DUNDEE SUNDAY MORNING FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION

A very convincing win for TAYPORT ARMS aka AULD HOOSE last Sunday in the third round of the NRG First League Cup when they hit eight without reply at home to Club 67. Tomorrow they are away to Finty Thistle in the League hoping to pick up three points to avoid any relegation worries.

COBBIES match last Sunday was postponed. Tomorrow they have a difficult task when they travel to Monymusk to meet Douglas Athletic in a NRG First League Cup third round tie.

MIDLANDS AMATEUR FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION

NEWPORT AFC

Last Saturday's Ferraris Shield first round tie was postponed. This afternoon Newport AFC are visiting Duffus Park to meet Kingdom Caledonian league side Cupar Hearts in the fourth round of the Foster Fife Amateur Cup. Cupar Hearts have been to the fore in Fife Amateur football for a number of years now and a win for the Taysiders is a big ask.

THIS AFTERNOON AT THE CANNIEPAIRT ACA SUPER LEAGUE TAYPORT v CAMELON

Today's game has a significant role to play in the emerging fortunes of both teams as the season heads towards a conclusion. With neither team retaining any cup interest, all attention will be focused on the League. The Super League is so competitive again this season that a run of three wins can send a side soaring towards the top or plummeting into relegation trouble. Today's combatants should be acutely aware of the position in which they find themselves. For both, a win is vital. We should, therefore, expect a cracking match.

Of the two teams today, Camelon had the stickier start to the season and it wasn't until their seventh game that they tasted their first success, a 3-2 win over Tayport at Carmuir Park in what was a hugely disappointing afternoon for the Fifers. Since that day in October Tayport have had only three games, a win, a draw and a defeat, the most recent being the 0-4 humbling by Bo'ness in our last home game. Unhindered by cup tie action, Camelon have played nine games since then, six of which have been since the turn of the year, but no wins in the last four.

By all accounts, however, manager Danny Smith, the former Linlithgow Rose midfielder, has recently injected a bit of fire in the Camelon bellies. The Mariners came back from two goals down late in the game to salvage a point v Forfar West End and last week at Musselburgh, they had by far the better of the game before an unexpected collapse late in the first half cost four goals and ultimately a 5-2 defeat.

Smith has brought in a couple of new faces to bolster his squad, one of whom, Jon Mitchell, will not require an introduction. Mitchell, it will be recalled, played here in 2002/03 and won a Scottish Cup winners medal for 'Port v Linlithgow. Also new to the Camelon squad is Callan Kerr who was signed from Stenhousemuir U 19s. Tayport will not have happy memories of the last ex-Stennie to play against them, Bo'ness' Grant Plenderleith, who was outstanding in his side's 4-0 win here three weeks ago.

David Black, whose failure to make a quick recovery from cartilage surgery is giving some concern, should be the only absentee. Tayport will have coaches Steven Stewart and Grant Paterson controlling things from the dugout in the absence of manager Willie Garner who is abroad.

A WORD FROM WILLIE

Today we welcome Camelon in another vital Super League game. It is getting to that point in the season where every point is vital. Although we have played five games less than today's opponents the sheer competitiveness of this league cannot guarantee points on the board. Every game is tough and we need to be focused on getting the correct result.

Our last league game against a strong and competent Bo'ness was a disappointment. I was disappointed at the manner in which we lost the goals, the first from a free kick that was not struck well but somehow ended up in the corner of our net and the second when we have a corner in the first minute of the second half and we did not deal with their quick breakaway. After that they showed why they were champions last season, and as we tried to get back into the game we left ourselves exposed to quick breakaways.

Losing as many goals is not like us, and with one of the best goals against columns in the league, we need to get back to shutting up shop and creating at the other end.

With the Bonnyrigg game being off last Saturday, I gave the players the day off. More for the fact that Fitzy and Liv were unavailable due to work, and Roberto, Derek, Fergie, Ronnie and Blackie were really struggling with various knocks. The rest allowed us to get back to business on Monday and Wednesday where everyone trained and we had two really good, positive nights of hard work and a bit of fun. It got the smiles back on the players' faces.

It also allowed me to watch Camelon at Musselburgh last Saturday where although very much in the game in the opening 30 mins, they conceded four goals in 20 mins which killed the game.

With the transfer of Mc Manus to Jeanfield now finalised and the earlier departure of Lunan back to Violet, I have been enquiring about two new players. This is at the early stages but I do realise I need to add depth and quality to the squad for the remaining ten games after today.

Your support has been fantastic this season, even when we have not got the result you are looking for. I can assure you that no one feels worse than myself when we work so hard during the week and come up a bit short on a Saturday. What I would ask is that you get right behind the team in these crucial games coming up, starting today. The players really appreciate your support

Support the Port, Willie Garner

DUNMORE REPORTS...

"Can Tayport turn the corner this afternoon?"

So far, 2011 has been a disappointing year for all those of a Tayport persuasion. A whole host of postponements has led to many supporters wandering around aimlessly on a Saturday afternoon, not quite sure what to do with their free time. And, when there has been a game to attend, results have not gone our way.

The last two matches, in particular, have been hard to watch. A fortnight ago, champions Bo'ness visited the Canniepairt and cantered to three points in what became a comfortable 4-0 win. 'Port simply made no impression on a soild, uncompromising back-four. At the other end, two players who had previously netted against Tayport for different opposition, put the hosts to the sword. Graeme McLaren gave the BUs a lead with a weakly struck free kick, while, just after the break, Chris MacFadyen headed home from close-range. Substitute Martin Ure added a third, on the break, while McLaren completed the scoring on a miserable afternoon for 'Port.

Then, a fortnight ago, the Canniepairt men exited the East of Scotland Cup, at Sauchie. Tayport failed to capitalise on a bright enough start to the match, and Sauchie soon began to threaten. They opened the scoring on the half hour and it was not until midway through the second half that Tayport levelled. Ronnie Kenneth, who had begun to influence proceedings after coming off the bench, converted a penalty kick, after Barry Donachie has been upended in the box.

Unfortunately, Sauchie regained their lead almost immediately, when Donaldson skipped through the defence before finding the net with a low finish. Barry McNaughton did come ever-so-close to a late, late leveller, but the home 'keeper tipped the midfielder's header over the bar, with the last touch of the contest.

Let's hope that Willie Garner's men can turn the corner this afternoon, in the bid for crucial East Super League points.

16th March 2011

To All Clubs

Dear Sir/Madam,

Snoods (Neck Scarves)

The International Football Association Board held its Annual meeting at the Celtic Manor Hotel in Newport, Wales on Saturday 5th March.

At the meeting, the Board decided to prohibit, with immediate effect, the wearing of snoods (or neck scarves) by players. It was considered that such items did not constitute part of the basic equipment of players as set out in Law 4 – Players' Equipment, and that, moreover, they could constitute a danger to the wearer in the event that an opponent chose to pull the snood.

I would ask you therefore to inform your technical and playing staffs of this decision to ensure that such garments are not worn by players.

Please note that this letter is being copied to the referee movement.

The full decisions of the International Football Association Board will be communicated to you once they are made available by FIFA.

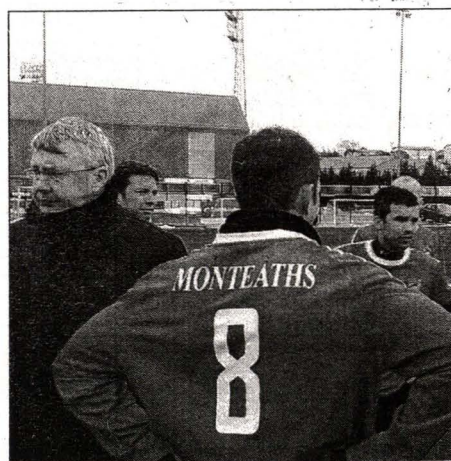

Yours sincerely,

John Fleming

THIS AFTERNOON'S VISITORS CAMELON

Camelon Juniors - a brief history

[adapted from Camelon Juniors' website www.cjfc.co.uk]

Camelon JFC was founded in 1920 and for a team that comes from deep in the central belt of Scotland their nickname, "The Mariners", perhaps requires explanation. The Forth and Clyde Canal runs past their ground and it is generally accepted that the nickname goes back to the time when Camelon was a thriving shipping port on the Canal at the point where it is linked to the Union Canal.

Success in the early days was limited with one appearance in the Scottish Cup Final in 1952 when Camelon were beaten 1-0 by Kilbirnie Ladeside. The mid 1990s saw the club's most successful spell, winning the OVD Scottish Cup in 1995 when they beat Whitburn 2-0 in the final. The following year they again reached the final only to be beaten in extra time by Tayport (see photo collage upstairs in Tayport's pavilion). During this period they also won the East of Scotland League; The Skol League Cup and the East of Scotland Cup.

Carmuir Park

In 1920 Camelon had no recognised ground of their own. Their home games were played as far afield as Stirling and Bo'ness. Tired of being the nomad club, Camelon's committee was forced to take stock of themselves and seek the means to secure the future of the Club.

They approached a local farmer who had extensive land on the north side of the Forth and Clyde Canal. When the farmer heard that all but two of Camelon's players had been in the Army he offered the club a field on the north bank of the canal which the committee turned into a football ground. The ground took its name from the farm on which it stood and Carmuir Park was born.

Since then there have been several improvements. The erection of the pavilion and the enclosure, the levelling of the playing surface and the creation of the terracing made Carmuir Park one of the best stadiums in Scottish Junior Football with a reputation as having one of the finest playing surfaces in the game, the envy of many senior clubs. The erection of a covered enclosure in front of the pavilion in the 1990s, with the help of a grant from The Football Trust, has added to the attraction of the Stadium. If the original and hardworking committee members could see their Carmuir Park now, they'd be well pleased with their foresight.

The top quality playing surface was widely commented on by Tayport's players and officials on the club's first ever visit to Carmuir Park in 1993 for a Scottish Cup tie and this was reckoned to be a factor in a thrilling 3-3 draw.

Tayside fury at Scotland boss's snub

By Steve Bruce

THE TAYSIDE Region Junior Football Association are up in arms because Scotland boss Dick Brock has completely ignored their players for next week's international trial.

Despite the improving Tayside scene, boasting at least two OVD Scottish Junior Cup quarter-finalists, Brock has failed to pick a single representative from the Tayside Leagues for Monday night's trial match against Airdrie at Linlithgow from which the side to face Northern Ireland at Auchinleck on March 27 will be drawn.

The 17-strong squad selected by Brock, who watched Tayport put Shettleston out of the cup last weekend, comprises seven players from Ayrshire, five from East, four from Central and Kelly Hearts striker Andrew Tod.

And to rub salt in the wounds, two of his choices play for Shettleston.

Tayside clubs are furious over what they regard as a major snub. Tayside secretary Jock Myles has sent a letter of complaint on behalf of the association to the Scottish Junior Football Association, and SJFA president James Ferguson and secretary Joe Black can expect to have their ears bent tomorrow when they visit Dundee for the St Joseph's-Arthurlie fifth-round replay.

"There is a feeling of anger and disgust over the complete absence of Tayside players from the trial," said Myles.

The omission of Downfield pair Derek Mitchell and Grant Clark, both of whom have been capped previously, is a particular slap in the face. Mitchell scored a hat-trick as Downfield bundled Bellshill out of the national tournament and Clark is generally reckoned to be the best goalkeeper in the country.

"Earlier this season, after Downfield had beaten Hill O' Beath in the Scottish, I telephoned Dick Brock to recommend Grant Clark and he told me that 30 minutes earlier he'd had the Hill O' Beath manager on to him raving about Clark," revealed Myles.

Brock yesterday refused to comment on his choice, though he confirmed he alone is responsible for selecting players for international duty.

SNIFFING ABOUT WITH THE SNOOT

Further to the item in our last edition, there's an update re the fast deteriorating former Rippin building adjacent to the top end of our ground. You will recall we are concerned over the huge volume of water which flows from the roof of this building on to the Canniepairt every time it rains. The sustained flow of water is causing damage to the grass and prompted our enquiry to Councillor Maggie Taylor and the local Community Council. Councillor Taylor has pursued the matter and was advised by the Fife Council's property people that the maintenance of the Rippin building was the responsibility of Tayport Community Trust. Nonsense! said Maggie and asked them to think again and was then told by the Leisure people that it was the Council's responsibility and they would allocate some funds to carry out repairs. The words hand left doesn't what right it's hand doing what hand the know and is spring to mind. We remain hopeful, nevertheless.

The football club's flag will be flying at half mast this weekend as a mark of respect for Lance Corporal Liam Tasker who was killed in Afghanistan earlier this month. Army dog handler Liam (26) of the Royal Veterinary Corps was shot whilst on duty with his springer spaniel Theo who later also died. Although Liam was born in Kirkcaldy there are strong family connections in Tayport. His late grandfather Ian was a former secretary of Tayport FC during the 1960s. The media is sure to be out in force for the Military Funeral at Tayport Parish Church on Tuesday.

It was only a matter of time... Latest feature in Dundee FC's matchday programme, The Dee, is 'Blether with Bomber', a page of mutterings on the lines of Bomber's contribution to the Port Prog before his defection to Dens. He'll need to get a copy checker, though! As readers of the TFC Website Forum will have observed, Bomber maintains a keen interest in the fortunes of Tayport and isn't slow to say his piece.

Tayport, the town that is, is in line for an award. The award is made to the town which can boast (?) the roadworks which have waited longest to be carried out. No prizes for guessing that the award was in respect of the roadworks in Albert Street, the barriers for which have blocked the carriageway for many weeks. The award, which is in the form of a set of traffic lights, will be welcomed by the many drivers who have run into the barriers which surround what appears to be a defective manhole.

Miracles excepted, we're not going to win the League this season and that will officially make this our worst ever season since we joined the Juniors. It would appear the local cups, including the Fife/Tayside Cup, have been abandoned this season and, with only 10 league fixtures after today and 10 Saturdays until the end of May, we'll have played only 34 games, a far cry from the 58 played in 2001/02. According to the Press, midweek games will commence in the first week in April so, despite the horrendous winter during which 10 games were postponed, we will likely have our earliest ever finish.

The reputation of the Junior game was further boosted last week. Following on from Lochee United's Craig Robertson turning out for Dundee, two Bo'ness players, Roger Duffin and Fraser Forrest, turned out for Alloa Athletic in a Irm Bru Division two game at Ayr United. Alloa found themselves short and with the Bo'ness game v Lochee a victim of the weather, Bo'ness answered the SOS. By all accounts, both players acquitted themselves well despite Alloa losing by the only goal of the game.
