THIS AFTERNOON'S GAME DJ LAING EAST of SCOTLAND CUP R3 TAYPORT

v

FAULDHOUSE UNITED

We welcome Fauldhouse United to the Canniepairt for a third occasion, their most recent being a Premier Division fixture in February 2010 when goals from Lee Bryce (2) and Darren Scott gave 'Port a 3-0 win. Barry Donachie is the sole survivor from the Tayport line-up that day. Barry came on as substitute but an injury sustained at Bonnyrigg means he is unlikely to feature today.

Apart from the two league fixtures in 2009/10 this will be the third meeting of the sides in the East of Scotland Cup, the most recent being in March 2012 at Parkview, Fauldhouse when the locals dumped Tayport out of the competition by 2-0. Only Kenny McCulley survives from that Tayport team. Six of the Fauldhouse line-up that day are still at Parkview, Jamie Gallagher, Sam Scott, Jason Deans, Mark Wilkins, Kenny Martin and Gary Shanks. It is this consistency of selection which has gone a long way to provide the challenge for a Super League place which, barring a catastrophic collapse, looks to be in the bag.

As the results alongside show, it wasn't the best of starts to the season for Fauldhouse with only nine points from the opening half dozen games but thereafter a run of seven wins on the bounce took them to the top of the table.

Last week at Glenesk, Fauldhouse were held to a 3-3 draw by Violet but by all accounts were unlucky not to have taken all three points. Fauldhouse, despite being short of full strength, lost out to a superb free kick in the last minute from Violet's former Tayport youngster Keir Reilly.

Making their Canniepairt debuts are young defenders Matty Allan and Scott Mollison. Both are full timers at Dens Park and have been signed on loan from Dundee FC until the end of the season. Matty made his debut last week at Bonnyrigg and Scott, signed yesterday, will be in squad for this afternoon. Ross Grant will still miss out through injury and it's likely Barry Donachie will also be an injury absentee.

If the tie is all square after 90 minutes, penalties will decide who goes into the last eight.

SQUEAKY BUM TIME LOOMING LARGE

The impact of the re-structure of the East Region League's four divisions will become apparent as the season moves into its last two months.

Just to re-cap, the situation is as follows

- The bottom two teams in the Super League will be relegated
- Their places will be taken by the top two teams in the Premier League
- The team finishing third bottom of the Super League will meet the team finishing third top in the Premier League in a two legged end of season play-off.
- The bottom four clubs in the Premier League will be relegated
- Their places will be taken by the teams finishing in the top two places in the North Division and the South Division.

With at least a quarter of the season yet to be played in the case of most teams, there's a long way to go and no doubt many twists and turns along the way.

In the extremely unlikely and hypothetical situation of there being no change to teams' current positions over the next couple of months the situation as described above would be as follows.

Champions	Bo'ness United
Automatically Relegated to Premier Division	St Andrews United Tayport
Automatically Promoted to Super League	Fauldhouse United Oakley United
Playing off to determine next season's status	Ballingry Rovers v Jeanfield Swifts
Relegated from Premier Division	Dundee Violet
	Kirrie Thistle
	Livingston United Pumpherston
Promoted from North Division to Premier Division	Dundee North End & Kennoway Star
Promoted from South Division to Premier Division	Edinburgh United & Blackburn United

FROM THE ARCHIVES

FOOTBALL.....TAYPORT.....THE WORLD

This weekend 10 years ago in March 2004

On March 2004 Tayport were bowling along in fine style on a 17 game unbeaten run which had stretched back to the beginning of November. There were still 19 games to play before the season would end. Davie Baikie was in his second spell as manager and would come so, so, very close to repeating the Scottish Cup and Super League success of the previous season. The Scottish Cup was surrendered to Carnoustie Panmure after a 0-0 draw and the Super League title was lost to Linlithgow Rose on the slimmest of margins. Both clubs finished on the same points. Linlithgow's goal difference was 19, Tayport's was 18.

On Saturday 27 March Tayport played a Scottish Cup quarter final tie at Cambuslang Rangers before a healthy attendance of 1513. A late goal from Barry McNaughton took Tayport through to the last four. The line-up was Frazer Fitzpatrick, Scott Peters, Grant Paterson, John Ward, Derek We-myss, Roberto Morris, Steven Stewart, Barry McNaughton, Brian Craik, Allan Ramsay and Sean Christie. Ralph Hunter, Kevin Heenan and John Elliott came on as substitutes.

70 years ago this week in March 1944 with the Second World War just fifteen months from its conclusion The Evening Telegraph's main story was a report on the bombing of Nuremberg. "Last night aircraft of Bomber Command were over Germany in very great strength, main object was Nuremberg. Ninety six of our aircraft were missing. Last night's losses were the heaviest yet experienced by the RAF in a single night's operations". The German News Agency had a different view. The Tele reported their statement which read "German air defences report the destruction of at least 132 four engined British bombers in last night's operations against the Reich"

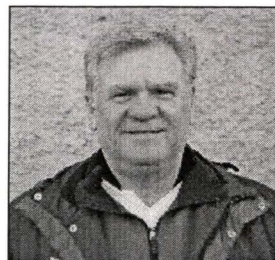

This week in March 1944 in Tayport

26 cinemas in Dundee in 1944 but only one in Tayport - the Tayport Picture House which was showing 'Sing, You Sinners' starring Bing Crosby and Fred MacMurray.

Fife's Food Control Committee refused Wm Gibb & Son's Whitenhill Bakery a peripatetic catering licence

Mrs E H Simpson 18 Broad Street [site of the former Clydesdale Bank, consigned to history in Tayport and soon to suffer the same fate in Newport] was granted a transfer of a retail licence formerly held by Charles Watson.

THE BAIKER'S BIT

Good afternoon to the Port Support and a warm welcome to the players and officials of our visitors Fauldhouse United for this 3rd Round East of Scotland Cup tie.

Last week saw us lose once again by the odd goal, this time at Bonnyrigg. I don't have many complaints with the 3-2 reversal. Overall we just came up short, but it wasn't looking like that in the first 35/40mins, a period where we were dominant. We pressed them all over the pitch, in possession we were creating and causing them a lot of problems and had we taken one of our chances to go 2-0 up, there may well have been a different outcome.

Another pleasing aspect for me was that there were no individual errors. If I was to be critical, it's possible both of their 2nd half goals could have been prevented had we pressed the ball sharper. We've scored 5 goals in our last 2 games with nothing to show for it and although this is frustrating, it is also encouraging.

This afternoon we face a side who are favourites to win the Premier League title and are playing with a lot of confidence and scoring a lot of goals. We must therefore be conscious of that going in to this game.

The prize today is a quarter-final place in a cup second only to the Scottish Junior Cup. I want to be in that draw and believe we can be, if produce the standard and the commitment of which we are capable.

Disappointment for Mark

Local lad Mark Whatley (pictured), who had 75 appearances for Tayport from November 2009 to May 2012, and is now playing for Spartans in Edinburgh, had a day of mixed fortunes last Sunday in the Lowland League's Image Printers East of Scotland Qualifying Cup Final against Whitehill Welfare at Craigroyston's St Mark's Park in Warriston Edinburgh. It was by all accounts a cracking match.

Whitehill went ahead but Mark equalised before half time. Spartans suffered a blow in the second period when ace marksman Keith McLeod received a straight red. The sides were still level after the regulation 90 and when Sean Muhsin put Spartans ahead in 112 minutes, the ten men looked to have the game in the bag. Unfortunately the referee saw fit to issue a red card for a second yellow to Spartan's Alan Brown for his celebration of the goal. Down to nine men for the final eight minutes, Spartans were on the back foot and lost the equaliser in the final minute to tie the game up at 2-2.

Whitehill took full advantage of their last gasp leveller and lifted the cup by virtue of a 5-4 margin in the penalty shoot out.

Spartans' boss Dougie Samuel posted a somewhat emotive postscript to the match on Monday. Samuel wrote -

A disappointing performance at Rosewell 2 weeks ago [a 3-1 league defeat by Whitehill] had left a cloud of self-doubt hanging over us. To lose any game is disappointing, to do so and be charged with a 'lack of stomach' for a battle is all the more difficult to take. Yesterday our Team showed it has heart, character, desire and talent...against the biggest, most physical WWFC side Micky [Lawson, Whitehill manager] could pick on the day.

Despite losing on penalties, our heart-beat is strong...we remain focused on our key goals for the season, but also the long term. Make no mistake about it, we wanted to win yesterday...as was reflected in our performance and superb work ethic on the day. However, as strange as it may sound & seem to some, I firmly believe we gained more (in terms of the long term game) than we lost yesterday.

Post match (straight after extra time) Micky was kind enough to acknowledge we had been the better team on the day (as did Mr Whitehill himself, Peter McGauley). As a Coach and Manager you encourage and invite your players to 'control the controllables'. After going down to 10 men, I believe we demonstrated our mental strength, we remained committed to playing our own brand and style of football on a big stage...something which bodes well for the future. Our collective fitness levels shone through...were there for all to see, as our players worked tirelessly to show for the ball, retain possession and aim to dictate the tempo of the game.

After a pretty scrappy opening 30 mins, when there was only a handful of goal attempts in the game, we finished the 1st half well on top, on the front foot. For me, the 2nd half started as the 1st half had ended...before we lost our talisman Cloudy [Keith McLeod], to our 1st red card. Was it a penalty beforehand...when Cloudy was fouled, who knows...on another day, it could have been given. However, most people would agree the defining moment turned out to be our 2nd red card for Hovie [Alan Brown], who had produced an 'mom' level of performance on the day. Based on what people I trust have told me post match and today, it was a harsh decision.

Missing our top 3 pen takers in the shoot out made it all the more difficult, however, fair play to the Whitehill Welfare players who scored, the quality of their pens was very good. I've said it before, 'The Welfare' are an experienced, strong; physical and capable side.

We may have left without the cup, however, we left the arena knowing we had competed and left nothing in our tank. We go into the final furlong of the season damaged by the suspensions we will now face (added to the absence of several players due to injury). However, we also go into the final furlong with a huge desire that's even greater on the back of yesterday and without a monkey or two on our back.

This team's best days lie ahead, the core of this new side is still to reach its peak. Yesterday was another log on the fire, another experience banked on a more significant journey. Roll on Castle Douglas [next match v Threave Rovers], when we will go all out to increase our lead at the top of the Lowland League table.

DUNMORE REPORTS.....

The last couple of matches have been high-scoring affairs, but five goals for and seven against meant that Tayport didn't pick up any reward in terms of Super League points.

A fortnight ago, Broxburn Athletic came to town and left with a 4-3 victory. 'Port competed well throughout, but the concession of two penalties did not help the cause. Grant Lawson pounced to open the scoring on 18 minutes, but a 40th minute spot kick, awarded for hand-ball, drew Broxburn level.

Frustratingly, another penalty was awarded early in the second half and the visitors found themselves 2-1 up. Impressively, Tayport roared back into the lead. The goalkeeper's foul on Connaire Connelly saw the referee point to the spot for the third time and Steven McPhee levelled the score.

A corner led to Tayport's third, with Paul Thomson on hand to convert at the far post, with twenty minutes to play. Unfortunately, two goals in quick succession put paid to the home side's hopes. Fraser Yeast and Scott Pittman were the 'Burn marksmen, in the 78th and 79th minute.

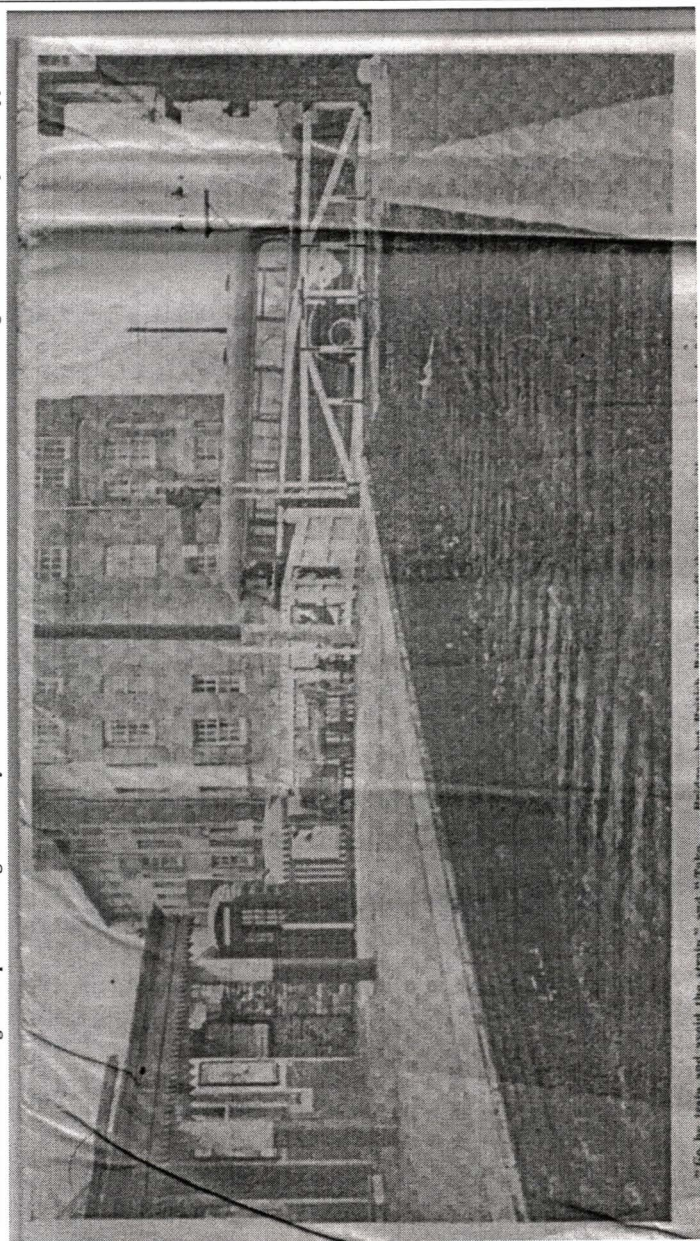

Tayport also led at title-chasing Bonnyrigg last weekend. Matty Adam latched onto a Kris Rollo pass to take the ball past the 'keeper and roll home the opener, as early as the third minute.

Try's they might, 'Port could not quite add what would have been a crucial second goal. Several corners were forced and Ryan Suttie had a header cleared off the line, but 'Rigg equalised towards half-time, through Roseburgh.

The New Dundas Park men were more of a threat after the break and Sam Morris made a couple of saves before McLeish headed the hosts into the lead, on 73 minutes. Sean Grady grabbed another to put the game beyond Tayport, although Steven McPhee notched the last counter of the afternoon, in injury-time, with a little help from the returning Simon Murray.

Tayport Railway Station in October 1966 was looked after by three members of staff but...there were no trains. Indeed, as the pic from 48 years ago shows, there were no railway lines. Travelling to Dundee, you bought a ticket from the booking office (3/6d [17.5p] for a cheap day return, clamoured aboard a bus which was waved off by a railwayman. The bus took you to Newport East Station where you continued your journey by train to Dundee. The road bridge had opened in August of that year and buses ran direct to Dundee across the new bridge. Fare was 3/8d [about 19p]

SNIFFING AROUND WITH THE SNOOT

No great surprise with the announcement that John McGlashan, who stepped down from the Tayport job in September this season to look after Dundee FC's Under 17s, was last week appointed to the manager's post at Dundee Violet. John had a short spell as Violet boss in 2005 before taking up his four year tenure at Arbroath FC.

Perth based former Tayport striker Robbie Henderson did not have long to wait after being released by Luncarty. He was quickly signed up by promotion chasing Jeanfield and although he notched on his debut, it was to no avail, Swifts going down 2-1 to Dalkeith Thistle at the Riverside Stadium.

Linlithgow Rose earlier this week announced that 'club legend' Danny Smith, the Camelon manager, has been appointed to the Prestonfield hot seat. Smith was well tipped to be Mark Bradley's successor but the timing has been unfortunate with Camelon playing a Scottish Junior Cup quarter final today.

There's a tenuous connection between Tayport and Fauldhouse United. Jimmy Toner, a former Fauldhouse legend, now 90 years of age, won two Scottish League Cup medals as the No.7 in the Dundee side which beat Rangers in 1952 and Kilmarnock in 1953. Jimmy's son Barry played for Tayport, then an amateur side, in 1981, the season that the club won its only Midlands Amateur Championship. A teammate of Barry's in that title winning side was Tayport FC's record amateur goalscorer Ian Howe, a present Canniepairt regular. Both Barry and Ian also played in the Tayport side which won an international tournament in Belgium that season.

Also a current Canniepairt regular is Ian's father, Jock Howe, who played for Tayport Violet in 1945/46. It transpires that Jock and Jimmy Toner are still active sportsmen as members of the same bowling team at Dundee Indoor Bowling Club.

And there's a further Tayport FC connection whereby Tayport FC's current No 6 John Toner (yes, the different spellings are a bit confusing), is the grandson of Ian Howe's Uncle Bill who plays in that same bowling team with Jock and Jimmy.

Gus Malone, the former Tayport player at both amateur and junior level, has achieved a degree of respectability it would appear. Appointed as St Andrews United manager following the recent illness suffered by previous incumbent Jim Hardie, Gus is addressed in the Saints' match programme as Mr Gordon Malone! It's his Sunday name but a lot of people don't know that!

Tayport will be without Simon Murray, Jake Mair and Nik Mann today. Simon Murray declined to play v Fauldhouse today as he would have required to sign up until the end of the season. The other two have decided their future lies elsewhere and have until Monday to find a new club. On the positive side Matty Allan and Scott Mollison have arrived at the Canniepairt on loan from Dundee FC until the end of the season. Both have been key members of the Dark Blues' Under 20s this season.
