DUNMORE REPORTS...

"Kelty Hearts, will provided sterner opposition, especially with Keith Burgess at the helm"

A James Russell free kick and a second half header from Brian Livie earned three Super League points the last time Tayport were on the Canniepairt, when Newtongrange Star provided the opposition, in early October.

Since then, 'Port have been on the road. The following weekend, there was a trip to Carmuir's Park, to meet Camelon, again in the Super League. James Russell again netted a free kick, but the Mariners raced into a 3-1 lead. Grant Manzie's late goal was a consolation in a match in which skipper Roberto Morris was ordered off.

Next up was the DJ Laing League Cup final. A depleted team competed well against the robust Forfar West End, but there would be a disappointing outcome. Ex-'Port man, Bryan Duell, headed West End ahead, but Robbie Henderson equalised at the start of the second half. To nobody's great surprise, the Strathmore Parkers later won a penalty. Up stepped Duell, and Tayport were again trailing. A deliberate handball by Martin Black, at the other end gave the Canniepairt outfit a spot kick of their own. James Russell converted and the cup would be decided on penalties, with West End triumphing.

Scottish Junior Cup action got underway the next week. Seven different scorers enabled 'Port to cruise to a 9-0 win at Harthill. Lee Bryce and Grant Manzie notched two apiece. Stevie McManus began the rout, from the spot, while Barry Donachie, Robbie Henderson, Stefan Elvin and James Russell were also on target. Russell's individual goal was perhaps the pick of the bunch.

The Super League fixture at Bathgate was postponed, so, after an idle Saturday, Tayport were back in business last weekend, at Haddington, in the East of Scotland Cup. The Hi Hi took a shock lead, from the spot, but Robbie Henderson soon equalised. A Stevie McManus penalty saw Willie Garner's men lead at the break. A Robbie Henderson header extended the advantage, while free kick specialist James Russell yet again demonstrated his tremendous shooting ability to make the final score 4-1 in Tayport's favour.

So, the goals have flowed of late, but today's opponents, Kelty Hearts, will provided sterner opposition, especially with Keith Burgess at the helm. Let's hope for a cracking contest.

ACA SPORTS SUPER LEAGUE TAYPORT v KELTY HEARTS

Kelty Hearts are enjoying a revival. A cracking start to the season with a 100% record and not a goal conceded in their league cup section proved to be something of a false dawn to the season. The gulf between the Premier & District League and the Super League was exposed and, as league defeat followed league defeat, the pressure was mounting on the Hearts' committee. Having suffered five defeats from their opening six league fixtures and defeat to Glenrothes in the opening round of the Emirates Scottish Cup, the committee did what committees of Super League clubs do in such circumstances—they parted company with their manager, in this case the long serving Steve Leighton.

As is the case in such circumstances, the rumour mill slipped into gear and the mill was still whirring when former Tayport boss and current Junior Scotland boss Keith Burgess had been offered and accepted the post, bringing with him his assistant at Tayport, Stewart Williamson. Keith had been out of club management since leaving Tayport in 2007 with Scottish Cup and Super League successes added to his managerial CV.

It's been an excellent start for Keith, Stewart and coach Billy McPhee, with a league win over Camelon sandwiched between convincing cup wins over Arnishton Rangers in the Fife & Lothians Cup and Carnoustie Panmure in the East of Scotland Cup.

Keith has basically been relying on the players he inherited, although Gary Leighton, son of the previous manager, is not in the picture and is available for transfer. Into the squad comes former Dundee United youngster Kris Irvine.

If the evidence from our earlier meeting this season with Kelty is anything to go by, there was plenty to suggest that the new manager has plenty to work with and another keen contest is anticipated today. There's loads of experience in the Kelty line-up and, with 15 goals to his credit already this season, Craig Morrison is bang in form in front of goal.

Willie Garner has had to utilise his playing pool fully over the last few weeks with injuries meaning six players have been regularly watching from the sidelines. Full back Alistair Devine was fixed up on short term loan from Forfar but the former Hearts defender has been recalled by the Station Park club. The loss of Alistair has been tempered somewhat by the return of Derek Wemyss last week and both Roberto Morris and Brian Livie this week.

Having comfortably accounted for Harthill and Haddington in their past two games, Tayport will find Kelty a trifle more testing, to say the least.

THIS AFTERNOON'S VISITORS KELTY HEARTS

As long as a football has been kicked around, there's been a team or teams in Kelty but Kelty Hearts, the team of the current generation, was only founded in 1975 as an amateur club. However, since acquiring Junior status in 1980, Hearts have been a significant force in Fife Junior football.

Kelty Hearts home ground is Central Park in Bath Street which attracted its record attendance in the club's fledgling years, 1,650 v Benburb in a 1980/81 Scottish Junior Cup tie. Over the years Central Park has undergone a number of improvements, most recently on the social side with the construction of a social club in the ground. It's the committee's intention to continue to upgrade their ground, but in so doing, balancing off the field with on field expenditure. Every manager's nightmare scenario!

One of Kelty's most famous sons, Jim Leishman, was one of the club's first managers before he moved on to greater things. Although on the scene for thirty five years, it was only relatively recently that Kelty Hearts' name gained national prominence, through reaching the Scottish Junior Cup Final on two occasions.

Their first appearance was in 1998 -1999 when they lost 1-0 to Kilwinning Rangers at Firhill Stadium in Glasgow. Their second final appearance was in 2006 - 2007 when they played Linlithgow Rose at East End Park, Dunfermline. The choice of East End Park as the final venue was fully vindicated when the biggest Junior Cup final attendance for many years, officially 9,304 but probably more, rolled up. It was the first Junior Cup Final in 30 years not to be televised and this probably helped swell the attendance. A tremendous Kelty support, went home disappointed, however, after suffering a 2-1 defeat.

Although they have two cup final appearances to look back on, Kelty Hearts have yet to make a significant impact on the new Super League structure. The committee clearly hope that this step can be taken under the stewardship of new manager Keith Burgess who previously tasted Scottish Cup and Super League success with Tayport.

A WORD FROM WILLIE

It was 9th October when we last played at the Canniepairt, in a Super League win against a very good Newtongrange side. Since then we have had a league game at Camelon, a cup final against West End at Carnoustie, a Scottish tie at Harthill and an East of Scotland tie at Haddington. We would have also played at Bathgate in the league, weather permitting, two weeks ago, so we are now happy to be at home for the next couple of weeks at least.

Today we welcome Kelty in a Super League game. Since we defeated them at the end of August, they have had a change of management, with a couple of people in their dugout today who need no introduction to Tayport fans. The game at Kelty was a really even match with both teams having chances to go on and win it. Indeed until Robbie scored our second goal in injury time, the outcome of the match could have gone either way. I expect as close a game today.

For various reasons, it has been difficult to get the same team on the park two weeks in a row. We have seen injuries to Derek and Fergie, two of our most experienced and influential players, keep them out for almost all of the games above. Roberto's red card at Camelon meant he has sat out all the games after that one, with the extension on his time out due to Bathgate being postponed. Badger also got injured in that Camelon game but played for 30 mins last week at Haddington. Chris Anton picked up an injury in the cup final and he is still a couple of weeks away from fitness. Add David Black to this list, and it shows we have been thin on the ground for numbers, so credit to the guys for getting through these games, especially those being asked to play out of position. The negative on the injury front is that Fergie goes in for an operation next week which will keep him out 'til the new year and David has had a scan on his knee and we await the results.

On a positive note Roberto is now free from suspension, Derek played the entire game last week with no reaction and has trained all week. Badger also played a part last week and, having also trained this week is also available for selection. We have also had Alistair Devine on loan from Forfar Athletic Ally has done really well for us since his debut in the cup final but his loan arrangement ends today and indications are that Forfar want him back as they too have an injury crisis.

That's an update on the playing staff.

What I would like to do is thank the supporters for the great support we have had in each and every one of those away games. Considering the amount of travelling involved, you turned up in numbers to support the team. In every one of the above mentioned games you out numbered the home support and it is much appreciated.

We know how important it is to continue to pick up points in this league. The players have worked really hard in training again this week as they know the importance of fitness coming into this time of the year. Pattie and Steven have been on their case and they, as ever, have done the work and it has been enjoyable.

THIS IS A BIG DAY FOR THE JUNIOR GAME

Four Junior clubs this afternoon bid to reach the 4th round of the Scottish FA Cup—and a chance of drawing a tie with one of the big guns of Scottish Football. And, of course, making a fortune!

Bo'ness United meet Highland League Buckie Thistle and will fancy themselves to go through with home advantage at a packed Newton Park. This tie kicks off at 1.30pm.

Unfortunately it's SFL opposition for our other three representatives. Air-drie United host Beith, Ayr United meet Sunnybank and there's an all south west tie when Stranraer run out against Girvan. None of the host teams have been displaying earth shattering form and there's maybe just a chance that the Juniors can cause an upset.

NOVEMBER 2003

KELTY HEARTS' FIRST LEAGUE VISIT TO THE CANNIEPAIRT

Season 2002/03 had seen Kelty crowned Fife District Champions and consequently they were promoted to the Super League for the first time. It was to be a tough baptism in the top division and the Central Park side made a quick return to the District Leagues, along with Hill of Beath and Dundee North End.

Although Kelty had started the season promisingly and finished with the Super League's second best defence, conceding only 22 goals, one fewer than Tayport, who were champions, they only scored 14 and it was this paucity of goals, particularly away from home when only 5 were scored in the entire campaign, which ultimately cost them dearly.

The visit to the Canniepairt on 29th November seven years ago, their first ever on league business, was fairly typical of Kelty's season, a 0-1 defeat. The only goal came from Ralph Hunter, netting for a previously unprecedented (for Ralph!) fourth game in succession.

Six of today's Tayport squad lined up for 'the home side that afternoon and coincidentally, six of today's pool were also in the Kelty squad that day.
Attendance was 184

DUNDEE SUNDAY MORNING FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION (DSMAFA)

Last Sunday (14th November) both THE TAYPORT ARMS FC and COBBIES F C travelled in the second round of the McGuire Trophy with directly opposite results. While TAYPORT ARMS were winning 5 - 2 at Club 67, COBBIES went down by the same score at Premier pacesetters Michelin.

Tomorrow (21st November) sees both teams at home in the Scottish Cup. The TAYPORT ARMS entertain the Jolly Harvester who make the long trek from Dumfries while COBBIES are at home to Livingston United from West Lothian. Kick offs are 1pm

The League Tables in the DSMAFA after matches on Sunday 14th November were as follows:

It's a funny old game! says The Canniepairt Jester

Us Scots always seem to see the funny side of everything and football is no exception. Here are some of my favourites.

A Dundee and Dundee Utd fan get into a nasty car accident. Both vehicles are really wrecked, but amazingly neither of them is hurt.

After they crawl out of their cars, the Dundee fan says, "So you're a United fan, that's interesting. I'm a Dundee fan... Wow! Just look at our cars. There's nothing left, but fortunately we are unhurt. This must be a sign from God that we should meet and be friends and live together in peace the rest of our days."

The United fan replied, "Totally agree - this must be a sign from God!" The Dundee fan went on, "And look at this - here's another miracle. My car is completely demolished but this bottle of whisky didn't break. Surely God wants us to drink it, to celebrate the fact we are alive and kicking?"

He hands the bottle to the United fan who nods his head in agreement, opens it and takes few big swigs from the bottle, then hands it back to the Dundee fan. The Dundee fan takes the bottle, immediately puts the cap back on, and hands back to the United fan. The United fan asks, "Aren't you having any?" The Dundee fan replies, "Nah...I think I'll just wait for the polis....."

An Aberdeen fan is trapped on a remote desert island with a sheep and a dog. Soon, the sheep starts looking really attractive to the Aberdeen fan. However, whenever he approaches the sheep the dog growls in a threatening manner.

The Aberdeen fan takes the dog to the opposite side of the island giving it some food as a distraction. He runs back to the sheep only to find the dog growling at him. The Aberdeen fan ties the dog to a tree with a large leash. He goes back to the sheep only to find the dog growling with a gnawed off leash around its neck.

By now, Aberdeen fan is getting depressed and frustrated. As he sits under a palm tree staring out to sea, a beautiful woman in a tight-fitting wet suit emerges from the surf.

She asks him who he is and, taking pity upon his lonely state, asks if there's ANYTHING she could do for him. The Aberdeen fan thinks for a moment and then responds, "Could you take the dog for a walk?"

+++++

A bloke goes into Glasgow Airport and manages to eventually get into the departure lounge where his flight home is being called. All around him there are overturned tables, smashed windows, computer terminals broken, upturned chairs and crowd control barriers lying on the floor.

"Christ, what's happened here?" he asks one of the ground crew.

"Oh I...", he replies "Absolutely useless .... we had the Rangers players in here this morning filming a new Nike advert".

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

Tayport Travel Club members in particular, will be interested to learn of a new publication - "Pubhopper: A Guide to Pubs near Scottish Non-League Football Grounds—Edinburgh & Lothians". Compiled by John Weir, the 76 page booklet looks at all the junior and senior non-league clubs in the area covered, with brief details of the club, travel details to get there, names, addresses and a review of all those pubs in each town and also the nearest fish & chip shops and bookies. Pubhoppers is priced at £3 plus 75p postage and is available from Stewart Davidson, 12 Windsor Road, Renfrew PA4 0SS.

Violet's assistant manager Andy Heggie has parted company with the club. Still on management, the sacking of long serving Arniston manager Brian McNaughton was hard on the heels of a 9-0 humping by Glenrothes. By all accounts there were mitigating circumstances surrounding that defeat but it seemed to bring things to a head and off went the manager's. There were varying opinions on the Arnie website and rumours were rife that the players were in revolt over the sacking and were refusing to play last Saturday. It didn't happen, however and the team duly turned out to perform creditably against league leaders Broxburn despite losing 2-4. And Scott Nisbet's still playing.

A story reaches us about John McKelvie, the ex Strathclyde polis who spoke at our recent Footballer's Supper. John was speaking at a dinner in the west recently and was on after Frank McAvennie. John commented it wasn't the first time he had followed McAvennie, but it was the first time Frank had been aware of it.

Any old 'Port punter taking in a Tayport Arms FC Sunday game recently might have been surprised to see Mark Spalding, 'Port star of the 1990s, in action at the ripe old age of 47. Team boss Jimmy Hunter, a colleague of Mark's back in those days, had persuaded Mark out of retirement to add some composure to his team. Mark's last game for Tayport was in March 2000.

Still on Sunday football, there's a Scottish Sunday Amateur Cup double in town tomorrow when the Jolly Harvester FC make the long trek from Dumfries to meet Jimmy Hunter's Tayport Arms FC while Livingston United travel from West Lothian to meet Cobbies FC for whom our back up goalie last season, Sam Morris, is starring outfield.

Next Saturday Petershill play at Tayport for the first time and the West Super League Premier club has the distinction of being the 50th different club to have visited The Canniepairt on Scottish Junior Cup business since Tayport kicked off their 20 year love affair with the old cup against Larkhall Thistle in 1990. Petershill. The famous club from Springburn in Glasgow have recently moved to a brand new stadium, a far cry from the old Petershill Park. Although they have won the Cup five times, there are fewer and fewer Peasie fans who can remember the last time back in 1956. Their win over Irvine Meadow in the 1951 final attracted an incredible attendance of 77,650 to Hampden. They arrive next week with a 3-0 win over Beith fresh in the memory.
