FROM THE ARCHIVES

FOOTBALL.....TAYPORT.....THE WORLD

This weekend 80 years ago in March 1934

Tayside..well, Dundee anyway, was buzzing on the eve of Lochee Harp playing a Scottish Junior Cup quarter final tie at Larkhall Thistle. The Evening Telegraph of Friday March 3rd 1934 reported "Judging by the rush for rail tickets for Larkhall, Lochee will be an empty place tomorrow afternoon. It is expected that between 1,500 and 2,000 supporters of the Harp will accompany the team. The match is the 6th round of the Scottish Junior Cup competition and the opposing club is Larkhall Thistle, a team with a great reputation in the west. The Lochee boys, however are confident that their success over Dunipace can be repeated at Thistle's expense"

The game was drawn and the replay took place the following week—at Glenesk Park. A letter to the newspaper wondered whether it would be possible to fix up Tannadice Park "as the Harp v Dunipace 5th round tie had been played at Glenesk when 14,000 attended and nearly half had not seen anything like all the game".

It went ahead at Glenesk. It was quite an occasion. A special train from Monifieth and Broughty Ferry was being run to Lochee, the fare was 8d and 6d respectively. Must have been quite a bit of congestion at the Lochee station as the Monifieth train was scheduled to arrive at 2.30pm. with the Larkhall Special due at 2.32pm. The game was played on a snow covered pitch and Harp ran out 5-1 winners with all the goals coming in the second half. Andy Phin tells us it was a great game to watch!

Junicus reported in the Tele the following week after Harp had been drawn against Bridgeton Waverley in the semi final that "six members of the SJFA have turned a deaf ear to the suggestion of allocating one of the semi finals to Dundee [nothing much changed over the years with Tayport having to travel distances for eight semi finals in the 90s and naughties]. Thousands who were looking forward to witnessing Harp in their next encounter will be hard to convince that Easter Road will benefit either club or Association to any degree". For the record, Harp lost 3-0 to Bridgeton.

"Amateur Boxing at Tayport" ran the headline in the Evening Telegraph of Tuesday March 13 1934... but it could well have been "Seven Year Old Midgets in Tayport Boxing Bout"

"The Tayport Amateur Boxing and Gymnastic Club which has just become affiliated to the Scottish Amateur Boxing Association is holding a tournament in aid of club funds in the Temperance Hall, Tayport tomorrow.

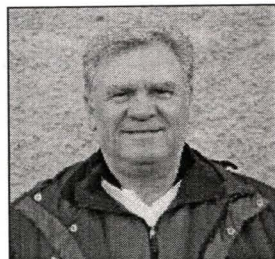

An extensive programme is to be presented with the special attraction of an exhibition by Jim Cowie, the Scottish 'Feathers' Champion.

Full list of fights. J.Smith (Tayport) v F.Mann (Dundee); J.Tennant (Tayport) v J.Miller (Dundee); J.Summers (Dundee) v T.Berry (Dundee); R.McGrady (Tayport) v S.Bell (Dundee); J.Campbell (Dundee) v W.Murphy (Dundee); J.McGraw (Dundee) v W.Sands (Dundee); W.Mouat (Newport) v J.Farmer (Strathmiglo); J.Grewar (Tayport) v J.Urquhart (RAF Leuchars).

Four midgets will also take part. J.Quinn (Tayport) v J.Buist (Tayport) and M.Hutton (Tayport) v M.Cavanagh (Tayport). The latter pair are early started in the boxing game, being only seven years old".

THE BAIKER'S BIT

Good afternoon to the Port Support and may I extend a warm welcome to our visitors Maud Juniors for this G A Engineering Cup 3rd round tie.

Last week saw us gain our first league shut-out of the season but unfortunately, as it turned out, we failed to capitalise, the game ending in a no scoring draw. If we were in a stronger league position I wouldn't have been too disappointed with the outcome but it's got to be two points dropped.

Kelty Hearts our opponents last week, like most of the sides in this division, know what's required of you at this level. Their side is packed with experience, with arguably one of the best defences in the division, we know that this area has been our Achilles heel so it's a positive that we can give praise to our defenders and hopefully they can take confidence from last Saturday's game.

Our opposition today arrive on the back of a 2-0 home defeat at the hands of Dyce Juniors who are top of the North Region Super League but prior to that defeat they'd been very much on the up. We know we'll have a difficult task on our hands to progress to the quarter finals but not one that can't be achieved. We've proved this season that we're well capable of producing good results, often against the odds in cup-ties, so that's the challenge today. If we can produce the workrate to match the quality we have, we can succeed this afternoon and progress to the last eight.

THIS AFTERNOON'S GAME

GA ENGINEERING

INTER-REGIONAL CUP Round 3

MAUD FC

It's a first ever visit to Tayport for Maud FC, their first to Tayside for three years (Blairgowrie and the now defunct Arbroath SC in 2010 were the most recent) and first to the Kingdom for five years (Thornton Hibs in a 4th round Scottish Cup tie in 2008) so it's a warm welcome to our visitors from the Buchan area of Aberdeenshire.

Although they surged through their section in the North Region's League Cup before going out to Culter in the semi final, Maud had an indifferent start to their league campaign before embarking on a run which saw them lose only once in nine games before last Saturday's loss to league leaders Dyce. It was a run which propelled today's visitors comfortably into mid-table.

Given Maud's location, equidistant from Peterhead and Fraserburgh, it's no surprise that many of the Maud squad have previously been attached to either the SPFL club or the Highland League club. A couple of the Maud players, Frazer Hall and James Duguid, were attached to Aberdeen FC as youngster. 22 years old Duguid, along with Luke Barbour and player/manager Allan Hale provide the goal threat for the young Aberdeenshire side.

Injuries have hampered Hale's selections recently and with Donald Fraser and Greg Alexander both taken off injured last week, these problems have been compounded.

Tayport too, have their injury concerns. Ross Grant suffered severe ligament damage following a bad challenge v Kelty and will be out of action for some time but there are hopes that Ryan Suttie, who missed out last week, will be available. Definitely out is Barry Donachie who remains under suspension.

Maud Boss Looks For Big Improvement Today

Maud FC player/manager Allan Hale at 26 is one of the youngest, if not the youngest, bosses in the Junior game. Allan was pretty forthright with the comments in his website column at the weekend as he expressed his dissatisfaction with his team's performance v Dyce last Saturday. Probably stung by the criticism, expect his guys to be fast out of the traps today.

The Maud team boss expressed his disappointment that his team hadn't done better against Dyce, whose 2-0 win at Maud's Pleasure Park ground sent the visitors to the top of the league.

Allan considered the Maud team, having played with a high level of confidence and arrogance in recent games, had appeared to have turned a corner with regard to levels of consistency and performance. Not so apparently although he thought his game plan was working well early on against Dyce as his team was well on top in the first half hour and was looking to capitalise on its pace and get in behind their opponents.

Things then changed dramatically after Dyce got the opening goal. The Pleasure Park boss was not at all happy at the goal and considered that his players should have averted the situation by fouling Dyce's Gordon before he got his shot away after the striker had taken possession when the Maud keeper slipped taking a free kick 30 yards from goal.

From that point the manager thought his team failed to show enough character to get back into the match. Said the boss "Some players had already accepted defeat at that point which was a major disappointment". He continued "when players roll over and accept defeat, playing with a sheer lack of effort is unacceptable and that needs to change if we are to be successful at this club. The ability and quality is certainly there within our squad and it's now that these players need to show the desire and belief to win these matches".

DUNMORE REPORTS.....

Tayport were in Super League action last weekend, with Kelty Hearts the visitors to the Canniepairt for a Fife derby. Given Tayport's predicament at the foot of the table, wins are imperative, so to gain only one point from the encounter has to go down as a bit of a disappointment. There were, however, encouraging aspects to the performance.

Sam Morris will have been delighted to record a clean sheet, Tayport's first of the league campaign. Towards half-time, Morris made stops to deny both Ross Philp and Brian Ritchie, while, after the break, he saved from Kelty substitute Paddy Deane.

For 'Port Steven McPhee drove over the top after a positive, early run. He and Grant Lawson almost capitalised on a mis-kick by visiting 'keeper Allan Fleming, but it was not until the final half hour that Tayport again threatened the Kelty rearguard. During a late spell of pressure, Kris Rollo fed Grant Lawson and he was thwarted by Fleming, while Rollo saw a powerful shot from distance blocked by a defender.

So, given the relative lack of goalmouth action, the scoreless draw was probably a fair result, but there was no shortage of desire from either camp.

Let's hope 'Port create more chances this afternoon, against Maud, in what will be another stern test for the Canniepairt outfit.

Tayport and the GA Engineering Inter-Region Cup

Since it was inaugurated, the Inter-Regional Competition has been sponsored by Zamoyski Vodka, Dundee North End Social Club, Concept Group, NCR, The Dugout and for the last few years, by GA Engineering.

Tayport played their first Tayside/North Region Cup tie back in 1990 when they exited the cup, then sponsored by Zamoyski Vodka, in the second round, beaten 2-1 by Lochee United. Maud, incidentally, fell at the first hurdle that season, losing 1-0 at home to Sunnybank.

'Port's first success came the following season when Forfar West End were beaten 2-0 in the final at North End Park. Tayport won again in 1995, were beaten finalists in 1997, triumphed again in 2000 before winning four in a row from 2002 to 2005.

On only one occasion were Tayport's cup final opponents from the North Region. That was 2005 when Sunnybank were put to the sword by 5 goals to 1.

Tayport did not enter the competition from 2006 on, deciding to reduce the number of possible games and entering only one Inter Regional Cup, the Fife/Tayside competition. Since then the Fife/Tayside competition has gone into abeyance and local cups are no longer contested resulting in only 32 games being played last season, quite a change from the 43 in 2005. Entering the GA Cup at least guaranteed one more fixture.

THE NEW LOOK OF SCOTTISH JUNIOR FOOTBALL?

The Junior game (apart from the North Region) is set to be revamped. The proposals on this page have been issued to clubs with a yes / no vote by next Friday to determine whether or not there is a willingness for change

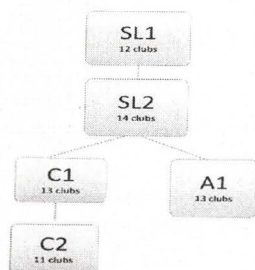

The principle behind the proposals is to bring together the East and West Superleagues, i.e. 16 + 12 teams, and form two new Superleagues - top leagues comprising 8 East and 6 West with Superleague 2 having a similar structure.

Implementation would be in 2015 / 16 based on final league positions at end of 2014 / 15.

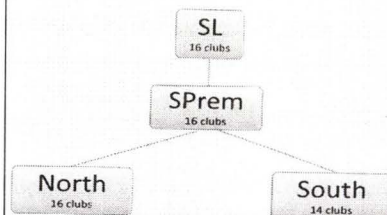

The SJFA have summarised thus: - this proposed set up will enable Junior Football to meet:

1. The challenge from outside influences.
2. Move to the next level.
3. Increase competition.
4. Potentially more media exposure.

Hillview AFC v Harvester AFC
Fintry Athletic AFC v Castlemilk Dynamo AFC

SNIFFING AROUND WITH THE SNOUT

Alan Cameron's tenure as manager at Luncarty is over. It's only a few weeks since Cameron left Newburgh for Brownlands Park, seeing the move up the A9 as perhaps an opportunity to further his ambitions in the game. For whatever reason, things have gone pear shaped at Luncarty and the committee took the decision to sack their new manager. With Murray McDowall, Cameron's predecessor, only having been in post only since the start of the season, the No 1 job at Luncarty could be looked on as something of a poisoned chalice. Alan Cameron was certainly active during his five weeks or so at the helm. He brought in seven players and transferred out two players.

Congratulations to Barry Donachie whose wife presented him with a baby boy last week whom they've named Caleb. Barry reports they are delighted by all the cards they have received. Not surprisingly, most are yellow although there has been the occasional red one!

St Andrews United raised a few eyebrows last week with their 6-0 demolition of Linlithgow Rose in the East of Scotland Cup. Saints are the first team to reach the quarter finals. To refresh the memories here's are the other seven outstanding ties.

Arniston Rangers v Bonnyrigg Rose
Camelon v Livingston United
Carnoustie Panmure v Blairgowrie
Dalkeith Thistle v Sauchie
Penicuik Athletic v Bo'ness United Tayport v Fauldhouse United
Whitburn or Hill of Beath v Kinnoull.

The defeat by St Andrews last week proved the last straw for Linlithgow manager Mark Bradley who resigned his post before he even got back into the Recreation Park dressing room. And it was apparently accepted in similar haste. After an incredible run of success since his appointment, Bradley's team has been in freefall since Christmas, posting only one win in eight games. As one might expect, there is much ongoing speculation as to who might be his successor.

Elsewhere in today's programme you will see the Scottish Junior Football Association's management committee's proposals for a restructure of the Junior game as it affects all clubs except those in the North Region. The SJFA is canvassing opinion to determine whether or not there is an appetite for change. If YOU have an opinion, please advise a committee member before next Friday as the club is required to respond to the SJFA's request for a YES/NO vote.

Today's game is the outstanding GA Cup 3rd round tie. The quarter final draw gives the winners a home tie with Deveronside. A reminder that the game today will be settled on penalty kicks if level at 90mins.

Tayport or Maud v Deveronside
Montrose Roselea v Hermes
Luncarty v Islavale
Lochee Utd v Downfield
