takes it all in wide-eyed, from the trophy room, the portraits of illustrious players and managers on the walls. To crown it all, the boss lets him know that he will be given a game for the first team that very Saturday.

'You'll have forty-five minutes to let us see what you can do, then you'll get pulled off at half-time.'

'Is that right?' says the new Celt, 'They only gie ye an orange at Firhill!'

Before the World Cup, a primary school teacher asks her pupils if they want to see England win it. The full class put their hands up except for one girl who says she wants Sweden, Argentina or Nigeria to win. Amazed the teacher asks why, "Well miss, my mum and dad are Scottish so I'm a Scottish fan too." So the teacher replies "You don't have to be a Scotland fan because you're parents are. If your mum was a prostitute and dad was a junkie who stole and beat up innocent people you wouldn't be like that"

"No miss" the girl says "that would make me a Rangers fan".

THIS AFTERNOON'S VISITORS ST ANDREWS UNITED

The St Andrews United committee's confidence in manager Jim Hardie could not be better illustrated than their decision to sign up Jim on a five year contract through to 2015. Whether it's written into the contract or not, the stated expectation of those calling the shots at Recreation Park is Super League football.

If the stories are to be believed, then money will be no object for the Saints gaffer to build a side to reach the top tier. Jim was certainly getting things right at Ballingry last week. The match report noted... A selection masterstroke from the St Andrews United coaching staff ... led to Saints taking all three points in an entertaining encounter at Ballingry's Ore Park ... When the United squad was announced it was mixed with an element of surprise by certain members of the support but also with a knowing nod from the more positive of those travelling from St Andrews.

Many of St Andrews United's squad this afternoon will be familiar faces to the local support. Indeed it's like an old boys network and that in itself will give the visitors added impetus today. Grant Miller was brought out of semi retirement to help Saints out at the start of the season and so impressed that he earned a contract. Along with another Saint, Allan Ramsay, Hobee won a Scottish Cup winners medal with Tayport back in 1996. Ramsay and Davie Evans were in the 2003 Cup winning team and Allan made it a hat trick of winners badges in Tayport's 2005 Cup winning side v Lochee United at Tannadice.

Adding to the Tayport connection are Conor Finlay and Ross Dorward, both brought up in the town, keeper Chris Hutchison who trained here and assistant manager Gus Malone who played at the Canniepairt in both amateur and junior days.

No Robbie Raeside, he's joined the Tayside Polis, so you guys who were giving him pelters here back in May had best hope he's got a short memory. No Kris Maxwell who joined Hill of Beath and another ex Tayport player, albeit briefly, Steven Fallon, has joined Arbroath SC.

New in a United shirt this season are central defender Kyle Dammer from Kirkcaldy YM, midfield player Ryan Suttie from Arbroath FC, strikers Gary Muckersie from Forfar West End and Ryan Dignan from Downfield.

DUNMORE REPORTS...

There was a great deal of frustration at the Canniepairt last weekend, as 'Port were deprived of three East Super League points. Visiting Forfar West End scored from two penalties in Saturday's 2-2 draw, leaving Tayport totally vexed.

The first spot kick was awarded in the opening minutes, when Robbie Holden went down inside the area. Another former 'Port player, Bryan Duell, converted for West End, as he had done in last season's Premier League win on the Canniepairt, as he had done in the last minute of the previous season's Super League clash at Strathmore Park. That 2008/09 strike cost Tayport two valuable points in a campaign which ended in relegation.

Despite this early blow on Saturday, Willie Garner's men responded in terrific fashion. Taking the game to their opponents, they led by the interval. Goals from midfielders Barry McNaughton and James Russell turned the game in Tayport's favour.

Unfortunately, the second half did not go as the hosts would have wished. West End were on top, without actually threatening Neal Ferrie's goal during that second period. In injury-time, however, disaster struck, in the form of the assistant referee's decision to award Forfar a penalty for handball. As usual, debate raged as to whether or not a hand was used, but the award, so late in the match, was galling.

Ferrie did stop the spot kick, but could not prevent the rebound from being smashed in for the equaliser. Cue wild celebrations in the West End camp and, on the sound of the final whistle, a red card for Roberto Morris, outraged by the turn of events.

A Penalty Clause in Finlayson's Tactics?

In the absence of any senior football in Dundee last week, I took myself off to watch my 'other' team, for what was a thoroughly exciting game between The Port and rivals Forfar West End.

Much of the talk during the game, especially during the first half, was regarding Jim Finlayson, the West End boss, and someone who is never usually far away from controversy. Most people familiar with junior football in the area will be aware of his unusual tactic of standing beside the assistant referee towards whichever goal his team may be attacking. This, I am assured, is not illegal, and he would be treated like any other manager should he step out of line. The theorists in the game may infer that this is a tactic to manipulate decisions, and whilst I am not suggesting this is what his aim may be, nor indeed implying experienced officials may be fickle enough to be intimidated, the result appear to speak from themselves.

Jim himself will tell you that after a long spell coaching in the juniors, his passion for the game sometimes brought trouble with the SJFA beaks leading to him being banned from entering his own dugout. And from that point of view it would appear sensible for him to abstain from the technical area during the 90 minutes, allowing his players to carry out his pre-match instructions under the guidance of his coaching team.

But when 3 of his side's last 4 goals have come from penalty kicks, and ex Tayport forward Bryan Duell claimed 19 goals from the same spot last season, you have to wonder if he really is keeping out of trouble, or have his menacing ways reached a new (incredible, effective and innovative) level?

Another manager who hit the headlines close to home was Falkirk's Steven Pressley. Having lost 2-0 at Dens Park, the former Scotland defender intimated that Dundee's substitute goalkeeper Scott Fox, brought on after Robert Douglas was red carded after an hour, wasted time, and therefore restricted his teams chances.

Whilst this remains a pet hate of most people in the game, his opposite number of the day for me summed up what many people think of big 'Elvis' these days.

"If he (Pressley) is not talking about pulling pitches in or about body language he's going on about other people's teams. He should stick to looking at his own team instead of trying to deflect by picking on one of my boys. We played well and deserved to win the game and sometimes as a manager you've got to put your hands up and admit the far better team won"

Well said, Mr Chisholm!

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

Further to last week's item on Tayside Police promotions, The Courier this week reported that Andy McCann, another Tayport FC FP in the Tayside Force, had been promoted. Andy, who played for the club's Alliance XI in 1986/87, now has the rank of Chief Inspector.

Tayport have agreed terms for the transfer of Scott Hunter to Carnoustie Panmure. Scott has had a couple of games for the Gowfers as a trialist. What are the odds on a second successive championship medal?

Spare a thought for Arniston Rangers after their already pretty rundown accommodation at Newbyres Park, Gorebridge was broken into and trashed prior to last weekend's game v Thornton Hibs. The thieves/vandals didn't quite manage to get away with the kitchen sink, but they did make off with the water tank. Alternative changing and showering facilities had to be found at short notice.

Newtongrange Star manager Graeme Armstrong has hardly instilled confidence in his players with his comments in the press this week. Commenting on his team's performance v Musselburgh his doom laden words were "There's something amiss at the club just now. There's no oomph. To be honest the team needs an overhaul... we can't go on like this. We don't look capable of beating many teams"

The Tayport Community Café at the harbour, Chrissie Kirkcaldy's old shop, looks like it's finally set to become a reality, with the latest injection of funding, £6,000 from Fife Council, bringing the total up to the Tayport Community Trust's target figure of £76,000 to get the redevelopment underway. The Trust is still looking to develop the former foundry adjacent to the Canniepairt as a sports and community facility. In comparison, the café project is small beer.

We may be playing away next Saturday, but there will be action on the Canniepairt, albeit on Saturday evening when there's a charity firewalking event. Billed as "The Ultimate Challenge", some 40 volunteers are expected to walk over the hot coals laid on the pitch in memory of Tayport policeman Malcolm Whigham and in so doing help raise funds for Care of Police Survivors Fund. Malcolm was tragically killed in a motorbike accident in the Lothians whilst on secondment to the Scottish Crime and Drug Enforcement Agency. Action commences at 7.30pm. Come on down!

James Russell and Ross Lunan have been teammates before as this cutting from an East Craigie FC programme from April 2004 reveals...

ROSS "if he kicks me I'll kick him back" LUNAN – if he could kick the ball as good as he kicks the opposition then what a striker he would be.

JAMES "pampers" RUSSELL – has bags of ability but needs his nappy changed to often.
