Scottish Junior Cup Update

Camelon are the sole survivors

The four semi finalists were finally decided last weekend when Irvine Meadow and Camelon joined Tayport's conquerors Hurlford United and Glenafton in the last four.

Camelon, flying the flag for the East Region, crushed Whitletts Vics by 7-0 in a one sided tie which was a personal triumph for the Mariners' Kevin Kelbie who netted four goals.

Bo'ness were unlucky not to get a second chance to join Camelon in the semis. Trailing to a goal after 20 minutes, they had a gilt edged chance to draw level 15 minutes from the end when they were awarded a penalty but Meadow keeper Stephen Hall saved Darren Gribben's spot kick

FROM THE ARCHIVES FOOTBALL.....TAYPORT.....THE WORLD

What a cultured place Tayport must have been 75 years ago!

In the Evening Telegraph of 4th April 1929 there was the following report on a concert given by the Tayport Choral Society.

"What proved to be one of the finest concerts held in Tayport for some time was given in the Temperance Hall [now Gregory Hall] last night by the recently revived Tayport Choral Society. The first half of the programme consisted of part songs and vocals and instrumental items. The artistes were Miss Main, soprano; Mr Reg Donaldson, baritone; Miss N.Tough, elocutionist; and Mrs Grieve and Mr R.Ingram, violinists. The Ladies Choral section also rendered the Requiem, and "Orpheus and his Lute" - the former being repeated by special request. Part two consisted of selections from Mari-tana, choruses. The soloists were Miss Mechan, soprano; Miss Cumming, contralto; Mr W.McGuigan, tenor; and Mr A.J.G Robertson, baritone. Mr R.Wedderspoon conducted and Mrs Calder was accompanist"

The town's football team didn't seem to be doing much in 1929, being well overshadowed by the Choral Society!

Tayport Harbour was a busy and bustling wee port 75 years ago.

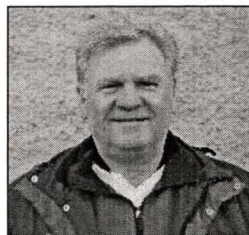

This weekend in 1929 the "Oswin" had just docked on arrival from Arzew in Algeria with a cargo of esparto grass for the Guardbridge paper mill.

114 years ago in 1900, the Evening Telegraph reported that it had "received a letter today from the secretary of Tayport FC inquiring if it will be possible for them to participate in the Glasgow Clothing Cup, the competition for which they are anxious to take part in. We believe however that one of the rules of the competition is that clubs must be within a radius of six miles of the city. Tayport should send a representative to tonight's general meeting when matters may be satisfactorily arranged".

Despite it's title, it appears to have been a cup for Dundee based clubs. We don't know if the six miles was measured by the train journey or by the Tay Ferries but had there been a Tay Road Bridge Tayport might well have squeezed within the six mile limit. First played for in 1892/93 it was won by Everton (!), the following year by East Craigie then it appeared not to have been played for until 1899/00 when it was won by Dundee Violet. Whether Tayport's request was successful, we are unaware, but it didn't really matter as Violet's win the following year for a second successive season was the last time the Glasgow Clothing Cup was heard of.

Not much has really changed in a period spanning three centuries. The Fife & Lothians Cup committee still refuses to accept that Tayport is in Fife thus preventing the club's participation in that competition.

THE BAIKER'S BIT

Linlithgow Rose provide our opposition for this afternoon's Super League match, I'd like welcome their players and officials to the Canniepairt. I'd also like take this opportunity to thank our fans for their support and loyalty.

Last week saw us advance into the quarter finals of the DJ Laing Group East of Scotland Cup with a 3-0 home victory over East Region Premier Division leaders Fauldhouse United.

I felt reasonably confident going in to this game despite losing out to Bonnyrigg Rose and Broxburn in our previous two games. I felt we'd played well and with a bit more composure in latter stages of both game we most certainly could have taken more than we ended up with.

We scored first v Fauldhouse as we did in both previous games but the difference this time around was we managed to score a second which gave us the confidence to go on to win comfortably.

Hopefully the success of last week can give our players a boost going into this afternoon's game against Linlithgow. Rose arrive on the back of a good run of victories and of course have a new manager today, so we know the task we face this afternoon. It isn't going to be easy but certainly not impossible. If we produce the workrate and commitment of which we are capable, then we can achieve a positive outcome.

THIS AFTERNOON'S GAME McBOOKIE.COM SUPER LEAGUE TAYPORT

McBookie

We wish Linlithgow Rose a warm welcome to the Canniepairt as they go chasing a second successive Super League title. Following a pretty flawless campaign last season it looked as if the Rosey Posey were set to repeat their achievement this time round when they collected 31 points from a possible 33 from their opening 11 games. A 4-1 cuffing from near neighbours and bitter rivals Bo'ness United changed all that. A failure to win any of the next six league games and finally the astonishing 6-0 defeat in the East of Scotland Cup along the road at St Andrews piled the pressure on Manager Mark Bradley and he did what managers tend to do in these circumstances, he jumped before he was pushed.

Secretary Jim Harkins took over in the wheelhouse and steadied the ship and indeed made good progress with three league wins out of three to keep Rose in contention for the title.

During Jim's spell of stewardship there was great speculation as to who would succeed Bradley. The Rose committee was in no hurry but eventually the puff of smoke was sighted and Prestonfield legend Danny Smith was announced as the new Linlithgow boss.

There were a few raised eyebrows at the timing, given that Danny, as Camelon manager, had just guided the Mariners into the last eight of the Scottish Junior Cup. It was agreed he would continue to be in charge of Camelon for their quarter final tie last week. And what a way to bow out - a 7-0 win over Whitlells Vics to take a place in the semi final next Saturday.

In his first game this afternoon Danny Smith is unlikely to tamper too much with his line-up. He played alongside some of his new charges so he'll be looking to hit the ground running. Recent headline grabbing signing from Pollok, striker, Iain Diack should start today.

Tayport boss Dave Baikie has of course, secured his place in Linlithgow's history by leading Rose to the 2010 Scottish Junior Cup with a 1-0 win in the final over Largs Thistle.

Tayport will be without Kenny McCulley this afternoon after he sustained a foot injury following a bad tackle v Fauldhouse but Barry Donachie and Ross Grant aren't far away from a return.

DUNMORE REPORTS.....

Last weekend saw Tayport take a break from the grind of the Super League campaign, with the East of Scotland Cup providing the distraction.

The inter-regional competition is not one in which the Canniepairt outfit have enjoyed any real success, but, thanks to Saturday's win against Fauldhouse, 'Port are now through to the last eight of the tournament.

'Hoose came to town as favourites to progress, by virtue of their status as top dogs in the East Premier League, but Tayport always had the edge. Matty Adam set the ball rolling on eighteen minutes, when he steered his shot into the corner of the net, from the edge of the area.

There were other chances during the first half, but only one goal separated the sides at the interval. A fantastic start to the second half saw the hosts quickly double that advantage and demoralise their visitors. Thirty-five seconds after the restart, Matty Adam latched onto a Steven McPhee flick and bundled home his second counter of the afternoon.

With fifteen minutes remaining, any doubt as to the outcome was removed when Steven McPhee whipped over a free kick from wide on the left and Fauldhouse defender Adam Fairweather headed the ball into his own net, making it 3-0.

Frustration got the better of visiting Kevin Ross in the closing stages. After being booked for hauling down Steven McPhee at the corner flag, the Fauldhouse man then chopped down substitute Dale Robertson, as 'Port threatened on the break. Ross was shown a second yellow card, followed by the inevitable red.

There was little time for Dave Baikie's men to add to their tally, although Connaire Connelly should perhaps have scored from close range. It mattered not, however, as a confidence-boosting victory and a place in the quarter-finals had long since been secured.

Jake and Nik move on

Dundee Violet and Downfield both beat the transfer deadline on Monday past to secure the transfers of Jake Mair and Nik Mann, respectively.

Jake (left) signed from Arbroath FC and made his debut in a 2-1 home win over Oakley on 29 December 2012.

Jake made 14 starts and 18 substitute appearances, scoring two goals

Nik (left), also signed from Arbroath, made his debut in a 1-1 draw at Armadale on 9 February 2013.

Nik made 15 starts and also appeared as substitute on 15 occasions, scoring seven goals.

We wish both players the best of fortune with their new clubs.

Fraser Grateful For Support

Tayport youngster Fraser Anderson would like to thanks all at Tayport FC and Cobbies Inn who kindly gave a donation towards his CYP * International Tournament sponsorship.

Fraser, who plays for DUSC in the Dundee Sunday Boys League, has been selected for the Scottish CYP 4 day training camp at Kilwinning under the guidance of Andy Heggie, formerly of Tayport FC, in preparation for the forthcoming Internationals in Wales in May and Northern Ireland in Belfast in June.

It will be a hectic spell for Madras College pupil Fraser on his return. His DUSC team need one win to clinch their League championship title and then he has two cup finals to look forward to at North End Park.

John is the son of Tayport FC committee member John Anderson.

* Clubs for Young People (CYP) helps young people to achieve their potential through social and personal development opportunities. It provides support to its network of members, as well as delivering a national programme of initiatives.

CYP Scotland is the parent organisation of 5 regional federations and strives to maintain the high standards required by the National Association.

An Afternoon at Tayport
by a Fauldhouse fan as posted online

A Half hearted and Hapless at times Hoose were Humped by a Tenacious and Talented Tayport young Team who eventually ran over the top of us. With Murph, Rees, Jason Deans, Jamie Gal, Chilli, Kenny and Mark all missing from the first team 11 the Hoose had a change of personnel which highlighted how far behind we are when the reserves get a run out. The squad as is will not be good enough to cope if we go up if yesterday is anything to go by.

To be honest, there wasn't much in the first half although to my eye Tayport looked better all round with some good players (the 9 was excellent as was the orange bitted wee number 9. Tayport scored when the Hoose continued their fanning about at the back routine and left the young 9 with plenty of space on the edge of the box to stroke a well controlled side foot finish past young Callum. The Hoose came close a couple of times and nearly went in at 1-1 courtesy of a thunderous own goal attempt which crashed off the crossbar.

The game was over as a contest a minute into the 2nd half when the Hoose gifted the 9 a second which he seemed to stumble over into the net. A Hoose own goal to make it 3-0 finished the scoring but it could (and probably should) have been 5 or 6. We got humped eventually as they were fitter and seemed to want it more. If you couple those attributes with undoubted ability then you should win and they did.. Easily in the end.

Special mention to the foul mouthed Tayport fan with the black peaked cap, old Dave I think he is called... Brilliant shouts, great abuse to anybody who did anything against his side. I wish every team had someone like that... Too often we go away to a graveyard sounding place. I also spoke again to a guy who saw us at Dundee Violent the week before and I bet he will have been disappointed at the Hopeless Hoose, good chat though and it goes to show that we are all just fans at the end of the day who can share the game and have a laugh. I shook hands with dirty mouth Dave after the game and wished them well... We have big fish to fry and I hope we have a full team out or we have no chance. Also quite perversely enjoyed some abuse to the never quiet Buckie boys when the 3rd goal went in. Touché ! And one great shout from a Tayport guy who on hearing a Buckie boy rant came back with "you must have finished yer bottle then?" Class...

Good performances though from young Callum who made some good saves, the lad Wardlaw (waiting for legend 5 to come in here!) and steady away from a few others. We picked up our customary sending off from our red card addicted defender who has more cards now than Clintons... No wonder they went bust. I doubt he will play again this season... The lad has had 5 or 6 red cards and we have only played 24 league games. Do the maths... Whose fault is it? The refs are pish but they can't ALL be wrong all the time. People who know me will know what I feel about this..... If a team can't guarantee finishing with 11 players then you have liabilities in the team. Davie Cowan, over to you.... I am sure he will sort it.

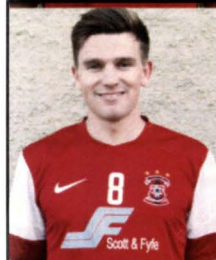

So despite driving on the inside lane of the Forth Bridge trying to shake the jinx and leaving earlier and wearing different socks and clean underwear, nothing worked and we came back over the "road in the sky" wondering if Fife and beyond really is a bridge too far and with the distant lands of the premier league looking more frightening and further away and a bigger challenge than many think. We weren't just over the bridge, we were a million miles away.

Mon back down to earth!

SNIFFING AROUND WITH THE SNOOT

Further to the piece in last week's programme about Jimmy Toner, or as he's better known, the Legendary Jimmy Toner. Jimmy now 90 and living in Broughty Ferry, is the last surviving member of the team which brought the Scottish Junior Cup back to Fauldhouse in 1946. He was unable to make Tayport's East of Scotland Cup match v Fauldhouse last week as his team had a bowling match at the Dundee Indoor Bowling Rink and he couldn't get a substitute to take his place. Jimmy netted one of the Fauldhouse goals in their 3-0 win over Arthurlie in the '46 final at Hampden Park in front of an attendance of 44,326. It was the first of three major football medals Jimmy would win, the others being Scottish League Cup medals with Dundee FC in 1952 and 1953.

Good news for Keith Gibson who was on loan to Tayport from Forfar Athletic earlier in the season as part of his rehabilitation after a lengthy break through injury. Keith is back in the Loons' first team squad and was on the bench for their SPFL game with East Fife last weekend.

Climate Change! For the worse if this is an indication. We are advised that, on checking his diary for 1964, a Tayport old timer's entry for 11 April 1964 read 'in swimming for the first time this year'. The reference was to the Council constructed tidal seawater pool in the River Tay at Tayport Esplanade, just across the East Common from the Canniepairt. If the weather this past week is anything to go by, they were either pretty tough in these days or the spring weather was a darned sight warmer.

This year's Scottish Junior FA Annual general Meeting will take place in Dunfermline on Saturday 21 June.

It must be a first. A club advertising for a manager the week after they reach the semi finals of the Scottish Junior Cup. But that's the situation at Camelon after manager Danny Smith vacated the Carmuir Park hot seat to take the reins at Prestonfield, making his Linlithgow managerial debut at the Canniepairt this afternoon.

Ron Nicoll, Dick Smith and Andy Phin were more than surprised when they saw their picture on the club's website last week. The three were sound asleep on the coach returning from Bonnyrigg Rose, no doubt lost in their dreams... probably the same dream... of Tayport one day winning a league game away from home!

The draw for the quarter finals of the East of Scotland Cup is awaited but with six of the eight quarter final ties yet to be played, there's no rush.

Through to the last eight are St Andrews United and Tayport. Carnoustie Panmure meet Blairgowrie and Arnis Rangers meet Bonnyrigg Rose, both ties this afternoon. The other outstanding ties are Hill of Beath v Kinnoull; Camelon v Livingston United; Penicuik Athletic v Bo'ness United; Dalkeith Thistle v Sauchie.
